Miss Pat Madison, Rodeo Queen, rides in parade of Free Fall Fair last week. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Madison of Williams community and is quite active in all rodeo activities as well as popular in social affairs. She was also elected as queen of the American Legion post here.

MARITA WEAVER RIDING "JUJU"—Miss Marita Weaver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Weaver. Runner-up for queen from rodeo. Led parade last week. Freshman in high school. Coronet in band. Fourteen years old. Won third place as queen contestant at Comanche rodeo in the spring. Is quite a contestant in women's barrel race, having won six consecutive times.

Walking Around the Exhibit Booths

By BEULAH KAY HICKS

The center of attraction of the Rising Star Free Fall Fair was located in the market building. It was here that the exhibit booths were set up that exemplified the life of the people in Rising Star. Their interests are truly of the home, church and schools.

Interests in these include interest in cultural living, livable, happy homes, appreciation of home and friends, art, writing, hobbies, fine needlework, books, and many others. Fine horses and cattle.

A happy entrance to the market building was made available by the Barefield Florist display of beautiful plants and floral arrangements. A small electric bubble machine rotated while an electric fan blew bubbles everywhere. Children and grown-ups alike were happily chasing colorful bubbles. The wooden spoons given away at Higginbotham's booth made excellent bubble catchers, balancing the airy bubbles for some time. All the ladies stopping at the booth Friday were given a pink carnation, those passing on Saturday a red one.

Ladies Are Busy.

The P. T. A. concession was to the left of the entrance and emphasized the gay, homey spirit of this wonderful fair. The smell and the sight of all kinds of cakes and pies and icy bottled drinks made one and all hungry. Mrs. Ray Agnew is president of this organization and had it wonderfully organized with all the members helping.

Next to the P. T. A. concession going left was the Gulf booth with Halloween colors and a fine exhibit of Gulf products. Jones Feed and Seed was next with a fine display of Nutrena feed of all kinds, peanut sacks, of coffee, hamburgers, hot dogs, fertilizers, and free booklets on growing all kinds of grasses.

Gifts Awarded.

Higginbothams, gay in red, white and blue, displayed furniture and electric pumps. Everyone who registered was given a wooden spoon and fork. When the reporter came by John Lee and R. C. Moore were posed, sitting on a beautiful ranch style divan. Their smiles were a bit self-conscious.

Mr. A. B. Lee of Plano, past 86, was a visitor at the Homecoming and Free Fall Fair last week. Mr. Lee will be remembered by many of the old timers here. He says the displays this year are among the best he has ever seen here.

Ford Agency Now In Rising Star, Pete Inglet Motor Co.

Pete Inglet has secured a Ford agency for Rising Star and a new car or cars will be on the floor of the building just opposite Cecil Joyce, Pontiac, all the time. Inglet will be associated with his brother, Zed Inglet. These brothers promise the best buys in used cars all the time and will give a service that is surpassed by none. See their line of cars on the ground and also check their prices on trucks, or any other brand of car that you might need.

Most Fires Can Be Prevented If People Would Take Proper Measures in Safety

COLLEGE STATION, Oct. 7.

The week of October 4-10 has been proclaimed by President Eisenhower as Fire Prevention Week in the United States. In his official proclamation he urges all citizens to initiate a year-round campaign in their homes and communities against the needless waste of life and property caused by destructive fires.

E. C. Martin, state agricultural leader for the Texas Extension Service, points out that farm fires last year caused a loss of about $133,000,000 worth of farm property and 3,000 farm people died as the result of fires. Moreover, he adds, approximately 95 percent of these fires were the result of carelessness and neglect. This, says Martin, is a staggering price to pay for something which could be prevented.

Eight primary hazards account for a vast majority of farm fires and Martin lists them as carelessness with matches and smoking; dirty and defective heating equipment; the improper storage and use of gasoline and kerosene; overloaded electrical circuits and operating or attempting to operate improperly installed and defective electrical equipment; sparks on flammable roofs; spontaneous combustion of hay; failure to keep trash and rubbish cleaned up and the lack of or improper installation of lightning.

Martin suggests making a careful check of the home and other buildings on the farm for accident and fire hazards and if any are found, he recommends prompt removal or correction. This is a case, he adds, where an ounce of prevention is worth more than a pound of cure.

RODEO SHOWED FOR LAST TIME THIS YEAR

According to announcement of the officials of the Rising Star Roping Club there will be no other shows this year. Saturday night rained out. The off-day night ended the season. The officer wish to thank all for their splendid patronage and also all of those who helped in so many ways in making the show one of the best in this area.

RAIN TOTALS 5 INCHES

According to the weatherman Rising Star received around 5 inches of rain during the past week. There was no high wind nor down pour. The moisture relieved the drouth condition in this section and many have started planting grain and cover crops. The rain will probably damage some peanuts and hay, otherwise it was blessing.

CHAIRMEN OF FREE FALL FAIR COMMITTEES SAY THANKS TO EVERYONE

For fear that someone would be overlooked, all chairmen of the various committees of the fair wish to thank everyone for their help and cooperation in making this homecoming one of the best ever put on by the community. It would be impossible to say in words what this help has meant. The show was a success in every way and although there was much hard work and long hours by many yet a job well done is worth every effort put forth. There is no town anywhere that can boast of the people all working together for the of all more than Rising Star.

MRS. CARL BOWERS AT HOME FROM HOSPITAL

Mrs. Carl Bowers, who has been quite ill in a Brownwood hospital is at home and convalescing nicely. She has the best wishes of her many friends for a speedy and complete recovery. Mr. and Mrs. Bowers operate the Bowers Market and Grocery.

Miss Barbara Joiner Crowned Queen of Fair by C. Shults, Master of Ceremonies; Parade Mile Long, Crowd of 6,000

Crowds lined the streets for two miles last Thursday afternoon to witness the parade that officially opened the Rising Star Free Fall Fair. The mile long procession formed at the football field and traveled down highway 183 to the market building headquarters for the fair.

At the head of the procession the City of Rising Star float, a beautiful one it was, with pretty girls and that was followed by that famous 60-piece Wildcat band stepping high, wide and handsome to a peppy tune. Then would follow floats and representation in the parade as follows:

Butler Chevrolet, American Legion Post with their inscription, "Lest We Forget", Miss Pat Madison, queen of the post rode a beautiful horse that seemed to understand his mission. Jackson's Hardware, Saturday Club with the tree of knowledge, Ruth-erford & Steel, building materi-

In a spectacular coronation in front of Herrington's Variety Store Miss Barbara Joiner was crowned queen of the Fair by Cecil Shults, master of ceremonies. Her duchesses were Misses Carol Deen, Clara Lou Maynard and Glendine Phillely.

Then too, there was the stick horse and pets that made quite a hit with the crowd. These joined the parade at the Majestic Hotel and marched down to the market building. With a pet crow, parrots, dogs and what have you the pets really gave the folks a real show.

De Leon Bearcats Invade the Wildcat Stadium Friday Night; Game at 8; Cats Trying for Their First Win

Wildcats Beaten By Fast Team From Cross Plains

The Wildcats muffed both chances last Friday night to score against the Cross Plains Buffaloes. On the kickoff the Buffaloes fumbled on their 12-yard line. The Cats recovery drove to the six but was lost on downs. Again in the last quarter when Walker dropped a pass behind the goal line that would have at least tied the score. The TD came minutes later when the Cats recovered a fumble on the 31-yard line and a pass from Moore to John McDonald brought the score to 6 to 12. Walker kicked the goal with Malon Sheffield holding. Final score was Cross Plains, 12, Rising Star, 7.

There were numerous other chances the Cats had to score but fumbles, running over their own interference and failure to help the ball carrier by blocking out C. P. tacklers cost. As one man put it we always outplay the opponent but they make the most scores. It was a good game and the classic that always draw a large crowd.

After the game, exercises down town were spectacular and the kids from C. P. really did strut their stuff.

Half Time Exercises.

