Rockwall council hears concerns about proposed awning at club

By Kathy Williams

The Rockwall City Council heard from two concerned homeowners about a proposed 49-foot awning which will cover the tennis courts at the Rockwall Golf & Athletic Club in The Shores neighborhood during the Open Forum segment of Monday's council meeting. The city has already issued a building permit for the structure but neighbors say they don't know about the project and that the large awning will obstruct views of Lake Ray Hubbard and could be a large eyesore on the neighborhood street into the area.

Laura Foutz, who lives on the corner of Hillcroft and Champion streets, just across the street from the club, said she and her husband purchased their home in 2000 on a "premium lot" which offered them a view of the lake and the golf club from their second story balcony.

Foutz said her neighborhood's Homeowners Association deed restrictions prohibit residents from building any type of temporary coverings over patios and pool areas and she cannot build a wooden privacy fence on her property.

Foutz offered photographs of the view from her home to council members so they could better understand how she and her neighbors would be affected by the awning.

"Most of the homes in my neighborhood are only one or two stories tall. I'm afraid this is going to be just a white blob sticking out in the middle of the neighborhood," Foutz said. "This tent is going to be on the neighborhood street. That is going to impact everyone in the neighborhood."

Foutz said she spoke to several of her neighbors and none of them were aware the cover was going to be built.

Michael Marley, who lives across the street from Foutz, sits on The Shores' HOA board and said the group will meet on Jan. 14 to further discuss the issue. He did not speak to the council as a member of the HOA but as an affected homeowner.

They asked the city to review whether it could pull a building permit that had already been issued and asked what the appeal process is for an already-issued permit.

Rockwall Assistant City Manager Brad Griggs said he and Director of Planning Robert LaCroix and Building Inspections Plans Examiner John Anatum had met with Marley to go over how the permit was issued. Griggs said the structure will be open on all four sides which makes it difficult to meet code requirements. It will be 49-feet tall in the middle with a 10-foot clearance on the sides. He said the owners of club want to be good neighbors and are willing to discuss the issue if needed.

Action can be taken by the council during Open Forum.

During Action Items, City Manager Rick Crowley updated the council on the city's effort to be designated a Certified Local Government by the National Park Service, which he said city staff has been working on for seven years. The designation would make the City of Rockwall eligible for grant funds for historic preservation. The Council was presented with copies of the final revisions to the Historical Preservation Ordinance allowing the city to meet the qualification as a Certified Local Government.

The council voted 5-1 in favor of the action allowing Mayor David Sweet to execute a Certification Agreement with the Texas Historical Commission, to be forwarded to the National Park Service, for the city designation. Mayor Pro-Tem David White voted against the measure. Council member Michelle Smith was not present at the meeting.

The council also heard recommendations for historic downtown improvements at the corner of Kaufman and San Jacinto Streets as suggested by the Downtown Improvements Project Review Committee.

Director of Planning Robert LaCroix outlined several options the committee offered for a covered overhang near the driveway and dry cleaners at that corner. He said the committee had not spoken to the property owner yet but the awning could allow some coverage for customers entering and exiting the cleaners. The awning would also obstruct a driveway which LaCroix said is a city right-of-way but alternate plans could call for the driveway to be moved and allowing for a more ADA (Americans with Disabilities Act) compliant pedestrian walkway across the street at that corner. A canopy that is in place now is mostly covering the city right-of-way, LaCroix said.

The proposal also called for several additional parking spaces while allowing a pedestrian walkway in front of the historic courthouse. LaCroix said the recommendations need fine tuning so they can be taken to the County for discussion.

The city council unanimously approved a motion to authorize the city manager to discuss layout options with the building owner and Rockwall County.

Present at Monday's meeting were Mayor David Sweet, Mayor Pro-Tem David White, and council members Jim Pruitt, Bennie Daniels, Dennis Lewis, and Mike Townsend. Absent was council member Michelle White.

