"WHAT IS A FRIEND?"

What is a friend? I'll tell you. It is a person with whom you dare to be yourself. Your soul can go naked with him. He seems to ask you to put on nothing, only to be what you really are. When you are with him, you do not have to be on your guard. You can say what you think, so long as it is genuinely you. He understands those contradictions in your nature that causes others to misjudge you. With him you breathe freely - you can allow your little vanities and envies and absurdities. And in opening them up to him they are dissolved on the white ocean of his loyalty. He understands. - You can weep with him, laugh with him, pray with him - through and underneath it all he sees, knows and loves you. A friend - I repeat - is one with whom you dare to be yourself.

- Ralph Waldo Emerson

Mrs. Curt Smith received a letter from Jim Lewis of Houston recently. In it he told of a friend's comment after passing through Rising Star, going from Houston to Lubbock. She said that "Rising Star was such a clean and pretty little town."

Mr. Lewis, having grown up in Rising Star, was reminded of the sign which used to hang by the Market Building. It read "Welcome to Rising Star - The Brightest Little City in the Biggest of States."

Mr. and Mrs. Louis A. Mayfield spent three weeks in Canada and the northwestern states. They returned by way of Gunnison, Colorado, when trout fishing was at its peak. While away, they visited Yellowstone National Park of Wyoming, Glacier National Park of Montana, Lake Louise, and the island of Victoria, B.C.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith have just recently returned from visiting their son and his wife in Ingleside. While there they visited in Corpus Christi, Rockport, Aransas Pass, and Padre Island. They were accompanied by their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Womack and Jeff of Abilene.

Rev. and Mrs. Vic Allen have been visiting friends in Big Spring, Lubbock, and Portales, New Mexico. As their son is being transferred from Denver, Colorado, to Kansas City, Kan., they postponed their visit with them until they are moved.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Hall and two sons from Jacksonville, Illinois, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Buck Clark. Mrs. Hall is the daughter of Mrs. Clark.

H. L. Geye Attends Vocational Agriculture Workshop In Abilene

H. L. Geye, Vocational Agriculture Teacher of Rising Star has just returned from the Area 4 Vocational Agricultural Workshop, held June 15th and 16th at West Texas Utilities Lytle Shores in Abilene. The annual event is sponsored by Texas Education Agency and West Texas Utilities and is designed to keep Vocational Agricultural teachers informed about the latest trends and electrical equipment for home and farm use. The course of study covered control devices, remotes, relays, farmstead wiring, motor repair, maintenance and protection and related subjects.

Instructors were Bob Jaska of College Station, head of Adult Education Specialists of the West Texas Education Agency; Ralph Moser, Area Supervisor, Stephenville, Texas; Boyde Nash, Electronics Technician, College Station, assisted by WTU personnel, with Curly Hays of WTU acting as host.

Teachers, speakers and their wives were guests of West Texas Utilities during the two days, many housed at WTU Lytle Shores over night, with other staying at local hotels and motels.

Belinda Hickman On Dean's Honor List At Tech

LUBBOCK - A total of 1141 students in the College of Education at Texas Tech University qualified for the dean's honor list for the 1972 spring semester, according to Dean Gordon C. Lee.

To qualify for the honor list, a student must be enrolled in 12 semester hours of courses, excluding pass - fail courses, and have at least a 3.0 grade point average. Texas Tech uses a 4.0 grading system.

The college of Education is one of six colleges and two schools at Texas Tech University, with a total spring enrollment of more than 19,500 students. The others are the colleges of Arts and Sciences, Agricultural Sciences, Business Administration, Engineering, and Home Economics and the Graduate School and the School of Law.

Belinda K. Hickman, daughter of Mrs. Della Hickman of Rising Star and Mr. Ike Hickman of Fort Worth, was recognized for her high academic achievement in the College of Education. She will be teaching in the San Antonio School system the ensuing year.

Summer Library Hours Announced

The Rising Star Public Library, operated under the auspices of the Saturday Club, will reopen beginning Thursday, July 6, according to Mrs. James Haney, chairman of the library committee.

During July and August, the library will be open each Tuesday and Thursday morning from 9:00 until 11:00. Women of the Saturday Club will serve as librarians. Children and adults are invited to use the library.

Two Rising Star Students To Attend Bureau Seminar

Two high school students from Eastland County will attend the tenth annual High School Students (Citizenship) Seminar to be conducted by the Texas Farm Bureau July 18 - 22 on the campus of Baylor University in Waco, according to Sam Kimmell, president of the County Farm Bureau. Students selected to attend from this county include:

Debbie Nunnally and James Steel of Rising Star.

