Commissioners Approve Line-Item Adjustment For Sheriff

Eastland County Commissioners, in a called meeting Friday, Sept. 27 approved a line-item adjustment for a car purchase by Sheriff Ronnie White.

This vehicle will be chosen from State Drivers License Examiner's cars being held in Austin. It is expected to cost around $2,225 and will be paid for from the Sheriff's 1990-91 budget.

The car was described as an '85 model, but with low mileage. It will replace a Sheriff's Department car that needs a lot of repair.

In other business, Harley Gwyn, Computer Program Specialist, gave a progress report on computers in the Courthouse and jail. He said a number of the machines have been out of service or giving poor service since lightening hit the jail last June.

Gwyn said he and personnel from Interlogic Trace Co. had been working with the computers. Everything should soon be working right, he assured the Commissioners.

One new computer had been purchased to replace one burned out by lightning, he told the Commissioners. Gwyn suggested that the county either gradually replace or upgrade all the old computers so they could be programmed into a network. The Commissioners seemed agreeable to this idea.

As the session ended Commissioners were reminded that the next regular meeting would not be on Monday, due to the Columbus Day Holiday. The meeting will be Tuesday, Oct. 15, in the Commissioners Courtroom.

Early Voting Begins Oct. 16

Voters who wish to cast ballots by mail may apply any time by mail or phone. The final date for the application to be received is October 29. The ballot must be returned by noon of election day (Nov. 5) for it to be counted.

You may call the County Clerk's office at 629-1583 for more information. All registered voters are urged to cast ballots in this important election, which deals with Constitutional Amendments.

There are reported to be 10,546 registered voters in Eastland County.

A brief misfortune saw the team lose Scotty Wilson in the first quarter which helped the Greyhounds lead the Cats 14-0. The Cat defense held the Hounds to a 20-0 first half. No points were scored the third quarter, despite an injury to quarterback Brandon Geye. Chris DeLong lead the Cats down the field for the single score of the evening. Final score 27-6.

Progress Report Firefighters Plan Hydrant Repair, Siren Was Moved

The Rising Star Firefighters Association would like to bring the people of Rising Star up-to-date on the City's Volunteer Fire Department.

As of Sept. 23, we have Clark Utility Service, of Lorena hired to get all of our fire plugs in working order. This, of course, will take a little time, but we can then feel safe in knowing that in case of a fire, all our fire plugs will work!

This was made possible through the generosity and help of the Rising Star City Council, City employees and volunteers.

We apologize for any future inconveniences that may occur when it becomes necessary to cut the water off, for a short period of time, in order to perform a major hydrant repair.

The fire siren has been

Benefits Firefighters See a 'Friend' Kiss a Pig -- Donate Money

The Volunteer Firefighters Association is planning a fund raising event to take place at the Homecoming Football Game, October 19. These funds are to be used to purchase equipment, repair fire hydrants and provide training.

The contestants have agreed to kiss a baby pig, with the "winner" (loser?) being the one who has the most money collected in the jars placed in local businesses. Jars have the following contestants names on them:

Tex Evans and alternate, C.W. Best; James Ramsay and alternate, Arley Bibby; Shirley Leonard and alternate, Jerrell Bible; Reba Lyon and alternate, Gene Lyon. Jars are placed, with each person's name on them, in stores throughout Rising Star. The person who brings in the most donations will get to kiss the baby pig at the football stadium 30 minutes before game time.

Stores displaying jars include Rising Star Flower Shop, Peoples State Bank, Best Fast Foods, Buddy's Plumbing & Appliance Service, The Ole Store, Nall's Quik Stop, Max's Quickway and Rising Star Lumber & Hardware.

Contestants will be riding a fire truck in the Homecoming Parade and someone will be passing through the crowd for last minute votes.

WTU Announces Lowered Costs

Customers of West Texas Utilities Co. have some good news in the form of lower costs for electricity beginning with October bills. The lower costs are produced by a one-time credit and a reduction in the fuel cost portion of the bill.

"Our continuing efforts to lower boiler fuel costs and related transportation costs were successful and prompted the reduction," said, Travis Williams WTU's area manager. Those efforts include renegotiation of supply and transportation agreements, construction of a gas pipeline to the Fort Phantom power station near Abilene to provide better access to suppliers, and improvements in the efficiency of some plants so they burn less fuel to make electricity.

The credit will be issued on customer's electric bills during the billing month of October. An average residential customer using 660 kilowatt hours of

Fishing Outdoors

by Terry L. Wilson

For the past 28 years Paul Hope has worked for the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department providing information to the public. Since 1982 he has compiled a weekly fishing report that is distributed and used by newspapers statewide.

This week Hope has produced his 500th fishing report.

The first report was 'called' in by telephone to the San Antonio Express-News on Jan. 12, 1982, who sent it to the Associated Press in Dallas who then distributed it to the major daily papers. With news services producing many times what the media could possibly use every day, the fishing report made no 'great ripples,' Hope said.

The first report included 10 lakes, about 250 words. When it increased to 500 words AP cautioned about keeping it short.

The report has come a long way since then. With a standardized format, more lakes gradually were added despite the limit. The fishing report has grown to today with about 90 fishing holes, including saltwater, and some 4,000-5,000 words per week. Requests to add lakes continue to come in.

'When the fishing is good or extremely bad, your fishing reporter has a hard time finding anyone to get a report from,' Hope said. 'Most civic minded types would like to have their local lake publicized, but not everyone is so generous. One fisherman, in strong terms, did not want a fairly small, but good producing lake, on the report because he didn't want additional fisherman and the competition.'

