

Eastland County Commissioners Extend Rural Addressing To Oct. 15

Eastland County Commissioners Monday approved a request from Jedco Design of Clyde for a 15-day extension to finish addressing rural homes. This will give Jedco until Oct. 15 to complete work.

County Judge Scott Bailey read the request from Jedco. The letters said that rains and muddy rural roads had delayed work.

The rural addressing will be used for the 911 Emergency System, which is scheduled to be installed soon at the Eastland County Dispatch. Judge Bailey said the last addressing he had heard from was in the Rising Star area. He said people sometimes called him when they found information forms left by Jedco personnel. The Judge also reported that around 1500 rural homes had already been addressed.

Pct. 1 Commissioner Richard Robinson described some of the difficulties in getting 911 equipment installed to specification at the Eastland County Dispatch.

"The electricians came out five times and worked, then the installer came and wrote a whole list of things that hadn't been done - things he hadn't called us about."

Robinson said that basically things seemed to be completed, except for a conduit that needs to go under the highway.

"This will be expensive," he remarked. "We're going to have to spend all of the $800 budgeted on electricians alone."

In other business, the Commissioners voted to approve fire-fighting and emergency contracts with fire departments in the county.

Also approve were line-item adjustments for the District Clerk and County Treasurer. District Clerk Bill Mears reported that he needed more shelving for records. Treasurer Ruth Hart needed to transfer additional funding for state-required schools and Seminars.

County Clerk Joann Johnson requested that an emergency be declared so that her budget could be amended to pay for extra elections held this year. The Commissioners approved her request, and $2,800 was listed as the amount needed.

Weather

It began raining during the night last Wednesday night and continued to rain all day Thursday, until late evening. The accumulation varied from 1.8 in town to 2.8 to the west and 4.3 to the south. Sprinkles fell Friday morning in some areas.

Fog and brief light rain greeted local residents Tuesday morning. Just a trace was reported.

Pct. 3 Commissioner L.T. Owen for a used motor grader. The Commissioners voted to buy a used John Deere grader from West Texas Equipment Co. of Abilene. This is subject to Owen's on-site inspection and approval.

Pct. 4 Commissioner Reggie Pittman reported that 22 inmates were in the jail. A breakdown of that number showed that 15 prisoners were awaiting trial, 2 were being held on "blue" warrants (out of county) 4 on bench warrants (brought from TDC to testify in cases), and 1 prisoner was held for the state of South Carolina.

One Commissioner was heart to remark: "I wish we could have a trial without bringing a bunch in from the penitentiary!"

Pct. 2 Commissioner Calvin Ainsworth reported on the Courthouse and grounds. The grounds came through the Old Rip Festival very well, with the exception of an air conditioner someone pulled out of a ground-floor window and damaged.

Ainsworth said the grounds would soon be planted in grass, and he expected good results there. His main concern right now was the electrical system in the Courthouse, which was apparently never meant to carry all the equipment now on it.

Ainsworth said the lines were overloaded, and running hot in several Departments. He said on the second floor alone three fuse boxes were "real hot."

The Commissioners decided to call in an electrical contractor to evaluate the situation and recommend what needed to be done.

Joggers smooth Rising Star track at the recent opening of the walking/jogging track at the Rising Star City Park. Jogger Edra Butler and Anna Barnes smooth the surface after the heavy rains. The park is gradually shaping up and park employee, Don Cornett, says that the walking/jogging trail is made from heavy quantities of caliche and chat.

Wildcats Downed by Tigers, 10-0

by Wid Keeling

The Rising Star Wildcats traveled to Hico last Friday, September 20, and the Tigers won with a 10-0 score. The Wildcats had several chances to score, getting close as the 1-yard line, but were not able to score. Senior, Jeff Medley had two failed field goal attempts. The first one went wide right and the second went through the uprights but did not count because of a penalty.

A Hico Tiger broke from the Wildcat defense and ran 70 yards for six points. The Tigers had a successful two-point conversion.

Later in the 4th quarter the Cats were pushed deep into their own territory, then were forced to punt from their own end zone. The punt was blocked and somehow went through the uprights for a safety and two more points for Hico.

mulberry and cottonwood trees seem to be getting the most attention from homeowners.

The main eye catching factor is that many mulberry and cottonwood trees are losing leaves rapidly now. It is still too early for these trees to be losing a lot of leaves.

Early defoliation of a tree could weaken the tree. A stressed tree will be more susceptible to freeze damage this winter. A weakened tree could also be more susceptible to water and heat stress next summer. All of these factors could result in the loss of the tree.

The most common disease being seen on mulberry and cottonwood trees is fungal leaf spot. This disease can be identified by irregular to round lesions or spots, which will be from brown to gray in color. Mulberry leaves will also turn yellow as the infection increases.

There are many suggested fungicides for the control of leaf spot. Two common fungicides are Benlate 50 DF or Daconil 2787. Many stores may just carry a general use ornamental fungicide. Whichever type of fungicide you select, make sure it is labeled to control leaf spot and is labeled for the tree you will be using it on. Always read and follow label instructions.

If weather conditions turn cold and/or dries up chemical control of the leaf spot may not be required. Also, the loss of a few leaves does not necessarily justify chemical control. The more important the tree is to your landscape then the less of a risk you should take before a fungicide is used.

Traffic flow was interrupted in Rising Str last Thursday when transporters for two large tanks needed help to pass beneath utility cables. The trucks and escort service traveled west on Highway 36 to 183, then turned north.

Mistrial Declared in Hennington Trial

A mistrial was declared late Thursday in the trial of Shirley Hennington, accused of the murder of Leslie Renee Roberts of Ranger.

Judge Jim Wright of the 91st District Court declared the mistrial when the jury failed to reach a verdict after four hours of deliberation. There was a 6-6 tie vote, with no changes during the afternoon.

Reports were that the deadlock resulted from the failure of some members of the jury to believe the testimony of state's leading witness, Randy Wells. There was also said to be a failure to place Mrs. Hennington at the murder scene.

The body of Leslie Renee Roberts was found in her car on a road in Ranger Feb. 1, 1990. In October of 1990 Shirley Hennington's husband, Jerry Hennington, was convicted in 91st District Court of the murder of Roberts. He received a 99 yr. sentence, which he is now serving.

The trial of Shirley Hennington began last Monday, Sept. 16 and included the testimony of a number of witnesses, both for the defense and prosecution. Leading defense attorney was Charles Scarbrough of Abilene, and prosecuting attorneys were District Attorney Leslie Vance and Assistant District Attorney Bill Dowell.

Randy Wells testified for the state in exchange for murder charges in the case being dropped against him. He said he was at the scene and gave details of the murder.

The state attempted to prove Hennington killed Roberts because she found the victim in a car with her husband, Jerry Hennington.

Defense attorneys tried to prove that Roberts was killed when a drug deal went bad.

After the mistrial was declared there was no indication whether Hennington will be tried again for the death of Roberts. The charges against her still stand, and she will remain free on bond. The case will undoubtedly be studied by the District Attorney's office.

While the murder trial was in progress Thursday Hal Ray Honea was arrested and jailed on perjury charges related to the trial.

According to reports about a month ago, Honea gave David Ward, investigator for the District Attorney, a sworn statement on Shirley Hennington.

