The second annual dinner of the Rising Star Chamber of Commerce drew a nice crowd to the High School gym last Friday night. The only disappointing feature was the small number of towns represented on the visitor list. We appreciate very much the representations from Abilene, Cisco, and Eastland, and the attendance of State Rep. and Mrs. Wayne Gibbons and County Judge Scott Bailey. We appreciate also the publicity given by the Abilene Reporter-News.

The fact that the dinner drew an attendance of over 150, mostly local people, is an excellent testimony to the civic pride and interest of our small community.

It is testimony, too, of the success of the Chamber of Commerce program during the past year. The men and women working through it have accomplished a great deal during the year. But their greatest accomplishment has not been in projects achieved, although the record in this respect is certainly good. The finest work that has been done has been the stimulation of community spirit. If the CofC had done nothing but make the town more community conscious, more ambitious and cooperative, it would have been worth more than all the time, effort and money spent.

Building a town is a slow and often disappointing process. It is like building a career. For every success there are a lot of failures. Community progress is made up of a lot of little things, rarely spectacular. Rising Star is only now beginning to realize on some of the programs undertaken years ago. If we expect every community enterprise to be an instant success we are in a poor way to build.

We hear a great deal about the passing of the small town, the urbanization of the country. I think the truth is that the character of the small town is changing, and those little communities which fail to realize this, to analyze their resources and prepare for the new opportunities that are presented by new conditions will die away.

On the other hand those which are imaginative and have faith in themselves can create satisfying and prosperous futures for themselves in this changing and challenging world.

Many thanks to the wonderful group of High School musicians who provided the music for the dinner. The High School stage band of twenty-two youngsters, handsomely costumed and playing as handsomely, is an organization of which Rising Star can be proud. The group is a credit to our town. We are inclined to overlook the things we have, to fall of recognition and encouragement to those who are making worthy contributions to our community life. A word of appreciation is often the finest investment we can make in promoting a better community. It stimulates the only real resource that we have—our people. I think the stage band deserves a big hand. Why don't we tell the kids so?

Rising Star welcomes a new business this week—the Winfrey Feed and Peanut Co. The new enterprise is an example of community industrialization through the use of its own resources and manpower. Jerry Winfrey, who is installing the new enterprise, is a Rising Star young man who has made a success of his business and is now taking

The E. B. Hardings were named the "Outstanding Farm Family" of the Rising Star area for 1963, and Ira Hudler, retired banker and business man, was cited for civic work during the same period at the annual dinner of the Rising Star Chamber of Commerce Friday night of last week.

The gathering of more than 150 local citizens and guests also heard a resume of the program and accomplishments of the organization during the past 12 work toward needed community goals, and an address by the Hon. Stephen F. Preslar, associate justice of the Eighth District Court of Civil Appeals at El Paso.

The program concluded with the installation of the new officers for 1964.

Tax Cut To Reduce WTU Rates

Savings resulting from the reduction in Federal income taxes will be passed on to West Texas Utilities customers according to plans for system-wide rate reductions announced today. These reductions in rates will save customers about $1 million annually, approximately 2.8% at this time. Savings will be even greater as electric sales grow.

John Pruet, WTU Local Manager announced that the Company plans to pass on the full benefits of the tax reduction which it will receive under the new tax law. Under the new law the income tax on corporations will be reduced in two steps of 2% each. The corporate income tax will go from 52% to 50% in 1964 and from 50% to 48% in 1965.

"We are giving customers the benefit of both the tax reduction already established for 1964 and the tax reduction scheduled for 1965," Cal Young, WTU President said. "Passing this tax saving on to customers in the form of rate reductions will simply leave the Company with the same rate of return it has been earning."

"Such system-wide rate reductions require extensive study," Young continued. "In addition, after the new rates are designed, considerable work will have to be done to adjust our IBM computer billing procedures to these new rates." Young added, "We expect to have the new rates in effect by mid-summer . . . probably July or August. Prior to the time the rates are placed in effect, they must be approved by each incorporated city."

"WTU has a unique record for any industry . . . one of which we are very proud," Young pointed out. "WTU has never raised a rate. Through the years we have consistently reduced the cost of service as plant efficiency and improved operations, together with increased customer usage permitted. This planned rate reduction is a continuation of that long-established policy."

You're only young once. After that it takes another excuse.

Local Tracksters Show Well In Dual Meet

The Rising Star high school and junior high track and field teams showed up well in a dual meet with the Cross Plains teams at Rising Star Friday afternoon.

In the senior division Rising Star took firsts in the 440-yard relay, the 880-yard dash, the 440-yard dash, the mile run, the shot put, discus throw and pole vault.

The mile relay resulted in a tie with a time of 3:48.2.