Since June 1986, Hope has produced the fishing report weekly, including holidays. (Hope is probably the only person who would work on a holiday to put out a fishing report.)

Technological advances have helped make Hope's job easier, although he still calls every lake on the report weekly. The first reports were called in by telephone to someone typing as fast as they could. Nowadays, in addition to being mailed in the weekly news packet, the report is sent to AP by computer and modem. Sending the report via modem takes about 10 minutes. (Who knows what Hope does with his spare time.)

When Hope received a congratulatory letter from the Texas Association of Bass Clubs on his 500th report saying they were waiting for the 1,000 report, Hope joked, 'Why in the hell are they mad at me?'

Happy anniversary Paul! Five hundred reports and you're still around. Whew!

A big thanks to the TP&WD for the above piece. I will be out of town our next ast, so till next week. Good fishing from 'Fishing Outdoors.'

Sales Tax Permit Fee To Be Abolished October 1

"New businesses that are scheduled to open their doors on or after October 1 and have already paid the $25 sales tax permit fee, will have their money refunded," State Comptroller John Sharp says. "The same applies to existing businesses that have already filed to have their sales tax permit renewed on or after October 1."

The refunds coincide with the announcement that the annual $25 sales tax filing fee paid to the Comptroller's Office is abolished, effective October 1.

"Not only will the $25 fee be abolished, but we're also going to issue a sales tax permit to a business for an indefinite period of time. As long as they are making sales and sending their taxes to the state, businesses won't be required to renew those permits every year, as they are now," Sharp said.

According to Mickey Moore, president of the Texas Association of Retailers merchants are delighted to see the permit fee abolished. "They felt all along that it was inappropriate to ask them to pay a fee for the privilege of collecting sales tax for the state," Moore said.

"Since it was first enacted by the legislature in 1987, the $25 annual sales tax permit fee has generated more mail from angry business people than any issue handled by this agency in the last 20 years," Sharp said.

"Hundreds upon hundreds of business owners were mad that they had to pay a $25 fee every year to collect taxes for the State of Texas. It didn't make any sense to me either, but that was the law—a law that needed changing," he said.

"While the fee generated substantial state revenue estimated at $12.6 million in 1992 and $14 million in 1993—it also generated more animosity among Texas business people toward state government than you can place a dollar value on," Sharp said.

Also eliminated is the requirement that sales tax permits be renewed annually. Beginning October 1, the permits will only be canceled if a taxpayer reports no sales or taxable purchases to the state for a year's time, or if the business does not file its sales tax returns and remit the taxes it collected to the state.

by having a metroplex government over all four counties? Probably. Will it ever happen? No. If this much waste is so rampant in this rather sparsely settled area of Texas, it must be duplicated many times over in the rest of the state.

Why do we cling to an archaic system designed a century ago when a fifty mile horse drawn ride to the county seat was a major undertaking? No wonder our taxes keep on escalating. It's time for reform, and it will have to come from the people.

In the past, it's been the printing industry that brought forth the communication necessary to alter the status quo. As printers we must once again participate in bringing about meaningful change.

ationally we have mortgaged the future of our great grandchildren for projects of little real value. If we are to survive and prosper, we must make fundamental changes. Let it start here—with the printing industry.

WE NEED TO PAY MORE TAXES

On a national and state level, we are faced with an ever increasing need for higher funding otherwise, we are told, we will have to face drastic reductions of essential services such as: police, schools, prisons, etc.

Conventional wisdom says that local government is more frugal and responsive and that the control should lie there. I'd like to examine this premise and see if it's true.

Within a thirty mile radius of my hometown of Amarillo you'll find five county seats, all of them are suburbs of Amarillo. In this same thirty mile radius you'll find: five city governments, four paid fire departments, four sheriff's departments, two city police departments, two tax-supported hospitals, one college district, seven school districts, and four captive print shops.

Yet there are only four purchasing departments among all of these entities. In most cases each elected official, or department head, makes all purchasing decisions. One school superintendent once told me that the only time he secured a competitive bid was when the item was over $5,000 as is required by state law.

Could it be possible that there would be greater savings for us tax payers

Senior Citizens Center

by Marjorie West

Mrs. Lucy Curtis has her sons visiting her this week.

Marion and Marjorie West made a business trip to Cisco Wednesday.

The birthday party for those having birthdays in September honors Marjorie West, Charlie Chamberlain, Mearlyn Jones and Ray Hutchinson, was September 26. Monty Jones, owner of Rising Star Flower Shop, sent a lovely bouquet that we really appreciate.

Ivy Allen and Valeria Phillips were visitors at our club Thursday.

Dorothy Paddock, a nurse with Mediplex Home Health Services, was scheduled to be at the center to do blood pressures and cholesterol tests

Thursday. She had an accident and injured an ankle and will reschedule her appointment.

Artie Jagers has been a little under the weather the past week, had fluid behind both eardrums. She will have new glasses in another week and will go for complete bone scan at Brownwood hospital on Friday.

We wish to thank Evelyn Ward for checking blood pressures at the center Thursday.

Mary Carroll was not feeling well so she missed the birthday party. Hope you feel better real soon.

We are sorry to hear Elza Witt has not been well and had surgery recently. We hope she will be well again soon.

Pioneer Patchwork

by Irma Miller

The Quilting Club ladies worked on the Double Wedding Ring and on a Four Crosses, both of which are quite pretty.

This community is having beautiful autumn days, which are maturing the crops—mostly grass burrs, it seems.

