David Janssen

As Harry O'Neill in the ABC Television Network's new hour series "Harry O," David Janssen stars in his fourth TV role. He previously played the title role in the "Richard Diamond, Detective," "The Fugitive," and "O'Hara, U.S. Marshal."

In his new character, Janssen will be seen as an ex-police detective who has been pensioned because of an injury suffered in the line of duty.

While Janssen lists Niagara, Neb., as his birthplace, the consider Hollywood his home town after being taken there as a small child when his mother divorced his father. When his mother married again, David took the name Janssen.

At the age of 9, David made his acting debut as Johnny Walsmuller's kid brother in "Swamp Fire." Another early role was with ice skating star Sonja Henie in "It's a Pleasure."

At Fairfax High School he distinguished himself in sports, particularly in basketball and track, and was good enough to get an athletic scholarship to USC, which he was never to use because of a twisted knee.

Deciding his future lay in acting, he appeared in summer stock in Maine, then went to New York where he did a variety of jobs while trying to crack Broadway. A break seemed to come when he danced in a Mike Todd musical but it was short-lived.

Another break developed when 20th Century-Fox placed Janssen under contract but the studio dropped him when his resemblance to Clark Gable was noticed.

Universal subsequently signed him and he was given courses in drama, dancing, fencing, horserback riding and some minor acting parts.

ABC Examines Lawyers

ABC News examines the legal profession in areas that have triggered growing controversy—fees, ethics and competence—on the documentary special, "ABC News Close-Up on Lawyers: Guilty as Charged?" Saturday, April 19 (7:00-8:00 p.m.) on the ABC Television Network.

The documentary is the work of ABC News Vice President and Director of Television Documentaries, said in announcing the program: "The public complains that lawyers charge too much. The bar has been accused of falling to police their own behavior."

First Ladies Dines

Rachel Jackson, wife of Andrew Jackson, seventh President of the United States, is the subject of an intimate biographical drama, "First Ladies Dines: Rachel Jackson," to be broadcast Friday, April 18 (12:30-2:00 p.m.) on the ABC Television Network.

The drama is the first of three 90-minute daytime specials, in observance of America's Bicentennial celebration, exploring the lives of First Ladies of the United States.

The focal point of the Jacksons' story is the controversy surrounding them during their entire marriage and for much of his political career. The label of adulteress attached to Rachel because she was unwarned at the time of her marriage to Jackson that her first marriage—to Louis Robards—hadn't been legally dissolved.

The dramatization will be written as though it were derived from Rachel Jackson's personal diary and will explore her thoughts and emotions.

Paul Rauch, producer of the drama, said he served as executive producer of NBC-TV's daytime drama series "Another World" since 1972. Prior to that, he was Vice President, Programs, and Vice President, Daytime Programs, at CBS-TV in New York. The director of "Another World," recently received critical praise for his direction of the off-Broadway play, "Naughty Court."

The two subsequent "First Ladies Dines" specials will be presented in the fall and winter of this year.

World of Wonder

World of Wonder, a CBS special on the life of the colorful and controversial "Houdini" impersonator, Harry Houdini, will air Sunday, April 19 (10:00-11:00 p.m.) on the ABC Television Network.

The special, "The Game of Survival," will be broadcast on the ABC Television Network.

Intimate portrait of JFK in production for NBC

"Johnny, We Hardly Knew Ye," the acclaimed best-selling book offering an informative and intimate portrait of John F. Kennedy by two of his trusted aides, will be adapted for presentation as a drama special on the NBC Television Network. It was announced by William F. Storke, Vice President, Special Programs, NBC-TV.

Award winner David Susskind will produce the special, a two-hour drama. It is the work of the Kennedy Library Association, an association with NBC-TV.

The book was written by Kenneth P. O'Donnell and David F. Powers with Joe McCarthy, O'Donnell and Powers were associated with JFK for 12 eventful years—from the day the wounded World War II hero entered politics in Boston during 1946 to his assassination in Dallas in 1963.

Powers will be consultant for the special. O'Donnell once noted that, "President Kennedy had only one really close friend and that was Dave Powers." Names of cast members, the director and adapter are to be announced.

In the book, O'Donnell and Powers detail their association with JFK through his Senatorial campaigns, the Presidential primaries, Democratic convention and campaign of 1960, and the years at the White House. Subtitled "Memories of John Fitzgerald Kennedy," the book drew its main title from a recurring line in the lyric of an Irish folk song that runs, "O, Johnny, I hardly knew ye." A sign bearing the line from the song had been held up for the Presidential party to see when President Kennedy ended his trip to Ireland in 1963.

"Johnny, We Hardly Knew Ye," published by Little, Brown and Company in 1972, was on The New York Times Best Seller list for more than five months. A Pocket Books edition, issued in 1973, went into a fifth printing.

American policy toward Israel examined in CBS News Special

The extent and changing nature of America's support of Israel in its struggle to maintain an existence in the Middle East, will be examined and assessed in light of President Ford's recent call for a U.S. policy review of "all aspects and all countries" in that troubled area of the world, on the CBS News Special, "THE U.S. COMMITMENT TO ISRAEL: How Strong? How Long?" to be broadcast Monday, April 21 (9:00-10:00 p.m.) on the CBS Television Network.

Anchored by CBS News Correspondent Charles Collingwood, the broadcast will feature interviews with Iranian controlled oil supplies, the implications of any U.S. military involvement in the Middle East.

The acclaimed "QB VII" to air on ABC on three successive nights

"QB VII," the precedent-setting film which was seen by an estimated 57 million people when it was first broadcast, returns to the ABC Television Network in three parts airing on successive nights, Tuesday, April 22, Wednesday, April 23, and Thursday, April 24. (Rebroadcast)

Kay Gardella, reviewing "QB VII" in the New York Daily News, said the film "should keep you riveted to your set... It's like turning the pages of a book and painstakingly browsing through it without a feeling of pressure."

Bob MacKenzie of the Oakland Tribune said, "It is as finely wrought as it is big; it not only transfers a huge novel to the screen but improves it considerably in the process."

Welcomed as a sign of things to come (the ABC Television Network has several more Novels for Television planned for extended presentation), "QB VII" was filmed in four countries—the United States, Belgium, England and Israel—at an estimated cost in excess of $2.5 million. The film involved almost three years of writing, production and editing, and called upon an international cast of stars headed by Ben Gazzara with co-stars Anthony Hopkins, Leslie Caron and Lee Remick.

The story covers more than 25 years in the lives of Abe Cady (Ben Gazzara) and Dr. Adam Keino (Anthony Hopkins), beginning with Dr. Keino's arrival at an American Army hospital in Poland after he is liberated from a Nazi concentration camp.

After being cleared of war crimes charges Keino dedicates his life to medical work in the desert, but some years later an American writer, Abe Cady, repeats the changes in a best-selling book, and Keino must once again face the agonies of his wartime memories.

The question of Keino's guilt or innocence must be per-mattingly settled in the courtroom of Queen's Bench VII, a battleground from which only one man can leave with his honor intact.

Emmy-winner Tom Gries directed the drama, which was aired in two parts in its original presentation, from from the script by two-time Academy Award-winner Edward Anhalt. Douglas S. Cramer was producer for Screen Gems and The Douglas S. Cramer Company. Also In The Cast:

"Days Of Our Lives"

"Days of Our Lives," NBC Television Network's popular afternoon drama, will become television's second one-hour daytime drama series when it is expanded to a full-hour format beginning Monday, April 21 (12:30-1:30 p.m.). It was announced by Lin Bolen, Vice President, Daytime Programs, NBC-TV brought the one-hour form in daytime drama to network television January 6 when "Another World" was extended to the 2:00-3:00 p.m. time period.

"For almost 10 years, 'Days of Our Lives' was the opening show of an extremely strong afternoon block of drama on NBC," Bolen said. "This latest move will enable us to return to that successful scheduling format and continue NBC's pioneering effort of bringing the long-form to daytime television."

"Cannon"

Cannon's long friendship with a former police comrade plunges him into the midst of a terrorist's vendetta against the policeman, Lt. Lyle Stacey, in "The Exchange" on "Cannon" (8:00-10:00 p.m.), first half of "The Detectives," starring CANNON and THE MANHUNTER, Wednesday, April 23 on the CBS Television Network. George McCowan directed from a script by Jackson Gillis. (Rebroadcast)

Guest star Robert Loggia plays Luis

Gutierrez, who, already wanted for the murder of Stacey's partner, vows to avenge his brother's death by killing Stacey. Stacey rejects Cannon's offer of assistance and then mysteriously disappears.

"Make a Wish"

Greece, who explains all the possibilities of "lock."

On location at the Erie Canal, which links the Hudson River with Lake Erie, 76-year-old Albert Geyer takes viewers on a nostalgic tour of the locks at the canal. In the second segment of "Make a Wish," Chaplin talks and sings about "head"... there are headlights, headlights and headquarters.

If you were the word, "lock," you could be the lock on the barn door that people lock after the horse has gone... and if you were "head," you might be head-over-heels in love. "Lock" and "head" are the words explored on ABC News' "Make a Wish," the Emmy Award-winning children's information series, Sunday, April 20 (10:30-10:55 a.m.), on the ABC Television Network. (Retrocast)

"Make a Wish" meets up with singing host Tom Chaplin in

(Editor's Note: Public Notice advertising plays a unique role both in American history and in the process by which this country's democracy is preserved. Its one premise is that people must be informed if they are to govern themselves competently. Public Notice advertising first came into being with the Congress of 1792. That body, recognizing its responsibility to the people, released the Postmaster General to oversee the distribution of public notices. Since that time, the construction of our great nation has been a process of informed action. From the beginning to the present, the public has been kept informed of the actions of its government. It is the obligation of the newspaper to inform the public through Public Notice advertising. Newspapers over the years have been the vehicle by which these obligations have been fulfilled. They will continue to be as long as the public demands that it be informed frequently and by the best means possible.)

Judging Teams Bound For Lubbock Saturday

Members of seven Hereford High School judging teams will join approximately 1600 West Texas high school students Saturday at Texas Tech University in Lubbock for the 48th annual Texas Tech Vocational Agriculture Judging Contest. Competition will begin at 7:30 a.m. at various sites on the Texas Tech campus. HHS teams and their members include: Livestock-Rob Pope, Tom Schlabs, Curtis Smith, Wade Boren and Jerry Johnson. Dairy-Cattle-Allyn Rowland, David Waltersheid, Jim Bob Walden, and Dennis Yerby. Dairy Products-Cory Walden, Joe Monroe and Jerry Bryan. Land Team-Tom Marsnell, David York and Joe Ray. Poultry-Dennis Schilling, Bobby Meyer, Rex Reinart and Mike Clevenger. Grass-Gerald Jesco, Stan McCabe, Sam Finley and Chris Paetzold. Meats-Ira Robinson, Steve Fortenberry, Cris Cabbiness and Ryan White. Marcus Phillips, Bob Ward and John Quillin will accompany the students on the trip to Lubbock Saturday.

Good Reason
The defendant acknowledged that he hadn't spoken to his wife in five years and the judge put in a question,
"What reason have you?"
he asked severely.
Replied the husband, "I didn't want to interrupt her."

Stanton To Premier 'Mr. Peepers' Play

Students of Stanton Junior High School invite the public to attend their annual all-school play with performances at 7:30 p.m. tonight and tomorrow in the auditorium.

Tickets, available at the door, will cost $1 for adults and 50 cents for students. Proceeds will be used for a school project.

"Mr. Peepers," a comedy play written by Marjane and Joseph Hayes, will star 24 students under the direction of Mrs. Wayne Hodgson, faculty member. Steve Fortenberry is cast in the title role of Peepers, an amiable teacher who must extricate himself from a variety of amusing difficulties.

Kyla Poteet will portray Nancy Remington, an aloof nurse who Peepers adores from afar. A schoolgirl played by Rhonda Hall infatuated with her bewildered teacher complicates the plot and brings the story to an amusing climax.

Also featured in the production are Bret Hallows as Harvey Weskit, Margaret Brumley as Mrs. Charlotte Gurney, Mike Culp as Daniel Shroder and Sonja Hacker as Ann Williams.

Plus, Nicki Stipe as Alice Hennessy, Billy Bayne as William Williams III, Ronald Plummer as Herbert Bushnell, David Granadoz as Archie Adams, Jimmy Wright as Cliff Daily, Ronda Clark as Wanda, and Celia Ricketts as Harriet.

Cast as high school students are Doug Strange, Sherry Strain, Mike Snow, Randy Moore, Viola Padilla, Isabel Hinojosa, Jamie Durham, Mona McNaney, Laura Martin, Kevin Golden and Joe Mitchem.

The script was obtained through special arrangement with Samuel French.

The late Wally Cox created the role of "Mr. Peepers" years ago in the popular television series of the same name.

Curtain Opens

THE HOME GAME

BY VIRGINIA TRUAX

SEED MONEY-SAVER — Wondering if that packet of last year's seeds is still worth planting? Test them by placing a dozen or so seeds in a wet paper towel. Roll it up and keep moist for about four days, then tally the results. If half have sprouted you can plant the packet — but double the amount you plant, if less than half have sprouted, don't bother using them!

COOL CUCUMBER — Give cucumbers a party look by taking a fork and scraping the full length of the cucumber, green skin and all. Then slice thin and you have an attractive topping for spring salads.

Public Invited To Hear Folklore

Miss Alice Allen, a park ranger from Lake Meredith, will literally spin out tales Friday at 4 p.m. at Deaf Smith County Library's Heritage Room.

The public is invited to hear this interesting program on folklore and also see this imaginative woman use the Navajo spindle and spinning wheel, the latter dating back to the 1200s.

The program, during which Miss Allen will be attired in colonial costume, will be presented in conjunction with National (Texas) Library Week, April 13-19.

Storytelling is a natural part of Miss Allen's heritage. She assisted her mother, who was a "story lady" for the El Paso Public Library, for a number of years.

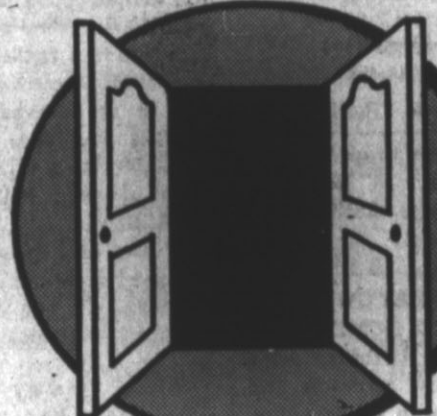

Sheep's wool is the predominant raw material used by Miss Allen, but she also spins thread from an afghan hound, goat's hair and other fibers.

Miss Allen earned a degree in anthropology from the University of Texas at Austin and worked at Yellowstone National Park after graduation. She also worked at Gettysburg National Military Park in Pennsylvania.

Miss Allen is currently taking photography courses at Amarillo College. She is a member of the scuba diving team at Lake Meredith and has studied French cooking and powderpuff mechanics. She is also a member of the American Association of State and Local History and the Maryland Folklore Society.

A home town booster is the man who helps make his home town better as well as bigger.

BB-BS Volunteers To Be Recognized

Adult volunteers who have devoted services to the Big Brothers-Big Sister organization will be recognized at an appreciation dinner April 24.

Reservations for the dinner, sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce Women's Division, can be made by contacting the BB-BS office, 364-6171. Cost of the meal will be $3 per person and reservations must be made on or before April 21.

