IT IS YOUR RIGHT

To demand that the pharmacist get them right. Not only must he try his best to get them right, but he must do so.

No men, professional or otherwise, have a greater responsibility placed upon them than do druggists. Their working hours are long but they must be absolutely accurate. A moment's absence of mind might cause a loss of life. We only mention this to show you we appreciate the necessity of constant vigilance and alertness. We are not objecting to our hours though we would like them shorter.

We use every precaution to guard against error. Our prescriptions are all put up by registered pharmacists, and the items are always checked a second time as a safeguard.

THE PETITION TURNED DOWN

The petition praying for an order from the county judge for the submission of the corporation question was filed with Judge W. B. Crockett last week. On the petition were 120 names, but the qualification of 40 of them was considered by the Judge as doubtful, hence the following order.

"The matter of this petition having been duly considered, and finding under the law, as shown by the last assessment roll of the city of Colorado, that this petition does not contain one-hundred of the property taxpayers who are qualified voters of the said city, I therefore decline to order the election prayed for herein and refuse the petition.

W. B. CROCKETT, County Judge, Mitchell County, Texas." Sept. 20, 1908.

Application was made to Judge Shepherd who is holding court at Midland for a mandamus, compelling Judge Crockett to issue an order for the election.

DROP IN AND SEE IT

We have no land for sale, but we want settlers, therefore we are putting in an exhibit at this office and those who are passing this way will do well to come in and see some of the products of our farm lands. We also have advertising literature for free distribution and will gladly try to answer all questions concerning the country, lands for sale etc. If we can not direct you to those who can. Drop in and see us anyway; we want to know every farmer in Mitchell county personally, and subscribers to the Record especially.

EAST COLORADO

A beautiful little home, 4 room house, lot 90 by 140. Well improved, barn and outbuildings, fine orchard. Easy terms. J. R. Hastings Land Co., will tell you all about it.

IRISH POTATOES

D. N. Arnett brought to this office this week a sample of Irish potatoes raised by Sam Arnett north of Colorado and they are beauties, perfect in shape and large size. They were raised from peelings planted and shows to any one that Irish potatoes will do well here.

STRAYED OR LOST

One dark bay horse, 15 1/2 hands high, no brand, 9 years old, broke to work, white left hind foot, has small sunk-in place on neck, wire cut shows on one hind foot. One light bay horse 15 hands high, branded R N O on left thigh, small snip on nose, 9 years old broke to work. Strayed from East Colorado Monday night, Sept. 14th. Will pay reward for return or any information. R. D. Wood, Colorado.

NOTICE TO FARMERS

The Farmers Union co-operative warehouse Co., announces that their ware house is now ready for business. It is now a bonded warehouse, scales tested by the county Judge and everything ready to receive your cotton and other goods of any kind.

W. H. Gardner will be the manager of the house and yard and wants to see all the farmers of Mitchell county.

She Found Relief

If you are troubled with liver complaint and have not received help read this. Mrs. Mary E. Hammond, Moody, Texas. "I was in poor health—with liver trouble—for over a year. Doctors did me no good and I tried Herbine, and three bottles cured me. I can't say too much for Herbine, as it is a wonderful liver medicine. I always have it in the house. Publish where you wish. Sold by W. L. Doss.

NEW MILLINERY STORE

Attention of our readers is called to the new advertisement this week of the new millinery store of Miss Blanche Bell, front room over Burns & Bell Dry goods store. Miss Bell is just from Dallas, is an expert milliner and extends to one and all a cordial invitation to call and see the new stock of fall and winter millinery. Here is displayed of course the "Hat Beautiful" the subject paramount with millinery. We call particular attention to the fact that these new satin hats are positively the popular rage for immediate wear. Quite a large collection of these new shapes and colorings are here awaiting your inspection and approval.