Ribbon cutting for completed FM 740 set

A ribbon cutting ceremony to celebrate the completion of the FM 740 project through parts of Rockwall and Heath will take place at 10 a.m., Friday, Jan. 18, at the corner of FM 740 and Summer Lee Drive. The new Aldi Grocery Store is allowing the county to use its property for the ceremony.

County Commissioner Lorie Grinnan, who has spearheaded the county's road improvement projects, a result of a $100 million bond package approved by voters in 2008, said this is the first active road site open for traffic as a result of that hard work. FM 740, which was widened from a two-lane blacktop road, is now a four-lane divided roadway and has been open since November 2012.

Grinnan told the court she wants to put together a template for road openings since there will be more such events as improvements are made in the coming years.

Bridge upgrades begin along FM 550

The Texas Department of Transportation soon will begin construction to replace bridges at three locations along FM 550, according to information released by the agency.

The bridges are at Buffalo Creek, Long Branch Creek and Brushy Creek in southern Rockwall County between FM 740 and SH 205.

The TxDOT news release states only two of the bridges will be completely closed during construction. The bridge at Brushy Creek, southwest of SH 205, Jan. 7 and will remain closed for approximately six months. Once local schools are out for the summer, construction will begin on the Buffalo Creek bridge east of FM 740, which will be closed through November.

The bridge at Long Branch Creek, located almost midway between SH 205 and FM 740, will not be closed during construction.

The closing of the bridges and the decision to allow a six-day work week for the contractor will expedite construction on all three bridges and disrupt traffic as little as possible during that time, according to TxDOT.

SH 205 and FM 549 will be used to detour the closed sections of FM 550. Signs will be posted and marked to direct traffic.

The $2.5 million project was awarded to Ed Bell Construction Company.

TxDOT officials said the project was scheduled and phased to cause the least disruption possible to traffic flow.

Pullen Elementary first grade students recently turned their classroom into a courtroom. Visiting Rockwall County Justice of the Peace Jack James served as presiding judge over the case of the Big Bad Wolf vs. the Three Little Pigs. The students, acting as the jury, listened carefully to the arguments, learning about what it means to be a good citizen. James' visit gave the students a taste of what some of the responsibilities public officials have. Pictured from the left are James, center, and the characters from the mock trial: Jackson Latimer, Addison Taylor, Jay Abbott, Austin Smart, Jacob Rogers and Jack Makohon. The jury's verdict? ## Springer students raise money for Navajo war veterans groups

Springer Elementary School second graders have been studying about Navajo Code Talkers this term. The Navajo Code Talkers were important citizens, because they helped the United States during World War II. The Navajo Code Talkers used their ancient language as a secret code during the war. Through their secret language they were able to relay messages that otherwise could have been understood by the enemy. To show our support for these American heroes, second grade students donated money to help preserve an important piece of their history. Springer students raised over $70 for the Navajo Code Talkers Museum and Veteran's Center Project in Arizona. If you would like more information on these special veterans, please visit www.navajocodetalkers.org. # On God's Word

by Timothy W. Burnett

A study on meek and lowly in heart ... Part 2

In this study on Jesus' words about being "meek and lowly in heart" (Matthew 11:29), we start with basic research of the ancient Greek words used in the related verses and other places where the same words are used.

The word meek was translated from the ancient Greek word praos that meant gentle, easy and mild (see Thayers Greek-English Lexicon, Strong's number 4235). Other verses that use the same Greek word are Matthew 5:5, 21:5 and 1 Peter 3:4.

The Greek word proates (meekness) is used in 1 Corinthians 4:21; 2 Corinthians 10:1; Galatians 5:23 and 6:1; Ephesians 4:2; Colossians 3:12; 1 Timothy 6:11; 2 Timothy 2:25 and Titus 3:2.

Another variation of the word (prautes) is found in James 1:21, 3:13 and 1 Peter 3:15.

