Miss Price And Sgt. Neal Are United In Formal Church Wedding In Colorado City

COLORADO CITY, July 3 — The highlight of the summer social season in Colorado City was the formal church wedding Sunday evening of Miss Nancy Elizabeth Price, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar B. Price, and Sergeant Frank Earl Neal of the Midland Army Air Field, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Neal of Westbrook. The ceremony took place at 8 p. m. with several hundred guests attending and with the double ring vows read by the pastor, Dr. John David Simons, in the First Baptist church. Candles were lighted, preceding the ceremony, by Bobby Price, brother of the bride, and C. A. Wilkens. A program of pre-nuptial organ music was played by Mrs. Lipps who also played traditional wedding marches and accompanied Mrs. Oren B. Trulock, wedding soloist, who sang "Because."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a period gown of white slipper satin made with a fitted pointed yoke at the waist, and with a full skirt which fell into a train. Handmade filet lace trimmed the sweetheart neckline and the frists of the long, pointed sleeves. Tiny satin covered buttons were repeated on the fitted sleeves. Her fingertip veil of bridal illusion was fastened to a Mary Stuart coronet. She carried a shower bouquet of gardenias and stephanotis and wore for her only jewelry a strand of pearls, a family heirloom.

Sister of the bride, Mary Irene Price, was maid-of-honor. Bridesmaids were Katherine Slagel of Dallas, and the sister of the bridegroom, Mrs. Newby Pratt of Great Lakes, Illinois. Attendants wore identical dresses of aqua silk marquisette with matching ruffles forming pointed shoulder yokes and trimming the bracelet sleeves and the bouffant skirts. Each carried a colonial bouquet of yellow daisies. The circular-cut shoulder veil worn by the maid-of-honor was of yellow starched marquisette while the bridesmaids wore shoulder veils of aqua, arranged in a halo-effect.

Sergeant Neal was attended by Sergeant Raymond Monkress of Midland as best man. Ushers were Mrs. Le Roy Brown, Jr., Rebecca Smoot, Grace Doss, and Virginia Whipkey, cousin of the bride. Mrs. Brown and Miss Smoot were gowned in pink marquisette, Misses Whipkey and Doss, in blue. Their flowers were shoulder corsages of white carnations. The parents of the bride were hosts at a reception at the Price home after the ceremony. Receiving with the bride and groom were their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Price and Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Neal of Westbrook, the wedding party and Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Whipkey, maternal grandparents of the bride. The couple left for a short wedding trip by automobile and will live, temporarily, at the Scharbauer hotel in Midland. Among the out-of-town guests for the wedding and reception were Mr. and Mrs. Jim Greene of Big Spring.

A series of parties complimenting the couple was climaxed Saturday evening with the rehearsal dinner given at the home of the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Whipkey, with Mrs. Robertson as assistant hostess. The bride was previously honored with a gift reception at the home of Mrs. Trulock, a dinner party and kitchen shower at the home of Mrs. Brown and a brunch with Miss Smoot as hostess.

PIN-WORMS At Last—A Real Treatment!

You may not realize how many of your neighbors—grown-up as well as children—have Pin-Worms at this very moment. People don't talk about this nasty infection. Sometimes they are too embarrassed to mention the tormenting rental itching and up to now they have usually suffered in silence because they have not known of any effective way to deal with this dreadful pest that lives inside the human body.

Important Medical Discovery
 Today, thanks to a valuable scientific discovery, a remarkable new treatment has been possible. It is based on a special drug, known as gentian violet. This drug is the vital element in P-W, the new Pin-Worms medicine developed by Dr. D. Jerome & Son, America's leading specialists in worm medication. P-W tablets are small and easy to take, and they act in a special, gentle way to destroy Pin-Worms. It is very easy to "catch" this nasty infection, and the ugly creatures can cause real distress. So watch for the signs that may mean Pin-Worms: Itching rectum, uneasy stomach, bed-wetting, nervous sleeplessness. If you suspect Pin-Worms, get a box of P-W right away and follow the simple directions carefully. P-W means Pin-Worm relief!

