Rising Star Shines Bright for July 4th Freedom Festival

Star Pride should be congratulated for a job well done on the clean-up and dress-up projects since its beginning in May of this year. The group has come a long way and has worked many, many hours. It only goes to show that the people of Rising Star as a whole are proud of their town and would like for everyone to know it!

Star Pride has undertaken many clean-up tasks, some of which have gone pretty smoothly, while others, like our barrels along sidewalks in town, turned out to be quite a big task before we finished! Don't they look great, though?

Due to the hustle and bustle of preparations for our 4th of July Freedom Festival, watch for a more detailed description of our activities next week.

Be sure to look for Star Pride's Booth at the park as part of the Freedom Festival. Some of the members have been busy in their kitchens whipping up baked good items.

There will be home baked treats, and you can join the group and make your donation if you haven't done so as yet.

Star Pride's Winder Warshin' Crew

Down With the Weeds Downtown

Clearing weeds from the corner at the intersection of highways 36 and 183 are Judi Butler, Ruby Murdoch and Helen Donham, working for Star Pride.

The empty Exxon station on N. Main was given a weed-clearing going over by Star Pride volunteers.

Star Pride volunteers also cleared yards of unoccupied houses like the Crawford place on N. Main.

Brush Piles From Yards Taken Away

Star Pride volunteers picked up brush from the yards of Rising Star residents Saturday and hauled it out of town.

Still More to Do to Clean Up Downtown

This unoccupied building on N. Main was scheduled to have the weeds cleared before the Fourth of July Freedom Festival.

Star Pride Did All This And More!

Star Pride volunteers worked many hours to make Rising Star attractive before the Fourth of July Freedom Festival was to begin today. The volunteer labor was accompanied by donated funds, equipment and materials, such as weed killer.

Let your friends and neighbors, who make up the volunteer force, know how proud you are of their work. Star Pride isn't through yet, and their aim is to have an attractive town all year long. Donations are appreciated and are put to good use.

New County Education District To Collect Taxes

The County Education District (CED) is a new governmental body created by the legislature. It can be characterized as a political subdivision because:

it is delegated certain governmental powers;

it is governed by persons elected to public office and appointed to govern the CED;

it has jurisdiction of a defined and certain territory; and it has the power to assess and collect taxes to be used by the Texas public free school.

CED is a unique creation within the Texas political system with some very specific, restrictive and prescribed authority and direction provided by the legislature. At the same time, a CED must assume it has the authority to invoke the laws of general applicability that must be invoked to accomplish its prescribed purpose.

There are dominant characteristics of a CED that should be well kept and remembered by the school trustees who accept stewardship over its affairs.

A CED is an independent school district established for the limited purpose of exercising certain and prescribed taxing authority (SB 351, p. 70; 20.942 TEC). Within any section of the Texas Education Code, a CED is a school district when clearly indicated by the context (SB 351, p. 78; 1.05 TEC). It follows that a CED may conduct its affairs by following applicable provisions of the Texas Education Code and general laws in the same manner and with the same authority as one of its component ISDs. The CED, however, may utilize these governmental powers only for the limited purposes to levy, assess, collect and distribute a tax.

The organizational meeting of the Eastland CED was held June 27 at 7 p.m. in the Eastland ISD Administration Building. It is composed of school districts Cisco, Eastland, Gorman, Ranger and Rising Star. These component districts each selected a representative from the respective boards Continued Inside

Fishing Outdoors

by Terry L. Wilson

Summertime Rat-L-Trapping
Summertime angling can be a tough row to hoe many times. Extreme heat, slow fishing and hard to locate fish.

Over the years I have noticed anglers have become almost programmed in their bait choices this time of year, top water early and late, and a worm during the day.

Today I would like to de-program you folks a little with what I feel like is probably the finest fish locating and catching live today, "The Bill Lewis" Rat-L-Trap.

For 27 years the fine folks at Bill Lewis Lures have head lead the industry in live quality, catchability and performance. The Rat-L-Trap comes packaged ready to turn an otherwise slow day into something to remember.

Sometime "Trappin" can be tailored to fit where ever the fish are: Shallow water in tight cover holds a special place in every anglers heart. It's right fishing. Take a 1/4 ounce Rat-L-Trap in your favorite color, mine during summer are Smokey Joe, chrome with blue back, or Fire Tiger. Gold if there is a heavy cloud cover. Using 15 pound or heavier line doodle-sock the Trap right in and around the cover, taking care never to allow the bait to tag bottom. Unlike conventional flipping or doodle-socking, leave the bait in the water and move it in and around the cover. While swimming your trap give an occasional quick shake. Those big old lunker just can't resist.

