

out of Bobbie's Notebook ...

Friday afternoon The Rising Star was paid a delightful visit by Mrs. Diana (Bill) Hobby of Houston, Texas. Bill Hobby is a candidate for Lieutenant Governor of Texas.

Diana Hobby was born in New York City on April 22, 1931, while her father, the playwright Laurence Stallings, was book and drama critic for The New York World. She was brought up there, and at the North Carolina farm of her mother's family. Her grandfather, the scientist William Louis Poteat, was president of Wake Forest College in North Carolina for many years.

She graduated from Radcliffe College in 1952, where she was elected to Phi Beta Kappa, and received her M.A. in English from Georgetown University in Washington in 1955. She taught school before her marriage in 1954 to Bill Hobby, and worked as an editor for the U.S. government while Bill was in the Navy.

She became book editor of The Houston Post in 1957, and is now on leave from that job.

Diana was elected to membership in the Texas Institute of Letters and has served as a director of that institute.

The Hobbits have four children, two girls and two boys, the oldest 13 and the youngest 7.

Mr s. Hobby was making a tour of several Texas towns campaigning for her husband, Bill. I had never really stopped to think of the time the families of candidates spend helping them. Diana said even the children have been contributing a great deal of time at campaign headquarters. Their oldest daughter, Laura, age 13, even went on tour with her mother last week.

Rodeo time is here again this Saturday was quite an exciting day for the citizens of Rising Star and friends from the surrounding area.

The day kicked off with the annual Rodeo Day Parade at 6 p.m. Several area riding clubs participated along with area floats.

May Riding Club won first place in the riding club division of the parade. The Rising Star - H Club won second and the Brown County Riding Club won third place.

In the float division, the Rising Star High School Band won first place. Second place winner was a stagecoach entered by TG&Y of Brownwood and was driven by Jack Williams.

Bob Shults is certainly to be commended on his job as announcer. He did a real great job.

Everyone seemed to enjoy the entire parade!!

Rainfall Nears 10 Inches This Year

John W. Lee, official weather observer for the U.S. weather bureau, reported 1.2 inches of rainfall for the Rising Star area. The soaking showers fell Monday evening. This brings the year's total to 9.84 inches. March possesses the record for the lowest rainfall amount with .07 inches. May has the largest amount, with 4.58 inches.

Cemetery Donations

The following donations have been made recently for the memorial and maintenance fund of the Rising Star Cemetery. Billy Zirkle, $10; Mrs. R.B. Terry, $10; Mrs. Grace Goss, $10; Brice Carroll, $5; Mr. and Mrs. I.L. Edwards, $10; and Mrs. Clinton E. Smith, $10.

A great deal of work has been done at the cemetery recently and it is looking beautiful. Donations are still needed in order to keep up maintenance that is underway.

Thomas Appointed State Conservationist

Youth, dedication, experience, professionalism -- these are some of the traits of Edward E. Thomas, newly appointed state conservationist for the U.S. Soil Conservation Service in Texas.

Thomas returns to his native state from Nashville, Tennessee where he was deputy state conservationist for SCS. He succeeds Clyde W. Graham who has been named director of the South regional technical service center in Fort Worth.

A career conservationist since 1954, Thomas was an assistant to Graham at the Temple state office until he went to Nashville in January 1971.

"Having the chance to return to Texas as state conservationist exceeds my fondest dreams," Thomas admits matter-of-factly. "My family and I learned to love Tennessee, but it was always second to Texas".

After starting his conservation career at Lubbock in 1954, Thomas worked at Wellington, Wheeler, Jayton, and Morton. Then he became area conservationist at Pecos in 1963. After holding a similar position at Harlingen, he moved to Temple as assistant state conservationist in 1968.

Thomas is a 1954 graduate of Texas A&M University where he was a member of the track team. He is also a graduate of Vernon High School and served as an Army officer in Korea from 1954 to 1956. He is a member of the Association of Texas A&M, The Soil Conservation Society of America, and the American Society of Range Management. He and his wife Mary have three children: Eddie, 15; Bill, 13; and Susan, 11.

B.A. Butler Lions Club Speaker

Benny Butler, long time newspaper editor and publisher in this area told the Cisco Lions Club members and guests that the President's summit talks were steps in the right direction.

He said that this gives the U.S. a chance to learn from them and that it should also work in reverse or there will be little gained. He said that this meeting is a meeting of complete differences in ideology, etc.

Butler encouraged all citizens to stand firm behind their president at this time. He said that it is easy to find fault, he also said that it is the duty of every citizen to form an opinion even though they are not in a position to accurately judge. He again urged the ideal of unity in this great nation.

