THE EMERY MUSICAL COMEDY COMPANY

Manager V. D. Payne has secured this excellent attraction for Thursday and Friday night Nov. 26-27 presenting "The Governor's Daughter" and "The Little Widow." The company is one of the best traveling, headed by Dainty Phyllis Daye, Soubrette and some twenty others, including: The Ideal Beauty Girl Chorus, The Dixie Male Quartette and five comedians. Guthrie had the company ten nights in early June, a return week in September. Oklahoma City a week in June one in July and still another week in September, which is proof positive of the organization's popularity from near by towns.

The Texas tour includes all the largest cities: Dallas, Fort Worth, Houston, Waco, San Antonio and El Paso. On this tour Mr. Edwin Patterson, the company's manager has engaged, Leo Addie comedian and Haysel Coulter soprano, both well known in Texas with the Olympia Opera Co. Mr. Addie has been the principal comedian and stage director for the past three summers, with the City Opera Company, New Orleans.

A Terrific Slaughter

Unprecedented in the Annals of Colorado Merchandising--Crushing Crowds Attend Payne's Sale

All previous attempts at price-cutting have been eclipsed by the Great 16 Days Sale at A. J. PAYNE'S Store. There seems to be only one motive, and that is to sell this entire stock in 16 days. From the way people were buying yesterday it is hardly probable that the stock will last until the end of the sale. Prices were and are cut with the utmost disregard for former value or actual worth of the merchandise. People bought as never before. As the approaching hour was drawing near, eager, anxious buyers began to assemble, and when the great gong sounded nine the terrific rush began. While the management thought there was ample help to handle all the trade that could possibly get inside the store, they were mistaken. Customers who came to buy portions of this stock were pressed into service to help wait on the throngs. Everything being arranged in a manner that customer could wait on themselves, all the clerks could do was to wrap up the goods. It seems that the ridiculously low prices talked louder than a thousand sales people could. Men bought their winter supplies--overcoats, suits, hats, underwear and furnishing goods as fast as they could be wrapped. We predict the clothing stock will go first. There are 14 more days of this great sale. Fourteen more days the people will have an opportunity in returning. New sales people have been installed to help care for the crowds. We are glad to see the people reaping such a harvest and glad that the management of this store should have seen fit to use the newspaper as a medium to get this sale before the people, and it goes to show conclusively that this paper is read far and wide. People were here yesterday from far-away sections, and today as we are going to press they are beginning to arrive--from even greater distances. These prices made at this great sale seem to have awakened the people to such an extent that they are bargain-wild. Truly a Terrific Slaughter.

MAKE IT YOURSELF

There is so much Rheumatism here in our neighborhood now that the following advice will be highly appreciated by those who suffer:

Get from any good pharmacy one-half ounce Fluid Extract Dandelion, one ounce Compound Kargon, three ounces Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla. Shake these well in a bottle and take in a teaspoonful doses after each meal and at bedtime; also drink plenty of good water.

It is claimed that there are few victims of this dread and torturous disease who fail to find ready relief in this simple home-made mixture, and in most cases a permanent is the result.

This simple recipe is said to strengthen and cleanse the eliminative tissues of the Kidneys so they can filter and strain from the blood and system the poisons, acids and waste matter, which cause not only Rheumatism, but numerous other diseases. Every man or woman here who feels that their kidneys are not healthy and active, or who suffers from any urinary trouble whatever, should not hesitate to make up this mixture as it is certain to do much good.

and may save you from much misery and suffering after awhile.

Our home druggists say they will either supply the ingredients or mix the prescription ready to take if our readers ask them.

A SAVAGE KING

Says the Fort Worth Record is one of the most elaborate and melodramatic productions on the road. The scenery is the finest that the studios can furnish and is painted from photographs made in Mexico. The costumes and stage accessories are very rich and the powerful and thrilling dramatic situations make the play a series of beautiful stage pictures. Though it is a melodrama of the sensational sort, there is not a shot fired during the entire play, and it is possessed of real literary and dramatic merit of a high order.

