EVERYBODY READ THIS

To the people of San Saba county.

Are you proud of your county? Are you proud of your Lone Star state? Are you proud of the heroes who fought for our country? Are you proud of the steps that were taken to protect and preserve the Alamo of San Antonio? If so, it seems to me that we, one and all, have neglected something that is just as essential as the Alamo.

Right here in our own county stands a mark unprotected and in my opinion it is just as essential to protect and preserve as the Alamo. That is the "Treaty Rocks" on the head of Wallace Creek. They were planted there by "Big Foot Wallace," our chief and I think it is a shame that these rocks have been let stand unprotected. I have not seen these rocks in 24 years.

I have been talking with people, and some of them whose heads are touched with silver grey, that were born and reared in San Saba county and they knew nothing of such rocks in the county. I have been told that one of those rocks is broken and probably destroyed. What is everybody's business is nobody's business. So let's get busy and attend to everybody's business and don't wait until tomorrow, for tomorrow may never come. Let's go and get these old land marks and plant them in the court house yard, where they can and will be protected. And any time you give the word I am ready and willing to go. I would like to have the honor and credit of being one of the many in transplanting the rocks of our heroes who have fought the battle successfully.

I suggest, every man, woman and child that feels interested in the matter meet September 8th and take these rocks up. Let this be a grand day with us all. Let me hear from one and all thru the San Saba News. Send your names to the editor.

W. R. Ledbetter.

W. H. Joekel has been in Lometa for the past week filling a contract for the tin work and the roofing for the addition to the high school building.

AUTO AND BUGGY WRECK

Kills Horse and Smashes Buggy

Decidedly the most tragic automobile wreck that has ever happened in San Saba was that Saturday night about 8 o'clock when the automobile driven by R. S. Miller and a buggy driven by Antone Haltmar went into a head-on collision on Commerce street near the high school building. The buggy was wrecked and the horse so crippled that he died soon afterwards. The auto was also considerably damaged. From the best information obtainable it seems that the lights on the car were poor and at this time were hardly showing. Neither party was driving fast and neither saw the other until so close that neither was able to get out of the way of the other.

Fortunately no one was hurt in the car or buggy.

The News is pleased to chronicle the success of Prof. Eugene Hagan in the race for county superintendent of Runnels county in the recent primary.

FOR SALE—Moon Bros. Surrey, practically new, cheap. See W. R. Harris.

Lewis J. Cowart was nominated for sheriff of Coke county in the run off primary. Lewis is a former San Saba county citizen and his many friends in this county will join the News in extending congratulations.

CAN'T LEAVE MONEY FOR ORDERING LIQUOR

AUSTIN, Aug. 17.—Answering inquiries submitted by J. Y. McNutt, county attorney of Robertson county, it was held by the attorney general's department that it is a violation not only of the Allison liquor law, but also of the code for a person in dry territory to leave money with another person and for the latter to go and in person or telephone to a liquor dealer in a wet town and have beer and whiskey sent to the person who left the money.

Such a transaction, it is held by the department, constitutes soliciting orders in dry territory, subjects such a person to the payment of a $5,000 cold storage tax, constitutes a sale in dry territory, violates the Allison liquor law and also the disorderly house statute.

The T. Y. Elton party started last Thursday afternoon for the overland trip to Boulder, Colo. There are two cars in the party. In the first is Mr. and Mrs. Elton, Mrs. R. L. Carter, and Miss Louise Carter. In the second is Mrs. W. H. Woodall and son, Sam Ed.

Leon Williams and wife were summoned last week from Oklahoma on account of the sickness of their baby, who had remained for an extended visit with its grandmother, Mrs. W. M. Godfrey.

KELLEY COW BOY BOOTS

The J. D. Kelley Co. will move within the next few days to the new building which T. A. Murray is having erected specially for this business. This company makes the famous "San Saba Cow Boy Boots" and has developed a business which had outgrown the old building on the south side of the square. The new building is 25 by 60 feet and is specially arranged for the light and ventilation for this company. The J. D. Kelley Co. established a small business here a little more than one year ago. Today a force of ten skilled laborers is constantly employed and orders are being filled for the San Saba Cowboy boots from Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas, Montana, Wyoming, South Dakota, Colorado, California, New Mexico, Arkansas, Idaho. These men make nothing but hand sewed boots and make them to order and have earned an enviable reputation thruout the west. A cowboy is hardly up-to-date nowadays without a pair of Kelley cow boy boots and San Saba is proud of this firm as a business institution.