Purpose of the dinner is to honor those local individuals who have volunteered time this past year to children who have only one parent. All Little Brothers and Little Sisters, including those who are not yet assigned to an adult companion, are invited.

Executive director of BB-BS

inc. is JoAn Dwyer. Mr. and Mrs. Archie Dwyer and Mr. and Mrs. Rodger Ruland attended the Amarillo BB-BS awards Banquet Monday. This event is similar to the local appreciation dinner.

Culp Makes AF Sergeant

Promotion of Eddie L. Culp to sergeant in the U.S. Air Force, is announced by officials at Dyess AFB at Abilene, where the Hereford man is stationed. Sergeant Culp, son of Mr. and Mrs. J.B. Culp of 135 Sunset, is an aircraft maintenance specialist with a unit of the Strategic Air Command.

The sergeant is a 1970 graduate of Hereford High School. His wife, Cynthia, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J.R. Watson of Hereford.

Appreciation Dinner Announced

Plans for a Big Brother-Big Sister appreciation dinner, scheduled April 24, are discussed by Mrs. Archie Dwyer, BB-BS executive director, and Mrs. Waldo Baxter, vice-president of the Chamber of Commerce Women's Division. Volunteer workers in this community project will be honored at the event, sponsored by the Women's Division.

Landscaping Vital To Bicentennial

The approach of Arbor Day, April 25, and the national Bicentennial celebration are two reasons why local residents should landscape properties.

Mrs. Sue James is chairman of the Horizon committee, Deaf Smith County Bicentennial organization. Assisted by Mrs. Raymond Gerke and Mrs. Homer Garrison, this group is concerned with long-range improvements stemming from the 200th anniversary of U.S. Independence.

"There are several ways which an individual can participate in the Bicentennial beautification program," Mrs. James said. One mode listed is memorial gifts of trees to public facilities such as schools, parks or hospitals.

"The memorial gifts is a lasting tribute to an individual and a major contribution to the community," she commented.

Planting of red, white and blue flowers are being emphasized in gardens reflecting a patriotic gesture. "These unique gardens ideas, which can be very creative, are becoming more popular as the nation nears its Bicentennial," Mrs. James stated.

"Landscaping is a visible and constructive way an individual can support and celebrate the U.S. Bicentennial," she continued. "Beautification, particularly through plantings of trees, is encouraged in Deaf Smith County."

Human progress can be boiled down to the mastery of emotions by men and women.

Methodists Invite Public To Service

The public is invited to attend worship services Sunday at First United Methodist Church, which is sponsoring a performance by Children of the Day at 7 p.m.

Specializing in folk-gospel, the young musical group sings original compositions and have traveled all over the world, spreading the Christian message. They began their ministry at Calvary Chapel in Santa Ana, Calif. and have been featured on records and tapes by Marantha Music Company.

The musicians, all in their early 20's, are Peter Jacobs, piano and guitar; Marsha Stevens and Wendy Freeman, guitar; Russ Stevens, electric bass. Kit Freeman is soundman and Hanneke Jacobs works backstage.

Bob McFarland, minister of music, is familiar with Children of the Day and stated, "they are definitely one of the best vocal groups in the Southwest today."

"They present an inspirational program which appeals to all age groups and denominations. I think Hereford audiences will be agreeably surprised by this group."

CowBelles To Give Beef Cuts

Cuts of meat to be used in illustration of butchering beef will be given to home economics classes at La Plata Junior High, Stanton Junior High and Hereford High Schools by Hereford CowBelles.

The unique demonstration will be conducted at 8 p.m. Tuesday in the Bull Barn. The public is encouraged to attend.

Morris Hacker of Hereford Meat Market will headline the program and show specific methods of slicing beef. He will point out the different portions of meat, their quality and best usage.

In addition to meat donated to the schools, cuts of beef will be given away in a drawing after the program.

Bible scripture from 1 Thess. 5:5 spawned the name of the small band: "Ye are all children of light and the children of the day."

ON FOOD COSTS

The annual retail cost of a farm-produced food market basket rose $7 to a record of $1,830 in February, but the gain was the smallest in four months, the Agriculture Department reports.

FARM BILL

The House has passed a $470 million emergency one-year farm bill after slicing $112 million off the estimated cost of a disputed dairy price support feature.

ON REGISTRATION

The 27-year-old rule requiring young American men to register for the draft within a month of their eighteenth birthday has been abolished. Selective Service officials said it would soon be replaced by a once-a-year registration system.

BLIND HITCHHIKER

SAN CLEMENTE, CALIF. - Lynda Reynolds, blind since birth, doesn't have an automobile, so she hitchhikes nearly everywhere she goes. She and her big black Labrador retriever are well known.

Working Today For Tomorrow

Tilling the ground around a newly-planted tree are two advocates of beautification projects in the county. Mrs. Homer Garrison, left, is a member of the Bicentennial Horizon Committee, and Travis McPherson serves as chairman of the beautification committee, Women's Division of Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce. Both organizations are urging local residents to support Arbor Day April 25.

WEATHER MASTER

I have received an additional limited supply of the following Weather Master corn: EPX 12, EP 97, EP 100 and EPX 116.

These are proven top yielding hybrids for this area.

I also have a complete selection of grain sorghum varieties. All seeds are of the highest germination.

Garden Club Tour Slated Tomorrow

Centering on beautification of grounds at Deaf Smith General Hospital, Garden Beautiful Club will sponsor their 20th annual tour of homes Friday.

One ticket, costing $1, will allow admission to three homes from 2-6 p.m. Friday with all proceeds to improve landscaping at the hospital. Tickets may be purchased from any club member.

According to Mrs. T.J. Carter, project chairman, last year's funds provided for planting of $135 of rosebushes at Kings Manor and trees at the hospital grounds.

This year's route will include the Edgar Lemons residence, 148 Oak, the John David Bryant home, 112 Kingwood, and the Earl Holts 103 Rio Vista.

Garden Beautiful members will be hostesses at each of the tour spots with the homeowners.

"We urge the public to view these beautiful new homes which feature unique trends in decorating ideas. In addition to personal pleasure, tour guests will gain satisfaction from helping the garden club in this community project," Mrs. Carter stated.

Tulia Publisher Speaks At Supper

"Pindrop attentiveness" was reportedly given to H.M. Baggartley, feature speaker Saturday at the Jefferson-Jackson Supper in La Plata Junior High School cafeteria. The activity was sponsored by Deaf Smith County Democratic Club.

Editor and publisher of the Tulia Herald, Baggartley was introduced by District Judge Brian Poff of Amarillo. The journalist advised two roads of pursuit for the audience: Christian involvement and active interest in politics. He urged Americans to be aware of current issues and stressed this point by listing social problems which date back to the 1930s.

Ady Shuval, DSCDC president, was master of ceremonies and introduced Carl King of Dimmitt, who reported highlights of the recent convention at Kansas City.

County Judge Sam Morgan delivered the invocation. Shuval ended the meeting by leading the audience in singing of 'God Bless America.' Stage and table decorations, incorporating patriotic colors red, white and blue, were made under direction of Mrs. Calvin Goodin. She was assisted by Willing Hands Chapter of Camp Fire Girls.

Mrs. Phillip J. Koenig
... and Sherrie Lawrence

Couple At Home After Marriage

Ensign and Mrs. Phillip John Koenig are at home at Hubert, N.C. after their marriage recently on the eve of her parents' 28th wedding anniversary.

The Rev. Harold O. Wood Sr., retired pastor of Straight Christian Church at Straight Community, officiated at the double ring ceremony which was conducted at the church.

Mrs. Koenig, the former Sherri Dayle Lawrence before her marriage, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Lawrence of Guymon, Okla. and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Mark A. Koenig of Hereford.

The bride's sister, Miss Terri Lawrence of Amarillo, served as maid of honor and best man was Jerry Campbell of Hereford.

Bridesmaids included Miss Jane Fox of Hooker, Okla. and Mrs. Benny Garcia of Weatherford, Okla. The bridegroom's brothers, Wayne Koenig of Lubbock and Greg Koenig were groomsmen.

Escorting guests to their seats were the bridegroom's brothers, Richard Koenig of Tyler and Danny Koenig, and the bride's cousins, Craig Hull of El Dorado, Kan. and Brian Danby of Newton, Kan.

The bridegroom's brother, Alan Koenig, and Miss Georgene Arredondo of Amarillo served as candle lighters.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floorlength dress of flowered pale blue organza over taffeta. It was designed with a high neckline, natural waistline and long full sleeves.

The tiered chapel veil was edged with Brussels lace matching the lace trim of the gown and was attached to a headband of white satin ribbon beading. She carried a bouquet of white daisies, rosebuds and baby's breath with fern and satin ribbon streamers.

Following a candlelight wedding ceremony a reception was held in the church fellowship hall.

The bride was employed by St. Anthony's Hospital until her marriage. She attended Panhandle State University, Northwest Texas Hospital School of Nursing and Amarillo College. The bridegroom is presently serving in the U.S. Naval Nurse Corps as a registered nurse. He is a Hereford High School graduate and attended Amarillo College and Northwest Texas School of Nursing.

The bridegroom's parents were hosts at a rehearsal dinner at K-Bob's Steak House in Guymon the evening before the wedding ceremony.

Events Are Scheduled

Several events will be featured throughout April at Deaf Smith County Library and the works of local artists will be on display the remainder of the month.

In observance of National Library Week which will continue through Saturday, amnesty will be granted on all book fines. Also, a children's film will be shown free each afternoon at 4 p.m.

Beginning at 4 p.m. Friday, Miss Alice Allen, a park ranger at Meredith Lake, will 'spin out tales' in the Heritage Room of the library. The public is invited to attend free of charge.

Telling of their excursion to Capetown, Africa, the H.E. Westers will give a program and present slides of their trip beginning at 8 p.m. Tuesday in the Heritage Room. This program is also free of charge.

"The Errand Boy" with Jerry Lewis is the family night film which will begin at 7:30 p.m. in the Heritage Room. This show will be presented to the public and parents are asked to accompany small children.

Lapidary enthusiasts, Judge Sam Morgan and Jack Nunley are exhibiting their unusual showcase of rocks and art students of Mrs. Eunice Petersen have their paintings on display this month at the library.

Disorder at Moscow hockey game causes deaths.

May Is Guest

Willard May, public relations executive from Dallas, was guest speaker at the regularly scheduled meeting of La Plata Study Club Tuesday evening in the home of Mrs. Louis Woodford.

May spoke of the Successful Living Seminar set for May 5 and 6 at the Deaf Smith County Bull Barn in which Ronald Willingham of Dallas will be the program speaker.

May stressed that local women are urged to attend.

During the brief business meeting, the club's next meeting was scheduled May 13 in the home of Mrs. Raymond White.

Members present included Mmes. Jack Brown, Emil Dettman, Charles Kelley, Ansel McDowell, O.G. Nieman, Elmer Patterson, Nancy Richie.

Also, Mmes. Ken Rogers, Major Schroeter, Don Taylor and Harlan VanderZee.

For God So Loved The World

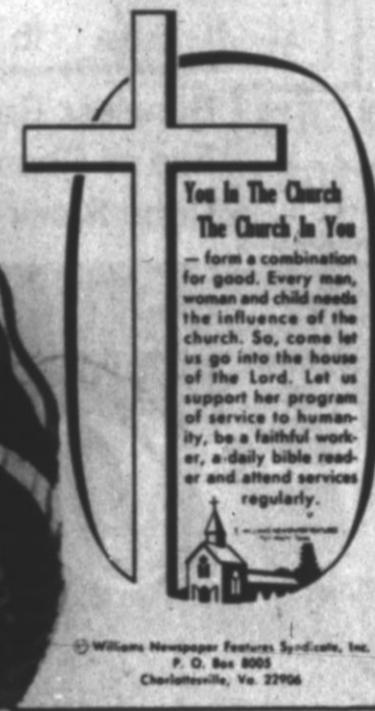

The Wondrous World OF CHILDHOOD

This child is filled with wonder for God's handiwork. There's something rare in a young child's eyes. If only we could see the world through the eyes of a child we would know how wondrous is His work.

Jesus knew this when he said "Whoever shall not receive the kingdom as a little child, he shall not enter therein." Mark 10:15

Open your eyes, try to see the world with a new-born's eyes. You will marvel at what you see.

You In The Church
The Church In You
— form a combination for good. Every man, woman and child needs the influence of the church. So, come let us go into the house of the Lord. Let us support her program of service to humanity, be a faithful worker, a daily bible reader and attend services regularly.

Young Musicians Entertain

Student musicians performed selections as special guests of Music Study Club Monday afternoon in Ward Parlor of First United Methodist Church.

Each student was introduced and sponsored by respective local teachers. Parents of the performers and Mrs. Robert Mayfield were welcomed as guests.

Mrs. Major Schroeter led the hymns of the month.

The program, arranged by Mrs. Wayne Thomas, consisted entirely of performances by the students.

Mrs. Jack Rogers was represented by her daughters, Laurie who play "Sicilienne" by Schubert, and Deborah, performing "No Walking Today" by Khachatourian.

Sabra Hacker, student of Mrs. Canisler, presented "Black Is The Color of My True Love's Hair" by John Jacob Niles and "I Enjoy Being A Girl" from the musical production of Flower Drum Song. Her father, Joe Hacker, accompanied her on the latter piece.

Two compositions by Gillock, "Tortillas for Sale" and "Interlude" were given by Janelle Hartman, student of Mrs. Burdett. Also, Stefan Hacker presented "The Little Frog" by Hazel Cobb and "Skip to My Lou" by Burnam.

Henry Mancini's rendition of "The Pink Panther" was performed by Janet Burdine, who is instructed by Mrs. Bill Bradley.

Members Have Program

Crafts was the subject of discussion during the meeting of Busy Homemakers Extension Club Monday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Johnny Amaro of 521 Irving.

A variety of crafts was approached including gold inking, drip and drape, burlap wall hangings and felt articles. Members present, Mmes.

Janette Schlabs and Susan Schlabs combined talents for two duets, "On Wings of Music" by Mendelssohn and "Begone Dull Care" an old English madrigal. Both girls are tutored by Mrs. Canisler.

"Rhapsody in Blue," a George Gershwin melody, was contributed by Philip Zinset under direction of Mrs. Hacker. Also, Nancy Jones accompanied Leslie Euler, who performed "Le Violette" by Scarlotti and "Il Bacio" by Arditi.

Savas Selaya, Gilbert Arellano Jr. and Hope Lopez, welcomed guest, Mrs. Santos Gonzales.

The Supreme Court has ruled unanimously that the Federal Government has exclusive rights on any oil and gas resources on the Atlantic Outer Continental Shelf beyond the three-mile limit.

Public Is Invited To Barn Dance

An old-fashioned barn dance, sponsored by the Merry Mixers Square Dance Club, will be held at 8:30 p.m. Friday in Community Center with the public invited to attend.

The dance will feature polka, schottische, new shoe, Rye waltz, Ten Pretty Girls, plus various other steps. Pete Carmichael and Stuart Rowan will call the squares, including old favorites from the past and more recent numbers.

Two musicians will back up a man playing a "genuine fiddle," according to Mrs. Allen Evers, project worker.

The tube is one of the newest women's wear fashion silhouettes. Slender and lean, the slimming tube is a definite contrast to recent big silhouettes, according to Mrs. Becky Culp, area clothing specialist.

