BULLETIN OF SELECTION BOARD

1. The quota of one man under special induction call No. 752 was filled by this Board on the 3rd instant when Joe Stull Clark of San Saba was entrained for Camp Mabry, Austin, Texas. Men inducted under this call will receive a special course of training in auto mechanics, whereupon they will be assigned to various branches of the service.

2. The large movement of men this month will be under general induction call No. 864, the movement to cover five days beginning the 22d instant. This county's quota will be 48. We are yet to learn the exact date our men are to be entrained. Men under this call will be sent to Camp Travis.

3. We noticed lately in a local paper the statement that the June contingent of men from this county exhausted all of the Class 1, Group A, registrants in our available list. That was an error, inasmuch as we had 53 men remaining after filling our quota for June. The current quota of 48 men, however, practically takes all the men now in our available list. Hence, the general movement for August, if as large as either of the latest two quotas, will be made up mainly by registrants of the class of 1918. Probably before the general call for next month is filled, several registrants now in deferred classes will be reclassified and placed in Class 1, in accordance with the new regulations applicable to "newlywed" and the new "work or fight" regulations. All of such Registrants who pass the physical examination will become Class 1, Group A, men and as such will be due to be summoned to the colors as soon as they are needed.

4. A special induction call number not yet assigned, has been received. In this county, this call will apply to registrants of the class of 1918. Only white, Class 1, Group A, men and men skilled in certain lines of work will be accepted. Men inducted under this call will serve in the Engineer Corps. There are 31 types of men needed, including auto repairmen, concrete workers, blacksmiths, concrete workers, blacksmiths, cooks, gas engine men, teamsters, and telephone operators. All registrants meeting the qualifications set forth above who desire to file applications for voluntary induction under this call should take this step at once.

5. The national drawing to determine the order numbers of registrants of the class of 1918 was held at Washington on the 27th. The first number drawn was 246, a number that does not apply to this jurisdiction, in view of the fact that the highest registration number this date in this county is 103. The thirteenth number drawn was the first to concern a registration number in our list—number 10, held by Huntley Gilbert Haselden, San Saba. This makes the latter's order number the first one in the order number list. The 81st drawing brought forth registration number 1200, the highest number drawn; the 248th brought forth number 13; the 644th, number 1; the 818th, number 103, the highest registration number at present in this county; and the 1178th, number 97, the last registration number drawn that applied to this jurisdiction. Hence, registration number 97 takes the highest order number, 103; this number being held by Christopher Columbus Hibler, San Saba.

6. The local newspapers, this week or next week, will publish the "Order Number List" of registrants of the class of 1918 of this county. This list should be clipped from the papers and kept by the registrants concerned for future reference.

SAN SABA COUNTY SELECTION BOARD

San Saba, Texas, July 9, 1918

1. The following questionnaires of registrants of the Class of 1918 are yet to be received by this Board: Winfred Allen Oliver, Lee Roy Crofford, and Frank Smith, all of San Saba, Texas.

2. On the 17th inst. John Henry Rippe of Coalgate, Oklahoma, a draftee of this Board, will be entrained at this place under special call number 876 for Camp Mabry, Austin, Texas, where he will receive a special course of instruction in auto mechanics. This was one of the calls referred to in our bulletin the 2nd instant.

3. The entrainment of the 48 men to go from this county under general call number 864 will occur next Monday, the 22nd instant.

a few appropriate words, Mrs. DeWolfe launched out immediately into an intelligent and exhaustive discussion of the issues of the campaign. The illustrations and telling points were driven into the minds and clinched with such telling effect that the most pessimistic person present was convinced of her sincerity and the truthfulness of the facts presented. She said the reason Hobby referred the suffrage amendment while Lieutenant Governor to the Committee on Commerce and Manufacture was, it was necessary to "Manufacture a Governor" which was now being done. She said that it is a reasonable supposition that if the women elect Hobby at the primary, the men in the general elections (in which women cannot vote) will defeat a Constitutional Amendment and suffrage will never come.

