

Through The Editor's Specs

By BAB

There have been some instances recently when serious consequences involving school children have been narrowly averted when cars failed to obey the State law which requires that vehicles stop when a school bus stops.

The law specifically states that the driver of any vehicle "meeting or overtaking from either direction any school bus which has stopped on the highway for the purpose of receiving or discharging any school children shall stop the vehicle immediately before passing the school bus, but may then proceed past such school bus at a speed which is prudent, not exceeding ten miles per hour, and with due caution for the safety of such school children."

Rising Star drivers have reported some instances in which cars have flagrantly failed to observe this regulation and in at least one case a child came near being struck.

The wisdom of the law does not need to be argued. Children, particularly those in the first grades of school, are often impulsive and do not tend to think in terms of caution. It would be very difficult, indeed, to find a defense where such a child is struck and killed or badly hurt in consequence of a violation of the law, and certainly no person wants such a tragedy upon his conscience.

Be careful, especially so when a school bus load of youngsters is involved.

The P-TA will appreciate contributions of articles to be held at its rummage sale to be sold in the City Drug Store building Saturday. If you have anything to give the P-TA for this purpose call Mrs. Ozzie Burns. The P-TA needs the money.

One of those odd accidents of Nature victimized Spike Nunnally to the extent of several hundred dollars last week. Three of Mr. Nunnally's heifers, two of them with their first calves, were standing near a wire fence on his farm southwest of Rising Star when a thunderstorm broke. A bolt of lightning struck the fence and killed the three heifers. The two calves were not injured.

Another instance of lightning attack during the same period came very near being even more tragic for Pat McNeil and Alec Thate. The two men were loading and chaining a steel tank on the Hardin Bros. lease at Cross Cut when lightning struck the tank. Fortunately the bolt grounded through a chain to which they were holding and struck them what we might call only a glancing blow. Mr. McNeil, as told, was knocked out and Mr. Thate suffered an arm burn for which he received hospital attention. Otherwise neither was reported to have been seriously injured.

The problem is never solved. A solution always creates new difficulties.

In this age of jet-powered transportation, the problem of eating breakfast in New York and lunch in Los Angeles both in the same day, has been solved. We need worry about that matter no longer. One simply gets up at a leisurely hour, eggs his tie in Gotham, steps aboard a pressurized space liner and a few hours later, descends to tea and crumpets in the City of the Angels. That is, of course, if one has the fare, etc.

But the solution of that problem, as magnificent and important as it may be, has created another, and quite an earth-shaking one, at that. In our little town, for instance, it is about to crumble Higginbotham's fine, modern store building.

RS Leads In Screwworm Campaign

Rising Star cattlemen and business men led the county in contributions to the Screwworm eradication fund during the drive just completed, according to a report of the drive just released by Glyn Miller of the Eastland National Bank.

Rising Star contributors placed $2,694.78 in the fund. Cisco was second with $2,393.20, followed by Eastland with $1,722.50; Ranger with $1,056.20 and Gorman with $688.30. The county total was $8,554.98.

Although the drive is over additional funds will continue to be accepted, the committee announced.

The drive committee, which will continue to operate in case of a screwworm outbreak in the county, consists of Oscar Schaefer, Rising Star; Tommy Toland, Cisco; Cecil Shults, Rising Star, and Ed Harrison, Gorman.

It is recommended that livestock raisers keep a close watch on their cattle for possible infections, that they examine wounds carefully, and in the event there are signs of worms, to send a sample of the infestation to the Southwest Animal Health Research Foundation at Mission, Texas. Bottles for the purpose may be obtained from the County Agent, or from the Saults Implement Co., the chamber of commerce or Oscar Schaefer in Rising Star.

It is further recommended that such wounds be treated with screwworm medicine and that cattle be sprayed. In the event screwworms are found in the area sterile flies will be released, members of the committee said.

With the cooperation of the livestock raisers, it is hoped to have the screwworm menace under complete control within a short while, it was said.

Showers Break Drouth With Good 'Planting' Moisture

Showers, long prayed for, which fell during last week-end, did little to break the record of the 1963 winter and spring season as one of the driest in Rising Star history, but, strangely enough, they placed the soil in good condition for planting.