Will close Tuesday Noon for remainder of day.

Rommel, Poking Around Coast Before D-Day, Sputtered "It's Impregnable!"

By HAL BOYLE
 WITH THE AMERICAN TROOPS IN FRANCE, June 27 (Delayed) (AP)—Canny Normandy peasants, as shrewd as any Yankee horse trader, found a way to make a profit from German military masters who requisitioned livestock. "We met quotas by taking to town all the sick and diseased cattle or horses we had," said a 50-acre old Verdun hero, whose 50-acre farm had been taken over by the American army as a transit area. "The Germans scrupulously paid us 2,000 francs for each animal. Of course, on the black market, a good cow would fetch 20,000 francs—about $400—but it was a problem for us to keep the animals we sold the Germans on their feet long enough for us to collect." "The Germans have had us working night and day on beach defenses and kept telling us 'do you think the English or Americans could land here? Of course not.' But you did. "What makes us laugh most is to recall that Field Marshal Rommel himself inspected the beach defenses less than a month before you landed and walked around, saying 'improbable! Impregnable!'" "Our village, St. Honorine des

Hughson Wins 12th Victory Of Season

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer
Cecil (Tex) Hughson, towering Texan twirler of the Boston Red Sox, is travelling at a faster pace than he did in his record-breaking year of 1942 when he won 22 and lost six to lead American league pitchers.

The 6.03 righthanded ace won his 12th victory of the season yesterday, more than any American league hurler, blanking the league leading St. Louis Browns with six hits to give the Red Sox a 1-0 triumph in the opener of a twin-bill. The Red Sox also won the nightcap, 3-2, in 11 innings to climb to within a game and a half of first place. The double defeat was the Browns' fourth loss in six games since they started their eastern swing last Thursday. Hughson, beaten only three times has pitched 126 innings and has gone the route 12 times in 15 starts. His 62 strikeouts is a better average than his 113 whiffs which led the loop in '42. A sore arm hampered him last year when he won 12 and lost 15.

The St. Louis Cardinals, leaders in the National league, won two games from Brooklyn to extend the Dodgers' losing streak to six straight, their longest of the season. The Cards won the first 3-1 in 14 innings on Johnny Hopp's single with the bases full. The Redbirds also took the second, 4-2.

The Chicago White Sox and the New York Yankees divided their twin-bill. The White Sox won the first 7-3, scoring four runs in the 10th, aided by Oscar Grimes' three errors. A wild throw by Catcher Vince Castino in an attempt to double up Tuck Stainback for the third out allowed Bud Metheny to scamper home with the winning run in the ninth of the finale for a 7-6 Yankee victory.

Cleveland won two games from Washington, 4-3 in 10 innings, and 6-3. Ken Keltner got seven hits in eight at bats, including a homer. His 10th inning single scored Lou Bourdreaux with the winning run in the ninth. Steve Gromek won his first major league game in the nightcap.

Johnny Allen pitched a three-run shutout for the first time since the season 3-0, as New York and Cincinnati split even. Rookie Casimir Kostantny won his third straight for the Reds in the opener, 4-1. Detroit and Philadelphia swapped shutouts. The Tigers, behind Dixie Trout's eight-hit pitching, took the first 8-0, and the Athletics the nightcap, 2-0, behind Jesse Flores' four-hit twirling.

The Chicago Cubs and Philadelphia Phillies got an even break in their two games, Chicago winning the first 8-1, with Bob Chipman giving up five hits, and the Phillies taking the second, 4-2, behind Ken Raffensberger. Nate Andrews pitched the Boston Braves' to a 4-1 victory over Pittsburgh in the first game, but the second was halted by Pennsylvania's 6:50 curfew after eight innings, with the score tied at 5-5.

