

Griggs School Homecoming Huge Success

Griggs ex-students and teachers met at the Union Center Club house (Brantons Gin) Sept. 4, 1977 for their first Homecoming. You can imagine the apprehension we felt, as some of us had not seen each other in fifty years. We were so happy that so many exes were able to attend. Forty seven ex-students four teachers, and twenty-seven visitors registered. Teachers present were Pauline Reed, Faye Rasmussen Gardenhire, Lucille Martins Calloway and Nettie Garrett Berry. We want to recognize the seven Payne exes. Shorty Payne being the oldest Evclyn (Payne) Clark the youngest. A basket lunch was served at noon. James Gardner offered Thanks. Each teacher reminisced about several incidences that happened to their pupils and themselves while teaching pupils and themselves while teaching at Griggs School. They were presented with long stemmed pink carnations. All members of the 1926-27 girls basket ball team were present. Nola McCollum Reynolds had kept her basket ball suit all these years. It was decided if any member of the team could wear the suit they would model it. Mildred Gregg Maphs was the model. The suit was black sateen material, bloomers with sleeveless slipover top with a gold "G" on the back. All the basket ball suits were made by Mildred mother. Mrs. Mack Gregg Sr. many pictures were taken of different groups including the girls basket ball team. We plan to have the Homecoming next year, as everyone enjoyed it so much and expressed their desire to have it again. The date has been set for the second Sunday in Sept. 1978. We want to thank each of you for helping make the Griggs Schools first Homecoming such a great success. As each of you go along the way we hope you will always have happy memories of this day.

Thanks for Coming

Yearbook Distribution Begins New Year For Saturday Club

Yearbooks were distributed to the twenty-three members, who met at the City Library on Wednesday, Sept. 7, for the annual covered-dish luncheon, which opened the new year for the Saturday Study Club. The president, Mrs. Ed Witt, called on Mrs. Hubert Jones for the invocation. The meal was served buffet style from a table covered with the seasonal red apple table cloth. Individual tables carried out the same motif with bright apple green and red cloths, and centered with baskets of fresh apples, which were all given to the members as they left. A business meeting followed the luncheon Mrs. George Steel, secretary, called the roll with each member answering with a memorable event of the summer of 77. Library reports were given by Elizabeth Robertson, Mrs. Melvin Shook, and Mrs. Horace White. From the generous library gift given by Mrs. J.D. Clark in memory of her husband, J.D. Clark, a beautiful world globe has been purchased for the library. Donations of $25.00 were made to both the Rising Star Fire Department and the Ambulance Service that is now available to the community. The club voted to send $5.00 to the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs as a contribution to the Historical Foundation. The present library committee-Mrs. C.A. Claborn, Mrs. E.L. Ratliff, Miss Elizabeth Robertson, Mrs. M.B. Shook, Mrs. Horace White-was named as a permanent board of directors for the library. It was voted to send Dr. Billy T. Carpenter an expression of thanks for his services at the ball games, both local and out-of-town. The next meeting will be on Sept. 21 with Mrs. Carl Marsh as program chairman and Mrs. Ed Witt as hostess.

The Wildcats dumped the Rattlers by the score of 50-0 at Tolar Friday night. Tolar just couldn't handle the Cat's offense. Rising Star stacked up 341 yds. on the ground and 112 in the air, while Tolar could only gain 32 yds rushing and 59 passing against the tough Cat defense. Senior Johnny Childers scored first with a 1 yd. dive after a 65 yd. drive. The extra point was no good. The second T.D. came late in the 1st quarter and it was Childers again with another 1 yd. run. He also ran in the 2 point conversion to make the score at the end of the 1st quarter 14-0. Michael Butler, another Senior Wildcat was the 1st to score in the second quarter on a 1 yarder after a 40 yd. drive by the Cats. This time it was Sophomore Quarterback Mike Holden who ran in the 2 points conversion. Butler got things going after the half with another touchdoen on a 2 yd. run Nicky Newbury passed to Glenn Dennard for the conversion. Late in that same quarter, Kevin Leonard intercepted a pass and made a spectacular 66 yd. run for another wildcat T.D. To top things off in the 4th quarter, Mike Holden scored the final touchdown on a 27 yd. run. Jerry Lunceford ran in for the 2 extra points, making the final score 50-0. All the Cats, from Senior to Freshman saw some action Friday night. The leading ground gainer was Johnny Childers and the leading receiver ground gainer was Johnny Childers and the leading receiver was John

Dedication Set For September 23rd In Stephenville

Dedication of the Texas A&M University Agricultural Research & Extension Center at Stephenville has been set for September 23, according to a joint announcement from James S. Newman, resident director of research, Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, and John Burleson, district agent, Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

The Center is located on U.S. Highway 281-North at the junction of FM 8.

Open since late spring, the new office and laboratory building houses research and Extension personnel serving a broad area of North Central Texas.

Research at the station began more than 30 years ago centered mainly on fruit and nut crop grown in the sandy soils of the west Cross Timbers section of Texas. Research conducted now at the Center is much broader in scope.