Lets say your local bass population has moved to the ledges on rock bluffs. Cast parrallel to the ledges allowing the bait to pendulum till its directly under the boat. Then begin a quick sweep of your rod up to about 11:00. Turn your trolling motor to low and start down the cliff edges continuing to jig your Rat-L-Trap up and down. This method will also work well around bridge pilings. The rock and cement

Cisco Summer Basketball Camp Set For July 8-12

The Cisco summer basketball camp has been scheduled for Monday through Friday, July 8-12, at the Cisco High School Gym.

Girls and boys from the area entering the third grade through the ninth grade are invited to attend.

echo the great rattling sound. Favorite colors here include 1/2 ounce chrome and black back, orange crawdad, electric gold, blugill.

Fishing deep underwater humps have become a must in Texas waters; and the Rat-L-Trap can produce you some excellent action. Work it much like a jig and pig. Allow your bait to settle to the bottom then work it back to the boat in short hops. One trick here if you have some grass on the bottom is to bend the forward hook of each treble back. This will reduce gathering so much moss.

These are just a few ways to fish a summertime Rat-L-Trap. Be inventive, who knows you might even try a Carolina Rig.

Till next week good fishing and remember to carry plenty of fluids for these Texas hot ones.
Terry L. Wilson

The camp will be conducted by Craig Kent and Lori Whatley, Cisco coaches, and the camp will be divided into three sessions:

First session for boys and girls third through sixth grades; second session for girls seventh through ninth grades; and the third session for boys seventh through ninth grade. The cost of the camp is $40 per camper and each camper will receive a free basketball and camp T-shirt.

The camp will stress fundamentals in shooting, dribbling, passing, rebounding, defense and teamwork.

A camp registration form can be picked up at Cisco High School or at the Cisco city swimming pool.

DPS Predicts Deaths On Texas Roadways During July 4th Period

AUSTIN - As many as 12 persons may be killed on Texas roadways during the 30 hour July 4th period, according to Department of Public Safety estimates.

DPS Director Colonel Joe Milner said the summer and vacation traveling holiday times will challenge motorists to avoid driving risks.

"The DPS and other law enforcement agencies throughout Texas will be working together to keep dangerous drivers off the local and rural streets,' according to Colonel Miller.

During July 4th last year, which was also 30 hours in length, the DPS tabulated 15 deaths. This year's counting period begins at 6 p.m. Wednesday, July 3, and continues to midnight Thursday, July 4.

"In 1990, 89 percent of fatalities during July 4th occurred in accidents where speeding over the limits or driving while intoxicated was a factor in this state," Milner added.

Of the 19 traffic deaths, 13 were persons in vehicles where seat belts could have been used.

Milner said additional troopers will be working in areas where high volumes of traffic could be anticipated.

"DPS officers will be watching for intoxicated drivers and speeders," the leading traffic death elements in Texas," Milner stressed.

Pharmacy Topics

A genetically engineered human protein seems to cut significantly the death rate from septic shock, which is an overwhelming infection of the bloodstream. The drug was given special FDA approval for use in the Persian Gulf War.

Aspirin and alcohol are a bad combination, even on a full stomach, according to research reported in the Journal of the American Medical Association. Aspirin seems to inhibit the stomach's ability to break down the alcohol, so more of it goes directly into the bloodstream.

Capsaicin, made from hot peppers, seems to offer relief from arthritis pain, say researchers at Albert Einstein College of Medicine. Topical use of pepper-packed cream cut pain by a third for those with osteoarthritis, by more than half for the rheumatoid arthritis group.

Jeannie Sadowski to Announce as a Candidate for 17th Seat

JEANNIE SADOWSKI ... on GOP Ticket

Beverly Jean Sadowski is expected to announce Saturday, July 13th, as a candidate for the U.S. Congress, 17th District, the post now held by Charles Stenholm.

Jeannie Sadowski, a native of Breckenridge, is a professional hearing specialist, an ordained minister, author, public speaker and lecturer and is presently director of Texas Home Missions for Jesus Christ in Texas. She and her husband, Dr. D. P. Sadowski operate hearing offices in Eastland and Breckenridge and work in several area hospitals.