The Wildcat 440-yard relay team of Don Rudd, Larry Weise, Garry Duggan and Mark Walker ran the distance in 48 seconds flat; Rex Long placed first in the 880-yard dash with a time of 2:12.7, and Larry Duggan and John Gerhardt placed second and third respectively.

Strickland of Cross Plains took first in the 100-yard dash with a time of 10.4. Don Rudd and Mark Walker of Rising Star placed second and third in this event.

Larry Weise and Garry Duggan placed first and second in the 440, with a winning time of 53.6, and Wilkinson of Cross Plains bested Don Rudd in the 220 with a time of 24.8 to Rudd's 24.9.

Larry Duggan won the mile run in 5:11.3; James Cox took firsts in both the shot put and the discus. Kenny Butler and Russell Botts tied for second in the shot put and Butler placed second in the discus.

John Gerhardt won both the high jump with a leap of 5 feet, 2 inches, and the pole vault at 9 feet and 2 inches.

Diversification Key To Harding Success

Diversification and home-grown food for the family table distinguished the contribution of the Outstanding Farm Family of 1963 to the agricultural economy of the Rising Star area.

Cecil Shults, Rising Star business man and rancher, Friday night at the Chamber of Commerce dinner, presented the E. B. Harding family an engraved plaque, and paid tribute to the industry and good planning which made possible a total gross income of $15,000 from 163 acres of farm land last year in a profitable family farm operation.

"Slim" has done what so few farmers are doing nowadays," said Mr. Shults. "He and his family raise most of their living at home."

Mr. Harding, his wife, Mina, and their daughter, Jill, were all called to the front to receive the recognition at the dinner at the High School gym.

In making the presentation, Mr. Shults reviewed some of the highlights of the Harding farm program last year which earned them the recognition.

During the year the Hardings paid out only $18.00 for hired help. Mr. Harding, his wife and daughter did the rest of the work.

The Harding peanut crop averaged 26 bushels per acre, and 20 bales per acre of hay sold; Twenty-eight acres of watermelons and cantaloupes averaged $70 per acre. In addition blackeyed peas, planted between the melon rows, brought in $100 income;

Thirty acres of sudan grass grazed;

A 5-acre peach orchard returned $370, and $1,100 was received from a 5-acre native pecan orchard;

The Hardings raised 150 fryers and canned vegetables from a big garden, putting up 150 quarts of various vegetables; they put home raised beef in a deep freezer; produced their own milk, butter, and eggs; dressed and stored 36 hens in the deep freezer;

They raised 14 calves off of six cows and sold $1,100 worth of the calves.

O. L. Stamey To Seek Election As County Supt.

O. L. Stamey, who is serving the remainder of the term of H. L. (Pop) Garrett, deceased, this week authorized the Rising Star Record to announce that he will be a candidate for County Superintendent of Eastland County in the May democratic primaries.

Mr. Stamey has had 34 years of experience as an Eastland educator and is very familiar with the schools of the county with which he works as county superintendent.

He said that he will greatly appreciate the support and influence of the voters in the election.

He will have a formal statement in connection with his candidacy at a later date in the campaign, he said.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Carroll have gone to Burnet to visit their daughter, Mrs. Delphine Duke, who is ill.

Completion of Sewer Plant Is Due in April

Concrete was being poured this week for the new sewage disposal plant being built for the city under contract by the Anderson Engineering Co. of Abilene. The plant is located on the Jenkins farm about a mile northeast of the city limits.

The outfall line which will convey sewage from the city system to the plant for treatment is about two-thirds completed. It joins the city system at the eastern edge of the city limits where the system now empties into a creek.

The plant is due to be completed in April. When it is in operation, it will eliminate all odor from the process of disposition and give Rising Star adequate, ultra-modern facilities to treat and dispose of the wastes from a community twice the present size of the city, Mayor Walter Smith said.

The plant was designed and construction is being supervised by the National Engineering Co. of Austin.

Father of Mrs. John Lee Dies Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. John Lee and three daughters went to Locust Grove, Okla. Monday to attend funeral services this week for Mrs. Lee's father, W. L. Robinson, 87, who died suddenly of a heart attack at his home there. The services were expected to be held Wednesday.

Add color and variety to your wintertime meals with vegetables from the earth — beets, carrots, turnips, mature onions, rutabagas, green onions, radishes, parsnips. All are flavorful and nutritious; carrots are especially high in vitamin A, and raw turnips are a good source of vitamin C. Eat some raw, some cooked. Leave the skins on, or pare only skin deep. Cook them only to the crisp-tender stage. Use the cooking liquid in soups, gravies, or vegetable cocktails.

