Rising Star Watermelons Shipped Throughout U.S.

"A thriving business, which has replaced the loss of the peanut crop for some farmers in this area, is the sale of fine watermelons.

The Honey Bee Melon and Produce, owned and operated by Joe and Pauline Butler of Rising Star, has furnished an outled for local farmers to ship melons all over the United States. This includes Miami, New York, Los Angeles, Chicago, Detroit, Indianapolis, Jersey City and Puerto Rico.

Safeway Stores Inc., with warehouses in Dallas, ship the melons to Houston, El Paso, Omaha, and Winnipeg and Canada, as well as other Safeway stores.

The melons are ship-packing cartons, made especially for the melons (3 or 4 to the carton). Robert and Marcie Alderete of Taylor are managers at the packing shed with three crews, a total of 30 or 40 workers. It is almost impossible to believe the fine quality of the melons, which have been grown under extremely dry conditions. Many of the crops have had no irrigation, but approximately 6,000,000 pounds have been shipped since July 13th.

Another unique factor this year with the watermelons is the fact that the Butler's are still shipping melons at this late a date. Joe and Pauline ped a load of melons yesterday--November 4th!

The frost we experienced last week did some damage, but did not kill all of the vines.

The most popular melons are Jubilee, Desert King, All Sweet, Black Diamond, and Crimson Sweet. The following growers are involved: Dean Bailey, Bill Dudley, Kim Joyce, Lester King, Tommy King, Kenneth Montfort and Danny White.

Pauline daughter, Gwyndale, keep shop and take orders at 817-643-1515.

The location is Highway 36 West with lots joining the Lunceford Truck Stop."

VERTICAL FILES and Accessories

Good engineering gives you filing you can count on in these Haskell files. A framework of steel ladders front and back, connected by heavy gauge steel case tracks, creates an internal cage of exceptional strength, all welded into the frame to eliminate any chance of warping. Drawers have full progressive suspensions to give you maximum filing convenience. Ten nylon rollers assure quiet, smooth action, and spring-action compressors operate at a touch with no jamming. Full dust cover bottoms and floor protector glides offer added protection.

Ladies At Local Nursing Home Stay Busy With Crafts

HANDWORK-Eighty-four year old Linnie Brashear, roomate, Mrs. T.C. Crisp, 85, display their beautiful handicrafts in their room at Rising Star Nursing Home. Both are confined to wheel chairs, but keep their hands and minds busy on their work.

By Mrs. C.O. Young, May Correspondent

Two roomates in the Rising Star Nursing Home have found a way to keep their hands and minds busy and make a few extra dollars in the process.

Eight-four year old Linnie Brashear and her friend, Mrs. T.C.(Mary) Crisp, 85, are for the most part confined wheelchairs. What they lack in mobility, they make up for in craftsmanship. The nimble fingers of these two ladies produce beautiful handmade quilts, afghans, pillows, sweaters, dolls and about anything

The ladies never had any intention of selling their work, but now can't make enough to supply the demand.

"During the time I have been in the nursing home, I have crocheted 25 afghans, made several quilts, many fancy pillows, baby sweater outfits, shoes, caps, capes, and a number of macrame items," Mrs. Crisp

Mrs. T.C.Crisp, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Walton Fussell, was born in 1895 at Tama in Coryell County. She was the second of 11 children, all now deceased except for a brother, Earl Fussell of Rising Star.

She married Tommy Crisp in 1919 and they lived most of their married life in the Rising Star area. The family farmed until 1952, when they moved The into town and Mr. Crisp began work for the Rising Star In-District.

Mrs. Crisp suffered a broken hip in 1976 and has been forced to spend much of her time in a wheel chair ever since. This, along with the ailing health of her husband, necessitated nursing care for both. They entered the Rising Star Nursing Center in March of 1979.

In December of 1979, Tommy fell and broke his leg, which contributed to his death on December 27, 1979. Mrs. Crisp continues to keep her hands and mind busy.

She has had anything, but a dull life. She has always been active in club and church work.

She was a Sunday School teacher, Training Union Director and contributed to the Senior Citizens Program.

She always visited the sick and shut-ins and scattered sunshine where ever she went. These friends have not forgotten. She has daily visitors, bringing her gifts and goodies. Her brother, Earl sees her daily and they play Bingo and dominoes.

Miss Brashear became interested in crocheting in her early adult years and now ever since," she said.

Extension Service. First and foremost is the selection of firearms assuming, of course, that leases and licenses have been secured.

Guynn suggests choosing a rifle with sufficient caliber (firepower) for a quick, humane kill. He says it's important to match caliber with one's physical size and shooting experience. Hence, large, heavier men can probably handle larger caliber rifles more accurately than small, petite women.