Mrs. Sadowski reportedly has been visiting and talking throughout the 17th District for the past three months, "testing the climate," before making her decision to seek the office.

In announcing her candidacy, she is expected to make the following statement:

"I have grown increasingly concerned over some political issues until I felt like I HAD to step out and do something. So here I am! I am not a polished politician - I am not a lawyer - Cannot give you a long resume of political offices I have held. But what I CAN give you is a genuine concern for America, the way she is heading, and an honest heart. I am just an individual who believes our U.S. Representative is to be just what it says "A Representative of the PEOPLE," Our present Congressman does not represent the 17th Congressional District of Texas. He Does Not represent the people. He even said in his own words concerning the flag issue, and I quote, "If this is the one issue of all the issues that I vote on that is so much different. I expect to be unelected in 1992." And sir, I also expect to see you unelected in 1992.

"If the people in Texas will elect me to represent them in the 17th Congressional District I will ALWAYS remember who it was that put me in Washington, and I WILL LISTEN to the people I serve. I will work to make the people's voice heard in Washington. No problem will be considered too large or too small for individual attention - I WILL LISTEN TO THE PEOPLE."

Audit Idea Produces $4 Billion for Texas

Lt. Governor Bob Bullock today praised the report of the Texas Performance Review, which calls for a massive reorganization of state government, and said the Legislature should move quickly to implement the report's recommendations.

The Texas Performance Review report was the result of a campaign proposal Bullock made last year to require extensive performance audits of almost every program in state government. State Comptroller John Sharp, who headed the team of auditors charged with undertaking the review, officially delivered the report to state leaders today. Sharp said the plan will produce $4 billion in the form of savings and new revenue.

In February, at Bullock's suggestion, the Legislature agreed to delay implementing a state budget pending the results of these audits.

"When I conceived the idea of performance audits, I was searching for a way to shake government upside down, eliminate those programs we could do without and revitalize those programs that served a vital function, but weren't serving Texans efficiently," said Bullock who made the plan a centerpiece of his campaign for Lt. Governor.

"As a campaign prom-

New Laws Affect the Workplace

"Texas employers and employees alike need to be aware of the various amendments made to laws affecting them during the last Texas legislative session," said Mary Scott Nabers, Commissioner at the Texas Employment Commission. "Some are welcome consequences."

The Texas Unemployment Compensation Act was amended such that an individual who leaves work due to a medically verified illness of the worker's minor child will no be disqualified from benefits, provided no alternative care was available and the employer would not allow a reasonable amount of time off. The employer's account can be protected from a chargeback in such a situation but employers need to follow up to assure they receive tax account protection.

Another amendment to the Act makes an individual eligible for benefits if the worker resigns partial employment to accept other employment that the claimant reasonably believes will increase his weekly wage. This latter change will not become effective until September 1. A company's tax rate can also be protected in such cases as this but employers should request the protection.

An amendment to the Act was also passed which provides that findings and conclusions made in connection with claims for unemployment benefits may not be used in other proceedings and actions.

Three other amendments served to exclude from coverage under the Act certain services: those performed by an individual at a trade market for a wholesaler or sales representative of a wholesaler or manufacturer of consumer goods under a written contract; services of product demonstrators if the service is performed under a written contract; and services performed for a courier or delivery service. "The services named here are all subject to a number of conditions specified in the law if they are to be excluded, so any employer contemplating a change in the current designation of its workers is well advised to find out the details from the Commission's tax department," says Commissioner Nabers.

The Texas Payday Law has been amended to give the TEC authority to require under certain circumstances that an employer file a bond or other security to assure performance of obligations under the Payday Law.

Another matter of interest to employers is an addition to the Texas Minimum Wage Law which requires employers to begin listing the reason for any pay deductions on the earning statement companies must furnish to employees at the end of a pay period. "It must be explained to workers why any amount is deducted from a paycheck," Commissioner Nabers said.

One bill will benefit people seeking work with state agencies. All state agencies will now be required to list job openings with TEC for which outside applicants will be considered. This will make it easier for job seekers to find out about state employment opportunities.

'Only The Lonely' To Show At Majestic Theatre On July 5-8

Danny Muldoon (John Candy) is in love with shy Theresa Luna (Ally Sheedy) (l), but can't break ties to his domineer mother Rose (Maureen O'Hara) (r). This romantic comedy, "Only The Lonely," will show at the Majestic in Eastland this weekend.