When served with a subpoena for the trial, Honea allegedly told Ward he was going to take the Fifth Amendment, then said his statement about Hennington was not true.

Honea's bond on the perjury charge has been set at $3,000 by Eastland Justice of the Peace Vernon Walker.

CONTRIBUTION TO THE EASTLAND COUNTY RESOURCE ASSOCIATION

Dr. Vaughn Baker, Pastor of the First United Methodist Church of Eastland, presented a check for $168.19 to Corrie Cowley, Director of the Eastland County Resource Association.

The money was contributed by children from the Methodist, First Christian and other Churches while attending Vacation Bible School at the Methodist Church last summer. It will be placed in the Ill and Disabled Children's Travel Fund of the Resources Association.

This fund is used for expenses of children who need to travel elsewhere for specialized medical attention.

WANTED BLOOD DONORS

ALIAS TYPE A-B-AB-O
POSITIVE & NEGATIVE

Eastland Memorial Hospital Wed., Oct. 2--3 To 7:30 P.M.

Carter Blood Center is committed to providing a safe and adequate blood supply to the people of this area through the cooperation of Eastland Memorial Hospital.

The blood supply at Carter Blood Center is constantly and thoroughly tested. Seven separate tests to detect transmissible diseases are conducted on each unit of blood donated, including tests for AIDS, hepatitis and syphilis.

Blood banking is one of the most highly regulated areas in health care. It is governed by multiple federal and state laws, rules, policies and regulations. Carter Blood Center is licensed by the FDA and must adhere to these rules and regulations plus additional guidelines that are issued continuously.

Carter Blood Center is responsible for supplying the blood needs of 48 hospitals in 17 counties. It takes approximately 250 pints a day to meet those needs.

The blood supply depends on volunteers. The practice of paying people for their blood was phased out in the 1970's at Carter Blood Center.

Each year over four million Americans need a blood transfusion. Carter Blood Center provided more than 100,000 blood transfusions in 1990.

Criteria For Blood Donation

On mobiles, blood donors must be between the ages of 17 and up to 66th birthday. All 17 year old donors must have written consent from parent or guardian.

A donor should have consumed food and drink within 4 to 6 hours prior to donating blood.

A person must weigh a minimum of 110 pounds. The interval between blood donations must be 8 weeks.

Excluded: Any person with a history of viral hepatitis, a positive test for Hepatitis B, a positive test for antibody to Human Immunodeficiency Virus (AIDS virus), a history of drug addiction or coronary artery disease.

Further details may be secured by calling Eastland Memorial Hospital 817/629-2601.

German Vistor Impressed With Friendly People

Ute Walsch (Center) Agricultural Specialist from Germany, visited with County Agents David Tunmire and Janet Thomas this week. Ute is a member of the Land Jugend delegation sharing their culture with 4-H members and families in Texas.

"One of the main differences I see here is that the people are so outgoing and friendly."

That is the way Ute Walsch, attractive young German visitor, describes Eastland County and Texas. And she speaks in fluent English, explaining that in Germany English is taught in all the schools.

Ute Walsch is employed by the German government in work corresponding to that of a County Agricultural Agent here. She lives in Southern Germany in the State of Baden-Wuerttemberg - a beautiful area just north of Switzerland. This State has the Black Forest and other scenic attractions.

Ute is a member of the "Land Jugend" delegation sharing their culture with 4-H families in Texas. Land Jugend is a counterpart of the 4-H organization, although their members are usually older. You can be a Land Jugend member from age 14 to 35.

Sixteen members of this group arrived at the DFW Airport on Sept. 5, and went to different parts of North Texas. Ute is living with the Eckert family of Eastland (Daryl and Rhonda Eckert) for the first two weeks of the month-long stay in Texas.

During the last two weeks of their trip the Land Jugend members will visit Austin, San Antonio and Big Bend National Park.

Ute Walsch says that in Germany she works with animals, not crops. She also assists farmers with the many regulations and papers they have to deal with.

She explains that German farmers have a lot more papers to fill out than American farmers do. In Germany agriculture is controlled and heavily subsidized.

Ute is particularly interested in Agriculture and 4-H here, and in the work of the Extension Service. She has enjoyed exchanging information with Eastland County Extension Agents David Tunmire and Janet Thomas.

Other highlights of her visit here have included talks to the Olden and Eastland 4-H clubs, a trip to the Birdsong Peanut Corp., in Gorman, Pecan Field Day at the Dan Childress farm near Cottonwood, and just shopping and visiting with her host family and other people. Other visits around the County are scheduled.

She is amazed at the friendly waves as she rides a bicycle in Eastland.

"In Germany they are not that way - not so outgoing to a stranger. They have to know you before they will smile, wave or speak."

She says that another difference is that the farmers here seem to be "happier."

"I do not think they have as many problems as we do in Germany. Sometimes the farmers there get so angry at the many papers they have to sign that they shout!"

She explains that things are getting more complicated for German agriculture with the entry into the European Common Market.

Another big difference in Texas is the amount of land available for farming.

"Texas has double the space of Germany and 14 million people."

When asked the main thing she learned from coming to Eastland County, Ute replies:

"I have learned that the nicest and most comfortable way to live is to be kind and friendly."

"That is something I have always felt in my heart - now I find you are like I am."

"I hope to come back here again some day."

Poem

Prayer on QT

NOW I sit me down in school, where praying is against the rule; for this great nation under God, finds public mention of Him odd.

Any prayer a class recites, now violates the Bill of Rights; any time my head I bow, bedomes a federal matter now.

Teach us of stars or pole and equator make no mention of their Creator; tell of experts in Denmark and Sweden, but not a word of Eve or Eden.

The law is specific, the law is precise, praying out loud is no longer nice; praying aloud in a public hall, upsets believers in nothing at all.

In silence alone can we meditate, and if God should get credit, well, that's great; this rule, however, has one gimmick in it, you have to be finished in less than a minute.

So all I ask is a minute of quiet, and if I feel like praying then maybe I'll try it; if not, O Lord, this one plea I make: Should I die in school, my soul you'll take.

THE BOWL IS HOME!

The Bowl is home! In all its glory, the Lions Benefit Bowl Game returned to its founding site this weekend, and under clear skies, it was greeted and welcomed by thousands in Eastland County who came from far and wide to attend.

It came home to join the Chamber of Commerce Old Rip Fest Super-Giant Parade and a day of frantic activity which provided something for everyone.

Lions Club and Chamber officials were delighted that the all-day event had been such a success. Rains spattered most of the week, but by parade time Saturday morning, the sun began to show itself.

The event activities began Thursday with the crowning of the Peanut Bowl Queen at the Majestic Theatre.

Spectators saw awesome ball Saturday night in the tradition-laden Cisco Junior and Ranger Junior grid clash. The Bowl began 30 years ago to spotlight the peanut industry and the two colleges. For the past 12 years, the bowl has been away, under the auspices of the district Lions. Proceeds from the bowl go to benefit the Lions Crippled Children's Camp.

Lions and Chamber officials were expressing appreciation to all who assisted, contributed and helped make the special day such an overwhelming success.

And next year will be even bigger. They now predict as planning gets under way.