The fact that conditions, moisture-wise, are quite good at this time is due to the fine rains of last fall which gave an excellent bottom season that was preserved by an unusual and constantly cold winter that cut down on evaporation.

As a consequence, although there has been less than 2 and one-half inches of rainfall since the first of January, the showers of Friday, Saturday and Sunday, falling in slow and soaking fashion, "met the bottom season" and placed most of the land in good condition for Spring plowing and planting.

They have no guarantee, however, that there will be season enough to bring up a good stand, much less make a crop. That depends on later rainfall, if any.

Nevertheless, there were smiles where there was worry before and farmers and ranchers welcomed the late April rainfall hopefully. It was expected that peanut planting and other spring farming activities would get under way energetically during the next week or so.

The supply of stock water is another matter. The long rainless months were beginning to deplete stock tanks seriously and the showers of last week-end gave little run-off to replenish the supply.

Rainfall during the three days — Friday, Saturday and Sunday — totalled 1.27 inches, according to the City gauge. Of this amount .74 of an inch fell Sunday. Early rains in April totalled .82 of an inch, making 2.09 inches for the month.

There was no rain at all in March, City records show. February precipitation registered only .53 of an inch and there was only .10 of an inch during January. Thus only 2.72 inches of moisture has been recorded in Rising Star since January 1 — far below the normal fall.

Rising Star Schools Well Represented at State

Comparatively speaking, Rising Star High School will be well represented at Austin this week-end when both literary and athletic winners in district and regional Interscholastic League meets and their sponsors and well-wishers go to the State meets in that city.

Similarly, there will be quite a number of local High School representatives at Texas A&M College, College Station, Saturday when the State FFA judging contests are held.

The result is, things will be quieter than usual around the High School. But it will be a condition reflecting a lot of credit upon the local school and its students.

To Austin will go two students who registered high in literary events at the regional meet at Stephenville—Don Donham, winner of first place in the regional science contest, and Kay Lewis, second place winner in the ready writing event at the regional. Mrs. C. A. Claborn will accompany Miss Lewis as sponsor, while Don, whose science teacher is Frank Gray, will go with the track team representatives who will be accompanied by their coach, Weldon Hill. Mr. Gray planned to go to Austin Saturday, along with Supt. Sam Jones, Prin. Nunnally and others.

Rising Star will compete in two of the track events—the mile relay and the mile run. The relay team is composed of Tommy Alford, Gary Duggan, Kenneth Nunnally and Mack Harris. Larry Duggan will represent his school in the mile event.

Preliminaries in the track and field will be held Friday and the finals Saturday.

Lions Broom Sale Set For May 13th

The Rising Star Lions club broom and mop sale will be held Monday, May 13, it was announced this week.

Brooms, mops and other household items sold by the club during the day will be furnished by the Lighthouse for the Blind at Fort Worth, and the club's share of the proceeds will be used to finance crippled children's work, glasses for children and other projects sponsored by the Lions.

The Lions will appreciate support of their projects by purchase of the brooms and other items during the sale.

Meanwhile, at A&M, two teams of Rising Star FFA boys, accompanied by their sponsor, H. L. Geyer, will compete in State FFA judging contests.

They are the Poultry judging team consisting of Arthur Jones, Jimmy Rutledge, and Roger Goodwin, which placed second in the area contest at Stephenville on April 6, and the Dairy judging team, consisting of John Gerhardt, Terry Geyer and Randy Lewis, which placed seventh in the area meet.

The State events will be held at the College on Saturday.

Kay Lewis and Don Donham Hi School Honor Graduates

Kay Lewis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Lewis, and Don Donham, son of Mrs. Helen Donham, will be the valedictorian and salutatorian of the 1963 Rising Star High School class. These two won top honors with two of the highest grade averages ever recorded in school history and separated by the merest hairline of difference.

Miss Lewis had an average of 97.37 for the two years over honor ratings are figured, and Don had an average of 97.30—a difference of only .07 of a point.

Honor graduates of the Elementary school were not yet announced.

J. D. (Skeet) Clark New President Of Quarterback Club

J. D. (Skeet) Clark was elected president of the Rising Star Quarterback Club for the 1963-64 school year, at the meeting of the club Friday night.