Legendary film star Maureen O'Hara, age 72, had reportedly told friends she would never play in another movie. Why should she? Her retirement home in the Bahamas was picture-perfect, and she hadn't exactly squandered all that money she made in the big movies of the '50s and '60s.

But then she saw the script of "Only the Lonely," read the part of Rose Muldoon, and learned of favorite actors who were to play in this romance/comedy. So she came out of hibernation incidentally looking half her age!

"Only the Lonely" has been out just a few weeks - even Majestic Manager Ed Allcorn is surprised to get a popular contemporary movie into Eastland this soon! But here it is - showing at the Majestic from Friday, July 5 through Monday, July 8. Curtain time will be 7:30 each evening, with admission $3.

The theme used by this Twentieth Century Fox

Film is from an old Roy Orbison song. Along with Maureen O'Hara is John Candy as Danny Muldoon, Ally Sheedy as Theresa Luna, and other actors including Anthony Quinn, James Belushi, and Kevin Dunn.

The setting of the picture is Chicago. Danny Muldoon, a lonely, good-hearted cop, finally finds true love when he meets Theresa Luna, the daughter of a local mortician. Unfortunately their romance has a dramatic effect on Danny's overbearing widowed mother, Rose.

This outspoken Irish immigrant feels threatened by the new women with whom she must compete for Danny's attention.

"Only the Lonely" reunites O'Hara with one of her favorite co-stars, two time Oscar winner Anthony Quinn. This is their first appearance together in 35 years. Quinn plays Nick, the Muldoon's amorous next-door neighbor, who encourages Danny in his new-found romance while trying to court the unreceptive Rose.

Look for fireworks, fun, and yes, some music in this picture.

Brides Should Include Name Changes in Wedding Plans

June brides should keep Social Security in mind when making their wedding plans. It is very important that a new bride report her change of name to Social Security, unless the new name is reported, her earnings may not be posted properly to her Social Security record.

Failure to report a change of name to Social Security is one of the most frequent causes of errors in wage records. Since eligibility and benefits for Social Security retirement, disability and survivors insurance are based on the earnings in the records kept by Social Security, incorrect records could mean lower benefits, delayed benefits, or ineligibility for benefits.

To change a name in Social Security records, a bride must complete Form SS-5 (Application for a Social Security Card) and submit supporting evidence which identifies her under her old and new name. An original marriage certificate is the best evidence, but the application lists other acceptable evidence.

To obtain Form SS-5, a bride should contact her local Social Security office. The staff there will tell her how to apply and will send her the application form. In most cases, the entire process can be handled by phone and mail. If she prefers, she can call toll free 1-800-234-5772.

Women who have had a name change, but do not file an SS-5, should do so regardless of the amount of time that has passed. The Abilene office is located at 142 S. Pioneer.

New Hunter's Lease Directory Is Distributed

The 1991 edition of the popular Hunter's Clearinghouse Directory is now available for distribution by the Texas Department of Agriculture.

"The hunter's directory is an extensive listing of Texas landowners who lease their land for hunting and fishing," Agriculture Commissioner Rick Perry said. "It is designed to put hunters in direct contact with landowners to discuss leasing opportunities."

"This year's directory features nearly 500 private landowners with about 750 leases covering more than 4 million acres. The listings specify the county where the lease is located, the number of acres, the type of game and amenities available, as well as other pertinent lease information. Telephone numbers and addresses for the landowner are also included.

"The Clearinghouse is a joint effort of TDA and the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department," Perry said. "Through this program, we promote Texas recreational potential, as well as provide some type of additional income to farmers and ranchers."

Leases with whitetail deer, spring turkey, dove, quail, pheasant, duck, goose, javelina, and exotics are listed in the directory by region. A list of landowners who allow people to fish on their property is also included.

Copies of the directory have been distributed to local chambers of commerce and to individual hunters upon request. To receive a copy of the directory, write to Hunter's Clearinghouse, TDA, P.O. Box 12847, Austin, TX 78711 or call 512/463-7642. A $5 contribution is requested to cover printing and postage costs.

Landowners wishing to list their land in the directory may send the information to the above address throughout the year.

Because limited copies of the 1991 directory are available, TDA is asking the public to update last year's directory by requesting a copy of listings that have been added and removed from the 1990 edition. Hunters interested in leases in a particular part of Texas can obtain exclusive listings from specific regions, including the Panhandle, South/Rolling Plains, West, Central, East, South and the Gulf Coast.

