McCathern renews refusal of PAC money

By JOHN BROOKS
Managing Editor

Hereford congressional candidate Gerald McCathern said Monday that the 19th District congressional seat has been "for sale" to groups with political action committee (PAC) money, and renewed his pledge to not accept PAC money.

At a front-yard news conference at his home, McCathern said the recent closing of two banks in Round Rock that pushed the number of banks closed this year to 101 in Texas was "an indicator or what is really going on with our economy."

"We have a $170 billion trade deficit," McCathern said. "Our federal deficit has increased from $80 billion to $2.5 trillion in the last eight years."

"When something is broke, you have to fix it, and the only way to change policies is to change politicians."

McCathern said that he had returned all PAC money he had been sent, including money from the Texas Sugarbeet Growers Association.

American Agriculture Movement and several labor groups "because I don't accept PAC money from anyone," McCathern said. "These are all friends of mine, but if I accept any of that money, we're compromised."

McCathern said the PAC contributions were reasons why "we see so much graft and dishonesty in Washington."

"This is costing the American taxpayer money," McCathern said. "Some people run and have to represent the people they receive this money from. All I have to run with is my conscience."

On hand for the press conference were over 50 local McCathern supporters who began block-walking in northwest Hereford on Monday. McCathern campaigned door-to-door here Monday before going back to Lubbock, where he has been devoting most of his time going from business-to-business. McCathern and his wife, Bonnie, voted absentee here Monday to allow them to spend the rest of the week before the election campaigning throughout the district.

"I have spent a lot of time personally visiting with businesspeople in Lubbock," McCathern said. McCathern pointed out his training as a petroleum geologist, his farming operations and his experience in business.

"I want these people to realize I represent them," McCathern said. "I want everyone to know that I represent all segments of our district."

McCathern said he realized he was the underdog in his effort to unseat incumbent Rep. Larry Combest (R-Lubbock).

"But I am optimistic," McCathern said. "I might spend $30,000 in this election, and my opponent could spend $300,000, so it's an uphill battle, but I am optimistic."

McCathern said that voters have told him they are "scared to death with what might happen in oil, gas, agriculture, and industry, with all of our jobs."

"We have seen Mr. Combest vote at least eight times to lower agriculture prices as much as 40 percent," McCathern said. "I would never vote to lower prices because our farmers are going bankrupt."

"I think our farmers would rather not get the biggest part of their income from the federal treasury, but we must increase the prices they are paid while cutting subsidies."

"We can do that through a supply-management program that would phase out subsidies as we phase up prices."

"We would bankrupt every town in our district without a rise in commodity prices."

and his supporters held a block-walking campaign after the conference to begin the last week of campaigning before the Nov. 8 general election.

Dukakis gets Jackson help

By DONNA CASSATA
Associated Press Writer

George Bush mocked Michael Dukakis' sudden embrace of liberalism as the Republican nominee courted disenchanted Democrats. Underdog Dukakis, in an appeal to women voters, assailed the Reagan-Bush administration for "being on the wrong side" of issues important to women.

With Election Day exactly one week away — and polls indicating a sizable but narrowing Republican lead, the GOP ticket of Bush and Sen. Dan Quayle exploited Dukakis' claim that he is a liberal in the tradition of former Presidents Franklin Roosevelt, Harry Truman and John F. Kennedy.

"Miracle of miracles. Headline Read all about it," Bush told an audience Monday in Louisville, Ky. "My opponent finally called himself the big L, called himself a liberal."

Quayle retuned Democratic opponent Lloyd Bentsen's debate put-down line of "You're no Jack Kennedy" to poke fun at Dukakis.

"Michael Dukakis is no Jack Kennedy," said the Indiana senator as he campaigned in Michigan and Ohio.

Dukakis, seeking the support of women voters, said the Democrats are "on your side" on the issues of abortion, equal pay and parental leave. The Republican ticket, however, has been "on the wrong side of every issue of special importance to American women."

The Democratic nominee was campaigning today in Youngstown, Ohio; Milwaukee, Detroit and Kansas City, Mo. He also was telling voters in a new five-minute ad scheduled to run tonight on NBC that the race for the White House is far from over.