The Pioneer Baptist Church is hosting a three-day revival which starts Sunday, October 6, and goes through Wednesday night. The minister is from out of state.

The Pioneer Pentecostal Church is hosting its annual homecoming on Saturday, October 12.

Frankie and Oliver Smith and Jean Fore attended the Rising Star musical on Friday night. Saturday the three spent the day in Ranger enjoying Roaring Ranger Days. It was a fantastic day, and the museum at Ranger was especially worthwhile. They also visited with Frankie's father in the nursing home. Saturday night they went to the Echo musical. Shirley and Laura Rankin of Rising Star had lunch with them on Sunday.

Lottie Sooter's nephew, Larry Meyers of Washington, D.C., visited her recently. Novilia Barton visited with Barbara and Bob Powell and with the L.W. Mitchells this past week, and Betty Beggs visited with Novilia.

Laverne and Cowan Hutton went to Abilene with Ray and Azalee Womack and visited friends in the hospital. Laverne and her mother, Mrs. Ella Dean, of Cross Plains, were in Eastland and Cisco Friday. Sunday afternoon their children and grandchildren, Lynn and Pam Hutton and children, visited with them.

Nell and Joe Fleming's visitors on Tuesday were Elder Marshall and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Marshall, all of Odessa; Jay and Myrtle Kirkham of Cross Plains on Thursday; Betty Meiron of Andrews and Will Meiron of Abilene on Saturday; and Jovita and Bill Watson of Lake Brownwood and Jim and Charlene Fleming and Alan Fleming of Stephenville on Sunday afternoon.

Ruby and Lynn Daniel have a new little granddaughter in California named Kaylee, daughter of Ben Neal, the oldest son of the late Ben Neal and Bonnie Neal.

My Friend Sam

Let me tell you about my friend Sam. He can't even use his arms or hands. Pretty soon his legs, useless will be But in his face there's no misery.

This man faces each day with a smile. Knowing he has but a little while. Could you be happy and cheerful too? If all of this were happening to you.

This friend is always gentle and kind. He is a person you seldom find. He never complains when things go wrong. He just keeps smiling and going along.

In life we don't always understand Things that happen we didn't plan. We have little control what happens in life Some of it's happy, a lot of it's strife.

If you have problems you can't stand You should meet my friend Sam. You would see the courage it takes each day To go through life in a cheerful way.

Knowing he'll never do again, All the things that he loved, when He could do each day what he wanted to His work, or travel, or play golf with you.

But my friend Sam doesn't complain; If it were me I'd go insane. But Sam goes on with a joke and a smile Knowing him, that's just his style.

And in his troubles he's still the kind Of friend you like to find. Whenever I travel, or wherever I am He'll always be, my friend Sam.

Dedicated to Sam Marshall

Fire Fighters Report

moved to the fire station and we would like to express a big thank you to West Texas Utilities Co. for helping us with this task. Since the siren has been inoperative for some time, we have had to rely on the telephone to direct people to the fires. We will now have three alarms: one for house fires, one for grass fires and one for approaching bad weather.

If you would like to see more being done in the fire department, please help by either donating your time or money.

The department would also like to convey a very special thank you to the city management, employees, volunteers and people who have donated their time and money in helping the department, which in turn is helping the community. It's people like these who show a big interest in the safety of our community people who help to get things done, but it takes many people of this type.

For more information, please feel free to call C.W. Best at 643-5018 or Shirley Leonard at the City Hall 643-4261.

HOW WILL WEATHER AFFECT PEANUTS?

Last week a cold front brought in cool weather and lot of rain. You can realize the importance of crop to a county by who's asking questions about it. Just about everybody I talked to last week would sooner or later ask how will the weather affect the peanut crop. With the prospects of a good crop throughout the county, this is an important question.

The short cold spell we experienced was not long enough to cause a big problem for the peanuts. The cool weather did slow the peanuts maturity up a little, but not much. The quick return to warmer weather reversed most of the effect of the one or two days of cool weather.

Peanut producers need to remember that it is still just the end of September. Dr. George Alston, Extension Agronomist, warns producers not to let cool weather push you into doing something too quick. Wait for peanuts to mature as long as weather conditions permit.

The wet weather does bring one concern this time of year for producers and that is pod rot. Wet, warm conditions are ideal for the development of pod rot.

This time of year peanut producers are like all other farmers in the country. They are at the mercy of the weather. This fact is the same throughout the growing season, but it is at this time of the year when producers are left helpless. The peanut crop is almost made and the money has all been spent to get the crop set. Weather can take it all away.

Eastland County Agricultural Extension Agent

Disaster-affected crops
Several bills have been introduced in Congress which authorize disaster payments for participating and nonparticipating crops. Because of disaster conditions, producers are finding it necessary to destroy crops or to salvage as much feed as possible from disaster-affected crops. Producers may request appraisals on disaster-affected acreage and bin measurements for production from disaster-affected acreage of corn, grain sorghum, cotton, and peanuts. A measurement service fee will be charged for this service.

New Wool Mohair Filing Procedure
Effective with the 1991 marketing year, wool and mohair producers are subject to the payment limitation and payment eligibility rules. Producers will have 15 days after filing the first sales receipt for a marketing year to file a person determination form. Wool and mohair producers must also certify that they are in compliance with highly erodible land and wetland provisions.

Under the new procedures, sales documents for 1989, 1990, and 1991 will be accepted if filed by March 2.

Fall Peanut Quota Transfers
A fall peanut quota transfer can be approved only if the transferring farm planted an acreage equal to 90% of the farm's effective quota, minus the farms effective undermarketings. Transfers must be approved prior to marketing the peanuts as quota peanuts.