According to Thayer's Gr-Eng Lexicon, the Greek word praos is used in the Septuagint several times. The Septuagint was a Greek translation of the oldest extant Hebrew scriptures about 250 B.C. Although the King James Bible did not utilize the Septuagint for the Old Testament, it does help to understand the essence of the meaning by seeing how the words were used in the ancient Hebrew writings. Some Biblical scholars argue that the Septuagint represents a more accurate translation of the Old Testament writings than those utilized for the KJB.

The Hebrew word can be found in Thayer's Hebrew-English Lexicon, Strong's number 6035, which meant "poor, afflicted, humble and meek." It is understood to mean "poor and needy" in Numbers 12:3 and Proverbs 14:21.

The term is interpreted to mean "poor, weak, or oppressed by rich and powerful" people as used in Amos 2:7; Isaiah 29:19 and 32:7.

The Lexicon also defines it as "humble, lowly and meek" in Numbers 12:3 (for Moses); Proverbs 3:34 and 16:19. A similar word for humility is found in the Hebrew-English Lexicon, Strong's number 6037, as used in Proverbs 15:33.

The following verses are also referenced for the passive tense of the same Hebrew word: Deuteronomy 15:11 and 24, 14:15; Proverbs 3:14, 30:14, 31:20; Job 24:9; Exodus 22:24; Isaiah 3:14 and 15, 14:32, 32:7, 51:21, 54:11 and 49:13; Proverbs 30:14; Ecclesiastes 6:8; Ezekiel 18:17;

Habakkuk 3:14; Zechariah 9:9 and 2 Samuel 22:28.

Another translation from the ancient Hebrew to ancient Greek in Septuagint was a word found in the Hebrew-English Lexicon, Strong's number 6040, which meant "affliction and poverty." The following verses use this term: Job 10:15, 36:15 and 21, 30:16 and 27, 44:25; Genesis 3:7 and 41:52; Lamentation 1:7; Isaiah 48:10; Proverbs 31:5; Exodus 3:7, 4:31; Deuteronomy 26:7; 2 Kings 14:26 and Nehemiah 9:9. The term also used for "poverty" in 1 Chronicles 22:14.

Ezekiel 9:5 uses another similar Hebrew word which meant "humiliation by fasting" (Heb-Eng Lexicon, Strong's 8589).

The word yoke used in Matthew 11:29 is translated from the ancient Greek word zugos (Gr-Eng Lexicon, Strong's 2218), and meant "a yoke as one put on draught cattle. Metaphorically, it was used of any den or bondage, as that of slavery" in 1 Timothy 6:1 and Galatians 5:1.

Zugos was used "of troublesome laws imposed on one, especially the Mosaic law" in Acts 15:10 and Galatians 5:1. The Lexicon goes on to say, "Hence the name is so transferred to the commandments of Christ to contrast them with the commands of the Pharisees which were a yoke. Yet even Christ's commands are to be submitted to, the easier to be kept."

The word zugos meant "a balance pair of scales" as used in Revelation 6:5 (see also its Septuagint use in Leviticus 19:36).

The word take was translated from the Greek word airo which means "to lift, take up or away" (see Gr-Eng Lexicon, Strong's 142). It is used in the cross in Matthew 16:24; Mark 8:34; Colossians 2:14 and 1 John Hebrews chapter 10 draws a clear distinction of the cross. The word used of a physical cross in Matthew 27:32; Mark 15:21; and of a mountain in Matthew 21:21 and Mark 11:23.

Readers are encouraged to dive into the above verses with an intention to understand the essence of the meaning of Jesus' words, "Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart."

Next week will continue Part 2 by searching the ancient Greek Hebrew words for "learn," and "Rest," along with the related verses.

Congress decides debt and payment, not the president

Wesley W. Burnett
Maybe our readers are wondering, like I have, how in the world the U.S. president figure that the 14th Amendment allows him to raise the debt of the U.S. government? Other than his obvious disregard of the constitution (unless it is something that fits his desires), this president demonstrates that he is not a modern Lincoln and Roosevelt leader. Both of those historic presidents routinely destroyed the constitution, exercising dictatorial powers to achieve their political goals.