OUR BEN SPEAKS

At the Commercial Club meeting last week, at Stamford Ben Van Tuyl represented Colorado, also the Republican club which also met at that place. When called upon he said:

"I wanted to be sure and be on hand in time so came through the night before and was on the ground first. Colorado wants the next meeting of the Association and here's a telegram from the Commercial club backing my invitation up. Mitchell county expects to produce 25,000 bales of cotton this season. Our compress will handle perhaps 35,000 to 40,000 bales and we hope to see marketed on the streets of our city a large part of the total handled by our railroad."

He secured the meeting for Colorado which meets here in Dec. on the 8th. Van Tuyl is a whole team and always talks for the Colorado country.

FOR SALE OR TRADE

A good six room house on 3 lots, well located and well improved, city water. Will trade for farm land. Title perfect. See this place. J. R. Hastings Land Co.

WE GET THE TRAIN

Following close upon the statement in the Dallas papers that Assistant General Manager Everman had gone to New York to confer with the Goulds about the running of another train through to El Paso, came the news that not only was the train that now stops at Toyah to be run to El Paso, but better still for the people of Colorado, the train that now ties up for the night at Sweetwater, will be run to Big Springs. This will be good news for the towns between Sweetwater and Big Springs. Mail for which the business men of these towns must now wait till the next morning, will now be received the evening before and can be answered in time for the east bound train at night. This arrangement will be a great boon likewise to the drummers and traveling public in general. This country is filling up rapidly and the capacity of one railroad to serve it has been taxed to the utmost for the past three years, but these extra trains will do much to relieve the situation.

With this additional train to Dallas and Fort Worth, in conjunction with our handsome new passenger depot, Colorado will doubtless take up another hole in its belt and reach out for yet greater and better things.

ACT QUICKLY

Delay Has Been Dangerous in Colorado.

Do the right thing at the right time. Act quickly in time of danger. Backache is kidney danger. Doan's Kidney Pills act quickly.

Cure all distressing, dangerous kidney ills. Plenty of evidence to prove this.

Lee Powell, living in the southern part of Big Springs, Texas, says: "I don't know as I had any kidney trouble, but Doan's Kidney Pills, relieved me of a severe lameness across my back and loins. There was a constant throbbing ache always present and although I did not quit work, there was many a time I felt like it. The kidney secretions were very irregular in action and passages were accompanied by a scalding sensation. Since using one box of Doan's Kidney Pills, those symptoms have entirely disappeared. I know this remedy to be reliable for just such cases as a mine."

For sale by all Dealers. Price 50c. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole Agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

A good deal of wheat was put in up in Scurry county this year which did so well that a considerable acreage will be planted next year.

PASS 'EM ROUND

As this is the show season and the country is overrun with many rotten imitations, it is doing the country a good turn in handing them around. The Robert Lee Observer tosses the following bouquet at one that recently hit that town:

One of the greatest fakes and about the toughest proposition on the road under the name of Elys Show, pitched their corral in the city Monday night and faked a large aggregation of our unsuspecting public out of 35 cents each. The show consisted of slight of hand work, a performing horse and mule which was good; a girl that handled reptiles which was disgusting and along the latter part of the show a loud and vociferous coon appeared, whose vile jokes would be a disgrace to the lowest slums of a big city.

A CHEAP HOME

A good 4 room house, well finished with 4 lots in south Colorado, 125 barrel underground cistern, also 30 barrel iron cistern, good garden and young orchard all well fenced. Certainly a bargain to anyone wanting a home. At $850, $500 cash. See J. R. Hastings Land Co.

Special Notice.

FERGUSON & PERSON

After due consideration we came to the conclusion to add a line of good, strong, medium-priced MEN'S SHOES, GENTS' FURNISHINGS and WORKING CLOTHES to our stock. We realize and appreciate the fact that just at this time money matters are a little close and it is prudent for each and every one to place their dollars where they will go the furthest and last the longest. With this point in view we placed our orders for Men's Shoes, Gents' Furnishings and Working Clothes. We bought the best goods that could be bought for the money. We are going to put these goods on display for the public inspection and if you buy from us we will say this to you, that every time you decide that your money is not well spent with us we will refund it to you on return of your purchase.