The most popular deer rifles used today are .243, .270, .30/06 and .30/30 calibers. Selection, of course, varies according to hunting preference, but inexperienced or beginning hunters can choose between these widely used models in good confidence.

Selecting the type rifle "action" depends on the kind of hunting one expects to do. In heavy brush for shots at close range (100 yards or less), a fast handling rifle with pump, lever action or semi-automatic may be appropriate. Guynn says a bolt action rifle is most often considered for open country requiring long accurate shots.

Scope selection, often a critical factor in the successful hunt, is influenced significantly by the terrain.

Miss Linnie and her roommate attend Bible studies, play Bingo, dominoes and work on their crafts together.

"Now that I am in the nursing home, I thank God every day for such a wonderful place to live. -The nurses are just the greatest, all of the other employees are kind, understanding people. We get good care and good food," she concluded.

For open country with long distance shooting, Guynn suggests a six-to eight-power scope. Under heavy cover with close shots, an open sight or two-power scope is usually all that's needed. A four-power scope is popular because of all-around versatility. Variable power scopes such as the 2x-7x and 3x-9x are also versatile.

Binoculars are a highly underrated item that many hunters often neglect to include in their gear. It allows the hunter to identify parts of deer in heavy brush surroundings and distinguish bucks from does in dim light situations. Guynn says the 7 x 35 binoculars (7 power with 35mm objective lens) are the most common type used.

With so many knives on the proper hunting knife can be confusing. Guynn says a large for dressing purposes. For skinning only, a curved blade is well suited. choices for providing good footing. Slick leather soles are fine for dancing to the "Cotton Eyed Joe" or "Faded Love" after the hunt but are inappropriate and dangerous while in the deer stand. Also, choose boots large enough to allow for heavy wool socks in cold weather, the specialist says. Clothes may well "make soles, he says, are good

the man" (or woman) in the business world but not on a deer hunt. Guynn prefers the "layered approach" with sweater, vest and light jacket which can be easily removed or added as temperatures change during the day. Bright colors that can be easily detected by deer are to be avoided. Even though deer are color blind. they easily spot differences in color intensity such as white or bright yellow. Instead, wear muted colors such as greens, browns, camouflage, dull reds or red and black check which blend with brush cover. Guynn says blaze orange may be worn as a saftey precaution where heavy hunting pressure exists.

Soft-textured clothing permits quiet movement for stalking prey. Brush scraping against stiff canvas pant legs can alarm deer as can the "swish-swish" sound of pant lets rubbing together as the hunter walks.

In a few weeks, deer hunters all across the state will relinquish their roles as armchair quarterbacks to renew their annual quest for freshly stocked freezers and handsome wall mounts. Many, however, will be on their first big game hunt and may be somewhat confused over the inordinate amount of hunting paraphernalia to choose from.

So, before taking to the countryside, it's a good idea for all hunters to make sure they have acquired adequate equipment and found it to be in good working order, says Dr. Dwight Guynn, a wildlife specialist based in Uvalde with the Texas Agricultural

From mid November to early January, many Texas farmers and ranchers will receive crop and livestock questionnaires from Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service or will be interviewed by the Service's field staff. All estimates published by Texas Crop Reporting Service are based on the data provided by Texas farmers and ranchers, County Extension Agents, ASCS and many others in agriculture. This cooperation provides the necessary data which is, in turn, returned to farmers and ranchers and others in the form of accurate estimates, which are so essential in making the wisest production marketing decisions. given the go-ahead from the Department of Energy for a $250,000 study of fuel alcohol production. The grant is the culmination of over six months of work by a Texas group of Congressmen, including Congressman Charles W. Stenholm.

The study is to be conducted by the College of Engineering at Texas Tech and will use the West Texas area as a model for what can be achieved in alcohol production the from materials produced on the arid and semi-arid lands which are ingenous to the area. Stenholm said.

A graduate of Texas Tech and leading proponent of alcohol fuels production, Stenholm said, "I was delighted to hear from Bert Greenglass, Acting Director of the office of Alcohol Fuels, that this award was being made. This was a project which had the backing of the entire Texas congressional delegation, especially Hance of Lubbock; Jack Hightower of Vernon and Majority Leader Jim Wright of Fort Worth.

"I am pleased that this study will be conducted at Texas Tech since it has been a leader in the research and development of alcohol and other synthethic fuels which hold so much potential for the Plains area of Texas. Tech has also been a leader in developing knowledge of arid land agriculture, economics bio-systems through their International Center for Arid and Semi-Arid Land Studies. Additionally, this entire area has been a center of intense interest in fuel alcohol production, so Tech will be ideally located to serve those interests."

The study will determine current and projected potential for the region, preliminary estimates of Conversion impacts of such a fuel alcohol industry.