Cross Plains did themselves proud when their band and leaders put on one of the most colorful lighting and marching scenes this writer has witnessed in some time. Rendering several musical numbers the fine 87-piece band faced each stand with proper salutes. Then when the lights were put out the scene with the lights on both top and bottom of the players were very interesting. The Wildcat band all dolled up in their new uniforms really looked fine when they marched in perfect precision and rhythm. Several numbers were given and the majorettes and twirlers were better than usual — one young miss had two batons or whatever they are called going at one time. Then to top the whole show Mayor Smith and the city council gave an exhibition of fireworks that will long be remembered by the more than 1,000 fans that looked at the spectacular exhibition. Scenes in the air of Niagara Falls, mystic designs and all sorts of weird and magic stunts in fire ball fashion. It was a great show and the people gave all a big hand.

Back to play in the second half brought more of the same thing seen in the first and second. More fumbles, more chances lost and lack of fire at times by the Wildcats. They played a better game than the score would indicate.

Outstanding on defense was Jimmy Connors and Larry Anderson. Many subs were used. Coach Cowan gave the fans everything in the book. The Buffaloes seemed to be able to get to the ball carriers and on several occasions Rising Star's ball carriers would be slowed down by their own interference. It was a real fine game. Both teams were out to win. While the Cats outplayed the Buffaloes they made the most scores and that's what counts. Here are statistics.

SINGING SUNDAY

In place of our regular monthly singing, the Eastland County Singing Convention will be held in the American Legion Hall Saturday night and Sunday all day. Everyone invited to come take a part. There will be a number of good singers. So come bring your basket lunch and join in the singing.

Lon Roberts of Midland, former citizen of Rising Star was a visitor at the Fair last week. Mr. Roberts has been in the West Texas metropolis for the past 43 years.

Friday night, October 9, at 8, the De Leon Bearcats will invade the Wildcat Stadium for another conference game in District 7-1A. The Cats are lingering in the cellar position and are seeking their first win of the 1953 football season.

The Bearcats are rated as strong contenders for the district title and have a tie game against Eastland, 7 all. The Bearcats defeated Bangs last week 13 to 7 while the Cats were losing to Cross Plains 12-7.

Both teams support strong bands and pep squads and there will be plenty of action when these units of the team go into their yells and stunts.

Rising Star, Wylie and Santa Anna are in the cellar lot.

Probable starting lineup for the Bearcats.

A. T. SHULTS SPILLS MONEY — NEAR RIOT IN TRYING TO RECOVER LOOT

A. T. Shults was carrying a two-gallon glass churn to the First State Bank booth at the market building Thursday, when some say the heat caused the bottom of the jar to wane in and all the money went looking for someone to spend it — but lo and behold, the keen eye of Mr. Shults he yelled a couple of times and before anyone knew what had happened some seven or eight men were raking, scooping and grabbing silver from the street at the side door of the bank. No one knows how much money was in the churn as it was being used in a guessing contest sponsored by the bank — the winner will receive a $25 bond. It was said by one old timer that several were rattling money after the spill but no one would accuse anyone else.

The silver was finally corralled and replaced in another churn the same size — the question is where did Shults find two glass jars just alike.

TWO MORE NAMES ADDED TO QUARTER BACK CLUB

Since the publication of the last report two more interested citizen's names have been added to the roster of the quarterback club that is backing the football team, basket ball and softball in the city. A luncheon will be served to the Kittens this Thursday night at 7:30.

H. McDonald is president and Chas. Tyler, secretary-treasurer of the organization.

Mrs. Florence Graves had her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Clay and sons of Fort Worth last week. Her daughter, Mrs. Ned Peschong of Sacramento, Calif., who has been with her is now visiting in South Texas.

Farm Bureau Week October 5 Thru 10

FARM BUREAU WEEK PROCLAIMED—Gov. Allan Shivers, above, signs a document proclaiming the week, Oct. 5-10, official "Texas Farm Bureau Membership Week." Some 180 organized county Farm Bureaus will observe the "Week" by staging the biggest state-wide membership drive in the history of the state farm organization. More than 10,000 volunteer workers will be out to exceed the goal of 75,000 farm families in 1953. Looking on at the signing are (left to right) Loys D. Barbour of Iowa Park, District 8 director; Alton Weiss of Manor, president of the Travis County (Austin) Farm Bureau; and C. H. DeVaney of Coahoma, vice-president of the Texas Farm Bureau Federation.

Livestock Men Told Most Things Can Be Accomplished Through All Working Together; Officers Elected at Meet

Gov. Allan Shivers has officially proclaimed the week, Oct. 5-10, "Texas Farm Bureau Membership Week."

During that week more than 10,000 volunteer workers in some 180 organized counties will spread out over the countryside contacting individual farmers and ranchers to invite them to join Farm Bureau. The membership goal in Texas this year is 75,000 farm families. At the present, there are more than 53,000 Texas farm families with membership in Farm Bureau, an independent farm organization of, by and for farmers.

On the eve of the gigantic state-wide membership campaign, J. Walter Hammond, president of the state farm organization, stressed the need for a stronger state Farm Bureau in a letter sent to all County Farm Bureau officials in the state.

"The people engaged in farming and ranching have a great responsibility facing them this year," he declared. "This is a year of decision. Farmers must decide what politics we want incorporated into the national farm program, and they must decide who shall speak for farmers. Next year will be a year of action on a national basis, and the voice of Texas farmers

Shucks, You Don't Mean People Going Back to Work Agin?

Publisher H. M. Baggary of The Tullia Herald recently printed a classified on the front page of his publication because, he said, it reversed a trend in the farming methods of his area. Here is his feature:

WANTED—Good Surge milker and some milk cans.—J. H. Adams, Route 1, Tullia.

So unusual is the above classified ad that The Herald believes it contains more news than advertising. Somewhat depressed by falling farm prices and high irrigation costs, Adams this week announced that he is going back to the pre-war method of farming. He is going to raise enough feed for milk cows, sell the sweet cream to customers who call at his farm, and feed the skimmed milk to his hogs.

He also plans to have for sale at his farm fresh eggs, cantaloupes, field corn and fryers. Many agriculturists are of the opinion that Swisher County's EASTLAND, Sept. 25—Boyd Hilley, Gorman Shorthorn breeder, was elected president of the Eastland County Livestock Association at the annual barbecue and business meeting held Thursday night in the Eastland City Park.

More than 350 members, their wives, families and guests attended the event at which A. B. Jolley, retired county agriculture agent of Dallas, was the principal speaker.

Jolley, now agriculture director of the Dallas Times-Herald KRLD radio and television station, told the group that through co-operation on the local level many of the agriculture and livestock ills which prevail in the nation can be solved.

He pointed out that though just such cooperative organizations as the Eastland County Livestock Association much can be done to improve not only the production of livestock but the marketing of it.

They included: Hilley, president; C. M. McCain, Eastland, treasurer; and T. D. Wheat, Eastland, Secretary. The following directors were elected:

M. S. Long, Eastland; A. V. Clark, Cisco; Clyde Grissom, Eastland; Douglas Fry, Cisco; P. T. Smith, Ranger; Ed Harrison, Gorman; Mack Crow, Eastland; B. S. Weekly Sunday School Lesson

FOR OCTOBER 11

By D. R. PHILLEY, Pastor
First Baptist Church, Rising Star
GOD'S DESIGN FOR NEW MAN

Read: Jer. 31:31-34; Matt. 5:1-10; Mark 7:20-23; John 3:3-5; 1 Peter 1:13-23; Golden Text — Ezekiel 36:27. Printed lesson. Jer. 31:31-34; 1 Peter 1:13, 16, 22, 23.

The Heart of the Lesson.

God had a design for man before the foundation of the world (Eph. 1:4) The entrance of sin, not unforeseen by God, has delayed its accomplishment but by no means frustrated it. To a certain extent that design is being fulfilled today in those who believe, although its complete fulfillment awaits a future day.

1. A NEW RELATIONSHIP (Jer. 31:31-34. The Epistle to the Hebrews (8:8-13) points out that the establishment of the New Covenant has been made possible through Christ's death on the Cross. It should be clearly noticed that this covenant expresses God's future relationship with Israel. He made the covenant of the law with them thru Moses in which He demanded perfect obedience to His Law. Only on the fulfillment of this condition would its blessing follow. The failure of Israel is too well known to require any explanation.