They will be among some 450 students from all over the State who will be entering the 11th or 12th grades in September and have been carefully screened as to leadership ability and scholastic achievement.

Attendance is not limited to students from Farm Bureau families, but is open to those who reside in towns or cities as well as rural areas. Their attendance is sponsored by the local county Farm Bureau. Purpose of the seminar according to Mr. Kimmell, is to convey to the students a better understanding of our American heritage and the capitalistic private enterprise system

"that has made ours the greatest of all nations."

They will also be informed about some of the forces, both internal and external, that are eroding our way of life. The ultimate goal, he added, in addition to helping them to be better informed, is to cause them to want to pass on their experiences to others.

Several nationally known authorities will be discussion leaders at the seminar. They include Dr. Clifton Canus, president of Harding College, Searcy, Ark., who will speak on "Understanding and Preserving our American Heritage," "Moral Foundation of Freedom", and "Pyramid of Freedom".

Cleon Skousen, lecturer, author of "The Naked Communist" and other publications, and former FBI agent, of Salt Lake City, Utah, will speak on "History, Strategy, and Tactics of the Communist Party". Tom Hollingworth, former member of the Green Berets, will discuss "Behind the Scenes in Vietnam". Dr. C.L. Kay, assistant president of Lubbock Christian College, Lubbock, will speak on "Freedom is on Trial" and "The Battle Ahead".

Kiddies Pictures This Year Taken In Color

For many years the Rising Star has been running a pictorial feature of the youngsters in this area as "Citizens of Tomorrow". In the near future we will again be publishing a free picture of all the children who are brought by their parents or other guardian to the news office between 10 a.m. and 5 p.m. on Thursday, July 13.

LIVING COLOR
An expert children's photographer will take the pictures to assure uniform quality and size for best reproduction. . . and this year will be taken in natural living color. Please dress your children colorfully to take full advantage of the beauty of color photography. The pictures will run in black and white in the newspaper.

NO COST TO PARENTS
There are absolutely no strings to this invitation nor are there any charges to the parents. . . they do not have to be subscribers or even readers of this newspaper to participate. Neither are the parents obligated to purchase any of the color pictures taken.

Those who might desire color photographs may obtain them by making arrangements with the Studio Representative when they select the pose they wish to see printed in the Rising Star.

APPOINTMENTS
Appointments may be made by calling Sara Butler, phone number 643 - 3371 or 643 - 4141.

While appointments are not necessary to have your children photographed it could avoid your having to wait. Check this date on your calendar now, July 13, and help us make this a memorable community feature.

North Star Club

The North Star Club met in regular session in the home of Mrs. Roy Rutledge. This was an all-day meeting with a covered dish luncheon.

Plans have been completed for the Senior Citizens Bazaar and Fair to be held on September 9. You may bring anything you want to sell, and keep all proceeds derived therefrom.

Thirty little bedshirts were made and mailed to the Abilene State School. These are badly needed by the School and we would appreciate donations of small or large pieces of material to make these with.

This was also regular three months gift exchange.

Several games of bingo were played and refreshments were served by the hostess.

The Rising Star Newspaper Office will be closed Tuesday, July 4th. Therefore, the paper will be printed one day late. Deadline for news will be Wednesday noon, July 5 next week only.

James A. Cox Receives Grant To Tarleton State College

STEPHENVILLE - The Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo has awarded a $5,400 grant to Tarleton State College for two graduate assistantships for the 1972 - 73 school year.

The assistantships will be in the Department of Agriculture, Dr. Jesse L. Tackett, Dean of the School of Agriculture and Business announced. The recipients of the grant are James T. Ford of Santa Anna and James A. Cox of Rising Star. Both will enroll this fall, Dr. Tackett said, to work toward Master of Science Teaching degrees in agriculture. The two men will teach laboratory courses on a half time basis.

Ford and Cox both hold B.S. degrees in agriculture education from Tarleton. Ford was graduated this May and Cox in 1969.

Cox is presently manager of the Pioneer Farmer's Cooperative in Rising Star. He has held the position for the past two years. He is a native of Brownwood but grew up in Rising Star where he was graduated from high school.

Cox attended Cisco Junior College for two years majoring in agriculture and science. He was a member of the student council and reporter for the Junior College Agriculture Association of Texas.

He transferred to Tarleton where he received his degree in 1969. Cox has an extensive background in agriculture, he served as sentinel and parliamentarian of his high school FFA chapter and was a member of the Dairy, Livestock and Land Judging teams, and president of the senior class. His parents operate a peanut farm in Rising Star.

