Cats, Losers to Early Longhorns, Try Richland Springs There Friday Night

The Rising Star Wildcats, taking a defeat from the Early Longhorns that was not at all in proportion to the score, will go to Richland Springs Friday night of this week in an attempt to retrieve some of their fallen prestige and avenge a defeat suffered last year.

The Cats, although severely crippled by injuries and losses of key players, were in good spirits as they returned to the practice field this week.

But lightning struck again during the Monday workout when Skipper Ezzell, a good sophomore lineman, was lost to the team for the season with a broken arm.

Meanwhile, Richland Springs will array almost the same team against the Wildcats which defeated them 19 to 7 last year. The principal reason for that defeat is still with the Richland Springs backfield—an all-state track star by the name of Green, who is big and fast.

However, the Richland Springs boys have fared no better in the win column than the Cats, losing two games. But both losses have been to teams of respectable proportions, a strong Rankin eleven and a Lometa team which was high in its district last year and this season defeated May 18 to 7—May, which held the rough and powerful Early Longhorns to a tie. Early, it can be said at this point, defeated the Cats 48 to 8 last Friday night at Brownwood.

The Rising Star—Early game was a good one until less than a minute before the end of the first half. The Wildcats after a sustained drive from kick off had just crossed the goal stripe on a two yard plunge by Coy Edmiston, and kicked off to the Longhorns. The score was 14 to 8 in favor of Early at that point, the Cats having made good their extra two points at tempt.

With the help of six times out called by the Longhorns, the Early team in seven plays in less than a minute of playing time, scored another touchdown. The score broke the Wildcat's spiritual back, and this, added to the loss of Nichols and Paul Freeman, who were escorted from the field in the third period, helped the Longhorns to four touchdowns in the last quarter and a half of play.

Freeman, star back, and Nichols, lineman, were lost after the Cats had made a drive to the Early three when four downs were ineffective.

Col. Alford Assigned To Duty in Greece

Colonel Gaston Alford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Alford, who was reared in Rising Star, a graduate of the local high school, and who has served in the Air Force as a pilot for a number of years, has recently been assigned to overseas duty in Athens, Greece, for three years. He will visit his parents here, and his son who is a student in A&M College, before leaving the states on October 1.

McCulloch Singers To Meet at Mercury

The McCulloch County Singing Convention will meet Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Baptist Church in Mercury. A number of good singers from out of the county are expected and the public is cordially invited.

COLLEGE STUDENTS HOME

College students who were home for the week end were Don Hicks, Jack Callaway, and Jack Shults, Jerry Don Aaron, Gary Scott, all from Tarleton State College; Lydia Mauldin from North Texas Teachers College; Jack Smith and Barbara Bishop from Howard Payne. Jerry Davis has recently enrolled in Texas Tech at Lubbock.

Mrs. Belle King Buried Here in Services Tuesday

Funeral services for Mrs. Nancy Belle King, 75, who died at Confederate Womans Home, Austin, on Sunday, September 20, were held at the First Baptist Church in Rising Star at 2 p.m., Tuesday, September 22. The Rev. Ed Jackson, pastor, officiated. Burial was in Rising Star cemetery under Highbotham Funeral Home direction.

Mrs. King was a native of Cisco where she was born on April 8, 1884. Her husband died in 1936.

She is survived by a son, H. L. King of Eastland; a daughter, Mrs. Willie Mae Harrell of Lubbock; a brother, Charlie Fullen of Rising Star, 12 grandchildren and seven great grandchildren.

She was a member of the Rebekahs and the First Baptist Church of this city.

Pallbearers for the services were Dough King, Bob King, Jack King, Fred King, Allen Lee Morris, Horace Gibson and Lynn Boydkin.

4-H Swine Show Held September 19 At Eastland

The Eastland County 4-H Swine Show was held on Saturday morning, September 19, at the new show grounds near Eastland. There were eight gilts entered in the show, all being registered Duroc Jerseys. All gilts received ribbons and the first five places received a total of $30 prize money.

