Plans Laid For School Exes Return

It is not too soon to be planning that entry for the parade at the annual Rising Star Homecoming Saturday, October 1, said Bob Shults, chairman of the parade committee.

Shults and his co-workers are laying their own plans and hoping for the best and biggest parade in the history of the annual event.

"We are hoping that every class represented will have an entry in the line of march," he said. "Of course every business house and every civic organization is invited—and expected—to have an entry also."

"Let's begin right now to take time and thought enough to make these entries original and interesting. It adds to the attraction of the whole Homecoming program to have a good parade."

The parade will march at 2 p. m. after forming at the High School area on North Main.

Registration for the day will begin at 9 a. m. at the Home Ec cottage on the High School campus. Registration will be followed by a business meeting in the gym at 11 a. m. After the parade there will be a pep rally at the gym and a coke party.

The highlight of the day will be the football game between the Rising Star Wildcats and the May Tigers at 8 p. m.

During the halftime intermission at the game the Exes will present their homecoming queen who will be selected at the business meeting.

Among the classes which are planning extra activities for the day is the class of 1953. This group, of which Dizzy Madison is president and Mrs. Betty Westerman Carman is vice-president, has secured the American Legion Hall for a noon meal where a steak dinner will be served to class members and their families at 12:30 p. m. Col. Homer Garrison, Jr., director, announced at the same time that there are some 125 vacancies in the patrol services.

although there were bright spots in the coach's estimation. The bigger, more experienced Comanche club simply ran over them.

But the following week the Cats showed great improvement in their scrimmage with the Eastland Mavericks at Eastland, and Coach Gray found much to be pleased with.

The game with Wylie will be non-conference of course. The Cats will not start district play until late in the season when they meet the Goldthwaite team at Goldthwaite on October 14. They will then play Early and Santa Anna on successive weekends, completing the season in a game with their old rivals, the Cross Plains Buffaloes, at Rising Star after a week's lay-off.

Prior to district play they will meet all of their former Class B rivals—Gorman, Blanket, May and Bangs. The Cats advanced to Class A rating this season. Coach Gray said he had not decided on the lineup he will start Friday night and probably would not do so until just before the game.

Peanut Crop Prospects Best In Many Years Survey Finds

Aided by timely and good rains, farmers of the Rising Star area face the prospect of harvesting one of the biggest peanut crops since the wartime years, when every available acre was planted, a survey shows.

A good planting season and several inches of soaking moisture during the late days of August have combined to furnish a highly optimistic picture of the fall season here.

The long, dry, hot days of late July and early August did nothing to restrict the promised production. Peanuts can withstand a great deal of hot, dry weather in the early season. The critical period occurs during the latter part of August and the first of September when the fruiting period occurs, growers point out.

Given good rains at this time, as has been the case this year, and the crop invariably produces well.

Vines which have been pulled in various parts of the peanut area show uniformly heavy fruiting, and growers are looking for an unusually high average yield if the weather holds favorable.

There is ample moisture to make the crop, they say. What is needed now is a long spell of warm, dry weather to mature the nuts.

Naturally, growers and processors alike are hoping for clear, dry weather and a late frost. Given this they anticipate a very prosperous fall.

According to Standard Rate and Data Service, which has made a nationwide survey, there has been a general improvement in the farm income picture. In Eastland County, according to this report revenue from agriculture was up $335,000 in 1965 from the previous year.

Total farm revenue for this county was reported to be $7,394,000 in 1965 as compared with $7,039,000 the previous year.

This represents total receipts before deductions for operating expenses and taxes.

Prospects appear even brighter for 1966, the authorities say. The report figure takes into account the cash proceeds from the sale of livestock and crops

Local Man In Firm to Get Brownwood Ambulances

A Rising Star man is one member of a two-man firm which Wednesday morning received a license to operate an ambulance service in Brownwood.

He is John W. Bishop, who with Dave Fair of Brownwood organized the B&F Ambulance Service which began operations in Brownwood Wednesday.

The new service will take over ambulance operations which have been relinquished by funeral homes in Brownwood due to excessive costs which new federal wage and hour regulations have imposed upon funeral establishments operating such services.

The new firm, which will do ambulance work exclusively, will be organized to meet the regulations, and equipment formerly used by two of the funeral homes in the city has been passed to the partnership for its operations.