It should also be noticed that the Covenant of the Law could never annul the Covenant of Grace which God had made with Abraham long before the Law was given (Gal. 3:15).

The New Covenant has a specific relation to Israel, and will be in effect during the time of the Millennial Kingdom of Christ. Meanwhile, on the basis of the shed Blood of Jesus Christ every believer even now enters into all the spiritual blessings of the New Covenant, even though he is a Gentile by nature, and a stranger to the Covenants of promise. (Eph. 2:11-12). God's Spirit within us now enables us to be obedient to His will.

We are saved by Grace, we are made a new creation in Christ Jesus, that we might show forth good works, which God has before ordained that we should walk in them (Eph. 2:8-10).

2. A NEW RESPONSIBILITY (1 Peter 1:13-16). Let no man say that since we are saved by Grace nothing is required of us in the Christian life. True, our works do not save us nor keep us saved, but we are under a definite obligation to render obedience to Him who saved us (Rom. 6:1-4) No Christian has any right to do "as he pleases" because he has been saved by grace.

We are under the responsibility of HOPE. (1 Peter 1:3) That is definitely related to the subject with which we are dealing, for it is the HOPE of the "Return of the Lord". (1 John 3:3)

Wherever this HOPE grows dim it is very easy to become defiled by the desires of the flesh and the mind. When this HOPE is strong in us it will lead us to do our work in such a way that we will not need to be ashamed of it when the Lord comes.

HOPE puts us under the responsibility of obedience (1 Peter 1:14) Down through the centuries of human history God has looked for men who would fully obey him. If we are true Christians and really love the Lord Jesus, WE WILL OBEY HIM. (1 John 2:4).

HOPE and obedience are to lead us into a life of holiness (1 Peter 1:15-16). The realization and admission that no man was ever perfect, save the Lord Himself, has a tendency to cause us to forget the standard of holiness God sets before us. It should be our supreme desire to walk in holiness every day in the midst of an evil world, may it should be considered a definite responsibility.

3. A NEW RECOGNITION (1 Peter 1:22-23). It is a recognition based upon a new relationship which is to eventuate in love, for it is to be practiced by those who "have purified" their souls. God expects us to recognize as "brethren" those who have obtained "like precious faith with us through the righteousness of God and our Saviour Jesus Christ" (2 Peter 1:1) There is a sense in which all men are brethren, for we are all the descendants of the same pair of parents. But spiritually only those who have believed on the Lord Jesus Christ are members of the family of God. If we then are brethren in Christ Jesus, should we not LOVE one another? Please read (1 John, 3:14-16).

This recognition is based upon the common experience of the New Birth (1 Peter 1:23) We need to recognize the fact that we have been born again, and so have all those who have believed upon Christ Jesus to the saving of their soul. It is a Spiritual birth accomplished by the Word and the Spirit of God. And as the Seed of which we are born is eternal, so will be also the lives that grow from it.

These things represent an outline of God's design for us. To what extent is it being realized in our lives? For a further study of this lesson, we invite you to attend the Sunday School of First Baptist Church, 9:45 A. M.

Petersburg, Texas

Enclosed you will find check to cover my renewal subscription to the Rising Star Record. I look forward to it each week with news from home.

Sorry we are missing the fair there this week end. It will be a big success, I feel sure. Mother, Mrs. Olice Jones, has kept me posted on developments as well as the Record.

My husband and I are both teaching in Saint Jo this year. We are staying busy as is everyone.

Thank you for your renewal notice and will be looking for the Record each week.

Sincerely,
Gloria Jones Phillips

Dear Editor:

Enclosed is $2 for my paper another year. Would have sent it sooner but kept thinking I would get to attend the fair. Can't make it so am sending the price of the paper for another year as we can't do without our hometown news. I was reared in Rising Star and have many friends there. It is like getting a letter when we get the Record each week.

Mrs. H. F. Falls

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Balding of Mansfield were guests of her mother, Mrs. H. J. Hill during the week of the fair. Mr. Balding came in and renewed his subscription to the Record.

A CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to extend our sincere appreciation to our many friends who were so kind and thoughtful during the illness and death of our loved one. We especially wish to thank the churches for the words of prayers that were offered in behalf of our loved one, and the ladies that served the meals. We are also appreciative of the many flowers and cards sent. May God bless each of you.

The J. R. Hill family.

SIPE SPRINGS MAN SAYS FAIR WAS OKAY

Jas. W. Armstrong, well known Sipe Springs farmer and rancher, dropped by the Record office last Saturday to renew his paper for another year and remarked the Free Fall Fair was okay and would have been a lot better but so many people were so busy with their work that it was impossible to bring in all the exhibits to the fair that ordinarily would have been. Armstrong said a rain now would sprout the old peanuts and help the grain. But he said we will take whatever comes our way and be thankful.

THE FALL SEASON IS HERE AGAIN . . .

. . . and there are some indications that business conditions will improve after a decline for several months. If business picks up there is sure to be a revival in real estate trading and leasing and now would be a good time to get the abstract ready for any emergency. Many good trades are lost because the landowner waits until the last minute to have his abstract brought to date. Place your order now and be ready!

PIONEER NEWS

By A. O. (Slim) Harris

E. O. (Coot) Walker of Lorraine, E. B. Walker of Big Spring visited with A. O. Harris while en route to visit their brother, John Walker in Rising Star.

The week end visitors at the W. R. Gibson home over the week end were Sterling Gibson and family of Sundown, Mr. and Mrs. Gene O'Donnell of Waxahachie, and William Gibson and family of San Antonio who left early this week on a hunting trip in Nebraska and Colorado for a few days.

Billy Freeman had a narrow escape from injury last week as the pickup which he was driving toward Cross Plains overturned stopping on its wheels right side up.

E. L. Gardener suffered an injury to his right hand at the new Methodist church in the north part of Cross Plains last Saturday morning when he was removing some lumber which had been used as staging for raising the rafters. Received a severe cut across the cushion part of the thumb that required a few stitches to close the wound. A portion of the hand was badly bruised.

Rev. Quint Farley and family were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Gray last Sunday.

The granpas and granmas of Pioneer received news last week that the stork had brought a daughter to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Haslum of Phoenix, Ariz.; Mr. and Mrs. Delma Dean are the grandparents; and also a son arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Pancake of Fort Riley, Kans. Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Pancake all are reported to be doing nicely.

Mrs. Edna Kelly of Hamby is here visiting with her brother, E. L. Teston and family.

Some of the folks here have had a few rheumatic aches in their bones during the past week and some were gambling with the weatherman, as they began taking up their peanuts. Others with a bunch of hay on the ground ready for the hay press, and a good portion of the cotton crop well opened, well the weatherman slowed all these harvest operations when he turned on a rainstorm here last Saturday night that was gauged at a good five inches late Sunday. Peanuts and hay are the only crops that were damaged to any extent as the rain fell very slow with no heavy downpour but was steady all night.

Well, you boys from the Bronx (the Yanks), I think you are to give your centerfielder Mickey Mantle a lot of credit for putting the series win on the ice with his slugging at the proper time that made it possible for Casey Stengel to walk away with the fifth World Series which I know must require a new hat of greater size, and too don't forget Billy Martin with his help at a time when it really counted, and Chuck Dressen's pinch-hitting boy, Shotgun Shuba, who laid one over the outfield wall.

Visitors in the J. W. Foster home last week were Mrs. J. C. Brooks of Guymer, Okla., former residents of this community; Albert, Poince's daughter and mother of Brownwood; Mrs. L. C. Cash of Baird; Mrs. W. B. David and daughter, Vickie Lee of Fort Worth; Mrs. J. H. Day and children of Atlanta, Ga.

MAY NEWS

By Mrs. Luther Cobb

The long drouth has been broken in our community at last. On last Saturday night we received 5 1/2 inches and through Sunday it continued to rain occasional showers. In all six inches or more, and was a wonderful rain.