A white sauce goes well with many of these root vegetables, and you can pep up the sauce with left-over bits of meat or fish, hard-cooked eggs, or grated cheese. Carrots and radishes make tasty sandwiches when shredded or sliced and mixed with nuts or raisins and salad dressing. Or combine several root vegetables in this delicious soup:

- Simmer a soupbone in water. To each 3 cups of this meat broth add:
- 1 small onion
 - 2 small carrots
 - 1 small turnip
 - 1 small potato
 - 1 small green pepper
 - 1 stalk celery and leaves
 - 1 cup tomato juice and pulp
- Cut all the vegetables about the same size. Cook until tender in the salted meat broth. Season well and serve hot. This will make four servings, 1 cup each.

Now is a good time to defrost and clean your home freezer. The cold weather can help you do the job easier. Simply put the frozen foods in boxes and carry them out to the garage or stick them in a snowbank (when there is snow). If you think it's necessary, you can add a tray or two of ice cubes to help keep the foods frozen.

And here's a tip on how to get rid of all the accumulation of ice and frost in the freezer. Use your vacuum cleaner.

Attach the vacuum's hose to the exhaust outlet and put it in the freezer. Shut the door and turn on the vacuum. In no time at all, the warm exhaust air will melt the frost and ice. This is much easier than using hot water and a cloth. Start now so the time for a

WHY EVERYONE SHOULD GO TO COLLEGE

In the last several years it has become increasingly hard to get a job without a college education in special training in some field. The best job a high school graduate can hope to obtain without special training will pay little more than living expenses. A high school dropout can not even expect that.

A college education enables one to obtain a good paying job with chances open for rising upward; meanwhile, the untrained person works the better part of his life and never gets ahead. Statistics also show that other than the higher wage side of the picture, young people who wait until after college to get married have a much better chance of succeeding. College not only gives you an education in a specialized field but also gives you a chance to get the feel of being out on your own, to learn to get along with people, and prepare yourself mentally for a career or a job. College, in general, just gives you a chance to grow up and get ready for making your own way, so think twice if you are planning to skip college!

New Feed Store And Mill Opens Here This Week

The Winfrey Feed and Peanut Company this week opened its plant in the former Reed Implement Co. buildings on South Mayben Street one block off Highway 36. The new company, installed by Jerry Winfrey, a Rising Star young man, handles a complete line of Swift Feeds, Sweetwater Cotton Oil Mill products, planting seeds, fertilizers, and does custom grinding and mixing. Mr. Winfrey will also install peanut drying equipment in time for operation during the peanut harvesting season this fall.

The young Rising Star business man has maintained a successful harvesting and trucking business, but has disposed of this business and will devote all of his time to the Rising Star operation.

He has purchased the lot and buildings of the Reed Implement Co. from W. G. Reed and has moved another building and feed mill, purchased at Eastland, onto the lot.

"We plan to give the farmers and ranchers of the Rising Star area the best service possible and we would like very much to have them visit our plant and see for themselves the stock and equipment we are installing. Livestock feeding operations are an increasing asset of our local economy and we are preparing ourselves to make a contribution to that business which will be very profitable to the farmers and ranchers who take part in it," said Mr. Winfrey.

The most insidious piece of legislation in the history of our country is now being railroaded through Congress. Its passage would destroy our rights to govern our own lives.

If you have been led to believe the Civil Rights bill was designed to give "justice" to minority groups, you have been sold a bill of goods.

Few Americans, especially businessmen, realize that this vicious measure would convert this nation into a police state under the direction and control of a powerful central government. Its effects would adversely affect everyone, black and white alike.

The bill has been hailed in glowing terms by the President and has been passed in the House. It is now before the Senate. By its action on this bill the Senate will determine the fate of the Constitution and the freedom it guarantees.

Its evils are not concentrated in, nor are they confined to, the much discussed and highly publicized "public accommodations" section, vicious though that section is. It becomes more and more evident that "Public Accommodations" is a red herring that has been used to divert public attention from the basic evil that runs through all of it like a fine electrical control wire, ready to be charged whenever the Attorney General chooses to throw the switch.

Like all such schemes, this Socialist Omnibus Bill — misnamed the Civil Rights Bill — is sponsored and pushed under the guise of goodism. The phrases, "guaranteeing rights for minorities" and "end discrimination" cover its real aim, the subjugation of 185 million Americans to an all-powerful centralized Washington bureaucracy.

If Congress passes the Civil Rights Bill, the United States Attorney General will thereby be made dictator with practically unlimited powers. His "inspectors" will swarm, snooping and prying, over the countryside — as if Judicator Warren and his presumptuous usurpations were not enough.

This proposed legislation goes far beyond the wildest hopes of the Socialist-Liberals. It impairs the right of homeowners to be sole judges as to whom they will rent, lease or sell their homes; it impairs the right of employers to hire or discharge as they see fit; it impairs the seniority rights of employees, union and nonunion, alike; and it impairs the right of banks and other institutions to make loans and extend credit in accordance with their best judgment.

This bill can affect nearly every individual in the United States: insurance agents, realtors, editors, broadcasters, merchants, manufacturers, bankers, farmers, homeowners, teachers, recipients of pensions, civil service workers, receivers of social security, and parents of children attending school, even school boards, themselves. It would outlaw "discrimination", yet, it doesn't even define the word.

