It is a good thing that the Daughters of the American Revolution are doing in calling to the attention of the American people during a week of special emphasis the great protective importance of the Constitution to the fundamental rights of American citizenship.

It is even more significant at this time when the heated contest over so-called "civil rights" lead us into acceptance of certain conditions and expedients which may stealthily abridge and destroy some of these constitutional guarantees. For the spirit of our American Constitution is not in the rulings and pronouncements of the courts but in the authority of their public acceptance and the determination of the people themselves to have them preserved.

If the Supreme Court of the United States has given any guarantee concerning these principles, it has only assured us that its interpretation of them is subject to change. What the court holds as constitutional today, it may hold unconstitutional tomorrow.

Ultimately what is regarded as constitutional is determined by the public in the exercise of its own free will.

It is not such. The only assurance that this pressure of the times does not destroy these principles is a keen, persistent vigilance on the part of every citizen of what these principles are and of their meaning translated into terms of experience. A periodic reading of the American Constitution with a good history on one side and a good knowledge of the other can be a most profitable experience in good citizenship.

Since we lost we could never vote for the American Constitution as we now have.

Many of the owners of native groves along the Leon River and the Sabanno north of Rising Star have sold their crops of the trees this year. Competition among shellers resulted in a very good price for native nuts, growers receiving from $300 upward for their crops.

Damage from case bearer has been particularly heavy in spots where it was impossible to spray this year because of rainy weather. Lee Lieske, who owns a nut shell orchard east of Rising Star, said he would gather a 10 per cent crop. Doss also suffered heavy damage and during the high water last week, lost another part of his crop.

W. Steel, among other old timers, made some interesting historical comments at the meeting of the Old Trail Blazers Ass'n last Saturday. When he came here as a child in 1875 the country was just beginning to be settled up, and there were no schools or churches. Some of the virgin land could still be pre-empted, the settler living on it for two years, proving residence and getting a deed from the State. Most of the land, however, was owned in alternate sections by the schools and railroads. The Schools sold first, offering land at $1 per acre at six per cent interest with long time payments. Later the railroads sold their land at $10 per acre, at eight per cent interest with 10 years to pay.

The first school was built in this area in 1879, he said. It was the school in which he was educated.

Those first settlers endured hardships and overcame obstacles that would seem insurmountable to modern day residents in order to make homes and subdue a new land for posterity. They lived, most of them, on dirt roads without the simplest of modern conveniences, and the land was rich, their way of clearing and working it so primitive that it could be done by the laborer carrying a plow and a team of oxen.

Stay on the land, they said, and you will find it a most interesting and profitable business.

Silver Dollar Payroll

Employees of Tranter Manufacturing, Inc., of Lansing, Michigan, received their pay in silver dollars at the end of a week's celebration of the company's 25th year in business. "Miss Silver Dollar of 1957", Shirley Lou Carpenter of Harold's Club, Reno, Nevada, fills the first bag with silver dollars. The complete payroll weighed well over three tons and was the first of its kind in the midwest since the days of the old logging camps.

East Offset To New Caddo Strike

Good Show in Caddo Wildcat Test at Nimrod

CISCO.—Prospects for Caddo Lime oil production in the Nimrod area appeared bright as completion work continued in Low Drilling Company's No. 1 Ed Townsend, a wildcat test. Oil men believed the well would be good for at least 30 barrels per day.

Drilled to 2,905 feet, the well began testing last Wednesday. Swabbing work indicated that a substantial well was in prospect. The hole was shut-in Friday with work to be resumed Monday.

Low Drilling Company of Cisco drilled the well as a farm-out from Magnolia Petroleum Company, which has substantial acreage holdings in that area. There is 194 acres in the Low farm-out block, it was understood. It was expected that Magnolia would drill an offset to the Townsend well.

In the Jo Kiel pool, Magnolia has filed a completion report on their No. 4 R. H. Dunning. The well flowed 88 barrels during a 24-hour potential test through a 14/64 inch choke with 300 pounds of casing pressure. Flow was from 24 perforations at 2,838-42 feet.

Location for the Dunning well is Section 92, Block 3, H&TC Survey.

A new wildcat for the area two miles west of Scranton in Callahan County is the Moore & Moore Drilling Co. No. 1 M. E. Fitzpatrick, a 3,500 foot project. Location is 2,922 feet from the north and 2,582 feet from the east lines of Section 20, BOA Survey, Callahan County.