"HER AUDIENCE WAS WITH HER" or they would not have remained in a sweltering room at mid-day for two hours to have heard her message. Mrs. DeWolfe has taken a prominent part in all war work in her home County of Lampasas. She is a writer of ability as the leading Magazines of the Country handle her productions and she is unquestionably the best woman orator it has ever been our pleasure to hear.

Mr. and Mrs. DeWolfe left about the middle of the afternoon for Brady where she spoke last night to a big crowd. She goes from there to Coleman, Ballinger and San Angelo and from there to Dallas, Fort Worth, Waco and other large towns in North Texas.

Ed House is campaigning in McCulloch County this week, tearing up Tom Beasley's legislative record like a wild sow's nest.

Compliments of the Season (?)

The contemptible CUR who stuck the $156,000 German Dachshund cartoon on the Star office door and other business houses last night, under the COVER of DARKNESS: "Is a twin brother to the short-legged, long-bodied HUN-DOG, whose ancestors scratched fleas behind their ears with their hind feet. And THE DOG that is a COWARD is a mighty sorry CUR."

AFTERMATH OF FERGUSON'S SPEECH.

It is being told here that the old Confederates were put on the speakers stand for the effect. When in fact the writer is the cause of the real old men getting seats in the stand for the reason time has affected their hearing and it was done so the old men could hear all that was said.

One man who lives out 8 miles from town says there are 6 voters who changed from Hobby to Ferguson on account of the speech.

The best one we have heard is a ten year old boy made a wager of 50 cts. with his father who was a Hobby supporter that if he would go and hear Jim Ferguson, he'd be a Ferguson supporter. The old gentleman heard the speech and when he returned home he said: Son, here is your 50cts..

TWO KINDS.

There are two kinds of people on earth today; Just two kinds of people, no more, I say.

Not the rich and the poor, for, to count a man's wealth,
You must first know the state of his conscience and health;
Not the humble and proud, for in life's little span,
Who puts on airs is not counted a man.

Not the happy and sad, for the swift flying years
Bring each man his laughter and each his tears.
No, the two kinds of people on earth that I mean
Are the people who lift and the people who lean.

Wherever you go you will find the world's masses

Are always divided in just these two classes;
And, oddly enough, you will find, too, I ween
There is only one lifter to twenty who lean.

In which class are you? Are you easing the load
Of over-taxed lifters who toil down the road?
Or are you a leaner, who lets others bear
Your portion of labor and worry and care?

WOMEN VOTERS

Right after Governor Ferguson vetoed the University appropriation bill, Tom Beasley said in the presence of living witnesses that the Governor did the proper thing as there was no doubt a bunch of crookedness in the University. Tom afterwards voted to impeach Ferguson for vetoing that appropriation bill. How is that for consistency?

Lieutenant Col. W. D. Forsythe, federal inspector, accompanied by Maj. Schram, were here this week to inspect Troop H, 3rd. Regiment National Guard. There were 106 men present and every one passed the rigid examination as prescribed by the federal regulations. The men have all returned to their homes and are now subject to call at any time. The officers are: Captain W. A. Smith; First Lieutenant, Gordon Mackey; Second Lieutenant, Floyd Smith; First Sergeant, Ed. Linderman.

Mrs. Genie Griffin DeWolfe Delivers an Able Speech

To a Record Crowd In Support of Jim Ferguson. Her Reception Was the Acme of Cordiality.

The most logical and convincing speech made in San Saba this campaign was delivered in the district court room yesterday by Mrs. Genie Griffin DeWolfe of Lampasas, in the interest of Jim Ferguson. On account of the schedule of dates, the speech had to be made at a very unseasonable hour—11 o'clock, but the audience was all attention throughout a two hours discussion of the political issues of the present campaign. The crowd that heard this gifted woman filled the district court room, galleries and isles. We didn't count 'em, but our eye-sight is good and not jaun-diced and they were there. For some reason, we suppose the midday hour, there were very few town women present, but the house was filled with old mothers from the country, but the hot rays of a summer sun, does not deter them when questions of the moment are considered. The court house square was not crowded with touring cars, and limousines, but with farm wagons, hacks and buggies. These things may be a coincidence—we merely mention them to keep the record straight. Mrs. DeWolfe was introduced to the vast, enthusiastic audience by Mrs. Amelia Cowan in

TO THE LADIES:- You can sign a Campaign Club list twice or as many times as you want to, to make the list appear imposing, but do not vote but once, as it is against the law.

