To Change The Date of Next Singing Convention

To Meet At Doans Chapel Fifth Sunday In May Instead of 2nd Sunday As Announced

The following letter from the Secretary of the North Wilbarger Singing Convention was given the Reporter this week for publication. The substance of which has reference to a change in the date of the next meeting of the North Wilbarger Singing Convention, which is to convene at the Doans Chapel the 30th and 31st of May, instead of the 10th and 11th of the same month.

The letter follows:

Tolbert, Tex. March 23, '14
Mr. J. M. Reynolds, Pres. North Wilbarger Singing Convention, Odell, Texas.

Dear Sir:—

The following places have notified me that they have formally decided in favor of changing the time of the next session of the Convention from the second Sunday to the fifth Sunday: Haulk, Maple Hill, Doans Chapel and Odell.

Respectfully yours,
Clara McDougal, Sec.

A Hamburger Joint

A small building was erected this week between the City Barber Shop and Webb Brothers grocery store. The new stand will be occupied by O. E. Hardwick, where he will conduct a hamburger stand.

In connection with the sale of his hamburgers, Mr. Hardwick will also keep beef for sale and later handle cold drinks we understand.

With a moving picture show and a hamburger joint in our town certainly, should be sufficient evidence for people away from here that Odell is spreading out some.

Will Tinsley and Mr. Bewell of Olustee, Oklahoma, were guests of W. M. Scott and family here Sunday night, they were on their way to Electra.

Ford Wins Suit Against Orient In Quanah Court

Jury Gave Him a Verdict of $3,500 for Injuries Received in Smash-up Near Odell

This week in the District Court the suit of H. L. Ford, of Altus vs. Receivers of the Orient R. R., personal damages, went to trial. Damage of $15,000 were sued for.

Plaintiff claimed that he was bruised, back injured and other internal injuries resulted while he was asleep in a berth in a Pullman car on the north bound passenger train through said train being derailed and wrecked because of a dead engine, which had been picked up not far from Odell and coupled to the passenger locomotive and then to the front of the baggage car, jumping the track. The dead engine was being hauled "wrong end first," meaning that it was "going backward."

Under the special charges the jury brought in the usual barred verdict which virtually nullified itself. Verdict was for $3,500.—Quanah Observer.

Moving Picture Show Ready To Entertain People

After Many Hinderances, Proprietor Now Showing Three Nights a Week

There isn't no longer any need of the Odell people to go to neighboring town for moving picture amusement, as an entertainment of this kind can be furnished right here at home. Mr. Archer, the manager of the movie show, has had some disappointments to endure since he first announced that he would put in a show of this kind.

He rented his building, seated it and fixed it up conveniently, in a manner which would be a credit to a much larger place than Odell. All this was done three weeks before any part of his machinery arrived, and then his films come in a week earlier than the machinery for producing them. But at last everything necessary for the show arrived and the first show was put on last Tuesday night.

Mr. Archer intends showing three nights in a week, and will produce pictures of the Universal stamp. While this is his first experience in a business of this kind, his pictures have showed a steady improvement from the night of the first scene.

Big Sales Day

Next Wednesday, April 1st, we are going to have a Special sale on canned goods and give 5000 Piano Votes for every can that is purchased; but for every 25 cent purchase of Baking Powder we are going to issue 10000 votes. You will have no better opportunity than this to get votes on canned eatables, and as the canned goods season is just beginning, remember the date and do not fail to take advantage of this special sale.

Respectfully,
J. R. Huie & Co.

E. J. Rudd, one of the farmers east of Odell was trading in town Wednesday.

Little Three Year Old Girl Apt Speller

Belah May Mathis Spells Long List of Words At M. A. Smith's Store Tuesday

Little Belah May Mathis, the three year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Mathis near here, has certainly a wonderful memory for a child of her age and aptitude for spelling. She was three years old Monday the twenty-third of this month and can now spell a long list of the ordinary words in use, which worry the minds of a great many school children in the third or fourth grade and stall some grown people.

She accompanied her father and mother to town shopping on Tuesday of this week, and in the presence of several people at M. A. Smith's dry goods store, she spelled all the following words without missing a single one, not only these but others equally as complicated: Cow, dog, cat, hen, rat, pup, bed, hat, hog, pig, boy, bird, Mayo, cup, girl, meat, bad, doll, man, bug, run, box, fan, may, Ross, milk, candy, Lonnie, papa, mama, lemon, Bryan, bear, corn, lamp, Buford, Kate, rabbit, horse and syrup.