Ford also a native of Brownwood, was reared in Santa Anna where he was graduated from high school. He was a member of the Santa Anna 4 - H Club and active in his high school FFA chapter.

While attending high school he exhibited sheep in several Texas livestock shows. He was a member of his high school's Livestock Judging team and won a scholarship to Tarleton for winning high individual in a tri - area contest. He served as president of the chapter as a senior and was named to the all - district football team two years.

Ford entered Tarleton in 1968 and was a member of the freshman and senior Livestock Judging teams. He was a Distinguished Student and named to the Dean's List. He earned his way through college working as a heavy equipment operator and a helicopter mechanic. Ford served six months on active duty as a member of the Texas National Guard.

Cloyce E. McBride

Local Man To New Job In England

Cloyce E., son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl McBride of May, Texas, was born and reared in this northern area of Brown County. He attended May High School where he was an outstanding athlete in all phases of school sports, helping his teams to win many coveted awards. Being a farm boy, he also took part in 4 - H club activities, and graduated with the class of 1942.

After high school he served in the U.S. Air Force in World War II. After termination of his military service he was married to Miss Virginia Gray, daughter of the late Raymond Gray and Mrs. Gray. Mrs. Gray now resides at 102 S. Jayce Street, Rising Star, Texas.

After their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Cloyce McBride moved to Dallas where he attended S.M.U. studying industrial management at night, and an employee of The Ford Motor Co. by day, in the Dallas Assembly Plant where he worked himself up from an hourly man on the line to Production Manager. After twenty four years in Dallas he was promoted to Operations Manager of the Ford Motor Co. Assembly Plant in Claycoma, Kansas City, Mo. After three years in Kansas City, his latest promotion is a transfer to Dagenham, England, where on July 3rd, Mr. McBride will become assistant Manager of the Ford Motor Assembly Plant of Dagenham.

Mr. and Mrs. McBride are scheduled to fly from Kansas City to Dagenham, England, June 30th.

Rising Star 4-H'ers Participate In County Dress Revue

Five Rising Star 4 - H girls joined thirty other Eastland County girls to participate in the 4 - H Dress Revue last week. The girls were judged in their garments Tuesday evening. During the week the construction and record book judging took place.

Fashion Fiesta was the theme for the gaily decorated Student Union Building at Cisco Junior College on Friday evening. entering from Rising Star were Taby Chambers, Kimberly Harris, Jeanne Hounsel, Theresa Scott in the pre - teen division, and Taronna Chambers in senior division. Special recognition went to Theresa Scott and Jeanne Hounsel, first and second, respectively, in their division and Taronna Chambers, second in senior.

AVIATION CORNER

By Walter T. Le Blanc CFI

Last week, I gave you some of the aspects on flying and what I really believe are the advantages to flying. The really most dangerous part of flying is the driving to the airport to get to the airplane. You are driving on a narrow road at 70 miles per hour and a car coming at you is traveling at the same speed. You 'narrowly' miss each other by approximately 6 feet at 140 miles per hour. Rarely do two airplanes come closer than a mile to each other. If all cars could be kept at least a mile apart, I feel there would be a lot less accidents. Look at the advantages of flying. No traffic snarls, to be able to go 300 or 400 miles in a matter of a few hours instead of being all day traveling. Arrive fresh at your destination instead of all tired out. And service, you could never believe the service you get at most airports. When you land and taxi off the runway, someone is usually there to meet you and help you park your airplane. They will tie it down securely, help you unload your baggage and drive you to their main terminal building. All this without costing a cent. And there's more. Free weather service, free flight planning, free traffic control, assistance in getting you to a motel or lodging, are just a few more of the services. I have yet to get any of the services described above in all of my years of driving.

How do you go about learning to fly? Is it costly? First, to answer the first question. I believe the best way is go to your nearest airport and enquire for a flight school. There is usually one or more located at most airports. Don't be afraid to shop around to find one to your liking. Ask for a demonstration ride. This will usually cost you from 5 to 10 dollars. After the demonstration, you may find that the flying 'bug' has hit you and you'll want more. Now down to the basics of learning to fly. You may have seen ads reading, "If you can drive a car, you can learn to fly." In a sense, this is true but there is much more to learn and to do. The first step is to see a doctor who is also an FAA medical examiner. He will give you a physical check-up which is good for two years. At the same time, you will receive your student pilot's license which is also good for two years. After this is done, you will have to write to the Federal Communications Commission for a Restricted Radio-Telephone Permit, (no test of any kind is needed for this, only the filling out of an application and this is good for your lifetime).