For Sale or Exchange

434 acres black land in Concho county, 115 acres in cultivation, 125 more tillable, all good grass, cheap. Might take automobile. Address box 294, San Saba, or see this office.

FAIR A GRAND SUCCESS

From all those who had the pleasure of attending the San Saba County Fair last week from this place we have been informed that the fair was a complete success. Wednesday was designated as Llano day and, from the best information we can obtain, there was some 75 cars carrying something like 450 to 500, Llano Boosters all wearing badges labelled "We are from Llano." Personally we would have liked to have attended this great fair and would have done so but for the fact that we were in Houston assisting Governor Jim in saving the country.

W. C. Edwards is one of the latest to purchase a new Ford. He and family left in it Sunday morning for the ranch in Menard county where the family will spend some two weeks with him, returning for the opening of school.

S. E. Kelley and family are spending a couple of weeks at the W. A. Hudson ranch in Menard and Concho counties.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Duey of China Creek are the proud parents of a sweet little girl, born Thursday, August 17.

Stone Jones and Jim Cook of Temple spent between trains Sunday, guests in the home of the former's aunt, Mrs. W. F. Johnson.

OLD COW BOYS AT FAIR

We promised last week to continue the list of old cow boys who participated in the street parade at the fair. An additional list of those who partook of the dinner but who were not in the parade will follow this. This story is not attempting to give the old boys with reference to age. The fact is some of the oldest were unable to ride in the street parade. These are worthy of mention. A short biography of these old frontiersmen was considered, but there are so many of them that it would take about two years to complete that kind of a story. The additional list of the old ones in the parade follows: John Smith (This is China John) born February 22, 1847, came to Texas and this county in 1897. Floyd Hamrick, born Sept. 27, 1844, been here since 1957. I. A. Wyckoff, born Jan. 1, 1859, a native Texan. J. M. Kuykendall, born Nov. 12, 1856, a native Texan. J. R. Ellis, born August 25, 1863, native Texan. W. L. McDaniel, born Dec. 22, 1846, native Texan. N. C. Brown, born Nov. 28, 1849, a native Texan. S. H. Farr, born May 25, 1869, a native. A. J. Harkey, born Oct. 5, 1860, a native son of old San Saba county. John L. Latham, born Jan. 29, 1852, native Texan. John B. Thaxton, born Nov. 11, 1858, a native Texan. John Russell, born Feb'y 6, 1857, been in Texas since 1874.

The list next week will contain some old veterans born away back in the 20's and come down thru the 30's, 40's and later.

BRISCOE

"The Best-liked Car in the Country"

A Motor That Thrives on Short Rations

Motors are just like people—some have to be fed an enormous amount to keep going right, and others eat less but digest all of it—and turn every atom into energy.

The long-stroke (3½ x 5½) motor in the Briscoe Twenty-four is the same that made such wonderful economy records in the 1915 Briscoe—a car that led its field for value at $785.

In the Twenty-four—a car much lighter—the gasoline consumption is almost unbelievably small until you've tested it yourself. We have records of 35 miles to a gallon in actual service.

The motor is Briscoe-built, and especial attention has been given to minimizing friction. Lubrication is simple but thorough.

Here's a motor that will never "eat its head off"—but that gives you a reserve of power more than sufficient to take you wherever you want to go.

And it's in a car that for beauty, comfort and sturdiness will be a revelation to you.

R. B. McClure and family were passengers Monday on their way from Lampasas to their home in Brady. They were riding in the family car and stopped off a while with old time friends.

Uncle D. Beasley, one of the real pioneers of this section, was not with the old cow boys at the fair and we wondered why. It now develops that he had accompanied his grandson, Johnnie Kring, and wife to Oklahoma for a summer visit.