"In recent days our campaign has been on the move. Thousands of Americans are joining our effort daily," Dukakis says. "Next Tuesday, your one vote will be more powerful than all the pollsters and political commercials."

Two new polls — a survey by Harris and another done by Gallup for the Times Mirror Corp — showed Bush maintaining a strong lead among likely voters.

In the Harris survey of 1,250 voters questioned during the weekend, Bush led Dukakis 52-45 percent, a slight narrowing from 53-44 percent in a similar poll done Oct. 14-17.

The Times Mirror poll of 1,506 likely voters conducted Oct. 23-26 found Bush ahead by 11 points, 52-41 percent. Both polls had margins of error of plus or minus three points.

The front-running Republican ticket was concentrating on the Midwest today.

Bush was speaking about law and order this afternoon at the University of Notre Dame in South Bend, Ind., and campaigning in Wisconsin after taping an interview this morning with David Frost. Quayle was stumping in Ohio and his home state of Indiana.

Democratic candidate Bentsen was focusing on his home state of Texas, Kentucky and Missouri.

Former Democratic contender Jesse Jackson joined Bentsen Monday night at a rally in Fort Worth, Texas, where the preacher-turned-politician responded to Bush's "read my lips" refrain.

"You watch our hips as we march," to the voting booth, Jackson told the crowd at the Mount Olive Missionary Baptist Church.

The Texas senator urged those in the audience to get out and vote.

"Don't tell me your vote doesn't count — it does," he said.

While Bentsen focused on Texas and its third-largest electoral prize of 29 votes, Dukakis sought support in California and its biggest electoral bounty of 47 votes.

In his major appeal to women voters, Dukakis said the Republican ticket wanted to outlaw abortions.

"I believe a choice that personal must be made by the woman in the exercise of her beliefs," the Democratic nominee told an audience in San Jose.

Dukakis cited Quayle's response to an 11-year-old girl's question last week about what she should do if she was raped by her father and became pregnant. The GOP candidate said that he favored childbirth over abortion even under those circumstances.

Dukakis also challenged Bush to an hour-long debate the night before the election, but the Republican nominee scoffed at his rival's idea and suggested that Dukakis debate himself.

The vice president, ostensibly concerned about a slight decrease in his lead, appealed to what he called "abandoned Democrats," those left behind as he says the party moves away from the mainstream.

The Bush campaign also continued with two new economic ads, a positive spot citing the accomplishments of the Reagan-Bush administration and a negative commercial showing a couple inundated with tax bills.

UWDSC tops 70% in campaign

By JOHN BROOKS
Managing Editor

The United Way of Deaf Smith County has reached over 70 percent of its 1988 campaign goal, with $87,062 in pledges and contributions reported at the last regular report luncheon held Monday at The Ranch House in Hereford.

UWDSC will hold a "victory celebration" potluck supper at 6:30 p.m. on Nov. 14 at the Hereford Senior Center. Division chairmen, other volunteers and 100 percent business will be honored at the celebration.

"We appreciate the efforts of all of our volunteers, and our United Way agencies," said UWDSC president LaJean Henry. "At the budget review meetings last week, and saw all of the hours of volunteer work the people of our community are putting in, and I really believe in our agencies."

"It's a shame that, even if we meet our goal, those agencies will still be $85,000 short of what they need, but there is no fat in any of those budgets. It's heartbreaking to know we won't cover all of their needs, but we are doing the best we can."

Henry said work will continue on the drive despite the official end of the campaign. "There are lots of accounts we haven't heard from yet, but we won't stop working."

Reagan disputes statement

LOS ANGELES (AP) — President Reagan disputes hostage Terry Anderson's videotaped statement that the administration bargained with terrorists, but says he still doesn't know what happened in the Iran-Contra affair.

Reagan commented Monday on the videotape of Anderson that was released in Beirut by pro-Iranian Shiite Moslem kidnapers.

"I don't think that was Terry speaking," the president said after a bill-signing ceremony in a hotel ballroom. "I think he had a script that was given to him."

"When I was given a script, I always read the lines," the former movie actor said to laughter in the room sprinkled with film luminaries.

Hollywood executives and such stars as Charlton Heston and Cyd Charisse had come to watch Reagan sign a copyright bill affecting the entertainment industry.