—Pledge the President—

The spellbinders who started out to set the brush afire in old San Saba County, have subsided and they are as quiet as a clam. The people in the Country do not swallow every bait cast out in the political pond.

—Pledge the President—

Henry Clark of Erath county has withdrawn from the gubernatorial race in favor of Hobby. This gives Hobby one more vote, but old Erath democrats will cast their vote for Jim Ferguson on July 27th.

—Pledge the President—

F. O. Fuller withdrew from the congressional race over in East Texas to take the stump in the gubernatorial race. Fuller evidently took the stump with him as he has not been heard from since he quit the race. Did they hobble or muzzle him.

—Pledge the President—

The Star man did not interview ALL those present at the Ferguson speaking to ascertain their views, but judging from the close attention and interest in what was said, we judge it was a Jim Ferguson crowd. We did not count the bunch, but our guess of 3,000 or 3,500 will not miss it much.

—Pledge the President—

To show how fair the Fort Worth Star-Telegram is in this campaign, it wired its correspondent here to send them 3 or 400 words of Ferguson's speech. The correspondent is an experienced writer and sent a fair account of the speech and crowd and the Star-Telegram killed the story. The big dailies and their weekly editions are losing their rural subscribers in this section.

JNO. W. HORNSBY INDICTED

The Federal Grand Jury, sitting at Austin, has indicted Jno. W. Hornsby for obstructing the draft. This sweet-smelling gourd vine is the County Attorney of Travis county. His high brow bunch have played a high hand in the local courts, and his pull has emboldened him until now, he is in the toils of Uncle Sam, and what your Uncle Samuel will do to him will be a sufficiency. He is the same fellow who pleaded with the Travis county grand jury for several days to get them to indict Jim Ferguson. He is the same high brow who left the Travis county grand jury room one evening went to Houston over night where he held a dark lantern meeting with Will Hogg, the fat-headed son of an illustrious sire; F. O. Fuller, whose political and moral record smells to high heaven, and other political assassins, then returned to Austin when the Travis county grand jury returned their framed up indictments. He is the same apostle of pure politics who started the row in the 34th legislature, aided and abetted by Representative W. C. Middleton, who by the way is just about one shade above an idiot, concerning the Chicken Salad case against Budweiser Oscar. We would be tickled to death to sit on the jury that tries him. We'd give him 99 years at hard labor, in the Leavenworth Kansas penitentiary and then if a merciful Heavenly Father allowed him to live any longer, we'd require him to act flunky for Budweiser Oscar, which is about the lowest depth to human degradation we can just now recall. John W. will look like a real Chesterfield with stripes running the wrong way.

—Pledge the President—

The Hobby supporters commenced and has continued as a campaign slogan that "All the prominent and best people" are supporting their candidate. And now they are raising the hue and cry that the Ferguson supporters are trying to array class against class. Who started this rough house? Some people have more sense than to assert that all the respectability is on the Hobby side, but we have actually heard men say so that only prejudice and a jaundiced vision would cause them to say so. If all the people on Ferguson's side are common, then he has a majority for Lincoln said that "God Almighty must love the Common people, for he made so many of them." We all can't be high-brows, nabobs and capitalists, the great mass of the people have to be "lifters" and if you are a "leaner" just keep it to yourself that you are better than your less fortunate brother, for all your acquaintances know a darned sight better.

—Pledge the President—

That was a pat answer that Postmaster General Burleson made to the Anti-Saloon League pay roll leach who charged our Albert with "secretly" working against nation wide prohibition. "That is incorrect, I am openly working against it," was Mr. Burleson's reply.—Temple Mirror.