MYF Wins Award At Cisco Meeting

The Methodist Youth Fellowship held a Sub-District meeting at First Methodist Church Cisco Monday night when the Rising Star MYF won the award for having the highest percentage of members present. Attendance from the local MYF was 91 per cent.

The meeting took place at 7:30 and there were workshops in the following subjects: Christian Witness, Christian Fellowship and Christian Faith.

The next Sub-District meeting will be held at Cross Plains on October 14.

RALPH KIZERS MOVE HERE

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Kizer have moved from Cross Plains to Rising Star and are now at home in the C. E. Nay residence on North Milier. Mr. Kizer came to Rising Star to work for the

Pecan Tourers To Pause Here Noon Friday

The second annual pecan tour sponsored by the Eastland County Pecan Growers Ass'n will be held Friday of this week leaving from the Spencer peach stand on Highway 80 in Rising Star at 9 a.m.

During the morning the tour will visit the pecan orchards of F. O. Hilburn, W. D. Thurman and Lee Lieske near Cisco. The group will then come to Rising Star for lunch and after lunch will inspect the irrigated pecan orchard of C. E. Smith at Rising Star and the pecan orchards of C. T. Barton, Doss Alexander and Ike Plumlee, near Pioneer.

Plans for the annual county pecan show will be discussed at a meeting at Rising Star following the luncheon, it was announced. The show, held at Cisco each year since its organization, will be located in a city this fall to be chosen by a vote of the growers.

Officers of the Pecan Growers Association are Oscar Schaefer, President, Elsi Cooper and B. B. Freeman, Vice President and Secretary, respectively. Mr. Schaefer lives in the Cook community northwest of Rising Star and Mr. Freeman and Mr. Cooper at Ranger.

County Agent J. M. Cooper is in charge of the tour. Anyone interested in pecan culture is invited to accompany the tour and membership in the Association is open not only to Eastland County growers but to those in adjoining counties.

Higginbotham One Of Top 25 Quaker Accounts in U. S.

For the second consecutive year Higginbotham Bros. & Co. has won special recognition as one of the top 25 Quaker floor covering accounts of the Armstrong Cork Company in the nation, according to a letter to Jay Koonce, manager of the Rising Star stores.

The award was presented by the Armstrong Company with congratulations to Harold Rambo of Comanche, who is charged with responsibility for the floor covering sales of the Higginbotham organization.

The award, said Mr. Koonce, is based on purchases of Armstrong's Quaker Floor Covering over a six month period of time. Higginbotham's first award was based on purchases of Quaker during the spring season of the first half of 1956 and the more recent award on purchases during the fall season of 1956.

The two awards qualify Higginbotham's for membership in Armstrong's top 25 Quaker Club for the entire year of 1956.

Henry Scott Suffers Broken Arm in Crash

Henry Scott, prominent Rising Star farmer, suffered a broken left forearm, and S. C. Mixson, fruit stand operator and farmer west of Rising Star, suffered minor cuts on his forehead in a collision between cars driven by Mr. Scott and Mrs. Sexton Hulin on a farm road two and a half miles northwest of Rising Star shortly after noon Tuesday.

Mr. Scott was taken to Abilene to a bone specialist where he underwent surgery Wednesday morning. Mr. Mixson was treated at Rising Star hospital.

Mrs. Hulin received slight injuries. The accident occurred at a blind corner on the road. Mr. Scott was taking Mr. Mixson to look at his pear crop and Mrs. Hulin was on her way home from where she had gone to purchase pears.

Miss Wanda Smith, who is majoring in Home Economics at Baylor, in Belton, writes that she is happy in her college work there. After taking a test in her chosen major, she was allowed two extra credits in that branch of work.

Proclamation

Whereas, the basic need in our nation today is the preservation of Constitutional Government; and

Whereas, in order to protect our priceless heritage under our unique form of government, it is essential to support our Constitution; and

Whereas, for its proper support, it is necessary that our citizens understand its value and benefits; and

Whereas the Daughters of the American Revolution are supporting the observance of Constitution week September 17 through 23, 1957, in commemoration of the 170th anniversary of the adoption of the Constitution;

Now, therefore, I, Walter Smith, by the virtue of the authority vested in me as Mayor of Rising Star, do proclaim the week of September 17 to 23 as Constitution week and urge all citizens to pay special attention to our Federal Constitution.

