Dallas Trade Boomers.

Tuesday evening at 4 p. m., as was scheduled, the Dallas special trade excursion arrived at Colorado. The train consisted of four Pullman sleepers, carrying seventy-five or more Dallas' best business men. The train presented a rather imposing spectacle with the incandescent light globe, its search light tower and a netoscope machine. A fine Pullman dining car and a baggage car was attached. The crowd was met at the depot by nearly all our leading business men, headed by Mayor McCall. All went from the depot in a body to the Club room, Judge W. K. Homan in a pretty little talk extended a hearty welcome, which was responded to by Hon. M. T. Lively, after which they were turned loose in the town to meet and mingle with our visiting men and talk and get acquainted. Promptly at 5 p. m. the special train pulled out for Big Springs, their next stop.

Colorado a Cotton Market.

On Wednesday we noticed cotton on the streets like fall of the year. Colorado received 85 bales by wagon on Wednesday and lots of farmers report not done picking yet. Corn is up and looks fine. Cotton is being planted just as fast as they get last year's crop picked off the ground.

Arm Broken.

At the Colorado skating rink on Wednesday evening Mrs. McCoy fell and broke her arm just above the wrist. The limb was promptly set and the lady is resting easy. This was her first attempt at skating.

Around the Court House.

County court was called last week and County Judge W. B. Crockett presided with ease and dignity. The criminal docket was taken up and disposed of as follows:

State of Texas vs. Joe Bell, charged with carrying concealed weapons, tried by jury and found not guilty.

State of Texas vs. John Hays, (colored) same offense and same verdict.

State of Texas vs. Rube Gill, charge same as above. He entered a plea of guilty and was fined $25. It is but justice to say this charge was made some time ago and he was fined under the old law.

State of Texas vs. D. Fonda, charged with theft, tried by jury and found not guilty.

The civil docket was taken up this week and disposed of by continuances, dismissals and compromises, etc. Court has adjourned.

W. C. Morrow and wife to M. L. Hare, W. 1-2 of the S. W. 1/4 sec. 64 block 26 T. & P. survey, consideration $1000 and amount of the State.

Meeting.

The Notary held a regular meeting on Monday night and transacted the routine business. A committee was appointed to see about seating the new school building.

The hot air heating question came up and it was decided to defer the matter until they could look into the ventilation part of it too. If the house is properly ventilated to act in conjunction with the hot air it must be done when the building is erected, and it was decided to wait and look into the feasibility of getting at the cost of both.

C. M. Adams was then appointed to go to Dallas and Austin and see about placing the bonds.

When in town and hungry try the Silver Moon restaurant.

Ladies' Cook Book.

The Record has in press the Baptist Ladies Aid Society cook book and it will be a beauty when finished, well worth a dollar, but we understand the ladies will sell them at 50c each. It will make you hungry to read it. The Record man has just read the proof and we have been hungry ever since. The book will be out in a few weeks.

Public School Closing.

It is now definitely decided that our public school will close on Wednesday, May 25th.

The commencement exercises will be held the remainder of that week. The commencement sermon will be preached on the Sunday following, May 29th, and it is thought now that Dr. B. H. Carroll will be secured to deliver that sermon.

Prize.

John H. Carroll, who was out at Westbrook, was the lucky winner of the fine water set at J. O. McCreless' and went away happy. McCreless is the leader.

Mrs. Bailey Entertains.

Mrs. A. A. Bailey entertained a number of the members of the Standard Club in a delightful manner last Friday evening. The evening was spent in social conversation and with music. Delicious refreshments were served at 6 o'clock. A pleasant evening was enjoyed by the following ladies: Mesdames R. H. Looney, F. M. Burns, J. E. Riordan, N. S. Sherwin, P. C. Coleman, W. B. Crockett, Mrs. Meeks, of Dallas; and Misses Cora Looney and Maude Edwards. Not until a late hour did they depart. The affair was all in all a most pleasant event.

The Tennis Club.

A number of the members of the Tennis Club met last Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Smoot and were royally entertained by the Smoot family. These affairs have been given frequently by Mrs. Smoot, but the previous evening.

The affair began promptly at 8 o'clock. Refreshments were served in the beautifully decorated dining room, and probably fifty plates were laid. After the guests had finished eating they all repaired to the parlor where they were treated to some really fine music and singing by Miss Ruth Nichols and Miss Ophelia Arnett, and a recitation by Miss Lottie Henry.