The Parks and Wildlife Department also distributes the Texas Deer Hunting Lease Register, a list of landowners licensed to lease their land specifically for deer hunting. In addition to private leases, Parks and Wildlife provides information on a variety of public hunting areas in Texas. For a copy of the Deer Hunting Lease Register or to list land in the register, write to the Wildlife Division, TPWD, 4200 Smith School Road, Austin, TX 78744, or call 1-800-792-1112 or 512/389-4505.

ise, the idea met with supporters, critics and cynics, just as Senate Bill 111, the legislation authorizing the audits, met with supporters, critics and cynics," Bullock said. "This report should silence the critics and shame the cynics, because it fulfills our goal of setting a bottom line for state government spending."

Bullock said he was pleased the report not only focused on cutting waste, but also included recommendations about reorganizing government to make it more responsive to the needs of Texans.

Bullock commended Comptroller Sharp and the approximately 100 government and private sector auditors who produced the report: "in a limited amount of time, with limited resources and sometimes with limited cooperation, they delivered an outstanding blueprint for better, leaner government."

Bullock said he was certain and cynics would question the Legislature's ability to implement the report's recommendations, but added, "I'm as committed to implementing these recommendations as I was to bringing them about in the first place."

The Legislature will convene in special session July 8 to write a two-year budget for the state.

Baby Bottle Tooth Decay

By taking precautions now, you can give your baby something to smile about for years to come—healthy teeth.

Teeth are susceptible to decay as soon as they appear in the mouth. To protect your child's teeth from the start, you and others who take care of your baby must know about proper bottle-feeding practices. Sucking on a bottle filled with liquids other than water for long periods of time can harm your baby's teeth.

That's because almost any other liquid your child drinks—including milk, formula, fruit juices, soft drinks—contains sugar. The baby who is put to bed with a bottle may not swallow the liquid quickly. Instead, it drips slowly into the child's mouth, sometimes for hours. The sugary liquid collects around the child's upper teeth, where it can dissolve the tooth enamel and cause decay. Decay can occur quickly and cause severe pain. A child's upper front teeth are most likely to be damaged, but others may be decayed as well.

The cost to treat baby bottle tooth decay can be over $2,000. To prevent this condition, follow these preventive measures:

- If your baby needs a bottle at bedtime for comfort, use only plain water. Do not fill the bottle with milk, formula, fruit juice or soft drinks.

- Close to your child's first birthday, begin to wean your child from the bottle. Instead, teach your child to drink directly from a cup.

- After each feeding, gently clean your baby's teeth and gums with a damp washcloth or gauze pad. At about age two, start gently brushing your child's teeth with a toothbrush and small amount of toothpaste at least once a day, preferably just before bedtime.

• Have your baby's teeth examined by a dentist as soon as all your child's 20 baby teeth have appeared. Anytime, however, you notice that your child has dental problems, take the child to the dentist immediately.

HOT WEATHER NOW STRESSING TREES

Trees throughout Eastland County are beginning to show signs of stress. This is the result of the dry late winter and early spring, then extreme wet conditions of late May and early June combined with the extremely hot conditions now. This combination of conditions is resulting in trees developing moisture and heat stress. Leaf scorching is the first sign of this stress people will notice.

The most typical signs of these types of stress in trees is the browning and drying up of the leaf edges. As the condition worsens, the drying area on the leaf will increase until almost the whole leaf is dead. I have seen these symptoms on red oak and pecan trees. Many trees like the cottonwood, will have leaves turning yellow and drop off like it does in the fall.

Moisture stress and heat stress can be reduced by periodically watering to a depth of 6 to 8 inches. This can be accomplished by slow application of

State Tax Expert Will Be in Eastland July 19

The public will have the opportunity on Friday, July 19, to meet one-on-one with a state tax expert in Eastland, when a representative from the State Comptroller's Office visits the Eastland County Courthouse.

"Not everyone can get to Austin or to one of our field offices for tax assistance. So we periodically visit county courthouses as a service to Texas taxpayers," State Comptroller John Sharp said.

Royce Manning, from the Comptroller's Abilene Enforcement Office, will be in Room B10, (Social Security Room) at the courthouse from 10 to 11 a.m.

"We'll be happy to sit down with you and fill out your sales tax return, explain which state taxes apply to your particular business and send you home with useful information," Sharp said.