THE OLD MASTERS.

Paintings Without Signatures Are Judged by Their Technique.

It appears that many of the works of the old masters are not signed. Experts rarely rely on signatures alone in determining the authenticity of an old work, but trust rather to their knowledge of the painter's technique, says the Philadelphia Record.

False signatures can be easily detected. Spirits of wine or turpentine will usually remove a name of later date than the painting. In the course of time signatures often become very difficult to find. Painted originally in a shade slightly lighter than the ground, perhaps, they sink in, darken, and merge into the ground color or they are almost rubbed away by successive cleanings. Recognizable one day in a specially favorable light, they may not be visible again for weeks.

Experts speak of "will-o'-the-wisp" signatures, and many collectors have encountered accidental strokes and cracks that tantalizingly suggest a signature, though it can never be made definite. On the other hand, there have been remarkable cases of such marks, after careful study, resolving themselves into a famous name.

Sometimes the painter's name is most conspicuous as, for example, in Raphael's "Sposazzo" at Milan. Proud of having surpassed his master, the youthful genius wrote on a frieze in the very center of the canvas, "Raphael Urbinas."

Reynolds hardly ever signed his work. But upon the completion of the portrait of Mrs. Siddons as the Tragic Muse, he wrote his name large on the gold embroidery of her dress. He was unable, he said, "to resist the temptation of sending my name to posterity on the hem of your garment."

CANCER IN THE FAMILY.

There is No Proof That the Dreaded Disease is Hereditary.

Perhaps nothing causes more needless worry than the fact that one or more persons in a given family have died from cancer. This is commonly taken as a proof that the disease is hereditary. This does not at all follow. There is probably no greater chance of inheriting cancer than there is of being killed by lightning or of breaking one's neck falling downstairs. Perhaps there are people who worry even about those contingencies, but the statisticians have shown that such fatal accidents are extremely rare.

People who are concerned because their relatives have succumbed to cancer fall to consider how widespread the disease is. A malady that causes one death out of every eight among women and one out of every fourteen among men over forty is fairly common. On this basis it does not take much arithmetic to figure out how likely it is that cancer will occur many times in some families.

The eminent statisticians, King and Newsholme, have pointed out that it does not prove heredity to show that in one family five deaths occurred from cancer. By the very frequency of the disease and the laws of chance such cases would be expected even if no one had ever suggested the idea of heredity.

In some species of animals it is believed a certain susceptibility to tumors may be inherited. But so far as human beings are concerned the foremost authorities believe that heredity in cancer may be regarded as a negligible factor.—Journal of the American Medical Association.

The Almanac Church.

One of the oddest churches in England is St. Botolph's at Boston. It has aptly been called the Almanac church. In the tower are 365 steps, corresponding to the days in the year. The church has twelve pillars, fifty-two windows and seven doors, representing the months, weeks and days in the week. In the west porch are twenty-four steps ascending to the library, representing the hours of the day. Again, on each side of the choir are sixty steps leading to the roof, denoting on the one side the minutes of the hour and on the other the seconds of the minute.—Boston Post.

Mrs. T. V. Meador

After a long and lingering illness Mrs. T. V. Meador died Saturday morning at Alpine. The body was brought to the old home and buried beside her little boy who died several years ago. Funeral services were conducted at the Church of Christ Tuesday morning by Rev. A. E. Bedichek of Brady assisted by Elder Scott, a special and intimate friend of the family. U. M. Sanderson, W. W. Walker, D. A. Autry, A. R. Dockray, A. B. Estep and W. A. Smith were the active pall bearers.

This was a sad and touching death. Deceased was the youngest daughter of J. D. Estep, one of the oldest and most highly respected citizens of the town. Moline, as she was intimately and familiarly known, was an exceptionally sweet character and bore her affliction with a fortitude and patience rarely equalled. Left an orphan when quite young by the death of her mother she was a perfect lady even when a small girl. She obeyed her Lord in christian faith when 14 years of age and lived a life adorned with all the christian graces. She leaves a husband, one son, father, one brother and as many friends as acquaintances who are bowed with sorrow and grief.