In spite of the rain we had good services in the different churches. Dr. Todd of Brownwood, Bible teacher in H. P. C. brought both messages in Calvary Church in the absence of the pastor, and visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Underwood.

Reports from Mrs. R. T. Willett, who underwent surgery in the Rising Star hospital last Friday are that she is doing fair. We pray that she may soon be well and back home with her family and back into her church home where she is missed and needed.

Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Witten of Colorado City came through May Friday going to visit relatives in the Zephyr community. Our sister-in-law, Mrs. M. H. Sanders came with them and stopped by to visit with us, returning home Sunday afternoon.

Albert Lancaster and son, Ray, went out into the Plainview area and purchased a cotton stripper. They have some 75 or 80 acres of cotton to gather. They spent the night with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Woods, who live near Plainview. They report fine crops out there and an enjoyable visit with the Woods.

Mrs. J. C. Richie had a letter from her son, James Galloway from Germany saying he would be sailing for home in time for Christmas, and would stay in the states.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Burkett of Lamesa spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Lancaster.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Woods of Plainview are visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Glenn and other relatives.

Rev. Eubanks of Brownwood will preach at the Church of Christ each second Sunday. Everyone welcome to come hear him.

Mrs. Elmer Killion, Mrs. Floyd Killion and Mrs. Grace Keng, attended the W. M. U. day of instruction at First Baptist church Brownwood Monday.

Quite a number of May folks attended the Fair at Rising Star and report a good time.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Killion spent the week end with their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Norvell Killion of San Antonio.

Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Rives and children spent the week end at Floresville, Tex. where he was invited to take part in the dedication of the Baptist church there.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Jack Cobb of Brownwood visited with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Crickett Cobb and family Sunday afternoon.

Visiting recently with Mr. and Mrs. Sam Bibby, was their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Wilson of Odessa.

Mrs. Meryl Franklin, Mrs. Ray Lancaster and Mrs. J. W. Gifford visited recently with Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Jones, formerly of May, but now living at Clyde. They had an enjoyable day.

The Jones are liking their new home fine, but we still miss them here.

The women of the First Baptist Church with the women of the Methodist Church packed boxes of goodies for our soldiers overseas.

Peanut Crop Is Looking Good in This And Surrounding Counties; Pecans Are Showing Increase, Prices May Be Lower

RANGER Oct. 1. —Eastland County peanut raisers and other goober producers will do as well financially on this year's crop as they have in past years.

That was the opinion expressed Saturday in Fort Worth of several shellers who have completed a tour of the peanut-producing areas of the state. They report an unusually fine crop grown with an unusually low labor cost.

This year's crop nationally will make some 1,376,985,000 pounds, only a little more than last year's unusually low output. But the low crop this year results from small acreage, and the yield per acre especially in Texas, is running high.

Reports from Eastland, Parker and Brown Counties indicate that lack of rain in the early growing season made it possible for many farmers to come through with only one hoeing. Erath County had a similar experience, but to a lesser extent, it was reported.

The peanut crop is supported this year by the Commodity Credit Corporation at $230 a ton, basis 70 per cent sound meat, and farmers can borrow $220 a ton on it. This is $2 less than last year, but adequate in view of the sharply reduced labor cost surveys indicated.

Moreover, in the last two weeks, excellent rains have served to strengthen the crop.

Shellers expect to pay around the government support price. The practice is for many shellers to buy in Eastland, Parker, Brown and Erath Counties by carloads shipped to Fort Worth, where peanuts are shelled and the resulting shelled nuts are sold to butter makers, candy makers, salters and confectioners.

The market for shelled peanuts is just beginning to be established. Sales opened in San Antonio some two weeks ago at 22c a pound for the new crop, and there were reports that buyers were snapping up offerings this week at 22 1/2c. But some shellers already are offering September, October and November deliveries at 19 1/2c. Others prefer not to deal in futures, but sell as they receive cars. Normally, the market declines from the mid-August top, but there was some doubt as to how low it will go this year.

Only the South Texas crop has begun to come on the market thus far. East Texas farmers, who planted in April, will be digging next week and for the next several weeks. In Parker and Eastland counties, large-scale planting did not get under way until May and in some cases June, and farmers in that area will be digging right into November.

The pecan market is a different story. For one thing, this year's crop will run far ahead of last year. The Department of Agriculture figure is 178,354,000 pounds against 123,638,000 last year. Although the crop isn't coming in yet, and won't run heavy until November and December, shellers already are attempting to make guesses on prices.

Last year, pecans sold at 20c to 21c a pound, basis seedlings, with paper-shells and other grades drawing standard premiums. Some have predicted this year's crop may sell as low as 10c, but others talk a livelihood of around 16c to 17c. The latter hold that picking labor would cost so much as to make it unprofitable to pick at prices even close to 10c.

LA JUAN JENKINS BECOMES BRIDE OF LAVELL KILLION

Mr. and Mrs. Lavell Killion are back from their honeymoon trip to New Mexico following their wedding Sept. 19th at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Killion.

Mrs. Killion is the former La Juan Jenkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Jenkins of Rising Star, and Mr. Killion is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Killion of May.

Rev. J. W. Rives, pastor of May Calvary Baptist Church, officiated at the double ring ceremony. The ceremony was read by candle light before an altar of fern, oleanders, queen's wreath and pink roses.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Murry served as best man and maid of honor. The candles were lighted by Betty and Shirley Jenkins, sisters of the bride.

Music "Because", "I Love You" and the traditional wedding march was directed by Mr. Troy Berry, son-in-law of the groom.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, D. L. Phillips of Penwell, Tex.

Her gown was waltz-length navy blue nylon, with a net bodice and a full gathered skirt. Her fingertip, baby pink, illusion veil was attached to a navy blue velvet cupid headress. She carried a bouquet of pink rosebuds, surrounded by lacey fern.

The reception followed in the home of the groom's parents. Mrs. Troy Berry presided at the guest book and Mrs. J. D. Jenkins, mother of the bride, and Mrs. D. L. Phillips, aunt of the bride, served.

Guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Troy Berry and sons, Miss Jennie Sue McBride, Miss Martha McBride, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. McMurry and daughters, Shirley and Betty Jenkins, and Shirley McMurry.

NATIVE TEXAN FROM HOOSIER STATE VISITS HOMECOMING CELEBRATION

Sure, I am glad to be home for a few days said Mrs. Doyle F. Beard of Sheridan, Ind. I am a Hoosier by marriage now but I always enjoy coming back to Texas for a visit. She was accompanied by her son, Daniel. They visited in the home of Mrs. Clara Cain, who is the step-mother of Mrs. Beard.

Mr. and Mrs. Beard have traveled quite a bit and tell of many experiences they have encountered in the West. My husband and I have lived in the same house in Sheridan for 23 years, his father and mother and their father and mother before us so you can see we are really settled in Indiana.

NORTH STAR REPORT

Mrs. J. C. Hudson, Reporter

Mrs. Mildred Crow, County H. D. Agent, conducted a four-day furniture refinishing workshop in the North Star Club House, starting at 10 A. M., Tuesday, Sept. 22, and ending Friday, Sept. 25.

Representatives from four neighboring clubs attending, each visitor bringing a piece of furniture to be refinished, also a sack lunch, so no time would be lost in preparing the noon meal.

Process: The old finish was removed from each article to be revamped, by following the directions found on the can of paint and varnish remover, then sand papered to a satiny smoothness, before the final coats of stain, shellac and wax were applied, according to preference.

Through a lot of hard work and determination, a dozen lovely pieces were refinished, some of which were on display at the fair.

Those attending the workshop from Pleasant Hill H. D. Club were: Mmes. Leonard Hale, A. C. Morton, Bernard Campbell, and Ola Boles.

Mrs. Jimmie Fridge represented the Pioneer H. D. Club. Mmes. G. G. Crowell, Lela Ham, and Miss Vera McBeth, came from the Union Center H. D. Club.

Representing North H. D. Club were: Mmes. R. G. Merrell, Lee Burkhead, J. T. Alford, Henry Gregg, Claud Harris, and Dora Eberhart.