Eighteen county Extension staffs are supervised by two district Extension agents headquartered at the Center. Extension subject matter specialists supporting county programs are also located at the Center.

A large and impressive number of agricultural leaders will participate in the dedication ceremonies which will begin at 1:30 p.m. following a luncheon sponsored by area business and civic leaders. Tickets to the barbecue are free and may be obtained through any local county Extension office, or by calling or writing the TAMU Center.

Advanced reservations for the luncheon are requested. Open House of the new and modern facility will be from 10:00 a.m. until 5:00 p.m.

Special displays describing research results and Extension educational programs will be set up throughout the new building. Tours of the new Center will be open to everyone and refreshments will be served.

Highlights of the day's program will be guided tours of field research which will include peanut and peach insect control; peanut and fruit fertility studies; peanut and fruit disease control; peanut breeding; forages; soybean and cotton plots; herbicides; peach root stock studies; and irrigation of peaches and pecans.

Cost of the workshop will be $60.00 for a week of 6 hour classes, to be held from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. with an hour off for lunch.

Mr. Slade will also conduct a night class, considering there are a sufficient number of interested persons, for $35.00. These classes will be held each evening from 7:00 p.m. to 10 p.m. Ten people will be the limit, on these classes.

Mr. Slade will be teaching in oils.

For further information concerning this workshop, contact Jo Hubbard in Rising Star, at 643-6242; Morrens Gift Shop in Eastland, 629-2092; or Myrle Poe at 629-1520 in Eastland.

Pam Dyson

David Slade was born in south Mississippi and finished his schooling there. He got the urge to come west when he was old enough to read about cowboys and Indians. Beginning his painting career at an early age, he has painted the scenes from many southern states.

Western scenes are his favorites. Slade paintings are well known through out the country, and he is represented by many galleries in the southwest.

Six years ago he conducted his first workshop in oil painting here in South Fork. Since then it has become an annual event, and the classes are held each year in the Community building just across the street from the gallery and studio. Each year artists are here from many parts of the country, to attend the workshops and to enjoy the beautiful scenery of southern Colorado.

For a real treat, visit the gallery and enjoy the collection of paintings in oil and water color.

David Slade, famous western life and western scenes artist of South Fork, Colorado will conduct a workshop in Eastland at Morren's Gift Shop.

Corp Lakes To Celebrate National Hunting And Fishing Day

National Hunting and Fishing Day will be celebrated on Corps of Engineers Lakes and throughout the nation 24 September. Hunters and fisherman are welcome to hunt and fish on lake projects in the Fort Worth District the year around. Only Canyon Lake is closed to hunting.

Hunting is still free on Corps lakes but has to be regulated for safety reasons. Rifles, pistols, and shotguns with slugs are prohibited on most Corps of Engineers lakes. Shotguns with shot and longbows with legal arrows are allowed in areas posted for hunting. Rifles may be used at Whitney Lake in two areas posted along Nolar River and Ham Creek. Rifle areas are also available at Belton Lake, and at Town Blubb Dam near Jasper, Texas.

Bow hunters can hunt deer on the North Fork project area (Gerogetown, Texas) in bow and gun season this year. Rifles and shotguns for deer will be prohibited there because of construction activities.

Duck hunters are cautioned that a permit is necessary before they build a duck blind on Corps of Engineer's lakes. Project offices will not accept applications for duck blinds before 1-3 October. Proctor Lake will accept applications beginning on 3 October.

Dove and quail hunters are free to hunt Corps, lake areas where they are not posted "No Hunting". Some projects require hunters to obtain a free permit before hunting. Lakes at Benbrook, Hords Creek (Coleman, Texas), O.C. Fisher (San Angelo) and Waco require free permits for all kinds of hunting. Lewisville Lake has a permit area below the dam.

State regulations govern hunting seasons, bag limits and species, but there are Corps of Engineers exceptions for individual projects. One general exception to State regulations is the District wide prohibition against trapping, or capturing live animals. Sportsmen are urged to inquire about hunting regulations at the office of projects before hunting. Project offices are open on weekdays between 7:30 and 4:30 but may be closed on weekends.

Rep. Joe Hanna Appointed To Energy Advisory Council

Austin--State Rep. Joe Hanna of Breckenridge has been appointed to the Texas Energy Advisory Council by House Speaker Bill Clayton.

Hanna, serving his fourth term in the House, is chairman of the House Energy Resources Committee for the 65th legislative session.

The council consists of 12 members, including the elected commissioners of all state agencies. The Lt. Governor is chairman and the speaker of the House vice chairman of the council. Only one state representative is appointed to the council.

Major functions of the council are to formulate, reassess and modify state energy policy for recommendation to the Legislature and Governor; review and comment on existing and proposed federal action; and to undertake assignments from the Governor, Lt. Governor or speaker.

Clayton said of the appointment of Hanna, "There is no better qualified member of the House to sit on this very important council. Rep. Hann provided exemplary leadership for our energy committee during this session of the Legislature."

"I am confident that his abilities and his input to this council could very well have a number of long-range benefits for the state in the area of energy development and conservation."

Hann also serves on the Energy Committee of National Conference of State Legislatures.