If you find this difficult to believe, your doubts are understandable. It seems impossible that the far-reaching effect of this legislation could have been successfully kept from the public; but it has, and time is short.

The evil plot must be defeated. Once control of all American life is centered in Washington, the autonomy and sovereignty of our 50 United States will be swept away.

The President, as the House of Representatives, has deserted us.

The Senate, therefore, is our last hope. If its members cower before the winds of hysteria, we will have had it. For the President impatiently awaits the opportunity to put his signature to the warrant that will consign us, our children and our grandchildren to generations-long political, social and economic

As It Looks From Here

By Omar Bureson, M.C., 17th Texas District

WASHINGTON, D.C.—SINCE 1949, many of us from oil producing areas have exerted every effort to deal effectively with excessive foreign oil imports.

IN 1949, I INTRODUCED the first bill in the House of Representatives to deal with this problem. In 1955 the Congress enacted into law provisions limiting imports to a percentage of domestic oil production. Basically, that provision is bondage. If you want to continue governing your own life, write your senators, both of them, and tell them so. Tell them you oppose this bill; tell them why. Do it now.

HISTORY OF WILLS

Courts see that your intention of "will" as to property is carried out after you die. Before then you may revoke or change it at any time.

The passing of property to heirs is one of man's oldest transactions. As far back as the Egyptian, Assyrian and Jewish civilizations, we have wills written and witnessed on papyrus, clay tablets, etc. In one will an early testator left some of his property to his wife and named a guardian for his children.

The Hammurabi code (2100 B. C.) permitted a father by deed to favor his son.

Under early Roman law the head of a house could tell the partizan assembly his wishes, but later Roman law favored a written will to keep the testator's plans secret until death. It also favored having a firm record of his wishes, not resting on memory.

By 1200 A.D., England, where we got our law of wills, was quite well advanced: The church courts (like our probate courts) supervised disposition of property according to a "testament" of how the testator wanted his property to go.

Church courts supervised personal property (movables like a room or personal effects); land was passed on by wills which the king's court handled. Hence today we speak of "last will and testament" since the English courts came to pass on both real and personal property, so that the court could handle the whole estate.

English church courts had "executors" who carried out one's testament. To die "intestate" (without testament) was almost like dying unconfessed. Sometimes the church in the interests of a man's soul could give some of the man's goods to others besides his family. Then, as now, some property had to be left to the surviving wife and children.

By the time of the American Colonies, the laws were well settled, and law courts rather than church courts, administered and distributed estates here. (This newsfeature, prepared by the State Bar of Texas, is written to inform—not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who is fully advised concerning the facts involved, because a slight variance in facts may change the application of the law.)

in effect today, and it becomes a matter of applying it rather than the need for additional legal restrictions.

ALTHOUGH FOREIGN IMPORTS is not the only factor causing a sick domestic industry, it is a major cause. In addition, the competition of other energy fuels is having its effect.

ON THE DOMESTIC SIDE, Texas is bearing a heavier burden of proration than other oil producing States. If other States limited their production, the situation in our State would be less severe, but problems would continue to confront the industry. Our neighboring State of Louisiana, the least regulated, is taking its unfair share of domestic production. Other States, some of which have taken conservation measures, continue to produce, percentage-wise in excess of that of our own State.

THIS MATTER OF FOREIGN imports is a concern to any industries. Some New England States protest the importation of glassware from West Germany and Czechoslovakia; Bicycles from England and Sweden; Textiles from Japan, and now steel from a number of countries which are underselling our own steel plants.

THE DOMESTIC STEEL industry has only recently had to pay very much attention to competition from overseas. Now American producers are appealing for help against the growing amount of low priced European and Japanese steel imports. These companies particularly want protection against "dumping." In this instance, "dumping" simply means the selling at prices in this country below that of the country in which the steel was produced.

EUROPEAN COUNTRIES make no denial of dumping steel, but say they are merely trying to meet the price of Japanese products sold in the United States.

IN 1957 THE UNITED States was exporting approximately 5 million tons of steel. We have now moved from an exporter to a net importer. Today imports approximate 4 million tons, or a net loss of 9 million tons.

TWO FACTS CONTRIBUTE heavily to these conditions. First, since the end of World War I, foreign manufacturers have acquired more modern machinery and better production methods than our own. This has been partly due to our own foreign aid help. The second is, of course, cheaper labor.

ANOTHER IMPORT SITUATION highly important to Texas and other cattle producing areas is beef imports.