The president's plan to personally raise the federal government debt has no constitutional authority. Apparently the president and his supporters believe that the 14th Amendment, Section 4 requires payment of the debt and authorizes the president (executive branch) to take action, even additional borrowing, in order to pay the debt. His opponents do not deny or question "the validity of the public debt" (14th Amendment, Section 4). It is clear that the debt is in fact created by congressional law.

The constitution authorizes congress to borrow money and pay debts ... neither of which are demanded by the constitution. Congress is capable of borrowing and not paying the debt ... or it may choose not to borrow and never have debt to pay.

Only congress is authorized to create debt, the president is limited to executing congressional acts. Furthermore, the president implies that social security payments are demanded due to the words in the 14th Amendment. Truth is, social security is not a congressional debt ... none of those receiving social security payments made any loans to the government. People may feel that they make payments to the system and will receive insured future money from the government, but that is a myth. Social security payments are taxes, payment is not required by law.

The president takes advantage of fear, based on lies, in order to achieve his political goals. History is replete with this behavior by dictators. Sadly, too many of the U.S. congress share his methods.

I pray the congress will stand firmly on the constitution and if necessary, impeach the president who disregards his oath of office.

U.S. Constitution Article 1, Section 8

1: The Congress shall have Power To lay and collect Taxes, Duties, Imposts and Excises, to pay the Debts and provide for the common Defence and general Welfare of the United States; but all Duties, Imposts and Excises shall be uniform throughout the United States;

2: To borrow Money on the credit of the United States;

14th Amendment

*Section 4. The validity of the public debt of the United States, authorized by law, including debts incurred for payment of pensions and bounties for services in suppressing insurrection or rebellion, shall not be questioned. # Lady Bulldogs earn hard fought District victory

Royle City 57 Wylie East 50
 In the first three quarters last Friday January 4th, Royle City could not stop Wylie East's Emily Hartegan. No matter what the Lady Bulldogs did, Hartegan was still dominating inside. After three quarters, Royle City had scored 29 points while grabbing several rebounds. Hartegan's points in fact came on offensive rebound put backs. For the record, Wylie East led 40-36 after three quarters.
 In the early stages of the 4th quarter, Royle City decided to concentrate their defense solely on Hartegan. They made an attempt by collapsing their 2-3 defensive zone around Hartegan. This made it very difficult for Wylie East to get the ball to their top scorer and consequently it shut down their offense.
 Hartegan finally neutralized, Royle City now could focus on making a comeback. Led by senior Krystal Pickron, the Lady Bulldogs fought their way back into the game.
 In the 4th quarter, Royle City fell behind 43-36 after a three point play by Hartegan (basket + free throw). Then, Royle City turned to Pickron and she put the team on her shoulders and carried them to victory. Pickron scored seven straight points to tie the game at 43.

 Once the game got tied, it became a real battle with every point becoming precious.
 Later in the 4th quarter, Royle City's Syndie Erbe connected on a three point shot to give the Lady Bulldogs their first lead in the game since the first quarter at 47-44.
 However, Wylie East rallied to retake the lead at 48-47. This game was truly up for grabs. It was a question of who wanted it most.
 Then Krystal Pickron stole the ball and went the length of the floor for a layup to help Royle City regain the advantage at 49-48. After this basket, Royle City had the lead for good.
 From that point on, thanks to some pressure packed free throw shooting from Pickron, Alexis Wanton, and Lauren Dusek down the stretch, Royle City was able to get the win. Royle City outscored Wylie East 21-10 in the 4th quarter.

 Pickron finished the game with 28 points (15 of those points came in the 4th quarter. Syndie Erbe contributed 12 points (4 three pointers). Wylie East's Hartegan scored a game high 34 points (23 in the 1st half).
 With the win, Royle City improves to 17-7 overall on the season and 3-2 in District 13-4A play. Wylie East falls to 1-4 in District 13-4A action.