The Brownwood City Council authorized the license by a 4-0 vote Wednesday, awarding it to B&F over two other applicants.

The ordinance granting the license sets up a schedule of rates for various ambulance and transfer services to be preformed and sets up certain standards which the new firm must meet. B&F, on the other hand, reserved the right to review its operations after the first 90 days of operation and to seek adjustments if considered necessary over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bishop visited their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Bishop, at Katy as well as government payments and "income in kind," which is the value of homegrown items used on the farm.

The bulk of it was from the marketing of farm products. Approximately 30 per cent of this income was from the sale of crops and 70 per cent from the sale of livestock poultry and dairy products. The breakdown is based on Department of Agriculture statistics.

In terms of the local farm population, the gross income was equivalent to $2,550 for each person living on the land. It was 12.3 per cent above the 1964 average of $2,271.

This compares with a 11.3 per cent rise in the State of Texas. In many parts of the country, notwithstanding increased output and rising prices, the farmer's net income improved very little. The reason—bigger operating expenses.

This year may be a better one. The government predicts an increase of $1.5 billions in net farm income, based on higher price levels and on its policy change that calls for expanded production of certain crops through an easing of acreage controls.

Governor Says Farmer Not Inflation Guilty

COLLEGE STATION — More than 1,000 persons attending Texas A&M University's Agricultural Extension Service biennial conference this week heard Gov. John Connally defend farmers and ranchers against charges that they cause inflation and high food prices.

"Some economists have suggested that the basic cause of our present apparent inflation is the price asked for their goods by those who raise food and fiber. I strongly disagree," the governor said. "Although retail food prices have risen since 1951, prices obtained for products as they leave the farm have declined 25 per cent."

He said if the farmer had received the same share of the food dollar in 1965 that he received in 1947, American consumers would have spent another $15 billion for food last year.

Dr. Ennis B. Hill, 57, prominent Methodist pastor and worker, died last week in San Antonio after an illness of two months. He was buried in San Antonio Friday.

The Methodist minister, who was also a trustee of Southern University, and of various Methodist institutions, lived in Rising Star for many years, where his father was employed by Higginbotham's, and attended school here.

EASTLAND—The 1966 Eastland County tax rolls have been completed and reflect the continued decrease in valuations—but not quite as far down from 1965 and from 1964, County Tax Assessor-Collector Edgar Alom has reported.

Total values being reported by his office are $21,961,700. Total value in 1965 was $21,983,800, and $22,164,040 in 1965. Total taxes in 1966 is $290,506.30.

Values for state (which are less because of removal of homesteads) for 1966 is $176,148.30, and the state tax is $82,794.38, he said. The county tax will be $175,693.60, and school tax will be $32,072.32. (The county assesses and collects for Oden, two county line districts and two old districts near Lake Leon which goes to Oden.

The reduction in total values amounts to $22,100.

An increase of five cents, up from 42 cents in the state's share helps account for uppage in taxes. The county share is 80 cents for a total rate of $1.27.

Gains are being made on the tax rolls in new homes and construction—but not enough to offset the increasing losses of oil interest, Mr. Alom said.

The 1965 breakdown was: $17,607,500, value for state; $175,874.40, county's tax; $31,453.25, school; and $281,537.97, total tax.

In 1964: $17,705,290, state value; $74,306.67, state tax; $177,312.32, county tax; and $282,325.12, total tax.

It Has Been

By VADA ARNOLD

The fact that the Rising Star territory has proved to be one of the best pecan-growing countries in Texas might be attributed to the curiosity of the late R. A. (Gus) Bowden, pioneer pecan man of this section and who owned the oldest and one of the largest commercial orchards in this part of the country.

Once Mr. Bowden was asked frankly how he came to get the idea that Pecans would grow on his sand land farm, six miles south of town. "Gus" scratched his head in characterized manner and said "Well, kinder by accident I guess."

In December 1912 his father, the late Rev. Billy Bowden, discovered he had planted his "Uncle Bill," came home from a trip to Uvade and brought an old fashioned 'grub box' full of pecans back with him. "Gus" looked at the pecans and said 'pa do you reckon those pecans would come up if I plant them here on my farm?' His father assured him that he thought they would.