Our old friend Sam Sparks, when he was rolling his eyes in pious horror at Belton the other day because Jim Ferguson's credit was good for $156,000 forgot to mention that he is some borrower himself. Any man who can take the state treasurer into partnership and negotiate a loan of $10,000 with an Austin bank for an interest charge of ten dollars per annum is a high financier himself.—Temple Mirror.

should be discarded. Of course stirring the ground when all the moisture is gone will do no good but if there still remains a little moisture down below the surface that has been plowed the fining of the top soil by plowing will cause the moisture to rise to the roots of the plants and dissolve the plant food for use of the plants. All plants take up the mineral plant foods from the earth after it has been dissolved in water and take other plant foods from the air when the water is taken up by the roots of the plant and evaporated off through the leaves. Water moves up or down in the soil as it is needed and conditions are right for the movement. Water will not crawl up through open porous soils and must have a finely pulverized soil for this purpose. After the ground has been plowed the small particles of earth gradually begin to form into larger ones by adhering to each other and leaving spaces between them making the mulch course or open. In about ten days the ground is left very open and the moisture is not able to crawl up and the air is allowed to get down and dry up what is left. Most all of our soil in this country is reasonably fertile and consequently our problem is to keep sufficient water for the plants to get the plant food. It is not, as some suppose, a theory that crops should be worked often but it has been proven by hundreds and hundreds of experiments on the experiment farms of this and other states and then tested out in the fields of farmers over the United States, for years and years.

Because fertile eggs are a good price is no reason why the egg circle should not be kept up and a better price obtained while the saving in eggs will be great. Infertile eggs will keep until they reach the markets some distance away while fertile eggs will not. Of course you can have infertile eggs by separating the hens from the roosters but after the eggs leave the local community there is no way of guaranteeing them unless you are a member of the egg circle and have the right to stamp your eggs with the official stamp which is recognized every where as a guarantee of good eggs. If a dishonest person should happen to get into the circle and try to market fertile eggs, each bad egg can be easily and readily traced back to the one who sold it because each member of the Egg Circle has an individual stamp with a number which is registered with the A.&M. college. Egg Circle eggs are selling for considerable more than the ordinary eggs and why not get all there is to be had from the sale of eggs. I shall be glad to assist in organizing a Circle in any community if asked to do so. The Extension Service of the A. & M. college now has a man in the larger cities of Texas obtaining offers on Egg Circle eggs and very soon I will be in position to give names of dealers who will buy Egg Circle eggs and pay considerable more for them than the ordinary egg Circles organized last year should get together and make plans if they have not been active through the winter months. Some have never ceased to ship.

If you wish to camp out, ample provisions have been made at the college for space for tents etc. I feel positive that the instruction and entertainment that you will receive will justify the expense of the trip. After the day of instruction entertainment in the way of moving pictures and other things is provided at night and everything is free.

Prof. E. J. Kyle, Dean of the College and Supt. of the Short Course, advises that meals and lodging for the week will be $1.25 per day if you desire. Please let me hear from you if you think there is a probability of your going. It is desired that all club members of this county go as a party.

R. P. Elrod, County Agent.

The Farmers Short Course at the A.&M. College will be held this year July 22 to 27. The Short Course has become a great school which offers an unusual opportunity to practical farmers, business men, women, boys and girls who desire to farm on a better basis, to make farming more profitable, and to make the farm home more comfortable and attractive. Special instructions will be given in Crops, Soils, Terracing and Irrigation, all branches of Live Stock, Dairying, Fruit and Vegetables, Latest Type of Agricultural Machinery, Poultry Management, Insects and Diseases, Veterinary Science, and work in the public schools of the state. The College is especially well prepared to take care of the Short Course students. The largest and best dormitories on the campus will be made available for their accomodation. These dormitories are equipped with electric lights, running water in each room and shower baths on each floor. All in all it is one of the best places to spend a weeks outing to be had. Several have expressed their intention of going and it is intended to make up a party of men, women, boys and girls and go through in autos. The trip can be made in less than a day and we will start on Sunday the 21st. All who intend going should notify me as soon as possible. Several club together and go in a car making the expenses very light. I have never known any one to be dissatisfied after attending these meetings.