Registration Deadline For New C.J.C. Building Trade Program September 15

Vocational Dean Gerald Bint of Cisco Junior College reminds area residents that the deadline to register for the new Building Trade program is September 15. "This new program expands the career courses we are presently offering at CJC," said Mr. Bint, "and we are looking forward to developing a fine program serving the needs of our students. Our instructor, Jim Webb, is a well-known Ciscoan who has twenty years experience in the building trades field. He's enthusiastic about teaching the course, and is looking forward to a great first year."

the enthusiasm in his voice is unmistakable. "The course of study should be quite interesting and rewarding to those participating. We'll be spending some time in the classroom, of course, but a great amount of our time will be spent in 'on the job' construction. In fact, each year we're planning to construct a residential home from the ground up."

Some of the courses in the program will include Building Construction, Materials and Supplies, Excavation and Foundation, Basic Blueprint Drafting, Technical Shop Math, Residential Framing, Plumbing and Electricity, Interior and Exterior Finish, Technical Communications, Interior Trim and Cabinetry, Surveying, Architectural Drafting, and Business Law.

According to Mr. Bint, a person may take only part of the full program if they can so obtain the skills they desire. "But," Mr. Bint cautions, "to take only part of the program will not make a person eligible to receive certification." The Building Trades program is designed as a twelve-month certificate program. In order to receive a certificate, students will be required to take the full twelve months of work. Mr. Bint also pointed out that the program is not intended to be a part-time course of study, and students will need to take the full block of courses during a semester. The regular state-supported tuition rates at CJC will apply for the Building Trades program. In addition, Mr. Bint said, there will be a $20 per semester lab fee, and students will need to furnish their own hand tools. Detailed information about the program may be obtained from Mr. Webb or Dean Bint at 817-442-2567.

THE LAW IN GALATIANS

I am asked concerning the law in Galatians. What law is the schoolmaster to bring us to Christ? I answer: both the ceremonial and the moral code of ten commandments. Christ was the foundation of the whole Jewish economy. The death of Abel was in consequence of Cain's refusing to accept God's plan in the school of obedience to be saved by the blood of Jesus Christ typified by the sacrificial offerings pointing to Christ. Cain refused the shedding of the world. This whole ceremony was prepared by God, and Christ became the foundation of the whole system. This is the beginning of its work as the schoolmaster to bring sinful human agents to a consideration of Christ the Foundation of the whole Jewish economy. All who did service in connection with the sanctuary were being educated constantly in regard to the intervention of Christ in behalf of the human race. This service was designed to create in every heart a love for the law of God, which is the law of His kingdom. The sacrificial offering was to be an object lesson of the love of God revealed in Christ in the suffering, dying victim, who took upon Himself the sin of which man was guilty, the innocent being made sin for us.

In the contemplation of this great theme of salvation we see Christ's work. Not only the promised gift of the Spirit, but also the nature and character of this sacrifice and intervention are subjects which should create in our hearts elevated, sacred high ideas of the law of God, which holds its claims upon every human agency. The violation of that law in the small act of eating of the forbidden fruit, brought upon man and upon the earth the consequence of disobedience to the holy law of God. The nature of the intervention should ever make man afraid to do the smallest action in disobedience to God's requirement.

There should be a clear understanding of that which constitutes sin, and we should avoid the least approach to step over the boundaries from obedience to disobedience.

God would have every member of His creation understand the great work of the infinite Son of God in giving His life for the salvation of the world. Behold, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God; therefore the world knoweth us not, because it knew him not" 1 John 3:1. When he sees in Christ the embodiment of infinite and disinterested love and benevolence, there is awakened in the heart of the sinner a thankful disposition to follow where Christ is drawing. Manuscript 87, 1900.

ESPECIALLY THE MORAL LAW

"The law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith" (Gal. 3:24). In this scripture the Holy Spirit through the apostle is speaking especially of the moral law. The law reveals sin to us, and causes us to feel our need of Christ and to flee unto Him for pardon and peace by exercising repentance toward God and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ.

An unwillingness to yield up preconceived opinions, and to accept this truth, lay at the foundation of a large share of the opposition manifested at Minneapolis against the Lord's message through Brethren (E.J.) Waggoner and (A.T.) Jones. By exciting that opposition Satan succeeded in shutting away from our people, in a great measure, the special power of the Holy Spirit that God longed to impart to them. The enemy prevented them from obtaining that efficiency which might have been theirs in carrying the truth to the world, as the apostles proclaimed it after the day of Pentecost. The light that is to lighten the whole earth with its glory was resisted, and by the action of our own brethren has been in a great degree kept away from the world.

The law of ten commandments is not to be looked upon as much from the prohibitory side, as from the mercy side. Its prohibitions are the sure guarantee of happiness in obedience. As received in Christ, it works in us the purity of character that will bring joy to us through eternal ages. To the obedient it is a wall of protection. We behold in it the goodness of God, who by revealing to men the immutable principles of righteousness, seeks to shield them from the evils that result from transgression.