Jimmy Hogan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Hogan of Ranger showed his gilt to first place, Doyle Welch showed his gilt in second place. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Welch of Gorman. Placing third was Billy Welch, also the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Welch of Gorman. Placing fourth was Victor Plambeck, son of Mr. and Mrs. Park Plambeck of Cisco. Milard Herweck placed his gilt in fifth place. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Herweck of Ranger. Truly Clark showed his gilt to sixth place. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alton Clark of Cisco. Melvin Wende placed seventh. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Wende of Cisco. Placing eighth was Tom Lovelace, III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Lovelace Jr., of Desdemona.

Jimmy Easter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Easter of Cisco had his 4-H Sears boar on exhibit at the show. The boar and the first place gilt will enter the area show at Breckenridge on September 26. The boar is also a registered Duroc Jersey.

The judge of the County Show was E. D. Cooper, county agricultural agent of Somervell county.

1959 Peanut Crop Starts Moving in Earnest; Varying Grades Registered

The 1959 peanut crop began moving into Rising Star in some earnest this week. The first loads two weeks ago were received from the May community consisted of early peanuts showed a poor test.

Six loads were purchased. Brothers, all cial government tester. A load R. C. Long brought in tested 73 points.

Such tests, however, were higher than the generally expected average for the current crop, according to buyers. Peanuts brought in Tuesday tested at lower rates and the overall somewhat dis-

Switchgrass Keeps Sandy Soil Tied Down

Cecil Riordan examines a three year old stand of Blackwell switchgrass growing on his farm two miles northeast of Rising Star.

Strip Cropping and Cover Crops Keep Soil From Blowing

Cecil Riordan applies sound soil conservation practices on his farm two miles northeast of Rising Star. Farming a deep sandy soil requires intensive effort on Cecil's part to keep the land from blowing.

According to Cecil, "Every time the wind blows and catches this land unprotected the soil moves."

Cecil has full understanding of the problems involved in cropping his land. He strip crops his peanuts, using sudan or sorghum alnum in a pattern of eight rows of peanuts and eight rows of the grass. He believes in planting the strips across the prevailing northwesterly winds where "most of the mean wind comes from".

Pea nut harvest is followed by a winter cover crop of rye or vetch and rye. He uses sweet type plows to leave the crop residues on the soil surface when he plows the land. Commercial fertilizers and barnyard manure are applied to the land to maintain soil fertility and keep organic matter high.

Cecil grows Blackwell switchgrass on this deep sandy soil. Growing the grass is not so important but growing it on the deep sand has a particular significance to the area's agriculture. There are several thousand acres of this type soil (over 36 inches to clay) in the area that are still in unproductive brushland. Finding a high quality grass that will grow under range conditions on this soil has been a problem for many years. Weeping lovegrass has proven to do well on these soils but it lacks the quality required to make it the kind of range grass farmers and ranchers need. Cecil's work with the switchgrass could add a lot to the area's agriculture. Riordan also produces peas and good sweet potatoes on his farm and at the present time is increasing ribbon cane to measure its adaptability to his land.

He became a cooperater with his Soil Conservation District in August of this year, not because he needed any assistance from the District at the time but simply because he wanted to join hands with the organization that preaches what he practices.

Pecan Tour to Leave Rising Star Sept. 29th

The fourth Annual Eastland County pecan tour will be held on Tuesday, Sept. 29th.

The tour will leave from the Market Building in Rising Star Tuesday morning promptly at 9 o'clock. The first stop will be at the C. E. Smith orchard on the southwest part of Rising Star. Mr. Smith has a good crop of Halbert nuts and a fair crop of Burketts on his trees.

Orchards near Gorman belonging to D. J. Jobe and Charley Underwood will be inspected next. Lunch and a business session of the organization will be held at the Brown Jug Cafe in Gorman.