Red Cross Seeks Funds For Relief

Tragic developments in South Vietnam and Cambodia, including three extensive movements of civilian populations affecting eight million persons, caused the International Red Cross to increase a plea for funds.

George M. Elsey, ARC president, announced that the original appeal has inflated to $5-$35 million. The American Red Cross, he noted, sent $100,000 to the International Red Cross last week as an emergency response, but it is now clear that much more is needed to help support refugee operations in South Vietnam and Cambodia.

"The South Vietnamese Red Cross is planning to assist at least 500,000 newly displaced persons during the next three months," Elsey said. "Reports indicate that the South Vietnamese Red Cross will provide immediate care for thousands of displaced persons now enroute by sea from the North to the island of Phu-Quoc in the southwest portion of South Vietnam, where reception of refugees is being arranged."

The South Vietnamese Red Cross, he continued, has medical and relief teams, as well as youth groups, trained to convoy and supervise the distribution of food, shelter and cooking utensils. Some supplies have been airlifted from Saigon to Nha Trang by a plane placed at the disposal of the Red Cross by the New Zealand government.

The International Red Cross has requested funds for local purchase in Southwest Asia of rice, fish sauce, kitchen utensils, mats and cloth. Canned condensed milk and milk powder, canned fish and meat, medications and tents for temporary shelter are being purchased abroad.

An International Red Cross team of specialists in disaster relief, medical care and tracing of missing persons will leave for Saigon shortly, Elsey stated, to supplement IRC staff already at work assisting refugees.

In Cambodia, IRC medical and relief assistance have been adapted to meet changing situations, while help for an increasing number of displaced persons continues. Additional supplies of milk powder are being flown in to augment high protein feeding programs for young children.

Americans who wish to contribute cash donations for this major IRC operation, may send checks to their local Red Cross chapters payable to the American Red Cross and earmarked for Southeast Asia Relief.

While IRC is at work helping the millions of refugees of Southeast Asian hostilities, American Red Cross volunteers and staff have been assisting with the arrival of over 1,300 Vietnamese orphans. Nine plane loads of infants and children have been met by approximately 1,000 Red Cross volunteers.

Red Cross assistance, requested by the sponsoring agencies and local authorities, included transportation to medical centers, provision of diapers, formula, food, baby bottles, blankets and care until adopting parents arrive.

RECIPE

By Sarah Anne Sheridan

What better way could you use a cup of leftover rice than in an old-fashioned baked rice pudding?

Rice Pudding
 1/2 c sugar
 1/3 t salt
 1 T flour
 1 T cornstarch
 2 egg yolks
 3 c milk
 1 c cooked rice
 1 t vanilla
 1/4 c raisins

Combine sugar, salt, flour and cornstarch. In top of a double boiler beat egg yolks slightly. Add sugar mixture and milk. Cook, stirring constantly, until it begins to thicken. Add rice, raisins and vanilla. Pour into a 2 quart baking dish and place in a pan of water (about 1 inch) and bake for 10 minutes in a 325 degree oven. Add meringue and bake 20 minutes longer or until brown.

The Best to You Each

Blue, Pink Shower Given

Mrs. Lynn Brisendine was honoree at a baby shower Monday night in the home of Mrs. Kenneth Campbell, 118 Oak. A group of 25 hostesses and guests played games and admired the gifts presented to the hostess.

Refreshments of green punch, coffee, cake squares and nuts were served with plate favors being a miniature diaper filled with mints and a pacifier made of candy. The table was laid with a lace cloth and centered with an arrangement of white daisies in a child's training chair. On either side of the flowers were dip and drape dolls dressed in green.

Hostesses, including Meses. Leon Tanck, Tom Carter, Joe Locke, Don McNeese, Billy McAllister, Jim McDowell and Campbell, presented Mrs. Brisendine with a corsage made of baby socks.

Book Describes Pentagon Trial

Deaf Smith County Library is featuring two books this week entitled America's Birthday and Test of Loyalty by Peter Schrag.

Test of Loyalty is a timely and brilliant book in which the author describes the most important legal, constitutional confrontation of the decade—the Pentagon Papers Trial.

America's Birthday is a lavishly illustrated workbook which presents programs for an alternative Bicentennial celebration. It maps out plans for working with neighborhood groups in order to bring about fundamental changes around the country.

The library is open to the public on Monday and Thursday from 9 a.m. until 9 p.m., weekdays from 9 a.m. until 6 p.m. and Saturday until noon.

TEST OF LOYALTY
By PETER SCHRAG

"Those of us who went to Los Angeles," writes Peter Schrag, "to cover the trial of Daniel Ellsberg and Anthony J. Russo

Brothers Are Honored With Celebration

A birthday dinner honored Wallace Shelton, 75 and his brother, W.O. Shelton, 82 recently at Dawn Community building.

After dinner was served to honorees and guests, gifts were presented.

Those attending from Hereford included Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Shelton, Mr. and Mrs. W.O. Shelton, Mrs. Nora Ward and children, Mrs. Connie Gamble and children, Ronnie Ward, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Warren and children, Mrs. Alma Inman, Mrs. Sheila Brannon and children, Tommy Inman, Vickie Kelly, and Mrs. Sandra Hahn and children.

Out-of-town guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Shelton and family, Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Shelton and family, all of Amarillo; Bobby Shelton of Fort Worth; Mr. and Mrs. David Adams and children of Dimmitt.

Also, Mr. and Mrs. Red Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Bailey and children, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Eldridge and children, all of Clovis, N.M.; Mr. and Mrs. Gary Slaughter and family of Canyon.

Art Show Is This Weekend

All types of art media will be on sale at bargain prices at the Merchants Art Show, sponsored by Sugarland Mall merchants Friday through Sunday at the mall.

Local artists will be exhibiting their wares from 10 a.m. until 6 p.m. Friday; 10 a.m. until 7 p.m. Saturday; and 11 a.m. until 6 p.m. Sunday.

A variety of art media will be on display for sale including tole painting, metal sculpture, wood shadow boxes, rock art, macrame.

Also, hand-made jewelry, dough art, oil paintings, watercolor and pastel portraits.

Shower Is Given For Infant Girl

Christie, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Hopkins, was honoree at a layette shower Monday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Billy Don Childers of 224 Juniper.

Pink carnations were arranged at the refreshment table by Mrs. Childers and co-hostess, Mrs. Carl Thorell.

Guests calling during the afternoon party were Mmes. Mike Page, Kenneth Glenn, Brian Grover, Tom Carter, Joe Paetzold, Chuck Boyd, Temple Abney, John Owsley and Charles Wagner.

Jr., the so-called Pentagon Papers trial came looking for one thing and found something else. The facts of the case... were supposed to be relatively simple.

"Ellsberg and Russo were on trial in connection with the copying of the Pentagon Papers in 1969; Ellsberg had admitted giving the Papers to The New York Times in 1971, but that act was not part of this indictment. The charges were conspiracy, conversion (i.e. misappropriation) of the government property, and violations of the Espionage Act.

"But beyond those facts lay an immensely complicated story that went back at least to World War II and that involved the experience of a generation which had been shaken to its soul by the failures of the intellectual and political assumptions which it had been raised."

In this timely and brilliant book, Peter Schrag describes the most important legal, constitutional confrontation of the decade—the Pentagon Papers Trial.

Ellsberg had been privy to enough Top Secret discussions to have reached the conclusion that "there existed (in the Pentagon) people capable of writing, on demand, plans for the Nazi general staff."

"The trial which ensued graduated from a simple challenge concerned with First Amendment rights to a symbolic drama about blind allegiance vs. individual conscience, and finally to a brutal attempt by the Nixon Administration to stamp out any challenge by any means.

But in the end, the affair had come full circle. Watergate revealed that the Administration had attempted to steal Ellsberg's medical records, withhold evidence and bribe Judge Matthew Byrne, who threw the case out of court.

... at the end, Schrag writes, "there was also the possibility that what we learned about the poisoned political system might make some difference after all, that even those who had been cynical all along would never trust the government or the word—any word in the same way again.

"Perhaps the trial and Watergate would free the country from the faith-in-information that had obsessed all of us at the beginning."

AMERICA'S BIRTHDAY

People's Bicentennial Commission is a nonprofit public foundation that was established in the belief that America's 200th birthday could become more than just a celebration of consumerism and self-congratulation, that it could stimulate a renewed understanding and commitment to the democratic ideals which shaped the birth of America.

This lavishly-illustrated workbook suggests programs for an alternative Bicentennial celebration. It maps out plans for working with neighborhood groups in order to bring about fundamental changes around the country. America's Birthday includes a history of democratic movements in the USA, along with programs centering around local political issues and researching local power structures; how to involve high schools and universities, and how to become involved with Bicentennial programming for radio, television and film as well as newspapers and magazines.

Finally, it explains what each individual of a community can do to create a new sense of commitment of the original revolutionary principles of 1776.

More Texas Doctors Seen In New Schools

AUSTIN—Medical education in Texas has expanded rapidly in the last five years with the number of schools for doctors of medicine increasing from four to six and total enrollment increasing by more than 1,000 students.

These and other growth factors of medical education in Texas were cited in the April issue of Texas Medicine, the monthly scientific journal of the Texas Medical Association.

The number of entering medical students in Texas increased from 517 in 1970 to nearly 800 in 1974. Total enrollment went from 1,821 to 2,676 students. Two schools, Baylor College of Medicine in Houston and The University of Texas Southwestern Medical School at Dallas, have successfully achieved goals of doubling first-year class enrollments.

Also contributing to the increased enrollment figures were the openings of the University of Texas Medical School at Houston in 1970 and Texas Tech University School of Medicine in Lubbock in 1972.

Increased enrollment has been accompanied by a greater variety in class make-up. For instance, at the University of Texas Medical School at San Antonio, women and ethnic minorities each constitute 15 per cent of the total student body.

The early 1970s have also witnessed a shift from a basic four-year curriculum to an accelerated degree program. At present, five of the state's schools offer students some variation of a three-year curriculum plan.

Each of the state's schools has facility expansion projects under way or in the planning stages.

Although there are diverse attitudes regarding the number of physicians needed to serve Texas patients, it was reported that TMA believes that the outlook for an adequate supply of physicians is very bright.

According to the journal article, TMA supports the position of the Coordinating Board of the Texas College and University System that the present Texas medical schools be adequately funded to permit expansion to their fullest capacities.

Cosmetology Winners

ICT Honor Winners

Grazing Out for Layout

The area movement by farmers to cut back by 10 per cent their production of crops takes stronger root here as shown above by the grazing out of wheat by cattle belonging to Gerald McCathern, the local chairman of the Farmers Layout Organization. The cattle were released on the wheat, located a mile west of Westway, by Mike McCathern and Kim Sealy. The cutback is to limit the amount of grain on the market this fall to keep the price at a level to cover production costs.

House Will Ponder Permits

The Texas House of Representatives will soon ponder a bill that would provide a means for the Texas Water Quality Board to issue waste discharge permits under the National Pollutant Discharge Elimination System (NPDES).

Failure of the bill to pass could mean a continued duplication of effort on the part of the TWQB and the Environmental Protection Agency, with all municipal and industrial waste dischargers in Texas being required to hold both state and federal permits.

According to Hugh C. Yantis Jr., executive director of the TWQB, the measure was introduced by Rep. Sullivan as a means of bringing the matter before the Texas Legislature though the bill does not necessarily express the representative's personal views. "It will, however, provide a vehicle for legislative consideration of requirements for the State to receive permitting authority," Yantis said.

There are a few factors in the NPDES program which could be objectionable to some people, Yantis explained, mentioning fines required by federal law for permit violation. "These are a great deal larger than fines which have been required by Texas law," he said.

Additionally, there is an "irrigation return flow" requirement which, under a recent federal court ruling, requires permitting of farms of all sizes, whether or not pollution is occurring. EPA had favored application only to farms of 3,000 acres or more. Irrigation return flow refers to water used for irrigation which then returns to a water course through runoff.

"It is possible that farm groups may oppose this," Yantis said. "The state's role could be determined solely by the return flow controversy. Our Board is considering the matter, as well as possibly joining with EPA in the appeal of the court ruling." He added that it has not been determined that the board will oppose adoption of that requirement.

$300 Million Tax Bill Is Foreseen

Austin—Comptroller Bob Bullock said Friday that Texas taxpayers will dance to the tune of at least a $300 million tax bill and possibly a $2 billion tax bill two years from now regardless of how well the Legislature holds the line on spending this year.

"It's not a question of if or when. It's a question of how much we pay the fiddler," Bullock said in forecasting the state's spending and revenue for the next four years, the first such projection ever made by the Comptroller's office.

"The fat is in the fire and there's no pulling it out," he said.

Bullock said that "all too often everyone forgets that most of the money which goes into our treasury must automatically be used for education, highways, welfare, children's assistance and federal programs because our constitution, statutes and federal laws require it."

In the next two years these programs will get $9.3 billion of the $13.2 billion expected to go through the treasury.

Q. Under Medicare coverage of items for chronic disease, are services outside a hospital covered?

A. Yes, if a patient can be trained for home dialysis and has elected Part "B" of Medicare then payment can be made for items under the category of "durable medical equipment."

Q. What can be covered for a home course of treatment?

A. The items considered medically necessary, including the artificial kidney machine itself which consists of a dialyzer and dialysate delivery system.

Q. Is the equipment used in installation of the equipment covered?

A. These items are covered, including the tie-ins to existing plumbing and electrical systems.

Q. Are items used for purification of water covered?

A. Equipment necessary for water purification is covered but a water softener unit is not covered since it does not provide for purification.

Q. What other expenses could be paid by Medicare?

A. The cost of service to install the machine and instructions on the operation and use of the equipment.

Q. The information is furnished that Part "B" of Medicare pays for the rental or purchase of "durable medical equipment." Just what is "durable medical equipment"?

A. "Durable Medical Equipment" is equipment which can stand repeated use, is primarily used to serve a medical purpose, is generally not useful to a person in the absence of an illness or injury and is appropriate to use in the home.

TRC Sets Hearing On Natural Gas Use

The Texas Railroad Commission has issued an order setting a statewide hearing to examine the facts pertaining to the use of natural gas as a boiler fuel in Texas.

In discussing the order, K.B. "Tex" Watson, Pioneer

president, said, "Apparently the Commission intends to closely examine the use of gas in large electric generating plants and consider eventual elimination to this use. Other boiler fuel uses will also be investigated."

Watson went on to say that the order does not pertain to the typical domestic, commercial or irrigation use of gas and he felt confident that the Railroad Commission of Texas will not issue an order that would call for the elimination of the use of gas to generate electricity, or for any other purposes, in such a manner as to adversely affect our area.

Watson pointed out that Pioneer is in a very favorable position with its present long-term gas supply, and further, it has geared its exploration and production program and gas acquisitions to maintain the industrial growth of the company's service area. Company management feels that with the acceleration of drilling and exploration that is taking place, new sources will be found and reserves will be adequate to continue to serve all of Pioneer's customers.

The hearing is scheduled for June 2 in Austin. At that time, gas utilities, owners or operators of gas-fired boilers and any interested party can appear to present evidence regarding the use of natural gas as a boiler fuel in Texas and the possible phasing out of certain uses of natural gas as a boiler fuel.

The order set forth a number of steps to be taken by utilities to notify certain classes of customers, and Pioneer is working to comply with the company's responsibilities as outlined.