Russie does not want war with us, Butler told the group. He said that there never was a nation and there is not one now that can live alone and advance in all fields. He said that all nations depend on someone else at times whether it be for technical knowledge or for materials they need another nation, a friend.

In closing Butler said that Russia is not a nation of war it is a nation that takes by other means, its tactics of revolution appeal to the underprivileged. Again he urged that citizens unite and press forward, he said he was hopeful and helpful.

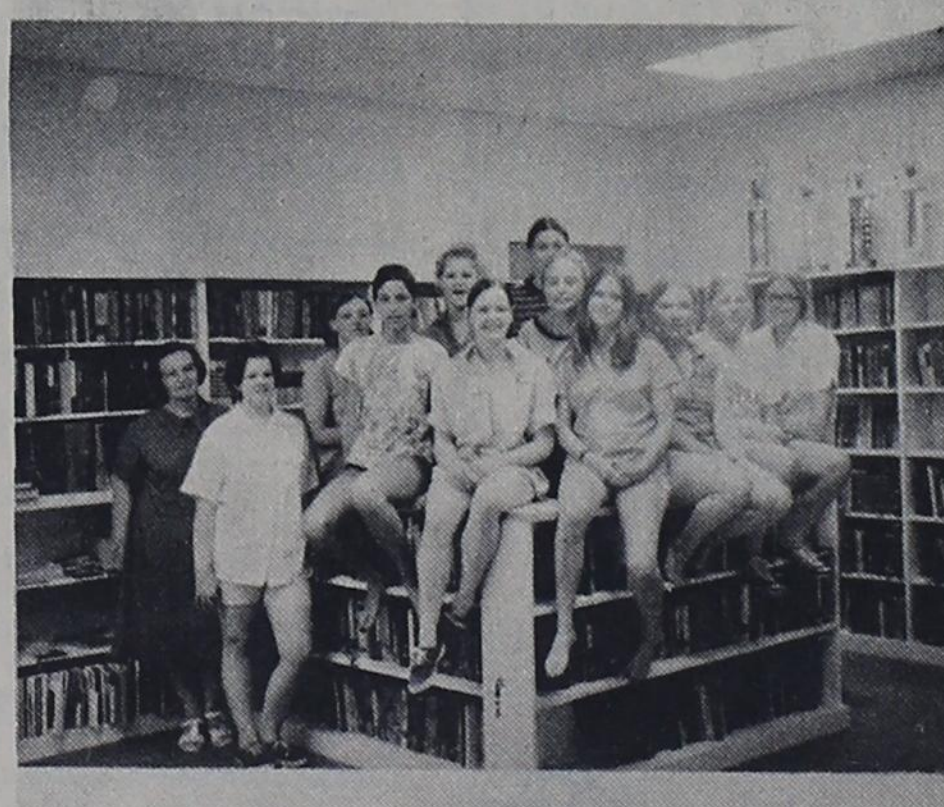

Visitors present for the occasion were: Rev. and Mrs. W.M. Morris - Lion George Downie; Mrs. Dalla Nance - Lion Steve Nance; Bertie Stark and Vallie Parker - Lion Tom Stark; and Mrs. Lillie Richardson - Lion Jay Rich. Other visitors were Mrs. Ralph Yarborough, Austin; Mrs. Lee Starr, Cisco; Mrs. Richard Byrne, Austin; Mrs. Corwin Johnson, Austin; and Mrs. Ora Lee Woods, Cisco