Rockwall yellowjackets 5th at Cy-Fair after winning 3 tournaments

Rockwall's depth paid off last weekend when the Yellowjackets finished fifth among 72 teams at the Cy-Fair ISD Invitational.

Breaking even in four matches were Jonathan Molengraf (120), Tim Irons (138) and Heath Terry (170). The Jackets didn't enter a wrestler in four weight classes, but doubled up with two wrestlers in three others.

Rockwall's third tournament title had come Saturday, Dec. 22, in the St. Mark's Invitational at Dallas St. Mark's School of Texas.

RHS' big boys led the way. The Yellowjackets' three weight-class champions were Thomas (182), Roland (195) and Fisher (220), and Hatten was third in the 285-pound class.

Peterson (113) and Cody Jonas (132) placed second, and Smith took third place at 113.

Rockwall wrestlers placing fourth were Hyde (120), Jonathan Jonas (126) and Tamez (170).

The Jackets also won the Frisco Lone Star Ranger Rumble Nov. 17 and the Frisco Wakeland Holiday Dual Tournament Dec. 8.

In that event, the Jackets defeated Plano East 48-22, St. Mark's 39-

34, Cedar Park Vista Ridge 33-27 and Liberty Christian 36-34 before losing the final match to Arlington Martin 40-33. Hyde, wrestling at 106; Roland, and Fisher all won five matches, and Hatten and Peterson each finished with a 4-1 record.

RHS also improved its varsity dual-match record to 14-2 with a 57-15 victory at Wylie Thursday, Dec. 20. Hyde (120), Jonah Ramos (138), Dalton Miller (145) and Devon Rowe (152) all won by fall.

In their previous dual match Dec. 11, the Yellowjackets had lost 57-11 to Allen, ranked second in the state and 14th in the nation. RHS' only victories were pins by Hyde and Roland.

The Jackets had taken second place in the Original Lone Star Duals at St. Mark's Dec. 15, despite forfeiting three weight classes.

In the St. Mark's JV Invitational Dec. 21, three Rockwall wrestlers - Frank Solis, James Campbell and J.C. Clark - were weight-class champions. Adam Solis and Ty Hammond took second place, Matt Roland and Ramos placed third and Matt Holland was fourth.

At 155 lbs, Hyde scored team points and won at least half of his matches, and six of them finished among the top six in their weight class. The Jackets scored 189.5 points, just 16.5 behind champion Rockwall-Heath.
 Earlier in the season, Rockwall had won three tournaments despite having to take forfeits in three weight classes.
 At the Cy-Fair's Berry Center, RHS' Andrew Hyde (120 pounds), Roland (195) and Rilee Fisher (220) all won their first five matches before losing in the finals to place second.
 Fishing sixth were Carter Smith (113), Garrett Miller (160) and Tamez (170), with 4-3 records.
 Also placing were Peterson (113), Jonathan Jonas (126), Cody Jonas (132), Dalton Miller (145), Ty Thomas (182) and Austin Hatten (285) all with 2 records.

Hot-shooting Rockwall Christian opens new year with win

by Lary Bump
Rockwall Christian Academy started the new year on the right path, winning a boys' basketball game at Richardson Canyon Creek Christian Academy 66-52 Friday night.
RCA scored the game's first 12 points, and Canyon Creek didn't get back within less than 9 points for the remainder of the evening.
The Warriors made 16 of 25 field goal attempts (64 per cent) in the first half for a 38-22 lead. Sophomore Chris Stephens, who finished with 27 points, had 18 in the first half. For the game, RCA was 27-for-48 (56 per cent), including eight 3-point baskets. John Stanley helped with 12 points and five assists and Evan Milwee had 10 points.

With Warriors senior post Daniel Rorie out because of a fractured wrist, Stephens has had to spend more time inside. He led RCA with 10 rebounds at Canyon Creek.

Stephens said he welcomed being in a leadership position. "I'm willing to push our team. We're shooting more accurately. We've really improved. It feels good."

Said Warriors head coach Ryan Hankins, "We've changed from a man-to-man, full-court team to a multiple zone team. We'll play zones, extend the defense and trap."