Having decided where you will be taking your flying lessons, and armed with the above permits you are ready for your first lesson. Right away, you will be put into the 'driver's seat' and you will be the pilot. All training airplanes have 'dual' controls, that is, flight controls on both sides of the airplane. Your instructor will show you how to preflight the airplane and then how to start up the engine, which actually starts up like a car. He will show you how to steer the airplane with the pedals on the floor. You may have a tendency at first to try and steer with the wheel which you find out rather fast doesn't do the job. With the instructor's help you will taxi the airplane down the taxi strip and at first find it difficult to travel in a straight line. At the end of the strip he will show you how to run up the engine to make a thorough check of it's operation and how to check all the controls to be sure they are also working properly.

The instructor will check various instruments and set them, and may also use the radio. He'll help you line up the airplane down the runway and then ask you to put your hands and feet on the controls lightly so that you can feel what he is doing. There is a sudden roar, as the instructor pushes the throttle in and you are moving. When you are doing about 60 miles per hour, the instructor pulls back slightly on the control wheel and you are in the air and flying. Once you have gotten to the proper altitude, he will then show you how to make the airplane fly straight and level, how to make slow turns and maybe a few other maneuvers. Now it is time to land the airplane still with you holding the controls. You'll make gradual turns to enter into the airport traffic pattern and on the final turn you will be looking straight down the runway. Your instructor has slowed the airplane down to about 70 miles per hour and over the end of the runway he will slow the engine down to idle. You are now really gliding and as the wheels touch with a slight squeal, you are only doing about 40 miles per hour. The brakes will be applied gently until you are almost stopped, you'll turn off the runway and taxi up to your parking space. He will show you how to stop the engine and how to tie up the airplane properly. You feel wonderful as you watch the instructor enter the flight into 'your' logbook. That flight may have only lasted a half hour and you feel that you could have flown 3 or 4 hours easily. You have much to learn in the future and it is better to learn it slow but sure. The flights will get longer as the days pass and you learn more. The instructor will tell you when you do good and he may yell at you when you do wrong, but believe me, you'll be a good safe pilot when you receive your Private Pilot's license. You will get 40 to 50 hours of training, almost half of which you will be doing yourself, without an instructor. You will be proud when after 10 to 12 hours the instructor will hop out of the airplane and tell you to take it up and land it three times. You will be in a new world by yourself. Remember this is only the start and you will have many more hours of training to go. You will have to study at home or go to ground school because you will have to do a lot of book work. You will be learning about weather, the theory of flight, navigation, instrumentation, how to use a computer or plotter. Sound hard? It is, but remember, 16 year old children are learning to fly and so are 80 year old people. You are never to young or to old. One day, you'll be calling up a friend or relative 400 miles away and ask them to meet you at their airport in about 3 or 4 hours instead of saying, "I may arrive there sometime tomorrow".

Now about cost. You must figure approximately 500 to 900 dollars to get your private license, depending on where you get your flying lessons.

Usually this can be spread out over a period of time and may sound expensive at first. You may be paying more than that to belong to the local golf club and for what it cost you for a set of clubs. Many hobbies cost more in a year's time than the cost of flying.

After getting your license, you can rent airplanes as low as 10 dollars an hour, including gas. It may sound a lot at first but remember you can cover well over a hundred miles in that hour and you pay for the flying time only, not the time you spend on the ground. Buying an airplane can be cheap or costly. New airplanes are expensive but I would recommend shopping around for a good used one. These can start as low as 1800 dollars and up depending on what you want. Also, I might add, airplanes, if taken care of and treated properly don't ever wear out. Many airplanes built back in 1930 are still flying around and giving good service.

Pleasure? Look down at that highway below, and see the cars bumper to bumper, moving along at 15 or 20 miles per hour and the temperature at 90 degrees in the shade. Look around you and be able to see the scenery 75 to 100 miles away, things you couldn't dream of seeing in a car. Pleasure? You bet it is!

White Family Reunion Held At Lake Brownwood

The descendants of Mr. and Mrs. E.M. (Mike and Sarah) White held their annual family reunion at Lake Shore Lodge, Lake Brownwood, June 16 through 18.

Only three of their children are survivors. They are Lee White of Rising Star, E.S. White of San Angelo, and C.A. White of Fort Worth. They all attended the reunion with members of their families.