Plans were discussed for the club's booth at the merchandizing bazaar Saturday.

Retiring president of the club is H. McDonald. The club during the year reduced the debt on the stadium clock from about $800.00 to about $150.00, it was reported.

Wednesday, May 1, 13th Anniversary of Kizer Telephone Co. In Rising Star

Wednesday was the 13th anniversary of the Kizer Telephone Co. in Rising Star and Cross Plains. On that date—May 1, in 1950—Ed Kizer walked into Rising Star, a complete stranger to the community, and took over the ownership and operation of the Rising Star exchange which he had purchased, along with the Cross Plains exchange, from the Home Telephone and Electric Co. of Baird, Texas.

At the time, there were 297 telephones in the two systems. Both were antiquated, had ringer types offering a limited and indifferent service to the two communities.

Today, the Kizer telephone company, entirely owned by Mr. Kizer and members of his family, has 1810 telephones in an automatic, interconnected dialing system covering the Rising Star, Cross Plains and May areas and giving a telephone service comparable to that found in any metropolitan area. It is still growing.

Sub Register Exams At Local Post Office

An examination for substitute carrier-clerk will be held at the Rising Star post office to establish a register for future use in event of a vacancy in the local office, Mrs. Cliffigne Witt, postmistress, has announced. Information may be obtained at the office.

Dr. W. S. Carter, Rising Star dentist, who has been under treatment in Medical Arts Hospital, Brownwood, was reported improving Tuesday.

Wildcat Band To Present Spring Concert May 7th

The annual Spring concert of the Rising Star High School band will be presented at 7:30 p. m., May 7, at the High School gym. Both Junior and Senior bands will present selections from Broadway musicals, such as "Carnival," "Milk and Honey," and others, and also from classics such as Wagner's "Die Meistersinger," and some fine spirited marches.

Cooperating with the revival at the First Baptist Church, the concert date was changed from April 30 to the May date.

Admission will be 50c for adults and 25c for children.

The stage band will also present a few numbers. "The Senior band has been practising very hard for this concert and is sounding very, very good," said Lloyd Gonzalez, director of the band.

Mrs. Jim Angell returned Sunday from Big Spring and Abilene where she had visited relatives.

It isn't because they dare to be different that beatniks act the way they do, it's because they don't know any better.

As It Looks From Here

By Omar Bursleson, M. C. 17th Texas District

WASHINGTON, D. C. — NEEDED IN OUR COUNTRY TODAY are old fashioned debates on the subject of the Federal Government. Debates do occur in and out of Congress, but only piecemeal, as applicable to a particular issue. At the end of such a discussion, the participants can usually be identified as liberal or conservative, although the issue may be influenced by factors other than purely on the basis of philosophy.

As originally conceived, the purpose of our National Government was to provide the necessary protection from external forces and the essential order among internal forces, to guarantee individual liberty to flourish and be exercised.

OBVIOUSLY THE CENTRAL GOVERNMENT HAS RESPONSIBILITY for our national defense. We, as individuals, or grouped together in organization, could not do it. In fact, the 13 original Colonies banded together for their own protection. Later, the same need was urgent, which was the major influence in the formation of our Government created under the Constitution.

THE POWER AND AUTHORITY INVESTED in a government for the purpose of maintaining internal order and authority in those things relating to the general welfare, are open to a broader interpretation than those powers vested in the Federal Government relating to external matters. Hence, the issues in many instances can become vague and blurred by interpretations placed on such powers in the light of what is considered to be present day needs.

WHATEVER DIFFERENCES OF OPINION MAY EXIST as to the consistency of including or excluding any particular power to provide internal order, there should be no doubt as to the nature of the authority contemplated and intended for the Government. The Federal Government was clearly to play the part of the "umpire" and not a "participant" in purely domestic affairs. Its role was to insure fair play — not to permit the imposition of one individual against another or a group of individuals against another group. In other words, it was to protect against fraud and wrongdoing. It was not conceived, however, to guarantee the economic or social success of the individual or any group of individuals, nor to mitigate the failure of those unsuccessful in their particular endeavor.