"We run into trouble against teams with a strong post." Most of the Cougars' points came inside.

The Warriors (10-11) built Friday on their performance a week earlier at the Fort Worth Lake Country Christian School tournament. RCA won its first two games before losing to the host school and to Houston Cypress Christian (12-6) by 6 points.

Stephens was the team's high scorer in each game, totaling 75 points. In the first tournament game against Azle Christian School, the Warriors trailed 33-32 after three quarters but rallied to win 46-41. In addition to Stephens' 18 points, Milwee had a strong all-around game with eight points and team highs of seven rebounds and five assists.

Hawks defend title, winning 72-team Cy-Fair Invitational

Rockwall-Heath's wrestlers saved their best performance for the biggest stage thus far in their season.

With 106-pound champion Zac Whitaker setting the pace, RHHS successfully defended its championship against 71 other schools at the Cy-Fair ISD Invitational last weekend.

The Hawks, who had placed high but finished no better than third in their earlier tournaments this season, totaled 206 points to edge runner-up Katy Seven Lakes' 203.5.

Also placing among the top six in their weight class from RHHS were Jacob Makelke (120 pounds) and Brady Van Bevers (170) third, Zandyn Anderson (132) fourth, Jay Arnold (285) fifth and Joey Lutz (138) sixth.

Grant Rose (113), Nick Rose (126), Brogan Mike-Mayer (145), Ryan Todd (152), Stephen Nagy (160), Duell Ewing (182), Samuel Garza (195) and Garrett Birleson also scored team points for the Hawks.

Behind RHHS and Seven Lakes, the remaining top 10 teams were Highland Park 201.5, Clear Falls 198, Rockwall 189.5, Klein 186, Katy 176.5, Corpus Christi King 160, San Antonio Reagan 155.5 and Cy Woods 138.5.

The second tournament win, 55-44 over Watauga Harvest Christian, was mostly Stephens' doing. In addition to 22 points, he pulled down nine rebounds and blocked three shots.

Lake Country dominated the Warriors to win 46-25, but RCA came back to lead Houston Cypress Christian (12-6) by a point after three quarters before losing 54-48. Stephens scored 22 points and added nine rebounds.

He said, "The tournament was good competition. We're happy to play up to develop our skills."

Hawks learning lessons in 1st 5A season

by Lary Bump
Rockwall-Heath has made tremendous strides forward in boys' basketball this season.

In RHHS' first 5A season, however, the Hawks have not been able to break through against their District 12-5A opponents.

The latest example was Saturday afternoon, when they bounced back from Mesquite Horn's 8-0 first-quarter run and trailed by only a point with 10 minutes remaining in the game.

From that point, though, the Jaguars ran to outscore the Hawks 27-10 for a 70-52 victory. The loss dropped RHHS to 12-11 overall, but 0-3 in the district.

Of the loss to Horn, RHHS head coach Brad Waters said, "We didn't have an answer for their quickness and athleticism."

"We showed an overall lack of basketball maturity. When things started going downhill, we took shots from the outside instead of working for a better shot. We've had the privilege of playing the three best teams in the district (Horn, Mesquite and Longview)."

"It has been an eye-opening experience for these kids. 5A basketball is big-time."

Waters said despite the district losses, his young team - which starts two juniors, a sophomore and two freshmen - has not lost confidence.

The Hawks came back from winning three of four games at the FiberMax Caprock Classic in Lubbock to run into the buzz saw of Longview - which won 83-66 Wednesday, Jan. 2 - and Horn.

RHHS' leading scorers both against Horn and at Longview were the freshman starters, Tyler Zivney and Camron Talley.

Zivney scored 20 against Longview and 16 vs. the Jaguars. Talley had 18 and 13 in the two games. The taller Lobos (11-10, 2-0) kept Rockwall-Heath without a rebound for almost the entire first quarter.

In Lubbock, the Hawks held off Lubbock Estacado for a 72-70