Our Men's Shoes Range from $1.50 to $3.50

We recommend these shoes to have solid leather soles, solid leather counters and full vamp. They have as much style and appearance about them as any $5 or $6 shoes. They are new, they are good.

Our Furnishing Goods

will be a medium-priced, good, clean line, full weight, full size, well made. Try them and be pleased. Our Working Clothes will be the original makers of union-made overalls and working clothes. We recognize the fact that we did not buy the lines in Shoes, Furnishing Goods and Overalls that pay the merchant the best profit. Our object in buying these goods was, we knew them to be fast sellers.

THE SOCIETY REALM

Mrs. J. G. Merritt, Editor

The Woman's Study club met Friday with Mrs. Merritt. A very enthusiastic meeting was enjoyed and a course of study mapped out for the next three months.

The president gave a splendid talk on the aims of the club. Mrs. Vincent read an interesting article on civic reform and mentioned some much needed reforms in our own town. Mrs. Merritt read a short article entitled a sermon for mothers. Mrs. Annis gave two very enjoyable readings which closed the meeting. Mesdames Vincent and Merritt were appointed to visit the public school this week. This to be part of the clubs outside interest. After adjourning light refreshments were served by the hostess. The meeting this week is with Mrs. Annis.

The U. D. C. met Monday with Mrs. Hooper to celebrate J. B. Hood's birthday. Seldom has the chapter enjoyed a more pleasant and profitable meeting. The program was splendid and all on it were present with their parts. Mrs. Burns gave Hood's career as a soldier in a manner which elicited much praise. Mrs. John Doss read of Hood as a private man and passed a picture of his family. The "Second Brigade," Mrs. Dupree's paper on what the U. D. C. means and the discussion that followed was very instructive to all. Miss Dupree's song "Tenting on the Old Camp Ground" was beautifully pathetic. A committee composed of Mesdames G. W. Smith, Looney and Miss Dupree were appointed to arrange a program for Oct. 8. John H. Reagans birthday, after which we adjourned to the social hour and delicious cake and cream was served by the hostess.

Reagan's birthday will be celebrated at the high school auditorium, Thursday Oct. 8th with this program:

Roll Call. Facts about Reagan. Song. Texas Dixie, by school children.

Life of John H. Reagan, Mrs. Merritt.

Solo. Yellow Rose of Texas Miss Hallie Dupree.

Delivery of Crosses of Honor by president.

Song. Tenting on the Old Camp Ground. The Veterans.

All are cordially invited to be present at this meeting and thus show honor to the memory of one of Texas' greatest sons.

The Kindergarten ladies held a market Saturday afternoon in Burns & Bell grocery store. Home made pies, cake and bread were in evidence and went like the proverbial "hot cakes. The ladies made about $12.00 on this sale.

Miss Greenbush wishes to announce that she will give Kindergarten instructions to all desiring same. Her training in Chicago enables her to prepare young ladies for the second year course in Fort Worth or Dallas schools. She will also teach a connecting class of the older children in the Kindergarten after Christmas if the mothers desire it. Start your child now and if it is old enough to enter school next year it will be ready for the first. The primer having been taught at the cost of only $1.00 per month.

Misses Wilson and Higginbotham not being able to teach on account of their desks not having arrived, are visiting the neighbor schools, the former going to Big Springs Wednesday and the latter to Snyder.

The 21 club met with Mrs. Merritt Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Curry. There were seven tables of 42 players and all had a very pleasant time. Mrs. Pearson won the red rose and Mrs. Lupton the bud for most games and lone hands. In a business meeting after the game was finished Mesdames Shropshire and M. C. Knott became members of the club in the place of the Misses Roe who are to leave soon for school. After refreshments of cream and cake had been served the club adjourned to meet next week with Mrs. Person.

The Wednesday Social club was most socially entertained this week by Mrs. R. H. Waldo. The usual good time was enjoyed in playing 42 and at the close of the game delicious refreshments were served. This club is noted for the elegance and hospitality of its meetings and this one was no exception.