We are not to regard God as waiting to punish the sinner for his sin. The sinner brings the punishment upon himself. His own actions start a train of circumstances that bring the sure result. Every act of transgression reacts upon the sinner works in him a change of character, and makes it more easy for him to transgress again. By choosing to sin, men separate themselves from God, cut themselves off from the channel of blessing, and the sure result is ruin and death.

The law is an expression of God's idea. When we receive it in Christ it becomes our idea. It lifts us above the power of natural desires and tendencies, above temptations that lead to sin. "Great peace have they which love thy law: and nothing shall offend them" Ps. 119:165 cause them to stumble. There is no peace in unrighteousness; the wicked are at war with God. But he who receives the righteousness of the law in Christ is in harmony with heaven. "Mercy and truth are met together; righteousness and peace have kissed each other." Ps. 85:10-Letter 96, 1896.

Are You Too Busy?

A good friend said to me on Monday of this week that good speakers are hard to find these days. He was right. Really good talkers are scarce, but really good listeners are much scarcer. We are all usually much more eager to tell people what we think and what we have done than we are to listen to what others think and what others have done. Most people don't want a speech. What most people want is for someone to just listen.

We even take our talkativeness into prayer with us. We forget so often that prayer means listening at least as much as it means talking, and we are too busy telling God what we want Him to do, and what He really ought to do, to listen to what He wants us to do. It is just as important to learn to listen and to keep silence as it is to talk. How long has it been since you have sought out a quiet place and just listened to what God has to say to you? To borrow a TV Commercial of a few years ago, "That's been too long." "There are many reasons is insecurity. For you see as long as we are talking we are in control of the situation. If we allowed others to talk we might be confronted with something we can't handle, so we talk so much, but one of the basic reasons is insecurity. For you see as long as we are talking we are in control of the situation. If we allowed others to talk we might be confronted with something we can't handle, so we talk to avoid that."

Often we are too busy earning a living to live. We live in a time when there are so many things to want and to buy, and things to buy cost money. And so you find people working so much overtime, or doing so many money earning jobs that they hardly have time to know their families. When this happens people are so busy earning a living that they forget how to live.

In the Old Testament there is the story of a man who as enjoined to look after a prisoner who had been captured in battle. He did this and that and the prisoner escaped; and when he was called to account he could only make the lame excuse: "As your servant was busy here and there he was gone." (1 Kings 20:40) Be careful you are not too busy to have time for the things which really matter.

Attention Youth! You are invited to after the game fellowship in the basement of our church after the game Friday night. Go to the game and cheer the Wildcats on to victory and then join us for refreshments, country music records and just good fellowship with one another. We are looking for you and our evening will not be complete without you.

Attention Everyone! You are invited to worship with us this Sunday and then to enjoy dinner after church in the basement. Your pastor and his wife rejoice in the Lord because of the wonderful congregations we are having. Won't you help all of us in making this Sunday one of the greatest yet! Bring your covered dish and join with us in a time of wonderful Christian fellowship. We are looking for you! If you need transportation to or from the church please call 643-3791. See you Sunday!

Church of Christ

In an article entitled UPSIDE DOWN, Loran Harper calls attention to a serious error committed by so many attempting to cover evil deeds by denying the reality of God.

"It is indeed fascinating that in reading the writings of the prophets, one's mind has a tendency to lose track of historical time. Words penned hundreds of years before Christ to a rebellious nation of people suddenly seem like a letter from God written yesterday to our own society and religious framework. Many of the words written by the inspired prophet Isaiah are of this double nature, standing not only as just a reminder to Judah, but to all mankind and for all time.

One passage which as this is found in Isaiah 29: 15, 16: "Woe to those who hide deep from the Lord of their counsel, whose deeds are in the dark, and who say, 'Who sees us? Who knows us? You turn things upside down! Shall the potter be regarded as the clay; that the thing made should say of its maker, 'He did not make me' or the thing formed say of him who formed it, 'He has not understanding?'"

This passage was written almost 2800 years ago and yet it fits our time as if it were written yesterday, for man has reached the point that he feels that he can manipulate God, that he can fool God, that he can hide his evil deeds from God. But, Isaiah says, that this is just as impossible as a ceramic pot denying its construction by the potter. Indeed, as Isaiah says, many are claiming 'he did not make me' and 'he has no understanding', when in reality we have gotten things 'upside down' and are worshipping the magnificence of the pot and ignoring the superior wisdom and knowledge of God, the potter. May we as a nation, as a family, and as Christians get things right side up and realize the tremendous strength that is ours through him." (end of quote)

All of us need the constant reminder of the ever-present and ever-loving God who "has loved righteousness and hated iniquity" (Psalm 45:7) This can only come through regular Bible reading and study. Join us in Bible classes (for all ages) each Sunday at 9:30 a.m. and 6 p.m.

Clifford Hale is now back home and better. Georgia Crossnoe has returned to the doctor in Lubbock and will probably remain there for a while. Dick Goldston has been under treatment for severe dizziness. Leonard Harris is much better, after injuring his leg. Kevin Goldston (son of Dick and Brenda Goldston) is much better, after a sudden severe illness.