Yours truly

R. P. Elrod, County Agent.

FARM HINTS

By R. P. Elrod, County Agricultural Agent.

A great many farmers have the habit of "laying by" their cotton or other crops when it gets hot and allowing them to fight it out with the dry hot winds and vegetation. If it has not rained since the last cultivation many farmers think it is unnecessary to cultivate again. This idea is all wrong and

AN OPEN ANSWER

To Knight Rector Jr.

Your "open letter" addressed to the writer, was duly received, and then read in public print. Your inordinate desire to get into the spotlight has no doubt been gratified and your pain along that line has evidently been eased. Your defense of Oscar Budweiser is too stale to print. As for the writer ever being a supporter of that political hermaphrodite, I beg to be excused and plead not guilty. I voted for him ONCE, but I have long since repented, and I trust it will not be held against me. Your statement that I get my orders from higher up, was the "unkindest cut of all" for you know that my conscience is my only dictator. I know you did not take my article as personal, for it was not intended in that sense, but it grieves me much Knight to see you wander away from the paths of political rectitude. You know at heart, that you are training with the wrong bunch, but however far you may stray, I will love you still, and hope for your complete reformation when this Campaign of hate and spite is over and Jim Ferguson goes back into the Governors office by over a 100,000 majority.

A STORY WITH A MORAL

Once upon a time there was a poll-parrot sitting on her perch in peaceful bliss. A ferocious bulldog came into view and Polly began to say "zick'em zick'em." The bulldog was ready to "zick'em and take hold of anything in sight, but there was nothing tangible to nab. Polly saw the bulldog's eagerness to take hold of something, so to make her command more forcible and get up more excitement she climbed down off her perch onto the ground and continued to say "zick'em." The bulldog did not see anything to take hold of but Polly, so he proceeded to do Polly up pretty badly by biting her tearing all her feathers off her, only one tail feather was left when Polly by some miraculous escape got back on her perch. She surveyed her awful plight and after carefully looking herself over she sadly remarked: "Polly, you talk too much." Moral:- If some of the political wind-jammers will follow and profit by Polly's example, there will be less hard feelings and more brotherly love when this Campaign is over.

"Judge Not Less Ye Be Judged."

Below we publish a copy of a letter written by Mrs. L. L. Thomas of Otto, Texas, to Miss Kate Friend of Waco, Texas. The letter is self-explanatory and we think it is well worth the space it occupies. We trust that every reader of this paper, especially the ladies, will read the letter carefully and then answer according to their own conscience, which of the two classes are the better judges of the destiny of our country.—Editor.

Otto, Texas,
July 4, 1918

Miss Kate Friend,
Waco, Texas.

My Dear Miss Friend:-

On this natal day I take pleasure in answering your letter of June 22nd. I note your sarcastic reference to me as being "one of those well informed women of my community," which is the same dope that is being handed out by the Hobby adherents all over the state. Prominent club women, who had rather nurse a poodle dog than a baby are out trying to teach the real mothers of this country how to vote, and if they fail to vote for Hobby they sneeringly remark: "Why, I thought you were a lady." These are facts and can be verified any day in our large cities.

I notice you are the Secretary General of the Hobby clubs headquarters with rooms at 520-521, Peerless Building, Waco, Texas. This reminds me of the contrast of the first Women's Ferguson Club and the first Women's Hobby Club ever formed in Texas. The first Ferguson Club was formed at Britton, which is on Rural route No. 3, Brandon, Texas, and the first Hobby Women's Club was formed in the Palace rooms of the St. Anthony Hotel, San Antonio, Texas, and the papers stated that the Palace Rooms were decorated with ferns and sweet-scented roses, and the air was cooled with numerous electric fans, and the women wore gorgeously silk frocks of the latest Parisian designs, while the real women of this state, met at Britton, I mean the women who are now producing the manhood of this country, and the women who produced the men who are now fighting for Democracy across the seas, with their sun-bonnets more in evidence than fancy rosettes tied to a snow-white poodle dog. They gathered there in farm wagons drawn by farm mules, while the St. Anthony crowd met there in fashionable Coupes and Limousines I ask you, who are the best judges of the destiny of this country?