Reporters, however, zeroed in on Anderson's taped statements that the administration thwarted efforts for the release of the hostages and that Vice President George Bush had bargained with terrorists during the Iran-Contra affair and the 1985 hi-

Man charged with DWI

A Hereford man was charged with driving while intoxicated Sunday after the pickup he was driving struck a pedestrian in the 300 block of Avenue J.

Teresa Ponce, 42, was taken to Deaf Smith General Hospital for multiple contusions and lacerations and was released in stable condition.

Police Cpl. Albert Garza reported that Kenneth Lynn Kelly, 36, of South Progressive Road was traveling south on Avenue J at 3 a.m. and Kelly said he did not see the woman emerge from her parked car.

Ponce was thrown about 10 feet from the car. Michael Anthony Torres, 26, of Dawn and Frank Garcia Jr., 31, of Joliet, Ill., were stabbed at 1:30 a.m. Sunday at the Whiteface Skating Rink parking lot on west U.S. Highway 60.

The suspect is still at large. Garcia was wounded in the chest when the suspect drove up in a pickup, jumped on Garcia and stabbed him. He is currently in critical condition at Deaf Smith General Hospital.

Soviets facing budget deficit

Gap larger than US's

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. experts say the Soviet budget deficit that Moscow has finally acknowledged is comparatively larger than that of America and could jeopardize the reform program of Kremlin chief Mikhail Gorbachev.

The Soviets likely will try to ease the deficit by printing more money, raising prices and reducing subsidies on such goods as housing and food, according to the Central Intelligence Agency and two non-government economists, Marshall Goldman of Harvard University and Jan Vanous.

But those steps could anger consumers as well as key interest groups such as the military, Goldman and Vanous said Monday in telephone interviews.

The Soviet finance minister, Boris Gostev, said during a session of parliament last week that the Kremlin expected to run a deficit of 34 billion rubles ($55 billion) on a budget of 493 billion rubles ($795 billion) in 1989. The Soviet government budget makes up the bulk of the socialist country's economy, in which nearly all enterprises are owned by the state.

Gostev did not disclose the deficit for 1988 or previous years. A CIA report issued in September before Gostev spoke estimated that the Soviet deficit had grown from 11 billion rubles or 1.4 percent of gross national product in 1984 to 64 billion rubles or 7.4 percent of GNP in 1987.

By contrast, the U.S. government deficit peaked as a percentage of GNP at 3.5 percent in 1986 — $148 billion.

Vanous estimated the Soviet deficit for 1987 and 1988 at 65-75 billion rubles per year.

"The actual deficit is much higher" than the Soviet figure, said Vanous, who develops econometric models of the Soviet economy for PlanEcon, a Washington firm. "What they have released to the public is a distortion."

The CIA analysis said Gorbachev "needs to come to grips with the budget deficit. Most of the options open to him, however, impinge on the welfare of the population or key interest groups, such as the military, just at a time when he needs as much political support as he can garner."

"If the budget deficit is not brought down, it could lead to inflation much worse than the Soviets have experience in the postwar era," the CIA said.

Goldman said that Gostev's budget figures were "probably meant as a warning signal to the population ... that prices will be going up and that subsidies will be going down."

"The whole thing is so bizarre, because they say now that the previous budgets were incorrect," said Goldman, the associate director of the Russian Research Center at Harvard. "Glasnost (greater openness) has been in effect for three years, and this is the first we have heard of the deficit. So we don't know what is right."

Trade imbalance awaits president

WASHINGTON (AP) — If the federal budget deficit seems invisible to most Americans, the gaping trade deficit is all too apparent. They see its evidence every day in the cars they drive, the televisions they watch, the shoes they wear.

Now it will fall to either George Bush or Michael Dukakis to try to remedy this other U.S. deficit, the trade imbalances that hit a staggering $170 billion last year and are running at a $138 billion pace for 1988.

The American appetite for imported goods became voracious in the 1980s as a strong dollar produced a flood of bargains for U.S. consumers. Even when the dollar took a nosedive after intervention by the United States and its allies in 1985, Americans retained their taste for imports.

Japanese auto makers who established a beachhead in the U.S. market with cheap, fuel-efficient subcompacts earned a larger and more expensive niche on the strength of their autos' quality and reliability.