MEDICINE CHEST

by H. BOSWELL YORK, R. PH.

How many names does a drug have? - S.S.
Usually each prescription drug carries three names. First is the chemical name which identifies the molecular structure. This name is important to other chemists. The chemical name of one prescription drug is 7 chloro 2 methylamino 5 phenyl 3H 1, 4 benzodiazepine 4 oxide. Next is the public or generic name. This name indicates its general chemical nature and is the name that physicians and pharmacists learn in school. The generic name of our example above is chlordiazepoxide. The third name is the trade name. It is usually easy to remember and simple to spell and short enough to fit on a prescription blank. A trade name of chlordiazepoxide is Librium.

How was blood pressure first measured? - C.F.
In 1732 an English clergyman measured blood pressure by inserting a brass pipe tightly fitted to a nine-foot vertical glass tube into an artery of the neck of a horse. Any human being of sound mind and sick body would do without a blood pressure reading by this method. Two hundred years later a Russian physician, N.S. Korotov, developed the simple, safe reliable pressure cuff technique that we now enjoy today.

Is it true that vitamins are being used to treat mental illness? - Mrs. W.M.

Yes. A psychiatrist in Manhasset, N.Y., has treated over 5,000 schizophrenia patients with massive doses of vitamin C and E, niacin, and pyridoxine - and he claims that he achieved significant improvement in more than 4,000 of them. Large doses of vitamins is called megavitamin therapy. Vitamins were not the sole treatment, but he claims it was the "key" element.

Is whiskey tax-deductible? - B.L.
It could be. For example, your doctor prescribes daily doses of whiskey for relief of angina pain. The cost of the prescribed amount of whiskey is tax-deductible. Do you know all of your tax-deductible medical expenses? They are listed in my "Medical Expense Record Book - 1974." For a copy send your name and address, plus $1 and two 10-cent stamps to me, in care of this newspaper. (c) 1975, McNaught Syndicate, Inc.

Girls To Attend Conference

Ranking third at the state Office Education Association Leadership Conference last weekend at Dallas, Linda Betzen and Denise Wosnitzky will attend the national conference at Chicago.

Sponsored by the local Vocational Office Education Department, the Hereford High School senior students will be at the Illinois capital May 10-14. Miss Betzen, daughter of Mrs. Agnes Betzen of 1101 Union, won the trip by competing well in typing and related levels. She is employed at Plains Insurance Agency.

Miss Wosnitzky, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Wosnitzky of 231 Fir, entered accounting and related levels of competition. She works at Walco International.

Both are instructed by Mrs. Larry Wartes.

1300 MIAs In Southeast Asia

BY LLOYD BENTSEN
UNITED STATES SENATOR

Today, more than two years after the United States pulled out of Vietnam, over 1300 American servicemen remain unaccounted for in South Asia.

I think it is of the utmost importance that their nation do everything within its power to account for these men. Their families deserve no less: the sons and daughters, wives and mothers who must now live with uncertainty.

Yet, many of these families are convinced that the Department of Defense and the State Department are doing little or nothing to press the search for their loved ones. And there is disturbing evidence that their fears are founded in fact.

The Defense Department maintains that 400 of the 1300 men who were missing at the time of the U.S. withdrawal can now be presumed dead. This presumption is not based on any new evidence that the men died. Rather, it is based on the fact that there is no new evidence that they are still alive.

And the number of these "Presumptive Findings or Death" would be far higher if the families of some of the Missing in Action had not taken the Defense Department to court last year.

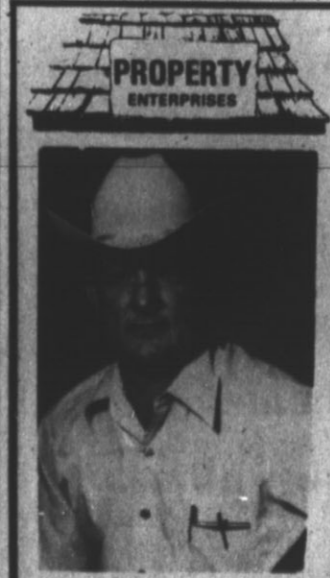

These "Presumptive Findings of Death" are profoundly disturbing to the loved ones of our missing servicemen. And rightly so.

They fear that their government, unable to demand an accounting and hesitant to pursue the matter wants only to shove it into a corner.

MUST BE ACCOUNTED FOR

We cannot allow that to happen. This country must continue to press and probe and examine and demand until the families are satisfied as to the fate of these missing men.

Otherwise, they continue to wait, living in a world of rumor, of "unconfirmed reports" and "documented sightings."

Program Committee Receives Reports

The Deaf Smith County Program Building Committee met Monday night in the Medallion Room of the Deaf Smith REC building to discuss future programs.

Members of the various committees of the organization gave reports on projects planned for the remainder of the year and in 1976.

Eldred Brown of the crops committee reported that a crops tour is planned for Sept. 18 and a crops clinic will be held Dec. 18.

Other crops functions planned for the future include programs on sugar beet production, grass control in alfalfa and corn, several programs on irrigation and various varieties of crops.

Elmo Hall reported that his livestock committee is planning a three-county program in Friona in September and a stocker cattle program to be held here in March, 1976.

It was suggested at the meeting that the livestock committee might also look into the possibility of some programs on prairie dog control.

Doris Hall gave the family living committee report, explaining that the group will hold an arthritis seminar April 30. Plans for next year include programs on carpeting, home cleaning and maintenance. An area-wide fair is also being planned.

Linda Welty told those present that the 4-H and youth committee has numerous activities planned for the remainder of the year, including a district roundup May

, a recordbook training project in May and a citizenship shortcourse in June. A youth fair, 4-H bake show, county food projects and the state dress revue are also on the agenda, she reported.

Andrew Kershen presented the community resource development committee report, explaining housing surveys that have been conducted and adding that an agriculture employee training program may be in the works for the future.

Justin McBride, county extension agent, gave a brief report from the agriculture and water committee and those present discussed the need to obtain help for the High Plains Water District.

It was pointed out that the committee's goal is to reduce the use of water five percent every year for the next 10 years until farmers are producing as much as they are now with half the amount of water.

Committee chairmen pointed out that they want to coordinate their programs with the functions of other organizations in the county and aid other county organizations in any way possible.

NUTRITION LABELING

A United States Department of Agriculture survey shows that many families - and particularly teenagers and children - are not getting enough of the vitamins and minerals they need. Thus it's important that you make sure the food you buy provides adequate nutritional value.

One of the best aids to nutrition that's come along lately is "nutrition labeling" - the little charts on cans and boxes of processed foods that list the kinds and amounts of nutrients, calories, carbohydrates and fats the products contain.

As of January 1, Federal law requires that food processors and packagers in interstate commerce who add nutrients or make nutritional claims must provide information about protein and seven vitamins and minerals. The law takes in such items as fortified cereals, enriched baked goods, milk, margarine and specific dietary foods.

Why is nutritional labeling important? Because it permits you to buy wisely by enabling you to compare the nutrition levels of similar products. It's also an aid to the weight-conscious, who can keep track of the calories they consume.

Here's what the label lists on a can of cream styled corn. Proteins, carbohydrates and fats appear as grams per serving. A gram is about equal in weight to a nickel.

Nutrition Information (per one cup serving) in grams: calories - 230, carbohydrates - 50, protein - 4, fat - 2.

Percentage of U.S. Recommended Daily Allowance (U.S.RDA): protein - 6, riboflavin - 6, vitamin A - 4, niacin - 8, vitamin C - 20, calcium (contains less than 2 percent of the U.S.RDA of this nutrient), thiamine - 2 and iron - 4.

Eligible For State Meeting

Delegates from the La Plata FHA Chapter check the schedule for the State convention which starts tomorrow at San Antonio. Paula Wiley, at left, will not be able to attend so Staci Robinson, center, and Patricia Grimsley will fill delegate responsibilities. The trio earned this honor collecting points by participating in chapter activities.

FHA Delegates To Attend San Antonio Conference

Representatives of the La Plata Future Homemakers of America Chapter will be attending the 1975 state meeting of the Texas Association of FHA, along with over 5,000 members and advisors from across the state.

"Pass It On—Reach Out and Touch" is the theme of the meeting which will be held in the Convention Center at San Antonio Thursday and Friday.

Attending from Hereford will be Staci Robinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Robinson, and Patricia Grimsley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Grimsley. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Noyes, Paula Wiley qualified as a meeting delegate, but will not attend.

Each of the trio was selected on a basis of points earned by participating in chapter activities. Their advisor is Mrs. M.T. Burelsmith.

Keynote speakers will highlight the two-day convention.

Speaking on human relations at the Friday morning session will be Dr. William Purkey, co-author of "Helping Relationships: Basic Concepts for the Helping Professions" and author of "Self-Concept and School Achievement."

Humorist Jerry Clower, who has appeared on several major television broadcasts, will entertain at the Friday night session.

Business of the Texas Association will be conducted at the House of Delegates meeting Thursday evening, following a talent show featuring representatives of Areas VI-X. The presentations will include comedy skits, songs, dances, band numbers, readings and a patriotic-religious program.

FHA members who have achieved unusual accomplishments by completing all levels of Encounter, a special FHA growth and development program, will be honored at a breakfast Friday morning.

A State Chorus of 100 female and 100 male Future Homemakers chosen by their areas will be featured. The choir will be directed by Dwain Marshall of Temple High School.

Installation of the 1975-76 state officers will climax the Friday evening assembly. At this time, eleven officers elected throughout Texas will be placed into office.

Future Homemakers of America is an organization sponsored by Homemaking Education, Texas Education Agency with Mrs. Elizabeth F. Smith, director, and Mrs. Betty Romans, state advisor.

RICCO SACCANI

CCA Members To Attend Pianist Performance

Pianist Rico Saccani will make his debut Hereford appearance Saturday under auspices of Community Concert Association. The concert is scheduled at 8 p.m. in Hereford High School auditorium.

Saccani has already had considerable recognition both as a guest soloist with symphony orchestras and as a recitalist and is the winner of many national competitions. These activities brought him to the attention of Columbia Artists, artist management firm, and his Hereford appearance will be one of several planned under the direction.

Last season, Saccani won recognition in the first international Southwest Pianists Foundation Competition and his performing activities included an invitation to return as soloist with the Arizona Orchestra with comedian Bob Hope as a special guest artist. He was also invited by the Foundationbleau School of Music in France for concentrated study with Nadia Boulanger who, after working with this young artist, said, "A young virtuoso...Saccani plays with tremendous sensitivity and possesses excellent technical equipment."

While in Europe, the artist availed himself of the opportunity to also study with Mms. Gaby Cassadesus and Mms. Jeanne-Marie Darre. The former said, "Saccani plays with more maturity than his age dicatates. He is a fine musician."

Local recognition was quick to come to Saccani and he has appeared as soloist with the Tuscon Symphony Orchestra and the University of Arizona Orchestra on numerous occasions.

Born of an Italian immigrant father and Jewish mother, 23 year-old Saccani is a native of Tuscon, Ariz. He began his musical studies at the age of seven with the late Winefred Knight and at 16 he began intensive study with Patricia Benkman Marsh and her husband, Ozan Marsh, who is artist-in-residence at the University of Arizona.

In 1970, Saccani was the first prize winner of the National Young Artist Competition and that same year he won first prize in the Young Artist Contest in Austin. He went on the following year to win more regional and national competitions including the National Chautauqua Competition where he also appeared as soloist with the Chautauqua Symphony Orchestra under the direction of Donald Johanos, conductor of the Pittsburgh Symphony Chamber Orchestra and associate conductor of the Pittsburgh Symphony.

His concert schedule for the following season included an appearance as soloist with the World Youth Symphony at Interlochen, Mich. and he was awarded first prize in the Rena Aldrege National Piano Recording Competition.

Highlighting his 1972-73 concert season was an appearance with the Arizona Festival Orchestra for a tour de force performance of three major works for the piano and orchestra. The program featured Saccani in Liszt's "Todtentanz" and the "First Piano Concerto," and Gershwin's "Rhapsody in Blue". Concert dates for the current season will take Saccani over much of the Western part of the United States with appearances scheduled in California, Utah, New Mexico, Arizona, Texas and Wyoming.

4-H Center Open

Brownwood—The Texas 4-H Center at Lake Brownwood opened its doors for the first time April 2 when some 200 volunteer 4-H adult leaders gathered for a statewide 4-H Adult Leader Forum. The center was made possible by funds contributed by 4-H Clubs from over the state.

The $1.4 million educational training facility for the state's 4-H program was constructed under the leadership of T. Louis Austin Jr., chairman of the Texas 4-H Youth Development Foundation, who is also vice chairman and chief executive officer for Texas Utilities, Dallas.

"This modern facility can accommodate more than 250 people," points out H.T. Davison, 4-H and youth specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and executive director of the 4-H Foundation.

"It features a 300-seat assembly hall and 15 additional conference rooms that can accommodate from 12 to 100 people each. The center is served by an ultra-modern kitchen and has excellent space for outdoor recreation, a swimming pool, and other accommodations attractive to both youth and adults."

Marshall Crouch, Extension 4-H youth specialist, has been temporarily assigned to Brownwood to direct the operations of the 4-H Center and to assist with programming activities, notes Davison.

"The 4-H Center was designed and planned as a leadership training facility for 4-H members and adult leaders who serve the youth of this state," says Davison. "4-H members will use the center primarily in the summer months while adult leaders will receive in-service training during the school year to enhance their work with 4-H members. When the center is not being used by 4-H or other Extension oriented activities, it will be available to any group with a program of an educational nature."

The facility will accommodate banquets and special one-day meetings as well other activities. Those interested in using the 4-H Center may contact Davison at Texas A&M University or call the Texas 4-H Center at Brownwood.

"WORSHIP GOD"

Worship with us the Lord's Way, in the Lord's Church.
Jno. 14:6, Mt. 16:18
Let's Obey Christ and follow Christ and the Apostles. Eph. 2:19-22

We believe in speaking where the Bible speaks, and remaining silent where the word of God is silent. I Pet. 4 Verse 11. We do not believe we can alter or add to the word of God. II Jno. 9-11. Also, Rev. 22:18-19.

We believe in ministering one to another, studying Gods word for the edification of ourselves and edification of each other. Rm. 15:14.

The word of God is taught in the Assembly of the Church. Men teachers teaching one at a time. The only teachers God authorizes in the Public Church Assembly. I Cor. 11:23-40 - and I Tim. 2:11-12.

We sing and Pray. Col. 3:16-17; Eph. 5:19-20 - I Tim. 2:8. We give of our means and partake of the communion at the appointed time. I Cor. 16:1-2 - Lu 24:29-30; Acts. 20:7.

We believe the Communion to be a spiritual ordinance placed in the Church by Christ. Commanded by the Lord and taught and practiced by the Apostles. As Baptism when accompanied by faith, repentance and confession, puts the believer in Christ. The communion keeps us in covenant relationship with Christ and other Christians when accompanied by the Christian Graces as Peter declares in II Pet. 1:4-11.

We believe we will be held accountable for the way we handle Gods word. For this we will answer in the day of Judgment. I Pet. 4:17, Rm. 14:12.

The word of the Lord only will save. We believe we must endeavor to keep the unity of the spirit in the bonds of peace. Eph. 4:3-6. We must earnestly contend for one Faith. Jude 1:3.