The greatest number of relatives in the White family who attended were the children of the former Mrs. Louisa White Ware of Rising Star and their families and the family of C.A. White of Fort Worth. Each family of Mr. and Mrs. E.M. White's children was well represented; however, illness prevented some who came to previous reunions.

Everyone greatly enjoyed boating, swimming, skiing, various games, dominoes, etc., visiting, and eating the home prepared foods.

In the business session, it was voted to meet at Lake Shore Lodge on Brownwood Lake the third weekend in June, 1973. Horace L. Jones was elected treasurer and Mrs. Horace L. Jones secretary for the coming year.

Relatives attended from Hobbs, New Mexico, Rising Star, Arlington, Fort Worth, Austin, San Angelo, Brownwood, Baird, Pasadena, Snyder, Abilene, Grandbury, Odessa, Grand Prairie, Houston, and California.

Last Day of Swimming Lessons Has "Big" Treat

The children in the pictures above were joined Friday, June 23 for the last day of swimming lessons by Mr. Leroy Woody. Lessons were given at Lakewood Recreation Center by Mrs. Fleta Gregory of May and Miss Sylvia Graham of Cross Plains to thirteen children from Rising Star, Cross Plains and May.

Woody, Rising Star; Nicki Williams, Cross Plains; Daron Chambers, May; Brad Fortune, Rising Star; Vicki Williams, Cross Plains and Tammy Wilson, May.

There were two others that were unable to attend class Friday morning. They are Edie Switzer of Cross Plains and Shellie McCallie of May.

As you can probably see from the pictures everyone thoroughly enjoyed their visitor. Although, I'm not sure who had the best time, the children or Mr. Woody.

HOME AND FAMILY HINTS

From Higginbothams

Barbara Williams
Dear Barbara:
I have a new Speed Queen Washer from Higginbotham's with all the water temperature settings. Is it true that clothes get really clean in cold water like we see advertised?

Mrs. G: The answer to your question really depends on your definition of "clean". Lightly soiled or thoroughly pre-treated items can get satisfactorily clean for most consumers when washed in cold water using a cold water detergent or dissolving other detergents in hot water before adding them to the wash water. Bacteria in the fabrics will not be killed by cold water without a disinfectant, however. The advantages of cold water washing are that colors tend to fade less and modern fabrics wrinkle less when wash in cold water.

Nothing beats a hot water washing for getting dirty items truly clean. Also, very hot water does kill most germs that the fabrics have picked up in use. Hot water is always best for white cottons and linens. The advantages of cold water washing are the disadvantages of hot water washing; some colors will fade and some modern fabrics, like permanent press, will wrinkle.

Lightly soiled or stain-treated clothing, delicate items, silks, and washable woollens generally do best in a warm water temperature. A disinfectant added to the wash will destroy bacteria.

Here's a tip about water temperatures; it is best to make the wash and the rinse temperatures the same for double-knits. Rapid changes of temperature add wrinkles to these fabrics.

By the way, Mrs. G., thanks for buying Speed Queen. And thanks for shopping at HIGGINBOTHAM'S!!

FROM OUR CHURCHES

First Baptist Church Rising Star

The Rev. Monte Mills has accepted the pastorate of First Baptist Church of Rising Star, effective Sunday July 16. Rev. Mills delivered the morning sermon last Sunday.

Rev. Mills was pastor of Calvary Baptist Church of Cisco. He and his wife, Linda, have a one-year old daughter. They plan to move to Rising Star in about two weeks.

Ginger Kay Atterbury, daughter of Mrs. Margaret Bryant of May, and Danny Medley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Medley, were married in the church on Friday night, June 23. Congratulations to Ginger and Danny.

Our first children's choir rehearsal was well attended by fourteen children in the first through sixth grades. A special invitation is given to all children in this age group to attend the practices each Sunday afternoon at 5:30 in the sanctuary. Plans are being formulated for the beginning of a children's musical in the near future.

Mrs. Opal Jones is a patient in the Eastland Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dudley's son is in an Abilene Hospital. Mrs. Ethel Clarke is a patient in Eastland Hospital and was reported as having slightly improved. Our thoughts and prayers are with all of these and many others, with wishes for a speedy recovery.

We extend our deepest sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Maxwell and family at the passing of Paul's brother, R. D. Maxwell.

We welcome into our church membership these additions by letter: Mrs. Eddie Barker, Gracie Moreen, and Chip McCarver.