IF, AS CONTENTED BY SOME, OUR CONSTITUTION and the Bill of Rights do not meet present day needs, then this basic instrument should be amended as it has been done 23 times in our history. To amend our Constitution is cumbersome and slow. That is exactly what was intended when the provisions for its change were made. It guarantees against hurried decisions and requires the sentiment of the people of the various States, as expressed through the State Legislatures. Our Constitution should not be amended by interpretation or by ignoring it or by condoning practices not consonant with its intent until finally the interpretation is accepted as if amended by ratification.

THE LIBERTY AND FREEDOM GUARANTEED UNDER THE Constitution have made us the greatest nation and the greatest people on earth. Not only do we have more goods, but a greater portion of people enjoy the products of their labor than any other nation of the world under any other system. This has been accomplished under the system guaranteed by the Constitution and not directly attributable to Government itself.

Mrs. Marvin West returned Thursday from Fort Worth where she visited her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Eborhart, who has been a patient for a heart ailment and has been under oxygen tent for two weeks. He was somewhat improved when Mrs. West came home.

Mr. and Mrs. Mel Cowan, who are students in Tarleton State College, were guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Jones, and friends and relatives in Rising Star during the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Hudler visited in Santa Anna on Tuesday, April 30.

back to its original bricks and mortar. The same thing is happening to masonry construction all over the country. Already the brick walls and plastered interior of the store have become seamed with cracks caused by the sonic shaking it gets every time one of these faster-than-sound jets goes over. The big plate windows out front dance a 1,500-mile-an-hour twist every time one of these fast planes drags its earthquake over the town. It seems almost as if they will jump out of their channels. One of the windows at the Record office very nearly did a year or so ago. It split with a report like a high-powered rifle shot.

So, we have a bumper problem, and it is one for the architects. We are not going to be rid of jet-power. We are going to have more, not less, of this sort of thing. It is up to our engineers and architects to design buildings that can take this constant sonic punishment and remain intact. No doubt they will be equal to the only alternative we have, with further safety values in the event of a nuclear attack. In that event we would all profit, although it is certainly disgusting, not to say disheartening, to watch the costly structures we have erected to serve the needs of our time slowly disintegrate under the rewards of our own progress.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tyler of Rising Star and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Tunnell of Cross Plains attended the Icecapades in Fort Worth last week-end. They returned by way of Cleburne, missing a storm which occurred over the Highway 80 route.

"NOT FINISHED, JUST BEGUN"

Hi there,
 About the time you are reading this, we will be on our way to Austin for the State track and literary meet. By "we" I mean Mrs. Claborn, Don Donham—who won first in Science at the regional meet, myself—I won second in ready writing at the regional meet, and Kenneth Nunnally, Tommy Alford, and Mack Harris—who ran on the mile relay that won first at the regional meet. Mr. Hill and some of the sophomores who ran on the track team will also be going.

The Seniors certainly did enjoy the Junior-Senior Banquet that was given last week. Thanks to Mrs. Claborn, the Juniors, and their room mothers for this wonderful banquet—we will never forget it.

The Seniors who are not on the way to Austin are busy addressing graduation invitations and preparing for the Senior trip. It seems that everything is happening all at once and the preparations keep us on our toes. Remember, Seniors, we will be graduating very soon

(we hope), and there isn't much time left to give that last book report. Also remember that we must have paid all class dues in order to go on the Senior trip.

Lessons seem to be humming here at the last of school. Seniors in English are being occupied with writing themes, letters, and precis. Civics students are continuing the study of our State Governments, and Chemistry students are endeavoring to pull their averages up to passing.

Annuals are due this week, but as of now we have not received them. More about them next week.

—Bye for now, Katy.

WITH OUR SENIORS

Marcia Kay Lewis
 On September 11, 1944, a very important event took place at Brownwood, Texas. Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Lewis were blessed by the birth of their first daughter, who was named Marcia Kay. Kay has attended Rising Star schools for twelve years, where she has participated in many activities.

Since entering high school, Kay has held many honors. Among these, she has held the position of Class Reporter and a member of F. H. A. for four years; F.H.A. officer and manager of the basketball team for three years; she served on the Student Council one year, and was elected Class Favorite Her Sophomore year. Kay has also served as Librarian for two years; Co-editor of "La Estrelita" and Most Intellectual her Senior year; she characterized in the Junior and Senior plays, and was chosen to "Who's Who" for four years. She received the award for the highest average during her Freshman year; last but far from least, Kay won first place in District and second in Regional in Ready-Writing division of the Interscholastic League competition; she will be trying out for first at State as you are reading this life sketch.