The occasion was in honor of Master Joe Smoot's birthday. Joe has seen several moons, but he refuses to say how many. A birthday cake was cut and the ring fell to Miss Bessie McMurry and the dime dropped to Miss Lottie Henry. Mr. Richard Galbraith and Miss Ophelia Arnett were the first prize winners, the consolation prize fell to Miss Mattie Shuford. A very pleasant evening was enjoyed by all.

To Divide Texas.
Last week in the United States Senate the Hon. J. Adam Bede from Minnesota made a long argument in support of the bill to bring Arizona and New Mexico into the Union as one state and in his speech, among other things he said, Mr. Bede sent up to the clerk to have read a comic resolution, calling on the Judiciary Committee of the House to report as to whether, constitutionally Texas could be set up into a Republic for its own domestic purposes and converted into six States for the purpose of the Union generally, and for the purpose especially of enabling the West to get proper representation in the Senate.

Mr. Bede admitted at the outset that it might seem to some superficial thinkers a novel proposition, but Texas itself, he explained, was a novel proposition. "Texas stands alone among the States," he added. "She holds a unique place in history. Within a single century she has paid, allegiance to five flags."

I have been pleased to find the allegiance of the delegation from Texas to her own Lone Star State holding itself even when the other brethren of the South had come over and voted for the quarantine bill. They stood up in solid phalanx of sixteen and stood for Texas rather than for Uncle Sam. I rather like that description, for their great State is big enough for an Empire or Republic of its own. (Applause.)

"It is a wonderful commonwealth, and they can scarcely have a greater love for any one, perhaps than they have for local government. But I remember when to tell a man to go to Texas was just like like-telling him to go to the other place. (Laughter.) I remember when Texas was a synonym for hell, and now it is almost as populous, and two Senators are not enough to represent such a country as that. (Great laughter and applause.)

"But there is now a movement in Texas herself to subdivide the State for local government purposes into North Texas, East Texas, South Texas, and West Texas. The State that they have is too big for practical purposes in the government of the Commonwealth. Why, the farmers of North Texas are mostly native Americans and believe in prohibition of the liquor traffic. The people of Southern Texas are largely Europeans, who believe in beer. North Texas has land worth up to $100 an acre. They put the assessment there low and can meet their obligations, and so the southern farmer who have low priced land complain constantly against the farmer of North Texas, and there are recriminations back and forth because of the wonderful difference between the north and the south. Northern Texas raises cotton and protectionists. (Laughter.) They have a member of Congress in this House who voted against the Philippine tariff bill this winter because the people believed in protecting home industry. In Western Texas they raise cattle and engage in mining and believe in protection. They have a member in this House from Western Texas who voted for the Dingley bill because Western Texas believed in protection. And even Eastern Texas has more or less farmers who are low tariff people and they want small holdings; they want irrigation and they want laws passed preventing a man from holding large tracts of land. And so you have the prohibitionists in the north, and you have the liberal thinkers in the south; you have the fruit growers in the east, and you have miners and stock raisers in the west, and territory of Texas, although bound together by the history of the Alamo and the history of its Republic, is on the verge of breaking up in order to have a better local government.

"Oh, I hear it said that the Senators are bad folks. I do not know whether it is against the rules of this House to speak well of the Senate or not (Laughter and applause), but I am going to make that attempt. I began to speak well of the Senates once before while I was upon my feet, but either my time expired or I was called to order. There are, I say some who complain that the Senators of the West do not represent enough people, but I say to you that I would rather leave my political rights in the keeping of a member of either house of Congress hailing from the Rocky Mountains and representing nothing but the sunset than to one standing in the shadow of the trust companies and representing the unlearned increment. (Applause.) Why, some people upon this floor would have us believe that the people of Arizona do not know, the initiative from the referendum (applause), and all that the friends of that territory ask is that they may have the right to vote upon the propositions which are submitted to them."

Good Day for Business.

Perhap last Saturday was the best business day in Colorado this year. Our business men report an exceptionally nice business. Possibly more buggies and carriages were sent out than ever before in any one day. Windmills and implements and different kinds of goods handled by our hardware dealers sold rapidly. The dry goods merchants enjoyed a splendid trade. Long before night many of the clerks had that tired look that results from over work. Several extra large sales were reported. The grocers were kept quite busy. One clerk said they had quit selling sugar by the $1's worth but bundled it only in barrels. Workmen in the shops were also busy. The plumbers, tanners, painters, carpenters and paper hangers are all behind with their work, even The Record has an extra rush of orders.