The trade law signed by President Reagan in August gives the next president new tools to protect American markets and retaliate against countries with unfair trading practices.

Dukakis's running mate, Sen. Lloyd Bentsen of Texas, was the leading congressional champion of the tougher trade law.

"I want to be a president who stands up and fights for American companies, American products and American workers," Dukakis said at a metal factory in Dayton, Ohio, last month.

Bush says American exports are booming, the trade deficit is already coming down, and free trade, not protectionism, is the way to restore America's competitiveness. The Republican dismisses Dukakis' warnings about foreign ownership as "protectionist demagoguery."

"We need to increase our exports, not shut our borders," says Bush. But, he adds, "our commitment to free trade must be linked to a reciprocal commitment to fair trade by our trading partners."

Ann Landers

DEAR ANN LANDERS: My name is not important. Just know that I am in the fellowship of Alcoholics Anonymous and that this message meant a lot to our group and we would like to share it with others around the world.

AN OPEN LETTER TO MY FAMILY

I am a substance abuser. I need your help. Don't allow me to lie to you because when you do, you encourage me to be devious. The truth may be painful, but make me face it.

Don't let me take advantage of you. When you do, I lose respect for you.

Don't lecture me, scold, blame or argue with me when I'm drunk (or sober). And, don't pour the liquor down the sink. You may feel better, but it won't put an end to my drinking.

Don't believe my promises. This is just a gimmick to postpone the day of reckoning.

Don't lose your temper with me no matter how irrational I become. Remember, when I'm not making sense, it's the booze talking.

Don't allow your anxiety to prompt you to do things for me that I should be doing for myself. I need to take control of my life.

Don't cover up or try to save me from the consequences of my drinking. It will only postpone the crisis, and perpetuate the illness.

Above all, don't run away from reality just because I do. The longer I continue to abuse alcohol, the worse things will get.

Start now to learn about and to plan for my recovery. I need help from a doctor, a counselor, a psychologist, a recovered or recovering alcohol abuser and from God.

Make me accountable. To ignore my drinking is the worst choice you can make.—R.L.H. from B.H.

DEAR R.L.H.: Thank you for some excellent guidelines. And P.S., if you can't get the drinker in your life to get help, go to Al-Anon and learn how to deal with this problem.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: How about telling the other side of the story for a change? We are sick of hearing about those red-hot mamas who wear out their husbands and never get enough sex. For every one of them there are a thousand wives who wish their husbands would put their sexual fantasies in the deep freeze and leave them there.

Most of those over-the-hill Romeos who say they want a passionate partner can't perform when they get the chance. Then they blame the wife and say they are turned off because she is too fat, nags a lot and makes unreasonable demands.

My husband is a couch potato who never lifts a finger to help around the house even though I put in an eight-hour day, same as he does. In addition to my job I am expected to keep a spotless home, tolerate his slurping, snoring, leg spasms and bed-hopping. Whoever said women have been liberated must be living in a different world. For sure she's living in a different house.

If you publish this I'll eat the paper. You always favor the men. In fact, ever since Kansas City stopped printing your picture I have suspected that you were fired and a man took over the column.—Mind of My Own in Mo.

DEAR MO.: Start nibblin' sister. Here's your letter. For every woman who feels sexually deprived there's a woman who would be happy if she never saw another man. Too bad they can't change places.

Take charge of your life and turn it around! Write for Ann Landers' new booklet, "How to Make Friends and Stop Being Lonely." Send a check or money order for $3.50 and a self-addressed, stamped, business-size envelope (45 cents postage) to Ann Landers, P.O. Box 11562, Chicago, Ill. 60611-0662.

Abundant Life

A LIFE TO LIVE

We have a life to live, and we must choose between living with reasonable joy and satisfaction; or living under the burden, and dark cloud of worry and despair. At the very best, life is not easy, but we can learn how to carry the burdens and weather the storms. This can be done.

The living experience can be just about as rough as we will let it be. On the other hand, living can be made a very interesting and reasonably enjoyable experience. Of course, we must continue to be concerned about and touched by many of the social ills. In addition to all of this, the normal burden of our humanity must be borne, and we have some choices about how we do this.