Eastland area taxpayers who won't be able to meet with Royce Manning can receive individual tax help by calling the Comptroller's statewide, toll-free assistance hotline at 1-800-252-5555.

Or, they can contact the Abilene Enforcement Office at 915/695-4323. The Abilene Enforcement Office serves taxpayers in Brown, Callahan, Coleman, Comanche, Eastland, Erath, Fisher, Haskell, Jones, McCullough, Mills, Mitchell, Nolan, Runnels, San Saba, Scurry, Shackelford, Stephens, Stonewall, Taylor and Throckmorton counties.

Eastland County Law Enforcement Meeting

This month's Eastland County Law Enforcement meeting definitely had its lighter moments this week, but some serious things were discussed as well.

The association's president Judge J.V. Heysler opened the meeting and Rev. John C. Jones, the chaplain, gave the opening prayer.

Sheriff Ronnie White was responsible for the program this month and he introduced Outreach Health Services worker Nancy Clark.

Mrs. Clark is a licensed R.N. and was the D.N. at the Cisco Hospital. She presented two recommendations to the law enforcement officers that will help them in working with the public in emergency situations.

The first was a small white and blue teddy bear called a "care bear" which is supplied by the Kiwanis.

Mrs. Clark encouraged the officers to take a couple of the bears and carry them in their vehicles.

The bears are to be given to children who have been separated from parents or people they know due to an auto accident, house fire, or other tragic situation.

Then Mrs. Clark handed each of us a bright red plastic tube that contained a piece of paper. The tube is called the "Vial of Life" and is designed to be placed in a secure and easy to find location in the home or auto. The paper inside when probably filled out will contain all important information pertaining to the Vial owner's health.

Information concerning medication, heart disease and other illnesses, allergies and much more will be made readily available to emergency personnel in emergency situations where the victim may be left unconscious or unable to answer such important questions.

Clark said the vials and care bears should be available to law enforcement and emergency personnel everywhere and from the response of those present, they agreed and supported her recommendation.

Sheriff's Report

The Eastland County Sheriff's Department reports two new cases. One white male was arrested in Olden on July 1 for his third offense of family violence.

Also on July 1 a case was filed on one white male for illegal dumping of trash from a vehicle in Cisco.

EASTLAND COUNTY 4-H JUNIOR LEADERS HOST FRIENDS FROM WEST TEXAS

By Cathy Thomas
4-H Junior Leader Association

Many people in Eastland County may remember our trip to West Texas the previous summer. In June of 1990, several Eastland County 4-H Junior Leaders had the chance to spend four days near a community called Van Horn, located in Culberson County. During those days, the 4-H'ers from Culberson County entertained us at a genuine 200,000 acre ranch with authentic cowboy tales and cooking and took us to places such as Fort Davis and Carlsbad Caverns. It was a memorable trip for both counties, and this past week, we had the chance to entertain them here in Eastland. It took a great deal of money to host these 4-H'ers, but we had several fund raisers this spring. Without the people that made donations to our car wash, bake sale and dog dip, this past week's experience would not have been possible, and we are very grateful to those people and businesses.

On Tuesday afternoon, June 18th, several suburbanians from West Texas came to a stop at our County Courthouse. For over an hour, our two groups talked excitedly and began getting to know each other. Several faces were familiar, and while we chatted, the Culberson 4-H'ers visited Ol' Rip. Tuesday evening's meal was hosted by two Olden families (Nannette, Fred and Jessica Keith; Vicki, Thomas and Tommy Seay) at the Olden Community Center. Parents of Eastland Junior Leaders also brought food for the occasion. After the Italian meal, Tommy Seay entertained us with his 'cowboy poetry'. Also, Adeline and Georgia from Breckenridge shared various 'tall' tales with our group. We stayed four days at Camp Inspiration, and Tuesday night was spent in the swimming pool.