Mechanical Devices To Be Displayed At Annual Cotton Research Congress

COLLEGE STATION, July 1 (AP)—Texas farmers and others connected with the cotton industry will preview at the fifth annual cotton research congress here July 13, and 14, the newest mechanical devices which are expected to reduce costs of production.

The equipment, some of which has never before been shown, will be the feature of an exhibit showing cotton's cycle from seed to finished product. Major Burriss C. Jackson of Hillsboro, chairman of the statewide cotton committee, sponsor of the congress, said the equipment will be a deciding factor in cotton recovering its preeminence in world economy and in competing successfully with substitutes after the war. The program, released today by Director A. B. Conner of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, chairman of the program committee, will be keyed to the general theme "how cotton can meet today's challenge."

The first and third sessions with Acting Director James D. Prewitt of the Texas A. and M. College Extension Service, and James R. Gill of the Southland Cotton Oil Company, Waxahatchie, Tex., presiding, will be devoted to phases of the cotton grower's responsibilities and the economic significance of cottonseed products to the southwest and the nation.

Four out-of-state speakers will deal with possibilities for reductions in costs of distribution, engineering with relation to modern textile machinery, and different phases of research in uses of cotton.

Today On The Home Front—When Servicemen Return After The War, Where Will Women Go For Jobs?

By JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON, July 3 (AP)—Where do women go for jobs after the war? Servicemen, with a claim on many jobs now held by women, will be coming back. Women in war jobs but with husbands coming out of the service will quit to go back to house-keeping. Older women, working only for the duration, will retire. But where do the women go who want to continue working? The women's bureau of the labor department has thought of that, looked over the field, and reports now generally: Besides such fields as consumer goods manufacturing—which is a pretty wide field ranging from automobiles to gas-stoves—the bureau foresees: An increased demand for employment after the war for women in service industries, community services in health, welfare and social security, clerical and business occupations, and specialized technical and professional work. The bureau gives these findings about women's work in war plants: They are exceedingly conscientious, painstaking and accurate. The entering wedge for women is often the monotonous repetitive job that men dislike. Sometimes they follow instructions better than men, and learn faster.

Jug And Ben In Playoff For Championship

CHICAGO, July 3 (AP)—Lieut. Ben Hogan, determined to make a successful comeback in tournament golf after a recess of almost two years, and Jug McSpaden, the leading money winner of the season, meet today in an 18-hole playoff for the Chicago Victory National championship.

In one of the most amazing finishes in golf history, McSpaden yesterday overcame a five-stroke deficit on the last nine holes by shooting five birdies to tie Hogan at the end of the regular 72-hole tournament with 273—11 strokes under par. Today the winner will draw $3,000 in war bonds plus a certain percentage of the total gate in added cash. The loser will take a second prize of $1,750 in bonds plus some extra folding money.

For the first time in three rounds, Hogan failed to break 70 in yesterday's final 18 holes. He took an even par 35-36-71, but this score appeared safe, for McSpaden needed to shoot a 31, five under par, on the difficult last nine to match it. But Jug cut loose. He reached the long 14th and 15th holes in two shot for easy birdies 4's. He stuck his tee shot three feet from the cup for another deuce on the 17th.

Then he needed a birdie 3 on the 385-yard 18th for a tie. But his second shot scuffed the green 40 feet short of the cup. He tapped the ball, it caught the roll and trickled in as a crowd of 10,000 whooped. The putt gave him a 34-31-65 for the round. In third place with 276 was Nelson, followed at 280 by Johnny Revolta and Sam Byrd.

"No Hits, No Nothin'" Tobin Is Overlooked In Team Selection

NEW YORK, July 3 (AP)—Jim "No Hits, No Nothin'" Tobin today qualified as the forgotten man of 1944 as the National league announced its 25-man all-star team to play the pick of the American in Pittsburgh's Forbes Field on the night of July 11 but failed to name the veteran Boston knuckle-baller who pitched two no-hit games.