A weekly public service feature from the Texas State Department of Health
Accent on Health
J.E. PEAVY, M.D., Commissioner of Health
The State of Texas has begun a massive attack against venereal disease. Dr. James E. Peavy, Texas Commissioner of Health, announced today the State Health Department has launched a gonorrhea and syphilis control program aimed at halting the ever-increasing incidence of VD in Texas. VD is said to be of epidemic proportions throughout the United States.
The State Health Department has received an initial grant of $1.17 million in federal money that will be used to bolster the state's VD control effort and to assist local communities in carrying out programs of their own. A supplemental grant will become available in July.
"Texas has made great strides in VD control by significantly decreasing the incidence of early infectious syphilis," said Dr. Peavy, "but lack of funds has prevented the launching of a really effective attack against gonorrhea. Texas is only one of many states receiving federal funds as part of a massive, nationwide VD control effort, aimed heavily at bringing gonorrhea under control."
Incidence of gonorrhea has been rising in Texas since 1957. The past five years have seen a 75 percent jump in reported occurrence of this disease, and a 31 percent rise has occurred over the past two years. Health officials estimate that only one of every five cases of the disease is actually reported. Gonorrhea is currently the number one problem among all communicable diseases in Texas.
"During the next five years, the State Health Department will conduct an intensified statewide campaign designed to reverse this upward trend and to reduce the prevalence of infectious gonorrhea to a controllable level," said Dr. Peavy. "Many of the efforts will be centered in the five major metropolitan areas where 72 percent of all VD-infected individual's live. Control efforts will be initiated in all 24 standard metropolitan areas, which account for 91 percent of all venereal diseases."
During 1971, 50,193 cases of gonorrhea were officially reported to the State Health Department. However, health officials believe the actual incidence of gonorrhea in Texas may well have been in excess of 180,000 cases last year.
At the present time, the brunt of the state's gonorrhea epidemic is striking the young. Although gonorrhea knows no racial or economic boundaries, the heaviest concentration is among the economically disadvantaged. Of those Texans reported as infected with gonorrhea last year, 23 percent were in age group 15 - 19, 65 percent in group 15 - 24, and 81 percent in the 15 - 29 year age group.
The gonorrhea culture screening program will attempt to reach 500,000 females in the prime incidence areas to test for possible VD. Some 40,000 male patients will be interviewed for their sex contacts to reach and treat all victims of the disease.
State health officials plan to seek the support of the state's 11,000 licensed physicians, and will advise all 1,500 licensed laboratories throughout the state to report all positive tests for VD - now a requirement of state law.
In addition, a massive statewide education and public awareness campaign will elaborate on the dangers of VD, the need for accurate information at an early age, and the need to seek early treatment for the disease. The campaign will include newspaper, radio and TV public service spots, informational and training workshops for health professionals, and community seminars aimed at community officials and the public.
There's a sense of urgency in contacting females. They can have gonorrhea and not know it - thereby becoming "asymptomatic carriers".
Gonorrhea is a disease which incubates rapidly after contact - some three days - and therefore is spread rapidly. But by fining and eliminating the disease in asymptomatic women, it is hoped that the gonorrhea epidemic can be brought under control.

Atteberry - Medley Engagement Announced

Mrs. Margaret Bryant of May announces the engagement and approaching marriage of her granddaughter, Ginger Kay Atteberry, to Danny Ray Medley, son of Mr. and Mrs. W.L. Medley of Rising Star.

The wedding is planned for June 23, 1972, at eight o'clock in the First Baptist Church of Rising Star.

All friends and relatives are invited.

The bride-elect is a 1972 graduate of Brownwood High and will attend HPC in the fall. The groom-elect is a 1970 graduate of Rising Star High School. He has been enlisted in the U.S. Army since January and will go to Korea for an eighteen month tour in July.

National recognition of its first woman president, Dorothea Griffin, was announced recently when the West Texas Hereford Association held its annual meeting at the Abilene Chamber of Commerce.

A proclamation designating the Register of Merit Show scheduled for the West Texas Fair on September 12, 1972, as the "1972 Dorothea Griffin Register of Merit Show" was read by Curly Hays, WTHA secretary-treasurer. The proclamation is signed by W.T. Berry, Jr., executive vice president of the American Hereford Association, Kansas City; Lee Rode, president of the West Texas Fair Board of Directors; and Curly Hays, secretary-treasurer of the Board of Directors of the WTHA.

The proclamation states that Dorothea Griffin has, through the years, been a devoted Hereford breeder, supplier of quality show steers and an inspired leader in the affairs of the area Hereford industry; and that the WTHA has grown, prospered and served a valuable purpose for its membership under her capable leadership.

Plans for the show began over a year in advance with the Texas Hereford Auxiliary joining with the WTHA and local businessmen to help provide facilities, information and entertainment for Hereford breeders and their families who attend the show; and to house and care for the animals entered in the show.

Boosters of the show like Curly Hays and Dorothea Griffin travel far and wide and write many letters seeking quality entries in the show to add to the many quality volunteer entries. This helps increase the size of the show and the competition, Dorothea explained, and in turn helps increase the quality of Hereford herds.

Dorothea Griffin assumed the presidency of the WTHA in April 1971 - the first woman to serve in that capacity - and one of the few women ever to be elected president of any Hereford association.

Dorothea Griffin is owner-manager of the Griffin Ranch, a 5,000 acre spread near Lawn, Texas. She moved to the ranch as a bride in 1922, later bought the ranch and has run it herself for many years. She keeps a large herd of registered Hereford cattle on the range at all times, and from the herds have come many prize-winning animals.

She has long been a booster of 4-H Club work, and cattle from her herds raised by 4-Hers have won many show prizes, including the grand championship at Chicago.

A world traveler, Dorothea Griffin plans her trips around the seasonal operation of the ranch and admits that it is hard to leave the ranch at any time. Her home reflects these travels through furnishings and objects of art. The home is long, low and vine covered and surrounded by barns, feedlots, pens and buildings.