George Washington had a step-daughter named Nellie Custis.

RISING STAR ART DISPLAY IS GREATLY ADMIRIED BY CROWDS

The Art display hung in the show room of the Roach Motor Co. was admired by huge crowds all three days of the fair.

Mrs. W. E. Tyler was in charge as she has been every year the fair has been shown. Although she is not actively painting, she has painted all the pictures for her home.

The judges were Troy Caraway and Mrs. Allen D. Dabney of Eastland. Mr. Caraway is supervisor of art in the Abilene elementary schools in Abilene. A number of his paintings were on display in the art show. His widely noted picture, "Ivy" was one to be displayed and won first in the state at Houston in 1947. He has won the reputation of being a real artist and his pictures are in demand everywhere.

Mrs. Dabney is an artist for her own pleasure. She paints in oils and water colors. She also paints china.

She was art supervisor in Eastland art schools for a number of years.

Judge and Mrs. Dabney moved to Rising Star in 1905 when he finished his law schooling. They resided here three years until he was elected prosecuting attorney and moved to Eastland. They enjoyed the Saturday parade and seeing many old friends.

The art awards in original scenes in oil are as follows: Mrs. Eula Goss, 1st place for a spring scene. Second and third place went to Mrs. B. W. Merrill for a spring and Eastland county scene.

In still life in oils the awards went to Mrs. Bob Shults for 1st and 3rd places. Mrs. Ida McNeil took second place.

Adult copies in oil were given to Mrs. Ida McNeil of Cross Plains, first place. Second to Mrs. Alice Graves and third to Margaret Kennedy.

In water colors the first and third place went to Beyrl Heath and second to Mrs. B. W. Merrill.

Children's copies in oil the first and second places went to Bill Rutherford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Rutherford. The third went to Linda Koonce, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jay Koonce.

Rising Star is indeed proud of all the artist in our twinkling city. There are many other artists who did not display their work.

Two Dallas artists, Jack Smith and Mr. Cannon were enjoying and studying the pictures. They pronounced them all unusually good.

LADIES RETURN FROM GALVESTON T. H. D. A. MEET - NEW IDEAS

Those attending the Texas Home Demonstration Association 27th Annual meet in Galveston were Mesdames Ed Kennedy, Buck Maples and J. B. Caudle.

Mrs. Kennedy represented the North Star H. D. Club and Mrs. Caudle the Amity H. D. Club.

This was a three-day meeting, Oct. 1-2-3. Mrs. Kennedy drove her car and took two ladies, one from Bangs and another from Zephyr.

There were 800 women in attendance from all over the state. The theme of this meeting was, "Home - The Cornerstone of Freedom." The study was grouped into four subjects, legislative, marketing, recreation and education and for this year they added the study of First Aid.

The meet took place in the Marine Room on the Pleasure Pier.

The ladies not only learned up-to-date homemaking but how the work is now being carried into foreign countries. Miss Nena Hogan had just returned from Bolivia and brought a native woman with her. The entire meet was educational and also a lot of fun.

SWEET POTATO VINES IN FULL BLOOM

Not many of the old timers have ever seen sweet potato vines in bloom - yet now and then you will see this. Mrs. Wayne Teague brought by the Record office a sweet potato vine that has a number of blooms. The plant has been placed in a jar at the Record office and can be seen.

Mr. and Mrs. Teague have a small patch in the south part of town and plenty of potatoes are on the vines. They bought the cutting and put them out in the spring.

Fried chicken is expected on the summer menu, frequently and in generous quantities. Hot or cold, it is always good eating. Try this favorite home-style method soon.

Home-Style Fried Chicken
1 frying chicken (2½ to 3 pounds)
1 cup flour
1 teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
1 cup Mazola Cooking Oil

Have butcher cut frying chicken into serving pieces. Wash; drain. Put flour, salt and pepper in paper bag. Place chicken in bag and shake well to coat each piece of chicken with seasoned flour. Heat cooking oil in heavy skillet, over medium heat for about 3 minutes (oil should be ¼ inch deep in pan). With fork, carefully place chicken into hot cooking oil. (The use of two pans will greatly simplify the cooking.) Fry, turning frequently, until tender and well browned, 15 to 20 minutes. Remove chicken; drain on absorbent paper. If chicken is larger, cover after browning and allow to cook slowly until tender. Makes 4 servings.

For a deeper browning, mix 1 teaspoon paprika with ¼ cup bread crumbs. Then, after coating chicken in flour, dip in milk, then in bread crumbs. Proceed as directed above.

M. G. JOYCES HAVE FAMILY DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Joyce had as their week end guests their daughter, Mrs. Alynne Siekman and son, Bob of Pyote. Their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Jackson and several other relatives joined them at a family dinner Sunday. Mrs. Siekman is a teacher in the Pyote schools.

PET PARADE STEALS SHOW AT THE FAIR

Beautiful girls and beautiful floats, all causing oh's and ah's but the pet parade touched the heart of everyone. A child and its pet.

The float was beautifully decorated and had cages of talking parrots, rabbits and other birds as well as ducks and doves from Old Mexico.

The little misses, so daintily dressed in ballerina dresses in pastel colors, presided over the float. They were Paula Ann Pinkard, Sherry Jones, Sharon Starks and dog, Mitzie Kay, also dressed in Ballet costume.

There were so many children with dogs, even a friendly little Mexican dog, rabbits, ducks, ponies, etc. One pet escaped the parade by being plain ornerly. It was Henry, the crow, owned by Gerald Green. He screamed, bit hunk out of people and clawed with long claws. He was sent home where he sat on a limb and ribbed the rest of the pets for being sissy.

Peter Rabbit, led on a leash, got tired and went on a sit-down strike, and had to be carried. He wanted to ride with his mother, Frisky, on the truck.

The names of various dogs were amusing and also expressive of the love the youngsters hold for their pets.

Chigger, Boots, Joe (he and his little master were dressed as clowns), Penny, Trixie, Jughead, Pal, Bullet, Pedro, Frisky, Mitzi-Poo Candy, Shortie, Kelly, Tincie, Martini and others.

The children were happy, surrounded by the Stick Horse brigade. The parents were frantic, trying to keep order in the melee. The reporter among them had a lot of fun at the expense of both children and parents.

Gorman Man Wins $25 Bond Offered by Bank

That fellow up at Gorman must have had lots of experience in guessing - and especially guessing at how much money was in a jar in the bank booth at the fair. He missed the mark 19 cents - some record if you ask us.

Mr. Jas. C. Lewis of Gorman dropped in at the market building and saw the large 2-gallon jar partly filled with silver. He read the sign that informed him if he could get the closest to the amount in the jar a $25 U. S. bond would be his. He backed off - took a couple of squints at the jar and wrote down $449.19. The jar contained $449.00. He got what the little boy shot at.

One man guessed $12,000.00 while another thought the jar contained $79.09. Nine hundred and 32 souls tried for the jackpot. Some are trying to get the bank to pull the stunt again.

MR. AND MRS. E. C. DUNCAN ARE HONORED ON 50TH ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Duncan of Cisco celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on September 23. The celebration was highlighted by open house held on Sunday, Sept. 20 at the home on the Rising Star highway where the couple has lived for the past 23 years.

Some 160 visitors registered during the afternoon and many others sent gifts. The guests were served golden cake and punch. The cake, complete with bride and groom and attractively decorated in the golden wedding theme, was baked by Mrs. W. C. Clements.

Mr. and Mrs. Duncan were married in Rising Star on September 23, 1903, by the Rev. Blanton, Presbyterian minister who was a personal friend of Mr. Duncan. Both Mr. and Mrs. Duncan are natives of Eastland County.

AMITY GROUP ATTEND STATE RECREATION IN BROWNWOOD

The group from Amity attending the State Recreation School in Brownwood September 10-11-12 was made up of Martha and Mary Haynes, Mrs. S. N. Haynes, Mrs. Johnny Cook, Jerry and J. C. Cook, Susie Cook, Mrs. Rance Moore, Virginia and Jessie Alice Moore.