The Rising Star Church of Christ has given funds for an addition to our church Library, honoring the memory of Eddie Underwood.

For those who get their paper on Wednesday, our midweek meeting this week (September 14) will be a Devotional and singing service. Come and join us for this at 7:30 p.m.

Have a good week. Call on us if we can serve in any way.

Which Disturbs You Most? Your missing the worship service...or missing a day's work?

A sermon 10 minutes too long...or lunch served half an hour late?

A church not growing...or your garden not growing?

Your Bible unopened...or your newspaper unread?

The church neglected...or housework neglected?

Missing a good Bible study...or your favorite TV program.

The millions who do not know Christ...or your inability to keep up with the neighbors?

The cry of the multitudes for bread...or your desire for another piece of German chocolate cake?

Calvary Full Gospel Assembly

Life is difficult enough that people often wish they could find some 'Slogan' that would always guide them.

The modern yen for getting everything wrapped in plastic or cellophane packages is not entirely new. Long before there was cellophane or plastic, the human race loved neatly wrapped packaged goods. People have (and some still do) wanted even their religion to come in 'packages'.

All in one container, no loose ends, no puzzling left overs, nothing unsure. They have longed for rules, proverbs, slogans, programs and forms to guide them saving all that time spent in meditation, praying and reading God's word.

BUT—THE IDEA WON'T WORK! No rule can do our thinking for us. IN Christian faith no rule or plan or form, can take the place of the Christian Gospel out of God's own word. One slogan we often hear is: "Let your conscience be your guide," as tho nothing else were needed. This Slogan, when used in the light of the whole Christian faith, can be helpful, but by itself lacks something and is less than Christian.

As to Conscience: Huckleberry, Finn once found himself quite without his intentions helping a runaway slave to escape. His "Conscience" bothered him about disobeying the law, and his "conscience" also bothered him when he thought about obeying the Law and turning the Slave in. So he complained: "It don't make no difference whether you do right or wrong. A person's conscience ain't got no sense and just goes for him anyway. If I had a yeller dog that didn't know no more than a person's conscience does, I would pizen him. It takes up more room than all the rest of the person's insides and yet ain't no good nohow."

No doubt Huck should have been more grateful for conscience, but what he says has truth. Conscience approved the crucifixion of Jesus! When Paul accepted Christ he had to retrain his conscience which had been educated by the Strict Jewish Law! When conscience urges us to do right, it reflects the God who created us. But when it tells WHAT is right, many times it reflects our Social conditioning.

That is why conscience alone is not enough.

It needs the Whole Christian faith and perhaps we should say: we can let our conscience be our guide only when it is motivated by the Holy Spirit. Remember God said "There is a way which seemeth right unto man but the end thereof are the ways of death." Let us follow Jesus.

Come and worship with us. Our Sun. morning service begins with Sunday School at 10 o'clock; Morning worship at 11. Sun. evening services at 6:30. This was changed last week from 7:30 to 6:30 on Sun. evening only. May God bless each of you.

Commentary

By Myrtle Owen

Roman 6: 12-13-14. Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey it in the lust thereof. Neither yield ye your members as instruments of unrighteousness unto sin; but yield yourselves unto God, as those that are alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness unto God. For sin shall not have dominion over you: for ye are not under the law, but under grace.

Scripture Thought

Of The Day

A wonderful and horrible thing is come to pass in the land; the prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests bear rule by their means; and my people love to have it so: and what will ye do in the end thereof? (Jeremiah 5: 30, 31.)

inhabited by the devil, where sickness, demons and fear exist. We are exposed to these negative forces every day. And as long as we are in the world we are going to battle with temptation. But sin does not have dominion over us. And "God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it" (1 Cor. 10:13). It is not a sin to be tempted. We sin when we yield to temptation. (James 1:14, 15) even Jesus was tempted, but He did not yield to the temptations of the devil. He overcome satan with the use of the word of

God. Jesus said, "Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation" (Mat. 26: 41) This does not mean that temptation will never come to you just because you pray. They will appear whether you pray or not, but the difference is that through a prayer life you do not enter into temptation. Myrtle Owen

Pioneer News

 by Mrs. A.C. Halsell

Surely there is "a diversity of gifts" (talents) among people. Everyone has some talent. Talents may be useless, unless they are pursued. Mrs. J.T. (Betty) Beggs of the Pioneer Community, is not "burying her talent," as one can easily see, upon a visit to her beautiful country home.

At about the age of ten years, she saw the face of a person in the bracket, a symbol she was learning to make in her Math class. This information tied into her love for doing portraits, as I was soon to learn.

Previous to living in the Carbon and Pioneer area, Betty lived in Wichita Falls, where her early training began about fifteen years ago, with Mrs. Paul (Violet) Taylor as her teacher. Since that time she has studied Commercial Art at Cisco Junior College. Portraits under Mr. Emil Hermann of Austria, and she is a graduate of Art Institute Incorporated, Minneapolis, Minn. She has attended several Workshops; one in 1974 under Jan Herring of Eastland. Betty is a member of Cross Plains Paint and Palette Club, Texas fine Arts Asso., Austin, Cisco Art Club, where she was inspired in Abstract painting by a demonstration. She is also a member of Big Country Art Asso. Colorado City, where she will be showing some of her works Oct. 1.

