TWO DAYS LATER FROM LONDON.

By the Ship Napier, Captain Lucas, we have (by politeness of Captain) received London papers to Oct 9th.

The Erin steamer put in here this morning, having on board 300 recruits and 24 officers, bound for Santander to join Gen. Evans.

Not any intelligence in addition to that detailed in this Journal in the morning has been received here, which would justify any change of opinion on the favorable progress of M. Mendizabal's endeavors to restore the prostrate political character of Spain...

At the close of my letter, this morning I mentioned the arrival of the Emperor of Russia, in the name of the Emperor of Austria...