Monday morning at 5:30 a. m. Mrs. Laura Doran St. Clair died at her home north of town after a two week's illness. She was born March 26, 1881, joined the Baptist church in 1904, was married to J. J. St. Clair Dec. 25, 1899. She lived a Christian life and had many friends who extend condolence to the husband, seven children, three brothers and two sisters in the loss of this loved one. The funeral services were conducted at the tabernacle by Rev. Wm. Chapman and her pastor, Bro. T. J. Powell, and the body was buried here by the side of her mother.

Sun-of-a-Gun

What a pity San Saba can't ship the cities of Brownwood, Ballinger and Santa Anna a few hundred thousand million tanks of pure, sparkling water. It's just running down Mill creek and going to waste and the lips of those suffering people are parching with thirst.

The mayor of Brownwood has issued his proclamation forbidding the irrigation of gardens, and the sprinkling of lawns, streets, etc. until a rain comes. If the water shortage up there is as bad as all that editor Jim White of the Daily Bulletin may have to forego the pleasure of a semi-annual bath. Good enough for him, he should have come to the San Saba Fair.

The Herald read the evidence presented to the executive committee at Houston and must say that the unseating of the regularly elected delegates from Bell county and the seating of Ferguson men who had not been chosen by any convention at all was in our opinion a high-handed outrage. The democratic party has come to a deplorable condition when it will seat as authorized delegates the self-appointed leaders of a faction in any county. The Ferguson delegation from Bell didn't have even the semblance of a title in the state convention.

J. W. Munsell, editor of the Eye-Witness, issued early and came to the fair and is playing the races, the ball games and the great white way from early morning to late in the evening.—San Saba News.

Why, Bill, you ought to be ashamed of yourself. Us play the races? And didn't you agree to keep mum? Now, that you have opened the ball, we are going to tell the whole transaction. The truth of the matter is, that by previous arrangements, Bill met us at a designated place and began to give us tips as to how the ponies would finish. Bill hadn't gone far, when we told him he had them down wrong, he got mad and offered to bet us five thin spaces that his judgment was correct. We called him and won. This made him still madder and he offered to put up seven M quads, a dash rule, a tube of job ink and a bras galley. We called him and won again. Thus it went from race to race and from day to day, until the close of the fair. When we counted our winnings, we found that it consisted of 31 lbs. column rule, two job sticks, 1,300 years subscription to the News, five pounds news ink, 1 brayer, one box assorted border, a piece of roap and a rubber boot heel.—Eye-Witness.

Part of that is the unvarnished truth, we guess, and then some. It could have happened this way: Everbody in San Saba goes to the fair, the sheriff and police were all on the fair grounds, the town was deserted and unprotected, especially from noon to 12 o'clock at night. Unsuspecting we left the doors unlocked as usual. We noticed Josh gave us the dodge about 4 o'clock in the afternoon Friday but supposed he had merely stepped aside to take a drink—of red lemonade. Anyway we are glad the hell-box was left—we need it. And, too, we are making no accusations, insinuations or innuendoes—Doc Sellers of the Brady Sentinel was also at the fair and wanted to know if that Hamburger was the same one Woodrow Wilson caught running the English blockade with a load of dye-stuff.

Bad to Have a Cold Hang On
Don't let your cold hang on, rack your system and become chronic when Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey will help you. It heals inflammation, soothes the cough and loosens the phlegm. You breathe easier at once. Dr. Bell's-Pine-Tar-Honey is a laxative Tar Syrup, the pine tar balsam heals the raw spots, loosens the mucous and prevents irritation of the bronchial tubes. Just get a bottle of Dr. Bell's-Pine-Tar-Honey to day, its guaranteed to help you. At druggists.

THE SAN SABA FAIR

The editor, in company with Ike Myers and his trusty little Henry, had the pleasure of visiting the San Saba Fair Friday and found this popular county fair up to its usual standard. San Saba has the reputation of having the best county Fair in Texas and we believe there is no question but what it is a fact. The race program was especially good and the exhibits were as fine as might be seen at any state fair.