AT THE PRESENT TIME the United States is taking almost half of world beef imports. This figure was reached in 1962, which has just about doubled since 1950. Australia, the largest beef exporter into this country, has boosted its shipments into the United States from less than 18 million pounds in 1958 to 517 million pounds in 1963. Beef imports into the United States is equal to 11 per cent of our domestic production. This has meant a price decline. Again, it should be pointed out that the entire trouble in the cattle industry is not imports, but it is a major one. Recent droughts have contributed to it. The experts have concluded that when the cattle population reaches well beyond the 100 million mark, trouble may be expected.

SOME IMPROVEMENTS have been made in this situation, but there is more to do if we are to have a healthy cattle market. By a recent agreement Australia has voluntarily agreed to hold its imports to the present level, but it is hoped it may be possible to eventually have such shipments reduced.

a reversal and acquittal. "But the trial is not over," he said. "It is still going on in a world where godless governments claim to have all the answers for men. It is still going on in the hearts of men who are full of doubt."

A. D. Jenkins, manager of the CofC, told the group that an annual report is useful not only in detailing what has been done but also as a means of pointing out what has not been done.

He reviewed the accomplishments of the CofC in the field of youth work, agriculture and civic improvements. He called for community support of programs for a more adequate water supply and a community auditorium.

The new officers, installed by James Rutherford, who also was master of ceremonies, are headed by John Pruet, local West Texas Utilities Co. manager, as president, who introduced the other members of his official family.

The E. B. Harding family—Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Harding and their daughter, Jill—were honored for their contribution to the agricultural economy of the Rising Star area during the past year. They were presented a plaque in recognition by Cecil Shults, who described the diversified farming operations which earned them the distinction.

H. McDonald, Rising Star minister who was named the outstanding civic worker of 1963, passed the honor along to Ira Hudler for 1964, recounting the highlights of Mr. Hudler's contribution to the community during the year. These included construction of a Boy Scout hut and a nursery building for the First Baptist Church.

Visitors were introduced from Abilene, Breckenridge, Cisco, Eastland and Houston, among them Rep. and Mrs. Wayne Gibbens of Breckenridge, and County Judge Scott Bailey of Eastland.

The guests from Houston were Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Quinn. Mr. Quinn is a former superintendent of the Humble Pipe Line Co.

Besides Mr. Pruet, members of the new administration are Elgie Crisp, vice-president; A. D. Jenkins, secretary-manager (re-elected), and Ed Croan, Frank Hudler, James Rutherford, Dr. Steve Semenluk and Bob Shults, directors.

Mr. Jenkins cited the need of homes and new buildings sites to meet the demand of those wishing to move into the community. He said that residential building in the community last year was 25 per cent greater than such building the year before.