After lunch the group will see the Les Wallace orchard near the cafe. Then the group will visit the orchard of Sheriff J. B. Williams on Nash Creek about five miles north, between Staff and Gorman and afterward go to the B. E. Freeman orchard in the Cheaney community, 10 miles south of Ranger. Of special interest in the Freeman orchard besides his pecans is the large Persian walnut tree with a crop of nuts on it.

All of the orchards with the exception of the Williams orchard is on deep sandy soil.

Women as well as men are invited. Out of the county members and visitors are especially welcome.

Big Rattlers Killed By Rising Star Men

One of the biggest rattlers ever killed in this section was killed by Dr. W. S. Carter last week on his farm near Okra. The snake, which Dr. Carter estimated to be from 20 to 25 years of age, was five feet or more in length with a body as large as the forearm of a husky man.

The Rising Star dentist used a shotgun to shoot off the big reptile's head. He recently killed two other rattlers on the farm.

Art Fisher, assistant cashier of the First State Bank has bagged at least four big rattlers this summer. One of them on Stekman farm.

Nimrod Club Barbecue Next Monday Night

The Nimrod Neighbors Progressive Club will have its annual barbecue at the Nimrod clubhouse Monday, September 28, starting at 6 p.m., it was announced. There will be door prizes of agricultural products of the community. The public is invited.

Entertainment will include music by an orchestra.

Tickets will sell at $1 for adults and 50 cents for children and proceeds will be used to finance club projects.

The barbecue committee consists of Jack Cozart, Herman Schaefer, Walter Tonne, Cecil Bostick and Yeager Owings.

Hunters Asked Not To Shoot Phone Wires

Now that the hunting season is here, E. O. Kizer of the Kizer Telephone Co., has asked all hunters to help insure uninterrupted telephone service for this area. Each year hundreds of telephone insulators are damaged or destroyed by hunters taking thoughtless "pot shots" as target practices. Several telephone lines last year were cut by stray bullets.

One serious effect of this damage is the interruption of regular phone service—and possible fire service as well.

CofC to Aid Lions in Plan For New Livestock Barn

The Rising Star Chamber of Commerce at its noon luncheon in the Elite Cafe, voted to support the study being made by the Rising Star Lions Club concerning the feasibility of providing a livestock sales and show barn in Rising Star, possibly as an addition to the Fall Fair facilities.

A committee consisting of Cecil Shults and E. M. Howard was named to assist in the investigation.

Mrs. Joyce Injured When Struck by Bike

Mrs. Floyd Joyce of Rising Star suffered a broken left wrist Thursday of last week when she was struck by a bicycle ridden by a small boy while walking with friends in the business district of Cross Plains. She was treated at Rising Star Hospital and the injury was responding to treatment very satisfactorily.

New Methodist Pastor at May

The Rev. S. Ross Grace is the new Methodist pastor at May. He formerly served the Burkett church, and succeeds the Rev. Bill Muncy who has moved to Lubbock.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Thomas of Bonne Terre, Mo., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Stroebel. Mrs. Thomas formerly lived in this area when she and her first husband, Rodney Herndon, who died 16 years ago, taught school in the Crocker community in the early twenties.

Need of facilities for a more adequate housing of livestock exhibits was pointed out as one reason for the small entry list in the Fall Fair livestock show in September. The study, it was suggested, should be carried on as part of an overall program for providing fair accommodation, and possibly the development of a fenced fair ground where admission prices could be charged during fairs and an important source of fair income assured.

Sec'y A. D. Jenkins reported that final financial accounting showed that the recent fair cost the Chamber of Commerce only $341.03. Total receipts of $338.68 and expenses of $679.71 were reported. The lower cost this season, he explained, was due to the fact that the fair already owned livestock pens, the stage and float for the queen ceremony and other capital equipment purchased at previous fairs.

The chamber voted to send letters of appreciation to all judges and others who assisted in making the fair a success.

Has Narrow Escape From Eye Injury

Little Judy Clark, daughter of Mrs. Thelma Clark had a narrow escape from losing the sight of an eye Friday morning when she was struck by a BB shot, according to reports here. The shot grazed her eye and she was hospitalized and kept under observation for several days at Carswell Air Force Base hospital, Fort Worth. She was reported doing nicely.