On Wednesday our two groups were up by six o'clock and at McDonald's for breakfast around seven-thirty. After we ate, we were off to Six Flags in Arlington. This was a special treat because practically no one from Culberson had ever been there before, and by ten Wednesday we were walking through the large gates leading into the park. Janet Thomas and David Tunmire, our County Agents, instructed us to meet back by the carousel at two that afternoon for lunch. At that last note, we were into groups and off to ride the rides. Because it was a weekday, there were very few people in the park. The longest lines were at the Log Ride, the Flashback, and Roaring Rapids. After several rides, we were all flocking to the water rides to get drenched. Time sped, and after our check-in at two o'clock we were once free again in the park. Wednesday was an unforgettable day for us all at Six Flags, and our ten hours there felt only like minutes. It was definitely worth the minor sunburns and many blisters on our feet. At eight that night, we drug ourselves out to the parking lot and into the four vehicles. From there we went to Cheddar's, an excellent restaurant just outside the park, for our long-awaited evening meal. Afterwards, we again piled into the cars. It was an exciting night - especially when we got lost and made four circles around some hotel in its parking lot. Several hours later we drove through Eastland - probably around twelve. Even the beds at Camp Inspiration seemed comfortable after being tossed around on rides all day and then being packed into vehicles for the drive home.

Six o'clock came extremely early Thursday morning; however, we were all up and dressed...well, everyone except for three anonymous guys from Eastland County. Soon, though, we were again eating breakfast at McDonald's. That morning's agenda: Fossil Rim, an enormous wildlife park located in Glen Rose. The animals there were fascinating, and the trip was worthwhile when R. W. Daskevich got attacked by an overly-friendly ostrich. Tanner, a toddler from Culberson whose mother is Crystal Wilbanks, spent most of the time hanging out of the suburban's window enjoying the animals. Also hanging out a suburban window was Jackie Powledge who had to stop and get a picture of EVERY animal we saw. No telling how many pictures he took!!!! Lunch was spent in the visitor's center, and afterward we got the chance to shop in the gift shop and meet quite a few animals at the 'petting pasture'. Several of us purchased tee-shirts which featured endangered animals, and the proceeds went to funds to help them. We definitely learned a lot about various animals - especially that zebras DO bite!

Thursday evening was spent at Albany and the annual Fandangle. Hardly anyone had been there from Eastland, so it was a new experience for us all. The night was filled with gunshot, singing and Dan's laughter. Another thing was new to the Culberson County 4-H'ers - lighting bugs. Jason was talking afterwards about how he couldn't figure out what the blinking lights were that seemed to be floating around us. He was astonished to find out that they were bugs as were many of the Culberson kids. We again returned to Eastland at that night and welcomed sleep. It had been another fun and exhausting day for us all. Early Friday morning we told the Culberson County people goodbye. They hit the road for their eight-hour drive back home while we tried to stay awake long enough to pack out things and head for homes ourselves. It was yet another memorable trip for us all.

Ten Eastland Junior Leaders hosted this trip. They were: Ricky Agnew (Cisco), Arther Christy (Eastland), Barbie Butler (Eastland), R. W. Daskevich (Carbon), Robbi Daskevich (Carbon), Amy Logan (Eastland), Jennifer Jarrell (Eastland), Jackie Powledge (Cisco), Cathy Thomas (Eastland), and Joanna

Tara's Little Hams Will Be in Stephenville July 4

The children squeal with delight as the pigs take center stage in their portable arena. They laugh and applaud as Doyle and Frances Hughes direct the little guys to sit, dance, play piano, walk in patterns through the trainers' legs, go through hoops, 'drive' a toy car, and do a large number of other tricks. One little pig even purses out his lower lip impersonating a monkey at the command of 'let us see your monkey face, Rhett!' Doyle says, 'To our knowledge, this is the only pig in the world who can do this trick on command.'

These are Tara's Little Hams, and they are probably the only entourage of performing miniature potbellied pigs in this part of the country. Frances said she only knows of one other group of performing potbellies, and they live in California. Tara's show is available for children's birthday parties and for other events. Children and adults alike enjoy the little porkers, and Doyle said he would challenge anyone to try to watch Rhett do his 'monkey face' trick and keep a straight face.

The pigs are scheduled to appear for the McKids breakfast at McDonald's in Stephenville on July 2, at 8:30 a.m. and will also be appearing at the Fun Fair in Stephenville on July 4, at 1:30 p.m. on the Small Pavillion Stage.

Tara Farms located north of Desdemona is home to Rhett Butler and Ashley Wilkes, the two primary show pigs. There are other pigs coming up who will probably join the group later as soon as they are trained by the resident 'swineologists', Doyle Wallace (Ranger). We also had five special guests: Diane Butler, Jessica Keith, Tommy Seay, Diane and Nicole Tunmire. We Junior Leaders would like to thank our parents that helped transport and cook, and again our community of Eastland County.

The order of propositions to be placed on the August 10 Election ballot was approved.