Dorothea, daughter of the Gerald O. Creswells, was born in San Antonio, Tex., and received her education at St. Mary's College in Dallas and the New England Conservatory of Music in Boston. She learned ranching and Hereford breeding through long years of experience and hard work on a ranch.

She is a charter member of the WTHA and present member of WTHA, and third vice president of the Taylor County Exposition Center.

Plans already finalized for the 1972 ROM Show include facilities for the animals, feed and show regulations information, transportation and shopping information for Hereford breeders and their families, entertainment and a style show. "New plans and work continue daily," Dorothea Griffin said.

Hereford breeders and their families are expected to begin arriving in Abilene several days in advance of the ROM Show date - Tuesday, September 12th.

Two Ciscoans Named To UTA Honor Roll

Mary Johanna Besselaar and Louann Reich were among 961 students on the School of Liberal Arts honor roll at the University of Texas at Arlington during the spring semester, announces Dean Charles H. Green.

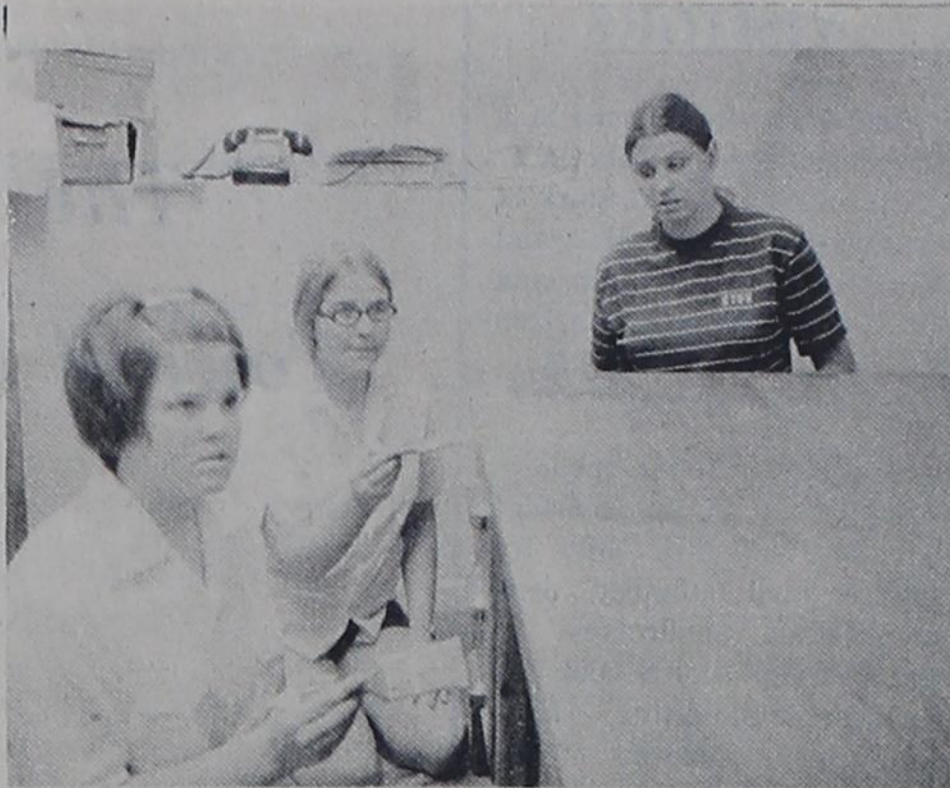

Students must complete 12 hours with an over-all "B" average and have no grade lower than a "C" to be eligible for the honor roll at UTA.

Mary is the daughter of Mrs. Gertrude Besselaar and Louann is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Reich. They are graduates of Cisco High School.

The Informed Consumer

When was the last time you decided to wash a new dress, only to discover that you threw out the washing instructions two days before? Consumers often tell me how confusing wash day is, with today's blends, synthetics, and finishes all requiring special cleaning procedures. Colors run, clothing shrinks, and material is damaged because of improper care.