You state that my "Ferguson adherence was based upon the so called injustice done Mr. Ferguson." This I deny. I am basing my adherence on Democracy, and Democracy alone. The people twice elected Mr. Ferguson as their governor, and was the choice of the great Democratic masses of this state, and the people were deprived of having for their governor the man who was their choice. The people have been outraged, and today we are living under a government by frame up, which none can successfully deny. Yes I heartily concur with you, and say there are two sides to this question.

You ask: "Which man will come nearest to the things the women of Texas have wanted so long and could not get—how many years was our age of consent 10 and 15 years." Why God bless your soul Miss Friend, the age of consent with a virtuous woman follows her into eternity.

You further said, "The terrible social diseases has been getting its insidious power into lives of our women and unborn infants, and not a man has put this under strict regulation until the present administration. Women have worked and prayed for "REGULATION OF VICE" Great God of Heaven, woman, I have prayed not to regulate vice, but to stamp it out entirely, and this can be done by the mothers who instill virtue into the hearts of their daughters around the old family hearthstone, and this teaching cannot be had around some fashionable club room, where drinks, music and dancing are indulged in by their mothers, who are half clad themselves. Every doctor in Texas knows he will not report a case of social disease that should occur, and any well informed woman or man knows it is a fact. There is not a respectable doctor in Texas that would divulge the secrets of a family who employ him for professional services. So your much boasted "REGULATION OF VICE" is a myth pure and simple.

You say Mr. Ferguson and Mr. Hobby both agree as to rural schools. Hobby never dreamed of helping the rural schools until he heard Mr. Ferguson talked it. Yes Hobby agrees with Ferguson just like he did in 1914 and 1916 when he won the Lieutenant Governor's office on Ferguson's coat tail. You said, "For the tenant farmer read carefully the Hobby plan" have read it most carefully and it is the same old swan song of Tom Ball—49 acres and a mule.

In speaking of the woman's suffrage cause you said: "Because Gov. Ferguson with his own lips (if it was any lip at all it was his own lip, as nobody else has been able to use it for him) while governor, told one of my friends that we could not afford to mention this in Texas because of the ignorant country woman's vote." You had no other motive in saying this only because you thought I was a poor country woman, and this would prejudice me against Gov. Ferguson. The fact about it, Gov. Ferguson never made any such statement, and if you will furnish me an affidavit from your "good friend" I will vote for Mr. Hobby. Please state the time and place and who else was present at the time Gov. Ferguson made such statement. You said you "happened to know why the suffrage cause was not agitated until the Hobby administration." God bless your heart lady, every woman in Texas knows that. It was for the sole purpose of trying to elect Hobby Governor. You cannot even vote for mayor; you cannot even vote for a school trustee; you can not even vote for or against prohibition; you cannot vote in the general election. A negro man can do all this. If you ever vote again for Governor, you will have to pay a poll tax. You can vote for little Willie for nothing now. If Mr. Hobby should be successful in the primary and accidentally get the nomination for Governor, and should happen to have a strong man on the Republican ticket, you cannot even come to his rescue in November, but the negroes will all vote for the Republican nominee for Governor.

You said something about the suffrage bill being referred to Mr. Lattimore's committee as a courtesy on the part of Mr. Hobby. Mr. Lattimore's committee was the Committee on Commerce and Manufacture, and the bill never poked its little head out of there at all. So I beg your pardon for saying that Mr. Lattimore released it and it became a law. You had better scan the records more closely so you can teach us "country ignorants how to vote." This was in the regular session, and Mr. Hobby did refer the suffrage bill to the Committee on Commerce and Manufacture, as the commercial world and the manufacturers have always hoped that women would never be allowed the vote, as they desired to work them as they have always done—like slaves. When Mr. Hobby did this did he not smile a contemptuous smile?