The Foreign Missionary society met Monday in the church and began their study of the early missionaries, Mrs. Dodson being the leader. The lesson was most interesting and the course of study promises to be very helpful. Mrs. Arnett is leader for next month.

The Card club met Tuesday with Mrs. Hubbard and a very pleasant time was enjoyed by all. The prizes were especially pretty and the entire afternoon one of great pleasure to the club.

Misses Anna and Jeanette Roe leave Friday night for the State University where they are students.

COLORADO, TEXAS, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 25, 1908

There's a wicked, wicked middle man somewhere between $1 coal at the mines and $10 coal at Colorado.

Mr. Hearst will not get his candidates within hearing distance of election, but he's stirring up the animals in all the cages, at least.

The immediate town of Fluvanna is assuming the growth and dignity of an important business center fast—a $20,000 failure last week.

Judge Robertson, father of the insurance law bearing his name, admits the law has slight defects, but promises to rectify them next session of the legislature.

The people at Grapevine, a small town in Tarrant county are a thrifty set and no advocates of race suicide. During the past year they were responsible for the birth of 422 children.

Editor Whitley of the Bullard Times, besides charging for publishing obituaries, cards of thanks and resolutions, (as every well-behaved newspaper should) doubles the regular rate for all sorts, rhymes and meters of poetry. Poephobia likely.

It's no use—no use. There was a hope that some of our west Texas towns (our money was on Hamilton) might keep at least in the dust of Stamford's seven-league gait, but their ambition has gang a-glea. Stamford has a calf for sale with six legs—makes six tracks! Than such a pinnacle what's higher?

Ten Chinamen were smuggled into the United States last week through El Paso, in a double-sealed car of silver bullion worth a million dollars. They were arrested at Toyah and sent back to El Paso for deportation. Being in a car of bullion, double-sealed and inspected would indicate that "some one higher up" had a finger in the pie.

Success has demanded martyrs in every age of the world, and as the high priest Moloch wields the bloody knife at the altar of science, his cry is ever "More Life, More Life!" Aerial navigation has been accomplished, but the blood of the human sacrifice marks the spot of the victory over the air. The path of conquering Science is as ensanguined as that of a conquering army.

The colored comic supplement to the Abilene Morning News Sunday, Sept. 13th, was a trifle overdue or about nine months premature. Major Ozone, the fresh air crank; Moony Miggles, with his magic cap, and Pinkie Prim, the feline wonder, were all celebrating the Fourth of July with all the fireworks and injuries appertaining. It may be that's the joke—celebrating 4th of July on Sept. 13th.

If some fool frenzied millionaire offered tainted coin our way, We wonder if we have the nerve To resist and tell him nay?

Grandfalls will have a railroad soon, unless present plans woefully miscarry.

Governor Harkell, at all events meets their charges of Hearst like a fighter. He didn't wilt-up like Foraker and quit.

Declaring the Lord had illuminated the crooked places in his life, an Oklahoma farmer has written to a Fort Worth cotton buyer that years before he had sold the cotton buyer a bale of cotton containing twenty pounds of rocks. He asked forgiveness and he amount due, including interest; signing his true name, as he wished to shirk none of the odium of being a confessed but penitent thief. Evidently this man's conversion "took" good and strong, as evinced by his "bringing forth fruits meet for repentance."

Another American girl has gratified her ambition and achieved a great success. Estelle Alexander, a pretty and talented Californian, married an industrious and respected American, a Mr. Belt. Meeting one Prince Robert DeBrogle, a French degenerate and pauper as well, she divorced her husband and married the Prince and sailed for his "elegant chateau" in France. In order to support him in licentious idleness she sang on the stage throughout Europe, sending him weekly remittances. Falling ill and being unable to sing, she sold her earrings to procure the money send to the Prince. The amount being unsatisfactory, he charged her with infidelity and instituted divorce proceedings, alleging adultery. So, she is left without a home, friends, social position and character. But she got what she wanted—a title.