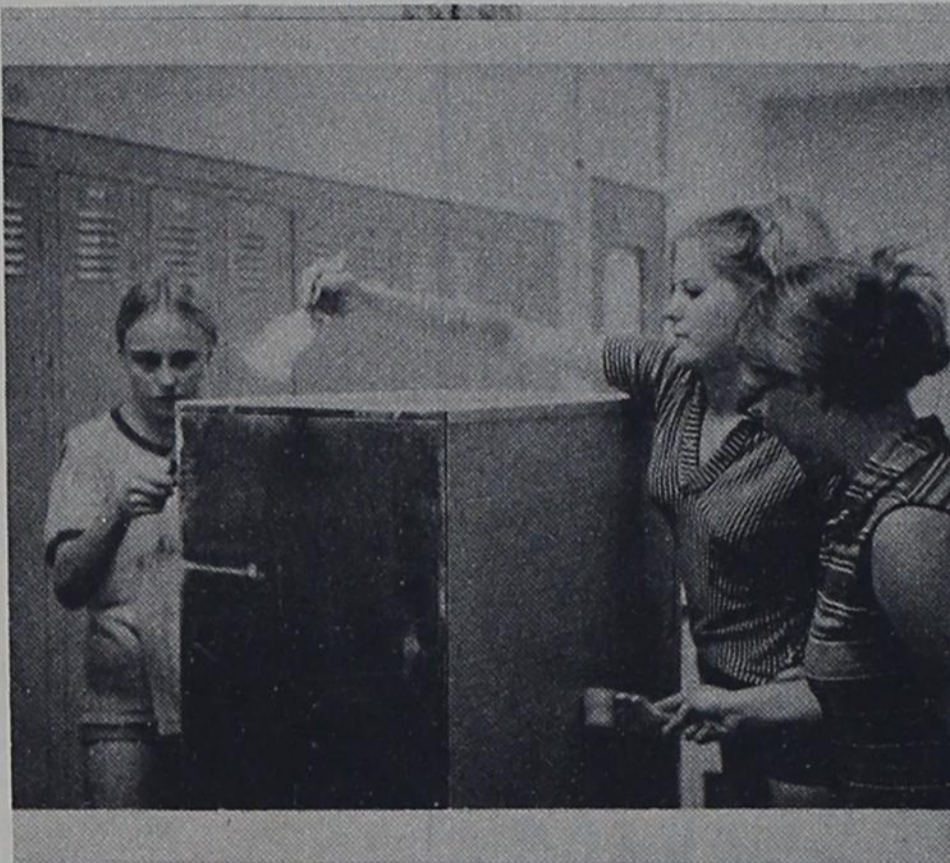

The traditional source of care information, personal experience, based on trial and error, no longer meets the needs of consumers. Now, thanks to a new regulation by the Federal Trade Commission, you will be getting answers to questions about washing, wringing, fluff drying, or dry cleaning certain kinds of clothing. As of July 3, 1972, clothing and yard goods must have a permanent label disclosing instructions for their care and maintenance.

The rule applies to any garments and hosiery, both domestic and imported. Even home sewers will benefit from this rule, which requires piece goods as well to be accompanied by care labels, which you can affix permanently to them by normal household methods, such as ironing.

Specifically, the label must fully inform you how to wash, dry, iron, bleach, dry clean, and otherwise regularly care and maintain a particular article; warn you if the care procedures that usually apply to such a garment would diminish its use; be made readily accessible, and not hidden in a pocket, for example; and remain legible for the useful life of the article.

Examples of instructions you'll be seeing: "Machine wash warm. Gently cycle. Do not use chlorine bleach;" and, "Dry clean only. Do not use petroleum solvents, or the coin operated method of dry cleaning."

Exemptions from the rule include headwear, footwear, and handwear, as well as certain articles selling for less than $3 which are completely washable. If an attached label would spoil a garment's use or appearance, a non-attached, but permanent label must be provided.

Besides informing you of the proper cleaning procedures for your clothes, an added advantage of the new rule is that at the time of the purchase it will be easier for you to choose between apparel which can be conveniently maintained and those which are more time-consuming because of costly care procedures that may be involved.

If you have any question about the new regulation contact the Federal Trade Commission Regional Office, 333 St. Charles Street, New Orleans, Louisiana, 70130.

To the voters of Precinct No. 3 --I will appreciate your votes in the run-off election Saturday, June 3rd.

4-H'ers Emphasize Health "H" with Information and Service

SPECIAL - Drug abuse, the problems of air and water pollution, helping the retarded, caring about the elderly, organizing blood drives and distributing health information... These are some of the things that 4-H'ers across the country have done this year, by participating in the 4-H Health program sponsored by Eli Lilly and Company.

Not only do 4-H'ers look for ways to maintain and improve their own health, but they try to go out into their communities and inform and help to improve the health of their friends, their families and their neighbors.

They Accept Opportunities
 4-H members have almost unlimited opportunities for service in health projects. In fact, according to the Cooperative Extension Service, many clubs have used novel techniques to put across the message of better health.

In Fayette County, Ohio, one 4-H club sponsored a blood donors drive. With the aid of a "Bloodmobile" the club contacted over 200 new blood donors and raised over 125 pints of blood. A club in Los Angeles County, Calif., worked with retarded and crippled children at a local hospital. The members of the club devoted their time to entertaining the children and to raising money to speed the cure of their crippling diseases.