RJC Edges Cisco JC, 6-0

Sophomore wide receiver Tony Lanier tossed a 10-yard scoring pass off of a reverse to quarterback Wayne Mathis late in the second quarter to lift Ranger Junior College past Cisco JC, 6-0, in the 14th Annual Lions Club Peanut Bowl.

The win was the Rangers' second in a row over their cross-county rivals. Cisco had a chance to win the game in the closing minutes but freshman runningback Joseph Aska was stopped at the RJC 1-yard line on a fourth-and-goal attempt by RJC strong safety Keith Lawrence with 1:24 remaining.

The two teams battled through a scoreless first quarter before Ranger, 2-1, managed to get things going offensively. The Rangers drove 37 yards on nine plays, which included a key 7-yard scramble from quarterback David Brewer before RJC head coach Joe Croussen called for the reverse pass.

Mike Fields' PAT kick fell short.

The Wranglers, now 2-1, had two chances to claim the victory in the third quarter, but a fumble and a pass completion on fourth-and-goal ended Cisco's threats on the RJC 8- and 5-yard lines, respectively. Cisco's Warren Richardson, a 5-3 sophomore from Tyler, finished as the game's top rusher with 58 yards on 12 carries.

CJC quarterback Clint Dolezel paced the offense with 11 completions in 29 attempts for 134 yards. Ranger..0 6 0 0-6 Cisco...0 0 0 0-0

Eastland County Bass Club

BURGESS WINS AT LEON

The Eastland County Bass Club sponsored weekly jackpot held on Lake Leon Sunday, September 22, was won by Chuck Burgess. Chuck had three fish that weighed a total of 9.74 lbs. In second place with two fish weighing 6.46 lbs was Gary Horton. We had a total of 14 anglers who finished this weekly event. The next jackpot will be on Sunday, September 29, with headquarters at Chock-O-Block on Lake Leon and fishing hours will be from 1:30 to 5:30 p.m. These jackpots are open to anyone wanting to fish and you do not have to be a member of any bass club.

The Guy's and Doll's get-together has been scheduled for October 12 at Sowell Creek Park on Lake Proctor. A campsite has been reserved and interested couples are asked to be there by 8 a.m. The club will provide hamburgers and all the fixings for everyone that shows up. We will also be having our awards presentation at this time. This Guy's and Doll's event is not just for club members and their wives. We would like to have other couples show up and participate whether they want to join the club or not.

Our next club meeting will be on October 3 at the Eastland National Bank and will begin at 7:30 p.m. All club members are urged to attend. We will have the final results of our open tournament at this time.

The next E.C.B.C. inter-club tournament will be on Sunday, October 13. Interested anglers will meet at Double Vision Restaurant in Eastland for the 6 a.m. drawing of the lake to be fished.

The E.C.B.C. Mini-Classic has been set for October 19th and 20th. The top 16 anglers of the club will be notified by a letter about this.

The E.C.B.C. would like to thank the wives of the club members who helped at the Open Tournament last weekend. We couldn't have had a successful tournament without their help.

Anyone interested in any of our upcoming events or anything about the club can call Gary Horton at 647-3888 or Butch Willingham at 442-3142. New membership are now being taken as we have just started our new year.

Influenza Season

North Americans could be in for a repeat of the 1989-90 influenza season when 50,000 people died of flu-related illnesses. The two influenza strains expected to dominate the 1991-92 season are A/Beijing and A/Taiwan, each named for the area where it was first observed.

"The 1990-91 season was predominantly influenza B so we expect influenza A to be dominant for 1991-92," said Dr. W. Paul Glezen, chief epidemiologist at the Influenza Research Center at Baylor College of Medicine in Houston.

Outbreaks of influenza A are frequently more severe than type B. The epidemic two years ago was the worst in 20 years.

A complicating factor, Glezen said, is that many elderly people, who comprise the major influenza high-risk group, were born or went through childhood prior to the emergence of the A(H3N2) strain, of which A/Beijing is a variant. As a result, they have not built up resistance through prior exposure.

Help is available, however, because the vaccine for this flu season protects against A/Beijing and A/Taiwan as well as against B/Panama, another strain that could appear.

But, despite the availability each year of an effective vaccine, thousands of people most at risk from flu complications fail to get vaccinated, he said.

"The elderly are the single largest group of people who should get flu shots," Glezen said. "They are particularly susceptible to such serious flu complications as pneumonia."

The ideal time for flu shots is long before the appearance, usually in December, of the first cases. Glezen suggests being vaccinated by Thanksgiving at the latest. It takes two weeks for a flu shot to provide full protection.

The elderly are not the only ones who should guard against the flu. Other high-risk groups include people with heart disease; lung disease, including asthma and chronic bronchitis; diabetes; chronic kidney disease; and chronic anemia, including sickle cell disease.

Also at high risk are people, such as health-care workers, likely to come into contact with

Senior Citizens Center

by Marjorie West

This Thursday, September 26, we will celebrate the following September birthdays: Marjorie West, Mearlyn Jones, Charles Chamberlain and Ray Hutchinson. Come and enjoy the birthday party.

Weldon and Lucille Stillwell of Fort Worth visited Marion and Marjorie West Sunday and Monday.

The rains have really made the lawns look like spring. You hear lawn mowers running in all directions.

The grasshoppers have left the fall gardens and the crickets have moved in. Some way, one will sneak into the house and the music begins.

Our crowd was off some Monday as a revival was going on at the First Baptist Church.

Dell and Alvy Bible went to Irving last week to see Dell's children. They came back to Weatherford and spent the night with Tina and Rolan Hassell. They are doing pretty good.

Joe and Evelyn Ward went out for lunch yesterday and found out that her son, Jerry, and wife, Mae will be here for the weekend. They are from Big Lake.

Mary Carroll is visiting her sister and brother-in-law, the Dawell Wests, in Abilene.

The Frosts have two new great-grandchildren, a great-grandson in Havana, Ark. and a great-granddaughter in Quannah.

We had 22 for Meals on Wheels.

There's a mini baby boom going on in the United States, with more than 4 million births estimated for last year, the biggest number since 1964. One reason is that the babies of the last baby boom are now of child-bearing age.

Research in Zurich, Switzerland indicates a correlation between migraine and depression. Usual route, say the scientists, seems to be anxiety disorders in the young teens, then migraine, then depression.

Though it's mostly female teens who are deficient in iron, Physician and Sportsmedicine magazine reports that many young males may also be low in iron, limiting energy and sports performance. Puberty and strenuous exercise may cause the deficiency.

Tetanus most often develops not from the proverbial rusty nail, but from minor household injuries. Doctors recommend everyone be immunized against tetanus, with a booster shot every 10 years.

ROARING

RANGER DAYS

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 28, 1991

The discovery of oil in 1917 turned the peaceful little town of Ranger, Texas into a high-rolling, wide-opened, wild, and wooly twentieth-century frontier town. The Ranger Oil Boom produced riches ten times greater than those of any gold rush and word spread like wildfire. Within a few short months the population of Ranger swelled from 800 to over 30,000. Ranger shot up in the big Texas sky like a giant rocket and for a short time its roaring boom and brilliant light surpassed everything else in the sky. The Boom didn't last, but the spirit of Roaring Ranger did. Each year during the last weekend in September the people of Ranger share with the rest of the world their proud past and the Boomtown spirit which still exists there. This is your invitation to join us.