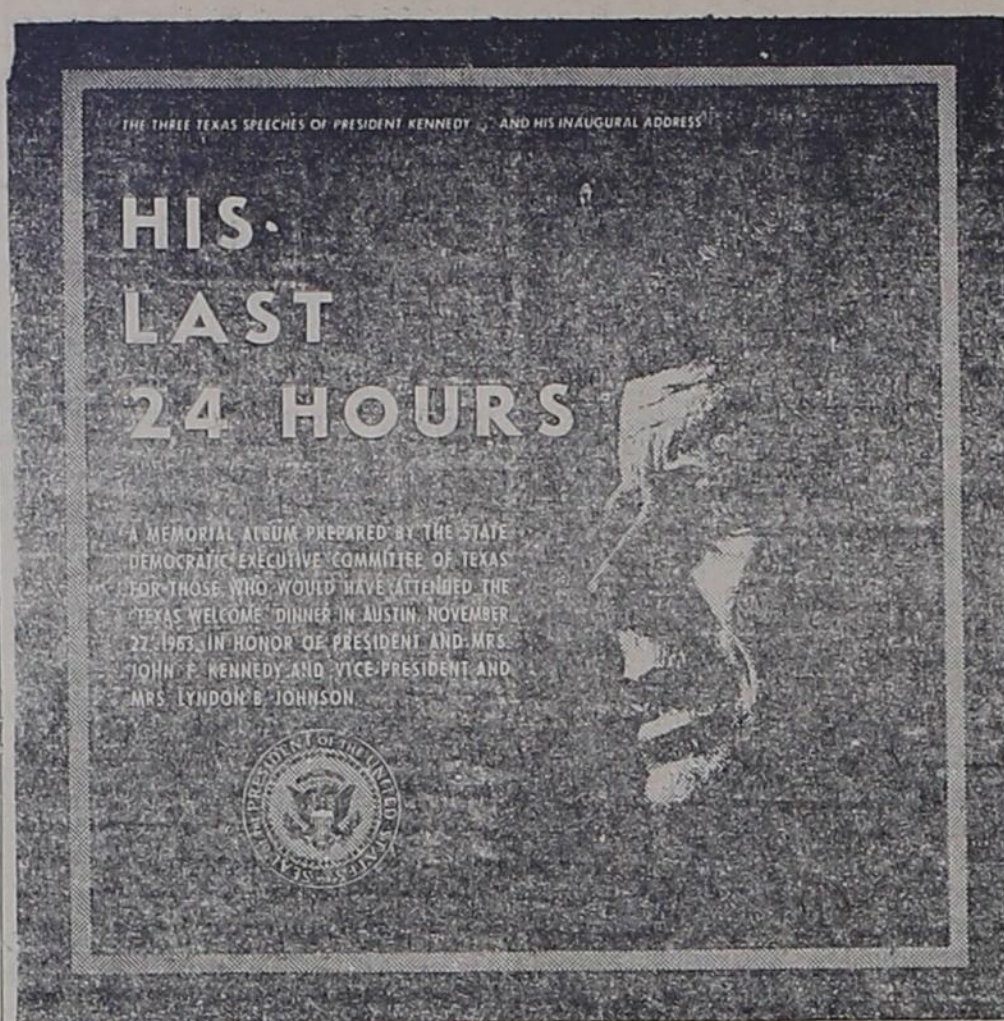

President James Rutherford thanked the members of his administration for their efforts during the past two years. He introduced them as Bill Denard, vice-president; A. D. Jenkins, secretary-treasurer; and Robert Butler, Elgie Crisp, Bob Shults, John Pruet, and George Steel, directors.

Justice Preslar concluded his address with an appeal to his audience to be witnesses for Christ in supporting the kind of officials who will follow christian ideals.

"Can anyone of us doubt that Christ is in trial today?" he asked. "On trial before the world and governments that claim that they have the full answer to the needs of mankind, and that there is no need for Christ, that the government can supply all needs?"

"We are engaged in a cold war with such governments. And as to that we can be a judge of Christ. We can be a judge of the men that go into our government, to carry on the world conflict in which Christ is on trial. Nor can we doubt that Christ is on trial in the hearts of men, for people have doubted and are in turmoil within themselves. Whether to believe or not to believe. There, too, we can be a witness and speak up for Christ. We cannot judge what is in the hearts of others; we have no more jurisdiction there than this court did at the trial of Christ, but we can in such instances be a witness for Christ. "So such was the trial of Christ and such is the trial of Christ today."

MEMORIAL ALBUM—this handsome record jacket, featuring a black, white and gold color theme, is part of the memorial packet now being mailed by the State Democratic Executive Committee of Texas in memory of the late President Kennedy.

"His Last 24 Hours," Kennedy's Texas Visit Record, Is Being Distributed

AUSTIN — "His Last 24 Hours," an hour-long record of President Kennedy's three Texas speeches along with his inaugural address, is being mailed this week as part of a memorial packet prepared by the State Democratic Executive Committee of Texas.

The SDEC is mailing the packets to those holding tickets to the "Texas Welcome Dinner" which was scheduled in Austin for November 22. None of the packets are for sale.

The packet also includes a souvenir program, which would have been distributed at the dinner, and the complete text of the speeches President Kennedy would have delivered in Dallas and Austin.

"His Last 24 Hours" includes on-the-spot recordings of President Kennedy's speeches in San Antonio, Houston and Fort Worth.

The commentary begins with President Kennedy's arrival by jet in San Antonio and is climaxed by the introduction of the President's inaugural address. The narrative dialogue is printed on the back of the album jacket.

Carroll Abbott wrote the narration, produced the record and designed the album jacket, that features a copyrighted profile of President Kennedy taken by Gilbert Barrera in San Antonio.

Dick McGrew of Dallas was the production engineer. Dave Naugle of Fort Worth did the narration and the University of Texas Longhorn Band, under the direction of Vincent R. Dinino, supplied the background music of "The Yellow Rose of Texas."

IS A HOUSE ALWAYS A HOME?

Is a house always a home? I am sure this question has been raised in the minds of many people.

To some people home is a place where they can go to eat and sleep free of charge. They do not care about the sentiments of a home and are only interested in the material things they can obtain there.

To other people "home is where the heart is." They can go to their homes to be with loved ones, enjoy themselves playing games, or to be alone to think. Home is an enjoyable place to be to this type of person. It is not just a house; it is a possession dearly loved.

The homes of some people may change quite frequently. These people may be fonder of one house than another, but they probably consider home the present.

After someone has grown away from his parents and married, he often hopes to return to his old homestead. He may be one who cares nothing for his childhood life, however, and wishes to forget it.