It is something to be able to say that at least we can herald the coming of a new play full of new ideas, situations and startling effects. Such is true however, of the forthcoming production of "A Savage King," which is put on in a most artistic manner complete in every detail. The play will be seen at the opera house Tuesday night Nov. 17.

ANNOUNCEMENT

For the past eight years I have been County Judge of Mitchell County, Texas. While holding this office, I was prohibited by law from practicing law or giving advice on legal questions in suits in the city court, probate court, justice and county courts, or taking claims, notes and accounts for collection coming within the jurisdiction of said courts.

As my term of office as county judge is now closed, I have entered upon the practice of the law, and will practice in all the courts, both civil and criminal, from the city and justice courts to the supreme court of the United States, and will take claims and accounts for collection, give legal advice, examine titles to land, write deeds, notes, deeds of trust, mortgages, contracts, leases, give prompt and careful attention to any and all business which may be entrusted to my care.

For the reason, that while County Judge, a great many people have come to me with notes, claims and accounts for collection, sought my advice on legal matters, and my services in the courts, and on account of my official position, I have not been permitted to accept such business, as I am now free to accept such business, in justice to myself, I deem it not improper that I make this statement to the general public. Very truly,

W. B. CROCKETT,
Lawyer.

THE DEVIL COMPANY.

The company to present "The Devil" here Saturday night at the Opera House, contains such well known players as Mr. DeRoane, one of America's greatest and most popular artists; Miss Lelia Summerlin, New York's most popular stock star; Jack Foster, one of the strongest leading men the stage has ever known, and many others equally as popular and competent.

"The Devil" is a psychological satire. A play of the school of Ibsen, George Bernard Shaw and Hamptman, but it is raptorial wit, its caustic humor, its blistering sarcasm, it is far and away in advance of the symbolic drama as represented by these authors. "The Devil" is presented as a man of the world, in conventional dress of the day, who comes into the scene and sweeps all before him. His entire career is full of evil.

Beginning by instilling poison into the lives of two people, into whose existence he insinuates himself, he carries them forward to the catastrophe with malevolent cunning and subtle sophistries which fairly take away one's breath. One must listen to his satanic reasoning to appreciate the author's cleverness. He will then realize the lesson the dramatist has driven home with telling force. Its impressiveness can only be realized when seen produced, as it only can be by such artists as Mr. DeRoane and his wonderful support.

The cases against a frosty joint here in which papers of seizure and search were issued were thrown out of the county court, last week for lack of jurisdiction. The constitution providing that such cases shall be brought in the district court.

COLORADO, TEXAS, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 13, 1908

The pecan crop of Texas is reported to be short this year not exceeding 300 car loads.

Mr. Taft denies that he owns a foot of land in Texas, but says his sister-in-law owns a ranch.

The dear voter these mercenary and callous times is more "sufferin'" than sovereign.

Taft is reported to be popular in Russia, but what troubles the great unterrified is the geography of the other fellow's popularity.

The politicians will now button-up their mouths and sit down, while the business men have a turn at saving the country.

Says an irreverent Kansas paper: "The old maid prefers flat irons to a man these chilly nights, simply because she has the flat iron."

Ardmore, Oklahoma, is adjuring the whole world to "Use the Ardmore asphalt." Not for Texas, thank you. She, like Mrs. Partington, can get her asphalt at home.

It has been a bad sign every presidential year when the state democracy and Tammany "harmonize." It's like the lion and lamb lying down together—the lamb on the inside.

After serving forty years as president of Harvard University, Dr. C. W. Elliot resigned last week in the 75th year of his age. He was the first to introduce the elective system of education into the higher universities.

It is reported that Captain Bill McDonald has been converted and will work hereafter in the church militant with song and hallelujah, instead of in the constabulary with the carnal weapons of human warfare.

The presence of cranberries at the grocer's and the occasional yelp of the early marketed turks, are precursors of that season of devout thankfulness, of peace and of good will which pervades the world, in recognition of the spirit of Him who went about doing good.