County's Operating Costs Down For '60; Income to Be More

EASTLAND.—Eastland County's operational costs will be less in 1960 than in 1959 and revenue will increase, County Auditor Earl O'Brien has estimated in his 1960 county budget which was approved by the County Commissioners Court.

Expenditures in 1960 will total $396,629, O'Brien estimates while revenue will total $347,656. That compares with estimated expenditures of $410,330 in 1959 and estimated revenue of $341,298.

Main reason for the improvement is the fact that the county courthouse was paid for in 1959. The improved condition comes despite the fact that courthouse employees will receive a five percent raise in 1960.

O'Brien's budgets are known for two things. He is conservative in estimating revenue and always estimates expenses at top dollar. That rubs out the apparent $48,973 difference in estimated revenue and estimated expenditures. The county auditor, for instance, estimates collection of ad valorem taxes at 80 percent. Collections have not fallen below 90 percent in many years.

The 1958 budget is a better comparison of how O'Brien estimates. The budget that year was $412,841. The auditor estimates that budget that receipts would total $319,418. Receipts actually were $44,115 higher that year and expenditures were slightly less than predicted.

PRESENTS BOOK

Dr. Nat Tracy, teacher of Bible at Howard Payne College, is presenting the book, "Essentials of Christianity", to the members of the First Baptist Church for Sunday School preparation Week—Sept. 20-24. Time is 7:30 p.m. Large crowds are attending and find Dr. Tracy to be an interesting teacher.

Mrs. Elizabeth Williams of Rising Star and Mrs. Bessie Bowers of Abilene made a trip to Abilene.

This year's tax rate will again be .80 per $1000. The rate has been unchanged since 1956. Only 19 other counties in Texas have as low or lower tax rate than does Eastland County.

A breakdown of the .80 rate shows that the general fund will receive .60, the jury fund .03, the road and bridge fund .07, and the road and bridge sinking fund .10. The permanent improvement fund, for the second year in a row, will receive no levy. The fund can carry itself, officials believe.

The heavy rate given the general fund for the second year in a row is an effort to strengthen the fund. O'Brien estimates the fund will gain $10,000 this fund. The fund was allotted .55 in 1958 and got just .35 in 1957.

Here's where the county's money will come from in 1960; O'Brien estimates that ad valorem taxes will provide $121,836; auto licenses will bring in $140,000; fines will provide $8,000; the county's part of the state gasoline tax will add an additional $8,990; the county farm will put $1,350 in the treasury; fees of office will net $59,200; sale of poll taxes will bring in $700; trial fees will total $7000; stenographers fees will add $100; rent on county

Attend Methodist Conference at Cisco

Mr. and Mrs. York Eberhart, Rev. and Mrs. Robert E. Cook, Bill Crawford and Marvin West attended the quarterly conference and rally held at the First Methodist Church at Cisco Monday evening, Sept. 14.

Speaker for the rally was James Ellison of Olney.

Rev. Cook, pastor of the local church, presided at the quarterly conference for the Central Methodist Church at Mineral Wells the following Tuesday evening.

property will bring in $420; and jury fees will add $60.

And here's how the money will be spent: A total of $7,941 will be spent out of the jury fund. That will pay for all court expenses. The road and bridge fund's expenses will total $185,095, including $138,525 for maintenance and $46,095 for salaries and right of way.

Estimated expenditures for permanent improvements total $2000. The 1922 road and interest sinking fund will be tapped for $8,990 and the 1951-53 road and bridge refund bonds sinking fund will pay out $14,000. Expenses of the county farm are listed at $1,368. The officers salary fund will pay out $96,870 and the general fund will be hit for $78,878.

Kittens Defeat Cisco Midgets By Score of 22-0

The Rising Star Kittens, Grade School football team, coached by Lloyd Gonzales, defeated the Cisco Midgets by a score of 22 to 0 in their first victory of the season Tuesday evening at Wildcat field.