You boast of Mr. Hobby's "win the war" platform. I will say this: Any person in these United States who does not believe in winning this war should be at once strung up to a telephone pole and shot. What did Mr. McAdoo say about any person trying to use this war for political purposes?

You said: "It is bad policy to change administrations while Texas is in great danger." Why did your Mr. Hobby believe in changing administrations last summer? The war was on then. Mr. Ferguson was busy at his desk naming the Exemption Boards throughout this great state, and assisting our great President, Woodrow Wilson, in winning this war. Where was Mr. Hobby? Wasn't he having secret meetings with F. O. Fuller and others in a Houston hotel, conniving to get the Governor's seat?

Where were the anti headquarters in 1911? In the Oriental hotel. Why were they there? Because a large part of it was owned by the Busch estate. Where is Hobby's headquarters in Dallas? In the Oriental hotel. The Busch properties were recently taken over by the Alien Enemy Act. Who is the manager of the Busch properties in Texas? Mr. J. S. Kendall. Who's he for? Mr. Hobby. Who was the anti manager in 1911? Col. Jake Wolters. Who is he for? Hobby. Who was governor in 1911, and left his office to save the day for the anti? O. B. Colquitt. Who's he for? Hobby. Who has been the anti wheel-horse for nearly half a century? R. M. Johnson of the Houston Post. Who's he for? Mr. Hobby. Who was responsible for the great anti rally in Fort Worth in 1911? Louis Wortham. Who's he for? Mr. Hobby. Who did the pros say stuffed the ballot boxes in 1911? James B. Wells, the Duke of the Rio Grande. Who is he for? Mr. Hobby. Who was it the pros said waded the Mexicans across and voted them with wet feet and without poll tax receipt? Col. F. A. Chappa the big Mexican politician of San Antonio. Who's he for? Mr. Hobby. In 1911 and 1912, the pros said all the newspapers were subsidized for the anti cause and they must get a paper for themselves, and they gathered in the sheekles from all parts of the state and launched the Waco Morning News, and afterwards a prominent anti showed up with a batch of the stock and soaked it to Hugh Hamilton for sixteen thousand dollars and where is the Waco Morning News? Hugh Hamilton is the big brewer of Houston. Who soaked this stock? Was it Mr. Hobby? Is it not a fact that every brewery in Texas is behind Mr. Hobby? The zone law as well as the statutory will be declared unconstitutional after the primary, and then some people will see that they have been flimflammed again by the breweries.

You say your vote is free and is your own, and that you are going to use it in your own way. Of course you are, as you appear to be a single girl. But married men do not like to see their own wives chasing off with other men and voting the way other men say vote, and thereby show to their husbands that other men have more influence over them than their own husbands. Real men and women do not stand for such rot.

Hoping to meet you at the inauguration of a real Governor next January, and not a rubber stamp governor, and assuring you that it is needless for you to come here to teach us ignorant country women how to vote, as we are capable of giving this a thought for ourselves, and as you say, "Our vote is our own, and we expect to use it in our own way."

*With great personal respect for you for being loyal to the breweries candidate, I am,

Yours cordially,

Mrs. L. L. Thomas.

Are the Packers Profiteers?

Plain Facts About the Meat Business

The Federal Trade Commission in its recent report on war profits, stated that the five large meat packers have been profiteering and that they have a monopoly of the market.

These conclusions, if fair and just, are matters of serious concern not only those engaged in the meat packing business but to every other citizen of our country.

The figures given on profits are misleading and the statement that the packers have a monopoly is unsupported by the facts.

The packers mentioned in the report stand ready to prove their profits reasonable and necessary.

The meat business is one of the largest American industries. Any citizen who would familiarize himself with its details must be prepared for large totals.

The report states that the aggregate profit of four large packers were $140,000,000 for the three war years.

This sum is compared with $19,000,000 as the average annual profit for the three years before the war, making it appear that the war profit was $121,000,000 greater than the pre-war profit. This compares a three-year profit with a one-year profit—manifestly unfair method of comparison. It is not only misleading, but the Federal Trade Commission apparently has made a mistake in the figures themselves.