How long will the south suffer itself to be bridled, saddled, led to the block and ridden by the "money democrats" of the north and east—not to victory, but in a stampede of defeat? We could hardly do less with a real, southern democrat at the head of the ticket, and the issue would be clear cut.

If Gov. Haskell would only hurry on his libel suits against Hearst, Roosevelt, et al., it would fill in the gap between Thanksgiving and Christmas with some mighty tart reading. We would like to hear the virile president lick his chops as he whetted his snickersnee for the contest.

A scandal in the Panama canal construction is hinted at when congress meets. A sensational story has also emanated from some unknown source, to the effect that a subterranean lake had been encountered under the site of the Gatun dam, which would necessitate a change of plans, entailing great additional expense and delay.

NECESSARILY?

"If a body meet a body
And that body's cryin',
Need a body ask a body
Did he vote for Bryan?"

If President Diaz is sincere in his determination to not accept another term in his present place it might be a good idea for the democratic party to invite him to come over here and head its ticket in 1912. He knows how to turn the trick, and the democracy sadly lacks a know-how-er. Dallas News, of course.

The railroads of the United States have released orders for equipment and supplies aggregating $240,000,000 since election day. These orders were placed prior to November 3rd, contingent on the outcome of the campaign. It is estimated that at least 650,000 men, women, and children will be put to work before December 1st. We hope every prophecy of prosperity made by the enemy, our republican friends, may be amply fulfilled.

No use to point out weaknesses in Mr. Bryan, professing to have known them all the while; the fact remains that he made the best fight this time he has ever made, and a better fight than any other real democrat could possibly have made. Democrats were elected governors of several states by large majorities which were lost by Mr. Bryan. There seemed to be democrats enough to have elected him, but outside of the "solid south" he was gutted like a herring by his quasi political friends. They claim to be afraid of his "revolutionary" policies; they might unsettle business and disturb values. If ever any country had need of revolutionary purging, it is this bully country of ours. It will be just as welcome from republican as from democratic hands, just so its straight, clean, and gives no class the power to oppress or molest another in mind body or estate. These were the principles for which Mr. Bryan stood, and if to conduct a free and enlightened government on these eternal principles of right and justice, be revolutionary and unsettling, then the sooner things revolute and unsettle, the better for the rank and file.

Ever now and then, like the eruption of pimples upon the skin, there breaks out the suggestion to partition the state of Texas, and each time the focus of the distemper has been the exact geographical, commercial, and logical center and hence the natural future metropolis and capital of the new empire. But beyond a momentary itching, these rashes have amounted to naught and attracted but passing attention. There has always been a strong local interest in the matter: a loving of Rome less, but Caesar more. Texas is all right as she is—one and indivisible forever. It was this idea for which our forbears challenged the admiration of the world by their heroism and symbolized it in the lone star flag, bequeathing it to us as a rich legacy in trust, to be transmitted in turn, unimpaired, but greater and stronger than we received it. If Texas was not too big for the few thousand sturdy souls who wrested it from a tyrant, how small it should seem to our state pride? Let the young giant grow. Why should alien hands strike off a limb, strip the meat and divide by lot his

Our agricultural friend at Lorraine T. J. Davis and that old veteran F. D. S. Pond left Monday on a week's stay in Coke county on a rabbit twisting expedition. They were both about out of meat and Coke county held out the best inducements as all who go down there get plenty of rabbits.

We are compelled this week to leave out the weekly installment of the serial story "The Voice of Gold" written by Miss Irene Garland of Lorraine. The big sales causing a rush of circular work besides an unusual rush in other lines and liberal space used by our advertisers simply makes it impossible this week. The story will be taken up again next week and run until finished.