We had a number of visitors in our services Sunday which we were very pleased to have. Next week's opportunities: Sunday School 9:45 a.m., Morning Worship 10:45 a.m., Children's Choir 5:30 p.m., Training Union 6:00 p.m., Evening Worship 7:00 p.m., Wednesday Evening Prayer Service 7:00 p.m.

A thought for living - "It is not the greatness of my faith that moves mountains, but my faith in the greatness of God."

Church of Christ Rising Star

Each Sunday we have a number of visitors present for our morning worship service and this week was no exception. We enjoy meeting new people and visiting with them even for only a few minutes.

A minister noticed a strange man coming down to the front pew in the church building. Taken by curiosity, the minister asked what had prompted the visitor's coming to the front. The man replied, 'You see, I'm a bus driver and I came to see how you get every one to the rear of the building. It's more than I can do in the bus.' This story pinpoints a common problem for preachers and others interested in the quality of worship, namely how to get the worshippers off the back seats and into active participation in the worship.

Among our sick, improvement seems to be generally current. It was good to have Pam Hill and Eleanor Nunnally back in worship Sunday after their sickness. My mother, Alene Haney, is in our home and getting along well. Sherry Cotton underwent surgery in Brownwood Community Hospital, Monday. Mrs. A.J. Lam is in the Eastland Hospital.

We were saddened last week at the death of Homer Crossnoe whose funeral was Saturday afternoon. Our prayer for all the family is that God's comforting hand will be felt by them.

Independence Day, July 4, approaches and offers a time for us to reflect on our nation's heritage and future - yours and mine. Our country is without doubt the finest on earth and our freedom, the greatest. Any thoughtful person, however, realizes there is something wrong in this country. The error is not in the American concept of freedom, nor is it in our land itself. The evil is in the hearts of a citizenry which places more emphasis on prestige, possessions and money than it does on character, concern and good citizenship. The wrong is in the hearts of Americans who show their children they value fishing, golfing and ball games more than being faithful in worshipping God, studying His Book and helping others. History teaches that the majority of crumbling empires weaken internally and die from the inside out as a result of selfishness, immorality and an emphasis on pleasure, recreation and wealth.

What a tragic shame if we in "the land of the free" allow our forefathers' dreams of liberty to disintegrate while we play in our own degeneracy. God has the solution: "Righteousness exalts a nation." (Prov. 14:34). Now, do we have the courage to seek and practice God's righteousness?

- James Haney

First United Methodist Church Rising Star

Attending church service Sunday night from Cross Plains were Mrs. Vera Pearl Bunnell, Mrs. Hazel Tunnell, Miss Betty Browning, and Mrs. Mattie Gilmore.

The W.S.C.S. met in the home of Mrs. Fred Cook Monday morning at 9:30. Mrs. Helen Switzer gave the devotional, which was uplifting to all.

Lynn Smith, granddaughter of Rev. and Mrs. Lloyd Coker, returned Thursday to her home in Corsicana.

Rev. Lloyd Coker officiated for funeral services for Caver Holdridge of Cross Plains Friday evening at 2:30 in Cross Plains.

Mrs. Molly West is ill in Eastland Hospital.

Mr. Jerry Winfrey is on the sick list.

Mrs. Jennie Grey would enjoy cards and visits from her friends. Let's remember our sick.

Mildred Culwell, who is in the nursing home in Eastland, was reported improved.

Ira Swift is recuperating in Twilight Acres Nursing Home.

Visiting in the Irvin Hull home last week were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Carter and Mike of Kansas City, Mr. and Mrs. Don Robason of Hobbs, New Mexico, Mrs. Marion Harrelson of Andrews, Mack Robason of Austin, Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Hall and Robbie of Midland, Mr. and Mrs. David Barnes and Linda Soms of Clusterland, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mathis have their daughter with them this week.

Rev. and Mrs. Coker visited Mrs. Coker's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Hillman Black of Edna Hill Thursday evening.

Six attended M.Y.F. Sunday night. Those who were absent can be counted Sunday night if you meet us next Sunday night at 8 p.m. If we grow, we have to be counted and interested.

Church opportunities: Sunday School - 9:45 a.m.; Morning Worship, 11 a.m.; Evening Worship, 6:30 p.m.; M.Y.F., 8 p.m.

Thought for the week: One today is worth two tomorrows.

- Mrs. Lloyd Coker

Bible Baptist Church Rising Star

Bro. Don Hosch, pastor of the Bible Baptist Church, will be back in the pulpit for Sunday services. He was guest speaker last Sunday for Concho Baptist Church in Coleman, Texas. In Bro. Don's absence, Bro. Steve Doff from Bible Baptist Seminary filled the pulpit here.