The first quarter was scoreless, but the Kittens scored twice in the second and once in the third and ran over two extra points after two of the scores to run up their impressive total.

Gary Duggan made the first touchdown and Wayne Morrison ran over for the extra points making the score 8-0. Later in the same period Wayne Morrison scored again but try for two points failed.

The third period was played as prosperous, but the last touchdown was scored by Neil ran over for

"I GIVE YOU TEXAS"

By Boyce House

Bristol is on the Virginia-Tennessee line. The boundary is a white mark down the center of a main street. As to jurisdiction, I was told that if a Virginia officer was pursuing a speeder, the officer could chase him all the way to the Pacific Ocean, just so he could keep the car in sight.

East Tennessee is beautiful. It was my first view of the region (this was the summer of 1958) which was the home of Bob Taylor, the fiddling governor, humorist and spellbinder, who was fond of saying that the mountains of East Tennessee were so tall that a boy could stand tiptoe on one and tickle the feet of the angels as they went winging over. (For the statistical-minded, the actual height is around 4,000 feet.)

There is a great difference between the inhabitants of East Tennessee and those of Middle and West Tennessee. The dwellers in the mountains did not own slaves and they were pro-union. After the Civil War, the East Tennesseans voted strongly Republican. It used to be said in Memphis that the votes were held back in East Tennessee until the returns from the rest of the state were in and it was seen how many votes were needed! It was true that the returns were slow in being reported but it took time for the election judge to ride a mule over the mountains to the county seat from which the results could be telegraphed.

Chauncey M. Depew, after dinner speaker, Senator and railroad president, in "My Memories of Eighty Years" says of James A. Garfield:

"He happily carried with him amid all the struggles and disappointments, as well as successes, in the making of a career the buoyant, hopeful, companionable and affectionate interests which characterize the ambitious senior who has just left college to take his plunge into the activities of life."

While Robert Louis Stevenson then a young man, was in the old mining camps of California, he felt the influence of the free and easy humor about him to such an extent that touches appeared in his writings at the time. For instance, he told of a man who became a stagecoach robber. A doctor (Stevenson said) to whom the man went, told him to take something—so he took the express company's money box.

LOCAL ITEMS

TAX MAN SAM SEZ:

A lot of people feel that the tax laws are not fair. Some how or other this feeling is highest around income tax time when you have to put out those dollars you have saved for something.

Internal Revenue have a very serious problem in collecting all the tax money that the taxpayer owes as well as paying tax payers to pay more than they owe. They are trained to determine how much you owe under a interpretation of the law as passed by Congress. They collect the dollars belonging to Uncle Sam and try to make sure that you keep the dollars that belong to you. All of us can hope that they do a good job. It makes the tax law fairer for all.

Mrs. John Jensen of Denver, Colo., has been here for the past three weeks visiting her sister, Mrs. T. B. Busbee and other friends and relatives in the Rising Star and Brownwood area. She will be remembered here as the former Frances Wilson.

It's The Law In Texas

STAY FOR SCHOOL BUSES

Thousands of school children are now trooping back to school throughout Texas. Many of them will be transported by school buses. Most people are careful when approaching a school bus which may be standing beside the road or school to pick up school children or allow them to alight. However, we have already had some very bad accidents this year because a child or motorist, or both, were careless at that very time.

Most Texans are aware of the law which requires a driver to come to a complete stop when overtaking from the rear a school bus which has stopped to receive or discharge school children. After stopping immediately behind the bus, he is then allowed by law to proceed past same at a speed "which is prudent, not exceeding ten (10) miles per hour, and with due caution for the safety of such children."

What many persons do not realize is that the very same rule applies when MEETING a stopped school bus. While everyone is interested in protecting our children, unthinking violators of this simple safety rule greatly outnumber those who comply. Failure to follow the law in this case can lead to fines up to $200.00 even when the accident occurs. Following an accident in which some child is injured or killed, the penalties are naturally much more serious.