Miss Glenn Barfield, who has been teaching a private school at the McKenzie school house, closed the school last Friday to give the children a vacation before the opening of the regular pay term which begins on Nov. 30th, and will be taught by Miss Peirey. A WOMAN'S LAST SAY

EDITOR RECORD:—

While no one wishes for your paper greater success than I do, or entertains a more kindly feeling towards its publishers, yet I must take issue with you on the statements made in issue of Oct. 30 on your article upon having reached the advanced age—"Three years old."

Being the "mother" of the Record, any reflection upon former publishers bears directly upon us.

In regard to the landlords reply, when you endeavored to rent your present quarters, after purchasing the Record from me, "that newspaper established in Colorado up to that time had not made a conscience paying rent." I do not fully comprehend. If that landlord meant to insinuate the former publishers did not pay their rent, he made a statement wholly and absolutely false. For four years we gave the people of Colorado as newsy a paper as was ever published within her limits, and no man can say we owed him one cent of office rent.

The merchant who told your solicitor upon first being approached for advertising that "nobody ever reads the town paper, its money good as given away to advertise", is doubtless still there and not among the present advertisers. Every town has its moss backs. The Record at the time it passed from my hands into yours had I dare say as fine an advertising and job work patronage as any six months old paper ever published in a town of that size.

As to the increase from 250 to 2000 subscribers, we feel sure must have been a typographical error, for our nice circulation and the patronage accorded us by the business men, was the chief reason for your preferring my paper to the older one you came to Colorado to purchase. The young ladies who worked in the diamond ring contest on Xmas before you purchased the plant, alone secured more subscribers than your statement credits us with, while I enrolled scores through my individual efforts. While I must insist that we get our just dues, at the same time we will cheerfully allow the present publishers theirs. Their establishment is a credit to west Texas, and its proprietors a valued addition to the citizenship of Colorado.

Georgia's State Chemist Praaises Cottolene.

Mr. J. H. McCandless, State Chemist of Georgia, before a recent gathering gave emphatic testimony to the high quality of Cottolene. He said:

"The sale of this product, and the proclamation that it is made from cotton seed oil, have done more to bring cotton seed oil truthfully and favorably before the public than anything else in recent history."

Mr. McCandless then pointed out why a pure refined vegetable oil base, such as is used in Cottolene, is the only assurance a woman has of a clean, digestible cooking product.

The lease contracts at the Record office are the best; get one.

Lard Is An Animal Product—Cottolene Is a Vegetable Product

The source of lard is unclean and the product is often unhealthy. The source of Cottolene is absolutely clean and wholesome and the product is as healthful as olive oil.

Cottolene comes from the cotton fields of the Sunny South; it is a product of Nature, refined by our exclusive process. Lard comes from the pig-sty and is simply indigestible hog fat.

Cottolene makes food that any stomach can digest, while lard is the cause of nine-tenths of all indigestion.

Cottolene is the best frying and shortening medium made today. Wherever exhibited in competition with any and all other cooking fats, it has always been granted Highest Awards.

COTTOLENE is Guaranteed Your grocer is hereby authorized to refund your money in case you are not pleased, after having given Cottolene a fair test.

District Medical Association.

PUBLIC SESSION—TUBERCULOSIS TO BE DISCUSSED

On next Tuesday, Nov. 17th, the District Medical Association will meet in Colorado. The morning and afternoon sessions will be strictly professional. The evening session will be for the benefit of the public, and the special feature will be a discussion of tuberculosis. Everybody is invited and urged to attend. The whole world is becoming aroused to the importance of a universal and united effort to suppress the great white plague, the greatest enemy to mankind. The International Congress on Tuberculosis has in co-operation with it the National Association of every country on the globe. It is the design of the National Association to have each state to co-operate in the organization of state, county, town and community associations, until every family and in fact every person on earth shall be taught how to prevent the transmission of consumption. This is without question the greatest life-saving effort ever undertaken in the whole world. Even the Peace Conference at The Hague, born of the most humane and beneficent spirit, sinks into insignificance when compared with the International Congress on Tuberculosis. Every man, woman and child in Mitchell county must become a member of this life-saving army. There is no membership fee to be charged. A free-will offering will be solicited to purchase literature on tuberculosis, and this literature is to be distributed broadcast among the people. The main thing we want is membership to assist in the dissemination of knowledge. Remember, it will cost you nothing to be a member. Now, come on. Don't you lag back. If you do, you will defeat the earnest, organized efforts of millions of the best people in the world. By enlisting in this army you may save a life; by failing to co-operate in this noble work you may cause a death and possibly become a victim of tuberculosis yourself.