Blue rates as Kay's favorite color; she enjoys eating "just any food". (Kay says this is very evident). Dr. Kildare tops her list for TV viewing; her pastime is occupied by fishing, music, reading, sewing, and cooking (her classmates have come to the conclusion that fishing is her greatest delight. Right, Kay?)

Kay plans to attend Draughton's Business College after graduation; this completed, she hopes to major in math at some other college.

Regardless of what her goals may be, Kay is the type of person who will strive to achieve these goals. She has been a great asset to Rising Star High School. To a most deserving girl, may the best of luck be yours, Kay, in whatever you choose to do.

—Carol Burns.

"UPWARD AND ONWARD"

We are all anxiously awaiting the results of the R.S.H.S. students participating in the Interscholastic League in Austin.

The juniors were certainly proud of Judy Lewis, who went to Brownwood with the Stage Band and came back with a $1,000 scholarship to Howard Payne. Congratulations also to Mary Alford, Tommy Darnell, and Mike Fisher who have also received the same.

The Junior-Senior Banquet was very nice, and we all enjoyed it. The cheerleaders were announced for the 1963 football year and congratulations to them.

The Ag. boys are working on their record books, trying to get caught up—right, Randy? Sharon and Harriet, I'm glad you enjoyed your trip to Dallas, but I'm also sorry you couldn't talk Mr. Gray out of that chemistry test you missed.

Arthur, who is your new tennis partner? Larry, how did you get that dent in your car? Cherry, you'll have to agree that it is all in the "swing"!

Donna—do you like "Blue Venusis"? I think we have a cigar fight in our room; don't we, Lovey? Bye for now, Harriet.

"KNOWLEDGE COMES BUT WISDOM LINGERS"

This finds us busy enjoying all of our activities and planning for those to come. We are certainly enjoying our last few weeks as Sophomores.

Several of the Sophomores are planning to attend the Baird Rodeo tonight. Our riding clubs will be well represented there.

The band students are looking forward to a grand time at San Antonio this weekend. The stage band did very well last week in a district contest at Brownwood. Besides placing first in Class B, four students, one of them being a sophomore—Tommy Darnell, were awarded scholarships.

We are especially proud of the track boys who are attending the State Track Meet at Austin this week. Three sophomores are among this group: Larry Duggan, Garry Duggan, and Larry Weise.

I want to congratulate those girls chosen as cheerleaders for next year; we know that you will do a fine job backing the Wildcats.

We want to thank all of you who participated and attended our talent show last week. We hope you enjoyed the fine entertainment.

Two judging teams from the Ag. classes are to participate in the State Contests this week. We wish you lots of luck.

"S.F.P., what happened at Abilene?"

L. W. and M. W.—Are you sure you only want to keep your feet clean?

B. H.—What went behind the coke machine?

S. T.—Have you started that book of excuses yet?

J. R.—Why do R. L. and R. G. like green so well?

J. C.—What goes with that key?

Look for our news next week; until then—Charlene

"LIVE AND LEARN"

Hi! Can you believe it; we have only three more weeks of school! This week we are rushing like mad to hand last minute book reports to Mrs. C.

All freshmen are urged to pay debts such as class dues, lunch room charges, driver's ed. fees, and lab fees.

This week, as far as lessons go, we still have them. Our teachers will pound knowledge into our heads until the last day. This week in algebra we are into a new and still harder chapter. The general math students are trying to get all the primary algebra they can in these last three weeks. The biology students are reviewing and taking tests. The Home Ec. I girls are studying the book "Family Relations"; while the Ag. boys are winding up their snop.

A last word of congratulations to the new cheerleaders for the years '63 and '64! Until next week, Marcia.

GIRLS' SPORTS

Last week was a week of challenge. The girls to be cheerleaders for the '63-'64 season were chosen Friday morning in the high school gym. There were four elected with one alternate.

Our tennis teams went to regional but were defeated. We are very proud of them anyway. They brought home a real nice trophy from district and they all well deserved it.