Although the above rule does not always apply when passing a stopped school bus in a business or residential district of a town, the necessity for extreme caution even in those locations is obvious.

When it comes to overtaking ordinary moving vehicles, everyone generally keep a driver in the law. For instance, when passing a car it is only common sense to proceed on past it a safe distance before cutting back to the right side of the highway. Also, any driver would realize the danger of increasing his speed while another is attempting to pass him.

In the same category is the prohibition against passing on the right under most ordinary conditions. Of course, you may legally pass on the right in a few specific instances, such as when the vehicle overtaken is making or about to make a left turn, or upon a one way street with two or more lanes, or upon a four lane highway.

However, our traffic laws state that even when passing on the right is allowed, it shall be done only under conditions permitting such movement in safety. And, in no event should such passing be accomplished by driving off the pavement or main travelled portion of the roadway.

Familiar to all are the no passing zones designated by dash lines placed to one side of the center stripe on our highways. Not so well known are the restrictions against crossing the center line when approaching within 100 feet of or when traversing any intersection or railroad grade crossing.

A driver should never cross the center line of a highway when the left side of the road is not clearly visible and free of oncoming traffic. Generally speaking, when not engaged in passing another vehicle, one should not drive to the left of the roadway.

This column, prepared by the State Bar of Texas is written to inform—not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who is fully advised concerning the facts involved, because a slight variation in facts may change the application of the law.)

Blue Cross Will Open Enrollment For 65 and Over

W. R. McBee, executive director of Blue Cross-Blue Shield of Texas, announced today that a special enrollment campaign is planned for the month of October. "During this 31 day period," he said, "Texas Blue Cross-Blue Shield is opening enrollment to all Texans age 65 and over, in good health, who have not been able to obtain health care protection through a group."

There are already 72,000 Texans age 65 and over enrolled in Blue Cross-Blue Shield. These are people who joined through an enrolled group where no age limit is applied and who have been allowed to retain their membership after retirement, regardless of their age.

Four broad plans have been designed and are being offered for the month of October to Texas residents in this age group. These same plans will be available throughout the year to those under age 65.

An innovation with these new plans will be acceptance of payment on a monthly basis, in order to make them more available to people who have had trouble budgeting the cost of their health insurance. This easy method of payment, explained McBee, is being used so that more people can prepay their health care as conveniently as they pay their monthly utility bills.

Doctors and hospitals throughout the state will be supporting this special campaign as an important effort to supply effective prepaid health on a voluntary basis, at reasonable cost, to citizens in the 65 and over age group.

Shift to Meat-Type Hogs Are Needed

COLLEGE STATION.—The drop in hog prices emphasizes the need for swine producers to speed up their shift to meat type hogs. Even with lower prices, T. D. Tanksley, Jr., extension animal husbandman, says that producers of more desirable types, in many instances, are getting market premiums for their animals.

As an aid to registered breeders, the Animal Husbandry Department of Texas A&M College, cooperating with Texas Swine Breeders Association, will again conduct a fall boar test. According to Tanksley, the test is designed to find the hogs which will make fast, efficient gains and produce meaty, well muscled carcasses on a self fed grain and supplement ration.

Take Care of Household Metals

ALUMINUM . . . Never leave food in an aluminum pan any longer than necessary. Wash with a mild soap and water or a mild detergent soon after using them. Leaving food in them causes the formation of pits or holes, thus making them harder to clean. Use steel wool to scour or a mild abrasive such as whiting. Rinse well with hot water and dry carefully. Never use soda, lye, strong soaps or other strong alkalis in aluminum pans. If an aluminum pan becomes slightly discolored, boil it in something that is acid, such as vinegar and water or cream of tartar.

ENAMEL WARE . . . Treat as you would for glass. Usually this can be cleaned simply by washing with mild soap and water. Soak in water before cleaning if something has been burned in it. Do not scrape it.