In January 1913, Mr. Bowden planted a number of the pecans, about mid May the pecans were up and getting a good start. During the year Mr. Bowden went to Junction and bought enough pecans to plant four acres, they came up and grew nicely. Thus the Bowden pecan orchard was started.

In two years time, Mr. Bowden discovered he had planted his trees too thick and began to take them and transplant, in a few years his four acres had grown to 16 acres and the trees became the finest in this section. They were 50 feet in height with a spread of 5 feet and most of them were 18 inches in diameter. These seedlings were budded to all the most popular varieties including Burkett, Halbert, Texas Pacific, Western Schley, McCully and San Saba improved and number of Eastern varieties.

Mr. Bowden continued setting out young trees from his own nursery stock and his orchard grew to 70 acres all planted in pecans.

He sold many trees from his nursery and did much to promote pecan propagation in this territory.

Mr. Bowden was a deeply religious man and when asked to what he attributed his success in pecan business, he replied "I planted those pecans with a prayer and God caused them to grow and produce."

Mr. Bowden remained active in pecan culture until 1945. Declining health forced him to give up his most loved avocation. He moved to Rising Star where he lived a normal happy life for a man of his age, until his death March 29, 1955. Mr. Bowden was loved for his optimism and love for mankind.

The orchard now owned and operated by C. L. Cook and son of Abilene, still produces hundreds of bushels of pecans in season.

Soon after the Bowden pecan orchard showed success others became interested, the late W. H. Hughes, 4 miles west of Rising Star, set 80 acres in pecans and in seven years increased the acreage to 120. He also established a nursery and sold large numbers of trees in Texas and other states.

Among other orchards near Rising Star were the J. F. Robertson and Roy Hickman Sr. two miles north of town and Dr. W. L. Allen with 80 acres, two miles southwest.

South of town 4 miles were two promising young orchards, N. N. Clark, 36 acres and G. G. Goss, 20 acres. Three miles north, Cecil Shults set 15 acres and planned to set 40 acres in the fall.

The largest native pecan enterprise, was the property of the late U. A. Dingler of Sabanno Creek, 8 miles northeast of town. Mr. Dingler owned about one mile of creek bottom trees. Many had been top worked and budded, and produced fine nuts. One native Halbert and one native Burkett was found in the grove by Mr. Dingler. There were always large exhibits from the Dingler pecan trees at the local and county fairs.

November 18-19, 1932, a "Big State Wide Pecan Fair" was held in Rising Star, Mayor W. E. Tyler gave the welcome address. The late E. M. Howard, president of the Pecan Association delivered the presidents address.

Dignitaries from all over the state were here, and some participated in the all day program.

The feature on Friday night was a pecan banquet served in the dining room of the First Methodist Church, by ladies of the North Star Club. All food served was produced on the farms surrounding Rising Star and many uses of the pecan as a food was brought out.

Mrs. "Shine" Wetherman visited Mrs. J. W. Weatherman, recently. She also visited her brother, Vernon Montgomery, who is a patient in a Brownwood hospital.

VISITS SISTER

Mrs. Ervin Hull has returned from a visit with her sister, Mrs. Geneva Muller at Cleveland, Ohio. She was joined by three other sisters, and made a tour of New York City with the Cleveland Press Tour. Mrs. Hull reports visiting many places of interest. On their return the sisters visited a brother, Royce Smith in Dallas.