The group enjoyed the instruction on how, when and why to play, under Miss Moore, State Instructor of Extension Service. They also enjoyed unique social affairs.

These people, old and young alike are learning the value of play and the truth in the old adage, "All Work and No Play Makes Jack a Dull Boy."

Central Texas Turkey Growers Hold Barbecue at Eastland Tuesday Night

More than 300 turkey raisers and their guests attended a barbecue at the Eastland city park Tuesday night where speakers told of the progress being made through organized effort, funds being used to advertise in the "eat more turkey" campaign and of other gains during the past several years.

Geo. Draper of A. & M. College was introduced. The principal speaker of the evening was Geo. McCarthy, noted turkey specialist who told of the many improvements in the industry and also invited all raisers to join with the 213 members of the Texas association in an effort to improve the lot of all.

The night was cool but the Hired Hands and the Star Light Sisters entertained the crowd with such tunes as "Turkey in the Straw" and other old time tunes. Everyone seemed to enjoy the occasion immensely.

Dr. Ben H. Bradley, president of the group was master of ceremonies. Ben Wilson, vice president of Clyde introduced a group of dealers and processors. Morris Newman of Ranger prepared the turkey and it was delicious. All one could eat with all the trimmings that go with a barbecue.

Joe B. Scott of Abilene won the free turkey that was given by drawing names from a hat. Some 31 people from the Rising Star area attended.

SOIL NOTES

Farmers and ranchers of the Brown-Mills Soil Conservation District are showing wide interest in Blue Panic grass for a perennial summer supplemental grazing crop.

A. S. Ford, who lives near Gravity, says, "It's the only grass I've ever planted that my wife hasn't made fun of. The thing I like about it, you don't have to wait a couple of years before you ever see it. I planted a little corner of my field that was good land but rather hard to get to for crops to see what Blue Panic would do. I planted this patch on May 4, and in about two weeks it was up enough that you could see it from one end of the row to the other. I plowed the patch twice, and on July 25 I turned in 125 sheep, hoping to get some of the weeds out. The sheep took the grass first and then the weeds. I left the sheep on the three-fourths acre for two days, along with family milk cow. I pulled the stock off then in hopes of making some seed. By August 15, I was gathering seed. Since I had a small patch, I thought I would hand strip the seed. This seed crop was made with no rain after the grazing. Then the rains gave it a boost, and I stripped about 10 pounds of seed.

"In my garden, I have a row of Blue Panic and a row of Buffel grass. The Blue Panic has been making seed right along, but the Buffel hasn't produced enough seed to gather. I don't know if this will hold true all over the district, but Buffel hasn't made the growth that Blue Panic has on my place. "The one thing I found out about seeding Blue Panic is not to be in a hurry to plant it. Wait until at least April 20th. By then, the ground has warmed up, and the seed will come up as soon as it gets enough moisture.

"Lots of people have stopped by to look at my grass. It is on the highway and people wonder what it is. I plan to plant at least 10 acres next year. I have several old fields that I have been building up with vetch and clover that I want to get back to producing grass."

WILLIAMS 4-H CLUB NEWS

September 24th was our first meeting this year. Mrs. Velma Slaughter, county agent, and Mrs. Frank Madison, were present. We have 13 members this year. At the first meeting we saw some slides of 4-H encampment. And some of pictures of bedroom improvement.

We got letters from the county 4-H discussing plans for the fair. The round trip bus fair is $3.30. The 4-H girls and boys get lunch free. Several from Williams are going and we know it will be fun.

Part of us went to 4-H camp this summer. It's a lot of fun and learning for you. Vada Beck is reporter for the Brownwood paper, so, be sure and read her column.

We are going to learn more about baking breads this year. Also we intend to learn more about shrubs, sewing, and many other things.

We learn a lot in 4-H always making plans for trips and etc. Learning more about our country and get acquainted with more people.

This completes this week's news.—Reporter, Betty Chambers

HIGGINBOTHAM'S

History of First Baptist Church

Compiled, Written and Delivered by A. P. Smith
Edited and Arranged by Leon R. Smith, Jr.

The following preachers have been ordained by the church since it was organized: S. S. Hull, David Lendly, I. D. Hull, A. J. Leach, O. J. Hull, Dean Elkins, Harry Hames and Roy Haynes. It is interesting and unusual, to notice that this list includes three generations of preachers from the same family, namely, S. S. Hull, I. D. Hull, and O. J. Hull.

The following is a list of some of the deacons this church has organized since:

Ladson Leach, James Roach, S. L. Hull, J. J. Rushing, J. W. Williams, James Gaston, S. D. Ervin, J. J. Hodnett, O. J. Hull, A. L. McDonald, A. D. Tyler, J. P. Bishop, M. B. Nix, J. M. Roach, E. R. Patterson, E. C. Lane, F. W. Roberts, J. Walter Smith, R. F. Siekman, A. A. White, Oral Davis, A. P. Smith, C. A. Crownover, Eugene Stanfield.

The following are the names of some who have served this church as church clerk since its organization: Litton Leach, S. L. Hull, W. F. Irby, E. O. Reid, O. J. Hull, S. J. White, W. H. Gorman, E. E. Bryant, C. A. Crownover, Mrs. J. R. Bucy, W. W. Barnes, Burette Gray, F. J. Maynard, Burt Karkalitis, A. P. Smith, Rufus Pierce, Eugene Stanfield.

The following is the names of some who have served this church as church treasurer since organized: Wm. Koonce, Wiley Daniel, F. W. Roberts, D. E. Jones, C. S. McNeely, Walter Smith and A. N. Snearly.

Brother Snearly has served the church as treasurer for the past 16 years. His records show that at the beginning of his service as treasurer in 1937, the church's annual income was $1,994.24 as compared to the church's present income of $9,368.78.

This is an incomplete list of the names of those who have served as presidents of the Ladies Aid, the W. M. S., and the W. M. U. since organization:

Mrs. D. E. Jones, Mrs. Wiley Daniel, Mrs. M. C. Bishop, Mrs. M. G. Joyce, Mrs. A. L. McDonald, Mrs. J. R. Bucy, Mrs. R. Neil Greer, Mrs. A. P. Conway, Mrs. D. F. Brandel, Mrs. B. H.

Bryant, Mrs. C. S. McNeely, Mrs. Joe Small, Mrs. R. F. Siekman, Mrs. W. B. Pringle, Mrs. Sam D. Taylor, and Mrs. Lee Clark.

The following names are of Sunday School Superintendents who have served the church since it was organized: A. L. McDonald, Wm. Koonce, E. R. Patterson, F. J. Maynard, and F. W. Roberts. Brother F. W. Roberts has an unusual and outstanding record. He has served the church in the capacity of Sunday School Superintendent for 35 years. This is almost one-half the existence of the church.

The following are some of the Secretaries of the Sunday School who have served the church through the years. A complete list could not be had: Mrs. A. T. Shults, J. Walter Smith, E. E. Bryant, Tilman Bryant, C. S. McNeely, C. E. Williams, Burt Karkalitis and C. A. Crownover.

The following is a list of some of the choir directors who have served the church since it was organized:

I. D. Hull, Jno. Stogton, L. F. Harris, John Hancock, Charley Stephens, E. C. Lane, Wm. Koonce, A. G. Hardin, M. G. Joyce, Gennor Cason, E. E. Bryant, Felton Underwood, F. J. Maynard, C. W. Lawson, Truett Jones, Mrs. Clyde Howard, Mrs. Van O. Martin, and Lane Wells.

The following is an incomplete list of the organists and pianists who have served the church in the years that have passed:

Miss Ola Armstrong, Mrs. A. L. McDonald, Mrs. M. G. Joyce, Mrs. May Wells, Mrs. Ella Wells, Miss Flora Jones, Mrs. Virgil Bowers, Mrs. R. F. Siekman, Mrs. Ed Witt, Miss Pauline Roberts, Mrs. Harold Walker, Mrs. James Turner, and Miss Glendene Phillee, present pianist.

Mrs. J. M. Roach, and Mrs. W. P. Smith hold the outstanding records of having belonged to this church for the longest number of years, almost 70 years of continued membership without a break. Mrs. J. M. Roach, without question, holds the record for having attended more services than any other individual during the church's history.