Not only were purchasers here from the surrounding communities, but many from a distance who have learned it to be their interest to purchase their goods in Colorado. Dealers in the various lines of business here know how and what to purchase and are determined not to be undersold.

To Be at Home by May 15th.

A letter from Congressman W. R. Smith at Washington, says he will try to reach home on May 15th. Mrs. Smith's health is improving.

TRUTH.

Truth is like gold in the gulches,
Oft buried deep under the sod,
While often the tender-foot searches
For gold on the face of the clod.

The color is found on the surfaces,
But if you would find richer stock,
Go down where large nuggets are buried,
Go down 'till you find the bed-rock.

Many people examine the surface,
And penetrate never within,
But the outside is sleek as a beaver,
The heart often dyed deep in sin.

Hence lives are but contradictions,
And hearts are often in sorrow,
To-day what may seem quite angelic
As crime may be looked on to-morrow.

Truth, then, is scattered and buried,
It is mixed with the gold in the glen,
Go wash all the dirt from these nuggets,
And find if you can honest men.

For truth that is pure and unvarnished
Is worthy the search of the wise,
Compare it with nuggets and diamonds,
Pure truth is by far the best prize.

One miner, perhaps, in a million
Will pick up a fortune to-day,
While others may toil for a lifetime,
Yet delve in the very same way.

And yet 'tis by toiling we find them—
These nuggets we so much desire,
'Tis only but working unceasing
We manage to climb up still higher.

And yet truth may sparkle like diamonds
But some men will cast it aside,
And, instead, they will treasure the mica
And say to the truth, "Let her slide!"

But truth is the old rock of ages
Upon which our forefathers stood,
Without it there must be corruption,
And with it our lives must be good.

A Narrow Escape.

On Saturday evening last the fine and imposing residence of Capt. and Mrs. Jeffress came near burning. A fire was started in the gasoline stove, (and by the way it was a new one,) and from some cause the stove exploded. Mrs. Jeffress seeing the danger ran into an adjoining room and young Mr. Jeffress ran in and dragged the burning stove into the yard. The ceiling and walls were scorched, the family badly frightened and the stove almost ruined. It was a narrow escape for this fine house.

Land For Sale.

I have a half section of fair land for sale at $4.00 per acre, well situated and a bargain at the price. Terms to suit. Call on or address H. W. Stoneham at the court house.

Most Popular Firm.

Green & Crawford received a request this week for three of their odd calendars to be sent to London and Ireland. They are known abroad.

The letter came from R. Rochfort Wade, who is at Carrowmore, Ballinsloe, Ireland, and he says one of the calendars is to be hung in a fashionable London Club; another is to go to the wife of an English Foreign Minister.

Mr. Wade owns a large ranch near San Angelo, and visited Colorado last year. The letter was odd, unique and amusing.

Land Notice.

Parties having land to sell in small or large tracts are requested to send full description, price and terms to the West Texas Immigration Bureau, Colorado Texas.

Eastern Star Meeting.

The ladies of the Eastern Star held an interesting meeting at the Masonic hall on Wednesday night of this week, and in a most befitting way entertained their distinguished visitors.

Mrs. Huval, of Galveston, Past Grand Matron, Mrs. Lenard, conductress, and Mrs. Ward, associate conductress, all women of state note, were here to exemplify the work, and a royal good meeting and a pleasant time was had.

For Sale.

My home place for sale, suburban property, six room house, fine well, windmill, underground cistern, good orchard, barn, out-houses, one acre of land, to be sold at a bargain. Apply to Samuel Gustine.

Good Advertising Medium.

The West Texas Immigration Bureau reports The Record as a good advertising medium. Last week they advertised a tract of land for sale near town and on Monday they sold it, 100 acres for $2000. The land lays near town, and this sale shows that Mitchell county land is advancing and that advertising pays.

"The People are at Sea."

Our friend, Col. "Rennie" Field, at Bruceville, remarks in a recent letter to the Tribune: "The people are at sea as to the gubernatorial aspirants and much divided in opinion." That is true. Col. Fields, who is an intelligent and experienced observer, has stated the situation with appropriate accuracy. Five candidates for Governor is something calculated to cause diversity of opinion. But as the people begin to investigate and analyze what each candidate stands for, opinion will take shape.--Waco Tribune.

The people are not "at sea" out in West Texas, as it is all one way out here, and that way is Tom Campbell. All that is needed now is for some one to move to make it unanimous for Campbell.

FOR JUDGE SMITH.