The church will meet Thursday night, June 29 at 8 p.m. for a watermelon slicing in the joint back yards of W. B. Hastings and W. F. Pittman.

The church is moving right along as the Lord blesses in every way. There have been several families added to the church. New stained glass windows have recently been installed along with new furniture.

Services are as follows: Sunday School, 10:00 a.m. (where we teach only the Bible - King James version); Morning Worship, 10:45 a.m.; Sunday Evening, 7 p.m.; Wednesday evening prayer meeting, 8 p.m.

We would like to invite you to come to our services where you can get your soul fed.

"Man shall not live by bread alone but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God." Matt. 4:4.

Don Hosch, pastor

Pioneer Church of Christ Pioneer, Texas

Vacation time and heat records... never-the-less, people were present Sunday from Cross Plains, Abilene, Rising Star, Carrollton in addition to Pioneer. Surprise! Youth was in attendance at both services almost equal to that of age with boys outnumbering the girls.

This is the generation of the future and not all are "headed for the devil and the dogs." It has been said that if youth goes to the devil and the dogs it will be led there by its elders.

"I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever." David; Psalms 23:6.

G. A. Dunn

First United Pentecostal Church Rising Star

The revival is now in progress. Brother and Sister Emory give chalk talks. Tuesday night she gave one entitled "Self-Made Prison of Sin".

We have had visitors from Cross Plains and Eastland.

We would be happy to have you come and enjoy the blessings of the Lord with us.

Our scripture for the week is found in Galatians 6:7 - "Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap."

Bible reference correction of June 19, Acts 19:1-7. Thank you.

Mrs. A. J. Martin

Animal Lovers Everywhere

By Nancy Stanley

Dear Reader:

Good news! The Rising Star has just created a brand new column - especially for people like you!

Each week you will be offered the very best of news and gossip on every phase of true outdoor adventure. American wildlife, big and small game hunting, fresh water fishing techniques, the marvels of nature, animal fact and lore and much, much more!

Start your exciting adventure now. We'll be happy to welcome you to join us each week for a new adventure.

A local couple here in Rising Star has contacted us to help them locate a parrot. We have found a parrot and are now in the process of obtaining his passage into our state. This is quite difficult at this time due to the recent flare up of New Castle disease in the United States.

Recently the United States Department of Agriculture placed a ban on the importation of parrots and Mynah birds. No one, except the U.S.D.A. animal quarantine officer, was notified that the U.S. Department of Agriculture had issued an order to deny entry and return of all parrots and Mynah birds to the counties of origin. The results were amazing!

Birds arriving from all over the world were ordered returned without being fed or watered. The writer was denied authority by the U.S.D.A. to water and feed baby Macaws and parrots that required hand-feeding. Return flights to countries of origin were not immediately available and the delay in returning the birds resulted in a tremendous loss of birds and transportation charges to American and foreign dealers.

The U.S.D.A. was supplied with overwhelming evidence that the vaccines being used at U.S. Department of Health approved foreign psittacine bird quarantine stations were immunizing psittacine birds against New Castle disease with great success. All this red tape couldn't digest this information in time and so parrots were included in the U.S.D.A. "Stop-order".

The U.S.D.A. failure to require the poultry industry to vaccinate their chicken flocks against the spread of New Castle disease by wild birds as recommended by poultry scientists resulted in serious outbreaks among chicken flocks. From the time these outbreaks started the chicken industry, aided by the U.S.D.A., attempted to blame the parrots and Mynah birds but did nothing to aid or encourage the use of vaccines at bird quarantine stations and compounds in foreign countries.

Mynah birds and parrots have been offered for examination to prove the effectiveness of vaccines being used by our quarantine stations in the foreign countries, but the U.S.D.A. has refused them. Since the U.S.D.A. will not investigate or recognize the effectiveness of the available vaccine nor support research to produce a vaccine they will accept, it become necessary for private industry to support a program.

Mr. John Maralf, owner of The Blue Ribbon Pet Farm of Florida, sent us the above information and asked that we contact other bird lovers in our area, asking them to support a program in encouraging the Morris Animal Foundation to add another worthy project to their research support programs.

Write to them today and express your feelings. If enough support is generated, the Morris Foundation will consider adding birds to their research programs.

Funeral For R. D. Maxwell Held Sunday

R.D. Maxwell, 60, of Kermit, formerly of Rising Star, a meter man for Mobile Oil Co., died at 7:45 p.m. Sunday in Hendrick Memorial Hospital in Abilene.