Max Muller is being tried in Abilene this week for the murder of young Turley at El Paso last winter. On his first trial he was sentenced to the pen for life. On appeal the case was remanded and a change of venue granted. This case has no parallel in the annals of Texas crimes. Innocent of the least offense with his hands up, begging for his life, Turley was shot dead. The case was moved to Abilene because justice could not be secured at El Paso. The stroke of Justice has been parried once by juggling with technicalities, but the Record hopes the good people of Taylor county will resent the insult in the assumption that the acquittal of a murderer was an easier matter to arrange in Taylor than in El Paso county. Justice, forsooth! Its the last thing he wants and the last thing he'll probably get. Justice outraged and avenging, is what they are fleeing from. This killing did more to arouse El Paso than any ever committed in that town.

KEEP THE CORPORATION

Individuals the Record is heartily in favor of the present municipal government. Not that we think it perfect or even as beneficial to the town as it could be made, but it is far better than none. The Record has differed with it on its policies of administration at times, but the general benefits have so far outweighed private grievances that it would be a lapse far backward to abolish it.

Those who want the corporation abolished, attribute many things to it for which we think it is not responsible. The deflection of a part of our grade to Snyder, Loraine and Westbrook is attributed to the policy of the city government, the slackness in building operations is also charged to the strictness of our ordinances in the erection of anything but fire proof structures within certain limits. The abolition of hitching and watering conveniences are considered as repressive of trade.

There is something the matter with our town, but we don't think it is the municipal government. Colorado has not received its share of the commercial awakening that has come to almost all the other old towns in west Texas. True, there have been many new residences built, and several industries added but there have been fewer business houses built during the same time than in almost any town on the T. & P. road, of any consequence. People who come with a view to opening a business here have been oftener discouraged than encouraged to come. They could not get houses, get them built or secure lots reasonably. Whether the town deserves it or not, it has acquired a reputation for ultra conservatism, if not unprogressiveness. Like Mohamet it stands still and commands the mountain to come to it.

These are facts—unpleasant, but indisputable. The town must do something to keep up with the march of progress and development around it, but the Record believes the abolition of the corporation would be about the worst thing that could be done. The remedy lies elsewhere and without a municipal government we could never hope to be more than a straggling, unkempt and unprogressive country village. There's nothing wrong with incorporation.

THEY'RE OFF

The periodic spirit of prophesy which breaks out among west Texas towns, as to which will be the child of destiny, the metropolis of west Texas, is now rife, and much white paper, lead and ink are consumed in the gabfest. Abilene thinks all roads lead to that place, and those not leading are pining that way. San Angelo has but one 'sure-nuff' railroad now, but is the metaphysical hub for enough radiating lines to make Chicago look like a tripod. Cisco's Apert claims "four roads leading from" that ambitious burg, while Big Springs with a compassionate consideration for the claims of other towns offers to 'show the man all the way from Pike," that no pent-up Utico contracts her powers. The town has been a little backward about stepping into the ring and being the hub, but since Abilene, S'ngelo, et al, have presumed to look with covetous eyes upon the hubship, the Springs will spit on its hands, take up another hole in its belt (in the figure), and claim its very own. (It has already reached the gas-gushing stage of its oil industry with a few more feet between it and the under side of China.)

Having demonstrated conclusively to itself, in epics that knock the Iliad galley-west, that Col. Metropolitan Destiny has looked over the lay of Shafter Lake, selected his lot, placed a lumber bill, let the contract, set out an orchard, and will return soon "with his things," the Herald reposes in the consciousness of duty well done, and hangs on its ramparts the motto: "Mens conscia sibi recti."

And so it is in the above order they are off in the metropolitan handicap, and may they all win.