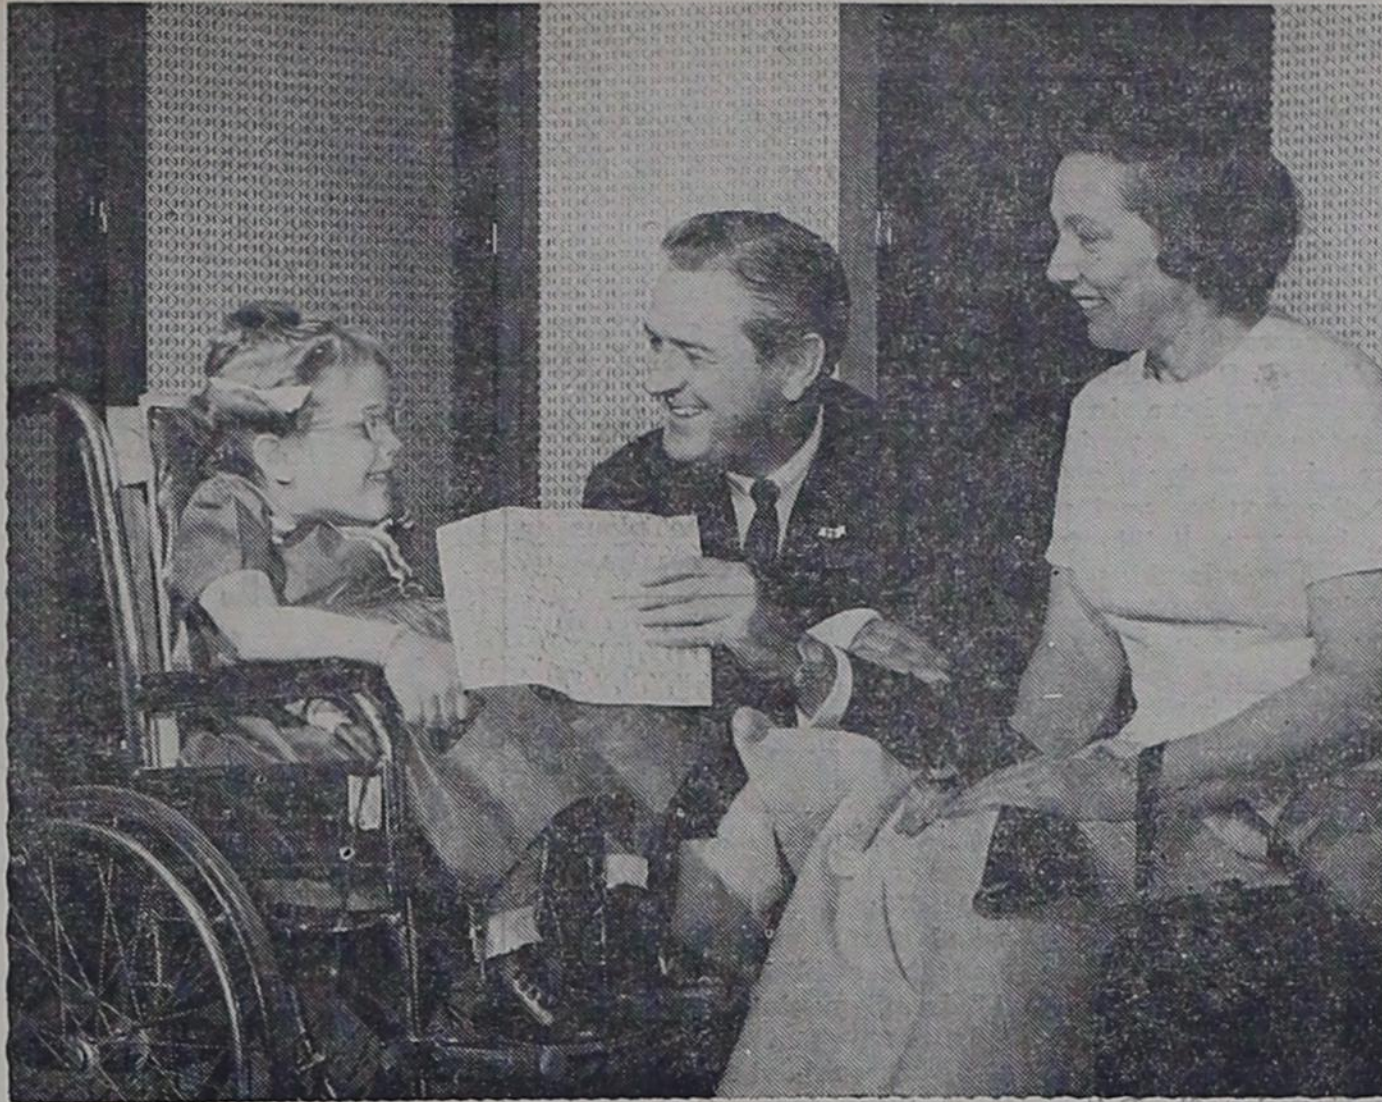

A home should be a house where happiness dwells. It will be a factor which influences many people. This factor can be either good or bad; only the people who live there can determine which.

Is a house always a home? I do not believe that it is. I do believe that each member of the family should strive to make his house a home by showing love and companionship to the others.