Eddie Joe Henry, the girls' coach, started the girls in basketball practice for the '63-'64 season. They are working very hard toward a rewarding season next fall.

The girls have been taking physical fitness tests in P.E.; they have to run a 60 and 50 yard dash. They also do set-ups and push-ups. They are all complaining of being very sore but maybe they will pull through. Until next week, Linda B.

"TOWARD NEW HORIZONS"

I am one of the three girls who represented the Rising Star Homemaking Chapter, Area IV, at the State meeting in Dallas. The meeting was held at the State Fair Music Hall in Dallas.

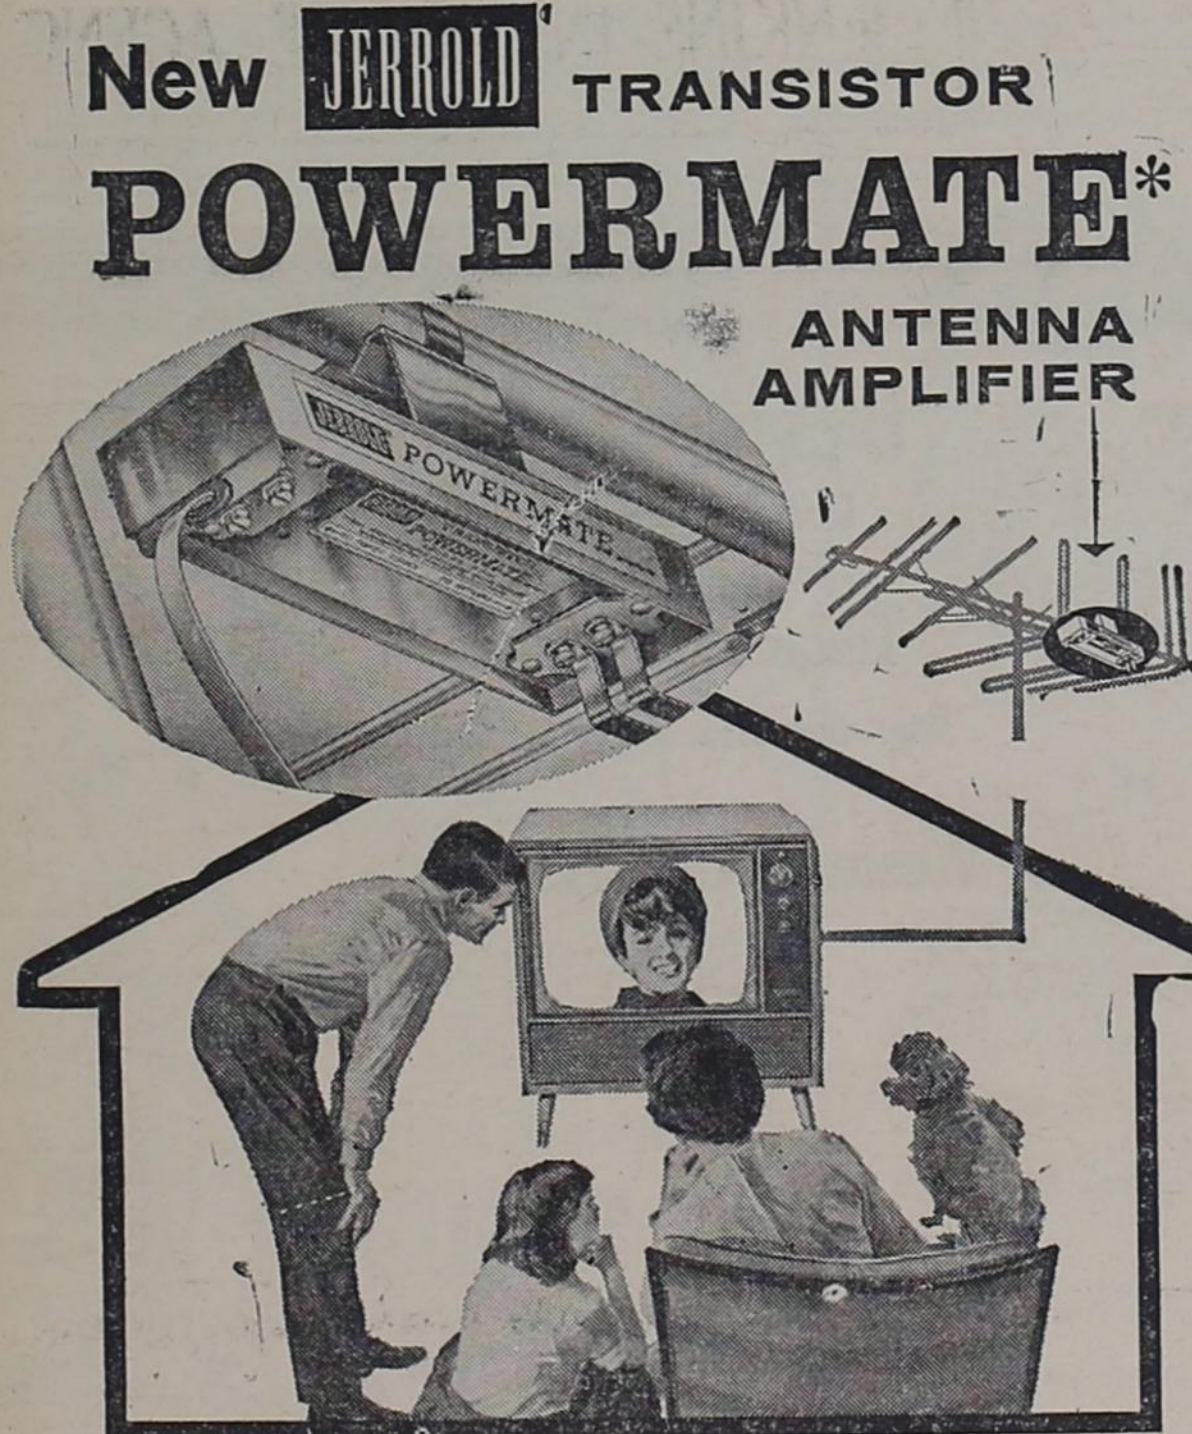

Mrs. Nowlin, Harriet Schmitt, Sharon Donham, Mrs. Donham, and myself, left for Dallas on April 18th at twelve-thirty. We arrived at the Adolphus Hotel at three forty-five; thus, started our week-end of joy, excitement, adventure, and aching feet.

There were several practice sessions for Sharon, who was to receive her state degree, and myself, who was to sing in the state chorus.

The first meeting was called to order at nine o'clock, Friday morning. The day was filled with interesting talks, reports, and entertainment. During the afternoon, Sharon received her State Degree for outstanding achievement in the field of Homemaking, and I sang in the State Chorus. The theme for the night session was "A Musical Holiday in Texas." This was filled with beautiful songs and colors; Harriet was a voting delegate in the Saturday (Continued on Page 