The Sterling City Record last week published a strong editorial from the Baird Star favoring Judge W. R. Smith, and in commenting on the same said: "With all due respect for Judge Smith's opponent and his friends we must say that we heartily concur in the Star's view of the situation. There are too many measures of vital importance to this district pending in Congress to be taken up by a new and untried man. It would take a new man quite awhile to comprehend this work begun by Smith, and by the time he had learned enough to put it through, we might want a new man who would have to do the same thing to the eternal postponement of the things we need right now. We had better let well enough alone."

According to reports that have been received at Austin from western and northwestern Texas the cattlemen are demanding that the state ranger force be increased to its full quota of sixty men. The force was recently reduced to twenty-seven men on account of the lack of appropriations to pay the expenses of this important branch of the state police service. Ordinarily this resulted in great impairment of the efficiency of the organization not a day passes that requests rangers do not reach the adjutant general's department from various parts of the state. These requests are for the most part deserving of being acted upon favorably but under the present depleted condition of the service there are many places to which rangers cannot be sent when called for.

Encourage the Fire Company.

In last week's Record we had a short notice of the Colorado Fire Company meeting. They have decided to join the State Fireman's Association and become known over the state as a regularly organized fire company. In order to do this they must elect a fire Queen, pay their annual state dues and be up-to-date. The State Firemen's Convention meets each year in the State and the delegates have a nice time. It is the custom for each city with a regular organized fire company to send the chief, one delegate and the Queen each year to the State convention. The convention meets this year at Mineral Wells, and Mr. Cooksey as chief, and Will McKenzie as delegate, are elected to go and represent the Colorado Company. They want to elect a Queen to take with them, free of charge, to the convention.

The usual plan in the state of electing a fire queen is to nominate some four or five of the most popular young ladies of the town for Queen and then let the citizens vote at 10c each for their choice, the money thus raised to go into the fire company treasury to help pay expenses at the convention, etc. Our boys are organized and will have an election for Queen soon. At the final closing of the Queen contest the Company usually has a supper, or social, and the Queen is crowned.

Now, a volunteer fire company like ours is one of the best things the town can have, and not enough attention has been paid our company. It is mostly a labor of love, and the boys are always ready at any time to respond to a call, day or night, and in fighting the fire demon they sacrifice life, clothes and rest for the protection of your property while you are asleep.

The boys are always ready to respond to a call, hot or cold, and to your assistance. Great laug-

But it is just to keep up the organization.

The Record man is an old fireman, and we are in a position to know what to ask of the business men, and it is but just that in their coming fire Queen election that you co-operate with them and help elect a Queen that will reflect credit on the company. The Record nominates Miss Viola Henry as a lady worthy to fill the place and at the State convention at Mineral Wells will reflect credit on Colorado and the West as a Queen representative. Anybody has a right to nominate any one they choose, and it is up to our business men to elect a Queen. To be a volunteer fireman means more than the honor attached to the position; it means sacrifice of rest, comfort and even life, and that without compensation. They have a regular set of by-laws and rules that they must abide by, and it is but just that the citizens do their part and we guarantee the boys to come up with their end. In time of peace prepare for war. We know not when a fire will come and the property owners should, and we believe will, come to the assistance of the fire company in their coming entertainment and Queen contest.

It has been decided that one of the features of the monthly meeting of the 150,000 Club, which is to be held tomorrow night, will be the phonographic speech which was made by the late ex-Governor James Stephen Hogg, for the legislative banquet which was given in Dallas during the fair last fall while Gov. Hogg was on a sick bed at Fort Worth. Nearly every member of the club was an ardent admirer of the great commander and the reproduction of this speech is being given in order that the members of the club may hear in his own words his last remarks regarding public politics.--Dallas News.

BRIEF AND BREEZY.

The rate bill advocates already see that even with the President's indorsement to back it, the "Long" amendment will be short of votes.

While W. R. Hearst is performing a public service by raking together stacks of evidence so convincing with respect to the secret grant of rebates by the railroads to the sugar trust, that the Republican Attorney General of the U. S. is obliged to begin suit in the courts on the strength of it, what are the regular Democratic leaders doing to make the people take Hearst less seriously? The people will turn finally even to a demagogue, if they lose confidence in smug respectability--especially if the demagogue "does things."

"Come into my parlor," said the White House Chief to the Democratic rabbits. In other words, Speaker Cannon says to his Ohio correspondent, "It will be a long time between tariff revisions."