'Cats Try Early Thursday Night

Some changes in the line-up of the Rising Star Wildcats in an effort to get more versatility into the attack were announced by Coach Ray Nunnally this week as the 'Cats prepared to go against their old rivals, the Early Longhorns in a non-conference game at Early Thursday evening. The change in the date of the game was done to avoid conflict with the Brownwood High game Friday night at Brownwood.

Robert Needham, who was held out of most of the game at Wylie last Thursday, had been shifted to quarterback from his left halfback slot, and Jack Colway will be taken from his guard position on offense and used at right half. Kenneth Ridens and Eugene Bishop will alternate at Needham's old post. The shift was done with the prospect of improving the passing game of the Wildcats and to give more power to the running attack. The 'Cats have suffered from lack of a passing threat, because opponents have been able to pull up a tight line and stop running plays more readily.

In the game with Wylie last Thursday, the 'Cats made a better offensive showing than they did against May, despite the fact that their chief offensive threat, Needham, was held out of offensive play because of a bad leg. The score was 39 to 12. The 'Cats scored twice in the second quarter, both touchdowns by Mack Elliott. He scored first on a line plunge after Bishop had set up the score with a 35-yard run, and then he broke loose on a brilliant 80-yard run shortly thereafter, running through the entire Wylie team for the score.

Although Early dropped their game to Gorman 40 to 14 last week, the score is not regarded as any indication of the comparative strength of the Rising Star and Early elevens. Gorman is regarded as having one of the strongest class B elevens in the section, with a big line and a set of big fast backs. Early has most of its last year's district championship eleven back and although the Longhorns will not outweigh the Wildcats, they have more experience.

The game will begin at 8 o'clock at the Early High Stadium.

H. L. Geye Not to Accept Breck Job

H. L. Geye, teacher of vocational agriculture in Rising Star High School for the past ten years, will not go to Breckenridge where he was offered a similar position.

He announced withdrawal of his resignation offered earlier after a conference with the Rising Star school board Wednesday night, during which the board offered an increase in pay and a two-year contract.

Out of town members of the Old Trail Blazers here Saturday included Tom Anderson of Carlsbad, N. M., Wallace Anderson, of Cross Plains, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Guinn and daughter of

100 Attend Old Trail Blazers Meeting Saturday

More than 100 members and guests of the Old Trail Blazers Ass'n attended the annual meeting of the association held at the American Legion Hall here Saturday, September 14.

The meeting convening at 10 a.m. heard the minutes of the 1956 session, adopted resolutions died during the year, and listened to interesting reminiscences by some of the older members.

The Rev. R. A. Brooks, Jr., pastor of the First Methodist Church and chaplain of the association, made the inspirational address and led the prayer after congregational singing led by R. M. Earp, vice-president, who presided during the program. Mrs. Clara Burkhead was program chairman. She gave a reading. Jay Koonce, president, took charge of the meeting at the business session and presided for the remainder of the meeting. Minutes of the previous meeting were read by the secretary, Mrs. Everette Harris.

There was no election of officers, all of whom were elected last year for two-year terms.

The resolution in memoriam was read by S. J. White and adopted by a standing vote, followed by a moment of silent prayer. The names of those who died during the year were entered in the resolution as follows:

Pete Roach, Perry Valliant, Russell G. Merrell, James A. Watkins, Bud Denton, Reed Patterson, Will Tunte, Bay Jenkins, Mrs. E. C. Lane, Medo Goss, Sam Barton, W. A. Williams and Mrs. T. A. Marsh.

The four oldest members in point of residence in Rising Star who were present for the meeting were T. W. Steel, 82 years; S. J. White, 82 years; Mrs. Wagon, 82 years, and Joe Barnes, 77 years.

They were recognized. Interesting short talks were by G. G. Goss, T. W. Steel, John Roach, S. J. White, Mrs. Wagon, Mrs. Falls, Charlie Guinn, Beyrl Heath, Ross Cox, Tom Anderson and F. W. Roberds.

Following the program a dinner was served in the dining room of the American Legion hall. More than 100 attended. The meetings of the association are held annually on the 15th of September. However, because the 15th this year fell on Sunday a special resolution of last year's meeting changed the date to Saturday, September 14, for the one year. Next year's gathering will take place on September 15.

Leon R. Smith, Jr., left Saturday for Austin where he will resume his work as a student at the University. He is also an assistant teacher in the field of music.