Mrs. Beggs does little copy work; mostly original drawings. Her mediums and tools are masonite, (on which she uses Gesso), oils, water colors, India Ink, water and lampblack (wash), charcoal, crayon, finishing varnish, palette, knife, brush, art pins, sponge, tooth picks, tempera and velvet. "We learn Art appreciation by doing art," she says: "Then you have to learn and practice close observation." All this leads to subject matter, composition and design.

"Anytime is a good time to start studying art," she said. "Children may have short attention span, whereas, adults are competitive."

Her realistic painting of a "G-d" of Angor in Cambodia, set work on velvet, and her portraits were the most striking works. From the walls of her home you see portraits of her four sons (one Deceased) and tucked back in a closet, was a life size portrait of herself. Only her humility could explain why it was not framed and hanging on a wall. A boxfull of pictures and designs done in a Commercial Art Class reveals her ability to go into Commercial Art; Christmas cards, Magazine covers, clothing, T.V. Ads, illustrations of children's stories and most any other.

Betty has paintings hanging in Odom's Cafe, Cross Plains, Frame and Shop Gallery in Brownwood, at White Elephant and Jammie's Cafes in Cisco. She is announcing the beginning of classes at her home a little later this month.

Sunday is indeed a day of rest as well as church attendance. I was aware of this when I awakened Mrs. Ethel Brown from her afternoon nap, when I called for news. She gave me pardon as well as names of visitors. They were Mrs. Mark Clark and Mrs. Opal Dean of Rising Star and Mrs.

Lois Garrett of Cross Plains.

For those who are interested in the IWY and The W's (conservative women's groups) for information, you may contact Mrs. Homer Don Parsons. She wishes to announce that the W's in having a membership drive; also that they are in financial straits at this time. She has sent out over seventy information sheets in response to requests she has been receiving from the IWY's.

Travis and Warren Parsons went on a peanuts inspection trip with their grandparents. Mr. and Mrs. Truitt Parsons, Sunday afternoon.

Guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Fleming, on Monday, were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Conn of Mt. Carmel Ill. Other visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Vince Meiron, on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rowe Lubbock, and Mr. and Mrs. David Witherson of Dallas.

Mrs. Hiram Foster gives a good report for the first Quilting Club meeting after summer vacation. There were eighteen women and children present. They put in three quilts, and they enjoyed being together again. She reports a good out for last game night, also. Visitors in the Foster home during the week were Mrs. Margie Seymore of Brownwood and Mrs. Halsell.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Atwood went to Abilene, Monday where he will check with his doctor. They will visit in their daughter's home while in Abilene.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Beggs of Eastland visited Mr. and Mrs. J.T. Beggs Friday night.

On the weekend of the third and fourth of Sept. Mrs. Nora Phillips had most her family at her home for a family reunion. There were about twenty-five people present. Mrs. Phillips returned home with a grand-daughter, the Roberts of Copperas Cove. She returned to her home on Saturday by way of bus. Mrs. Phillips and Sunday lunch with her son, Vernon and family. Glendale Phillips who is attending college at Alpine, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Phillips this week-end.

Visitors with Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Stover, were their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Henyard of San Saba; also Mr. and Mrs. Reggy Stover had lunch with them recently.

Brandy-Ann Eppard of Brady spent the week-end with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Norris. Other recent visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Norris were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Jones and Mr. and Mrs. Sub Peavy of Cross Plains and Mrs. Winnie Flippin of Pioneer.

Mr. and Mrs. Jean Fore spent the week-end at Brady where they visited Mrs. Estelle Huntington and her son, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Huntington and Mary. They attended the Football game between Brady and Coleman on Friday night. Rev. and Mrs. Purvis visited them on Saturday night.

Guest Performer Frederic Chrislip To Appear At CJC Dinner Theatre

Frederic Chrislip

"For the first time," announced Wyley Peebles, Chairman of the Cisco Junior College Fine Arts Department, "the Cisco Dinner Theatre will be presenting off-campus talent. On September 27, at 7:30 p.m. Frederic Chrislip, a tenor and classic guitarist, will perform at the first Dinner Theatre of the season. Mr. Chrislip is a professional entertainer," continued Mr. Peebles, "and has received fine reviews of all his performances. The Fine Arts Department is looking forward to presenting this exceptional program to the Dinner Theatre patrons."

Chrislip specializes in performing songs of the classical tradition in which the singer was originally intended to accompany himself on the lute or guitar. This type of music contains a wide variety of moods and styles, but it was all designed for intimate presentation. Chrislip preserves the tradition and intimacy for which the music was originally written by playing guitar solos and singing to his own accompaniment. At the CJC Dinner Theatre, he will perform music ranging from Elizabethan lute songs to the twentieth century.