The Roaring Ranger Museum Begins Its 10th Year

THE CORNERSTONE event of the first Roaring Ranger Days celebration was opening of the Roaring Ranger Oil Boom Museum. Pictured above is the original ribbon cutting ceremony held on October 9, 1982.

The Roaring Ranger Oil Boom Museum, which opened its doors on October 9, 1982 at 11:00 am will begin its 10th year of operation this year. The original ribbon cutting ceremonies and the Museum dedication served as the keystone event for the first annual "Roaring Ranger Days" Festival which was held on that same day. Jerry Bob Greer and Tom Brashier served as Museum Co-Chairmen were with the help of many other hard working Ranger residents were able to establish the Roaring Ranger Oil Boom Museum.

The building that is home to the Museum was donated to the Ranger Industrial Foundation in 1980 by the Missouri Pacific Railroad after a year and a half legal struggle that included a hearing with the Texas Railroad Commission. Originally, this historic landmark had been scheduled for demolition, but through the efforts of local citizens, an agreement was reached with the Missouri-Pacific Railroad to preserve the depot for posterity and make it the permanent home for the Museum that chronicles the colorful past of Ranger, the boom town.

Erected in 1919, the depot stands as the largest unchanged reminder of the boom days of Roaring Ranger. In addition to the Museum the depot building still serves as home to the Ranger Chamber of Commerce office and the Ranger Exes Sports Hall of Fame, just as it did on opening day in 1982. The south end of the structure remains as a working part of the Missouri-Pacific with several crews working out of the office.

In the yard next to the Museum stands a boom day vintage oil field rig which was donated to the Roaring Ranger Museum by the Sun Exploration and Production Company. The unit is actually composed of two rigs that were on old Texas & Pacific leases owned by Sun. One rig was located about a mile west of Ranger while the other was about two miles west. The parts were reconstructed into a single rig and features a large wooden wheel connected by a belt to two smaller steel wheels powered by a Cooper-Bessemer engine. Also a small pumpjack is in place topped off with a large wooden "walking" beam. The Ranger Jaycees, with the help of Jerry Wilson, Polo Jiminez, Bobby Justice and Aubrey Winn were responsible for moving and reconstructing the rig in 1982. Today it serves as a significant addition to the Roaring Ranger Museum.

Bob Galloway, manager of the Ranger Chamber of Commerce, keeps the Museum open weekdays from 10:00 am until 2:00 pm. Jeanne Pruitt, Museum director has organized volunteers so that the Museum can be opened on the weekends. Thanks to these others may enjoy the Museum, the Museum can be visited from 9:00 am until 5:00 pm Saturday and from 1:00 pm until 5:00 pm on Sunday. Admission to the Museum is free, however, donations are accepted.

The Roaring Ranger

Museum will be open to the public all day during Roaring Ranger Day, so be sure to stop by and relive the boomtown spirit which has been preserved for future generations to enjoy. Many of the residents who lived in Ranger during the boom will serve as Grand Marshals of this years parade and some will be on hand at the Museum afterwards to answer questions and pass on to others the amazing stories of the days when RANGER REALLY ROARED.

Ranger Really Did Roar!!!!!!

Ranger began, as its name implies, as a Texas Ranger Camp located on the Main Line of the Texas and Pacific Railway. After its founding in 1881, Ranger remained a small farming community of around 700 people until a rainy day on October of 1917, when the McCleskey well number one blew in the face of Ranger and the history of this area changed forever.

The well gushed out of control for four days. The oil mixed with the rain and mud and ran into the streets below. The T & P Coal Company operating the coal mines in nearby Thurber concentrated their efforts toward finding oil and abandoned the mines soon after to become the biggest prospectors in the Ranger Field.

To add to the importance of the find, the world was at war and the Allied forces were in desperate need of oil. It is estimated that a large portion of the petroleum used by the Allies came directly from the Ranger.

With the boom came an influx of people that has never been experienced since. Within eighteen months over 40,000 people moved into Ranger and to complicate matters, the rain that was falling continued to fall during that eighteen month period, making the unpaved streets impassible for man or beast. There were tales of a team of mules drowning on Commerce Street while pulling an oilfield wagon. The best bargain in town was a mule powered sled that would pull passengers from one side of Main Street to the other for the price of five cents.

The mud and the masses became the stuff of which legends were made. In fact, Ranger became the model for several movies including "Boomtown" starring Clark Gable and Spencer Tracy which has the two stars fighting it out in the muddy street in the opening scene.

But the truth really outdoes the legend in Ranger. It was here that a man was fined $50 for murder by the local Justice of the Peace . . . that ten passenger trains daily carried standing room only crowds into town . . . that Lawrence Welk and the immortal Jimmie Rodgers brought their musical shows to town to entertain the roughnecks. . . and it was in Ranger that the brothels and the bars ran so wide open that the local replied, Anywhere but the churches and the banks.

Yes, Ranger really did roar. With the Ranger boom came the growth of Strawn, Desdemona, Cisco, Breckenridge, Eastland and a dozen or so other towns, though some are now forgotten. But the boom was not to last. Without regulation, the boom ran unbridled to its downfall. There was no commercial use for natural gas and it was flared away into the night along with the pressure that caused the oil to gush from the ground.

THIS AUTHENTIC STEAM CALLIOPE, owned by McMurry College in Abilene, will return to Ranger Saturday to take part in the 10th Annual Roaring Ranger Days celebration. The calliope was present in the first Roaring Ranger Days in 1982 and was played by Lyndell Cockburn. The antique keyboard actually entertained circus crowds in the earlier part of this century. The calliope will be in the parade Saturday, which starts at 10 a.m. Polly Alexander of Ranger will be playing the calliope this year.

Today, Ranger and the other towns remain. The big boom is gone forever but the spirit of the people lives intact. Thought this generation will never see the revival of such an all out wide open oil rush again, we like to remember. Each year the people of Ranger come together in a renewal of that boomtown spirit and to celebrate that moment in history when Ranger was the brightest star in the entire Texas sky. Return with us to that period of time when RANGER REALLY ROARED during the 10th Annual Roaring Ranger Days celebration, Saturday, September 28th.

THE ROARING RANGER MUSEUM

The generation of Americans who were born between 1880 and 1920 have made for themselves a special place in our history.

This group of men and women witnessed and helped make greater changes in our world than any generation has made.

They began their lives in a time of horse and buggy and have lived to see man set foot on the moon and reach into distant space.

They accepted challenges that were placed before them and did so with a spirit that deemed them successful.

When they were challenged on the battlefield in great world wars, they responded by winning those wars!

When their population was threatened by catastrophic diseases, they discovered cures!

When confronted with a great economic depression, they struggled through it and built a better world from it!

And when the world was faced with a great energy crisis and the winning of a war was threatened, they came to Ranger and discovered oil!

Our world has never seen a generation that has shown more intelligence, more spirit, more stamina or that has worked harder and been more successful than that generation.

So to you of that era . . . and to those of your generation who have gone on before. . . our hats are off to you. . . and we dedicate the Roaring Ranger Museum to you. . . because we believe that someday history may say that you were "Our Greatest Generation."