Stenholm says the results of this study will serve as a basis for our nation.

IN KINDNESS

Put on therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, bowels of mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind. meekness, longsuffering. Col.3:12.

Let the law of kindness be upon your lips and the oil of grace in your heart. This will produce wonderful results. You will be tender, sympathetic, courteous. You need all these graces. The Holy Spirit must be received and brought into your character; then it will be as holy fire, giving forth incense which will rise up to God, not from your lips that condemn, but as a healer of the souls of men. Your countenance will express the image of the divine By beholding the character of Christ alone can change your heart and then you will reflect the image of the Lord Jesus. God calls upon us to be like Himpure, holy, and undefiled. We are to bear the divine image....

The Lord Jesus is our only helper. Through His grace we shall learn to cultivate love, to educate ourselves to speak kindly and tenderly. Through His grace our cold, harsh manners will be transformed.
The law of kindness will be upon our lips, and those who are under the precious influences of the Holy Spirit, will not feel that it is an evidence of weakness to weep with those who weep, to rejoice with them that rejoice. We are to cultivate heavenly excellences of character. We are to learn what it means to have goodwill toward all men, a sincere desire to be as sunshine and not as shadow in the lives of others.

Seize every opportunity to contribute to the happiness of those around you, sharing with them your affection. Words of kindness, looks of sympathy, expressions of appreciation, would to many a struggling, lonely one be as a cup of cold water to a thirsty soul....

Live in the sunshine of the Saviour's love. Then your influence will bless the world. Let the Spirit of Christ control you. Let the law of kindness be ever lips. your Forbearance and unselfishness mark the words and actions of those who are born again, to live the new life in Christ.

COMMENTARY

SALISAN SALISAN SALAS

"As they ministered to the Lord, and fasted, the Holy Ghost said, Separate me Barnabas and Saul for the work whereunto I have called them" (Acts. 13:2). It often seems that the only kind of prayer we are familir with is the petition prayer. We're always petitioning God to do something, and of course that's scriptural. But in the scripture quoted above these Christians were not petitioning God to do anything. They "ministered to the Lord and fasted," Almost all of our church services are designed so that we come together and minister to one another. We sing, but in very few of our songs do we minister to the Lord. Instead, we minister to one another. We have special singing, but we're still not ministering to the Lord, we're ministering to one another. And when we pray, our praying is primarily a petition. We're petitioning the Lord to move in our midst, to manifest Himself

among us, to meet our needs. Then when the minister speaks, he's not ministering to the Lord; he's ministering to the congregation.

We know that God is concerned about us and wants to meet our needs. Jesus said our heavenly Father knows that we have needs of things and that we should ask Him to supply these needs.

But I'm afraid that too much of the time we're like the little boy who said, "My name is Jimmy, I'll take all you will give me." When it comes to praying, that's the only kind of prayer we know anything about. We need times of waiting on God and ministering to the Lord-times when we're not asking for anything, not petitioning, but ministering to Him. Perhaps we are already taking time for this in our individual prayer lives, but we need this kind of prayer service as a group, as a church. God can move in this kind of atmosphere. "As they minister to the Lord and fasted," our scripture says, "the Holy Ghost manifested Himself." God made man to fellowship with Him. He is our Father, for we are born of God.

I have not been able to find out who wrote the following article. His point is well stated. Cap Bowden was head teller at the Farmers State Bank, Burkburnett, Texas, when I went to work there in 1924 as operator of a posting machine. Cap got his rating in the Spanish-American War.

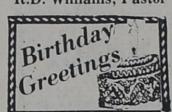

One day when business was a little slow, I was in Cap's cage, asking a lot of inane questions. Among them was, "Why is there a thick marble slab in a paying teller's window?"

Reaching into the back of his cash drawer, Cap handed me two shining half dollars and directed me to toss them onto the slab. They fell with a dull thud. Then he reached into his coin dispenser and picked up two halves and tossed them on the slab. They bounced and danced and gave off the rhythmic ring of real silver. They rang

SOCIAL SECURITY

Whenever a family member dies, one of the survivors shoud inquire to see if social security benefits may be payable on that person's record, Glyn hammons, social district security mamager in Abilene said recently. "It is important to apply promptly, because in some cases benefits cannot be paid for months before the month of application," Hammons said. This pertains to widows and widowers who wish to start benefits before they reach 65.

Unmarried children under 18; 18-22 if full time students; over 18 if disabled before 22.

. A mother or father caring for a child under 18 or disabled.

A widow or widower 60 or older. . A dependent parent 62 or older.