We are always working on our choice between the pessimistic and the optimistic view of life, and, for the most of us, it will be a mixture of the two. Realistic optimism seems to be the sound view. It has been said, "Betwixt the optimist and the pessimist, the differences is droll. The optimist sees the doughnut, and the pessimist sees the hole." Neither one is seeing the whole thing. Reality includes both the hole and the doughnut.

It is suggested that we direct our view to the good, and to the right, and to the hopeful elements of the general life structure.

The Pollyanna attitude is not recommended. Pollyanna was a girl of irrepressible optimism who found good in everything. She was the creation of Eleanor Hodgman, in the stories she wrote with Pollyanna as the heroine. Of course, we know that there is not good in everything. There is, however, much that is good which we must see, and support, and enjoy.

We must not permit the ugly, the bad, and the unpleasant aspects of life to crowd out the desirable, the beautiful, the good, and the pleasant things. "Whatever is true, honorable, just, pure, lovely, gracious, excellent, and worthy of praise; think about these."

Volleyballers win to finish regular season

Here it comes

Poppy Richardson (44) of the Hereford varsity volleyball team sends the ball over the net during Saturday's match against Berger at the HHS gym. Looking on are teammates Cande Robbins, Nikki Self

(10) and Jill West (14). Hereford won the match, its last regular-season tune-up before facing Pecos in the first round of the playoffs on Saturday at Seminole.

The Hereford Whitefaces volleyball team closed out its regular season on Saturday with a 15-6, 15-9 win over Berger at the HHS gym.

Hereford, which finished the season 19-6, and 12-2 in District 1-4A, will meet defending state champion Pecos (28-2, 14-0) in a bi-district match at 5 p.m. Saturday at Seminole High School.

"I think our kids had fun playing this time," said HHS coach Brenda Reeh. "We had taken some of the element of fun out of it in the two matches before this."

"Our crowd also helped to keep things going our way. They were loud and supportive, like they've been all year. We certainly appreciate their enthusiasm."

In the first game, Hereford established a quick 6-1 lead before Berger cut its deficit to 6-5. Hereford added another point before Libby Kosub served seven winners in a row to give Hereford a 14-5 lead.

After a side-out, Berger scored a point before giving the serve back to Hereford. On Shantel Cornelius's serve, Cande Robbins and Poppy Richardson went up to block a Berger dink for the game-winner.

In the second game, Hereford grabbed a 5-0 lead before Berger battled back to take an 8-5 lead. Laynie Souter and Jill West each served a point before Poppy Richardson served six straight points to give Hereford a 15-6 lead.

After Berger came up with a point to cut the gap to four points, Robbins served an ace to give Hereford a 14-9 lead, but Berger scrambled back on the next serve for a side-out.

Krystal Sims served the match winner on a kill by Jessica Dearing.

"I was relatively happy with our performance," said Reeh. "We lacked aggressiveness on offense for a while in the second game, but after a timeout we got rolling again."

"We set to all of our hitters very well, and we moved the ball along the net to try to keep Berger off balance."

"This was certainly a good way to end district."

Individual statistics showed Kosub with 13 good serves, including five aces, for 13 points, along with six kills and 11 good attacks; Nikki Self had eight good serves, including two aces, for four points; Richardson had seven good serves for six service points, one stuff, three kills and nine good attacks;

Cornelius had six good serves for four service points; Robbins had five kills, seven good attacks, and four stuffs; and Jill West had three kills, seven good attacks, and one stuff.

The Hereford junior varsity dropped its final match of the year, losing 15-9, 15-6.

Hereford came back from a 9-1 deficit in the first game to within three points at 10-7 before Berger regained the serve and went on to win, while the second game saw Hereford before Berger took the game and the match.

"We have shown major improvement since the beginning of the season," said JV coach Lynn Gilbreath. "We ended the season at the peak. It's good to end the season on a high."

"We learned how to come back and fight, and a lot of varsity teams don't know how to do that. These girls worked hard this year, and it paid off for them."

Tennis team makes semis

The Hereford High School tennis team easily won its regional quarterfinals match against Wichita Falls Hirschi, but lost in the semifinals to Brownwood in the Region 1-4A team tennis tournament Friday and Saturday at Lubbock.