5) morning business session. Sharon was elected to an Area office in March at our Area Meeting in Stephenville. She is going to the National meeting to be held in Kansas City in July. She received her instructions for her nine day trip at Dallas.

We arrived home on Saturday afternoon. We all had an exciting and educational time. Upon departing for home, most of us stated our future plans as being that of sleep—sleep until recovery.

A very special thank you to Mrs. Nowlin from Harriet, Sharon, and me; and Mrs. Donham, who are very happy that you went with us—a lovely co-sponsor.

There were discussions of: "The Man on the Cross Sends Me Back," by Mrs. G. C. Groce and "Prayer Through the Day," Mrs. May Pearl Hull.

Mrs. Slayden gave a report on the Spiritual Life Retreat at Glen Lake and she also read a poem, "The Way God Sees Us."

The group was dismissed with a prayer by Mrs. L. R. Smith. Twenty members were present.

Chances are he will be stuck for the price of an abstract, and if the title proves to be faulty, an additional expense for legal services. It is customary for the seller to furnish the abstract and convey a merchantable title. It is the buyer's hard luck if he don't get both, without cost to him.

Americans spend about 500 million dollars a year on food supplements as a result of food fallacies.

The money goes for supplements such as pills, powders, capsules and compounds which are mixtures of vitamins, minerals, exotic herbs, sea weed and dried vegetables.