There is in every town some one man in every line of business, who gets ahead, not by any superior skill, advantage or ability, but by simply being at his place of business before the other fellows—by being the early bird. If your store is open an hour before the others, you will have just as much of a monopoly in your line on the business that's going during that time, as the Standard Oil has in its field, in a larger way, all the time. Being there before the other fellow, will more than offset whatever advantage he may have of you in capital, professional ability or learning. "Getting there just an' staying longest" was the secret of General Forrest's success.

GENUS DIABLO OFFICIALS

We have a boy working for us who shows the beauty of home training. He is only a boy as the world goes, and yet he is as dependable as many men of mature years. His record day's work is five galleys of 10-point century expanded in nine hours. Who can beat it?—Shafter Lake Herald.

That boy's a dandy. So long as the Herald can feed him on copy and taffy and make him believe he is only a boy and entitled only to a boy's wages, the better for the Herald. Two such boys are equal to our Mergenthaler. He's a wonderful boy and his equal as a typesetter is yet to be born.—Wichita Times.

Yes indeed; but the Times apparently overlooks the possibilities of the salubrious climate and fertile soil of Andrews county, when they willingly consort with prodigal nature. The Diabolo Officials of the genus homo, is an onnery animal as found in most of its habitats. He usually strays into a printing office for work after failing to get a job at the slaughter pen and livery stable. Anything can make a printer or editor, he had been told, and he application for work proves he believed it. He may begin at $2.50 to $3 a week but wants a raise every time the "ghost walks." The first week he is so industrious and attentive to his duties, he hardly takes time to go to his meals or work the water cooler. He's back before "time" and can almost anticipate the foreman's order and the editor's wants. You say to yourself, "here's a boy to give him a chance."

After another week or two in which he has been induced to the inscrutable mystery of a distributing ink on the end of a plank with a six-pound handle with the wood on one handle gone, and become skilled in the trick of a pressman can crack him on the head with the tympan, as well as solved just the proportion of concentrated lie to put in the pot that will eat the tails off all the commas, and crack open the printers' fingers, he is ready, by reason of his proficiency in the preceding degree, to tackle the more literary practices of the craft.

After taking the obligation, he is annotated with ink, shown the sacred type-lice, given a stick and a case labeled for him, and with instructions to "follow 'copy'" he begins on a worm medicine for the week-after-next issue. He is always a native of Missouri, and when that stick of paper is proved and read, it takes a $250-a-day printer four times as long to correct it as it would take him to set it. At this stage he is acquiring the mysteries of the art preservative, he develops such little accomplishments as bending type and spaces with his teeth, throwing "pie" in the fire or cistern, and sweeping that in the floor through a crack. He tries to rattle his rule in his stick like the bum print. At the next case. He loses both eyebrows in testing the inflammability of gasoline on a form. But it is as a whistler the boy in a printing office will go echoing down the air-shafts of history (if he don't go sizzling down somewhere else.) He scorns the lower notes, and as for tune, he couldn't turn one with a hand spike or carry it in a suit case. We have often thought if the office boy would transmute his whistle into hardware, he could stock a store. A gross or so of gimlets, files, key-hole saws and such could be made and enough be left for a wildcat whistle and a steam siren. When his whistle and the job press are both running at the same time the office cat climbs to the roof out of pure professional jealousy.

By this time he has mastered Stanton by Deputy articles and higher artistic flights. He wears an Arm & Hammer brand soda ad cap over his ear, a red-head match in his teeth, manicures his nails with a brass composing rule and refers to the force in the office across the way as a "bunch of rotten blacksmiths." The visiting cards he surreptitiously compounds when the foreman is out, with dingbat, flapdoodles, ornate type and red ink, would make Gutenberg repent his discovery of the art.