Work for Clean Air, Water
 Air and water pollution was the pressing health concern of an Urbana, Ill. club. The club's entire activities centered around a program called "Environment Control". Speakers, discussions, personal actions and skits were employed to get the anti-pollution message out.

Mrs. Alex Sawyer, club leader, summed up her club's health activities this way, "Many families participated in recycling drives... One half mile of country road is (now) litter free. Hopefully (the program) convinced audiences that there is a problem and that there are solutions."

A leader in North Carolina said of the results of her club's health programs, "Our youth are learning to be leaders in our community, county and state by planning and carrying out these activities."

Those taking part in the 4-H Health program receive other benefits as well. Eli Lilly provides incentives and recognition for clubs as well as members who participate. Four young people from each county are eligible for medals of honor, while outstanding clubs are rewarded with certificates of merit.

Earn Scholarships
 The top health winner in each state receives an all-expense trip to the 51st National 4-H Congress in Chicago, Nov. 26-30. During the Congress, Eli Lilly will present seven educational scholarships of $700 each, to national 4-H Health program winners.

For further information about organizing 4-H health programs in the local area, contact the county extension office or state 4-H leader.

under Jack Duvall for one year, and then took over the reins as head coach for 1968 through 1971. During the past semester he has been serving on the RJC

As It Looks From Here

WASHINGTON, D.C. - AT THE END OF LAST WEEK'S comments, a distinction was drawn between public and private wrongs as a matter of responsibility between the courts and the legislative branch of the Federal Government.

THE CONSERVATIVE VIEW IS THAT public wrongs do not lend themselves to judicial solutions. Rather it is a matter of legislative initiative to determine questions of public policy and spending priorities. Only a broadly based representative body can bring the judgment to bear on these factors in order to place them in perspective.

MORE FUNDAMENTAL DECISIONS involving public policy matters should be made by a democratically selected and a political body directly answerable to the people.

PROPERLY, THE COURTS HAVE played a role in limiting excesses in the exercise of legislative and executive power. But, they have done so within the context of private litigation and have carefully avoided challenging governmental policy as distinguished from constitutional power to act.

IN MORE RECENT YEARS THIS traditional role of the courts has changed. More and more the judges have entertained jurisdiction and ruled on matters aimed at asserted public wrongs. If the Legislative Branch of Government should frustrate the desires of a group of people by rejecting their claims, the courts are asked to furnish relief. This judicial activism is not consistent with the original role the courts were fashioned for and represents a dangerous shift of power from the people, acting through their elected representatives, to judges who are answerable only to themselves. It is a trend bad for the courts and worse for the Country.

IT WOULD BE WELL FOR CRUSADING judges to ponder this statement by Justice Felix Frankfurter: "The Court's authority - - possessed of neither the purse nor the sword - - ultimately rests on sustained public confidence in its moral sanctity. Such feeling must be nourished by the Court's complete detachment - - in fact, and in appearance - - from political entanglement and by abstention from injecting itself into the clash of political forces in political settlements."

MR. JUSTICE FRANKFURTER WAS one of the most consistent advocates of judicial restraint. It has been the failure of Federal courts at all levels to heed his advice, that constitutes the core of some of the problems we have in this Country today.

ALL TOO FREQUENTLY, DECISIONS are rendered on the basis that judges disagree with the Congress on matters of policy. Oftentimes opinions may be couched in language challenging the constitutionality of a law but heavily influenced by their belief that congressional enactment is simply unwise.

THE LATE JUSTICE STONE, who served for 16 years with distinction on the U.S. Supreme Court, expressed this view: "The power of the courts to declare a statute unconstitutional exercise of power by the Executive and Legislative Branches of Government is subject to judicial restraint, the only check upon our own exercise of power is our own sense of self-restraint. For the removal of unwise laws from the statute books, appeal lies not to the courts but to the ballot box and to the processes of democratic government."

NEXT WEEK'S ARTICLE will give specific examples of more recent actions of the Federal Courts in issuing what is known in legal circles as "affirmative orders".

HOME AND FAMILY HINTS

From
Higginbothams

Barbara Williams

"Johnny, get that out of your mouth!" How often have you spoken those words to your own child or a child visiting your home?

The child is exploring the world and the first question he wants answered is "How does it taste?" Will his explorations today be harmless education or will they make him a tragic addition to the 500,000 children who are victims of accidental poisoning yearly? 100,000 of these are poisoned by aspirin, and over 144 of these children will die. How many places do you keep aspirin and other potential poisons in your home? How accessible are they to an exploring youngster?

You may wonder what this problem has to do with Higginbothams. Just this: it concerns us because it concerns you, our customer and friend. Please be safe.