On account of a very fine play entitled, "A Savage King," which is to be given at the Opera house Tuesday evening, it has been decided to co-operate with the show, and have our public Medical Association meeting to begin at 7 p. m. sharp, in order to enable those who so desire to attend both the meeting and the show. Remember, the evening meeting of the Medical Association is free, and there will be no admission fee collected at the door, but those who wish to remain to see the play should purchase tickets and reserved seats as usual.

Now, those who wish to attend our meeting must come EARLY, for the program will begin at 7 p. m. sharp and close at 8:30, to allow the show to begin on time.

THE PERFECT WAY

Scores of Colorado Citizens Have Learned it.

It you suffer from backache, There is only one way to cure it.

The perfect way is to cure the kidneys.

A bad back means sick kidneys. Neglect it, urinary troubles follow.

Doan's Kidney Pills are made for the kidneys only.

Mrs. J. R. Owens, farmer living one mile southeast of Abilene Texas says: For several years my husband complained of pains in his back. He could not lift or stoop over without a sudden intense pain darting through him. At night his rest was disturbed by the too frequent action of the kidney secretions. Since using Doan's Kidney Pills he has been an entirely different man and thinks nothing of getting out and doing work now which a few months ago it would have been impossible for him to do.

MERKEL BELLIGERANTS

Saturday afternoon at Merkel, John Burns and a Mr. Bishop engaged in a neighborly rough and tumble fight. Burns was getting more out of it than Bishop, and the latter's son ran up and stabbed Burns playfully several times with his pocket knife.

Sunday night trouble arose between S. B. Davis and C. L. Cash in which Davis received an ugly gash in the neck about 8 inches long, and another on the cheek. Cash's face next morning was considerably discolored.

THE HOLY CITY

A Powerful Drama Ably Presented by a Clever Company.

Not often does the Record give its space in commendation or adverse criticism to the attractions that come and go, but the presentation at the opera house last Friday night of Clarence Bennett's Holy City, is a notable exception. The audience was not so large, but was highly appreciative. It was not the boisterous kind elicited by the melodrama of the modern stage, but a deeper and quiet kind. Vociferous applause was lacking, as when the heckneyed hero puts the finishing touches to the still more hackneyed villain. It was a story of centuries ago, a story of the life and passion of the gentle Nazarene, with a background of oriental splendor and Judean pastoral simplicity. With bated breath the audience leaned to the action on the stage, to miss no word or movement in the several magnificent climaxes. The beheading of John the Baptist, the persecution, trial and crucifixion of Christ, are virtually before the eyes of the audience.

To Americans, reared in a christian land, the story is familiar. So familiar that one fails to realize its beauty and dramatic greatness, until presented in a connected whole, as on last Friday night. We fail to understand why such a presentation should not have filled every one with admiration for the heroism and courage of the early christian martyrs. Nor could the most fanatical purist fail to be clutched by the vivid story story and strengthened in faith.

The work of the company was of an unusually high order. Mrs. Bennett as Elizabeth, mother of John the Baptist, and Mr. Dillas as Marius, the young Roman, were characters of martyr-like courage. Miss Harice, as Salome proved the wonderful influence of a charming woman upon designing and lustful mankind. Altogether, the company with their splendid interpretation of their parts, was strong.