Six members of the league-leading St. Louis Cardinals were selected by the eight National managers who overlooked Tobin along with such brilliant performers as Mort Cooper and Ray Sanders of the Cards, Tommy Holmes of the Braves, Phil Weintraub and Bill Volselle of the Giants and Frenchy Bordaberry of the Dodgers.

Cincinnati placed four men on the squad that Billy Southworth as pennant-winning manager will boss. Pittsburgh, Chicago, Boston and Brooklyn each grabbed three spots, New York two and the Phillies only one.

Pitchers George Mauer of the Cards, Bucky Walters of the Reds, Rip Sewell of the Pirates, Max Lanier of the Cards and Al Javery of the Braves were selected for duty, with Ken Raffensberger of the Phils and Nate Andrews of the Braves rounding out the mound staff.

Walker Cooper of the Cards and Mickey Owen of the Dodgers will be joined by Cincinnati's Ray Mueller in the catching department. Dixie Walker of the Dodgers and Stan Musial of the Cards drew two of the seven outfield spots.

Mel Ott of the Giants who missed only 1933, the first year, will become the real veteran of the game by playing for the 12th time and teammate Joe Medwick will play his 10th for the National. Mike Gonzales of the Cards and Manager Fred Fitzsimmons of the Phils were named coaches.

Texas Rivals Compete In Quarter-Finals
ELIZABETH, N. J., July 3 (AP)—Two Texas tennis rivals—Bernard (Tut) Bratzen of San Angelo and Ed Ray of Sinton—today competed in the quarter-finals of the El-mora invitation tournament for junior players.

Bartzen, national interscholastic champion who wields a racquet lefthanded, yesterday copped two matches. Seeded No. 2, he defeated Albert Reynolds Jr., of East Orange, 6-2, 6-3, and just as easily defeated Sidney Schartz of Brooklyn, 6-1, 6-2.

Ray likewise won from two opponents, defeating Don Willner, New York City, 6-3, 6-3, and John Rihluoma, Osone Park, N. Y., 6-6, 6-1. Ray is seeded third.

TRUTH took a town today!

AMERICAN troops want the truth told about what they are doing. If a soldier reads an account of a battle action in which he shared and comments, "Boy, that's it—that's the way we took the town," a war correspondent can hit his bedroll that night content that he has performed the highest function of a front line reporter. The troops do not want to be "glamorized".

On the other hand, the troops don't want their sacrifices, victories—or defeats—muzzled or glossed over. They just want the people they are fighting for, the home-folks, to know what they are doing and what is happening to them.

To write war news thus is the aim of every Associated Press battlefront reporter. Indeed, it is their only aim.

Supply And Demand Still Control The Vegetable Market

Housewives, who just blame it on the war, may be interested to know that when it comes to most fresh produce, the old supply and demand formula is at work.

This explains how blackeyed peas may be eight cents on Monday and 10 cents on Saturday, depending on supplies made available here from distant points. Not until some local movement is started will the prices ease off.

Celery is a case in point, according to one merchant. Florida now is the only state producing the vegetable and demand has been enough to hike the price.

With the season still early, very little produce has been brought from farmers and gardeners in this area. One merchant explained that he has only bought one bushel of peas from a farmer in this area.

The weather conditions seem to govern the entire movement of produce over the country with the war having little to do with it, except in the case of watermelons.

The majority melons which were featured by several stores this week-end at 3 and one-half cents per pound are extremely high since they are hauled from East Texas by truckers and as one grocer put it "when trucks are needed in so many essential jobs, a man won't haul watermelons unless he makes money."

Newcomers Find Courts Are Modern

Newcomers in Big Spring will find that the Coleman Courts, as well as being the largest and one of the oldest in this city, can also claim the distinction of being one of the most modern, comfortable and well equipped.