Aunt Kate Jones is another worthy and honored member. She deserves much for the faithful service she has rendered the church. She led the Sun Beams for a number of years. It was through her efforts that the first baptistry painting was secured. There are many others that could be mentioned for their outstanding services rendered the church, but time and space will not permit.

As we meet here today to enjoy with one another this first Homecoming of the First Baptist Church of Rising Star, Texas, we can not but note with pride and a prayer of thanksgiving the history of this church as we look back to the year of 1882. For it was in this year that we find a new church organized with 13 faithful members in a small borrowed school house in a lonely woodland spot. We now see that same church today, after 71 years of growth and progress, with 600 members and this beautiful auditorium, well furnished and modern in every way. And instead of a lonely woodland clearing, a choice site on North Main St. in the progressive little city of Rising Star.

The records show that this Baptist Church has always been evangelistic in every effort, and has consequently had a large number of conversions and baptisms. This has made it a growing church. The church has all the while been missionary in both theory and practice. She has helped to maintain all interest promoted by the denomination.

Under God, the prayers of the church are that the principles of Christianity may always be kept on the highest plane in this church, always exalting Christ in everything done and said.

HOWARD PAYNE AND TEXAS LUTHERAN COLLEGE PLAY AT B-WOOD, OCTOBER 10

Another good ball game is promised at Brownwood next Saturday night when the Howard Payne Yellow Jackets tangle with the Texas Lutheran College. Game time is 8 at Brownwood High stadium. Several from Rising Star will see the game.

Miss Barbara Phillee, student at Mary Hardin College at Belton came home for the Free Fall Fair and homecoming. She went back to school on Monday.

Next was the Reed Implement displaying a good-sized toy Case tractor. All shiny new that attracted the grownups as well as the youngsters. Mrs. Reed presided most of the time and signed up 3,000 on special printed cards for the gift. Tony Geye, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Geye, was awarded this toy. They were present to receive this wonderful gift.

Clinton Crisp Texaco Station, was next with a wonderful display of Firestone tires, Havoline motor oils and other products. Mrs. R. L. Little is the Texas Co. Consignee. She is distinctive as the only woman consignee in the Texas Company.

Plenty of Cash.
The bank booth followed. A glass churn three-fourths full of silver coins from pennies to silver dollars was the first item to catch the eye. After registering and guessing the amount in the jar, everyone found the booth to be a camp setting, beautiful and nostalgic, reminiscent of the times from covered wagon to airplane. A $25.00 bond was awarded James C. Lewis of Gorman for guessing $449.13, nearest the amount of $449.00 in the jar.

E. F. Agnew & Sons Grocery booth in green and yellow was expertly made up with groceries. The Agnew store has been in Rising Star since 1920. It has kept up with the times and is a modern store in every line. Geraldine's News Stand followed this with the colors of gold and black over her books, magazines, cigarettes, cigars, pot plants and flowers. She sold many items.

Practical Booths.
Cecil Joyce, Pontiac dealer, and Texaco Station was interesting with a huge globe of the earth electrically turned and lettered with the guarantee that a Pontiac would carry you 100,000 miles with ease and comfort, especially when serviced with Texaco products.

In the corner a note of tragedy was introduced by the Joyce Insurance Agency. A beautiful miniature farm was laid out in perfect order and a new tractor was in the field. But the car and home were in shambles, razed by a fire. The loss was $15,050. A note of hope was also introduced to all home owners by investing in a good insurance program.

Oil Flows.
Across the floor to the center was a wide booth carrying signs and emblems of the Premier Oil Refining Co. of Texas with refineries at Baird, Longview, Fort Worth and Arp. And outstanding display was a continuous flow of oil from a Premier can into another can. It never ran dry nor overflowed. Wonderful! No one could figure it out. (I couldn't. But got it explained to me confidentially by a nice man. Wonder if he just wanted to shoo me out or had pity on my addled brains.)

Mr. Preston Ault and Mr. Irvin Corn, both of Baird were in the booth. Premier products are at the Respass station and also the Hazelwood station.

J. F. Robertson Agency had a beautiful display of a sizable home on a green lawn and beautifully landscaped representing their real estate business. Insurance signs were also placed about the booth.

FFA and 4-H.
The FFA boys with Jack Kaltenbaugh and Scotty Elliott as green hands, laid out a miniature model farm with a sign telling their belief in future farming. Okra H. D. C. had a beautiful booth with displays of everything, sewing, cooking, frozen foods, gardening to make home a place to live in.

The May 4-H girls had a lovely booth and showed that youngsters can do many things to make home life desirable. There was needlework, beautiful home made lamps and other things.

Brown County 4-H clubs had a fine display of handmade lamps. New, modern styles.

Union Center H. D. C. had a beautiful display of copper and leather tooling, basket weaving, etched aluminum trays, home finished furniture and many other things.

Mrs. Geo. Stephenson had on display an old iron teakettle with two spouts. An antique dealer told her it was very old and made before the iron kettle with one spout. She also had two little iron chairs made for her when she was a tiny girl.

The Pleasant Hill H. D. C. was the blue ribbon winner of H. D. Clubs, had an outstanding display of everything pertaining to the home.

The Amity Progressive Community display was an ultra progressive display that excited much attention. This community was first place winner in the district last year second in the state for progressive farming.

Agricultural Booths.

The Soil Conservation booth smartly displayed all kinds of grasses and soil displays. Attracting much attention was the Guar grass, used mostly in this country for soil building. Squatting on their heels and discussing Guar was John Lee and a buddy who had both served in India in service. They were discussing the Guar grass in India.

The seed making as much as 3,000 pounds to the acre, was ground into a meal. This was made into a paste and edible. This buddy proved to be L. T. Marshal of Kermit. He has recently purchased the Roscoe farm. He had a dam built across the south fork of the Savannah to impound water in a small lake. Jake Jackson did this work.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshal will not move here for a year or two but a brother-in-law, J. L. Roark of Kermit will move on the place in the near future.

George Goss and a number of farmers had a booth with all kinds of farm products and vegetables. Huge watermelons weighing 60 and 70 pounds were the main displays.

Fine Canning.
The canning booth had a fine exhibit with many blue ribbons on display.

The Amity H. D. Club had an educational display of a master mix they had originated from which they could make different breads and other things.

Hobbies, Antiques.
The hobbies booth had many interesting displays of collections, painting, and other items of interest that keep people busy and happy.

The needlework displayed fine art of the ladies' handwork of all kinds. Such things make a home homey and takes skill and thought to accomplish.

The antique booth was a harbor for things brought down and cherished by our forefathers. Vases, silver coffee service, Side-saddle in perfect condition. (Why didn't someone ride it in the parade?) Pictures and many other things. The success of the fair also brings to the notice of all that the brave spirit of our forefathers still lives in the heart of modern people.

Home Demonstration Booths.
The North Star H. D. Club had a beautiful display of home finished furniture, quilts, needlework and many other items. This club has enjoyed 30 years of continuous work and still enjoying the work much as ever. This speaks well of the community.

The baby booth was dainty in colors of pink and blue and all the lovely apparel for baby's own use.

The South Star H. D. Club had many outstanding things. Among them was leather tooling, copper pictures and stencil paint work on linens.

The quilt and bed spread and rug booth had many attractions in all lines of the work.

The Rising Star High School and elementary grades had inspiring exhibits of their work. The first grades or primary work was instructive and had a well planned display showing the steps of learning, art work and other items. The schools with their pupils took a great interest in the fair and gave the grown-ups a new insight into the life of these youngsters.

The West Texas Utilities had a wonderful booth with pictures of farm work going on a screen at all times. Their miniature model farm was beautiful. In the background were the slogans "Save the soil and you save West Texas", "Less Conversation — More Conservation."

West Texas Utilities is not only as they sign themselves, "Your Electrical Servant," but are behind their people boosting in every way possible with films, meetings and personal help. The baking exhibit was a sight for hungry people. Beautifully decorated cakes, pies, cookies, etc.