McCulloch county came in, as usual, for her share of the honors in the exhibits, F. M. Richards and Clyde Hall winning blue ribbons with their registered Herefords, and we can say without partiality that they were the prettiest cattle on the ground. M. J. Cathey, a well known poultryman of this county, also won prizes with his brown Leghorns and won many compliments with his splendid exhibit.—Brady Sentinel.

Ex-mayor, J. B. Waters of Temple, was in this county last week looking at some valuable property with a view to becoming a permanent citizen of the garden spot of grand old Texas.

MEETING OLD FRIENDS

While in San Saba at the Fair the past week it was the pleasure of the editor to meet several old Brady friends who are now located in our neighboring little city, among whom were Fred Townsend who is engaged in the tailoring business and doing nicely. Elton and Arthur Noble, who have one of the best garages in this section, and are also agents for the Ford and Overland automobiles. These gentlemen are well pleased and doing a nice business. Carl Thornblom, formerly of this city, is reckoned one of the most capable mechanics in San Saba. H. Belovsky is with the Famous Bargain Store and also doing well. D. C. Willis and Ulrich Carroll are in the bakery business and have a good trade. We are always glad to see our friends doing well.—Brady Sentinel.

Mrs. W. F. Page and son, Leo, were here from Lometa yesterday perfecting arrangements for rebuilding the Rock hotel and it is expected work will be commenced on the building in a few days—perhaps next week. The plan is to have the lower story of stucco and the upper story of brick and the arrangement of the building will be different from the old house. The office, dining room, sample room, family compartments and the kitchen will be on the lower floor and the upper story will be given over to guests room exclusively. Mrs. Page expects to have the building completed in the near future and will open the hotel at the earliest possible moment.—Goldthwaite Eagle

Gin Statement

I have purchased the Farmer's Gin formerly owned by R. G. Coryell, San Saba, Texas, and will thoroughly equip it for the fall business. I consider this the best equipped gin in San Saba and will promise the public, service in keeping with this statement. I expect to have a competent gin man in charge and in addition will give the gin my personal supervision. I want all the business I can get by fair dealings and first class work and will endeavor at all times to deserve the full confidence of the patrons of my gins. I will deem it a pleasure and duty to talk to my customers as freely as I would to a partner in business and believe that we can mutually assist each other.

I believe that a gin which serves best your interest will advance me most and these plans will be in force at my gins—Harkeyville, Algerita and San Saba.

The Twenty Year Test

"Some twenty years ago I used Chamberlain's Colic Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," writes Geo. W. Brock, publisher of the Enterprise, Aberdeen, Md. "I discovered that it was a quick and safe cure for diarrhoea. Since then no one can sell me anything said to be 'just as good.' During all these years I have used it and recommended it many times and it has never disappointed anyone." For Sale by all dealers.

Duke Hill and wife of Rankin are visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Boon Christy, in the Barnett community.

Not So Strange After All

You may think it strange that so many people are cured of stomach trouble by Chamberlain's Tablets. You would not, however, if you should give them a trial. They strengthen and invigorate the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally. Mrs. Rosie Rish, Wash, Ind., writes, "Nothing did me the least good until I began using Chamberlain's Tablets. It is decidedly the best medicine for stomach trouble I have ever used." For sale by all dealers.

Sam Christy of Styles is visiting his father, Boon Christy, and the old home and friends.

HOW APPENDICITIS CAN BE PREVENTED

San Saba people should know that a few doses of simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-i-ka, often relieve or prevent appendicitis. This simple mixture removes such surprising foul matter that ONE SPOONFUL relieves almost ANY CASE of constipation, sour stomach or gas. A short treatment helps chronic stomach trouble. Adler-i-ka has easiest and most thorough action of anything we ever sold. The Corner Drug Store.

Mysterious Pains and Aches

Make Life Hard to Bear For Many San Saba Women.

Too many women mistake their pains and aches for troubles peculiar to the sex. More often disordered kidneys are causing the aching back, dizzy spells, headaches and irregular urination. Kidney weakness becomes dangerous if neglected. Use a time-tried Kidney remedy—Doan's Kidney Pills. Hosts of people testify to their merit. Read a San Saba case.