Each of the 65 units, which are located at 1206 E. Third, has a bath, hot and cold water, and an adjoining garage. The garages are furnished, of course, without extra charge for the convenience of residents who own cars, and the home-like atmosphere affords a welcome diversion for khaki-clad service-men, who with their wives occupy almost one-half of the cabins.

With the housing situation such as it is in Big Spring, it was pointed out by L. E. Coleman, owner, courts such as his own are rendering an important service to the community. Difficulties in obtaining rooms and apartments might have long ago reached far greater proportions were it not for these cool, comfortable homes, where reasonable rates have always been an added attraction.

Capably managing the courts is Mrs. J. M. Reed, who has had eight years of experience in the business. She is at the office all day, or may be phoned at 9503, and is ready to assist both permanent residents and travelers with their housing problems.

Room Service Please

BROKEN BOW, Neb.—The hotel desk clerk was puzzled when someone called from one of the rooms and asked him to send up some change because "we want to go to a movie." His records showed the room which called was not taken, but investigation revealed two girls, ages 4 and 5, resting comfortably in bed.

The clerk discovered their parents were visiting friends in Broken Bow, but he still is puzzled as to how the girls got in the room.

Fraley Leader In Butane Gas Organization

W. E. Fraley, operator of Fraley & Company, is one of the leaders in plans for the organization of the Texas Butane Dealers association.

When butane men got together in Austin on June 21, Fraley was on hand to assist in setting up the new organization. He is a member of the state organization committee.

In naming Fraley to the committee, butane men were no doubt paying tribute to one of the leading veterans in their field. He was one of the early dealers in butane in Texas, and has worked steadily for the improvement and advancement of the industry, which has made its appearance and grown to important proportions in the last decade.

Fraley, who now operates his business from Abilene, Graham and Big Spring, serves thousands of domestic and oil field users. With much more involved than his "rolling stock"—a fleet of trucks—he has emphasized regular and continued service for all his patrons. He is among the pioneers of storage as well as distribution of Butane, taking advantage of periods when Butane is available in unlimited quantities to store up against the hard winter months when Butane supplies, due to steadily increasing demands plus higher cold weather consumption, are low or great distance hauls would be necessary to keep customers supplied.

Fraley holds membership in the National Association of Liquefied Petroleum Gas dealers. He was an onlooker in Denver, Colo., recently at the convention of the Northwestern section, although Texas falls in the southern section. He went to Denver with Charlie H. Lacey of the Pittsburg Water Heater company, and John Grinnell, Dallas butane dealer.

GREATER FACILITIES — When the winter months come this year, Butane users will find Fraley & Co. with greatly increased facilities for service. Included will be additional storage for 15,000 gallons of Butane, in addition to the 6,000-gallon storage tank pictured above. The second picture shows a Fraley truck servicing an oil rig where drilling is done by Butane. With oil activity up an estimated 50 percent over last year, Butane demands are greater and that makes the increased storage doubly important—for both domestic and oil field users.

Another truck has been added to the Fraley agency in Big Spring, making a total of four for prompt delivery service.

Back Tax Payments Coming Regularly

The city missed only two days during the month of June in the collection of delinquent taxes and at the end of the 30 days, reports reveal that delinquent taxes collected totaled $1,382.57 for the month.

The report was encouraging in comparison with the overall collection of delinquent taxes for the entire 12 months of 1943 which amounted to $12,378.24.

Since the beginning of the fiscal year total collections of the delinquent taxes amounted to $4,382.51 with current taxes at $906.57. Current taxes for June totaled $373.20.

YOUR WASTE PAPER SOFTENS UP THE ENEMY

Showers of propaganda leaflets are falling on Germany these days. By themselves, they might not be so effective. But when punctuated by bombs, they certainly undermine morale.

This is only one of the thousands of jobs for waste paper products in this war. Waste paper makes or wraps 700,000 other items, too.

Today waste paper is our No. 1 war shortage!

Make a habit of saving waste paper. Help to soften up the enemy!