Watkins and Thomas provided pertinent information regarding the statutory responsibilities of the County Education District as provided in S.B. 351 as amended by H.B. 2885.

Bids will be solicited for a Bank Depository Contract pursuant to TEC 23.71-23.80.

Expenses of the CED were discussed and possible alternatives considered.

An official request for appraisal rolls from the Eastland County Appraisal District was made.

Component school district superintendents are to gather 1990 tax collection data to be reported to the board at the next meeting.

The meeting adjourned at 9:10 p.m. All meetings of the Eastland County Education District Trustees will be held in accordance with the Open Meetings Act.

and Frances. There are some baby pigs up for adoption at Tara, among which are some females with blaze faces and very broad belting. The Hughes' only deal in registered, high quality stock. Questions they are asked most often are: Can you really housebreak them, how long do they live and what do they eat. The Hughes' say they have been highly successful with housebreaking. The pigs have a surprisingly superior intelligence, and are housebroken by nature. With just a little assistance from the owners, housebreaking is much easier than with a dog. With proper care, the pigs can be expected to live supplemented with fruits, vegetables and occasional treats. Some feed manufacturers make special blends for the miniatures, and porcine residents of Tara all get these balanced rations. Care must be given to limit treats or the pigs will gain too much weight. Rhett and Ashley are over six months old and they each weigh between 35 and 40 pounds. Adults' weights will vary. Normal expectations would be 45 to 70 pounds.

Doyle and Frances would welcome your questions. They can be reached at Tara Farms, (817)758-2662, or you can write them at Route 1, Box 16B, Desdemona, Texas 76445.

GTE Names a New Boys Basketball Southwest Manager Camp at CJC

Dallas - Executive staffing for GTE Telephone Operations, Central Area was announced today by Michael B. Esstman, area president.

Among those announcements was the naming of a new regional vice-president, general manager for the area's Southwest Region, headquartered in San Angelo.

Dennis F. Myers, formerly division president of Contel of Texas, has been named to replace Harry Elam as vice-president, general manager for the Southwest Region.

"We have an excellent mix of quality leadership from both GTE and Contel to lead GTE Central toward achieving our goals and objectives," Esstman said. "As vice-president, general manager of our Southwest Region, Dennis will make a significant contribution as we work together to continue to provide customers in this new 12-state area top quality telecommunication products and services."

Myers was named to his former position with Contel in 1988. Prior to that, he served as president of Contel's New England Division. He also has served as area manager, assistant vice-president, customer services, and director, sales/marketing. Myers also earned a bachelor's degree in business administration from the University of Redlands in California. He has been active in the Texas Telephone Association and in the Richardson (Texas) Chamber of Commerce. He and his family currently reside in Richardson.

Esstman explained that Myers and heads of the other two regions in GTE Central (North Texas/Oklahoma and Midwest) will report to Brad Krall, who has been named to the newly created position of area vice-president, general manager.

Krall currently serves as assistant vice-president, staff operations support for GTE Telephone Operations headquarters in Irving. The area vice president, general manager position was established to help manage the expanded operations of the Central Area. Incorporating states or locations formerly served by GTE Southwest, Contel and portions of GTE North, the new Central Area will provide local exchange service to 2.4 million customer access lines in 12 states. In addition to the three regional vice-presidents, general managers, the position of director, centralized services will also report to Krall.

Esstman also announced the reappointment of a number of current executives within GTE Central who will serve at the area's headquarters in Irving, Texas: Nicholas J. Doria, area vice-president, human resources; W. Scott Hanle, area vice-president, finance; Rex A. Timms, area vice-president, public affairs; Oscar C. Gomez, area vice-president, regulatory and governmental affairs; J. Bruce Cole, area vice-president, sales; William G. Mundy, area vice-president, general counsel and secretary; James A. Spriggs, vice-president, general manager, North Texas/Oklahoma Region and James E. Courtney, director, centralized services.

GTE Central Area was formed earlier this year, effective with the closing of the merger between GTE and Contel, and is one of four operating areas in GTE Telephone Operations. It consists of properties formerly served by GTE Southwest Incorporated, Contel and GTE North.

GTE Central Area serves 2.4 million customer access lines in 12 states: Arizona, Arkansas, Iowa, Kansas, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, New Mexico, North Dakota, Oklahoma, South Dakota and Texas. It is the largest of the four GTE telephone operating areas in terms of land mass and number of states served.