The 1957 edition of the Rising Star Free Fall Fair, a work of community cooperation and pride which has been accomplished almost every year despite the discouragement of persistent drought, will be offered to the public next week.

The Fair, a three-day event, will begin with a parade at 5 o'clock Thursday afternoon, September 26. The Queen of the Fair, Miss Anna Little, and members of her court will be presented on a special float and there will be floats and cars containing duchesses and their escorts from other communities and organizations.

The Rising Star High School band will lead the parade and bands from high schools in neighboring communities, have been invited. Riding clubs from Rising Star and surrounding towns will be a feature of the march. Prizes will be offered for the most beautiful and for the most original float, and trophies will be awarded the riding clubs chosen as making the best appearance.

Coronation. Following the parade Miss Little, a member of the senior class, and her court will appear in a coronation ceremony on a special stage at the rear of the exhibit building at 7:30.

Business houses were urged to put up their bunting and other decorations this week.

J. D. (Skeet) Clark, Rising Star rancher, is general superintendent and directed the organization. He issued a word of thanks to committeemen and other workers for their cooperation in planning the details of the event and called on the community to make a special effort next week to put over the program in a fine way.

Livestock Show. The livestock show always an outstanding part of the fair, will be held in the Jobe building and on the lot at the rear of that building across the street from the post office. A full list of entries in all divisions was in prospect the committee said.

The divisions will be beef cattle, dairy cattle, sheep, goats, hogs and Shetland ponies and cash prizes will be awarded winners in each. Cecil Shults and Charles Rutherford are in charge of this division.

The club, commercial and agricultural exhibits will be shown in the City Market building. Preparation of the booths is in charge of Mayor Walter Smith and city employees, and Mrs. Louise Weber is directing the women's division. The art exhibit will be in charge of Mrs. Wm. E. Tyler. Sale of booth space was done by Robert Butler.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Jackson, Art Fisher are the parade committee, and A. D. Jenkins is arranging the entertainment. Peggy Tate will direct the Wildcat Band in a concert from the open air stage Friday night and Saturday night Mr. Jenkins has arranged a program of local entertainment.

A carnival with rides and concessions will be on the lot at the rear of the exhibit building throughout the fair.

10 a.m. Deadline. The livestock committee is expected to be at the lives building not later than 10 a.m. (Continued on Page 5.)

School Heads of County Meet Here

Rising Star Supt. Sam Jones and High School Principal Ray Nunnally were hosts to the monthly meeting of the Eastland County school administrators here Monday night. The organization, composed of superintendents and high school principals, meet once each month for a dinner and a discussion of school problems.

All schools were presented at the meeting here Monday. The school men were entertained with an excellent dinner served by the Home Ec department of the High School at the Home Ec cottage and they were

We grumble about a broken electric light switch, or cuss the mailman or the paper boy because he's late; when we open the refrigerator and growl because there isn't any butter; when we sit in front of the television in the warmth of a good gas fire on a cold winter evening, with our feet on a nice rug and our bottom in an easy chair and vociferate because the commercial has broken into our viewing pleasure, Good Lord, make us thankful for what we have received at the hands of those men and women who came here and broke the first sod. With one-tenth of the pioneering spirit of their generation we could accomplish wonders.

We are glad that H. L. Geye has withdrawn his resignation and will continue with the Rising Star High School as teacher of agriculture. He had been offered the Breckenridge job, which is a tribute to his ability, recognized throughout the profession as outstanding. He has been with Rising Star schools for ten years and he has done a fine job. His record is one of the best in the state. With the importance that is placed upon agriculture as the economic support of this section, it is essential that our schools have outstanding instruction in this field, even more than would be the case in towns and areas which do not depend almost wholly upon farming and ranching.

We are glad that the school board made it attractive for him to stay and that he has agreed to remain. Rising Star needs more families like Mr. and Mrs. Geye and their children, not fewer.

August Minimum Milk Price Set At $5.63 Per CWT

Daily Class I sales by Central West Texas handlers during August were 1.52% more than during July 1957 and 7.54% more than the daily sales during August 1956. The increase from July to August resulted from increases in sales made on routes operating wholly outside the Central West Texas marketing area.

Daily receipts of milk from producers during August were 4.20% less than during July 1956. The number of producers supplying milk to all West Texas handlers declined from 658 in July to 654 in August. The daily delivery of milk during August was 604 tons compared with 604 tons during July.

The minimum uniform price to be paid for 4.0% milk received by Central West Texas handlers from producers during August will be $5.63 per hundredweight, according to an announcement by W. Bain, Market Administrator.