AAUW Completes Election

Formal election of officers was conducted by American Association of University Women Tuesday in Deaf Smith County Library Heritage Room. Filling two-year terms will be Miss Dorothy Szydloski, president; Mrs. D.N. Garner, second vice president; Mrs. Robert Mayfield, secretary. One year's service remain for retained officers, including Mrs. Cawthon Bryant as first vice president and Mrs. Elizabeth Wills as treasurer.

Numerous business topics were discussed at the monthly meeting. Mrs. Reuben McGilvary reported that the AAUW's Bicentennial project, a map of Deaf Smith County, will be ready for printing in May. The maps, depicting special landmarks of this area, are being prepared at AAUW expense.

Also, Mrs. McGilvary announced that state and federal grants are available to individuals seeking a masters degree. Deadline for scholarship application is May 1.

Activities at the AAUW state convention recently held at Waco were outlined by local delegates, Mrs. Szydloski and Mrs. McGilvary. The pair explained several tips for development of potential of AAUW chapters.

AAUW was invited to send a representative to the April 25 luncheon to be given by Deaf Smith County Historical Museum. Also, members were urged to visit the heritage exhibit this weekend at Santa Fe Depot at Amarillo. This activity is being sponsored by the Amarillo AAUW faction.

Six White House First Ladies were program subjects presented by Mrs. Bryant, who based her presentation on a book, "Upstairs at the White House," by Jack West. The author served as chief usher at the executive mansion for 28 years, including six different presidential administrations.

Included in this line of historic women were Eleanor Roosevelt, Bess Truman, Mamie Eisenhower, Jackie Kennedy, Lady Bird Johnson and Pat Nixon. In direct contact with the first family, West described the emotional make-up of Presidential wives and their dedication to the executive office.

Installation of officers is planned at the next meeting, a salad supper, at 7:20 p.m. May 20 in Pioneer Natural Gas Flame Room.

Hostesses for the recent meeting were Mmes. McGilvary, Gene Huntsinger, Jim Hudgens, Bob Hammon and Wayne Hodgson.

LISBON—Portugal has installed Western Europe's only Communist-influenced cabinet and Prime Minister Vasco Goncalves pledged more nationalization of the country's economy.

Literary Winners

Cameron Clements took first place honors in persuasive speaking in district UIL literary competition April 4-5. DeAnne Finley was second in poetry. Both HHS students earned the right to advance to regional UIL competition with their placings in the district contest.

CPS Exams Are Slated

The 1975 annual Certified Professional Secretary Examination will be administered at West Texas State University May 2 and 3.

West Texas State will be one of more than 175 centers for the two-day, six-part examination, which approximately 4,000 secretaries will take throughout the United States, Canada and Puerto Rico.

To date, 7,337 have earned the CPS designation by passing the six parts of the examination: Environmental Relationships, Business, Business and Public Policy, Economics and Management, Financial Analysis and the Mathematics of Business, Communications and Decision-Making and Office Procedures.

The examination is open to all secretaries who meet the specific educational requirements in combination with specified years of verified secretarial experience. Applications for the 1976 examination are now being accepted by the Institute for Certifying Secretaries, 2440 Pershing Road, Suite G-10, Kansas City, Missouri 64108.

Stamp Amendments Are Adopted By USDA

The U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) has announced three amendments to the food stamp program that will (1) restrict businesses from both issuing and redeeming food stamps, (2) change the design of the authorization-to-purchase (ATP) card, and (3) hold states liable in some cases of adverse court decisions.

The first of these amendments formalizes a long-standing USDA policy precluding state agencies from designating as issuing agents any business authorized to accept and redeem food coupons from recipients. USDA's Food and Nutrition Service says that such a dual designation would give firm an unfair competitive advantage.

USDA received 12 comments on this amendment, which was published in the Federal Register for public comment—six in favor, six against.

The second amendment requires by July 1, 1975, that the design of the authorization-to-purchase (ATP) card include a signature line for each variable purchase option. This option allows food stamp participants to purchase all, three-quarters, one-half, or one-quarter of their monthly coupon allotment.

Applicants Sought By FBI For Work

The Dallas Office of the FBI, through its special agent in charge, J. Gordon Shanklin, has announced it is again in need of clerical employees to fill the positions of clerk, typist, and stenographer at bureau headquarters in Washington, D.C.

These positions present an opportunity for young people, male or female, who are at least 16 years of age, United States citizens, and have at least a high school education, provided they can pass a rigid investigation of loyalty, reputation, and character, and are in good physical condition. No previous experience is required.

The entrance salary for a clerk is $5,996 (GS-2) per year with a raise in 30 to 90 days to $6,764 (GS-3) per year, if their work is satisfactory. A 20 word spelling test must be passed to qualify for the clerk position.

A typist starts at $6,764 per year. Applicants for the typist position must pass a five minute typing test of 40 words per minute and a 20 word spelling test.

As openings occur, applicants for clerk and typist positions who are interested, are considered for the Fingerprint Clerk position which starts at $6,764 per year.

A Stenographer starts at $7,596 per year. To qualify for the stenographer position applicants must pass a three minute dictation test at the rate of 80 words per minute; pass a five minute typing test at the rate of 40 words per minute; pass a 20 word spelling test; and a 20 word vocabulary test.

The FBI is only interested in above average young men and women. Many FBI clerical employees continue their college education on a part-time basis in the Washington, D.C., area while working at these full time clerical jobs.

Young men and women who obtain a four year college degree from an accredited college and who have been employed in a clerical capacity with the FBI for three years and meet all other requirements may be considered for the special agent position at a starting salary of $14,117 per year.

The FBI provides counseling services to its new employees to assist them with housing, transportation and other needs. If close friends or young married couples apply at the same time and are found acceptable, every effort is made to afford them appointments at the same time.

The FBI does not come under Civil Service in that the FBI has its own application form, tests, investigates and hires its own employees rather than draw them from a Civil Service list or register.

An application and detailed information may be obtained by calling or writing the Special Agent in Charge, FBI, 200 Mercantile Continental Building Dallas, Texas, 75201, telephone Area Code 214-741-1851, or by contacting the nearest FBI office whose telephone number will be listed in the front of your telephone directory.

Vacancies for the position of clerk, typist and stenographer frequently exist in the Dallas Office for which interested and qualified applicants may also be considered.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Readers:

Texas voters will decide on two important constitutional amendments in a special election to be held April 22. These amendments are of importance to every Texan.

The amendments are:

Amendment 1: To allow the state to increase its contribution from six (6) per cent to ten (10) per cent of the total salary paid to members of the Teachers Retirement System.

Amendment 2: To increase salaries, per diem expense allowances, and mileage allowance for members of the Texas Legislature.

a positive vote on the two constitutional amendments. Success depends on the commitment and participation of local voters across the state.

Those who will not be home on April 22 should vote absentee through April 18.

Carolyn Waters
TSTA Local President
224 Ave E
Pho. 364-0696

First, it will assure continuation of the increase teacher retirement benefit recently enacted by the Legislature for teachers who retired before Sept. 1, 1973. Second, it will open the way to improve retirement benefits for all TRS members in later years.

Amendment 2: To increase salaries, per diem expense allowances, and mileage allowance for members of the Texas Legislature.

Amendment 2 deserves the support of Texas educators and all citizens, in the interest of good government and fair compensation for legislators.

TSTA has always supported proposals to increase legislative pay. The last increase approved by the legislators was in 1960. The amount authorized then is obviously unrealistic in today's economy. We urgently need to approve for Amendment 2. Lawmakers represent us and they should receive reasonable salaries for their services.

The local TSTA is promoting

The Federal Government spent a total of $223 billion through June 30, 1974, providing benefits through the Veterans Administration and its predecessors. World War II veterans accounted for a major portion of the expenditures, nearly 48 per cent, according to VA.

According to latest Veterans Administration statistics, California, with 3.22 million veterans, retained its rank in 1974 as state with the most veterans, followed by New York with 2.52 million, Pennsylvania with 1.76 million, Texas with 1.59 million and Illinois with 1.56 million.

Errors often arise when men try to prove that they have been right.

I AM TIRED OF POLITICS!!!

I realize that today more than ever the public is disgusted with our nation's politics. I hope this feeling has not become evident here in our Hereford Independent School District trustee race. Once again let me express my feelings and desires.

1. Please realize that you're voting for one person to become one member of a seven member board.
2. One person cannot go in and change the whole board. However, I can and will contribute your ideas and feelings on certain issues and policies.
3. Each time a vote is called for in a board meeting, whoever is elected April 19th will have only 1 vote. I cannot promise to vote each time exactly the way every person in Hereford would like for me to vote. However, I will promise that after hearing the pros and cons of the issue under discussion, I will consider the students, teachers, parents, taxpayers and completely weigh each side of the issue, then cast my vote the way I feel will be of most benefit to everyone.
4. I am not a politician - I don't want to run on false promises. I just have a sincere desire to better serve my community.

On This Basis, I'd Appreciate Your Vote April 19th

May Finally Delivers Success Message

Weather was the unfortunate circumstance for Willard May of Dallas as he tried to speak to Hereford Rotarians last week, but he came back Monday to demonstrate that "success" can be obtained even in the face of tornado warnings. May a promoter for the Successful Living Seminar set for May 5 and 6 appropriately challenged the club to be successful and that the key to that is the individual himself. Explaining that people identify success along the lines of material things, he said, "Things don't make success, success makes things." "Hereford will be experiencing one of the greatest events in the past decade at least from what I have heard," May noted referring to the seminar. It will go on as scheduled in the Bull Barn for three hours each night with Ron Willingham conducting it. Dr. Maxwell Maltz, a co-author of the seminar, died Monday, May 7, and the Deaf Smith Chamber of Commerce, sponsors, agreed with Willingham to carry the full load of the seminar.

The price tickets was dropped to $25 each since the talent cost for Maltz no longer existed. "It will still be of same quality as both men were equally qualified to fill in for the other if necessary," May said.

The seminar is designed to help anyone from teenagers to older adults. It along with OPE (other people's experience) can lead toward success, he said.

At a luncheon, Rotarians honored the March Officer of the Month, Reuben McGilvary, a county sheriff's deputy. The April Officer of the Month is Paul Ramirez, Lieutenant with the City police department.

Ruddy, Rotary president, informed the club of the recent death of Emil Prphl, Rotary district governor. He was a retired medical doctor from Tahoka.

The district conference is still scheduled at Pampa on Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Ready For Fair

HHS Industrial Arts students Wesley Wilson and Dennis Brown show of a canoe constructed by HHS industrial arts classes. The canoe will be only one of many items that will be on display Friday and Saturday at Sugarland Mall as the La Plata and Stanton Junior High and Hereford High School industrial arts departments hold their industrial arts fair. Judging of displays will be held Thursday night and items made by the students will be on display Friday and Saturday. The industrial arts club will also have items for sale.

City's Carol Choir Given Top Rating

Top rating among 15 choirs, with special commendation from the judges, was given the Carol Choir of First United Methodist here as it sang in an annual choir festival for children of elementary school age, held in the chapel of Oklahoma City University on the weekend.

The singers were judged on diction, attentiveness, musicianship, intonation, accuracy, tone, interpretation and appearance. The 42-voice group from Hereford was rated "excellent" in each, and was the only choir to silence the audience with its performance, Robert McFarland, director, reports.

McFarland is assisted in his work with this junior choir by three choir mothers, Mmes. Lynn Pittard, David Brumley and Vannoy Paschall. They accompanied the group to Oklahoma City as did Mrs. McFarland, Paschall, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Hanna, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Olson, Mrs. R.L. Fuhrmann, Mrs. Bill Taylor, David Ruland, and Jacob King.

Choirs were judged as each sang separately in the Parade of Choirs, then a massed choir concert was presented Saturday afternoon directed by Alice Parker, composer, conductor and lecturer from New York.

Six specified numbers, all memorized, were sung in the contest.

The Hereford group made the trip leaving Friday and returning Saturday night. Sponsored by the Oklahoma Conference Council on Ministries of the United Methodist Church, the festival brings young singers from several states each year.

Officer of the Month

Reuben McGilvary, left, is presented the March Officer of the Month Award by Rotarian Alex Schroeter at the Rotary luncheon Monday.

Port of Entry Workshop Set

With the opening of the Amarillo Port of Entry to take place during the latter part of May, the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce, Board of City Development, Airport Board, and Texas Industrial Commission are jointly sponsoring an International Trade Workshop.

Scheduled for Wednesday, April 30 from 8:45 A.M. until 3:00 P.M., the session will take place at the Villa Inn Convention Center, I-40 and Grand. The $4.00 registration fee will include the cost of luncheon.

All area individuals and businessmen who foresee themselves as possible future users of the Port of Entry are invited to attend the trade workshop. In addition, mayors, bankers, and chamber officials from area cities are urged to attend and to assist in "Getting the Word" to all other individuals wishing to use the Port of Entry.

During the workshop, a panel discussion will be conducted by experts in varying fields. The session will provide down to earth information to the businessman who is interested in expanding into the international field, but who has no experience in it; and it will provide specific information on how to use the Amarillo Port of Entry, saving time and money for those already engaged in import and export operations.

GI Bill students who demonstrate a clear need can qualify for loans up to $600 per academic year from the Veterans Administration to help them meet training costs, the agency pointed out recently.

Open 4-H Horse Show Set For Arena Saturday

The Deaf Smith County 4-H Horse Club in conjunction with the Six-County 4-H Horse Show Association will sponsor an open 4-H Horse Show at 10 a.m. Saturday at the Hereford Riders' Arena.

Entry blanks are available at the county extension agent's office and entries should be turned in by Thursday.

Classes to be offered will include Registered Mares, 5 years and over; Registered Mares under 5 years; Grade Mares, 5 years and over; Grade Mares under 5 years; Registered Geldings, 5 years and over; Grade Geldings, under 5 years; Showmanship, Western Pleasure; Western Horsemanship; Reining, Pole Bending and Barrel Racing.

Age divisions will include Pee Wee-under nine years; Junior-9-13 years; and Senior-14-19 years.

Interested individuals may contact the county extension office at 364-3573 for more information.

Veterans Administration research indicates a diet supplement of an amino acid, tryptophan, may help alcoholics stay dry by relieving some of the symptoms of alcohol-related body chemistry disorders.

REASONS YOU SHOULD SUPPORT CLARK ANDREWS

1. Clark is mature- Realizing that the six present elected board members are excellent individuals, did you know that the average age is less than 35 years? Clark is 43 years of age. Clark believes there should be a balance of age on the Board of Trustees.
2. Clark is interested in the school system. Did you know that Clark was the only candidate in the last election who has attended several board meetings during the past two years?
3. Clark can represent all the people in this community. He is not committed to any group or organization within the confines of the Hereford Independent School District.
4. Clark knows the community. He is a native and a product of the Hereford Independent School District, graduating from Hereford High School in 1950.
5. Clark is a successful farmer. Clark has been in the farming business for the past 20 years, and is a successful farmer in the Frio Community, having had farming interests there for the past 30 years. Clark is thrifty and conservative.
6. Clark has served as Treasurer and presided over business meetings in the absence of the pastor at his church. He was selected to supervise building the parsonage and other projects in his church.
7. Clark is sincere in his desire to do a good job in the community, and is sympathetic to the needs of all people.