Mrs. J. D. Estep, Wallace St., San Saba, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills on two or three occasions and they have given me relief from symptoms of kidney complaint. I have every reason to believe that this medicine is worthy of my recommendation."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Estep had. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

Hotel Changes Hands

The hotel changed hands this week, E. P. Bickley being the new proprietor. The hotel had been under one management a long time, the late Mr. and Mrs. Ottinger having taken charge of it a little more than 25 years ago and has been conducted continuously by the family until this week. During this period it has not only a local but a wide reputation as a first-class hotel. Mr. Bickley, the new manager is one of the leading farmers, not only of the Cherokee vicinity but of the entire country, and his many friends wish him success in his new undertaking. — Cherokee Herald

HUSBAND RESCUED DESPAIRING WIFE

After Four Years of Discouraging Conditions, Mrs. Bullock Gave Up in Despair. Husband Came to Rescue.

Catron, Ky.—In an interesting letter from this place, Mrs. Bettie Bullock writes as follows: "I suffered for four years, with womanly troubles, and during this time, I could only sit up for a little while, and could not walk anywhere at all. At times, I would have severe pains in my left side. The doctor was called in, and his treatment relieved me for a while, but I was soon confined to my bed again. After that, nothing seemed to do me any good. I had gotten so weak I could not stand, and I gave up in despair. At last, my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I commenced taking it. From the very first dose, I could tell it was helping me. I can now walk two miles without its tiring me, and am doing my work."

If you are all run down from womanly troubles, don't give up in despair. Try Cardui, the woman's tonic. It has helped more than a million women, in its 50 years of wonderful success, and should surely help you, too. Your druggist has sold Cardui for years. He knows what it will do. Ask him. He will recommend it. Begin taking Cardui today.

UGH! CALOMEL MAKES YOU SICK. DON'T STAY BILIOUS, CONSTIPATED

"Dodson's Liver Tonic" Will Clean Your Sluggish Liver Better Than Calomel and Can Not Salivate.

Calomel makes you sick; you lose a day's work. Calomel is quicksilver and it salivates; calomel injures your liver. If you are bilious; feel lazy, sluggish and all knocked out, if your bowels are constipated and your head aches or stomach is sour, just take a spoonful of harmless Dodson's Liver Tonic instead of using sickening, salivating calomel. Dodson's Liver Tonic is real liver medicine. You'll know it next morning because you will wake up feeling fine, your liver will be working, your headache and dizziness gone, your stomach will be sweet and bowels regular. You will feel like working. You'll be cheerful; full of energy, vigor and ambition.

Your druggist or dealer sells you a 50 cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic under my personal guarantee that it will clean your sluggish liver better than nasty calomel; it won't make you sick and you can eat anything you want without being salivated. Your druggist guarantees that each spoonful will start your liver, clean your bowels and straighten you up by morning or you get your money back. Children gladly take Dodson's Liver Tonic because it is pleasant tasting and doesn't gripe or cramp or make them sick. I am selling millions of bottles of Dodson's Liver Tonic to people who have found that this pleasant, vegetable, liver medicine takes the place of dangerous calomel. Buy one bottle on my sound, reliable guarantee. Ask your druggist about me.

How to Cure a Sprain

A sprain may be cured in one-third the time required by the usual treatment by applying Chamberlain's Liniment and observing the directions with each bottle. For sale by all dealers.

THEIR FINAL QUARREL.

She Said It Was Positively the End, but He Knew Better.

It was all off. They had quarreled, finally and irrevocably. It doesn't matter now what it was about. The chances are that in their anger neither remembered anything except that he had disappointed her in some awful, unforgivable way and she had seized the diamond engagement ring from a dainty, slender finger and thrust it upon him with a gesture of infinite scorn.

For an instant he held the circlet in his hand ruefully. For another instant he paced the porch, hands in his pockets, head low, his voice quivering with emotion as he pleaded. Suddenly he stopped in front of her.

"That's final, is it?" he inquired.

"Final," she replied icily. "No man with a spark of—"

"All right!" he snapped. "This thing's no use to me, then."