On his western trip, Secretary Shaw is said to have declared that he is aching to "just let out once." As soon as he gets back the President will no doubt see to it that his gag is still on straight.

Zion City advocates peace, but to hold on to the "loaves and fishes" is willing to go to war.

Senator Burton is getting almost as "used to the courts" as Senator Smoot is to investigating committees.

But Mr. Carnegie, in his Tuskegee Institute speech, failed to suggest spelling reform in "negro dialect" and we are disappointed.

Nobody seems to know the exact status of the vote in Chicago on the question of municipal ownership, but Mayor Dunne and his friends concede that "twas a famous victory."

New Jersey has decided to substitute electrocution for hanging, and all condemned criminals in New Jersey will be wired to that effect.

In Minneapolis and St. Paul, saloon licenses are $1,000, and in Des Moines the rate is $1200 a year, equally divided between the state and city. The new Ohio and Chicago figures will undoubtedly stand.

Chicago voted for the theory, but against the practice of municipal ownership. That is the same view which a good many folks hold on religion and ethics.

Oratory is not a lost art. A full-blooded Zulu has just won first prize in a speaking tournament at Columbia college.

When Senator Dolliver asserted that some of the Senators had been consulting with railroad presidents, Aldrich, Platt and Foraker promptly showed that they considered themselves "on the list."

The exhibition of "laying on of hands" Dr. Dowie promises his overseers, ought to be worth quite a bit of gate money.

Ex-Mayor Rose of Milwaukee, should take down his photograph of Carter Harrison, and gaze on the features of the man who knew when to quit.

It is said that President Roosevelt is preparing to roast some of the magazine writers who have been looking into things in Washington. In their wildest dreams they could hardly have hoped for such advertising.

A United States Senator is credited with the remark that affairs are so bad that when the Senate roll is called he doesn't know whether to say "present" or "not guilty."

Since Dowie's followers have come to the conclusion that he is insane, the public may have to revise its opinion of his followers.

That English author who insists that he does most of his writing in his sleep, is probably employed on some English comic opera.

In former times in England, the man who ran away from the processes of the law was declared guilty of outlawry and his property was confiscated. The modern penalties are lighter, but the subpoena dodger has no picnic.

Wonder if the President will visit the stockyards as the guest of the hospitable packers if he goes to Chicago?

Vienna has a municipal brewery. Why did not some bright Milwaukee party think to put a municipal-brewery plank in its platform?

A courageous magazine writer who apparently does not care what happens to him, has published a spring poem by Alfred Austin.

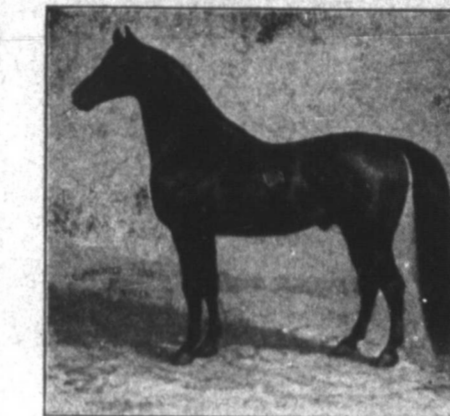

We must admit that Dowie's case is stranger than fiction, even admitting that as his enemies claim, there is considerable fiction in it.

President Roosevelt occasionally takes Senator Lodge with him when he goes out on his strenuous horseback rides, but thus far has been unable to lose him.

Csar Nicholas refuses to reward his soldiers by giving them a preference in the appointment to office. The Cossacks are not in a class with the Rough Riders.

Stallions for Service AT Bellevue Stock Farm, GEO. B. ROOT, Proprietor. Lock Box 686. Colorado, Texas

ESTABUNO P. 531--This grand representative of the Hal Family, the greatest family of combined saddle and race horses, the world ever saw, will make the season of 1906 at my farm, 2 miles south of Colorado. Estabuno, being a strong inbred Hal, will produce combination or all purpose horses with plenty of size, style, speed and stamina, from any kind of mare. He is chestnut sorrel, star in forehead, right hind foot white, 17 hands high, weight 1300 pounds. Following is an extract from a letter to Mr. Root from Mr. Thos. C. Parsons, Registrar of National Pacing Horse Breeders Association, which says: "In Estabuno you have one of the richest bred, pacing bred stallions in the world, and the people of Texas will make a big mistake if they fail to avail of his services early in his career in the Stud. (Signed) Thos. C. Parsons."

