Did you notice the response to Flag Day? The "colors were flying in all their glory" in front of several business houses, maybe next time we'll be 100%! The Flag is a symbol of the freedom we enjoy. Let's show our pride in it.

According to the calendar Friday, June 21, is the first day of summer--but I think the calendar is confused. The temp readings state rather definitely that summer has been in full swing for at least the last two weeks.

"I am the way, the truth, and the life .... " so saith Our Lord. (John 14:6).

The events of our time perplex us. We look around our community and see a general state of stress, anxiety and confusion in the lives of our people. There is the

* of too much to do coupled with the frustration that much of what is done is insignificant. There's th epressure on all sides to conform; our lofty goals are too readily let go and we too easily are pushed into being satisfied with less than our best. We have bent our efforts to self satisfaction, and having gotten pretty much what we wanted, yet to find we do not really want what we now have.

But in all this there is hope. Our search fo ranswers to our perplexities can begin to give meaning to living. We see our people reaching for something deeper and more meaningful for their cluttered and neglected spirits. Men and women, through religious faith in The Almighty God, have gaine dlight for life's mystery and strength for its mastery. Those who have related themselves to The Church have discovered religion to be a way of looking at life, at one's self, one's fellowmen and at God. Worship strengthens the heart, the mind, and helps us to be masters of ourselves, as well as of the world about us.

Unite with your fellowman in the Worship of Our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. You will be a better person for having done so. See you in Church Sunday.

obviously applying to a judg-ment action (Matthew 3:11-12; Cf. Revelation 20:11-15); (5) the baptism of the Holy Spirit, also promised by John in connection with Jesus (Matthew 3:11) and confirmed by Jesus himself (Acts 1:4-5); (6) the baptism in water, as commanded by Jesus (Matthew 28:19) and exercised by the apostles and others from Pentecost onward (Acts 2:38,41; 8:36-39; 16:31-34; etc.) Z In the face of this, how could the apostle Paul affirm, in Ephesians 4:5, that there was

ONE BAPTISM? It is obvious that John's baptism was temporary (Acts 19:4). Jesus' "Baptism of suffering" applied only to his death, and possibly to the violent deaths of the apostles. The "baptism" of the Israelites was for one time only. The "baptism of fire" is reserved for the unrighteous, at the judgment. This leaves only the 'baptism of the Holy Spirit' and "baptism" in water.

That the "baptism of the Holy Spirit'' had a limited application is seen from the following: Although John spoke of it in general terms, Jesus made it specifically applicable to the apostles (Acts 1:2,4-5,26; 2:1-4, 14-22; Cf. John 13:5, 22-23; 14:26; 15:26; 16:13-15). Only one extension of this is directly noted in the New Testament. Peter describes the coming of the Holy Spirit upon the household of Cornelius (Acts 10:44-48) as a "baptism in the Holy Spirit" (Acts 11:1517) but also explains the particular purpose of such as being to show him, and the six Jewish brethren with him, that God "had granted to the Gentiles repentance unto life" (Acts 10:44-47; 11:15-18).

The purpose of the "baptism in the Holy Spirit", as applied to the apostles, was: to enable them to be witnesses of Christ (Acts 1:4-5,8); to "teach them all things" and bring to their remembrance all that Christ had said to them (John 14:26);

First Baptist Church Rising Star

The successful person is one who has learned the importance of putting first things first. One has said, "Success in life is a matter not so much of talent or opportunity as of concentration and perseverance." The words of our Lord clearly declares what should be the one important area of concentration and perseverance in the Christian life. "But seek ye first th ekingdom of God, and his righteousness, and all these things shall be added unto AND Mrs. Ethan. you". (Matthew 6:33)

May I suggest the following: To place God's will above ours.

To be sympathetc and understanding of others.

To be obedient to Christ's teachings. To find ways to use our talents for the work of the kingdom of God. To be kind and generous to those who cannot repay us. To give up something we want in order to help someone else.

To be faithful in attendance and work of the church. The above suggestions are but starting points from which in devotion we move to serve our God.

Medicare Premium Rates To Go Up .40

Monthly premiums on the medical insurance part of Medicare will go up starting July 1.

The basic premium rate will go from $6.30 to $6.70 per month, according to Glyn Hammons, social security district manager in Abilene.

The medical insurance helps pay doctor bills and other medical expenses and is funded by individual premiums and Federal general revenues. The protection is offered automatically to people reaching 65 who are eligible for social security benefits--and to disabled people under 65 who have been entitled to social security disability benefits for 24 consecutive months or more. 'The Medicare law requires an annual review of the cost of the medical insurance program and adjustment of the monthly premium rate to cover the estimated medical expenses of Medicare patients", Hammons said.

The 40 cent increase in July is related to a rise in the cost of medical services and compares to a 50 cent increase in the medical insurance basic monthly premium rate in 1973.

Medicare hospital insurance premiums must also be increased starting July 1. "The basic premium rates will go from $33 entire families, and be of to $36 a month", Hammons said.

Hospital insurance protection is extended automatically, without premium charge, to ning at 7:32 p.m., the film people reaching 65 who are eligible for social security or will feature in musical format, railroad retirement benefits-and Julie Andrews and Mary Tyler to disabled people under 65 who have been entitled to social security disability benefits for People 65 and over who