But it is when he climbs to the dizzy height of importance, and tries to feed the big cylinder the first time, that the printing office boy reaches the breaking-off point of earthly glory. Ah, if that freckled-face girl with pidgeon toes could only see him then, through smoked glass! She, of whom he set up a local all out of his own head (and apparently out of the hell box as well) to the effect that

Mhe charmlug & faserneting Miss Ari beller Doo littel is viz

Yes, we know him and his ways. We've heard of the prodigies, but we always regarded them like we do Santa Claus and the sea serpent. The first one we ever associated with, fooled us for three days. Since then, we've held 'em guilty until proven so. This first boy looked healthy and strong as an ox and would eat anything that didn't eat him first, and could digest a wedge. Every time, just before he was needed, that boy would grab the office "utility" key and tear out of the back door and be gone ten minutes. On the third day and forty-second trip, our sympathies and suspicions were enlisted. If he was really "took" as often and violently as his haste indicated, we knew there'd likely be a job for the undertaker 'round that shop; so we spoke to Dodger about his condition. (We called him Artful Dodger from the habit word had of missing him.) No, he wasn't sick, it was watermelon, he said. That evening there was a fire in the rear of the print shop—loss nominal, with no insurance.

Dodger denied it of course. His mania declared: "Why, I never saw him smoke a cigarette in his life."

Yes sir-ree, the Herald has a ring-tail-screacher brand of boy.

HAPPILY WEDDED

On last Sunday morning, Sept. 20th, at Toyah, Texas, in the presence of only a few friends, the words were spoken which joined in holy wedlock Mr. J. T. Leavell and Mrs. H. A. Wulfjen, both of Plateau, Texas. The news came as a great surprise to the hosts of friends and relatives of the bride in this city, her former home, and to which all had hoped she would return so soon as her three years residence upon her eight-section tract of valuable school land had about expired. Her pluck in facing the hardships of this then almost frontier life three years ago, was admirable, as has ever been her many lovable womanly traits of character, and Mr. Leavell is to be congratulated upon the selection he has made of a companion with whom to peacefully end the voyage of life. That she too has chosen wisely we cannot doubt, as Mr. Leavell is from a fine old Kentucky family, and is recognized as a man of sterling worth, irreproachable character, sound business principles and financial worth.

The Record joins in congratulations, and trusts their united lives may be one of peace and happiness unalloyed.

COMMERCIAL CLUB MEETS

A meeting of the Business Men's club was held late Wednesday evening. It had been rumored that the mail hacks leaving Colorado were to be discontinued and all mail to Pyron, Durham, Dunn, Ira and Cuthbert would be distributed from Snyder. It was a scheme of the Snyder people to have this done and despoil Colorado of all her mail routes.

The postoffice inspector came in Wednesday and put us next, and the club met at once and appointed John L. Doss, Brooks Bell, W. W. Gross and Dick Pearson as a committee to go to these towns and get a statement from their business men objecting to the routes being changed. The committee, which is an able one, left yesterday for that purpose.

COUNTY SINGING CONVENTION

The Mitchell County Singing Convention will convene with the Westbrook class the first Saturday and Sunday in October.

The object of the convention is to improve the singing and awaken singing interest in the county. The standard of the young of any community may be safely judged by the interest manifested in the song service.

It has been suggested that each class be taxed a small amount to have our minutes and by-laws printed in pamphlet form. If it meets your approval, each class may come prepared to pay one dollar towards defraying this expense.

We earnestly request the presence of all—singers and non-singers, old and young. Come and help make this meeting the best in the history of the convention.

J. C. HELM, President.

"When thieves fall out, people get their dues." It begins to look as if the Standard Oil folks were having some trouble among themselves and were telling tales out of school. Who'll be next to confess to getting some of their money.

An Ounce of Prevention is worth a pound of cure. There are many poor sufferers, Consumptives who are hopeless of getting well—who, if they had taken care of themselves, would now be well. A cough is the foundation of consumption. Ballard's Horehound Syrup will cure that cough. Mrs. S., Great Falls, Montana, writes: "I have used Ballard's Horehound Syrup in my family for years—my children never suffer with coughs. Sold by W. L. Doss."

The celebration, by the Evergreen Rebekah Lodge No. 223 of the 57th anniversary of the founding of the order, on last Monday night at the Odd Fellows' hall was just what everything is that the ladies start out to do—an unqualified success.