PUMP HOUSE BURNS

About five o'clock Saturday morning the pumping station on the hill near the standpipe was consumed by fire, together with the motor and the pump. Mr. John Hyde who lives near by and who looks after the pump during the earlier part of the night, says everything was running smoothly when he left the station and went to bed, but awoke about the above hour to find the house practically burned down. In the absence of any more apparent cause, the fire was attributable to a hot bearing or sparking of the dynamo. As the water in the standpipe is kept solely for fire protection, the surface tank from which the mains are filled was soon empty, but manager Webb was equal to the occasion and had things going smoothly and ample water by Sunday night. The only inconvenience resulting was a lack of water for sprinkling the streets Saturday.

Miss Sallie Bell Hays of Colorado spent part of the week in Loraine as guest of her friend, Mrs. Ney Carter.

Jim Robertson brother of J. W. Robertson will be numbered among our good citizens another year. He comes here from Anson and will live at the former home of Lee Walker, north of town.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce and children came over from Winston Sunday and spent the night and the next day most pleasantly with their friends Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Thomas.

Tom Lee, Mr. and Miss Lee and little Earnest whose mother died here in January, arrived in Loraine Monday night and will live here in the future.

Miss Isophene Toler entertained a number of her friends with a delightful 42 party Friday evening, at her home in central Loraine. The usual interest was manifested in the game and the charming hostess as usual made the time pass most pleasantly.

Dainty refreshments were served the following guests: Misses Merrell, McMurray, McCarty, Howell, Blocker and Toler, Messrs. Wallace, Childress, Flankin, Gregg, Pratt and Hendricson.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ridens last week.

For the past two weeks we have been enjoying the prettiest weather west Texas has ever known. The mornings and evenings are delightfully cool while the intervening hours resemble that most perfect season known as Indian summer. The skies are as sunny as those of Italy and Switzerland and the breezes are as balmy as those of June and one can scarcely realize that Thanksgiving and Christmas are clamoring for admittance already.

Begin now to save pennies and by Nov. 27, you will have saved enough to see "Dot" which will be presented in Loraine by home talent at the new opera house on that date.

Mrs. Tom Childress left Thursday for a two months visit to her parents in south Texas.

Misses Oma Gregg and Bernha Starling, James Garnett and Robert Henthorn had a most pleasant afternoon watching the flight of quails Saturday.

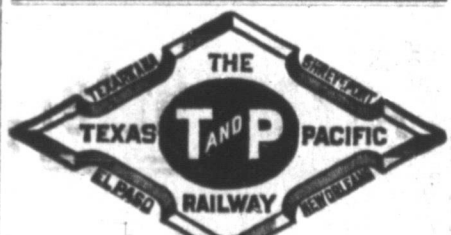

Andrew Courtney who has been in the employ of Sanger Bros. for some time past arrived in Loraine Sunday and will remain here. The young man has many friends among our young people and all are glad to welcome him.

Dr. Copeland has moved to the residence vacated by O. J. Smith and his friends are glad to know that he has abandoned the idea of leaving Loraine, but will remain and continue to alleviate the sufferings of our population.

Messrs Joe D. Garland and James Puckett of Annona, Red River county spent a day or two in Loraine this week seeing the beautiful country round about. They are both extensive black land planters and are on a prospecting tour through the west. They were more than pleased with the country, it having far exceeded their expectations in fertility and development.

The lecture at the Methodist church Monday night was well attended.

The many friends of Jimmy Garnett regret very much to know that he leaves Loraine for Dallas this week at which place he will remain for a while before returning to Kentucky.

ELLWOOD FENCE

This is a picture of Ellwood hog fence. More of this style is used than of all other makes combined. In connection with several strands of plain barbed wire, it puts up a fence that is absolutely pig-tight and will also turn large stock.

ELLWOOD POULTRY AND RABBIT FENCE

THIS IS A FENCE—NOT A NETTING.

A strong and all-important distinction. Is especially designed as a poultry and rabbit fencing, it is sufficiently strong to stop all larger animals. Costs practically the same as the lighter nettings, while in the matter of service and durability it is worth ten times as much.