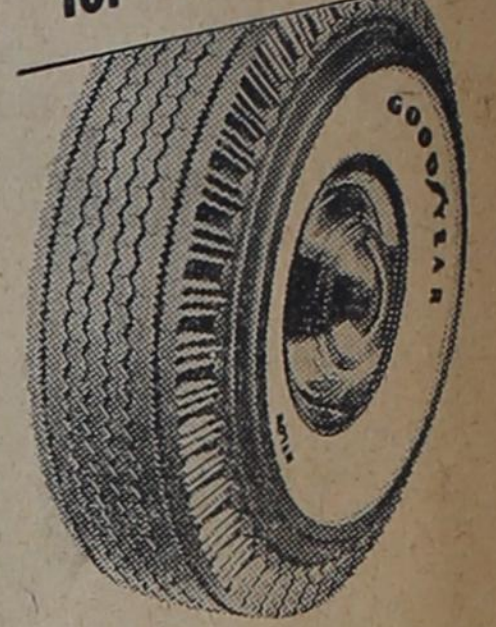

These booths all gaily but tastefully decorated made the market building a happy place educationally, a lot of fun and a lot of good eats. Over all blew the gay bubbles caught at from youngsters to grandparents. This fall fair will always be in our life's memory book.

THE HILL BILLY KIDS KNOCK 'EM OVER AT FAIR

One of the outstanding musical treats at the fair last week was the Hill Billy Kids who received applause many times. The band is composed of Mac Pyburn at the piano and Delbert Reed, fiddler, both of Sidney and Jack and Leon Boen of De Leon. Among the prizes won have been state contest at Greenville, Hollywood audition, fun festival at A. & M. College and a trip to Chicago. Prize money was gold cup and $500 in gold.

PMA Sends News Letter from Eastland

EASTLAND, Sept. 25.—Likelihood that cotton allotments will be established on each Eastland County cotton farm in 1954 was noted today in the latest newsletter, compiled and mailed to area farmers and ranchmen by the Eastland County office of the Production and Marketing Administration.

Producers recently were mailed cards for a report on the cotton acreage in 1951, 1952 and 1953.

"If you have had cotton on your farm in any of the above years," the newsletter said, "see that this report is in the office soon. It will be impossible to set up an allotment unless the cotton history is on file in the PMA office."

Here are other items of interest from the PMA newsletter: Eastland County has been removed from the drouth area. While this program was in effect, farmers and ranchers received 578 tons of pellets, 225 tons of meal, 7 carloads of oats and 3 cars of corn. All of your orders have been cancelled and no other shipments will be made.

We now have peanut marketing cards ready for distribution.

We have just received instructions that producers will not be permitted to bale excess peanuts when the farm is over-planted. If your farm is over-planted, it would be a good idea to destroy the excess peanuts and get them rechecked so there will be no delay when the rest of the crop is harvested.

If no peanuts are threshed in either 1951, 1952 or 1953 the peanut allotment will be lost for 1954. The farm will have to come back as a new grower allotment farm.

We still have plenty of money for Soil Conservation Practices. It looks as if we will not be able to use all the money allotted for 1953.

If moisture is available, be sure to grow that cover crop — as wind erosion may be severe this winter and spring.

Several products are reporting a good yield on castor beans.

The First National Bank of Gorman and The First State Bank of Rising Star have been approved as lending agencies to handle the 1953 cotton loans. Direct loans will not be made by the County PMA office in 1953.

If home grown vetch seed is sown, it must be tested by a laboratory before payment can be made.

Sig Faircloth, 60-year Old Roper Wins First In Calf Roping Contest

Although the price of admission had been raised to 35 and 75 cents, over 1000 witnessed the rodeo Thursday evening. It was a good show. Two participants, Jimmy Lee and Herman Virden were injured when horses fell with them. Neither was seriously injured.

Results Thursday.
Professional Jack Pot Calf Roping — Sig Faircloth, 60-year-old man won first with 14.8.
Girl's barrel race — Helen Bradford and Marita Weaver, tie, 19.7.
Boys' barrel race — Mack Harris, 20.
Wilbur McKinney and Jimmie Lee.
Bronc Riding — Don Smith and Snuffy Morales.
Ribbon Roping — John Burrus, 31.
Sipe Springs H. D. Club had charge of concession stands.

The rodeo was opened with the grand entry of 54 horses and riders. The colors were carried by various riders. Officers of the club were introduced; Frank Madison, president of the Roping Club; Horace Witt, vice president; Skeet Clark, and O. G. Joiner, secretaries; Misses Madison and Weaver as queens; Hugh McDermott, Bill Fowler and Ira Swift, judges. The parade was led by Bill Brown.

Several exhibition rides were enjoyed by the fans. Snuffy Morales and Tom Stidham rode wild horses and bulls.

Saturday night's rodeo was run off in record form. It was the rain that kept the show from going all the way. Only the bucking horse contest was rained out. It was a good show. It was officially announced by officials that there would be no more shows until next spring.

Ice Wherever They Go

THE FEW AMERICANS who haven't seen a skating road show are missing a bright, exciting package filled with bits of the ballet, circus, musical comedy and vaudeville routines. For color, rhythm and action, it's show business' biggest spectacle.

FLUDD GRACE and dazzling mobility of stars like Donna Atwood, left, gives revues a fairy-tale quality.

ICE CAPADES, featuring Miss Atwood, and Ice Cycles literally skate everywhere on their own portable rinks.

STAGE FOR EACH SHOW, carried about the nation in trailers powered by International truck-tractors, is 9,600 square feet of piping. Brine is circulated through the piping which is then covered with water. Freezing action quickly creates smooth skating surface.

COUNTY FARM BUREAU MEET ON OCTOBER 8

A big membership drive for the Eastland County Farm Bureau Federation will be launched with a "kick-off" supper to be held in Eastland Thursday, Oct. 8, at 8 p. m., in the annex of the First Christian Church, county leaders said today.

Plans for the annual membership drive were formulated during a called meeting of the bureau last week.

Jack Cozart of Nimrod acted as chairman in the absence of A. Z. Myrick, president, of Cisco. Eleven directors and six Farm Bureau members were present for the session.

The coming membership campaign will be launched with an old-fashioned barbecue with all the trimmings.

Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Agnew of Cisco, who settled in Rising Star in 1876 were visitors at the homecoming last week shaking hands with old time friends and neighbors. Mr. and Mrs. Agnew have made their home in Cisco for many years.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith and Barbara had as their guests during the fair, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Cannon, Sr. of Dublin and their son, Jack, of Dallas and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Maxwell of Kermit. Mrs. Maxwell is their daughter.

STAR GROCERY HAS REAL BARBECUE PIT

Tommy Gibbard, owner of the Star Grocery, has installed a real barbecue pit in the back of his store. It is going this week end. Barbecue cooked over real wood coals with wood smoke flavor will be available. Tommy has the dream of building in a cafe style counter where a plate of barbecue, pickles, etc. can be served. "But that is in the future," he stated.

Group selected to carry the players home after practice for Week of October 12, 13 and 14: R. C Moore, west. Dan M. Deen, east. Mearlyn Jones, north. The boys practice on three afternoons each week and will be ready for home at 5 Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. The above groups will take the boys each afternoon.

GLENN HENRY SUFFERS BROKEN ARM IN FALL

While working on a TV set at his home last Wednesday Glenn Henry fell from a step ladder and suffered a broken right arm. He was immediately rushed to the local hospital and then on to Abilene where the injured member was given attention. This is the second time that Henry has broken an arm. Some fortune to break the left arm. few years back he had the misfortune. While the injury was painful, friends are hoping Mr. Henry will suffer no serious complications.

IMPORTANT VISITOR IN RAY AGNEW HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Agnew were quite excited about one of their visitors this week end and gave him a royal welcome. It was Tommie, age nearly 3 months, son of their daughter, Mrs. Kenneth E. Bibb of Throckmorton. Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Casey and two year old daughter, Judith of Bay Town were also on hand to see young Tommie. Mrs. Casey is a sister to Mrs. Agnew.