WILL THE WINNING TICKET HAVE YOUR NAME ON IT?

Sponsored by the Ranger Chamber of Commerce

Win a 5 Day-4 Night Vacation For Two at NUEVO VALLARTA - JACK TAR VILLAGE
(Located outside Puerto Vallarta, Mexico)

VACATION TRIP INCLUDES: airfare, hotel, all meals & beverages, nightly entertainment and more... TRIP IS NON-TRANSFERABLE AND MUST BE TAKEN BY 12/13/91.

DRAWING TO BE HELD

Saturday, September 28, 1991
during Roaring Ranger Days

$2.00 DONATION

Imagine yourself and a companion sunning on the warm, golden sands of the beach looking out at the beautiful Pacific Ocean. Sound like a dream? Dreams can come true. Just ask Jackie and Jamie Gentry, last years winners of the trip to Las Vegas. How did they win? They bought a $2.00 ticket from the Ranger Chamber of Commerce. It was the easy.

This year in honor of the Tenth Annual Roaring Ranger Days celebration the Chamber of Commerce is going all out. This years trip will be a spectacular vacation package at the Jack Tar Village Resort at Nuevo Vallarta located outside of Puerto Vallarta, Mexico. Your vacation package will include round trip airfare from DFW Airport, 5 days/4 nights accommodations, all meals and beverages at the Village, entertainment, and activities.

Gracious, exciting, beautiful, spacious and secluded Jack Tar Village Nuevo Vallarta is all this and more!

This magnificent Jack Tar Village is located within the exclusive and totally self-contained resort community of Nuevo Vallarta, Mexico. Just fifteen minutes from downtown Puerto Vallarta, it offers the best of two worlds.

Overlooking the blue Pacific on its own golden beach, Jack Tar Village Nuevo Vallarta is removed from the congestion of downtown Puerto Vallarta. Yet the port-of-call's attractions, shopping, and cobblestone streets and Colonial charm are close by.

However, you'll find plenty of enjoyable ways to fill your days and nights without having to leave the Jack Tar Village. And they will already be paid for. Set your own pace. Do as much or as little as you wish. This is the carefree way to vacation.

Upon arrival you will receive your VIP card. Just show your VIP card for all food, drinks and Village activities during your stay.

If you believe life's a beach, here's The Life. Soft white sand with a golden sparkle. Thatched palapas and lounge chairs. A rolling, rhythmic surf. A stunning view of Banderas Bay and awe-inspiring sunsets.

But the beach is only the beginning of the fun at the Village. Four tennis courts are available for day and night play. Rackets and free clinics with the resident pro are provided. To explore the scenic Nuevo Vallarta community, just check out a bicycle and set your own pace.

There's always something fun going on in or beside the Activities pool. Volleyball, water polo, aerobics, pingpong, bingo, popular music and great people watching.

There's also a "quiet" pool for adults. Grab a float and drift your cares away.

Go horseback riding on special trails that wind through tropical greenery. Try body surfing with the help of a boogie board or maybe you would enjoy snorkeling.

Evenings at the Jack Tar Village are filled with live entertainment, music and dancing. Fiesta Night and other theme events make each night a special occasion. There's also entertainment in The Meeting Place Lounge. And of course, all drinks and entertainment are included every night during your Jack Tar Village Nuevo Vallarta Beach Resort vacation.

Sounds nice, doesn't it? Better get your ticket. It could be the winning one. Tickets available from any Chamber of Commerce director or at the Chamber of Commerce office, Flowers by Jones, or King Insurance. In Eastland tickets can be purchased at Computers and More located on the south side of the Courthouse square.

A SALUTE TO THOSE WHO DARED TO DREAM

As the Ranger Chamber of Commerce busily prepares for the Tenth Annual Roaring Ranger Days we feel it appropriate to salute those who ten years ago conceived and initiated both the annual Roaring Ranger Days celebration and the priceless Roaring Ranger Museum.

IT'S A LOT HARDER TO PAVE A ROAD THAN IT IS TO TRAVEL ONE

TO THOSE who headed up the committees and to the many, many people who pitched in to help we say thanks for your innovative thinking, hours of hard work, and the courage to try something new. Ten years later it's bigger and better than ever. To all of you who participated -- thank you!! It couldn't have been done without the help and cooperation of each one of you.

Fishing Outdoors

by Terry L. Wilson

Gov. Richards Proclaims Hunting & Fishing Day

Our cooler fall weather and recent rains have put the bass and crappie moving. Leon's black bass were biting very well Sunday on a variety of baits in shallow water. Spinners and worms were reported to be the top two.

Head for your favorite fall spots mid and back sections of pockets. Try the secondary points first if no ones home move on in towards the back of the pockets. The current cloud cover should have those lunkers out roaming a little more than normal. This should prove true on most area lakes, try to be on a real hawghole around 12:00 noon with the full moon phase now.

Crappie catches have been great for this early in the cool weather run. Anglers are reporting limits and some slabs to 1 1/4 pounds. Minnows in about 3 feet of water with brushpiles. The river section seems best for size but the main lake area has got the numbers.

Governor Ann Richards has proclaimed Sept. 28 Hunting and Fishing Day in Texas in accordance with National Hunting & Fishing Day on the same date.

In an official memorandum dated Aug. 29, the governor, an avid hunter, wrote:

"Conserving our state's natural and wildlife resources is one of the most important responsibilities we have to this and future generations of Texans.

"For over 100 years, sportspeople have been in the forefront of the conservation movement. Not content with merely vocalizing their support, hunters and anglers have advocated and supported conservation legislation and wildlife management programs, and they have requested special fees and taxes on their equipment which help pay for wildlife management and other conservation programs.

"These sportspeople have helped found the conservation movement, supporting laws to stop uncontrolled exploitation of wildlife and helping establish game and fish laws and management practices.

"The conservation programs supported and financed by Texan hunters and anglers have benefited hundreds of wildlife species, from deer and wild turkeys to antelope and bald eagles. This is wildlife that all Texans can enjoy.

"The people of Texas should be encouraged to recognize the enormous contributions hunters and anglers have made to our state's conservation efforts."

This is the 20th anniversary of National Hunting & Fishing Day. President George Bush, quail hunter and fisherman, is honorary chairman.

Bob Delfay, executive director of the National Shooting Sports Foundation, said in 1990, sportsmen contributed $354 million for fish and wildlife restoration programs through the special excise taxes on their equipment. "Hunters and shooters contributed $157.4 million last year to be used exclusively for wildlife restoration programs and fishermen contributed $196.5 million for fish restoration programs," he said. Distribution of the funds depends on the land and water area and the number of hunting and fishing license holders in each state.

For more information on National Hunting & Fishing Day contact NSSF at 555 Danbury Road, Wilton, Conn. 06897.

A number of area two person teams who competed all year in the Anglers Choice Team Circuit will be heading for Lake Texoma for the Classic to be held October 2 through the 5th.