This price is subject to adjustment following location and buttermilk differentials. For milk received at Lamesa and Amarillo, the producers of such milk will receive a price 15 cents higher, while those delivering milk to plants located at Woodward and Minreal Wells receive prices 20 and 25 cents lower, respectively. For milk with a butterfat content of 4.0% a buttermilk differential of 7.2 cents applies. The above price was computed from reports filed by 10 regulated handlers under Order No. 82 during August. These prices are minimum prices and do not restrict a handler from charging prices to producers in excess of such prices.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

Spring rains have in the main done wonders to the pastures in the Brown-Mills SCD. If for no other reason, the cover they have added to the land has been of great value in several ways. First vast amounts of water were stored in the ground this spring as a direct result of this added cover. Secondly with this cover the ground has been shaded and therefore protected from the direct rays of the sun. Temperature readings as high as 140 degrees F have been made in the District in previous years. This year on similar ground, readings were 100 degrees to 40 degrees lower due primarily to the added cover grown this year.

In digging throughout the district this spring showed that moisture had penetrated to a depth of seven feet under a good cover of grass, but on a similar soil only 100 feet away where there was little or no cover on the ground the moisture had penetrated only eleven inches.

Last week diggings revealed that under a good cover of grass, moisture was still present down to four feet, but on bare ground no moisture was present.

Many cooperators with the district have applied deferred grazing this year, and in doing so are properly using their ranges.

Along with this proper use comes another problem—That of fire. Since most ranges are cured out and dry now, it is especially dangerous to have any kind of fire near. One burn can send all the gain you have made in two or three years up in smoke. Even a carelessly tossed cigarette burning a brush pile or driving through tall grass in a pickup has been known to start grass fires.

The Supervisors of the District urge sportsmen to be particularly careful during the coming hunting season. Sportsmen can be of great value in passing on to the individual layman the importance of cover to wildlife. So not only can sportsmen help themselves by being extremely careful with fire, but they can be of service to the farmers and ranchers of the district.

Joe Beck only last week experienced a bad burn and lost some 400 acres of grass that he had been deferring since early spring. Even at the cost sharing rate paid by the ASC this would amount to about $800 in actual cash value. It would be hard to estimate the actual loss.

So again Please Be Careful With Fire. Feel of that cigarette and break that match before you throw it down.

Kittens Defeat Moran 13 to 12

The Rising Star Wildkittens defeated the Moran Grammar School team at Rising Star field Tuesday night 13 to 12. It was the second game for the Wildkittens and their first win. Previously they lost a game to the strong Gorman Grammar School eleven at Gorman.

The Cross Plains Elementary school team comes here for a game next week.

HOW VALUABLE

...IS LOCAL NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING TO LOCAL BUSINESS PEOPLE?

Here's what the American Bankers Magazine, a publication which represents a traditionally conservative profession, has to say:

"No business man or woman in any town should allow a newspaper to go to press without his or her name and business being mentioned somewhere in its columns.

"A stranger picking up a newspaper should be able to tell what business is represented in a town... it's the best possible town adviser. The man or woman who does not advertise does an injustice to himself or herself and definitely to the town."

IT'S CONSISTENT advertising that counts and the best advertising medium in this area is...

THE U. S. MARSHAL

The judge can make decisions, reach judgments, and issue orders, but somebody has to carry them out. On the state level, our sheriffs do this job, but for the United States courts the U. S. Marshal does the work—and busy men he and his deputies are.

The U. S. Marshal is a kind of federal sheriff named by the Attorney General for four years. He takes orders from the administrative office of the U. S. courts and the judge of the court he serves.

The Marshal, like the sheriff, has his deputies. They make arrests on federal warrants, serve papers in lawsuits in the federal courts, subpoena witnesses, summon jury men, and seize property on federal court writs.

The marshal also manages the money set aside for federal courts, paying federal judges, witness and jury fees, and the board and room of federal prisoners held in local jails.

Unlike the county, the federal government has only a few local jails. So the marshal keeps prisoners awaiting trial or commitment in county and city jails at federal expense.

For prisoners held a few hours while waiting to appear for trial or to make bond, the marshal usually has a small lockup in his office.

The marshal takes prisoners sentenced for "a year and a day" to a federal penitentiary, but those with a shorter term stay in local jails.

There is often excitement in the marshal's work, but mostly he follows through for the courts.