The aggregate three-year profit of $140,000,000 was earned on sales of over four and a half billion dollars. It means about three cents on each dollar of sales—or a mere fraction of a cent per pound of product.

Packers' profits are a negligible factor in prices of live stock and meats. No other large business is conducted upon such small margins of profit.

Furthermore—and this is very important—only a small portion of this profit has been paid in dividends. The balance has been put back into the business. It had to be, as you realize when you consider the problems the packers have had to solve—and solve quickly—during these war years.

To conduct this business in war times, with higher costs and the necessity of paying two or three times the former prices for live stock, has required the use of two or three times the ordinary amount of working capital. The additional profit makes only a fair return on this, and as has been stated, the larger portion of the profits earned has been used to finance huge stocks of goods and to provide additions and improvements made necessary by the enormous demands of our army and navy and the Allies.

* * *

If you are a business man you will appreciate the significance of these facts. If you are unacquainted with business, talk this matter over with some business acquaintance—with your banker, say—and ask him to compare profits of the packing industry with those of any other large industry at the present time.

No evidence is offered by the Federal Trade Commission in support of the statement that the large packers have a monopoly. The Commission's own report shows the large number and importance of other packers.

The packers mentioned in the statement stand ready to prove to any fair minded person that they are in keen competition with each other, and that they have no power to manipulate prices. If this were not true they would not dare to make this positive statement.

Furthermore, government figures show that the five large packers mentioned in the report account for only about one-third of the meat business of the country.

They wish it were possible to interest you in the details of their business. Of how, for instance, they can sell dressed beef for less than the cost of the live animal, owing to utilization of by-products, and of the wonderful story of the method of distribution throughout this broad land, as well as in other countries.

The five packers mentioned feel justified in co-operating with each other to the extent of together presenting this public statement.

They have been able to do a big job for your government in its time of need; they have met all war time demands promptly and completely and they are willing to trust their case to the fair-mindedness of the American people with the facts before them.

GIRLS AND BOYS READ THE COMPLIMENTS BUSINESS MEN PASS ON OUR GRADUATES

Here are a few extracts from letters of prominent business men who have had the proof as to the ability of our graduates: "Having employed several of your graduates, I think your institution the best of its kind in this country."

"Of the seven young men you have sent us, six remain in our service, and the other has just joined the navy. All are making good."

"There is such scarcity of business colleges who fit their graduates for the business world, we cannot refrain from writing and endorsing your college, since several of your students have proven competent in our office."

"As you all know, I have had a number of you students in my office. I take this opportunity of saying that every student that I have had from your school shows superiority of training over students that I have had from other schools."

"I have given your graduates a thorough test, and have found them to be accurate and quick with their work. The thorough and practical training you give fits them for any kind of a position."

"We have one of your graduates as stenographer in our legal department at a handsome salary giving entire satisfaction. The work is extremely difficult, requiring the greatest skill and accuracy, reads her notes like print. We wish to commend your school for turning out such excellent graduates."

"If all of your graduates are as proficient as the three young men we have in our office, you are certainly doing a great work for not only the young people, but the business men as well."

A large firm of Cotton Buyers of East Texas says:

"We predict much success for your Cotton Classing Department. It is thorough and up-to-date and is in charge of capable instructors."

"We have several of your students and all of them understand their business. Your courses are thorough or they could not take hold as they have done for us."

"If the several graduates of your school, that have been in our employment, are fair samples, I cannot recommend your institution too highly."

Write for catalogue containing hundreds of endorsements, together with name and address of business men who pay our graduates good salaries. With our modern systems, we can give you a better course of Bookkeeping, Shorthand, Cotton

The Joy of Living.
To enjoy life we must have good health. No one can reasonably hope to get much real pleasure out of life when his bowels are clogged a good share of the time and the poisons that should be expelled are absorbed into the system, producing headache and indigestion. A few doses of Chamberlain's Tablets will move the bowels, strengthen the digestion and give you a chance to realize the joy of living. Try it. For sale by the Corner Drug Store.