Jim Reid To Speak At CCC

Jim Reid will be the program speaker at a buffet supper at 7 p.m. Saturday in Civic Center. Local business men are invited to hear Reid at the fellowship dinner.

Tickets may be purchased for $2.65 at the door.

Reid is presently ministering in a full-time capacity as a pastor. Previously he ministered in Portugal and several countries in Latin America at Shepard's Conference.

He was born and raised as a Southern Baptist in Abernathy. He attended Wayland Baptist College for four years and graduated from Adams State College at Alamosa, Colo.

Reid served as FGBMF Chapter president two years and operated a ranch and a feedlot. He now resides with his wife Sandy and three children in Monte Vista, Col.

Proclamation Signed

Mrs. Clint Formby, co-chairman of the local Bicentennial committee, witnesses the signature by Mayor James Sears proclaiming Friday as "bell ringing day" in Hereford. The 10 p.m. celebration is to be in recognition of Paul Revere's ride to warn colonists about the approach of British troops April 18, 1775.

Terrace Is Family Boon

A terrace or patio can provide an area for recreation, entertainment and privacy, and can be a valuable addition to the home landscape, according to a specialist in landscape horticulture.

"Terraces located adjacent to the kitchen, family room or bedroom provide a convenient way of linking indoors to outdoors," says Dr. William Welch with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

"A terrace should be at least 8-10 feet wide and should continue the design of the adjoining structure," says Welch. "The surface of the terrace should be firm and relatively smooth and slope away from the house for proper drainage."

The Texas A&M University System specialist suggests using concrete and flagstone materials in constructing the terrace because they are the easiest to clean. However, brick and pea gravel concrete are also suitable and can be hoed off easily.

Welch advises putting in the surfacing materials in three-to six-foot sections. "Use redwood or some other long lasting lumber for dividers or headers. This will improve the looks of a terrace made with bricks laid over sand."

To insure privacy, terraces should be built away from walkways or driveways. Fences, vines, plants or trees can be used as privacy screens.

Such accessories as electric lights, weatherproof electrical outlets, radios and flowering plants or shrubs add greatly to the convenience and enjoyment of a terrace, says Welch.

"A portable grill or small depressed fire circle comes in handy for barbecues and outdoor dinners or picnics," adds the horticulturist.

ENERGY USE DOWN

Rogers C.B. Morton Interior Secretary has reported that energy consumption in the United States fell 2.2 per cent in 1974 after climbing steadily for more than two decades.

Friday Declared Holiday Citing Revere's Ride

City Mayor James Sears has declared Friday to be "bell ringing" day in Hereford in observance of the 200th anniversary of Paul Revere's famous ride from Charleston, Mass. to Lexington.

Celebration of the historic journey, which immediately preceded the first battle of the Revolutionary War, will begin locally at 10 p.m. tomorrow. Church and school bells will ring out for 10 minutes.

Cindy Smart, Melinda Watts and Craig Nieman will swing the Hereford High School victory bells as representatives of the Bicentennial youth committee.

Bulldogs Edge Herd Twice Tuesday

By JIM STEERY
BRAND SPORTS WRITER

Hereford lost two close games at Plainview Tuesday as the Herd began the second half of district baseball play.

Plainview eked out a 1-0 victory in the first game and came back to edge the Herd 4-3 in the nightcap.

The losses give the Herd an 8-2 marker for the beginning of the second half of district play and a 7-14 season record.

Plainview stands at 2-6 in second half play with the double victory and is now 15-7 for the season.

Plainview pitcher Freddie Longoria singled in Texas Galtier to score the winning run in the first game in the bottom of the seventh inning.

Harvey Torres and Mike Dudding hit singles for the Herd in the first game but were left stranded on base.

Roy Martinez was tagged with the loss for the Herd in the first game to drop his season record to 2-7. Martinez gave up four hits in the game, struck out seven Bulldog batters and walked two.

Hereford made a determined run for the win in the second game and if the Herd had been able to score some of the eight runners left stranded on base, the final score might have been in Hereford's favor.

Valente Chavez struck the winning run for Plainview in the second game, coming home in the fifth when teammate Steve Westbrook was being pursued to a rundown.

Hereford scored a run in the first inning when Harvey Torres reached base on a Bulldog error.

Roy Martinez singled to send Torres to second and Mike Dudding's single scored Torres.

The Herd managed two more runs in the fourth. Mike Crim led off with a double and went to third on Chris King's single.

Crim scored on a single by Pete Hale and King then scored on a passed ball.

Plainview's Bulldogs scored two runs in the third inning and two in the fifth.

Mike Crim suffered the loss for the Herd. His season mark is now 3-5. Crim gave up six hits in Tuesday's game, fanned seven Plainview batters and gave up two walks.

Westbrook was the winning pitcher for Plainview. His season record is now 3-1.

In the second game Roy Martinez sailed three hits, Dudding had two, and Mike Crim, Chris King and Pete Hale all had one hit each.

The baseball Herd has an open date Friday and will host the Monterey Plainview in a doubleheader here Tuesday.

The first game is set to begin at 2:30.

Hereford will host Coronado April 25 and Lubbock High April 29 in the final games of the season.

In other District 4-AAAA baseball action Tuesday, Lubbock High and Monterey split a twin bill at Lowry Field in Lubbock. Lubbock High took the first game 5-4 and Monterey walked away with the win in the nightcap 4-3.

Plainview now holds the lead in the second half race at 2-0 and Monterey and Lubbock High are tied at 1-1. Coronado will open Tuesday.

Junior High Girls Second, Third

La Plata and Stanton junior high athletes posted second and third place finishes respectively in the 7th and 8th grade and freshman divisions of the Panhandle Junior High Athletic League Girls' South Zone meet Monday.

Canyon took first place in all three divisions of the meet. La Plata accumulated 130 points in freshman competition, 161 in the 8th grade meet and 134 in the 7th grade division.

Stanton had 69 points in freshman competition, 70 in the 8th grade division and 128 in the 7th grade division.

La Plata's freshman 440 relay team made up of Angela Hartman, Rochelle Ruland, Judy Birdwell and Pam Whitley took the event in 53.6. Stanton was third.

La Plata was second in the freshman 880 relay team and Stanton was third.

Whitley of La Plata was second in the 60 and 100 yard dashes and Romero was second for La Plata in the 880. Betzen finished second in the discus and Whitley was third in the triple jump for the La Plata freshmen. The La Plata mile relay team also finished second.

Athletes taking honors for Stanton in the freshman division included Park with a first place finish in the 220 and Anstey with a second in the 80 yard hurdles.

McNaney finished third in the shot put.

La Plata also won first in the 440 relay in the 8th grade division with Luana Berryman, Barbara Jacks, Becky McGilvary and Marie Schilling handling the running chores.

Stanton was second in the event.

Becky McGilvary, Polly Robinson, Irma De Los Santos and Luana Berryman won the 880 relay for La Plata. Stanton finished third.

Schilling was first in the 440 for La Plata 8th graders. McGilvary and Pittard were second and third respectively in the 60 yard dash and Berryman was second in the 220.

Jacks finished third in the 100 and De Los Santos was second in the 440. Pittard was second in the 660, Schilling third in the long jump, Berryman third in the triple jump and Robinson third in the discus.

Schilling finished second in the high jump.

Moton finished first for Stanton in the 80 yard hurdles and second in the 100.

Arroyos was first in the 660 dash.

Seventh grade action saw Stanton capture first in the 440 and 880 relays while La Plata was second in the 440 and third in the 880.

Foster finished first for Stanton in both the 100 and 60 yard dashes and Matthews was first in the 220. Valdez was second.

Martin was first in the 80 yard hurdles for Stanton and McCullar was first in the shot put. Pagett finished third in the 440.

Reinart helped garner honors for La Plata with a first place finish in the 440 and Barrea was first in the 660 dash. Tatum was first in the discus and Parker and Cherry were second and third respectively in the high jump.

Griffin finished second in the triple jump for La Plata and was third in the long jump.

Trolender was third in the 660 and Cherry was third in the 80 yard hurdles. Griffin was second in the 100 and Drishell second in the 60.

First Place Finish

Frank Madrigal of Stanton crosses the finish line to take first place in the freshman division 880. Madrigal turned a 2:08.9 to take the win during the finals of the Panhandle Junior High Athletic League Boys' South Zone Meet at Whiteface Stadium Tuesday afternoon. A near-perfect day greeted the junior high cindersmen as they turned out to compete.

Doubles Team Takes Second

For the second time in as many weeks, Hereford High Schools' boys' doubles combination of Clayton Faubion and Steve Hoover took second place honors in a tennis tournament. The sophomore duo finished second in the district tennis meet in Lubbock over the weekend.

Faubion and Hoover were defeated by Steve Wyatt and Rice Horkey of Coronado in the finals Saturday, 6-3, 6-4. The team earned the right to compete in the finals by beating Burns and Hedley of Monterey in first round play Friday.

Clay of Coronado 6-3, 6-4. Both Faubion and Hoover received medals for their second place finish. HHS tennis coach Steve Thomas reported Tuesday that he is optimistic about the Herd's chances in tennis competition next year. "We won't be losing any of our top six boys or girls, so we should be in good shape to be in contention," said Thomas.

Stanton Fresh Second At Meet

Stanton's freshman cindersmen finished second in their division of the Panhandle Junior High Athletic League South Zone Boys' meet held Tuesday at Whiteface Stadium.

Stanton amassed a total of 121 5/6 points to nail down the second place post. Canyon was first in the division with a total of 173 5/6 points.

La Plata finished third at 97. In the 8th grade division La Plata was third and Stanton was fourth and Stanton finished fourth in the 7th grade competition and La Plata was fifth.

Estacado won the 8th grade division and the Canyon Purple team won 7th grade competition.

Preliminaries for the event were conducted in cold, damp weather Saturday but Tuesday's meet took place under near-perfect conditions. Temperatures were warm, although the wind did hamper runners slightly.

In freshman competition, Reyna of La Plata took a first in the mile as he turned a 5:02.4.

Taking first place honors for the Stanton freshmen were Hennington in the long jump with a leap of 18-9; Madrigal in the 880; McDowell with a 55.4 in the 440; Neja with a toss of 43-7 3/8 in the shot put and Kitchens at 12-6 in the pole vault.

Kitchens was second in the discus.

Others taking honors for La Plata were Censisero with a second in the 330 low hurdles, Cortez with a second in the 220 and Matchett with a second place finish in the mile.

Clark was second in the long jump for La Plata mile relay team, Del Toro of Stanton in the high jump, Cortez of La Plata in the 100 and Brockman of Stanton in the 120 high hurdles.

In 8th grade competition those taking firsts were Kerr of La Plata in the shot put; Bell of La Plata in the 440 with a time of 56.4; and Bell in the long jump.

Second place honors went to Gaiton of La Plata in the 660; Mercer of Stanton in the discus and the Stanton 880 relay team.

Also placing second were Stanton's Castillo in the 880 and the Stanton 440 relay team.

Third place finishers included the La Plata 880 relay team;

Lucio of La Plata in the 440 and long jump; Dement of La Plata in the high jump; La Plata's Allen in the 100 low hurdles; Bunch of Stanton in the 60 yard hurdles; Mercer of Stanton in the 100 and Carasco of Stanton in the 880.

Top honors in 7th grade events went to Flores of Stanton in the 880 and Ramirez of Stanton in the high jump.

Turning in second place finishes in the 7th grade division were the La Plata 880 relay team and Ramirez of Stanton in the 220.

Third place finishers included

Ramirez of Stanton in the long jump; Alajano of Stanton in the 880 and Martinez of La Plata in the 220.

The top three finishers in each event earned the right to advance to district competition April 26 at the WTSU track in Canyon.

District Meet Set For Friday

Hereford will play host to approximately 200 4-AAAA cindersmen Friday at the district meet.

According to HHS track coach Bob Priest, Monterey's Plainsmen will come into the meet as the favorites.

Other teams to compete in addition to Hereford include Lubbock Coronado, Lubbock High School and Plainview High School.

First and second place winners in Friday's meet will advance to regional competition.

The district meet will be run in both varsity and junior varsity divisions.

Saturday, Herd cindersmen joined approximately 1000 high school athletes from across the state in the Amarillo Relays.

'Well, It Was Fun'

"At any rate, they had fun." The above line is the title of an article in the recent edition of Sports Illustrated, and local readers may have been surprised to find the names of four local young men in the feature story about the Texas Relays.

Hereford readers may have been more surprised, however, when they saw a photo of the University of Texas students identified as Andy Wingert, Bucky Payne, Chip Guseman and Lee Line. There was just one familiar face in the relay team, and it belonged to Joe Sheffy, a student at Southwest Texas in San Marcos.

The article takes behind-the-scenes look at the nationally-published Texas Relays and pinpoints the joys of winning by an intramural team running just for fun, and girls running for attention.

Jim Witt, sports writer for the San-Marcos Record, revealed the big "put down" in his column following the event. The foursome from San Marcos wanted to run in the intramural races at the relays, but it was limited to UT students. They had to show their ID cards before entering, so the SWT crew did some fast talking and wound up with four Hereford students' names.

Kovacs Is Tourney Winner

John Kovacs won first place honors in a bass tournament held by the triangle bass masters last weekend at Greenbelt Lake.

Louie Kovacs second place in the tourney and John Pellham, Bryan Dutton and Robert Moss tied for third.

The next club meeting will be May 5 at the West Texas Rural Telephone meeting room. The public is invited to attend.

All reveals plan to fight Foreman this year.

According to a report from San Marcos, the real team was composed of Sheffy, a Hereford sophomore; Mike Clifton, Keline senior; Jamie Tout, Corpus Christi senior, and Scott Emerson, Midland senior. With such exposure, there was bound to be disclosure but "at any rate, they had fun."

Golfers Are Sixth In Amarillo

Hereford's golf team ended their competition in the golf division of the Amarillo Relays Saturday with a sixth place total of 702. It was the first time Hereford has made the cut in the golf relays since becoming a 4-AAAA school.

Curtis Stoerner finished fifth in the competition with a total of 160.

Other individual scores for the Herd were George Yocum, 181, Billy Word, 181, Greg Pagett 186 and Don Shaw, 189. The B team didn't make the cut but finished tenth out of 16 teams. Individual scores were Mark Fowler, 89; Tony Albracht, 93; Kelly Lea, 100 and Blake Allen, 104.

Hereford will host the final stop on the district golf tour Friday. Plainview currently holds a three shot lead over Monterey in the race.

Junior high golfers will begin their season Saturday at Dumas.

Coin Shortage Is Eased As Mint Output Steps Up

NEW YORK—How much money—currency and coins—is in circulation in Deaf Smith County? Is there less than there should be for the economy to be operating in normal fashion? The supply and the flow of money have been the subject of studies and conferences that have been going on in Washington for months. Varying views have been voiced by the President, by Congress, by the Federal Reserve Board and others.

Almost all of them agree that the amount of currency in circulation has to be expanded to turn the recession around. The only questions have been—by how much and by what method?

It consists of one half-dollar coin, 3 quarters, 5 dimes, 4 nickels and 42 pennies per capita. There is also a new one-dollar piece in circulation for every three persons.

The face value of the 11.8 billion coins is listed at $61 million. Because silver is no longer used in their manufacture, there was a vast difference, almost 95 percent, between their face value and the cost of producing them. It netted the Government a handsome profit, about $10 million.