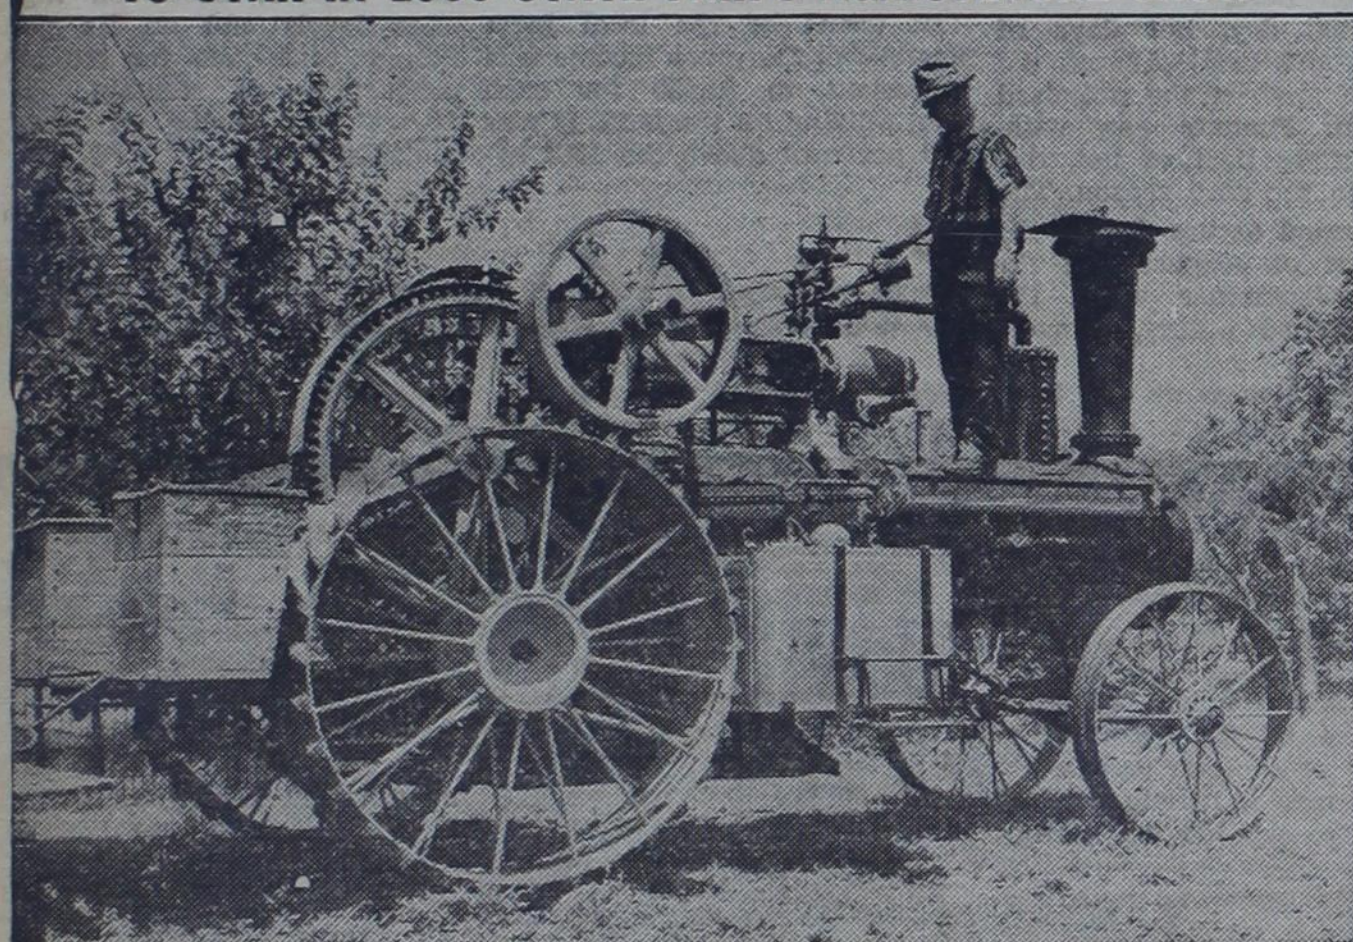

COLORADO VACATION

Mr. and Mrs. Bob J. Irby and son of Hurst, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Carl Irby, Sr., have returned from a vacation in Colorado. They visited Mrs. Carl Irby's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Campbell, at South Fork, ten miles south of Creed. They visited Del Norte, at an elevation of 10,850 feet; the Great Sand Dunes in San Lois Valley, 80 square miles of singing, shifting sands; the Hermit and Brown Lakes between Creed and Lake City. They crossed the Royal Gorge suspension bridge, above the Arkansas river and the Rio Grande Western Railroad Streamline at an elevation of 1,053 feet. The Irbys report a perfect trip in a land of enchantment.

"OUR OLD HIGH SCHOOL"

In our school song, we affectionately refer to R.S.H.S. as "our old high school." Such a simple phrase requires complex analysis; these four or two words symbolize the many years that our familiar building has served as a learning center and guiding post for the throngs of students that have entered and departed through her doors.