DR. HOMAN, No. 38019, American Trotting Register, is beyond question the handsomest stallion in Texas today, being a dark cherry bay, 15 hands and 3 inches high in front and 16 hands and 1-2 inch high behind, 5 years old and weighs 1175 pounds. He is strictly a high class trotting stallion and his blood lines are the best. He is one-half brother to Williams sire of Miss Marigold, 2.194, Tom Miller, 2.20, (sire of Tom Miller, Jr., 2.01), Ler Ocean, 2.074 and Miss Williams, 2.064, and Dr. Homan himself remarkable bursts of speed, and any one desiring a horse to plow all week and get out on Sunday and brush past anything on the road will do well to breed to Dr. Homan.

ELECTRIQUE, Registered French Coach Stallion, chestnut sorrel, blaze face, 15 hands high, 2 years old and weighs 935 pounds. He is as pure bred and as grand an individual as there is in the United States. I will let this fellow serve 10 head of mares this season. First come first served.

A Flattering Testimonial.

A very eminent London surgeon, one of the lights of the profession, one day observed a gentleman knocked down by a runaway horse. He went to his aid and found he had broken his leg. It was only a simple fracture, but the man was badly hurt.

The surgeon used his umbrella as a splint and with his own hands borrowed handkerchiefs, bandaged the limb tightly, put the patient in a cab and drove to the nearest hospital. There they were received by a young medical student.

"You've bandaged this pretty well," said the youth patronizingly.

"Not at all," said the other. "I suppose you have been attending some ambulance class. They say a little learning is a dangerous thing, but the little you've learned you've put to good account. I can't give you your umbrella now, but if you leave your address it shall be sent to your house."

"I had better give you my card," said the eminent surgeon, and he did so.--Pearson's Weekly.

Revenge.

An old man leaving work got into a car. He had not gone far before the conductor asked him for twopence. The man said it was a penny for the distance he was going. The conductor said sharply to him, "Shut up and pay twopence." So he paid it.

The next morning the conductor received a letter without a stamp, which was surcharged as usual. When he opened it he was surprised to see written on paper, "Shut up and pay twopence."--London Tit-Bits.

HEALTHY AND STRONG YESTERDAY, DEAD TO-DAY!

Wealthy Yesterday, Poor To-Day The great California disaster clearly outlines the uncertainty of both life and riches. Over THREE THOUSAND DEAD; OVER THREE HUNDRED MILLION DOLLARS WORTH OF PROPERTY DESTROYED!

Doesn't the great disaster--in addition to hundreds of people who died and who failed in other sections--prove conclusively that every money-maker should capitalize his value in the interest of his family through life insurance, and, to overcome possible financial loss, should invest a portion of his annual income with an institution whose investments are so scattered that no local disaster can materially effect them. Now is your opportunity to insure in the great New York Life. DO IT NOW.

Not Have a Fat Stock Show?
 They not have a second Fort Worth Fat Stock Show in the past and at Colorado this fall. The Mitchell County Fair Association want to have a fair and pig tournament this fall and four stockmen and business men will come together and organize they can have a first class fat stock show not only for Mitchell county but for the whole West. The stockmen at Big Springs, Midland, Sterling, Sweetwater, Abilene, Snyder and even up in Mann and Lubbock counties have all said they would come to Colorado and exhibit, and with such men as Wulfjen, McKinzie, Bell, Robertson, Allen, Thompson, Prude, Coleman, Plasters, Root, and many others here as local men with their fine stock could easily get up a creditable stock show and race tournament. If it should come about that the location of the Fair permanently should be in the way then we suggest that the organization change about like the Ft. Worth show, meet this year at Colorado, next year Midland, next year at Big Spring, etc. Let it be a West Texas concern and make it a success.—Colorado Record.

That such an event would be a success we are more than certain and even though the number of stock on exhibition might not be as large as at Ft. Worth Show still it would have the quality as West Texas succeeded in carrying off more than her share of prizes. We are sure the stockmen of this section will assist in making this a success and will enter heartily into the proposition. This is a good thing and should be pushed along and now is the time to give it a boost.—Big Springs Herald.