Nationally, the face value of all coins in circulation is over $13 billion, according to the Mint's figures.

Deaf Smith County's portion of this, based upon uniform distribution, is $236,000.

As for the total amount of currency of all kinds in circulation in the United States, it is close to $9 billion. This is exclusive of the stockpile of money that is held out of circulation by the Treasury Department and the Federal Reserve.

The $9 billion is equivalent to $24 for every man, woman and child in the country.

Bolton Addresses Rebekahs

Mrs. Ocie Bolton, deputy president of District 5, was an honored guest of Hereford Rebekah Lodge 728 Tuesday evening in KOOF Hall.

Representing the Dimmitt Lodge 54, Mrs. Bolton presented a resume of the 1975 president's program, Rebekah Assembly of Texas. The new assembly president is Mrs. Pat Jones of Smithville.

District 5 consists of Friona Lodge 308 and Hereford and Dimmitt Lodges.

Other business included presentation of certificate of perfection from the Rebekah Assembly to Mrs. P.B. Sewell.

Members reported 48 visits to ailing individuals and 17 greeting cards sent. Mrs. Ada Hollobaugh was hostess to 22 members and one guest.

INSIDE TV

CONFIDENTIAL REPORT—RICHARD THOMAS, star of "The Waltons" on TV, surprised a lot of people with his wedding to former New York social worker ALMA GONZALES, so much so that it will be weeks before the wedding presents catch up. But Richard didn't mean to shock anyone; in fact, "out of friendship," as he explained, he broke the news to SIÂN BARBARA ALLEN a full two days before he left for New York to get married. Siân is the pretty young actress he has been dating since he arrived in Hollywood two years ago. Wasn't that thoughtful of Richard? ... Wonder how CHER BONO keeps her figure so attractive? Before she made it big as a singer, she was instructing at a health spa and still practices the exercises she used to preach... NBC's new detective show, "Archer" starring BRIAN KEITH, must have set a new record, being cancelled after only two episodes... Highway Job Progresses

Recent work on the 15th Street overpass of U.S. Highway 60 (Hereford highway) in north Canyon has centered on concrete deck preparation, and installation of guard railing. The near $1 million project, which was started in September 1974, is expected to be completed in mid-June. Don D. Day of Canyon, Texas Highway Department resident engineer, said this portion of U.S. 60 will pass under 15th Street and will have four highway lanes and two frontage roads. Completion this summer on the 15th Street overpass will provide a safer link between downtown Canyon and Hunsley Hills. The new traffic facility also will provide a safer more convenient travel between Hereford and Canyon and Hereford and Amarillo. Gilvin-Terrill Inc. Amarillo holds the $999,583 contract for the overpass project.

Teacher Organization Leaders

The local unit of the Texas State Teachers Association and the Hereford Classroom Teachers Association held their annual installation dinner Monday night at the high school cafeteria. Installed as new presidents were Mary Jo Hammond, CTA, and Eugene Barkowsky, TSTA. They succeed Patsy Giles and Carolyn Waters, respectively, as leaders of the teacher groups. Mrs. Hammond is a teacher at Stanton Junior High, and Barkowsky is assistant principal at high school.

Teachers Install Officers
Clearman Presented
Special Award

High Clearman, retiring president of the Hereford School Board, was presented the "Friend of Educators Award" during the annual ASTA-CTA officer installation dinner Monday night. Clearman was commended for his 12 years of service as a school trustee and for his contributions toward educators in the presentation made by Carolyn Waters, president of the Deaf Smith County unit of the Texas State Teachers Association, and Patsy Giles, president of the Hereford Classroom Teachers Association.

Eugene Barkowsky, assistant principal at high school, was installed as the new president of the TSTA unit, and Mary Jo Hammond Stanton Junior High, became the new CTA president. Reuben McGilvary served as the installing officer.

Other officers installed for TSTA were McGilvary, president-elect; Don Hooper, vice president; Joanne Hairgrove, secretary; and Betty Mercer, treasurer. Other officers named for CTA were Richard Stanley, president-elect; Robert Stewart, vice president; Mary Hale, secretary; and Marie Stringer, treasurer.

In other business, the teachers approved an increase in local TSTA dues, from $4 to $8 per year, and elected district and state delegates. Named as delegates to the state convention were Barkowsky, McGilvary, Betty Mercer and Roy Hartman.

Art Coltharp, TSTA representative from Austin, made brief remarks to the group and announced that ballots will soon be mailed to all state members concerning the unification with the National Education Association.

Pat Hughes, district legislative chairman, reported on upcoming elections and the status of five bills now being considered by the state legislature on school financing. He also announced that teachers are planning a statewide rally in Austin April 26 to support the TSTA bill on school financing.

Both of the outgoing presidents recognized their executive committees and paid special tribute to the faculty representatives of each teacher organization. Mrs. Waters was presented a past-president's pin from the incoming president.

Police Beat

Auto Collisions
Keep Police Busy

Officers were kept busy with collisions and several auto burglaries during the weekend.

In a Police Beat-story last week The Brand reported that Alan Everette Brooks of 404 Ave. J was arrested for assault with intent to do great bodily harm in connection with an incident in the 200 block of North 385 according to city police records. The statement was later found to be in error as the offense for which Brooks was eventually charged was drunk in public. The Brand regrets the error.

A 1973 Chevrolet pickup operated by Kellie McCormick of Rt. 1, Hereford and a 1965 Ford Mustang driven by Diana Lea Ward of Rt. 4 collided Saturday on Park Avenue. Both vehicles were westbound at the time of the accident.

Officers also checked out a collision involving a 1973 Dodge operated by Diamantina Elizando of Hereford and a 1972 Ford van driven by Robert Earl Spauldings of 828 South Texas. The accident occurred Saturday at the corner of Knight and Bradley. After the initial impact the Elizando vehicle struck a tree on the southeast corner of the street.

Friday, officers checked out an accident at the intersection of Highway 60 and Main involving a 1973 Dodge pickup driven by Joseph Marvin Payne Jr. of 127 Hickory and a 1960 Ford pickup driven by Tiberio Marquez of Springfield, Colo.

Officers arrested Ray Cervantez, 19, of 615 Austin Saturday afternoon for possession of marijuana. Hereford police stopped a 1973 Mustang at Roosevelt and East 6th and obtained permission to look inside the vehicle. They found rolling paper and a cigarette holder and found marijuana in Cervantez's possession. Cervantez was placed in Deaf Smith County jail.

City police are currently investigating two auto burglary incidents which occurred Sunday at Deaf Smith General Hospital.

A van owned by Linda Sims Robinson, who was in the process of moving to Hereford was entered, a tachometer in the vehicle was partially removed and items in the vehicle were rummaged through. The vehicle was parked on the parking lot south of the hospital. A vehicle owned by Evelyn Dandridge of Friona was also burglarized Sunday. The car was parked at Deaf Smith General Hospital. A number of tools and a brown fur hat were taken in the incident.

Vandals struck at Bakers Grocery at 1101 East 1st Sunday night. Five windows on the east side of the building were broken. Police are still investigating the vandalism.

Saturday night vandals slashed a tire on a 1974 Volkswagen in the driveway of Eugene Barkowsky at 242 Fir.

Officers are currently investigating another case of car burglary which took place early Sunday morning. Rafael Olivarez of 322 Ave. H reported that his 1970 Pontiac, which was parked in his driveway, was entered. A stereo tape player, speakers, tapes and a billfold were taken. The items were valued at $166.

A hole was knocked in the back door of the Playhouse Skating Rink on West Highway 60 Sunday and a roll of pennies and some passes were taken. Officers reported that some skates also may have been taken.

Vandals slashed all four tires on a vehicle at the Gene Huntsinger residence at 240 NW Drive Friday.

Officers arrested three persons for DWI and six for drunkenness over the weekend.

Firemen Plagued
By False Alarms

By JIM SPAIN
BRAND STAFF WRITER

Hereford firemen have been plagued by a number of false alarms lately and according to Jay Spain, city fire marshal, those responsible for the hoaxes could face stiff charges if they are apprehended.

The most spectacular of the current rash of false alarms came April 6 at about 12:57 a.m. when the fire department was notified that a vehicle had struck a utility pole seven miles north on Avenue K and 1 1/2 miles east. The individual who turned in the report stated that the car was on fire and a man was trapped inside.

HEREFORD POLICE, sheriff's officers, an ambulance and members of the fire department responded to the call, scanning the countryside for the location of the alleged accident.

"We were all out looking for someone we thought was in serious trouble," said Spain. "If there had been a real alarm while we were out on that false one, we would have had some serious problems," he added.

Other false alarms have included a report of a fire at 405 Ave. D to which 20 firemen responded and the report of an automobile fire at 6th and Main. They occurred Sunday.

A false alarm which sent fire units to TG&Y Monday morning was blamed on an electrical short in an alarm system.

"IT IS A CLASS A misdemeanor to issue a false fire report," Spain pointed out. "The offense is subject to a fine not to exceed $2,000 and/or one year or less of imprisonment."

Spain added that the individual or individuals responsible for a false alarm could face third degree manslaughter charges if the false alarm results in a death.

"If a fireman were to hit someone on the way to the station or the fire and kill them, the person turning in the false alarm would be charged with manslaughter," Spain said.

THE PENALTY for third degree manslaughter could include anywhere from two to 10 years of imprisonment and a fine not to exceed $5,000, according to Spain.

Spain also pointed out that the fire department has had a problem with individuals following fire equipment too closely and hampering firemen in their efforts to get to and fight the fire.

"The public has a right to see its fire department in operation, but individuals must stay a minimum distance of 500 feet away when following an emergency vehicle," he explained.

Hospital--

offering obstetric anesthesia instead of spinal anesthesia as is presently done. The hospital, however, has only one anesthetist, who is kept too busy with routine operations for drop-in obstetrics.

"While this might solve part of the problem, we still need to work out the complete problem," Dr. Mims noted.

In a statement released late Tuesday by the hospital Dr. Howard Johnson, chief of obstetrics for the hospital was quoted as saying that the drop-in obstetrics and anesthesia situation does not affect the malpractice insurance rate status of doctors. Welty did relate, however, that further investigation with nationwide companies indicates that the malpractice premiums are higher and that some of the companies are considering dropping doctors they presently carry.

The matter was tabled until the doctors and the whole hospital board meet jointly to discuss the solutions. Welty was informed by Amco Service of Dallas that the hospital's oldest of two sterilizer machines was too far beyond repair to be safety certified. It was suggested that a new one be purchased for a serviceable life of about 15 to 20 years.

Two models were suggested for $5,000 and $10,000 respectively. Welty suggested the more expensive one as it was larger and would better satisfy the future needs of sterilizing instruments and supplies on a constant basis. The board authorized the purchase.

Branding--

could hit farmers worse than a slumping cattle market or low grain prices. It provides for valuing farm land on an income capitalization method.

Proponents of the measure reportedly claim it will help farmers. Local tax officials say it will help ranchers and timber men, but it will put ridiculous values on farmland. One bill, called the "Governor's school financing bill", is HB-1083 and SB-478.

The other bill is HB-1463, which has the same approach on valuation of farmland, and relates to the "establishment, administration, and enforcement of a system of single, countywide appraisals of property for all property tax purposes." It would set up a new state agency on property appraisal and have a director with wide-ranging power over all county appraisal offices.

The ag committee of Deaf Smith C of C is very concerned about the possible effects of the two bills. After a meeting Monday, the committee plans to send eight representatives to Austin this week to visit with legislators. They prepared a "statement of position" to take to state senators and representatives.

The ag group calls the bill "detrimental to and discriminatory against all ag areas and more particularly the highly productive farmland of the High Plains." The income capitalization method would cause farmers to carry a much heavier load of school taxes—in some instances, two or three times more, claims the committee.

The local ag group also contends the proposed legislation is "unclear and ambiguous in many instances." The committee does make suggestions as to changes in the proposals. These include: (1) Specific guidelines on arriving at net income per acre, (2) Provide that the value, in no instance, would exceed the fair market value, (3) Employ a 10-year running average for determining value of ag land, (4) Implement an alternate method of financing the state public schools—one that would not discriminate against farmers in the High Plains.

Ranks Muster For Clean-Up Campaign

City beautification projects on individual and organized scales will be capped Saturday as Hereford Clean-Up Week is started by the Chamber of Commerce Women's Division.

Mrs. Travis McPherson is general chairman of the Division's beautification committee, who are directing the campaign, conceived last spring.

LOCAL YOUTH organizations will launch the drive Saturday morning by scouring specific littered areas and ridding particular eyesores in the community. Some of the large groups planning to participate in these activities are Boy Scouts, Camp Fire Girls, Order of Rainbow Girls and Catholic Youth Organization. These clubs and other recruits will assemble at 9:30 a.m. at Hereford High School.

The volunteer youngsters will gather at Dameron Park after completion of designated tasks at approximately 10:45 a.m. Drinks will be provided by the Coca-Cola Company and the Women's Division will be hostesses.

The anti-litter parade, originally scheduled Saturday morning, has been cancelled.

Elementary school youngsters prepared posters depicting the different aspects of community beautification. These entries were judged yesterday but results were not available at presstime. A $10 cash prize was presented to the all-around winner and $5 was given to the best competitor from each school. These posters are now on display at local businesses.

MEMBERS OF the beautification committee will be present at the site of the Bicentennial Nature Trail in Veteran's Park on Arbor Day, April 25. At 2 p.m. a crabapple tree will be contributed for planting there.

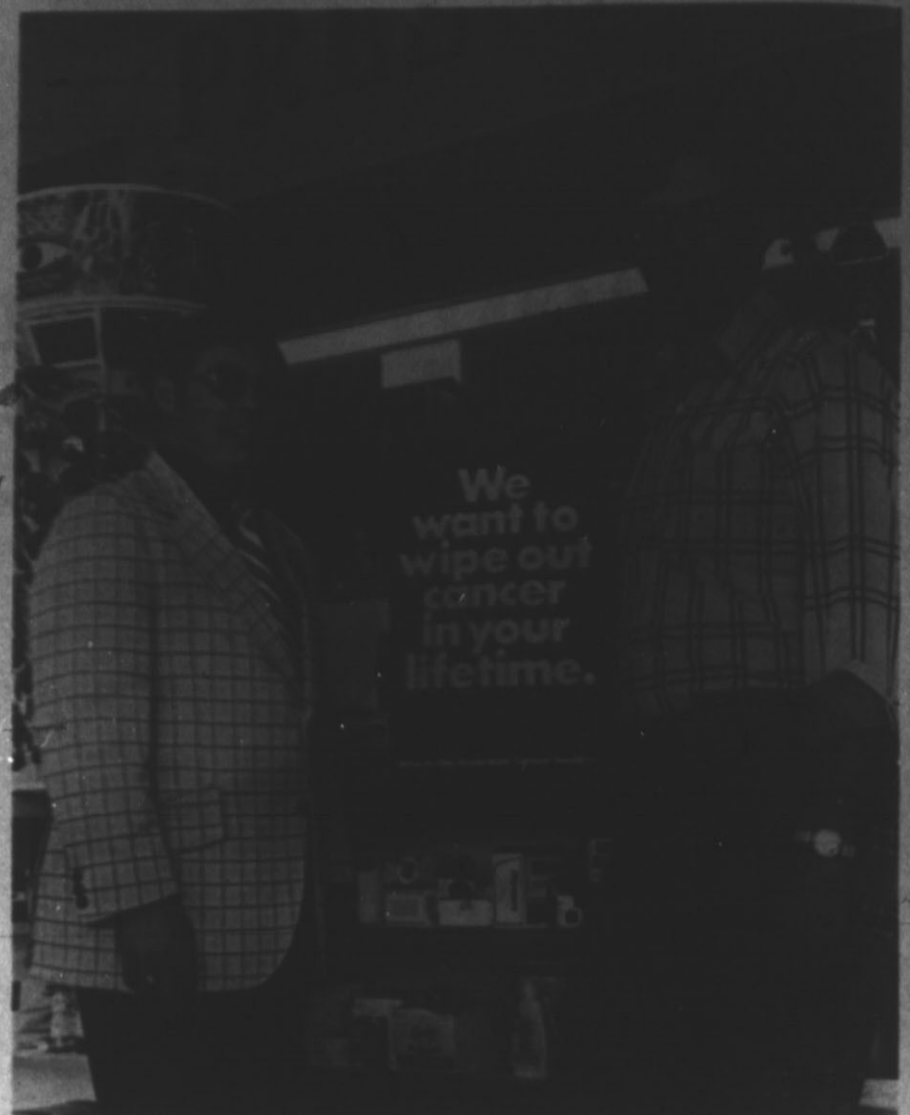

In addition to these organized projects, individual residents are urged to spruce up homes and surrounding lots. Elderly or invalid individuals who need assistance in grooming their property can call John Bunch who has enlisted aid from Hereford Jaycees.