THE SOCIETY REALM

Mrs. J. G. Merritt, Editor

The play "Goldie" the Pet of the Camp given Monday night for the benefit of the high school piano fund was one of the most successful home talent things ever attempted here. This was under the management of Miss Reaville. The cast and setting were good, the parts well interpreted and the entire play greatly superior to the usual amateur performance. Miss Pearl Ruddick as "Goldie", Mr. Hale The only Judge in the District; Mr. Newly as the father of Goldie; Miss Majors the school teacher; Myrtle Vaughan Captain of the Black Hawks; Earnest Knott, the landlord, together with the school boys each did their part well. The specialties, Miss Higginbotham's readings and the song by two little quakers W. B. and Winnie Davis Crockett were delightful. The play was a success financially too. Miss Reaville took in over $100. After the show Miss Reaville invited the troupe to the restaurant where a delicious oyster supper was served them. This together with the success of the play made all glad that Miss Reaville was their manager.

The Tuesday Study Club enjoyed a lovely meeting with Mrs. Ellis this week. Splendid papers were given by Mesdames Annis and Collier and a beautiful poem read by Mrs. Ellis. The program of next week was read.

Roll Call. Scientific achievements.

Edison's Inventions.—Mrs. Griswold.

Panama Canal.—Mrs. Gross. Story of the Cable.—Mrs. Humphries, and announced that we would meet next week with Mrs. Gross after which we adjourned to the social hour. A delicious salad with cheese straws, pickles, and crackers were served by the hostess. It was noticed in serving that the clubs president Mrs. Griswold was not passed a plate but when all had been helped a tray containing a gift from each member of the club was brought in and handed her. She was greatly astonished and of course pleased to be thus remembered by the women who have enjoyed her as a club member and with whom she is soon to part. The gifts were all different and all for her special use, and will no doubt keep green the memory of the Study club for many weeks.

The Hesperians enjoyed a delightful meeting with the Misses Dry. Excellent papers on the lesson were given by Mesdames Phenix, Shepherd and Radford. The club will meet next week with Mrs. John T. Johnson and this program will be given.

Roll Call. Current events. Leader.—Mrs. Merritt. Parliamentary drill. Lesson Act V. Talk. Stage Types of Lord and Lady Macbeth.—Mrs. Bell. Savonarola the politician and reformer.—Mrs. Leslie. Discussion. Points in the lesson.

The U. D. C held a very pleasant meeting Monday with the Misses Dupee. A fine paper was given by Mrs. Beal, other subjects on the program were discussed by those present, while those absent were carried over to next month when the meeting will be with Mrs. Ratliff. After adjourning a delicious cake of two kinds and chocolate and tea was served by the hostesses, then ensued a delightful social chat before saying good-bye.

Friday evening Nell Ruth Arnett entertained a dozen of her friends very pleasantly. Games were played and all kinds of stunts were indulged in until a late hour when welsch rarebit was made on the chafing dish and served with chocolate and fruit making not a digestible supper but a delightfully interesting one. The young folks all had a good time and are planning another party for Friday.

Our Basket ball team who played their first match game Saturday with the Big Springs team were defeated, but it was a pretty good game. Big Springs has defeated every team that it has played with and our team gave them a close game. The girls who went up Saturday morning are as follows: Mattie Shufford, captain, 1st forward; Beulah Ellis, 2nd forward; Varah Cooper, 1st center; Alpine Fox, 2nd center; Mable Dodson, 1st guard; Omeria Terry, second guard; Ollie Greenwood, substitute. Lillian Liles, Lillie Allen and Mary Arbuthnot accompanied the team.

Mrs. Ingram was hostess for the 21 club this week. Her cosy home was fragrant with the perfume of chrysanthemums, there being vases and bowls filled with them in every room. This being the fifth anniversary of the hostess' wedding, the score cards were beautiful souvenirs of burnt wood with the dates 1903 and 1908 at the top with two hearts pierced with an arrow underneath. Several friends and relatives who were in the secret brought pretty little gifts of wood, but to almost all the announcement came as a surprise. The guests enjoyed a delightful afternoon, at the ever pleasant 42. At the close of the game a delicious salad course was served by the hostess. The out of town guests present were Miss Devoe of Dallas and Mrs. Waddell of Odessa. The next meeting of the club will be with Mrs. A. J. Payne.