"KNOWLEDGE COMES BUT WISDOM LINGERS"

In our classes we are working hard. Civics is interesting. We are studying the happenings of the political parties in a presidential year. The Am. History students are studying foreign affairs. English brings a compound-complex sentence.

The Senior F. H. A. girls enjoyed the trip to Tarleton campus where they attended meetings concerning their organization.

The Senior play is progressing rapidly and now we are beginning to get our lines down.

We are starting a new six weeks' period and all of us will try to do our best.

The Donkey Basketball game went off well and the boys learned to ride donkeys.

We are trying to begin our six weeks by studying hard.

In World History we are taking the chapter, "Scientific and Cultural Progress in the Machine Age."

The English students are beginning the study of adjectives and adverbs. Typing stunts are beginning on a new unit.

Algebra students are trying to catch up by going to school at night.

Homemaking girls are working in the foods lab. Last week they had their first dinner. The Ag. II boys are not having as much fun; they are working on themes.

Mrs. Claborn handed out snapshots that would go in the annual and our Bobby had a real surprise.

"BUILDERS OF TOMORROW"

The Freshman algebra students have completed the chapter on polynomials and suffered a six weeks' test last Thursday. The next unit covers special products and factoring.

The General Science class has finished twenty-one chapters and is now studying plant and animal life.

In English I, we are working on transitive and intransitive verbs and regular and irregular forms.

The Homemaking I girls have their dresses all cut-out and a few have even managed to sew a dart or two.

We are constantly running in to new problems, but it is all part of the fun. The sixth period P. E. girls have been having some volleyball matches among themselves and the results prove to be very interesting.

Before we are allowed to play volleyball, we are still forced to do exercises.

Gossip—J. R. has a cozy way of teaching her algebra.

F. M.'s new hobby—flipping springs across the back of girl's dresses.

"TOWARD NEW HORIZONS"

Everyone had a very nice time at Stephenville last Saturday. We want to thank the girls who attended and the club mothers who were with us.

The Freshmen have finally started to sew. We have two new sewing machines, too, so we should have some good results! Okay?

The Sophomores have prepared a complete dinner. We have also one girl in the Sophomore class who cannot seem to keep from breaking things.

I think she knows who she is. The Juniors are planning and preparing meals. Group J seems to be having some trouble with lemon juice. I think.

Gibbens One of Legislators To Aid In Congressional Re-Districting

AUSTIN — Representative Wayne Gibbens of Breckenridge considers his latest assignment "not easy, but essential." He is one of seven members of the Texas Legislature Council staff in its emergency named to guide the Legislative study of Congressional re-districting.

Appointment of the committee was requested by Governor John Connally. The selections were announced by Lt. Gov. Preston Smith, as chairman of the Legislative Council. Speaker of the House Byron Tunnell is vice chairman.

Redistricting is a difficult job, because there are always many different ideas as to how it should be done, Rep. Gibbens commented.

"However, in view of Supreme Court decisions, we have no other choice," he added. "Our 23 Congressional districts will have to be reshaped to meet the Court's interpretation of 'equal representation.'"

Last session the Texas House passed a Congressional re-districting bill that the Senate amended to an extent that the House would not accept the amended version.

Rep. Gibbens said that if Texas' population was divided equally among its 23 Congressional districts, each district would have about 416,500 people. These are 1960 census figures, which must be used until another census has been taken.

At present, 11 districts are at least 50,000 below that average figure, and eight are at least 50,000 above it. Only three are within 30,000 of the "ideal." The 23rd Congressman must run statewide until a district is created for him.

Other members of the legislative committee on re-districting are: Senators George Mott and Abraham Kazen, Larry Pett of Chillicothe, chairman, and Reps. Paul Floyd of Houston, Tommy Shannon of Fort Worth, Richard Slack of Pecos and Gus Mutscher of Brenham.

Rep. Gibbens is also serving as chairman of the Committee on special interim committees on preservation of state records, conflict-of-interest policy and a legislative internship program in which college graduate students are encouraged to train for future assignments in government.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Cox have a new granddaughter, Martha, born to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Roebuck at Las Cruces, N. M., Texas on February 29. The Roebucks have two sons, 5 years and 15 months.

It's just good sense to wash and dry electrically with FRIGIDAIRE

The 1964 flameless electric Frigidaire washers and dryers offer complete freedom from washday drudgery. They're completely automatic and virtually maintenance free.

The washer is equipped with a unique 3-ring agitator which keeps clothes in the under water "Action Zone," removes lint, guards against tangling, and unfolds every piece to clean them inside and out. And by the way, the washer automatically dispenses bleach and detergent, whether liquid or powder.

The Flowing Heat dryer tumbles clothes gently on a cushion of air, pampering the finest fabrics. And the Automatic Dry control shuts the dryer off when clothes are "just-right" dry.

No other washer and dryer approaches Frigidaire for quality, advancement, and performance.