He had been visiting relatives in Rising Star when he was taken to Hendrick with an apparent heart attack.

Funeral was held at 11:30 a.m. Tuesday at the Grace Temple Baptist Church in Kermit with the Rev. L.D. Green, pastor, officiating. Dr. Joe Scrimshire, pastor of the First United Methodist Church in Kermit, and the Rev. Vic Allen, pastor of the First Baptist Church in Rising Star, assisted.

Graveside services were at 10 a.m. Wednesday in the Rising Star Cemetery, under direction of Cooper Funeral Chapel of Kermit.

Born Sept. 7, 1911, in Eastland County, he was a member of the Baptist Church and had lived in Kermit 21 years after moving from Rising Star. He married Ola Mae Watson Feb. 26, 1954 in Lovington, N.M.

Survivors are his wife; two sons, Glen Haggard of Andrews and R.E. Haggard of San Angelo; one daughter, Mrs. Delbert Dickenson of Stanton; his mother, Mrs. Molly West of Rising Star; two brothers, Paul of Rising Star and Seth of Fort Worth; four sisters, Mrs. Willow Dean Hoover, Mrs. Wanda Turner and Mrs. Thelma Everhardt, all of Fort Worth, and Mrs. Maxine Thomas of Beaumont; seven grandchildren.

- 1 1/2 c. water
- 1/2 c. sugar
- 5 drops cinnamon oil
- 8 - 10 drops red food coloring
- 2 c. sifted flour
- 3 t. baking powder
- 1 t. salt
- 2 T. sugar
- 1/3 c. shortening
- 2/3 - 3/4 c. milk
- 3 c. finely chopped apples
- 3 c. finely chopped apples
- 1/2 T. butter
- 1/2 c. chopped nuts

Place first four ingredients in saucepan, stir, bring to boil, turn to simmer and keep warm. Sift flour, baking powder, salt and sugar into bowl. Cut in shortening with pastry blender, stir in enough of milk for soft dough. Turn on floured pastry cloth; knead dough, and roll into 6 x 12 oblong. Spread apples over dough, dot with butter. Carefully roll in long roll, seal edges. Put syrup in ungreased baking dish 9 x 12. Cut roll in one inch or one and one-half inch slices with sharp knife. Place slices cut side down in hot syrup, sprinkle with nuts. Bake at 400 degrees for 20 - 25 minutes.

'Tune' Tires First To Save Time For Summer Fun

Motorists' chances of truly enjoying the lyrical "lazy, hazy, crazy days of summer" are a lot better if they bone up on warm weather tire care.

These maintenance and safety tips to drivers preparing for summer vacation trips or, traditionally, just more time on the open road:

- Make sure you have enough tread on your tires to last on long trips. If you're near the minimum safe tread depth of 1/16 inch in two or more grooves you may want to make replacements before you take off for isolated areas.

- If you buy any new tires remember the law requires the seller to register them if they were made after May 22, 1971. In the unlikely event a recall is necessary because of possible safety defects the manufacturer will notify you directly.

- Check for proper inflation when tires are "cold", before starting out. Follow the car manufacturer's recommendations in your owner's manual, or posted in the glove compartment or affixed to a door pillar. Add up to four pounds of air per tire for long periods of highway driving at high speeds, but never exceed the maximum pounds per square inch (example: 32 p.s.i. max.) marked on the sidewalls.

- Use your own air pressure gauge if possible. Studies have shown station air towers are often inaccurate up to plus or minus four pounds per square inch.

- Vacation trips often mean heavy loads. Make sure the weight is distributed as evenly as possible, including weight in any towed vehicle. Check your owner's manual or a tire dealer for the maximum load limits of your tires.

- Driving on snow tires for any prolonged period in warm weather is poor economy. Abnormally high heat buildup in these thicker tires can wear down the tread faster than in regular tires. It may also cause sudden disablement.

- When the rain comes, beware of skidding on "summer ice". Water mixes with oil and gas films already on the road to form a slick surface. The risk of losing control is five to ten times more likely on wet pavement.

- Check front end alignment frequently, especially if you notice uneven tread wear or "pulling" to one side while driving. Back roads or a few solid bumps on any surface can throw alignment out, even if it was recently adjusted.

- Check for debris such as stones and glass embedded in the tread and in the grooves before starting out.

- Rotate your tires according to the recommendations in the owner's manual. If you notice abnormal tread wear or seem to be getting a bad ride, this is a good time to have your tires balanced.

- Let experts check your tires for proper inflation, cuts or other damage. You'll like the folks at