His right arm shot out like the arm of a ball pitcher, and a second later the tinkle-tinkle of metal on the concrete walk half a block away told her he had thrown the ring away.

"Oh!" she cried, and there was sudden anguish in her heart. "I didn't mean it! We must find it—at once."

"I don't care for it," he said stubbornly. "Life has mighty little now to make"

"Silly!" she cried. "Help me—immediately!"

He couldn't let her go alone, with night coming on, so, after proper reluctance, he followed. In the eagerness of searching all her anger melted. It took a long time, but finally he stooped quickly and rose, exclaiming, "Here it is!"

What happened in the next hour is nobody's business except their own. The human, masculine part of the story was disclosed to his bosom friend late that night in the quiet of their room.

"Had it in my pocket all the time," he said. "I threw a quarter down the street. And, dad bling it, I didn't find it either!"

But it did the work.—Kansas City Times.

Life's Course.

Life at the greatest and best is but a forward child that must be humored and coaxed a little till it falls asleep, and then all the care is over.—Goldsmith.

A Different Fish Story.

J. Clarence Harvey, the Lambs club wit, is telling this story about elimination: The proprietor of a fish store had a new sign—"Fresh Fish For Sale Here." "Why say 'here'?" said the first customer. "It's unnecessary." He painted "here" out. Said the second customer: "Why 'for sale'?" Of course they're for sale." He painted out two words more. "Why 'fresh'?" said a third customer. "You wouldn't sell them if they weren't fresh, would you?" At last the sign read just "Fish." Along came a fourth customer. "What's the use of having that sign," he asked, "when you can smell them a block away?"—New York World.

The Retort Courtous.

Charley Dooin, the Giant catcher, as is known, has put in several winters as a disciple of Thespis. He really has a splendid voice, and for other purposes, too, than debating with umpires. Once upon a time while awaiting his turn in the wings another vaudevillian—this one a vaudevillian—passed the time of day with him. "You know," she said, "I hardly ever speak to actors." "But I'm not an actor," answered Charles. "I know it," was the reply.

A Mark Twain Story.

Clemens while a printer, by the favor of a November windstorm, was enabled to start off on his adventures down the river. Going down Main street, Keokuk, he saw a flying bit of paper pass him and lodge against the building. Something about it attracted him, and he captured it. It was a fifty dollar bill! He had never seen one before, but he recognized it. Troubled by conscience, he advertised it in the newspaper. "I didn't describe it very particularly," he wrote later. "By and by I couldn't stand it any longer. I felt that I must take that money out of danger." And so he left for the south.—Albert Bigelow Paine in St. Nicholas.

Society

Little Rainey Moore, Jr., will celebrate his fifth birthday anniversary today, Thursday, at 4 o'clock by entertaining a number of his little friends at the home two miles east of town.

Mrs. C. T. Jones entertained with a bridge party Tuesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Jno. H. Keenan of Galveston. A salad course was served for refreshments to the following: Mmes. N. K. Lidstone, J. H. Baker, A. Woods, E. S. Laird and Mrs. Kilbourn of Richland Springs, Wade Burleson of Dallas and Miss Mamie Hagan.

Some eight or ten little girl friends enjoyed a delightful slumber party with little Miss Rosa Lee Kirkpatrick Monday night. It was in honor of Miss Margaret Ellis, who is a guest of Rosa Lee this week. A lawn luncheon was served at six o'clock, then a ride over town, then a number of new games and last the slumber.

Happy Hearts

G. L. Mauldin and Miss Rubie Bledsoe were married in the Antelope Gap community last Sunday afternoon, Rev. J. D. Long officiating. Only a few relatives were present to witness the ceremony, but their host of friends extend congratulations and good wishes to them.

Mr. Mauldin is the youngest son of the late Mr. Wash Mauldin and his home is in San Saba county across from Big Valley. He is a young man of high character and has the confidence of those who know him. His bride is a daughter of B. F. Bledsoe and was also reared in the Big Valley community, where she has the friendship and admiration of all who know her. They are fine young people and belong to two of our best families and the Eagle joins their other friends in extending good wishes.—Goldthwaite Eagle.

My Friend.