. A survivor's divorced wife can receive the same benefits as a widow if the marriage lasted 10 years or more. This time limit does not apply to a divorced wife caring for an eligible child

In addition, there is a $255 lump-sum death payment that can be made upon the death of a person who worked and earned enough credits.

under 18 or disabled.

When applying, it is helpful for the person to have certain proofs available, including: worker's social security number, proof of age for applicants, proof of marriage for widows or widowers, children's birth certificates, and W-2 forms or income tax returns for the 2 years before death. Do not delay applying if all of these are not available. People at the district office may be able to suggest substitutes.

Now that the cold weather has put an end to most vegetables in the home garden, it is time to do soe clean up to hold down future plant disease problems.

Full plowing can following this clean up. Deep burial of plant residues is one method of disease control that has been used successfully by peanut farmers for many

If you want to plant a cover crop in the garden this winter try cereal rye. It is the fastest growing, most cold-tolerant annual grass available. You can plant rye and have a thick mat of grass approximately 10 to 15 inches high by late winter. At this time, the grass should be shredded with a lawn mower and tilled into the soil so rotting occurs before spring planting. Shredding and tilling about one month before planting allows adequate decomposition.

There are many advantages of planting cereal rye. It adds the best organic matter available to the garden soil and adds green color during the winter. Rye serves as a "trap crop" for nematodes. Once nematodes enter the rye roots, they cannot escape and will perish. When rye decomposes it releases organic acids and reduce the alkalinity of the soil. This is another benefit to our Eastland County soils.

Plant the rye by seeding directly on top of the soil and raking in. Plant at the rate of one pound per 100 square

RETIRED TEACHERS TO MEET

The Eastland County Retired Teachers' Association will meet Monday afternoon, November 10, at 2:30 in the Currency Room, First National Bank, in Gorman.

Roland Smith and his Sandy Land Band will entertain with their music, and they always promise a good time. Mr. Charlie Garrett will preside at the business meeting. All retired teachers of the county are invited to attend this meeting. We are always glad to welcome new members.

Mary Harmon, Activity Director VALLE Brashear-Edna Allen,

Monday is Bingo Day and everyone had fun. The winners were: Ethel Degman, Leo Atkinson (2 games), Linnie Brashear, Mary Hord, Ora Clark, Emma West, Della Roberts, Maggie Christian, Martha Irby and Earl Fussell.

Tuesday gathered the news and visitors. Everyone enjoys the visitors and really appreciate them. Everyone be sure and sign the visitors book when you come by.

Wednesday you will find someone exercising in the dining room. It is an inspiration to everyone to see someone in their 80's or 90's doing exercise.

Thursday is dominoe day. This is the day that the players match wits to see who is the best-or think they are anyway!

Friday was SPOOK DAY. Everybody had fun making jokes with each other.

Sunday brings the week to an end. The services help to put everything into perspective and give everyone the strength to make it another week.

VISITORS Oma Poteet and Mattie Cosper--Ted Barton, Sandra Carr and Jimmy, Tina and John, Ar- John Hale, Eleanor vil and Mattie Adams.

Farm Income Prospects To Improve

COLLEGE STATION

Texas farmers and ranchers will have to "wait till next year" for any improvement in their income.

"Higher farm prices resulting from a sizable drop production this year, smaller meat supplies, and strong export demand all point to an improved agricultural income picture in 1981," believes Dr. Carl An- prospects dreson, economist in somewhat better for Texas Agricultural Extensionn Service, Texas A&M University System.

Crop producers will likely fair much better in 1981 because of this year's short crop and a rise in prices. And, with meat supplies expected to slip under year-earlier levels, marketing with the livestock producers as well.

> Although production expenses will rise again, price increases are not expected to be as sharp as in 1980, says Anderson. During the past 12 months, fertilizer prices jumped 28 percent, fuel and energy prices and in terest rates climbed 25 percent, agriculural chemicals rose 21 percent.

"Texas agriculture suffered considerably from the extended dry, hot weather during late spring and summer. Dryland farmers, cow-calf operators and poultry producers experienced big setbacks. Irrigated crops were even stunted by the intense and prolonged heat wave," notes Anderson.

Despite the steep drop in crop production, cash receipts for 1980 are estimated by Extension specialists to total only a little less than in 1979. Crop inventories carried over from the bumper 1979 harvest and price increases for many commodities have helped maintain sales close to last year's level.

Livestock sales sagged a little as lower cattle and hog receipts more than offset increased sales of poultry and milk.

While overall agricultural receipts won't be down too much from last year, net income will be off sharply due to surging costs of running a farm or ranch, says Anderson.

And, to make matters worse, the purchasing power of income has been further reduced by this year's double-digit inflation.

"Declining farm income is also hurting businesses serving agricultural producers. As farmers tighten their belts, they will be buying fewer production and consumption goods and services," notes the economist.