I, for one, plead guilty to the charge of carelessness. And I'm guilty on several counts. How about you?

Do you have a locked cabinet anywhere in your home where you store dangerous chemicals? Can you build one or add a lock to an existing one?

Medicines, household preparations, insect sprays, kerosene, lighter fluid, some furniture polishes, turpentine, paints, solvents, and products containing lye and acids are most frequently the cause of accidental poisoning among children. Where are these in your home? Are they properly labelled?

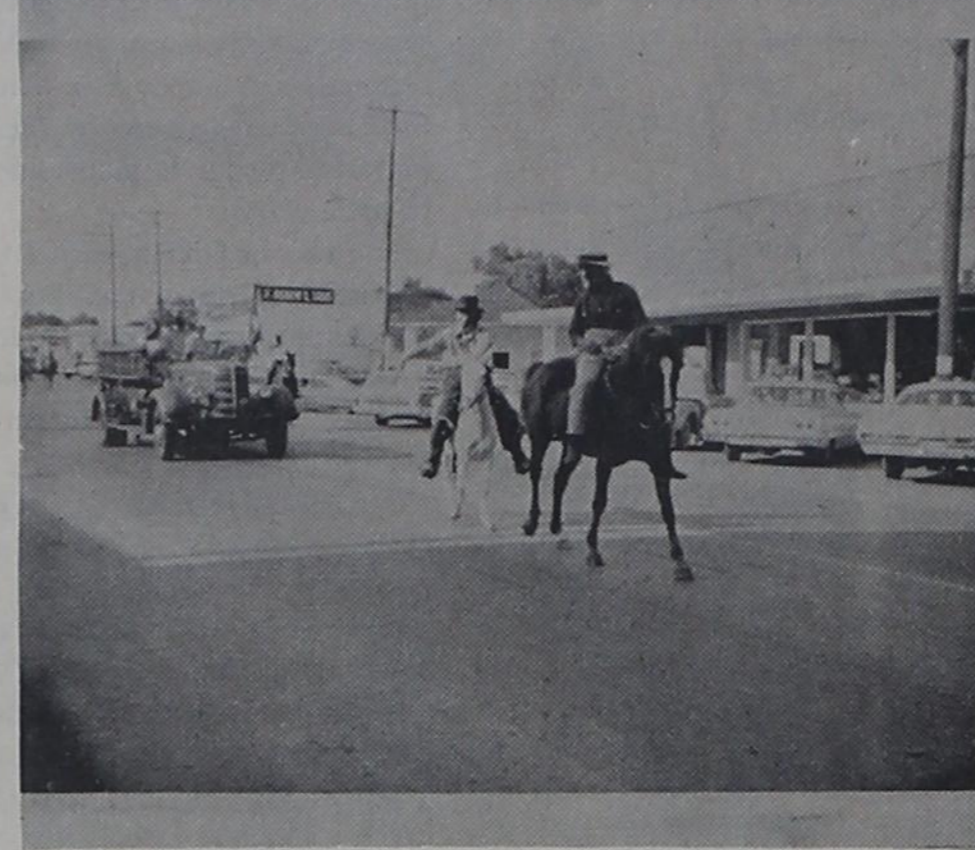

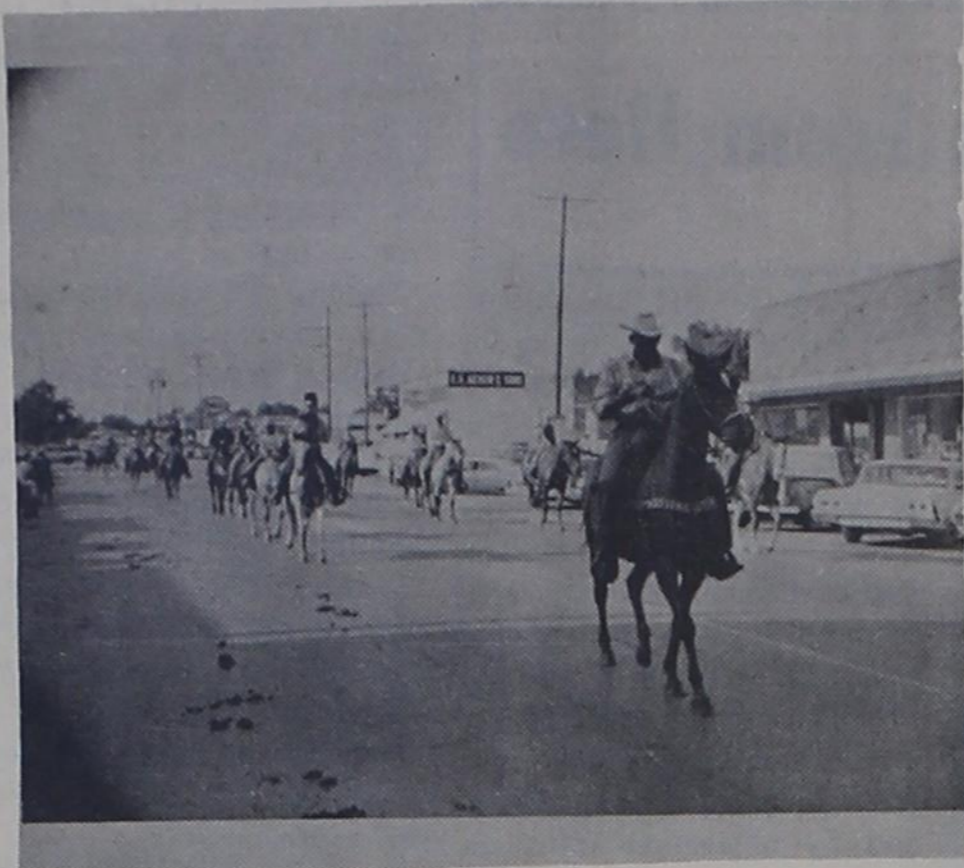

Do you ever leave any bottle of medicine out after using it, or do you immediately return it to a safe place?

Do you ALWAYS read labels? Do you ever reach for a medicine in the dark? Do you toss old medicines and potential poisons in the trash or do you empty them safely into the toilet or a drain and rinse the container?

Do you EVER place kerosene, anti freeze, paints, or solvents in cups, glasses, milk or soft drink bottles or other utensils customarily used for food? Do you store foods and household products separately?

Do you ever tell a child that medicine is candy? Don't.

Does your house have other dangers? Think about it. Live carefully. Live safely.

Continental Telephone Corp. List Earnings

CHANTILLY, VA. - First quarter earnings of Continental Telephone Corporation were 34 cents per share, up 10 percent from 1971 earnings of 31 cents per share, a company record for the period, it was reported today by Charles Wohlstetter, chairman. Consolidated net income was $10,498,000, which compares with $9,779,000.

Revenues and sales in the three months ended March 31 were $108,798,000, a gain of 8 percent over last year's volume of $101,133,000.

All 1971 figures have been restated to include companies subsequently acquired on a pooling of interests basis and to reflect retroactive prior years' Federal income tax adjustments.

Telephone operating net up 10 percent, revenues 14 percent.

Net income from telephone operations rose 10 percent to $9,697,000 from $8,805,000.