Brownwood eventually lost to sets to Monahans in the regional finals after the teams tied at 9-9 in individual matches. Monahans will advance to next weekend's state team tennis tournament.

Hereford, seeded second in the tournament, defeated Hirschi 10-3 in the quarterfinals after drawing a first-round bye. The Hereford girls won their nine matches in singles and doubles, and when Matt Coplen and Matt Keenan won their boys' double match, Hereford was declared the winner.

On Saturday morning, Brownwood won the semifinal match, 10-6.

Hereford had been favored to meet Monahans in a rematch of the 1987 final. Monahans, as it did in the 1987 final against Hereford, won on sets against Brownwood, 20-19, in the finals.

The Hereford team ended its season at 15-1.

Harriers going to region

The Hereford girls cross-country team successfully defended its district championship on Saturday at the District 1-4A Cross-Country Meet at Mae Simmons Park in Lubbock.

The Hereford boys earned their first trip to regionals since 1982 by edging Pampa by one point (76-77) for second place behind Randall.

The boys were paced by Benny Carrasco, who finished third overall in 16:29. Tim Stagner was 12th in 17:23, his best time of the year. Jimmy Leinen was 18th in 17:41, just ahead of Ricky Montelongo in 17:46.

Juan Martinez was 25th in 18:11, Armando Garza 34th in 18:53, and Brooke Perkins finished 41st in 19:40.

"This was a total team effort," Emerson said. "Not since I coached the 1982 (3-5A) district champion boys team have I coached a group of young men who worked any harder and put forth any more effort than these guys."

The girls, who moved up from ninth to eighth in the state in the latest Texas Track and Field News ranking, easily won first place, 42-55 over Borger.

Three of the girls—Alina Benitez, second in 12:47, Sally Garza, sixth in 13:23, and Teresa Castillo, 13th in 13:51—ran their best times of the year.

Lisa Zepeda was 12th in 13:42, Denise Davila 16th in 14:19, Maria Rodriguez 26th in 14:50, and Aracely Nava, 30th in 15:42, to help Hereford to its district championship.

"We have been plagued by injuries all season long on the girls team, but we hope we're getting things together," Emerson said.

In the JV girls division, Blanca Cervantez was first in 15:01. Chellie

Cummings ran the two-mile course in 16:58.

In the JV boys section, Blas Cantu was fourth in 16:50. Also running were Scott Robinson, 21:00; Chris Hart, 22:00; and Eric Davis, 22:39. No team scores were kept in either JV division, but ribbons were given to the top six runners.

The Hereford teams will run Saturday at Mae Simmons Park in the Region 1-4A meet, with the top three teams and top 10 individuals qualifying for the State Cross-Country Meet on Nov. 12 in Georgetown.

The Hereford girls will compete at 9:20 a.m., and the Hereford boys will run at 11 a.m.

Dickerson, Colts celebrate

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Eric Dickerson celebrated his anniversary with the Indianapolis Colts, and the NFL's leading rusher provided the treats.

Performing before a record Hoosier Dome crowd of 60,628, Dickerson scored a career-high four touchdowns and rushed for 159 yards, going over 1,000 yards for an NFL record-tying sixth consecutive season despite carrying the ball only three times in the second half.

Indianapolis was ahead 45-10 at halftime en route to a 55-23 triumph in the first Monday night football game played in Indianapolis. Dickerson did all his scoring in the first half on runs of 12, 11, 1 and 41 yards, sparking Indianapolis to a 31-0 lead.

Dickerson and Coach Ron Meyer, who was reunited with the running back he coached at Southern Methodist on Halloween Night last year in a blockbuster three-team trade that brought him from the Los Angeles Rams, talked about his play at halftime.

"He asked me if I wanted to play more," Dickerson said. "I said I can sit out and let Albert (Bentley) play. I don't like to run scores up on people. We have to play another game this week (Sunday against the visiting New York Jets). It was no big deal."

"I felt I had a chance to run for 200 yards, but it may come another day."

The Colts totaled 244 yards on the ground against the worst rushing defense in the league.

"The offensive line did play a marvelous game," Meyer said. "I think it's noteworthy that for the third game in a row we allowed no sacks. As for Eric, he is just special."