He is my friend! The words brought summer and the birds. And all my wintertime Thawed into running rime And rippled into song, Warm, tender, brave and strong.

And so it sings today-- Go may it sing always. Let each mute measure end With "Still he is my friend." —James Whitcomb Riley.

His Reward.

Eugene Wood, the writer, used to work on the Chicago News years ago, when "Butch" White was the city editor. White was a wonderfully capable man, but renowned for a predisposition toward periodical grouches. When one of these spells was on him he was not a sympathetic or jovial spirit.

Wood reported for duty one noon all wreathed in smiles and, extending his hand toward White, said: "Well, congratulate me."

"On what?" asked White, looking up and glaring at him.

"I was married last night," announced Wood, still beaming.

"Congratulate you," repeated White. "You're crazy. Congratulate a blamed fool for getting married on your salary! Congratulate you nothing. I'll fire you; that's what I'll do. You're discharged!"

And he was too.—Boston Herald.

WALKER GETS BAD MAN

The following story taken from the Fresno (Cal.) Morning Republican of June 6, 1916, relates some recent history of that state in which a former San Saba county citizen played the star part—and a man's part it was. Here it is:

"The $500 reward for the capture of Alberta Pena, who, over two months ago killed former Patrolman Rouse, was paid yesterday by Sheriff Thorwaldson and the police, to G. G. Walker of San Luis Obispo, and John Bridegory of this city. The reward was divided, $300 to Walker and $200 to Bridegory. All but $50 of the amount given over to Bridegory will be paid to Mrs. Rouse.

"Patrolman Rouse was shot down in cold blood, April 16, while calling an ambulance. Alberta Pena, the slayer, had been arrested earlier in the afternoon for conducting a blind pig.

"After a week's search with possees Pena was shot and killed at Santa Margarita, April 22, by G. G. Walker, father of an express messenger, who gave the information to the officers that Pena had left the train.

"An equal division was the basis of the award between Bridegory and Walker, but the latter was allowed in addition to his half $50 from Bridegory's share for his expense making the split $300 and $200.

"Bridegory announced last night that he would give $50 to one of his sheep herders who informed him that Pena had passed the camp and that he would give Mrs. Rouse a check for the balance.

"G. G. Walker, who came to Fresno yesterday to collect the reward, said his son was satisfied with such an arrangement. His own part in the capture of Pena he modestly described as being 'merely a citizen's duty'."

Mr. Walker, wife and son, Clinton, are now visiting the old home, relatives and former friends in Texas.

On Sunday, April 16, last, Alberta Pena, a Mexican bad man at Fresno, California, had been arrested for running a blind pig, was released on bail, went back to Chinatown and stabbed the negro who had informed on him. The negro ran to a policeman, who went into a telephone booth to call for an ambulance. Pena came up behind the policeman and shot five times in the back and then escaped. The posters offering the reward for his capture stated that he was a bad man and advised that no chances be taken as the reward read "dead or alive". The Mexican was reported to be in the region of Santa Margarita and G. G. Walker joined a small party to hunt him down. When overtaken Pena offered fight and was armed with an automatic pistol and a thirty-thirty. He raised his gun to fire when Walker's bullet got him.

Gordon Walker is known of all men in this part of Texas and his life record is one of loyalty to the peace officers of the state in which he lives. He came to Texas from Missouri and settled in San Saba county away back in 1875. He ranched in this county until 12 years ago, when he moved to California. He served this county as county commissioner and some of his good road building is still to be seen on the Cherokee-San Saba road. In the early days he was a U. S. deputy marshal and helped to break up the famous Pitts-Yeager, counterfitters gang. He arrested Pitts at Babyhead, just across the Llano county line and led in the chase and recapture of the outlaws after they had killed Hal Gausling, the U. S. marshal near New Braunfels. Mr. Walker was a terror to the horse and cattle thieves of Texas in early days and has borne no small part of the brunt of developing the frontier. He is a man of forethought, cool, calm judgment and a nerve that knows no faltering. As a public official and in private life he is of progressive spirit and for the advancement and development of the state and community. In the new home in the west he is doing a man's part, as the above shows.