Teams who qualified from the northwest region include; Bobby Maynard, Chuck Burgess and Tommy Maynard; Bob & Joe Bob More; James

Bill (Alex Winter) and Ted (Keanu Reeves) wisecrack while the Grim Reaper (William Sadler) keeps smirking. This comedy/adventure will begin at the Majestic Friday, Sept. 27, and show nightly through Monday, Sept. 30

Fullen & B. J. Johnson; Bud Wood & Butch Willingham. These teams along with qualifiers from across Texas, Louisiana, Oklahoma, Arkansas, and New Mexico will be competing for over $100,000.00 in cash and prizes including 2 hanger boats for first, one Ranger boat for second through 4th each, 5th $4,000.00 cash. Money and prizes will be awarded for the top 50 finishers at the classic. Good luck to our local teams in their quest to claim the 1991 crown.

Terry Wilson

'Bill & Ted's Bogus Journey' To Show At Majestic Theatre

It's a comedy, it's off-beat, it's zany - all these descriptions apply to the movie "Bill & Ted's Bogus Journey." This movie is also a sequel to the 1989 sleeper hit "Bill & Ted's Excellent Adventure," in which the two San Dimas teens time traveled back to catch up for a history lesson.

In this latest trip (also by Orion Pictures, rated PG) the journey of Bill and Ted begins in the future.

At a University bearing their name the students can learn firsthand via the time machine (and tutor George Carlin). Fleshing out the idyllic surroundings is evil rebel leader De Nomolos (Jack Ackland) and The Grim Reaper, played by William Sadler.

This romp through time will appeal to those who want lively entertainment. Tickets will be $3 at the box office.

Saturday Club News

The club met at the city library September 18 for its first business meeting of the new season. A new member was introduced and several pending memberships were tabled. The Federation Counselor read from the Club Woman on helping the illiterate. Our special guest, Pat Walker, provided some very beautiful piano music with a medley of old favorite songs that stir our memories and relax our minds. Thank you, Pat, for sharing with us your wonderful God-given talent. We want to thank our hostesses, Eleanor Nunnally and Bea Kruger, for a lovely and delicious luncheon and a delightful program. Our next meeting will be October 2. See you there!

Extension Homemakers

from Janet Thomas County Extension Agent
Bumper stickers invite others to "Ask about my Grandchild". Magazines, newspapers, radio talk shows and television specials are also discussing grandparenting and its increasing importance. We even have a National Grandparents' Day and grandparenting is now looked on as a career. Grandparenting role options are stated that "there are no set prescriptions for what a grandparent is or should be". Family research reveals ways people view the role of grandparent. Some grandparents make grandchildren the center of their lives while others maintain a respectable distance and focus more on a variety of relationships. Still others enjoy playful times with their grandchildren while some grandparents are formal with them. Thus, you have the opportunity to design a meaningful, enriching relationship with your grandchildren. Use the following markers to evaluate your relationships with grandchildren:
Acknowledge the importance of your role—often times, grandparents underestimate their importance to grandchildren. Families need the sense of history and life continuity that only a grandparent can provide. Choose an overall grandparenting style which allows time for other important roles...balance your relationships with family as well as friends. Individualize your relationship with each grandchild.... consider each grandchild's needs and respond to these as much as possible. Be informed about generational differences and accept them. Let parents be parents. Creative suggestions for grandparents are:
Share a hobby. Join grandchildren in collecting baseball cards, coin collecting, etc. Send a Living Birthday Card. Make an audio or video recording of your wishes for a happy birthday and include a brief story of interesting activities you experienced when you were their age. Surprise your grandchildren. Don't wait for special occasions to interact with grandchildren. Telephone your grandchildren more frequently with a message of love and encouragement. Send letters with newspaper clipping on subjects of interest to them. Author a scrapbook. Over the years you have received numerous pictures, cards and letters from your grandchildren. For each grandchild purchase a separate scrapbook and include these remembrances of them. Write notes that tell of the importance of each item. Give the scrapbook to your grandchildren on an occasion you think appropriate.

Fast Talk

by Cheryl Robinette

What hot new couple is the talk of school? I guess S.K. and D.S. have a lot of good things going for them. Psyche!

What senior W.C. had an "accident" Friday night? Boys—they will do it to you every time! I guess we will just have to teach a lesson!

What seniors C.R. and S.S. sit at home and wait for their boyfriends R.W. and J.C. to come and see them? Those guys must really be special in order to settle those two down.

What senior D.O. sleeps during class and gives R.W. permission to do the same? Maybe we need to talk to their teacher about this problem.

What senior J.M. better find more time for his girlfriend?

What freshman and junior went out on the town Friday after the game? Oops! That is supposed to be a secret! Sorry dudes.

What elementary kids got a day out of school? Thanks to Mr. Mo, they went to the circus.

What 7th graders write kinky notes to a freshman and deliver them in person? Well, this girlfriend says that she is not worried, because she knows he has better taste than that.

It looks like this is the week for notes. Looks like M.S. is looking for dates to homecoming; if anyone would like to review these notes come look in my files. This is a reminder: You better quit writing notes and getting caught!

Wildcat Eyes reported seniors C.R. and S.S. and ex-Ladycat T.V. sitting in the cold encouraging their favorite Wildcat team during practice.

Looks like they did a pretty good job because the Wildcats managed to make it through practice.

Wildcat eyes have also reported R.W. helping out J. Harris after the belts came off of his car. Way to lend a helping hand.

What seniors gave the school librarian a hard time during Government? Better hope she doesn't tell because then you will have to learn the whole book.

Wildcat eyes reported C.H. tutoring a senior in algebra! Wow, way to be a saver of grades!

What 7th grader C.E. made a big cry scene because sophomore L.R. asked freshman A.F. to homecoming instead of her. That's life!

Who will be the lucky girl that "gets" to go with 9th grader J.F. to homecoming? Will it be T.C. or A.D.? Only 8th grader S.S. knows for sure.

Sad sobs to sophomore I.W. for having no love life! Must be why her grades are sorta good! Wildcat Eyes found out that senior S.W. actually did something nice, gasp! choke! choke! He moved G.W.'s pickup so she wouldn't have to walk in the rain! Congratulations Scotty for trying to change your image!

Incredibly enough, sophomore D.F. mowed jr. L.R.'s yard because she was too sick to do it. Then to make her feel even better he picked all the flowers in her yard (and the neighbor's!) and gave them to her! Aww! Wasn't that nice! Wildcat Eyes to you D.F.!

Wildcat Eyes to Coach B for giving a retest to the Biology class! You guys better do some extra "Brown" nosing!

Special Wildcat Eyes to seniors J.C. and S.S. for helping with the babies at the wreck last week. Way to show compassion girls!

Wildcat Eyes to Mrs. P. for spending extra time with juniors and seniors on TAAS studies!

Wildcat Eyes to G.W. for taking the abuse of A.B. road!

What two seniors R.W. and C.H. like cats so much they run down the streets trying to catch them? Couldn't you find something better to do at 11:30 at night?

What senior S.W. likes to go muddin' except not in his truck! This senior likes to stand in front of truck's and have the mud splashed on him. Let's hope he doesn't get stuck!

What two seniors J.B. and D.H. got stopped Saturday night on the drag in Brownwood? Just what was the problem guys?

What did seniors S.W., B.G., R.W., B.J. and C.R. have up their sleeves whenever an out of town guest came to visit B.G. this weekend?