We are maintaining a list for producers to indicate their need to transfer or receive quota. Final fall transfer date is January 31, 1992.

Fast Talk

by Cheryl Robinette

Are you guys afraid or just a little out of shape? It seems that junior W.E. has a want-to-be girlfriend in Brownwood. How does it feel to have the girl chasing you for a change?

What junior L.R. got angry at her boyfriend J.H. for leaving her and going to Brownwood? I guess she cannot go everywhere with him!

What 7th grader C.E. had a slumber party and ended up with a bad case of fighting girls?

What senior C.R. and ex-Ladycat T.V. almost got a hold of some Greyhounds Friday? They tried to find them after the game but could not. They are lucky this time!

Wildcat Eyes to J.M., B.G. and C.H. for helping everyone on the government test!

A special Wildcat Eyes to the Stutevilles for helping out our injured football player Friday!

Who's parents went looking for her and her friends on the drag Saturday night?

Wildcat Eyes to the cheerleaders for going out together and eating at Mr. Gatti's Saturday night and not getting into any trouble!

What three high school teachers left RS at 6:30 Saturday morning (after getting home at 1:30 a.m. from the football game) and went to the Soviet Space exhibit in Fort Worth? And guess who drove and who slept! Where are our T-shirts Ms. E., P., and W.?

Wildcat Eyes to the football team for keeping their cool Friday night!

What junior and senior hit Ms. Wright in the head with a paper wad? Or who threw it and who took the blame? Was it R.S. or M.H.?

Speaking of paper wads...what certain people got into a major paper wad battle in class?

What senior should take boxing lessons so that the other team's member could have a chance? Oh yeah—take off the helmets next time, makes a better picture!

My saying of the week: Congratulations to the teachers: Ordinary people doing an extraordinary job! (For us that means extra help and extra encouragement) electricity will see a reduction of $13.17 on the bill that month. The actual reduction for each customer is based on their previous month's use of electricity.

WTU Costs Lowered

The reduction in the fuel portion of the electric bill will be in effect for all upcoming months. According to Williams it will mean an average 3.5 percent reduction from costs last year.

The Public Utility Commission of Texas (PUC) recently granted the company's request to reconcile fuel costs for April 1987 through December 1990 and adjust the fuel portion of the bill to recover projected fuel costs. WTU filed the request last February.

West Texas Utilities Co. serves 177,000 customers in a 52 county area that stretches from the Red River to the Rio Grande.

Scholarship Program Enters Fourth Year

The Coca-Cola Scholars Foundation is beginning its fourth annual scholarship competition, the largest business-supported college scholarship program in the country. Interested students should see their guidance counselors for scholarship applications and eligibility information. The postmark deadline for applications is October 31.

Southwest Coca-Cola Bottling Company, the sponsoring local Coca-Cola bottler, encourages graduating seniors to apply and compete for the 150 scholarships to be awarded in the spring.

Fifty National scholarships worth $5,000 annually and 100 Regional scholarships worth $1,000 annually are awarded, and are renewable for up to four years of undergraduate study at any accredited U.S. college or university.

"This is an excellent program that recognizes outstanding future leaders, and we would like to see more students take advantage of this unique opportunity," said Charles F. Stephenson, Executive Vice President and General Manager of Southwest Coca-Cola Bottling Company, Inc.

The Coca-Cola Scholars Foundation rewards individuals on the basis of personal as well as scholastic merit. Consideration is given to a student's leadership potential, character, and intellectual ability in addition to their academic record.

"Last year, 32 local students represented our area as semifinalists, and two of them were selected as finalists. Tammy Lieb of Portales, N.M., was named a National Scholar, and Deron Robinson of Norton, Texas was a Regional Scholar. They traveled to the National Competition in Atlanta, Ga., with expenses paid by the Foundation, to compete for their titles. We are very proud of all these fine young people and their accomplishments, and are looking forward to meeting more Coca-Cola Scholars in this year's competition," said Ronnie Hill, Senior Vice President Sales and Marketing for Southwest Coca-Cola bottling Company, Inc.

Fire Prevention Week To Be Observed In County Oct. 6-12

Charles Walker, Ken Brown and Rick Wende are shown behind County Judge Bailey who is signing a proclamation for Fire Prevention Week October 6-12.

The Eastland County Farm Bureau, in conjunction with all fire departments in the county are working together to emphasize fire prevention and protection throughout the county.

Fire Prevention Week is always the Sunday-through-Saturday period in which falls October 9, date of the Great Chicago Fire of 1871. The Chicago disaster killed 250 people and destroyed 17,430 buildings.

In his proclamation, Judge Bailey has called upon the citizens of Eastland County to participate in Fire Prevention Week activities such as locating and eliminating fire hazards; checking smoke detectors and developing a home escape plan; as the 1991 theme suggests..... "FIRE WON'T WAIT...PLAN YOUR ESCAPE"

At Abilene College/Technical School Night Will Be October 14

Junior and senior students of high schools in the Big Country who are planning to pursue a higher education and the parents of these students will have an opportunity to meet and talk with representatives from various colleges, universities, and vocational training schools at a college/technical school program at Abilene High School on Monday, October 14, at 7 p.m. Representatives from forty institutions have been invited. In addition, representatives from the Air Force, Army, Marine, and Navy ROTC programs and a representative to discuss financial aid will participate in the program.

