Anything For A Thrill

Art Names has booked a special picture for Saturday night of this week. It is Frankie Darro in "ANYTHING FOR A THRILL" Art saw this picture himself a few weeks ago and liked it so well he decided to book it for his show in Meadow. It is not a western play but a story full of comedy and high adventure and action. With merchants tickets all children of 12 and under will be admitted FREE and adults only 10c. Plan now to see it.

Baptist Notes

Did you miss attending Sunday school and church services last Sunday? Well, we missed you, too. We are anxious to see you in the services this Sunday. Be true to the Lord by being at the place of worship on the Lord's Day always.

Those who were in the service last Sunday morning know that the day was to be observed in some 3,000 Baptist churches in Texas as Soldier Day and that an offering was to be taken to finance special work in the 22 military stations in Texas. Chapels are to be built and camp pastors are to be paid out of the $50,000 which Texas Baptist hope to raise.

It is hoped that a wealth of Christian character will be conserved and that other young men will be led to accept Christ by this good work. Think of the fact that 22 military stations in Texas have a capacity for some 200,000 young men. Some 35,000 are to be massed in the camp at Brownwood, 25,000 at Abilene, 18,000 at Mineral Wells, and other and other thousands in the other camps. Any effort to conserve or make Christian character in these young men preparing for our defense will be a worthy work and will strengthen the defense of our country.

If you were not with us last Sunday, we feel that you will miss a personal blessing if you do not have

Church Social

Twenty four young people of the Methodist Church enjoyed a lively Valentine social Wednesday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Burlison. The valentine motif was carried out in games and refreshments. Those attending were Marie Stevenson, Eva Jean Pray, Marie Chesshir, Mary Copeland, Benita Lucas, Elwanda Wilborn, Anna Jo Hollers, Lewanna Hinson, Bessie Brooks, Louise Hemme, Bert Smith, Junior Whisenhunt, Leonarn Covington, Jesse Brooks, Allen Watkins, Elbeck Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thompson, Mrs. Pray, Rev. and Mrs. Bryant, and the host and hostess.

Party

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Pray were honored with a party last Saturday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Cadenhead.

When games of forty two were ended the honoree was presed with a lovely Roseville pottery vase.

A delicious refreshment plate was served to Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Stearns, T. C. Lucas, Mark Whelan, E. D. Nettles, George Bryant, Tom Tooms, J. M. Burlison, Clifford Pray and the host and hostess.

The Merchants of Meadow have made it possible for all their patrons to see Art Names tent picture show in Meadow at extremely low prices - Adult 10c and kids absolutely FREE. Get your special tickets from the Meadow Merchants.

Bob Lee has been employed as mechanic at the Meadow Wrecking Yard.

Miss Juanita Posey has returned to her home in Dallas after a weeks visit with homefolks.

a part in this offering. Bring yours to the church this Sunday or hand it to the church treasurer. We will complete the offering through the Sunday services.

Geo. W. Lair, pastor.

Musical Recital

A musical recital will be held in the Graae School Auditorium Monday Feb. 17, 1 p. m. Those who will take part on the program are Wayne Cadenhead, Lynn Murray, the Starnes girls, Louella Whelan, Leland Whelan and Marcia Whelan.

The public is invited.

Miss Juanita Posey of Dallas and her mother Mrs. Hubert Gober spent Wednesday in Lubbock.

Cottonseed culled for 7c per Bu. or will take your culls. Edward Warren.

Free Maps

The 1941 official Texas Highway map is now out. It is a very nice map; one that every Texan should have. It is free to the public and copies may be obtained by writing the State Highway department at Austin.

Texas Highway Department employees throughout the state are being instructed to be on the alert against any possible attempts at sabotage to state highways, bridges, or warehouse properties.

The highway system is indispensable to the national defense program.

MAX MOODY, Jacksonville, Fla., left, displays badges from 23 American Road Builders' Association conventions at the Old Timers' Reunion, highlight of 38th annual Road Builders' conclave, New York City, January 27-31. ARBA Engineer-Director Charles M. Upham, right, acclaims him for the association's longest record of convention attendance. The organization celebrated 38 years of highway progress at the 1941 Convention.

"The county basketball tournament for Junior boys and girls will be held in Meadow Thursday and Friday, Feb. 20 and 21" Supt. Padgett said Thursday morning.

Eighteen teams will be entered in the event. Some very fine teams will be entered, including those of Meadow.

Wild Man Of Borneo

In the good old days when ladies wore bustles and rats in their pompadours, and men wore bell botomed pants and detachable cuffs, times were gay. Richard Mansfield was at his zenith, inventors were working on the motion picture, and a grand old form of entertainment flourished. This was the medicine show. Frank Morgan brings it back to life again in and Avalanche of hilarity in "The Wild Man of Borneo." It comes Wed. to the Rialto Theatre. Based on the New York Stage hit by Marc Connelly and Herman Mankiewicz, it comes to the screen with a cast that includes Mary How-Billie Burke, Donald Meek, Marjorie Main and Dan Daily. There are hilarious comedy moments with the medicine show, in the dime museum where Morgan enacts the "wild man," in theatrical boarding house where he poses as Mansfield's understudy. In fact, for an evening of solid laughs, do not miss the best comedy bet today—"The Wild of Borneo" at the Rialto Theatre in Brownfield.

Pie Supper At Poole

A pie supper will be held at the Pool school house Friday night. The public is invited to attend. The proceeds will go to a good cause.

Mr. Heard Hester of Brownfield spent Sunday in the home of his Sister Mrs. Hubert Gober.