What RSHS teacher went to the May Homecoming dance and got down to Mony Mony? The students of RSHS promise never to let you forget it!

Being that the fast talk column is always talking about the students, this week we would like to say something to our "school."

We think our school is wonderful.

Our teachers are so grand, They exercise our minds so much,

And now we're smarter than we had planned!

Cosmic Thoughts

by Slam

Hi my good friends. I hope your health is excellent. Here's your horoscope.

Virgo: Do not roast hot dogs today, or even this week. Oscar Mayer accidentally put gun powder in hot dogs.

Pisces: Stray away from billboards. Foundations are bad this week. Strong wind could affect your destiny.

Capricorn: This is a perfect week for playing exorcist. Don't bathe, pray and turn on your heater or more rain may fall.

Gemini: Imported caviar has been affected by water pollution. Play it safe, but if you must serve it, give it to the guests you don't like.

Libra: Do not eat ice cream for a while. Your tongue might freeze and you won't be able to speak, much to the delight of others.

Aries: Be polite all week. People will wonder what you are up to.

Taurus: Be careful when you plug paper clips into wall sockets. It may be detrimental to your hair, not to mention your life style.

Scorpio: This is a good week to erase the chalkboard with you hair. Saves money at the beauty salon.

Sagittarius: Even if you are mad, don't throw your animals at the wall. It could hurt your wall.

Aquarius: Time to build an ark! If the water is not deep enough in your yard, push it to the "bar" ditch.

Cancer: This week is a great photo opportunity. Smile everywhere you go (and if people in big white coats come after you, run).

Leo: Putting Alka Seltzer in your fish tank isn't wise. Eating these fish may give you gas.

Wise man says: When the sky is raining fire, don't be swimming in gasoline.

Next Week: The Story behind Slam.

Elementary's Extras

by Michelle Ferbrache

Rising Star Elementary went to the Brownwood Shrine Circus on Thursday, September 19. The children had fun and were still excited about it the next morning.

Some of the children, Monica Rodriguez, Matt Chancellor and Bradley Barnhart said they saw clowns, elephants, lions, unicyclers, jugglers and poodles.

Others commented on what part of the circus that they liked best. Tabitha Barnhart and Melissa Fry thought the funniest part was the Poodle Pageant. Matt liked the unicyclers and Bradley thought that the best part was Smiley the Clown's Tricky Taxi stunt.

The children had a great time and seemed to appreciate the trip very much.

Windshield Wipers

Before that next heavy rain arrives check out your windshield wipers. Have they been smearing, streaking, chattering or otherwise misbehaving? It's a lot easier to replace worn wiper blades in good weather, reminds the Car Care Council. And while you're at it, make sure your washer fluid reservoir is full. In sloppy weather you don't want to run out of solvent.

Ex-Student's Thoughts of Going to School With a School Building

Recently two articles were published about going to school without a building. This prompted my memory of attending school in Rising Star in the first building. In 1911, I started to school in a frame building located in the West part of town. Although my memories of that school year are dim, I do remember my first grade teacher was named Mabel McDonald because I was her namesake. I also remember a little playhouse in a nearby wood.

In the early twenties, the little community of Rising Star had grown in population until the little white schoolhouse, with four rooms downstairs and an auditorium on the second floor, became inadequate to house the large population of children coming from the neighboring farms and the little city itself. In response, a large three floor building, located in the Northwest part of town was constructed. The move into the new quarters was conducted by marching the classes across town during the school year with great fanfare.

Memories flood my mind as I try to sort out incidents that may be of interest. I remember that all grades and the science laboratory were housed on two floors of the building. A large auditorium with stage and dressing rooms were on the third floor. It was on that stage in May of 1922 that I was presented the first gold medal to be given to an honor graduate by the Saturday Club. The presentation was made by the future Poet Laureate of Texas, Mrs. Lexie Dean

Mabel Falls Halsell stands beside the Rising Star Elementary School building cornerstone, 1990.

Robertson, with a beautiful congratulatory speech. What the audience did not know was that I was presented with an empty box, because the medal had failed to arrive on time. In due time the real medal arrived, was brought and properly pinned on me, in order that I and my family could cherish it for many years.

The lower floor of the landmark building still stands, and is used to house the grade school administrative offices and a library. On the southeast corner of the building is a marble cornerstone, on which are carved the names of all of the first school board members.

Weather and time can never erase them, but I fear that man's destructive hand could destroy them.

There comes a time when public buildings must be repaired or replaced. Our Texas Capitol building is undergoing an extensive repair job at this time. Where there is not enough ground for additions, underground space is being provided for offices and other needs. Suppose a decision to tear down one of the most beautiful capitol buildings in the United States had been made instead of the repair job! What about the memories? When public buildings or residences are torn down, memories are dimmed. Memories cannot be built in.

To tear down old buildings and replace them with new ones is an example of minuses and pluses being in combat. A decision has been made; a plus or a minus has won.

Recently I heard a sermon on "Making Choices". I was reminded "there is always a result when a choice is made," whether in the spiritual or material realm. The choice has been made relating to the Rising Star school building of the future. Let us hope that the pluses and minuses will have minimum combat, because there is no turning back from the results of the decisions.

When we say "You're The Boss" ... We mean it.

We are bombarded with advertisements to buy. You can shop around for goods ... and for some services like a mechanic. But with utilities, there is usually only one available. So, you might think it would be easy for us to take our consumers for granted.

You know what? The EXACT OPPOSITE IS TRUE. At your electric cooperative, each and every member is an owner. So when we say YOU'RE THE BOSS ... we mean it!

We'd like to know how we're doing. Boss. Give us a call ... or drop by and visit. And in the meantime, try to think of the last time your mechanic asked you how he was doing.

An attitude of service

Rising Star High School Journalism Class

Stuteville's Stats

by Emily Stuteville

Everyone is in good spirits and morale is still high even though the game against Hico was canceled, due to bad weather.

Pep Squad member Melody Fisher and Cheerleader Angelia DeLong both told me that they were disappointed about the cancellation; however they were thrilled that it was Hico's decision to forfeit and we received the victory. "We're 2-0 in district!" exclaimed Angelia.

Head Cheerleader Tianay Chambers summed it up best when she said, "It was a disappointment, but we'll be back next week."

Because the cheerleaders and pep squad did not have the opportunity to yell for their team last week, they are even more excited about the next game, against Throckmorton, here Thursday, September 26, at 6:00 p.m.

Your attendance and support is appreciated, so come on out tonight and cheer this young team to its third district win.

Writers Block

The cheerleaders want to thank the Booster Club for the yard signs they made. Helping make the signs were Cindy Elliott, Pam Cook, Carol Cook, Paula Collins, Susan DeLong, Coach Doyle Browning, Coach Dan Goodman, Wanda Williams, Anna Ezzell and Gene Smith.

A Student Council president needs to be elected soon. Requirements for president are: The candidate has to be a senior, working on an academic advanced diploma, have an 85 average and have a good standing among the students.

FHA has adopted a Big Sister and a Big Brother program. The older students teach grade schoolers how to better their reading abilities. The club has also started an adopt a grandmother and grandfather program. The members will be visiting the older people at the nursing home.

Remember, class officers and a Student Council president need to be elected as soon as possible.