The evening program will begin in the auditorium where Victor Flores, President of the Abilene High School Student Council, will preside. Mr. David Baum, Director of Guidance and Counseling, Abilene Independent School District, will welcome the students and parents. Following the general meeting in the auditorium, each student and parent will have an opportunity to attend three discussion groups of thirty minutes each to obtain information about three different schools in which they are interested. College representatives will discuss entrance requirements, application procedures, estimated yearly cost, courses of study, types of housing available, financial aid, and other topics of concern to students and parents.

Representatives will be present from: Abilene Christian University, Air Force ROTC, Aladdin Beauty College, Angelo State University, Army National Guard, Art Institute of Dallas, Austin College, Baylor University, Cisco Junior College, Concordia Lutheran College, East Texas State University, Federal Aviation Administration, Hardin-Simmons University, Hendrick Medical Center Medical technology, Howard College, Howard Payne University, Incarnate Word College, Lubbock Christian College, Marine ROTC, McMurry University, Midwestern State University, Navarro College, Navy ROTC, Northwood Institute, Schreiner College, Southern Methodist University, Stenographic Institute of Texas, St. Mary's University, Texas A&M University, Texas A&M Engineering Extension Service, Texas Christian University, Texas Tech University, Texas University of Cosmetology, Texas Woman's University, Trinity University, University of North Texas, University of Texas at Austin, Wayland Baptist University, West Texas State University, Western Texas College.

Charles Walker, President of the Eastland County Farm Bureau said, "Fire is both friend and foe. We can't live without it, but its destructive power is a threat we must control." Protect yourself by keeping fire a friend:

- * Regularly inspect your house and out-buildings for fire hazards. Check the electrical system, electrical appliances and equipment, fuel storage, heaters and heating system. Make needed repairs or replacements without delay. Don't overload circuits or bypass fuses.
- * Remove trash, stacks of papers and other unneeded combustibles that could feed a fire.
- * Read and follow instructions with portable heaters. Place them where they won't ignite combustibles or be tipped over. Never use gasoline in a kerosene heater, and make certain gasoline and kerosene containers are clearly marked to avoid a mix-up. Never use a kerosene or gas-fired heater in a closed area - have ample ventilation.

Countywide 4-H Food Work Shop

Saturday, September 14, an enthusiastic group of 29 4-Hers and 9 adults attended a countywide foods workshop. Janet Thomas, Home Economics County Extension Agent, welcomed everyone and told about types of food projects and major changes in requirements and areas of competition for the upcoming food shows.

Rising Star 4-H presented a skit about fad diets entitled "Bad Fad." The skit was written by Kathy Bush, a 4-H mom. Those presenting the skit were: Amy Agnew, Rachael Bush, Kirby Bush, and Blair Bailey.

Eastland Jr. 4-H asked, "Why Food Safety?". After a short quiz on food safety, we all realized we had many things to learn. Food Safety consists of the 4-C's: 1) CLEAN - person, area, equipment, food; 2) COOK - cook throughout to proper temperature; 3) CHILL - below 40° before and after cooking, if stored; and 4) CROSS-CONTAMINATION - keep raw foods (meat) away from other food until ready to use.

* Consider installing a sprinkler system in all new construction.

The Ranger Club had a demonstration on keeping fit. By the time, we finished exercising, lunchtime had arrived.

The feature of the day, BREAD IN A BAG, finally arrived. Janet Thomas led all 29 4-Hers step-by-step through the process of making homemade bread. As ingredients were added, they were mixed by working the bag with our fingers. All mixing was done in the bag until the final step of kneading. When leaving, we each had a loaf of bread rising ready to be baked at home.

Kelly Gourley and Lyndee Groce of the Eastland Sr. 4-H Club, say THANKS to the members of the Senior Citizens Center for allowing us the use of your beautiful facilities. Also, THANKS to Janet Thomas and the adults that helped make the food workshop such a great success.

Junior Cat Tracks

by Christy Hughes

The Rising Star Jr. Cats are on a roll this season! Last Thursday they brought their season record to 3-0 with a win over the Throckmorton Jr. Greyhounds. All of their hard work is paying off in a big way!

The captains for the Cats were eighth grader, Michael Perales, and seventh grader, Landon Ratliff. Soon after the kickoff, Michael Perales the game. The Jr. Cats were able to make the 2-point conversion with quarterback Landon Ratliff running the ball. About half way through the first quarter Throckmorton fumbled, and Brandon Cook recovered the ball. With 1:57 left on the clock, Perales made a 75-yard run for the Jr. Cats' second touchdown. The Cats were really hustling, but they failed to make their 2-point conversion. This ended the first quarter with the score 14-0, Rising Star.

In the second quarter, Daniel Rodriguez fought his way up the field, which helped to set up another Wildcat touchdown, scored by Michael Perales. The conversion was good as Ratliff passed to Perales for the 2 points. This made the score 22-0, Rising Star. With about 2 minutes left on the clock, Perales again ran back a punt for a 75-yard touchdown. The 2-point conversion attempt failed, but the Jr. Cats were leading 28-0 at halftime.

As the second half got under way, the Jr. Cats were still playing a great game. The defense was intense, as sixth grader Corey Morris recovered a Throckmorton fumble for the Cats. The third quarter was scoreless since both teams were playing such aggressive defense. Nevertheless, the action was nonstop.

The fourth quarter began with the Jr. Cats in possession of the ball, but a fumble by the Cats was recovered by Throckmorton. This mistake did not hurt the Cats, as they held on to their lead and won the game 28-0.

When they were needed, the Jr. Cats' defensive team really held on to keep Throckmorton down. The Jr. Cats' offense and defense worked together really well to win this game. Way to go guys!