Chrislip was born and reared in Oklahoma. He was awarded a National Merit Scholarship which he used to attend the School of Music at Northwestern University. Though Mr. Chrislip has received the majority of his training in the Chicago and New York areas, he did sing with the Lyric Theatre in Oklahoma City for two seasons and has played two seasons for the Santa Fe

Recently Mr. Chrislip spent two summers studying singing at Tanglewood in Massachusetts. Upon occasion, he plays with the Chicago Symphony and various other orchestras. This season Mr. Chrislip will give solo recitals and conduct workshops at colleges and universities in Missouri, Illinois, Wisconsin, Indiana, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Rhode Island, and Ontario.

"The CJC Dinner Theatre is proud," commented Mr. Peebles, "to be able to present such fine talent to area residents. Since Mr. Chrislip is accomplished as both a guitarist and singer, he should appeal to many people."

Chrislip's performance is the first of several events planned by the Fine Arts Department for the 1977-78 year. A dramatic episode is planned for presentation in November and the Madrigal Singers will perform in December. Other events planned for the spring include a presentation of the stage band, instrumentalists, and another dramatic performance.

The first Dinner Theatre will begin at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, September 27. There will be only one performance, and reservations should be made as early as possible by calling the college switchboard operator at 442-2567. The cost of both the dinner and the program is six dollars. Students may attend just the program without dinner, for two dollars. The deadline for making reservations is 10:00 a.m. Monday, September 26.

We have elected our class officers and favorites. Favorites are Deana Gage and Daryl Medford. Class Officers are Pres. Deana Gage, Vice Pres. Vicki Elliott, Sec.-Paula new, Tres. Laurie Hill, Reporter Belinda Surtzer.

We would like to congratulate a member of our class, Vicki Elliott who has been elected 1977 Football Sweetheart. Congratulations!

NOTICE

Eastland County's fifth annual hay show will again be a part of the County Fair to be held September 29-30 and October 1. The Hay Show this year is sponsored by the Eastland Young Farmers. Now is the time to select hay to enter in the show. R.D. Hart will serve as chairman of the hay show. All Eastland County hay producers are urged to enter this year's show.

It only costs the producer one bale of hay to enter and in return, he will get a protein analysis of the hay and the quality of the hay. This assists the stockman in knowing how much supplemental feeding will have to be done or how much hay to feed during the critical feeding period this winter. It is possible to save considerable amounts of hay and money by knowing what you are feeding.

The Eastland Young Farmers would encourage every producer in the county to enter this year's show to make it a successful year for the hay show. It will be a great benefit to the producer to know just what is in the hay he is feeding. Enter your bale before 5:00 p.m. September 9, by having it at any of the designated areas.

Watch your local paper and radio station for further word on rules, prizes, and contributors to this year's show.

"As It Looks From Here"
OMAR BURLESON
Congressman 17th District

WASHINGTON, D.C. - ON MARCH 8, 1973, WE CALLED ATTENTION to our negotiations with Panama on the matter of a treaty to relinquish the Panama Canal's ownership by the year 2000. As everyone is now aware from press reports, that treaty has been consummated and the President has approved it. It now goes to the U.S. Senate which has the authority for ratification of treaties, requiring a two-thirds vote.

IT NOW APPEARS THAT THE EXECUTIVE BRANCH will attempt to bypass the House of Representatives by contending that a treaty alone, costing billions of dollars of U.S. property in the Canal Zone and the payment to Panama of Additional billions in economic compensation, can be approved without any authorization or approval by the House.

THE CONSTITUTIONAL PROVISION for the ratification of treaties by the Senate is one thing but the treaty's implementation is another. Since 1907, there has been legal controversy over whether the treaty-making power by the President and the Senate can convey property and appropriate money without the approval of both Houses of Congress. Writing in the American Journal of International Law in 1907, Judge Cooley said, "The full treaty-making power is in the President and the Senate, but the House of Representatives has a restraining power upon it in that it may, in its discretion at any time, refuse to give assent to legislation necessary to give the treaty effect."

THIS ISSUE FIRST BECAME PROMINENT upon ratification of a treaty in 1796 which contained provisions for the payment of money by the United States. The case was decided on Article I of the Constitution in which it was provided that "no money shall be drawn from the Treasury, but in consequence of appropriation made by law." After lengthy debate, the House did vote the money but only after attaching a clause which adopted the views of Madison and Gallatin who argued that when a treaty contained stipulations on any of the subjects committed by the Constitution to Congress, the stipulations could not be executed until, by independent action, Congress had passed implementing legislation. That practice has been followed in subsequent treaties where ceding property to another Nation would require legislative implementation.

ONE OF THE MOST RECENT TREATIES WAS THE CEDING of the Chamizal strip near El Paso in 1963 in an agreement by President Johnson and the President of Mexico.

This is often cited as an example that territory can be given away by treaty without the action of Congress. What is overlooked in the Chamizal transaction is that the land ceded belonged to private persons and not to the United States. In fact, legislation was authorized for the acquisition of the property "for transfer to Mexico as provided under the treaty."

IT SEEMS CLEAR THAT UNDER THE CONSTITUTION all bids for raising revenues shall originate in the House of Representatives and "no money shall be drawn from the Treasury but in consequence of appropriation made by law."