"We could do nothing to stop Dickerson. He was outstanding," said Denver coach Dan Reeves after the two-time defending AFC champions fell to 4-5, the same record Indianapolis has in defense of its AFC Eastern Division title.

The Colts scored on seven of their nine first-half possessions, forced four fumbles, sacked Denver quarterback John Elway three times and didn't let Denver cross midfield until its seventh possession, five minutes into the second quarter.

By then, Indianapolis had its 31-0 lead on Dickerson's four touchdowns and the first of two field goals by Dean Biasucci.

Meyer used the wishbone formation, with Dickerson, Bentley and George Wonsley lining up as running backs behind backup quarterback Gary Hogeboom, for the second consecutive week. Hogeboom, who replaced starter Chris Chandler whenever the Colts went to the wishbone, threw a 53-yard touchdown pass to Bill Brooks in the second quarter.

Bump it over

Sophs win over Monterey

The Hereford sophomores kept their undefeated record with a 14-6 win over Monterey on Saturday at Whiteface Stadium.

Hereford scored in the second quarter on a 15-yard pass from Chris Blair to Lewis Mungia, then ran its lead to 14-0 on a 35-yard pass from Blair to Matt Bromlow. Amado Lopez kicked both extra points.

Monterey, which fell to 6-2, scored on the last play of the game.

"Amado Lopez, Chad Brummett, Joe Olvera and Brian Bentley played well on defense," said Hereford coach Ed Coplen. "Amado intercepted his tenth pass of the year."

"Chris Blair played a great game, again," said Hereford coach Oscar Rendon. "Chris Steward ran hard, and Matt Bromlow played real good on both sides of the ball."

"The team just keeps getting better and better each week."

The sophomores are open this week, but will finish off the season next week against Dumas.

DON'T MAKE IT INJURIOUS!

Electric lines are high in the air out of reach. But carelessness can bypass this safety factor, often with tragic results. Look up before you lift up a span of irrigation pipe. Don't stack pipe under electric lines. Follow the Cooperative guidelines for electric use and avoid its hazards.

Vermillion cited as outstanding leader

Texas Plains Girl Scout Council recently honored Linda Vermillion of Hereford as an Outstanding Leader. The honor was bestowed at a Celebration for Volunteers under the direction of the Recognitions Committee.

The covered dish supper honored outstanding adults in Girl Scouting within the 13 service units of the Texas Plains Council with the new national awards for individual service units.

Vermillion spent 11 years as a Girl Scout in the Quivera Council, located in Pampa. She was privileged to attend Girl Scout Roundup in Colorado Springs, Colo., in 1959, and later traveled to South Dakota with her troop. In 1961, she earned the First Class Award, the top award given to girls in Girl Scouting at that time.

Feeling that Girl Scouting gave a sense of direction in her life and a lot of personal satisfaction caused Linda to attend a meeting held in Hereford in the spring of 1985 to organize Girl Scouts in Hereford. Since that time, she has led a Junior troop and this past year has added a Cadette troop.

By providing varied, progressive programs, Vermillion hopes to serve the girls she leads as the eager role model she remembers her leader being. The Recognitions Committee felt she had served the Hereford Service Unit well, not only as a leader, but also as the Service Unit Director.

SPS awards announced

Two residents of Hereford who work for Southwestern Public Service Company (SPS) will be recognized at the SPS Panhandle Division and Production Department Service awards dinner Thursday, Nov. 3, in Amarillo for their years of service to customers.

They are among 374 employees of the company being recognized through a series of award dinners for a collective 5,410 years of service.

Employees in Hereford to be honored include Lewis McDaniel, 30 years of service, and Melvin Lomenick, 25 years of service.

Before Noah Webster compiled his dictionary, he produced one of the most useful volumes ever printed in English, the Blue-Back Speller. Unscrupulous publishers pirated the speller and reprinted it without payment or credit. This led Webster to devise the federal copyright law, which Congress enacted in 1790 to protect the rights of authors.

FINANCIAL PLANNING
HARTFORD, Conn. (AP) — Making major financial decisions without professional help could be a mistake, according to Dave Pickett of Aetna Life Insurance & Annuity Co.

Pickett says a financial planner, investment counselor or a representative from a full service insurance firm or brokerage can help a person design a financial plan appropriate to his or her income and goals.