Coach Browning stated proudly, "We've gotten better and improved from last week. Our lines blocked better, and our backs ran better."

Eighth graders Daniel Rodriguez and Jeremy Hall agreed on the fact that the team is doing pretty well.

Shawn Harrelson claims, "We did good, but we can still get better!"

The Jr. cats have an open date tonight, which means that there will be no game this week. Their next game will be Thursday, October 10, against Cross Plains, at Rising Star, beginning at 6 p.m.

The Jr. Cats are really proud their family and friends came out to the game, and they appreciate all of the support that they have been given. As the year goes on, I hope to see this support continuing into other Jr. High activities. The Jr. Cats are doing an exceptional job and deserve all the attention that they are receiving.

Writers Block

by Betty Jones

Students at Rising Star have had a tough first six weeks. Students receive California Achievement Tests to be included with their report card.

This week in FHA the students are still working with their little Brothers and Sisters. FHA members will have a puppet show at the elementary on the safety of trick or treating. The students will make hand puppets for Halloween. The basis for this program is for the older kids to spend individual and reading time with each other.

On October 3 and 4 school will dismiss after lunch and buses will run at 12:45 due to teacher inservice.

Stuteville's Stats

by Emily Stuteville

Obviously, last Thursday's pep rally was full of enthusiasm and motivation, because later that evening, the Junior Cats thrashed Throckmorton 28-0. However, these girls never get tired of giving support to this young team.

Pep squad member, Amy Collins, gloated, "We're so proud of the team and ready to watch them play again!"

"They did an awesome job and we're really excited about their success!" volunteered an enthusiastic Tianay Chambers.

The next game will be October 10 at 6 p.m., against Cross Plains at Rising Star.

Remember, cake chances are still being sold at all of the home games. All proceeds are being used to finance the Sweetheart Banquet at the end of the season, and the entire Junior High appreciates your support!

Basketball Babes

by Gherda Williams

If you had dropped in at the high school gym around 2:40 any day last week, you would have seen the Lady Cat basketball team sweating away as they learned a couple of new coordination skills. These new drills are targeted at smoothing out the clumsiness of the team.

The drills consist of: running on a line while placing one foot on the opposite side of the line, then placing the other foot on the other side of the line, repeatedly (This drill is done backward and forward.); the other was done by facing the line while a team member places one foot behind the other while running sideways.

Betty Jones, a senior, lamented, "The new coordination drills are hard for people like me who don't have any coordination, but they'll help in the long run."

Another team member, Jo Linney, elaborated, "It was a unique experience!"

What enthusiastic girls!

Elementary's Extras

by Michelle Ferbrache

Rising Star Elementary teachers met before school started this year and decided to make learning a little more fun for the children.

A theme expressing a value will be used each month. Upcoming themes are: November, Giving and Helping; December, Christmas Around the World; January, Happy Faces; February, Ecology; March, Patriotism; April, Transportation; and May, Health and Nutrition.

Right now the children are studying safety units. The Rising Star Chapter of 4-H will do Buckling Up, and the Fire Department is going to give a demonstration on fire safety in the near future.

The children will have fun while they are learning, which will make learning processes more interesting for them.

Cosmic Thoughts

by Slam

I have received a lot of questions about my name and I am answering them completely: Slam is my name. Your horoscopes:

Leo: It's time to go harvest the work of the mustard bees. It may be hard work, but it pays off.

Gemini: This is a great time to buy pearls. They are cheap and plentiful. Don't wear them to Six Flags though. They could get stolen.

Aquarius: Beware weathermen are forecasting snow for the winter. Remember, my Aquarius saying, Frozen water is colder than regular water.

Pisces: Keep away from hair spray this week. Global Chemicals unlimited has accidentally put Nair in their hair spray bottles.

Virgo: Do not eat paper mache any time soon. It could produce purple waste.

Libra: Quit making bad jokes! Not only are they stupid, they are annoying.

Scorpio: Do not run any errands this week. They could be fatal.

Sagittarius: Great week to buy a gun isn't it? Just don't let your kids play with it. They might waste bullets.

Fast Talk

by Cheryl Robinette

Looks like Q.C. likes T.C. in this week's love column.

What seniors D.O. and R.W. took up a new hobby this week? They are drawing sports cars instead of sleeping.

Wildcat Eyes to T.V. for helping out her boyfriend J.M. He ran out of gas and she brought the gas can to the rescue.

What two freshman M.B. and A.F. talked too much on their way to the game Friday? It also appears that they got a dip for the dips too!

What 7th grader S.H. took his pants off at the lake to impress a girl? Maybe we could find other ways to attract them, not scare them!

What did T.L. and J.H. have up their sleeves whenever they left to go in the woods together?

What senior B.G. got injured Friday during the game? Hope you feel better soon!

What seniors R.W. C.R., S.W. and C.H. sat around Rising Star Saturday night?

What two fish are scared to go to the Cisco dam?

What 7th grader M.J. wanted to wear a bikini to impress J.H.'s best friend? Sources reply, "It was not a pretty sight!"

What sophomore T.B. got a shock whenever he woke up with a girl lying beside him? What's wrong, can't remember anything?

What senior D.O. had a great weekend with freshman D.S.? Just what exactly happened?

What ex-Wildcats would not play tackle with the Wildcats?

Dear Marie

Dear Marie,

I used to go with a girl from May. Now we are just friends. I see her every weekend and I want to get back with her, but I am afraid to ask. I think she likes older guys. She has gone with two older guys form here.

Chicken in R.S.

Dear Chicken,
Go ahead and ask her. If she says no, you can still be friends. Having gone with her once, you really do not have anything to lose.