The Card Club held a good meeting this week with Mrs. D. H. Snyder. Dishes of delicious stuffed dates on each table were greatly enjoyed by the players. The royal prize was won by Mrs. Bell, the lone hand by Mrs. Hubbard and the guest prize by Mrs. Bromley. Mrs. Homan of El Paso was a most welcome visitor. The meeting next week is with Mrs. Single-ton.

The Kindergarten ladies will have a market Saturday afternoon at Burns & Bells' grocery store. Come and buy your Sunday dinner.

The Wednesday Social club enjoyed its fortnightly meeting with Mrs. Burns this week and a very delightful afternoon enjoyed.

Miss Bess McMurry entertained the G. F. C. Thursday in the most pleasant manner and each guest spent a lovely afternoon.

The young folks enjoyed a pleasant dance Tuesday evening at the club rooms, in honor of Miss Juliette Looney's guests.

A SAVAGE KING

"A Savage King," shown at Byers' last night, was a pretty and elaborate melodramatic production. The scenery was the finest that the studios can produce. It was painted from photographs of Mexico. Costumes and stage accessories were rich and the dramatic situations made the play a series of beautiful stage pictures. There was real literary merit in the play, full of new effects and startling situations.

The above from the Ft. Worth Star is quite a compliment. The show manager assures us the play will be put on here next Tuesday night exactly like at Fort Worth and Dallas and at the same prices. Two sets of scenery is carried one for the small towns and one for the larger towns.

CITY COUNCIL

The City Council met in regular session Tuesday night, with Mayor Earnest presiding and aldermen Burns, Moeser, Knott present, Ratliff and Pond absent. Bills to the amount of $700 were allowed and a report from the treasurer shows a cash fund of $868.45.

The committee appointed to attend to the matter reported on the building of a crematory. A general discussion regarding street work, as the idea was discussed of sprinkling the streets with oil, and abating of several nuisances such as scattering paper on the streets, etc. Complaints was made of the gin as a nuisance near the square but no action was taken.

The interest of the city from several standpoints was discussed and plans formulated for future work.

Secretary Keathley was absent and alderman Moeser acted as secretary pro tem.

The gin at Coahoma has turned out this season between 1300 and 1400 bales of cotton. Where today stands the hustling little city with all the embellishments and utilities of civilized life, the prairie grass nodded to the wind and the hungry wolf sought his food unscared, but a few years ago. Such is the settling of the great west.

Plenty meal and hulls for local trade at oil mill. Colorado Cotton Oil Co.

Saturday was the busiest day Colorado has had this fall. There were more farmers in, with products ranging from cotton to turnips, and everything went like peanuts at a circus. The merchants were all busy as bees in a molasses barrel and they all seemed satisfied with their business.

A few of the Colorado merchants have become alive to the fact that persistent and systematic advertising brings the business, and the Record has run its presses hot the past two weeks putting out large circulars and price lists. Two of the advertisers placing orders for 25,000 and 15,000 with which to sow down the country. Does it pay? Ask those who have tried it oftenest.

The Record saw a man a few days ago on a public street in Colorado, a man with a team of horses, whose necks were in a horrible condition. Their shoulders were not only worn raw, but had suppurating sores on them. The driver was scraping their collars where they had worked against the ulcerated shoulders the day before, so they wouldnt "hurt so bad." Shades of Messrs Angell, Bergh and Anthony Comstock at once.

If the job of grading Front street is finished and is to be left in its present condition, its last estate seems to be worse than its first. The entire street was too low to begin with, and the rational plan seemed that dirt would be gotten elsewhere and put upon the street, already too low, and dumping it on the other side, leaves a sharply defined ditch, along the line of the north curb. A stranger crossing the street at night would be liable to step into the ditch and get a jolt that would put thoughts of damage suits in his head.