In the old days when much of the west was territories instead of states, he often had the job of local law enforcement now taken over by the police and the county sheriff.

SS Benefits Are Available for Disabled Children

Some disabled children over age 18 received their first monthly social security benefits early in February, according to C. M. Vaden, Jr., Field Representative of the Abilene Social Security office. Recent legislation provided for these payments to start for the month of January 1957. A number of applications have already been filed, and more are being received.

Under the new provisions, children who are disabled may receive social security benefits after they reach age 18, if they were disabled before age 18, are unmarried and dependent upon a living parent who is drawing social security benefits, or were dependent upon a deceased insured parent. The term "parent" includes natural parent, and in many cases, step-parent or adopting parent.

It is not necessary that the child himself have any record of work under the social security law to be eligible for benefits as a disabled child. However, he must have a disability severe enough to prevent him from engaging in any substantial gainful activity. The disability must be medically determinable.

Disabled children over 18 who believe they qualify, or persons caring for them, should inquire regarding benefits by writing the Social Security Administration, P. O. Box 164, Abilene, Texas.

Beat Early High!

The Wise Philosopher's Corner:
 "One does not meet a crisis unless he meets it before it comes."

GROWING UP!

This is one process that has stunned parents for a generation after generation. The process of growing up is a complex one. When we were children, the future looked rosy; and our small world was a very happy one. We had no worries and no cares. As we grew older, our view of the world widened; and problems began to arise. They seem like very small problems to adults, but to us they are very important. It is during this stage of growing up that our character is formed, and we begin to take on habits, both good and bad. If, in this stage, we meet our small problems head on and try to solve them the best way we know how, we will continue to grow the rest of our lives. If we keep putting the problem off day after day, chances are we will do this as adults. This way we would become good citizens in our community. We continue this growth until one day we are on our own. Then starts the test of whether we are grown up or not. We are facing the world in the eyes of adults. If we can take our responsibilities, then we say that we have come through the process of growing up. —Essie Heairren

TO BUY A MAGAZINE?
 Seniors are still selling them! If you would like a magazine and have not been contacted, please call a senior or our sponsor, Miss Childress. We have a special on the Saturday Evening Post—you can get 60 weeks for $4.79 instead of the regular 52 weeks for $6.00. If you were to go to the newsstand and get your weekly issue, it would cost you $7.80—so why not buy from the Seniors and save? This week June Jones and Jodie Wallace were elected "Mr. and Miss Most Popular". Jaynel Edmiston was chosen Annual Queen. Congratulations to all of you. Charles Steel is president of the Student Council and we know he will be a good one. The password to Rising Star High School is "Beat Early."

NEW FACES

Our new face for this week is a sister to our last week's subject. Olene Culwell was born on October 30, 1943 to Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Culwell. She was born near Rising Star. She comes from a large family having four sisters and two brothers. Olene, who is a freshman this year, is already very popular with her classmates. She was elected an officer of the freshman class this year. Olene is five feet, three inches tall. She has brown eyes and short brown hair.

Olene, and her sister, Barbara, have attended many schools. To name a few, Imperial, Anson, May, and now Rising Star. Olene's favorite movie stars are Tony Curtis and E. P. (Can anyone guess who that is?) To express everyone's opinion, Olene, all I can say is that we are very happy to have you.

"RIF RAFF"
 Dollars cut such a figure with some men that they feel they have to disfigure themselves to get them.

Two boys are fighting and are broken up by a policeman: Policeman: "Who started this?" he asked.

"Well, replied Tommy, "it all started when Albert hit me back."

Visitor: "I can't tell you how happy I am—my son has just won a scholarship."

Rancher's wife: "Yeah, I know just how you feel, I felt the same way when our bull was made grand champion at the state fair."

STUDENT PARTICIPATION ASSOCIATION

The Student Participation Association was organized with election of officers. They are as follows: President, Charles Steel; Vice-President, Robert Needham; Secretary, Mary Reed; Reporter, Barbara Bishop; Treasurer, Daniela Darnell.

The following committee chairmen were appointed: Lunch room, Robert Needham; fire drill, Gerald Green and Charles Steel; flag, Dinky Hill and John Wayne Burns; clean-up, Barbara Bishop and Daniela Darnell.

The problems of the way some students were driving and the paper that was thrown on the school grounds were discussed.

Rope Those Longhorns!