Operating revenues were up 14 percent to $75,110,000 from $65,951,000, with toll revenue again accounting for more than half the total. Earnings and revenues from telephone operations have increased without interruption ever since establishment of the Continental System in 1961.

Manufacturing earnings climb 3 percent, sales 3 percent.

The Continental Manufacturing Group reported sales volume of $31,161,000 for the quarter, a 3 percent gain over the previous year's $30,119,000. This resulted in net income of $1,691,000, 3 percent higher than the $1,642,000 earned in 1971.

Twelve months results

Farenthold Committee Conducts Meeting

An Eastland County Frances Farenthold Committee had its organizational meeting last week and is now busy in behalf of her candidacy for governor.

Eastland supporter Ronnie Nash said that although time is limited, a canvassing of Eastland County will be attempted and supporters also intend to canvass the downtown areas, supermarkets as well as local factories and industries. Radio and TV ads were made possible by local contributions, he said.

Supporters listed by Nash include from Eastland: Saul Pullman, Mrs. Raider, Rev. Bob Marsh and Mr. Presler; from Cisco: Louise Allison, Mrs. Parker, John H. Webb and Charles Greenhaw; and from Ranger: Jan and Tim Richards.

Gubernatorial candidate Frances Farenthold said Friday night that law enforcement efforts should place more emphasis on solving the state's hard drug problem and reduce first offense penalties for possession of marijuana to a misdemeanor.

Speaking on a Dallas television interview program, she said "Despite my opponent's misquotations concerning my positions, I have never favored legalization of marijuana. I would like to reduce first offense possession to a misdemeanor, not just to help save human suffering, but to free some of our law enforcement resources to solve the terrible hard drug problem in Texas."

Asked about her position on the Texas Rangers, the Corpus Christi lawmaker noted the Ranger tradition in her family tree. Her great, great uncle, Urban Bluntzer, was a Ranger. Mrs. Farenthold said she was not belittling the Ranger tradition, but she thinks they have become "an emotional issue in South Texas". She suggested the Rangers be concentrated in other areas of the state.

Mrs. Farenthold was in Fort Worth Saturday and will campaign in El Paso Sunday.