Holland's Magazine.
 Holland's Magazine in its May number gave a fine write-up of the Texas newspaper men and among other things says:
 "But it is among the small local papers—the so-called "country press"—that the hardest worked people in the newspaper business are everywhere found. They give freely of their time, energy and space to the upbuilding of their own communities, more often than otherwise without hope of any direct financial returns. They labor untiringly week after week, month after month, and year after year, encouraging the timid, upholding the weak, giving faith to the strong, looking always to the building of new enterprises, to the progress and advancement of their towns and counties."
 "In the daily field a man may become a distinguished editor without ever sticking a line of type or knowing whether the rollers on the presses are made of molasses or cast iron—each man on a big daily becomes a specialist in his own line and concerns himself not with the affairs of other departments. Not so with the head of a country paper who is most frequently publisher, editor, reporter, advertising solicitor and business manager combined. In a pinch he must know how to lend a hand at the case, must be able to operate a G. Wash. press or coax a gasolene engine out of a spell of the sulks. He must keep in touch with public affairs and at a moment's notice be ready to referee a dog fight, preside at a political convention or lead a prayer meeting. Incidentally he must keep the printers supplied with copy, look after his piano contest and collect his advertising bills. "Pro Bono Publico," with an axe to grind, and "Fair Play," who wants to hit the other fellow over the head without making his own name public, the editor must send a satisfied. The man who drops in with half a column of free advertising "to help fill up the paper" he must meet with a smile, and to the committee from the Ladies Aid he must explain—if he can—why two tickets to the church social do not pay for the insertion of 14 reading notices scattered among pure reading matter.
 "Above all, he must have faith—faith in his town, in his people, in himself. Without it all else is vain. In red clay hills he must see mountains of mineral wealth, and in his sight alkali plains must sparkle with limpid streams of living water. A dreamer? Perhaps. But he hustles while he dreams.
 "Texas owes much to the zeal, the tireless energy and the public spirit of the big-hearted, loyal editors of her country papers—the foot soldiers in her great army of improvement."

Colorado Sent About $500.
 Colorado sent to the Dallas News last week about $500 for the San Francisco sufferers. Col. Jake McCall headed the list with $100 and then proceeded to collect about $200 more, making $300 in all. Then Judge R. H. Looney telegraphed into The News $200 more, making in all about $500. This is very good for Colorado, considering that we are building a $15,000 public school building and a $50,000 Methodist College.

 Mr. J. H. Key, our constable, returned home Monday from Abilene, where he had been the past three weeks on the Federal Jury. Mr. Key was on the Steffens and Lowden jury and they found them guilty. The judge sentenced them to five years in the Federal penitentiary. Mr. Key is loud in his praise of Abilene as a city and the kindness of the Federal court.

Colorado, of Course.
 The Record man was in Dallas last week, and while at the depot waiting for the train a man stepped up to the ticket window and said, "I want a ticket out on the T. & P. road to the town where they are going to locate that Methodist College." The agent at once sold him a ticket to Colorado without asking a single question.

Moving Some.
 On Monday last Mr. Runyan moved into his new house just completed north of the court house. Mr. J. W. Woodard moved into the house vacated by Mr. Runyan, Mr. Woodard having bought this house. Mrs. S. McBurnett moved into the house vacated by Mr. Woodard. Thus a change was made all around.

To The Young Ladies.
The Record wishes to call your attention to the fact that the Colorado Fire Company will soon elect a fire Queen. This is an honor that any young lady should be proud of, and we hope that any one who should be nominated will feel that it is an honor, and will take an interest in the fire company. The boys will soon order new uniforms and when the new Queen is elected her first reception will show to her how proud the boys will be of their Queen. The Company always sends the Queen, or sponsor, free of cost to the State Convention and in every way honors her, and a good active sponsor is the life of a fire company. So young ladies when the election is put on and you are nominated, make the race and go in to win.

Judge and Mrs. Smith last week entertained the Texas delegation with a nice reception in honor of Miss Roe, and a royal good time was had. Mrs. Smith and Miss Roe's many Colorado friends would have enjoyed being present.

The Kindergarten.
The Ladies managing the Kindergarten have arranged to have Little Emily Squier, the child Impersonator, appear here at the opera house on Friday May 4th for the benefit of the Kindergarten. Read what they say.
Emily Squire, the Child Impersonator, has filled three Chautauqua engagements for us. This year being with us the entire season, during which time she appeared in more than fifty selections with increasing popularity. She stands at the head of the list of all the impersonators whom we have heard.
Dr. W. E. CALLANE, Flora, Ind. Pres. Mixinkuckee (Ind.) Chautauqua.
The people of Evansville have never been more delightfully entertained with an elocutionary entertainment than they were at Evan's Hall by the recital given by little Emily Squier. Although a child, she ranks among the first as an impersonator. — Evansville Morning Courier.