HELLO FOLKS

And here we are back again. We are writing our autobiography in English, surely having a hard time, but will come through. We elected our class favorites: Johnnie Harris and Gary Jones. This week I'll ask the freshmen a few questions. Say, O. W., who is that in a '56 Ford pickup? J. B. and E. S. where did those rings come from; not from Cisco, are they? J. H., who is B. R., that cute football player from RSHS? He runs around with W. L.? N. S., do you still like guns; shotgun, you know what I mean? E. C., who is this from Fort Worth, whose initials are K. S.? How is B. M. making out, C. C.?

Well, that's all the questions until next time.

Wildcats, let's beat Early High this week.

SOPH CHATTER

This mixed-up edition of "Soph Chatter" is being written in English II class during poetry recitation. If a few sundry and assorted lines of "A Prayer" should sneak in, don't be surprised, as it is happening in the room all about me.

Things have certainly been taking place up and down the halls of RSHS since last week! We have since chosen our class favorites. Remember the cute brunette, Bobbie Culwell, that I told you about last week? Well, this week she found herself being bestowed with the honor of Sophomore Favorite for the year '57-'58. Gary Maynard is the other Favorite we chose.

Last week I welcomed the new girl to our school and class. I believe this week I should devote a little space to our new boy. Kenneth Sevaldson was, last year, a student in Fort Worth. We are happy to have such a nice addition to our class. It is pleasing that two such nice and good looking people should find their way to Rising Star High School.

Two members of our Sophomore class were elected to serve as officers in the Wildcat band. Daniela Darnell was chosen reporter, and Janis Jones, corresponding secretary. Most of you must already know that two of the Soph girls hold prominent positions at the head of the band. Karen Steel is drum major and Mary Lois White is head majorette. We are very proud of them and the wonderful job they have been and are doing.

The Sophomore room mothers for 1957-'58 are Chairman Mrs. Ray Agnew, Mrs. Sam Jones, Mrs. Vern Walker, Mrs. Bedford Morris, Mrs. Hulon Erwin, Mrs. Oscar White.

 Seen visiting in the halls of RSHS last week were these exes: Phil Horton—A senior at A&M. Eddie Henry—Sophomore at McMurry.

Sammie Harris Turner—Living at Abilene where her husband, Jimmy, is attending Hardin-Simmons.

Scotty Elliott—Attending Cisco Junior College.

TEACHERS

Teachers are humans, too, believe it or not. They may be either sex, any weight, any height and have any amount of knowledge.

They may be found in classrooms, taking students to the office, writing tests, grading tests, or failing students.

Teachers have the qualities of a gentle kitten, but don't trust your luck! They are as fierce as a wounded lion when riled.

They may be embarrassed, humiliated, frightened, over-ruled (very seldom), and fussed at. But my advice is, don't ever get a teacher riled. That could be the last time. She may not hit you, not with anything solid, but watch out for a verbal attack.

Teachers have varying likes and dislikes. The algebra teacher likes difficult problems, smart students, and jokes. And the English teacher likes a test every day (to improve ability), and a comfortable chair.

We are very fortunate to have those wonderful things called teachers.

If they fail you, you hate them and it's all their fault. You are not the one who didn't study. If they pass you, you think you should have gotten a better grade. You don't give them credit for anything.

Regardless of whom you are, you do smile when they say, "You passed!"

FROM THE EDITOR'S SCRAPBOOK:

Did You Know?
 If you live to be 70 years old, you'll spend 23 years asleep, talk 13 years, spend 23 years in pleasure and wash your face for 18 months—that is, if you are an average person.

A Note From the Seniors
 I'd like to be a Senior
 And stand where Seniors stand.
 A fountain pen behind my ear,
 A notebook in my hand.
 I wouldn't be an emperor;
 I wouldn't be a king.
 I'd rather be a Senior
 And never do a thing! (Who says so?)

It Could Never Happen—
 Miss Childress as a math teacher.

Mrs. Claborn speaking in a harsh voice.

Mrs. Nowlin with a sour smile.
 Mr. Chambers forgetting to tell the Seniors that they should act like Seniors instead of first graders.

Mr. Jones and Mr. Nunnally not going after the mail at 9:15.
 Mr. White not giving a test on Friday.

Mrs. Shook forgetting her English assignment.

Miss Tate not knowing how to lead the Band.