He says most professionals work either for a fee or earn commissions for the products they sell their clients. "But," he adds, "reputable professionals are more interested in winning trust and establishing long-term relationships than in earning a quick commission."

Senator Bill Sarpalius Reports

AUSTIN They may have gotten a little lost in the shuffle, but none of us should underestimate the importance of three proposed amendments to the Texas Constitution that will appear on the Nov. 8 ballot.

Proposition One would require all federal highway funds given to Texas be placed in the State Highway Fund. Here's the way the current system works.

The state constructs highways out of money from our Highway Fund, which is financed by state motor fuels taxes. If the finished project meets federal standards, the federal government reimburses the state for a portion of the total project cost. In the case of an interstate highway, the federal government will reimburse the state for 90 percent of the total cost.

Traditionally, those reimbursement monies have been placed in the State Highway Fund, the funds from which can be used only for highway construction and repair. But, when the state was in the midst of a financial crisis two years ago, some suggested diverting some of those federal funds to pay for non-highway-related programs.

Many people argued such a diversion would set a dangerous precedent. They say highways are critical to our state's economic competitiveness, and that we can't afford to take any money from the Highway Fund. They placed Proposition One on the ballot to try to prevent diversions of federal money.

Opponents of Proposition One don't argue the importance of our highways. And, they agree federal reimbursements as a rule should be deposited in the Highway Fund. However, they think the state should not be prevented from diverting the money in the event of a financial crisis. They say occasional diversions might be an alternative to raising general taxes.

Proposition Two also relates to financial crises, though in a different way. It would require the state to place a certain percentage of excess oil and gas taxes and budget surpluses in an economic stabilization fund. This so-called "rainy day fund" would be used during hard financial times to help the state avoid tax increases.

Money in the fund essentially could be used two ways. If a revenue shortfall appeared in any other state fund, the State Comptroller could transfer money out of the rainy day fund into the ailing fund provided the loaned money is repaid at the earliest possible date. The Legislature also could use the fund as a source of revenue for the biennial appropriations bill.

Proponents obviously say a rainy day fund would be a big help in avoiding future tax increases. In times of a budget shortfall, the state could draw revenue from the fund instead of from new taxes. Opponents say this fund comes too late, that it should have been established in the 1970s when the state had large budget surpluses. They also say requiring excess severance tax money to go into the fund would limit the money available to the state in the regular appropriations process.

Finally, Proposition Three would allow the boards of the Teacher Retirement System, the Employees Retirement System and any other state pension system to dedicate up to 1 percent of their funds' total asset value into the Texas Growth Fund. No more than one-tenth of that one percent could go to high-risk ventures. The remaining nine-tenths would go into secure investment portfolios that benefit Texas businesses.

Proponents say this is a safe way to help spur economic growth in the state. They say the money would help fund business ventures in the state without putting the various pension funds at risk. Actuarial analyses confirm the investments would not hurt the soundness of any pension fund.

Opponents say the amendment is unnecessary because private sources already are available for worthy business ventures. They also say the amendment sets a bad precedent and opens the door for future, less actuarially sound raids on the pension funds.

If you have any further questions about these amendments as you are considering your vote, please don't hesitate to contact us at P.O. Box 12068, Austin, Texas. 78711.

CHILE LEADING COPPER EXPORTER

NEW YORK (AP) — Chile is the world's largest exporter of refined unwrought copper, according to a report in American Metal Market.

The daily newspaper, which tracks the world's metals markets and operations, says Chile exported an average of 1.3 million metric tons of copper a year in the 1984-1986 period.

Chile was followed by Canada, with exports of 635,000 tons, Zaire with 508,400 tons and Zambia with 500,000 tons.

Japan was the main importer, purchasing 1.2 million tons per year during the same period, followed by West Germany with 713,000 tons, the U.S. with 527,000 tons and Belgium with 430,000 tons.

FOOT CARE FOR DIABETICS

ORADELL, N.J. (AP) — Diabetics should look at their feet every day for early identification of small lesions so as to prevent future problems.

Even so, there may be times when a diabetic will have to remain completely off his feet because of a foot infection, says Patient Care magazine. Moderate exercise with good foot support can help improve circulation. Wear cotton or wool socks and good leather shoes that fit well.