Last Monday her doors were opened as she began another year. Strange faces, appeared with the enrollment of new students and the advancement of the freshman class into high school. She noticed the sophomores were happy to be no longer dubbed as "fish", and the juniors boasted personal satisfaction at crossing the halfway mark dividing their high school career. A senior's thoughts however, ran in various channels as his mind worked frantically in a vain effort to organize mixed emotions. Being a senior is the goal which every student strives to achieve; yet when this aim is attained, he finds it difficult to realize that he has traveled this far so quickly.

To each student every problem is individually different and personal, but our friendly building has seen these same problems crop up time after time. She has seen the joy that follows a good mark on an important paper; expressions of disappointment also haunt her memory as she recalls a student's heart-break in failing his particular mission or in losing the companionship of a dear friend.

She is always there silently watching, allowing her stained ceiling, worn out floors, and drab walls to offer solace and comfort to the distressed; warmth and security to the happy.

As students begin this year, they will look upon high school not as a place for boredom and despair but as a friendly institution whose administration labors to comply with the happiness and well-being of the student body.

"BUILDERS OF TOMORROW"

From the eyes of this reporter the senior class of 1966-67 has the potential to be one of the most promising yet. We have twenty-six students, each happily beginning this great year with new enthusiasm and higher goals.

We have elected class officers as follows:
 President-Don Claborn;
 Vice-President-Bob Clark;
 Secretary-Jill Harding;
 Treasurer-Roxie Smith;
 Sponsor-Mrs. Nowlin and Mr. Geyer.

Voted for was the color of the cap and gowns. The deciding vote was blue gowns and caps with blue and gold tassels.

The senior class is very lucky to have such wonderful sponsors as Mrs. Billie Nowlin and Mr. Geyer. We know with this type of leadership, the help of our parents and the good citizens of Rising Star this class will succeed in being a credit to Rising Star High School.

"NOT FINISHED, JUST BEGUN"

School season is here once again and we have had a full week. We will soon settle down to the routine; although, the truth is the teachers made this possible by assigning plenty of homework the first day. Now we had better take the current.

Our class elections for this year are: President, Robert Wilson; Vice - President, Shirley Smith; Secretary, Brenda Bailey; Treasurer, Wayne Gibbs; Reporter, Peggy Burns.

It was decided to keep our same motto, "Not Finished, Just Begun"; flower carnation; colors blue and white.

Our boys who are members of the fighting Wildcats this year are Travis Ford, Grant Poyner, Ronald Hunt, Jackie Bibby, Robert Clarke Richard Callaway, and Carl Clark.

Our room mothers are chairman—Mrs. Turner; Mrs. Cotton, Mrs. White, Mrs. Bibby, Mrs. Griffin and Mrs. Bailey.

The Junior sponsors for our class are Mrs. C. A. Claborn and Mr. Ray Nunnally.

Shirley Smith and Ronnie Cotton were elected Junior representatives for the Student Council.

We know this will be a special year and all will benefit from it.

WITH THE SOPHS.

The members of the Sophomore class are once again in the swing of things after what seemed a short summer. We have two new students—Kay Barrow and Vernon Snodgrass.

We have been getting our class organized this week. The officers are President, Bess Lee; Vice President, Monty Howard; Sec. Treas., Robert Holly; Reporter, Katie Howard. Our room mothers are Mrs. Ruby Nell Hubbard, Mrs. June Harris, Mrs. B. P. Underwood, Mrs. Skeet Clark, Mrs. Don Schaefer and Mrs. Roy Holly. Class favorites are Mickie Chambers and Mike Rhodes.

We are scrambling around trying to get our subjects straightened out. Some of us have had to change several times.

We are all happy to be in school again. All of the Soph. class will be backing the Wildcats with lots of Support this year. We think our cheerleaders will be simply great.

We hope this year is as good as last years was for us.

"FROM THE FISH BOWL"

Here we are in High school. The first day of school was really did not know what was taking place; however, we soon found out with the aid of our patient teachers and helpful upper classmen you know that when we are asked, "Do you like school?" we will usually say, "No!" Down deep, we know that school is the most important thing in our lives and we would not quit for anything.

We may clown around a little bit and say "Oh! them old teachers don't know nothing!" We know that without them to urge us on we would not now be members of the Freshman Class.