Fancy prices are paid for these products because there are thousands of door-to-door peddlers, national advertisements, phony health lecturers and authors, and self-styled "food scientists" who promote their wares in these typical patterns:

1. They make mysterious but appealing claims for the curative and disease-preventing powers of their products.

2. They denounce the nutritional value of common everyday foods which they claim are "grown on worn-out soils," or poisoned with chemical fertilizers and preservatives, or robbed of their nutrients by over-processing by food manufacturers, or other reasons—none of which are true.

Quackery is at the highest point in history, and not only are there more frauds, but modern quackery is becoming more sophisticated. It is time we all take a fresh look at this difficult social problem—for if quackery is to be eliminated, the public must be correctly informed and more and better law enforcement is necessary.

There is a vast amount of untrue information being circulated about calories.

Calories do count, in collars, as well as in pounds. From the middle of 1960 to the end of 1961, more than 100 new reducing aids were put on the market. There are no drugs which are effective to control appetite, which are safe to take without medical supervision. Most reducing products which can be purchased without a prescription are food supplements, which have no effect on food intake.

No safe reducing diet is quick—and no quick reducing diet is safe.

If one eats more calories than her physical activity burns up, there is a weight gain, and if one eats fewer calories than her body uses, there will be a reduction in weight—regardless of the source of these calories.

Calories do count — and there's much to be said for the staid-and-steady reducing diet that simply cuts down on the number of calories you eat.

Nutritionists in the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Agricultural Research Service say it's important for a person-on-a-diet to eat three well-balanced meals a day.

If you can, plan your meals around foods that are a part of the family's way of eating. This will make it easier for you to stick with your diet and easier, too, for the cook.

Another advantage is that, once you've achieved the weight you want, you can continue this pattern of eating. Perhaps you can gradually add a few more calories.

Say you've been eating only 1,200 calories a day. You can up this to 1,400 by switching to whole milk if you have been using 2 cups skimmed and adding another ounce of lean meat to the day's meals.

But — as you inch your calorie intake upward, keep an eye on the scales. Keep exercising and watching those high calorie foods.

In this way, you'll be able to stay slim and healthy.

May I urge homemakers to get their information on food and nutrition from recognized authorities. Here are some suggested sources:

1. Food and Drug Administration, Department of Health, Education and Welfare, Washington 25, D.C.
2. Council on Food and Nutrition, American Medical Association, 535 North Dearborn Street, Chicago 10, Illinois.
3. Institute of Home Economics, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D.C.
4. County and State Offices of Agricultural Extension Service.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Carter Entertain With Fish Fry

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Carter entertained a group of friends on Wednesday evening, April 24, at 7 p.m. with an old-fashioned fish fry at their farm home on Rt. 1. The house was decorated with spring flowers, roses and honeysuckle.

The supper table was laid with a cloth of gold floral print, centered with an oval arrangement of roses and honeysuckle on a gold-banded crystal reflector beneath a gold-banded compote of spiced golden peaches. The place settings were from Mr. and Mrs. Carter's gold-banded crystal dinnerware presented to them by the children on the occasion of their recent 50th wedding anniversary, to include the dinner plate, water glass, sherbet dish and embossed napkin. Other table complements included a golden casserole dish and hot roll tray and golden salt and pepper set. Hurricane lamps in crystal with holders of gold provided the soft candle light for the gala meal. The supper also honored Mrs. Lee White on a birthday just passed.

For the menu, Mrs. Carter had prepared a heaping platter of golden-browned fish, lima bean casserole, sweet potato patties, a cole-slaw, fruit salad, relishes, hot biscuits and cornbread sticks, ice cream with strawberry topping, coffee and punch for a rounded out birthday meal fit for a king.

The guest list included Mr. and Mrs. Oren Justice, Mr. and Mrs. Lee White, and the host couple, Mr. and Mrs. Carter. After supper the group sang gospel songs for a while, accompanied by Mrs. Justice at the piano. The group agreed that the evening had been most enjoyable.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Bailey who have lived in Jal, New Mexico, for 13 years have returned to Rising Star to make their home. They have a daughter, Jan, who is 12 years of age and a son, David, who is ten years old, who have entered Rising Star schools. Their friends all wish to extend to them a hearty welcome home.