Meet me at Jakes Resturant.
About Skating Rinks.
As Colorado now has three rinks, (a full supply) we suppose most every body will soon know how to skeet and slide. When we say most every body we mean those up to fifty years old, as human nature is pretty much the same the world over. The only advice The Record has to offer to those who skate (the advice is free) is for you to stand up on your feet. Don't do the sliding and rolling act. It is dangerous for you to allow your feet to skeet out from under you. It will not only soil your clothes and give you the headache but make you look plum ridiculous, skeeting around sometimes on one end, sometimes on the other and sometimes on both. Over in Rising Star in speaking of the skeetin' rink the X-Ray calls it the tumbling, and jumbling and rumbling and stumbling and bungling and sliding and bestriding and jumping and bumping kerflumping institution known as the "skating rink."
Now, don't think what we say is said in an effort to hurt the feelings of the people who run these institutions or those who want to skate. Such is not the case. We couldn't stop either if we so desired. The rinks are going to run and you are going to skate. That's a settled fact. A certain amount of skeetin' is good for you—provided you stand on your feet—but too much of it is injurious—especially if you skeet and slide. Besides that, it looks better to stand erect and roll around smoothly and gracefully. It's your business how much and when you skate, and we do not care anything about it only it will look much nicer if you will stand on your feet and not do the sliding and bumping act.

Do not fail to get explicit instructions for planting and cultivating as your experience in growing other beets is no good in growing sugar beets. Do not get mixed on this. Beets too large or too small are not good sugar producers. — Abilene Reporter.

Cormorants.
Cormorants are far the largest and most striking in appearance of our common English sea fowl. A male cormorant is a yard long and very strong and heavy, and though more quaint than beautiful, whether flying, diving or sitting on the rocks or buoys, it is a far more interesting creature than the sea gull—a wonderful instance of adaptation of form to special needs and of permanence of type enduring from remote ages, for the fossil cormorant hardly differs from those which are now fishing from the cliffs in which their petrified ancestors are imbedded. Our common "great black cormorant" is not only the most representative type of his family, but a link with the inhabitants of the shallow seas of both the old and new worlds. He is found throughout Europe, in north Africa, Egypt and the greater part of Asia, in eastern North America and, a little changed by distance, in New Zealand and Australia. Lastly he is the only bird except the hawks and falcons which is trained to assist man in the capture of living prey, and in this vocation he is of all birds, by sense, memory and affection, incomparably the best.—London Spectator.

The Wiles of Beasts of Prey.
The panther on the plains of Patagonia gets as near a herd of guanacos as it can, then lies down behind a bush on its back. It puts one paw up in the air, then another, then the third and fourth and after a bit all four at once. That seems curious to the guanacos, and they come close to investigate. Up jumps the panther and lights on the nearest one's back and breaks its neck. A fox up in Nova Scotia comes down to the bay of Fundy and goes jumping along the beach a couple of rods and back again, rising on its hind legs at each about face and waving its big tail in the air. The little flock of four or five Canada geese out on the water begin to wonder what can be the matter with the fox. They swim up into the shallow water to investigate, when he dashes the fox and grabs one by the neck. The men have taken advantage of this trick and have trained dogs to do as the fox does. For lack of a dog men themselves have ambled about on their hands and knees to attract the birds.
The Wonders of Transposition.
The word "time" admits of a very peculiar arrangement of its letters. The four letters of the word transposed and read backward and forward and up and down give four perfect English and Latin words. It is said to be the only word in our language that will admit of so many transpositions and arrangements. Note the oddity of the square below:

Curious Facts About the Eye.
A very curious fact is the impossibility of moving your eye while examining the reflection of that organ in a mirror. It is really the most movable part of the face. Yet if you hold your head fixed and try to move your eye while watching it you cannot do it—even the one-thousandth of an inch. Of course if you look at the reflection of the nose or any other part of your face your eye must move to see it. But the strange thing is that the moment you endeavor to perceive the motion the eye is fixed. This is one of the reasons why a person's expression as seen by himself in a glass is quite different from what it is when seen by others.
Advice From Her Lawyer.
Timothy Coffin, who was prominent at the Bristol county bar in the last century, once secured the acquittal of an old Irishwoman accused of stealing a piece of pork. As she was leaving the courtroom she put her hand to her mouth and in an audible whisper said: "Mr. Coffin, wha'd I do with the por-rink?"
Quickly came the retort: "Eat it, you fool. The judge says you didn't steal it."—Boston Herald.