Dear Marie,
I really like this guy, but I do not know if he likes me. I do not want to ask him because he might say he hates me. What should I do?

Anxious to Know

Dear Anxious,
Do not ask. If he likes you he will let you know in time. If he does not like you... Oh well! There is more fish in the seal

STATE CAPITAL

HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

One of Gov. Ann Richards' elite appointees drew an election opponent last week, a former energy advisor to President George Bush.

The match-up, pitting insider against insider, signals how partisan the '92 elections should be, as Republicans seek to regain turf lost by the foot-in-the-mouth gubernatorial race of Clayton Williams.

Barry Williamson, a Dallas Republican, announced he is a candidate for the Texas Railroad Commission seat now held by Lena Guerrero, a former state representative from Austin.

The governor named Guerrero to the post a few months ago, apparently to reward her as top campaign advisor, because she had no energy industry experience.

Shortly after her appointment, Guerrero underscored her OJT (on-the-job training) status by asking independent oilmen to bear with her while she learned the business.

Inexperience Targeted

Williamson targeted her inexperience last week when he said, "I'm the only candidate who will be in the energy business after the election; a commissioner if he wins, an oilman if he loses."

Williamson called for a national energy policy, and Guerrero echoed by promising her staff will develop one in the coming months.

Williamson, is a son-in-law of prominent Midland oilman Bobby Holt and former director of the Office of Mineral Management in the U.S. Department of Interior.

Another Republican, former Austin mayor Carole Keeton Rylander, is expected to join the race. Her candidacy would particularly hurt Guerrero, not just because she would draw votes from the same home base of Austin, but as an alternative candidate for one issue women voters.

Some Republican insiders believe Rylander would run a more effective race against Guerrero (by removing the gender issue) and there has been an effort to talk Williamson out of the race.

GOP Justice Rapped

Gov. Richards and Secretary of State John Hannah joined with some lawmakers who think Texas Supreme Court Justice John Cornyn should give up his lesser job as an outside administrative judge in San Antonio.

Cornyn, appointed as administrative judge two years ago by then-Gov. Bill Clements, was elected to the High Court last year.

If he resigned, Richards would appoint his successor, but Cornyn said, "I'm staying on."

Richards and Hannah are Democrats; Cornyn, a Republican.

State Sen. Gene Green, D-Houston, said he will ask Attorney General Dan Morales for an opinion to oust Cornyn. Morales, a Democrat, is also from San Antonio.

Health Session Postponed

Changing her mind, the governor won't call the Legislature into special session to deal with health insurance and care next year, saying she doesn't "want to rush this thing."

After lawmakers ended a special session last month, Richards said they could rest at home until she called another special session next year.

She also ripped the Bush Administration for cutting funds for health care and social services.

Lottery Resistance Active

Anti-lottery forces are stumping the state's church congregations, asking voters to reject the proposed amendment legalizing a state lottery on the Nov. 5 ballot.

Pro-lottery state officials think the lottery will raise as much as $2 billion for state government later this decade.

Citing poll results and waving a state income tax threat, pro-lottery forces are confident of winning the proposal, but Sue Cox, campaign manager of Texans Who Care, said anti-lottery forces may spend $500,000 to defeat it.

Baby Formula Suit

Attorney General Dan Morales charged the nation's top makers of baby formula of illegal pricefixing to monopolize the Texas market.

In an antitrust lawsuit filed last week, Morales named Ross Laboratories (Similac) and Mead Johnson & Co. (Enfamil), and their parent companies, and accused them of controlling 85 percent of the Texas market and fixing prices 120 percent over the last ten years.

Other Highlights

• Four Austin policemen arrived on the scene after fired MHMR executive Dr. Robert Taylor refused to vacate his office. His superior, John Brubaker, summoned the officers. Taylor, who earned $105,339 a year at the post, was escorted to his car an hour later while MHMR staff looked on.

• Texas Land Commissioner Garry Mauro told the feds that medical

Water, Taxes And Proposition 10

The future tax status of nonprofit water suppliers in Texas will be decided when voters go the polls on Nov. 5.

Proposition 10 is a constitutional amendment that authorizes the Texas Legislature to give property-tax breaks to nonprofit water supply and sewer service corporations. Currently cities, counties and water districts are all exempt from waste washed up on Texas shores this summer has been traced by his staff to Mexico.

• Attorney General Morales said the deal to settle the jail crowding lawsuit may cost the state another $650 million.

• Andy Sansom, director of the Texas Parks and Wildlife, said the state must reduce hazardous waste pollution and buy area wastelands to preserve Galveston Bay. Texas Water Commission chairman John Hall valued the bay's economy at $1 billion a year.

paying property taxes; however, nonprofit water suppliers are not. Proponents of the proposition say it will equalize treatment of entities that provide potable water service at no profit.

Opponents say it will reduce tax revenues in some communities.

Texas Rural Water Association is a statewide trade association representing more than 575 nonprofit water suppliers across the state. In promoting Proposition 10, TRWA claims that unequal tax treatment under current law translates into higher water rates for families and businesses in rural communities.

"About 2.5 million rural Texans are served by nonprofit water suppliers," TRWA Executive Director Tom Duck said. "In their absence, the state would surely have to finance the provision of water and wastewater service in these areas. As we see it, nonprofit suppliers meet a need that is critical not only to their customers but also to the state. We think they should be given property tax exemptions just like cities, water districts and other entities that provide similar governmental services at no profit."