Have an improved week!

Junior Cat Tracks

by Christy Hughes

Even though our Jr. Cats are a great football team, they did not have a chance to strut their stuff last week. Due to bad weather, the Jr. Cat's game was canceled, and the Hico Jr. Tigers were spared a sure thrashing!

The decision to forfeit was made by Hico, therefore the Jr. Cats can claim the victory. This brings their district record to 2-0. For the most part, the team members were disappointed at not getting to play this game, but looking on the bright side of things, they are twice as ready to play tonight's game!

Bringing home the season's first win the first game of the season really filled the Jr. cats with confidence and optimism. They were elated about gaining another district win, but it was a letdown not to be able to play the actual game.

Shawn "Bo" Fox says, "At least we won the forfeit!"

Kirby Bush and Josh Constancio did not like the idea of a forfeit. They believed that the teams should have been allowed to play because they wanted to see who would have really won. (Probably the team with the best swimmers!)

Shawn Harrelson claims, "We'd rather have played because we would have won anyway!"

Eighth graders Michael Perales, Cameron Floyd, Robert Hollis and Jeremy Hall all believed that not getting to play this game, "really stunk!"

The Jr. Cats are ready to play! Come out and see them take on Throckmorton Junior High tonight, September 26, here at Rising Star, beginning at 6 p.m. With all the energy they have stored, the Jr. Cats should be ready to attack!

Go, Jr. Cats!

Basketball Babes

by Gherda Williams

Last week's big rain did not slow down the Lady Cat Basketball team at all! Those girls are rarin' and ready to go at every practice (Even if they are a little wet!) and they are already excited about their first scrimmage, which is less than two months away!

The Lady Cats are a little apprehensive about the new teams they will be playing within their district, because they have not played some of these teams much in previous years. The district includes: Brookesmith, Lohn, Novice and Paint Rock, new to the Lady Cat's district, and Lingleville, which has been in their district for years. These new opponents will mean longer road trips, also.

On a brighter note, this district will ultimately be a better match-up for the RSHS girls' team, because these schools are small like RSHS....

Building Blocks

by Betty Jones

Construction on the new building has lost four to five days due to bad weather. Dale Murphee says, "The weather is killing us. If the weather cooperates we can get right back on schedule again."

This week the workers are still pouring the foundation grade beams and they are praying for the rain to stop so they can get back on track again. The building is coming along slowly but surely.

Dear Marie

Confidential to Miss Nobody
Dear Miss Nobody,
What is done is done, and you cannot change it now. Do not expect this to be kept a secret because things like this rarely are. You can expect to be an "easy target" to some of the other guys. You will also probably receive put-downs from your parents, relatives and kids at school. However, you do need to talk to your parents and a counselor. The important thing is to learn from your mistakes.

Dear Marie,
My boyfriend sent me a letter with a picture and said he really loves me. What do I tell him? I really like him a lot, but I am shy. Tell me what to tell him.

Do Not Know What To Say

Dear Do Not Know,
If you really like him, write him back and tell him. You do not have to be blunt, but then, again do not beat around the bush. Who knows, one little letter can make a big difference.

Dear Marie,
My boyfriend just got his license and it is really great, but he really drives recklessly. Sometimes he will play chicken with other cars on the highway. It really scares me; sometimes I tell him to quit, but he will not listen. He says nothing is going to go wrong. What should I do?

Dear Car Trouble,
Next time do not ride if he is driving. I know this will cause problems, but it is better than being in the hospital, or in your grave, for that matter. Do not

Gifted and Talented Program at RSISD

by Laura Rankin

Gifted and Talented is a program conducted for students with above average potential in academic and creative/productive thinking skills areas in grades K-12. This program was created to challenge students to excel above and beyond a school's average curriculum.

Ninety students in our school system are going through G/T's special screening procedures. These tests will determine a child's creativity and intelligence level. They also show a student's learning capabilities.

A list of the 1991-92 school year's Gifted and Talented students will be released on October 1. We are all looking forward to the success of this new program.

Showcase

by Stephanie Sizemore

Let's talk about cheating among high school students. Cheating has been a social problem for most of recorded history. Today, cheating is an ongoing cause for concern among teachers, administrators, parents and, frequently, among students. Today's students have grown up in an era marked by scandal involving public servants, major corporations, and well-known private citizens involved in cheating.

People today basically think of cheating as a part of life. We are brought up to cheat from the time we are little kids. We see cheating in our government, in IRS reporting, in businesses and in taxing bodies. Students hear about it from their parents, friends and media. Cheating is performed every day of our life and people think it is ok.

Evidence, based almost entirely on self-reporting, shows that the levels of cheating are high among high school students. Because cheating is so widespread it would be helpful to understand more about the contributing factors and circumstances which lead to cheating, about students' views, and about what the schools can do to discourage cheating and encourage academic honesty.

The theory that cheating is not a widespread problem in public high schools is rejected in the survey, done with four categories. They were test copying, pre-knowledge of test, homework copying and cheat notes. Approximately 75% of the students said they had cheated in the four major categories. The theory that there is no specific reason why students cheat is rejected because of reasons from four main areas mentioned (don't prepare, easy to cheat, not afraid of punishment and grades for college). There is a difference in cheating behaviors between students in the four grade levels: 48% of freshmen cheat, 52% of sophomores, 59% of juniors and 61% of seniors. There is not a real difference in cheating among college and non-college students; 75% of the college-bound students cheat and 73% of the non-college bound students cheat. There is a difference between males and females cheating, 59% of the males and 49% of the females admitted cheating.

The biggest reason for cheating is students don't prepare. The second biggest reason for cheating is said to be competition in grades for college. Not afraid of being punished was the last reason for cheating.

By ranking students' classification, it is shown that the seniors cheat the most, juniors second most, sophomores third most and freshmen the least. This is consistent with experience in school.

It seems that the incidence of cheating could be reduced through practical steps to reduce students' temptation to cheat, as well as through clear and consistent policies for responding to cheating. Some steps are less crowded classrooms, assignment of seats and administering multiple versions of an exam. Also clearly define cheating early in the class and include consequences in the syllabus. Even with such precautions, it is unlikely that cheating will be eliminated altogether.

That's all I really have to say about cheating, it basically explains itself. See you next week!

Four Were Injured in Auto Accident Here

Those injured in the car wreck last Tuesday in Rising Star were recovering later in the week, with one accident victim being released from the hospital.

The accident happened at 8:20 p.m. at the curve on U.S. Highway 183 at W. Pioneer St. The two adults were thrown from the southbound car after it smashed into a utility pole. The two children were still in the car when it came to a rest in the yard of First Baptist Church.

Anthony Warren Carrier, 29, of Brownwood was the driver of the car. He was listed in good condition at Brownwood Regional Hospital late in the week.

A passenger, Jo Ann Howard, 24, was treated at the Brownwood hospital before being transported to Hendrick Medical Center; she was in serious condition.

The two children, Tabatha Jo Carrier, 4, and Courtney Renee Carrier, 2, did not respond to the first person at the scene, but were later reported to be able to list their pains, after being removed from the floor of the car. Tabatha was listed in good condition at Brownwood Regional last week, with injuries to her chest and an arm fractured. Courtney was released to family members.