A Word for Our Football Team
 The ground is rough;

The 4-H Club booth at the Community fair at Nimrod, Sept. 10 was good with quite a large number of different crop exhibits. Wannie Kanady and Christina Stroebel are due the large share of the credit for it.

MCR Royal Duchess, the registered Hereford heifer belonging to Bob Leveridge, Cisco, placed third in the junior yearling class in the beef cattle show at the West Texas Fair at Abilene last week.

Many who attended the Nimrod Community Fair failed to see the livestock but Wannie Kanady, president of the 4-H club there had his Jersey and Holstein and a red gilt on exhibit as well as Carl Stroebel, Jr., who had his beef calf that he is feeding for the show next spring.

Roland Ziehr and Joel Ray and Jerry Graham, Pleasant Hill Community recently sold their turkeys to a Brownwood concern. The price received was not too good it was said.

Mineral and protein supplement along with other feed plus plenty of water and good shade has put the registered Duroc gilt developed by Billy Johnson, Ranger, into top shape for the Sears show to be held in Eastland next Saturday morning. Billy is the son of Mrs. W. T. Johnson.

Jimmy Simmons, Eastland, who fed out and showed lambs at the county show last spring is expected to repeat. He was by the County Agent's office recently wanting to know when to get more lambs for the 1958 show.

Safety and homestead improvement were chosen as club projects for the coming year by the Nimrod Club at their regular monthly meeting, in the club house in that community recently. The projects will be developed jointly by both boys and girls.

Pat Akers, Eastland, is one of the two Eastland/County boys nominated to receive the meat animal award during the 4-H Rally Day some time next spring. Pat showed pigs at the county livestock show last spring. He Union Center Club Remodels Clubhouse.

The Union Center Hobby Club met September 10. The day was spent refinishing furniture and painting the wood work. A new sheet rock ceiling was put up also. Since the previous meeting a cement floor was put in. The ladies furnished two bountiful meals while the men of the community did the concrete work. The club members wish to express appreciation to all who had any part in making our club house a comfortable and pleasant place to hold our meetings.

The club will continue quilting in order to replenish the treasury. Those present for the last meeting were Mmes. Buttrell, Allen, Scott, Gage, Crowell, Heairren, Stewart, Knox, Maples, Wright and Maud Hill. We are grateful for all contributions of cash, labor, chairs, paint and a wonderful spirit of cooperation.

The next meeting, Sept. 24th, will be gift exchange day. Community party is the evening of

Amity Hosts Shower For Bride-to-Be

A miscellaneous bridal shower honoring Miss Lou Grabein, bride-elect of Bob Jenkins, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Jenkins, was sponsored by the members of the Amity Club, and was given at the club house on September 17.

The lovely bride-to-be and her handsome fiance were there to receive and open the gifts.

It seemed as if all of the members of the Amity club responded with many valuable gifts.

A number of friends from town attended the shower and others sent their gifts.

Delicious punch and cake was served to the large crowd.

Bob was heard to say, when asked what he would like for a gift, "Just give me the car and Lou." His parents gave them a television and their blessings and friends join them with congratulations.

Mrs. Sellers Makes Gift to Library

The Saturday Club wishes to publicly thank Mrs. M. S. Sellers for a gift to the library, of a large collection of children's books which she gave. The gift is highly appreciated by members of the club.

The Saturday Club will be represented in the parade at the Free Fall Fair, and will also sponsor a booth in the Market building.

C. E. Smith, who has undergone surgery, is able to be at home again. His son, Carl Smith, who has completed his Army service, is now employed at Hockley in the harvest work there.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilburn Scott visited her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Pierce, and other relatives at Carbon recently.

on Thursday, September 26, and that all livestock exhibited remain there until 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

"It will help the committee in providing pens and assigning space if those who expect exhibit livestock will notify their Mr. Rutherford or myself," said Cecil Shults. "We are building pens this week."

Prospects for a fair the equal of last year's are good, said Mr. Clark. He urged that business men and citizens cooperate in every possible way to make the program a success which will do credit to the community and to the fine record that Rising Star has for putting over such fairs.

"It will give our town a lift and help us both in spirit and in a business way," he said. "With everybody helping we can have a fair to be proud of."

... owners of land as well as prospective owners discuss with us freely the many problems growing out of the ownership of real estate. One of the big problems, of course, is the title problem. We tell them frankly that a few dollars invested in an abstract now may save them hundreds of dollars later on. The old saying that "a stitch in time saves nine" is still true and very aptly applies itself to many real estate transactions.