Proposition 10 would have several effects. First, if a nonprofit water system paid property taxes last year, it would be required to lower its 1992 customer rates to reflect savings that result from the new exemption. Second, all suppliers that receive the exemption will be required to comply with the Texas Open Meetings and Open Records Act. Though many already comply, this ensures that the public has access to the corporation's records and allows for more careful monitoring of its decision making processes. Finally, removing the burden of property taxes would help small water suppliers in rural communities minimize escalating costs associated with expanding environmental regulations.

Opponents say passage of the proposition will erode the tax base in some communities. They argue that nonprofit water suppliers are private organizations operating as businesses and that they should be subject to property taxes just like other corporations.

In defense of Proposition 10, TRWA and its member water suppliers say revenue loss to communities would be minimal. Many taxing districts in Texas already acknowledge the service-oriented nature of nonprofit water supply corporations and do not collect property taxes from these entities. TRWA estimates that only half of its members are currently taxed because of the confusion over their legal status. Duck said communities have more to gain from the economic development brought about by reasonable water rates than from the small amount of revenue raised by taxing water systems' property.

For the past decade, the Texas Legislature has acknowledged that nonprofit water suppliers deserve a tax break. Lawmakers amended the Property Tax Code in 1980 to specifically extend property tax exemptions to nonprofit water suppliers by defining them as "nonprofit charitable organizations." The Texas Supreme Court has since ruled that because these water systems do not meet the pure constitutional definition of "charitable organization," they cannot be assured an exemption based on the current Tax Code. Proposition 10 corrects this situation by specifically authorizing an exemption for nonprofit water supply corporations in law.

Rising Star City Council Meeting

Rising Star City Council met at City Hall at 7 p.m. Tuesday, September 17, with Mayor Jerrell Bible and council members Randy Goldston, Billy Harmon, James Cook and Edra Butler present; absent was Charles Barnes.

Guests were C.W. Best and Roger Carroll.

The minutes of the September 3 meeting were accepted as read.

The month's bills were considered and discussed; the council voted to pay all the bills except one to Buddy's Plumbing; the council then approved payment of that bill with councilman Cook out of the room.

A bill sent to the high school by the city was discussed, then on a motion by Goldston, seconded by Harmon, the school was to be allowed to pay half the bill.

The council discussed the tax rate, then on a motion by Goldston, seconded by Cook, the tax rate used last year was adopted; it is 64.532 cents per $100 valuation.

Health insurance coverage was agreed upon.

Item 5 on the agenda, Park/Craig Rogers, was delayed two weeks until a Parks Board meeting was held.

After discussion on Police Policy, council members were to be given a written policy to study. A police commissioner was discussed, then tabled until the next meeting. Each council member is to be assigned a department to oversee.

On being asked about Rising Star Vineyard, the reply was that the creditor called and said they are waiting on the loan.

Fire Chief C.W. Best was introduced and the cost of repairing fire hydrants was discussed. An estimate by Clark Utility Service to do the repairs was discussed, then the council left the decision to city administrator, Shirley Leonard.

The administrator reported receiving a satisfactory report from Teaxas Water Commission on the sewer plant.

She said the city is leasing six cylinders of oxygen to refill the fire department's air packs to cut back the number of trips to Brownwood.

An inspection on the landfill by Jim Walker revealed that, although he said the landfill looked good, the city needs to go ahead with the closing as soon as it is dry enough.

Nancy Trout picked up the taxes.

The police chief and patrolwoman have uniforms purchased by the city, by Tex Evans and by themselves.

Street grading is being done as quickly as possible.

Gas leaks are being repaired asap.

City officers are considering having Cardinal Laboratories do sewer samples; they will pick up samples here, yet it will cost the same as it does with us taking samples to the City of Abilene.

The meeting adjourned at 8:40 p.m.

In Eastland Strict Enforcement of Parking Ordinance

Paul Catoe, Eastland City Manager, advises the public that on Oct. 1 the City of Eastland began strict enforcement of the 2 hour parking limit one block in every direction around the Courthouse Square.

There are also parking regulations at the Eastland Postoffice, with parking there restricted to 15 minutes.

Persons receiving fines for overparking are expected to pay their fines with the deadlines specified - or face heavier penalties.

The parking spaces inside the Square next to the Courthouse grounds are regulated by the County, Catoe said. The County has posted other parking limits there.

The City began its strict enforcement under the existing ordinance, but plans to have a new ordinance soon, the City Manager explained. This new one is expected to be even more exacting.

It is hoped that enforcement of parking regulations will give more people access to the Courthouse, the Square, and to stores around the Square.

Update On Food Pantry

At the County Commissioners Court last Monday Richard Robinson, Commissioner of Pct. 1 shared news from the Food Pantry.

This facility has been very low on supplies, but Robinson said there had been good response to an appeal in the local newspaper, for food.

'There has not been much response on workers at the Pantry, however,' Robinson said. 'There is a critical need for more volunteers to help. Only two volunteers are keeping the Pantry open - while the calls for emergency food are increasing.'

Several days after Mr. Robinson made his report Corrie Cowley and two Girl Scouts helped unload food items for Mrs. Richard (Lois) Robinson, one of the regular volunteers. These were items purchased by money donated to the Pantry.

Corrie Cowley said

there was 'some food on the shelves now, but such a constant need that everyone should be encouraged to keep on giving.'

The Food Pantry is located in a trailer at 204 N. Lamar, Eastland. It is open Monday, Wednesday and Fridays 1-4 p.m.

A Clothes Closet is also maintained at the Food Pantry. Right now the volunteers are beginning to stock winter clothing, and would appreciate some good practical items for all ages.