IT APPEARS THAT IN THE CASE OF THE PANAMA CANAL AGREEMENT, efforts will be made to bypass any action of the House of Representatives although billions of dollars are involved. It is safe to assure the American public that efforts are going to be made to see that the authority of the House of Representatives in this situation is not circumvented.

The Light Touch

The happiest person in the world today is a vegetarian looking at prices in a meat market.

Always tell the truth. You may make a hole in one when you're alone on the golf course someday.

You're never too old to learn - which is as good an excuse as any for putting it off.

Friend of ours is so thrifty that when he found a box of corn polasters, he rushed out to buy a pair of tight shoes.

Wouldn't it be wonderful if everyone's memory stayed as sharp as that of the child who's been promised a treat?

We promise to treat you to a shopping trip and your kids will enjoy at Bray's in Eastland and Ranger.

AMISTAD FRIENDSHIP

"Amistad" is a Spanish word "Friendship" and in the case of Amistad National Recreation Area, Tex. it signifies the friendship and cooperation between the United States and Mexico who together built a dam just above the cities of Del Rio, Tex. and Ciudad Acuña, Mex.

Behind the dam is a crystal clear lake that is fed by three rivers- the Rio Grande the Pecos and Devil's River.

The primary purposes of the dam and lake are flood control and water conservation. but Ed Rodriguez, superintendent of the National Park Service area, said that more than a million people a year find this desert oasis to be a barrel of fun.

The National Park Service manages the recreational facilities and programs on the United States side of the lake. Those activities include hunting, fishing, scuba or skin diving, swimming, hiking, boating, camping, enjoying nature and taking advantage of the international flavor of the area.

If you're planning a trip to Amistad, don't worry about elbow room with the reservoir extending up the Rio Grande for 70 miles, up the Pecos for 14 and up Devil's River for 25 at conservation level. There is a combination of almost 1,000 miles of shoreline between the U.S. and Mexico sides of the lake. And the park contains more than 100 square miles.

Interesting features of the park include the Bronze Eagles, placed on the dam to signify friendly cooperation between Mexico and the U.S. and "Tlaloc," the large stone carving of the Aztec Rain God ON THE Mexico side of the dam.

bank fishing. Day-use picnic shelters, tables and fireplaces constructed by the Youth Conservation Corps are available in some areas and shelters tables, fireplaces and chemical toilets elsewhere.

Swimmers will discover a public beach on the east end of the dam that contains a diving float, beach shelters, tables and restrooms. There is also a place for children to wade.

Primitive camping is permitted along the shoreline and there are several commercial campgrounds in the area.

Visitors should also take advantage of a variety of audio-visual programs presented in a around the recreation area by park rangers.

If you are planning to visit a National Park Service area on your vacation write the agency at P.O. Box 728, Room N-18, Santa Fe, N.M. 87501 for a free SUPER 77 trip planner which lists NPS areas within an easy drive of your home and charts facilities and activities at each.

Price Daniel, Jr. Enters Race For Attorney General

Price Daniel, Jr.

Price Daniel, Jr., announced Wednesday, Sept. 7, 1977 that he is a candidate for attorney general.

My campaign for the important office of Attorney General will be a positive one, based upon my experience, qualifications, record of public service and approach to matters that must be addressed by the Attorney General of Texas. I have studied law, practiced law, made law and taught law during the past 14 years. With the hope that my record of public service is still fairly familiar to you and to the people of Texas, I will not dwell on it now but will simply state that I am proud of that record and will, if elected Attorney General, be guided by the same ideals and principles that I set for myself in my earlier tenure in public office.

One point that I want to make clear at the outset of my campaign is that I will not under any foreseeable circumstances be involved in, or permit myself to be injected into, any other statewide race. I am honored and pleased that I can already count among my supporters and organizers both conservatives and liberals, supporters of both Governor Briscoe and General Hill, as well as supporters of several active or prospective candidates for the U.S. Senate.

While I am tremendously encouraged about my race by the polls and by the fact that I already have a significant head start on anyone who may later decide to become a candidate for Attorney General, I plan to conduct an intensive campaign throughout every part of the State. Within the next few weeks, I will begin a grass-roots tour and that I hope will afford me an opportunity to visit with the citizens of every county in Texas.

My first priority as Attorney General will be making certain that the basic duties and responsibilities of the office under the Constitution and laws of this State are properly and efficiently attended to. I believe the people of Texas are weary of hearing politicians promise new program after new program to provide services and solve problems when we already have more government bureaucracy than we can handle. What I promise is to first make sure that those nuts and bolts function are being fulfilled. This important office will be run to the best of my ability and under the guidelines set by the Constitution and statutes for the benefit of the people, not the officeholder.

As the campaign progresses, I will outline several matters that will be given particular attention and emphasis by me as Attorney General, and I will endeavor to discuss with you, and through you with the people of Texas, in a candid and frank manner exactly how I will approach the important duties and responsibilities of lawyer for the people of this State. I want to stress now that I will zealously guard the independence that I maintained in my earlier public service and that I will always represent the people of this State, and their best interests, in the highest ethical and professional standard to the utmost of my ability.