City maintenance trucks will be making daily routes to collect expected influx of garbage.

"PRIDE IN community appearance is the responsibility of each member of the local community," Mrs. McPherson said. "The Women's Division urges the full cooperation of homeowners, businesses and other concerned citizens."

She continued, "Paint it up, fix it up or clean it up whether referring to the house, the broken-down fence or the vacant lot down the street."

"This campaign must have the support of the entire community so that the results can be enjoyed now and in the future when this work will yield numerous benefits."

opposition to the income capitalization method. The proposed bills do not specify a rate per $100. The court also agreed to pay a portion of Crume's expense to accompany local farm leaders to Austin to voice opposition to the proposed House bills—1083 and 1463.

Commissioners approved the crossing of county road with a gas line and the installation of a steel culvert in Precinct 2. The court also discussed possible legal action to collect past-due bills for the installation of culverts for county farmers.

James Voyles, Precinct 4 commissioner, opened bids on a number of used equipment items which were up for sale. Bids were accepted on three items, and all other bids were rejected as being too low on the equipment offered. Items sold included an aluminum tank, $400, to Adrian Civil Defense; a slope grader, $1,250, to Tom Lewellen of Farmer County; and a 6 by 6 truck, $881, to A&V Flying Service of Vega.

Commissioners approved a resolution to make application for a Criminal Justice Council grant to continue the county's participation in the Metro Intelligence Unit, and approved a resolution opposing hail suppression activities over any part of Deaf Smith County.

Walter Graham, a longtime resident in the Happy area, appeared at the meeting to discuss the weather modification matter. He contended that the hail suppression has greatly deterred rainfall in the southern and southeastern areas of Deaf Smith County. He said the cloud seeding involved in the program was "breaking up" cloud formations moving to the northeast.

The resolution adopted here is similar to one adopted in several other counties

Panel of Experts

Answers to "Everything You Want To Know About Real Estate But Have Been Afraid To Ask" will be given by a panel of experts at a meeting open to the public, which the Hereford Board of Realtors will sponsor April 24 as a highlight of National Realtor Week, April 20-26.

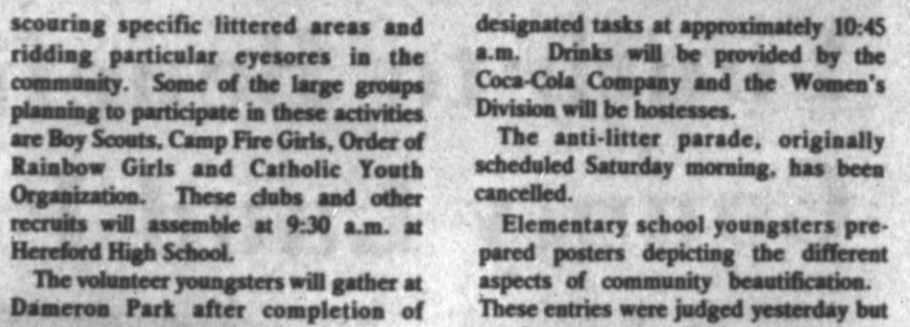

Time and place of this program are to be announced, says Mrs. Betty Gilbert, president of the Hereford Board. Persons on the panel will be from different parts of Texas, each a specialist in his field.

The board plans other activities during the national week "to demonstrate how the area continues to benefit from services of individual realtors and the board."

Annual observance of Realtors Week is conducted by approximately 500,000 realtors nationally. They urge the public to "join in programs of civic improvement that will make America even greater, also to practice diligence in safeguarding one of the most fundamental of human rights, the right of private real property ownership."

School Voting Action Returns Saturday

County Land Purchase

The shaded area on this portion of a city map shows the approximate location of the 30-acre tract of land which the county decided to purchase this week. Deaf Smith County Commissioners have verbally agreed to lease a portion of the land to Kids, Inc. for use in a baseball program and possibly other recreational purposes. The land is just east of Aikman school and is bordered on the north by 15th street. Whittier Street, if extended north and south, would form the west boundary.

Youth to Benefit from County Land Purchase

Deaf Smith County Commissioners took a giant stride for the youth of the community Monday, announcing their intent to purchase a 30-acre tract of land to be used "for future county expansion and recreational purposes."

A primary impetus for the action was a request from Kids, Inc. for land on which to build a baseball park complex for the use of some 1,200 boys and girls of Hereford and Deaf Smith County.

Commissioners have verbally agreed to provide a portion of the land for such a facility, with a lease-type arrangement to be formulated. Judge Sam Morgan said Monday the court has agreed the county will retain ownership of the land and regulate any construction on the property.

Commissioners agreed to pay $800 an acre for the property, with the $24,000 expenditure coming from the general fund. The land is owned by Jim A. McAndrews and adjoins the city limits in northeast Hereford. The tract is located east of Aikman school, lying south of 15th street and bounded on the west by what would be an extension of Whittier Street.

A generation ago most men who finished a day's work needed the rest; now they need exercise.

Chuck Cosper, president of Kids, Inc., was "real pleased" to learn of the county's decision to purchase land which can be used for the organization's youth program. "We've been working on this a long time, and we couldn't be happier about the commissioners' decision."

Cosper said Kids, Inc. hopes to build eight baseball parks on the site. He pointed out that the girls' softball program is growing fast, and the summer program could have something like 1,200 kids involved in the baseball and softball leagues. He feels, also, that the high school and American Legion baseball teams could use a lighted field at the proposed facility.

Cosper was planning a trip to Austin this week and will check out the possibility of Kids, Inc. applying for a grant from the Parks & Planning division of the Texas Parks & Wildlife. The grants, for recreational purposes, pay half of the total project cost.

The Community Center will again be the scene of voter action this Saturday as a runoff election for the place 3 seat on the Hereford School Board of Education will be decided.

The interest is again high as the absentee voter turnout was reported at 186 as of the deadline Tuesday according to Orpha Click, school district tax assessor-collector. A total of 284 absentee votes were recorded in the regular election April 5 with a record 2,733 total voter turnout.

IN THAT RACE no one received a majority in the place 3 contest, so a runoff has resulted between Bud Snyder and Clark Andrews. They were in a race with Joe Whitley who garnered only 619 votes, representing 23 per cent of the total turnout.

Snyder received the highest number of votes with 1,112 for 41.2 per cent and Andrews came in second with 967 for 35.8 per cent of the vote. This was enough to cause the runoff, however.

Already elected to the Hereford School Board is Jim Arney, winning against Bobby Veigel and Father Jose Gilligan without a runoff, and James Gentry, a close favorite over Bob Josslerand. Arney was an incumbent.

Click said the polls would be open from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m. at the Community Center. Voters are encouraged to bring their voter registration cards to speed up the voting process.

RESULTS of the race will be reported in the Thursday Brand edition following the race as press deadlines are before the final vote count Saturday night.

The only other county race this month is a race between Edwin Morrison Jr. and Bill Page in a runoff election for a seat on the Walcott School Board. The runoff is set for 8 a.m. to 7 p.m. Saturday April 26 in the Walcott Community.

The candidates were involved in a coincidental tie with 27 votes each in the regular election held April 5. Willis Duggan won the other open spot on the Walcott School Board in that race. He received 30 votes.

DWI Cases Heard

Five driving while intoxicated (DWI) cases comprised most of the county court docket activity last week and the first part of this week.

Six probation revocation hearings were set for cases involving four defendants in the 69th Judicial District Court.

In Justice of the Peace Court, delivery of a controlled substance charges were filed against Thomas Leolyn Walker, Glen Randell Jr., Bill Walker, Junior Walker and Bert Halle. These were in connection with the recent massive 11-person drug arrest by officers of the Metro Intelligence Unit.

Also filed were delivery of dangerous drug charges against Helen Walker Stone and auto burglary charges against Lenard Paul Perkins.

Sentences handed out to the DWI offenders are as follows:

—A.T. Olivo, 15 days and $100 plus court costs.

—Manuel Casias, 30 days and $100 plus court costs.

—Fred Rodriguez, 10 days and $50 plus court costs.

—Ronald Lynn Ward, 30 days on a one year probation and $150 plus court costs.

—Glenn Elmer Walker, 10 days and $100 plus court costs.

Other cases prosecuted in county court include:

—Ray Cervantez, possession of marijuana, 15 days and $25 plus court costs.

—Marty Burnam, possession of marijuana, 15 days and $100 plus court costs, one year probation.

—Teddy R. Phillips, welfare fraud, six months, $100 plus court costs, one year probation.

road improvements and possible jail improvements.

Tax appraisers Jim McMorris and Vance Crume attended the session and told commissioners that two proposed bills in the Legislature could result in the valuation of farmland being more than the market value. Examples of corn, milo, wheat, and sugar beets figured on the income capitalization method could result in land being valued as much as $1,000 to $2,000 an acre.

Commissioners adopted a resolution, to be sent to legislators, which voices

★★ Malpractice Insurance Cost May Cause Obstetric Cutback ★★ Hospital Costs Increased by 6%

By BOBBY TEMPLETON
BRAND NEWS EDITOR

The cost of medical treatment provided patients of the Deaf Smith General Hospital will rise by six per cent effective Thursday, May 1, as the result of action taken Tuesday morning by the hospital board of directors in what they termed a move to combat rapidly rising costs.

THE ACTION was based on a recommendation by the finance committee of the board, which proposed the increased rate after a request from Hospital Administrator Ron Welty. He explained that the increase was necessitated by higher prices for surgical and medical supplies, anticipated hikes for professional liability insurance, forced minimum wage increases by Jan. 1976, new Medicare regulations for lower reimbursements and increased cost due to implementation and administration of Medicare review procedures.

Meeting in regular session, the directors also received a report from Dr. A.T. Mims, medical staff representative to the board, that Hereford doctors were considering a move to discontinue complicated and drop-in obstetric case treatment, authorized the purchase of a sterilizer machine and elected hospital district officers. L.J. Straffuss and Mrs. Wanda Hoover were re-elected president and vice president respectively and Tommy Carnahan was elected secretary.

H.A. (Hap) Cavness and Isaias Gamez, newly appointed board members, were sworn-in and welcomed to the board by Straffuss.

THE FINANCE COMMITTEE met April 2 to consider the increased charge to patients and decided to recommend the action to the board.

Straffuss, finance committee chairman, delivered the written recommendation to the board along with Frank Zinser and Mrs. Hoover, committee members.

Welty explained that supplies had gone up 17 per cent in price during the past 12 months, which combined with the other increases required that the patient costs go up to allow the hospital to break even. Other increases include new regulations that require reimbursement for services under Medicare and Medicaid to be the lesser of cost or charges, institution of new Medicare utilization review procedures and higher liability insurance for hospital professionals.

The federal minimum wage law requires hospitals to pay at least $2.20 an hour by Jan. 1, 1976 and $2.30 an hour by 1977. Welty said the six per cent hike in rates was needed to cover the wage increases and minimize the size of a negative cash flow that the hospital would experience during the next six months.

This will mean that the present average daily patient charge of $100 will go up to about $106 per patient day, Welty said.

"This compares favorably with hospitals our size in the Panhandle area. The costs here will probably be reflected in room rates, which will go from about the present $49 per day to about $54 or $55 a day," Welty said.

CONCERNING THE DROP-IN obstetric cases (unexpected walk-in pregnancies) Dr. Mims relayed thinking by local doctors that increased premiums for malpractice insurance had risen so dramatically for such treatment that they might be forced to refuse such cases. He said such service was already discontinued in Dimmitt and in other states altogether because of the economically unfeasible costs.

"This by no means a threat, but the medical staff is considering not offering the service as it gets to a point when we can't afford it," Mims explained. "We just want the board to be aware of the situation and work with us on a solution."

Presently all doctors are on the walk-in patient list and share the load. Their professional liability for such cases can't be relinquished by a signed patient statement, Mims said.

THE MAIN PROBLEM exists with

Legion Convention Convenes Saturday

With their state commander as special guest and principal speaker, American Legion and Auxiliary members from over the Panhandle will convene here Saturday in a two-day meeting of District 18.

Entertainment will alternate with programs and business sessions, as Hereford members play host for the annual spring convention that opens formally at 3 p.m. Saturday in the local Legion Post Home after a morning golf tournament and a registration period beginning at 1 p.m.

James W. White of Houston, commander of the Department of Texas, will be the speaker at the banquet at 7 p.m. Vice Commander Harvey Holcomb of Odessa will bring greetings and Bill Albright, local vice commander, will welcome guests.

Other notables, who will speak at the Legion's business session Sunday morning, are Jack W. Flint of Dimmitt, national vice commander, and Clayton Mann of Wichita Falls, national executive committee member.

District delegates to the national convention at Minneapolis next August will be elected at this meeting. The 18th district commander, L. Odel Price of Amarillo, will preside and at the same time the Auxiliary will have its separate business session with Betty Wilhelm presiding.

James Jesko, Hereford post commander, and Mrs. Jesko, Auxiliary president, head the local committees who are making arrangements for the convention. Sam Long is chairman for the golf tournament. Dr. M.C. Adams and Benny Womble have charge of registration periods Saturday and again Sunday morning, when coffee and doughnuts will be served by Hereford members.

The banquet and dance are for Legion and Auxiliary members jointly, as is a memorial service at 9:30 a.m. Sunday. Separate sessions are scheduled Saturday afternoon, with the Auxiliary meeting in the Medallion Room of the REC Building.

Mrs. Mack Potter of Fort Worth, state president of the Auxiliary, will be the special speaker at the women's business meeting Sunday morning. Mrs. Ira Ott will give the formal welcome to Auxiliary members.

Tornado Reporting Number Explained

Jay Spain, Hereford fire marshal, warns persons spotting any prospects of a tornado to call 364-5552. This is a rotating number with persons available to answer it all times.

"In the past 364-2123 and 364-2121 have been used, but these are emergency numbers and should not be used," he said. "We need the other numbers for emergency communications."