STAINLESS STEEL . . . is very easily cleaned. Take off food that sticks with a gritless cleaning powder such as whiting or extremely fine steel wool. Otherwise keep it clean with the usual washing with hot suds of mild soap, rinsing and careful drying.

IRON . . . is an old standby. Scour iron with steel wool and use a strong alkaline soap to remove grease. If food sticks on iron, soak the utensil in a hot soda water solution using three tablespoons of soda to one quart of water. Bring this to a boil. Scrub with a stiff brush and scouring powder. Wash with hot soapy water, rinse and dry. Always keep iron thoroughly dry. Just a little moisture will cause it to rust. If it does rust, remove the rust with scouring powder and steel wool.

COPPER . . . Both copper and brass are hard metals and can be treated much alike. Use polishes on them which are more abrasive than the polishes for softer metals.

SILVER . . . Remove any tarnish immediately. The best way to keep silver free from tarnish is to use it. Wash it regularly in a mild soap suds, rinse well and dry thoroughly. You should avoid soaking the hollow handled silver pieces in hot water. The cement holding the handles may loosen. There are a number of methods and preparations which may be used satisfactorily for polishing silver.

Are you kept on the run by a ring?

If you had the speed of a jet and the stamina of a mountain lion, then running up and down stairs to answer a ringing telephone would never bother you.

Since most people don't have these qualities, they have found the easiest way to stop running is to install convenient, low cost extensions in their most lived-in rooms.

PLANT DISEASES CAN BE SPREAD BY TRAVELERS

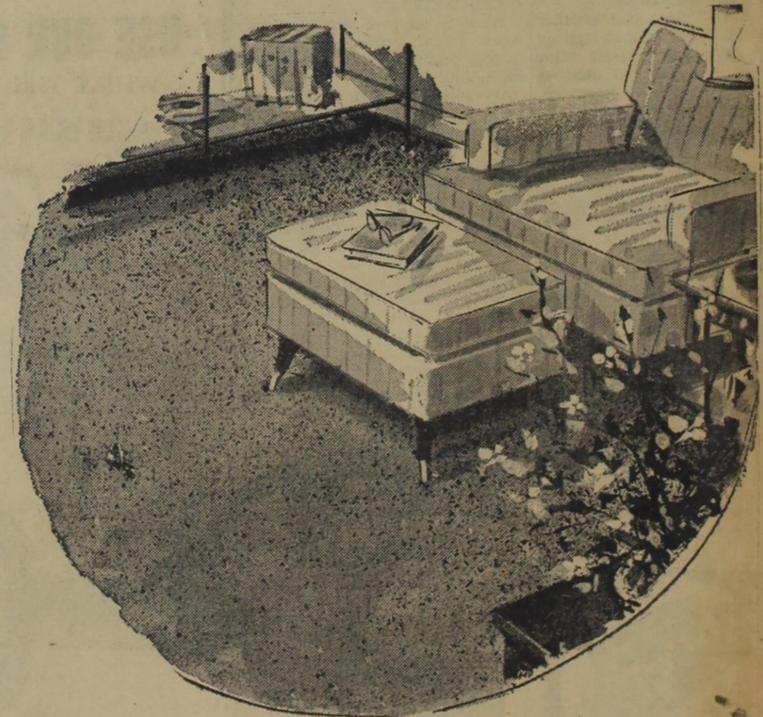

COLLEGE STATION.—When traveling out of the U. S. don't tuck foreign fruits, plants, meats or other plant or meat products into your baggage and try to bring them home with you, warns Harlan E. Smith, extension plant pathologist, and Connie F. Garner, extension entomologist. In bringing back these foreign products you may be bringing dangerous crop or livestock pests back unnoticed, they add.

Wanda Smith and John Philley Wed In Ritual Here

The marriage of Wanda Smith to John Philley was solemnized on Saturday, Sept. 19, at the First Methodist Church in Rising Star.