Class officers for this year: President-Betty Medford; Vice-President-Bill Shults; Secretary-Toni Harris; Treasurer-Debbie McCutchen; Reporter-Carter Hounsel; Student Council Delegates-Ray Darnell and Mary Shults. Carter Hounsel

DO-RE-MI

"LA ESTRELLITA"

The school year has started and along with it the work begins on a new yearbook.

As a matter of fact, work on the yearbook began before Aug. 29. Soon after returning from Annual School, the staff began selling ads. Everyone was very cooperative, and to all the business firms in Rising Star and adjoining towns, we express our sincere thanks for the ads you bought from our staff; without you, this year book would not be possible.

Everyone is working hard to be ready for the photographer, who will be at high school September 15 and at grade school, September 16. High school and grade school students, be sure to look your best!

Our work is just beginning, but we have high hopes for a great annual this year.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council of Rising Star High school has begun its 1966-67 schedule. Our new President, Mike Stroebel, will preside over this year's meeting. Each year two representatives are chosen from the four classes in high school. This year's members are: Freshman-Mary Shults, Ray Darnell; Sophomores-Ronnie Green and Linda Hubbard; Juniors-Shirley Smith and Ronnie Cotton; Seniors-Roxie Smith and Dwight Carter. The first meeting of the Council has not yet been set.

BOYS' SPORTS

Football season opened August 14 with thirty-one boys reporting; eight seniors will be fighting their last year for a victorious season. Workouts were held at night in preparation for two scrimmage games held before the season opener with Wylie. The Wildcats had their first scrimmage game with Comanche and their second at Eastland. The first game will be played September 9, against Wylie, a Class A school on the local field.

GIRLS' SPORTS

Hi! My name is Bess Lee. I am a sophomore at R.S.H.S. this year and girls' sports reporter. Basketball is all the go for the girls in both P. E. periods. Our coach Mr. L. C. Hounsel, has a bright outlook on the coming basketball season. We have two new faces in 7th period P. E.—Sherry Murdock and Kay Barrow. We welcome them and all the other new people to R.S.H.S. As for now, our legs stiffen and our familiar blue sports return.

A NEW YEAR-1966-1967

A new year begins again! It holds for the freshman many unforgettable, exciting adventures. The plight of most of the freshman is to wander aimlessly about the hall wondering which is the right classroom, how to act towards upperclassmen, and what the teachers in high school are like. They soon find out, however, that high school is much like grade school, which they are familiar.

The sophomores go from class to class with an air of confidence. After all, this is their second year.

The juniors begin to realize the responsibilities that are coming them to become familiar freshman are welcomed, helping them to become familiar with their new surroundings, and taking a more active part in the school's activities.

The first thought a senior has is thank goodness, this is my last year; yet, in the background of his mind he is a little sad that he will no longer be in contact with old friends in high school.

Yes, a new year has a new and different meaning for each individual; but every student soon finds out that the year ahead is what he makes it. Let us strive to make this year the best yet!

Highest capacity...finest performance... greatest peanut profits in harvesting history

IT'S ALL HERE

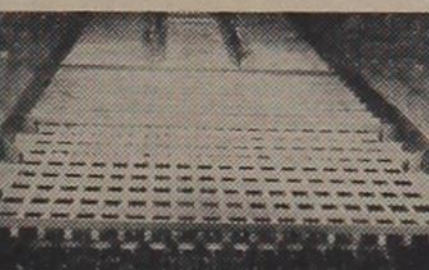

THE SPECTACULAR LILLISTON 1500 PEANUT COMBINE

WIDE LOW HEADER. 66-inch Pick-Up takes any windrow—multiple row or wide-formed two-row included. Specially designed reel lifts the vines gently, gets more peanuts even under adverse picking conditions. From here on, there's a positive vine flow all the way through.

MEET THE CONDITIONS. All you do is adjust the Stripper Bars to change picking aggressiveness to conform to varying conditions of the field. No tools necessary.

BIG SEPARATOR SCREEN. A full 52 inches long, the pan floor is perforated for additional dirt removal. The shaking action of the Paddle Wheel Separator Screen insures a positive, constant flow of material so that high-yielding peanuts will move through without overloading.