Rev. Robert Cook, pastor of the church, read the double ring ceremony. The altar was decorated on either side with graceful palms and two tiers of candelabra with seven candles each. The wedding music was beautifully played by Linda Koonce. Mrs. C. L. Reeves, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, and A. T. Bynam was best man.

The bride, who wore a beautiful dress of lace and satin, with finger tip veil, entered upon the arm of her father, who gave her away.

Carl Smith, brother of the bride, and Ed Ware, cousin of the bride, served as ushers and also lighted the candles. Mrs. Carl Smith registered the guests.

Mrs. C. E. Smith, mother of the bride, chose a navy dress with white accessories. Mr. and Mrs. U. S. Philley, uncle and aunt of the bridegroom, were here from Fort Worth. Dr. Mary Curtis Chrane of Abilene, an aunt of the bridegroom, was present at the wedding. Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Bynam, sister and brother in law of the groom and their little daughter, Terry Lee, all of Clyde, Texas were present. Relatives of the bride who attended were Mrs. Ida Ware, grandmother of the bride and Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Ware, Rising Star; Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Ware of Midland, a cousin of the bride; Mrs. C. L. Reeves and Linda of Odessa, and a number of close friends and school mates of the bride.

Immediately after the ceremony, a reception was held in the basement of the church. The bride's table was laid with a lace cloth over blue and centered with wedding cake which was topped with a miniature bride and groom. The cake was cut by the bride and groom and served to all of the wedding party and friends. Mrs. Robert Cook, Mrs. Glen Henry and Miss Martha Haynes and Mary Haynes Wilson assisted in serving. The bride is presently employed the J. P. Gibson Co. in Midland while the groom is an employee of the Dental Laboratory in Odessa. The couple will reside in Midland. At the wedding, the background of palms and candelabra were arranged by Mrs. Betsy Burns who also made pictures of the bride and groom and wedding party.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Harris visited Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Dugan Thursday.

Guests of Haynes at Fish Fry Saturday

Those enjoying a fish fry at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Haynes Saturday night were Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Hicks of Midland; Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Wilson, who have just returned from service in the army; Martha Haynes of Abilene; Mr. and Mrs. Will Haynes of Gorman; Mr. and Mrs. Blackie Wilson of Blanket and Mr. Wilson's mother from Bangs; Mr. and Mrs. Bo Elrod of Comanche and Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Hicks and Joan from Okra.

Mrs. B. A. Petzell and Mrs. S. W. Fountain visited Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Smith of Cisco Saturday.

JONES-BLAIR HOUSE PAINTS

Rugged as the Southwest... and just as beautiful!

Blistering sun and stinging northerners don't get to first base with Jones-Blair House Paint—it's made with built-in resistance to the Southwestern climate!

The Jones-Blair exclusive formula developed in J-B's own extensive laboratory gives this paint its special qualities—makes it flow on with a tough, uniform film in the correct thickness always to stick tight and weather right. It has amazing resistance to cracking, peeling or blistering—seals out harmful rays, seals in beauty and durability for years of bright unfading life.

Jones-Blair House Paint has a self-cleaning action—doesn't collect dirt or stains. It goes a long way, too, because it has great hiding qualities. You get all this protection and economy plus superb beauty with Jones-Blair House Paints. They come in 24 colors—soft southwestern tones and unusual intermixes—colors that are so nice to come home to!

Rising Star 4-H Club Boys Elect

The Rising Star Boys 4H Club met Thursday, Sept. 17, 1959. We held our meeting in the music room of the grade school. Our president called the meeting to order and we started out by electing officers. They are as follows: Vice president, John Gerhardt; Secretary Treasurer, Sharon Lewis; Reporter, Judy Lewis.

At our last meeting in the spring of 1959, we elected president and council representative for this year. The chosen president was Sharon Donham and the council representative was Danny White.

Mr. Curtis Boase, our 4H leader, told those who wanted sheep where to find them and also that he wanted everyone to turn in a complete record book on his projects.

We had 28 to attend the meeting last Thursday. We are happy to have with us six girls this year; three of them are officers, and we hope they will all be active members.—Reporter