LOW MAINTENANCE. Because Cleaner and Stemmer Pans are balanced on Double-Bonded Bushings, only one Eccentric Drive is needed (not four or five as on other combines). This is the kind of quality-first engineering that cuts maintenance costs and builds profits.

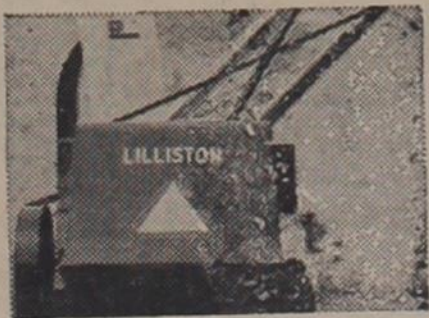

Perfect Partner
THE LILLISTON 2700 SERIES
DIGGER-SHAKER-WINDROWER

For high-speed, non-stop uniform windrowing, it out-performs them all... even in the toughest conditions. Brute strong, it out-lasts them all, too.

The quietest, slickest, smoothest running shaker ever built.

HUGE BULK TANK. Seventy bushels will dump easily into the higher truck bodies. Extended dumping lip puts peanuts in the center of the truck bed—that makes loading a lot faster.

EVERYTHING'S HERE. Right down to the Slow Moving Vehicle Emblem recommended by the National Safety Council. Lilliston was the first farm implement company to use it.

"You mean you had to pay TWENTY-FIVE DOLLARS for those new medicines?"

"Yes, but they saved $900 and my husband's life!"

YEARS AGO when the physician fought to bring a patient through a seige of pneumonia there was little he could do but help conserve the patient's strength, make him comfortable . . . and hope for the best.

In fact, the doctor sadly signed death certificates for 33 out of every 100 pneumonia patients he treated. For those who survived, recovery was slow and expenses were high. The cost of the average case was about $1,000, including three or four weeks' time lost away from work.

Happily, this grim picture has changed. Under the onslaught of sulfa drugs . . . and the anti-biotics . . . pneumonia has steadily lost ground. Now, uncomplicated cases clear up in four or five days. Instead of losing 33 out of every 100 cases, the doctor saves all but a very few.

Just as striking as the cut in deaths and disability is the cut in the cost of curing pneumonia. More and more patients can now be cared for at home. As a result the average case of pneumonia may cost no more than $100 . . . including the loss of income, the doctor's visits and the "expensive" new medicine!

Today, more than ever before, an investment in prompt and proper medical care may well represent one of the biggest bargains of your life.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

"ALL RISKS" INSURANCE

More and more often, insurance policies on a home or its contents are using that reassuring phrase "all risks." Instead of naming the separate perils you are protected against, like "fire" or "theft" or "windstorm," the policy will wrap them all up in those two short words.

How much protection does that give you? Does it mean you are covered for absolutely everything that can possibly happen to your property? No, it does not.

For one thing, the policy itself may even spell out exceptions. But even if it doesn't the law will read certain exceptions into the coverage anyhow.

One such exception is a loss which you yourself cause, either on purpose or by extreme negligence. Take two cases:

- 1) a terrible-tempered farmer flogged his horse to death;
- 2) a home owner remained oblivious to the obvious while his dog soiled the carpet in more than 75 different places.

Both men claimed insurance under an "all risks" policy. But neither one collected. The courts reasoned that such insurance was never intended to reimburse a person for the consequences of his own flagrant misconduct.

Another exception is a loss caused by "inherent vice"—that is, the tendency of an article to go bad all by itself. Butter spoils, iron rusts, draperies fade, paint peels—not because of any outside peril but because of the products' own inherent nature. This, too, is the kind of loss not within the usual scope of insurance protection.

Still, in spite of these exceptions, an "all risks" policy generally does give you a lot broader coverage than a traditional "named peril" policy. If there is a loss, it is not up to you to point to a clause that covers it. On the contrary, you collect—unless the insurance company can point an express or implied exception that rule it out. Thus: In another case of carpet damage, a woman accidentally mangled the surface by the too vigorous application of a cleaning fluid. And a court granted her claim for insurance, because it found no flagrant misconduct, no inherent vice, no relevant exceptions in the policy.

This was the kind of a loss, said the court, that an average person might reasonably have in mind when he buys "all risks" insurance.