At The Picture Show

Matinee for women and children at the Majestic Show Saturday evening at 2:30, admission ten cents, also Saturday night at 7:30. Everybody invited.

I. M. Fulcher received a big shipment of fine seed corn this week.

Corn planting is the order of the day with most of the farmers.

It looks like sometimes Mexico wants to war with this country.

The success of your business depends to a large degree on just what you make it.

The Young Men's Business League of Vernon are talking an Interurban line from Crowell to Vernon, and from Vernon to Odell.

Wilson's administration is not responsible for short crops, dry weather and all other earthly calamities over which man has no control, but there are certain features in our Government affairs, which if righted would lessen the cry of hard times.

The Out Of Date Merchant

The merchant who fails to advertise,
Is always the man who "no business cries."
He starts up business, without explanation,
And never sends out the people an invitation,
To call at his store—look over his line,
That cheap goods of quality, they'll always find.
Sure the trade feel, sensibly slighted,
And as result, don't go where they are not invited.
From morn till noon, noon till night,
He thinks his competitors don't treat him right.
He abuses the people, he knocks the town,
A worthless merchant, all run down.
Out of date—a sure back number,
A house where you can lay on a counter and slumber.
He hates the name of Sears-Roebuck,
And says their success is only good luck,
Sooner or later he sees his fate,
A shut door business, in a busted state.

Evidently the women suffragettes of Chicago have confidence in their voting strength in that city. There are seven candidates out with their bonnets in the ring for Alderwoman.

Candidates out for office in this county cannot afford not to announce their candidacy through the Reporter if they entertain any thought whatever of being elected. Odell's voting strength comes next to Vernon.

The dry goods merchants of the town are receiving big shipments of spring goods for their spring trade and are in position to suit the taste of their customers as well as any of the retail houses near here.

William G. McDoo, Secretary of the Treasury, who is engaged to be married to the President's youngest daughter, Miss Eleanor Wilson, is a widower fifty years old, a father of six children and grandfather. His bride to be is twenty-four.

Citizens of Wilbarger should not get blue because it's a little bit dry just now and the sand blows—who knows but what this little dry spell, and rolling of the sand, are but the necessary workings of nature, to bring about a big crop this fall,—no body.

See What's In You

According to science, "The average man has within his system the material for 13 pounds of candles, a pound of nails, 800 pencils, bindings for 16 small books, 500 knife handles, 28 violin strings, 20 teaspoonfuls of salt and a pound of sugar." Without stopping to consider the violin strings, on which cats are supposed to have a monopoly, we may say that we are in the market for about sixteen full grown men reduced to pencils and sugar. We want the pencils for our reporter force and the sugar for delinquent subscribers. —Corpus Christi Caller.

The nearer warmer weather we approach, the more necessary it becomes for the people of the town to keep all unsanitary places clean. "Cleanliness is next to Godliness."

Why Mail Order Houses Thrive

The small town merchants who fails to advertise, lets down his guard to the attack of the mail order house. According to the representatives of one of these concerns, who addressed a recent convention of newspapermen in Chicago, the plan is very simple.

The "new business" department of the mail order establishment searches the country for a community, the merchants of which believe it is a waste of money to patronize the news papers. Relieved of local advertising competition, the mail order men flood the residents of that section with literature, describing the products in which they deal, which the people need, require and use, but which the local merchants lack the enterprise to make known to them. The result is well known.

If the merchant of a particular community, on the other hand, happened to be the kind that advertise only staple lines, the experts of the mail order house are quick to note it. They see that the people are given the very information Mr. Local Merchant has failed to supply them with, and which, experience teaches, is just that which Mr. Average Citizen wants.

It is easy to spot a town in which the mail order houses do a land office business. All that is necessary to locate the kind of a place is to look over the newspapers. If the advertising columns are poorly patronized you may know that the long distance merchants are supplying by mail the information that short sighted local tradesmen fails to give the residents through the medium press. Money invested in advertising in the local publications keeps the business and money at home. —Exchange.

Facts From The Farm
By Peter Radford
Agriculture has never been properly financed.

More than half the farmers of Texas are landless.

There are 24,000 farms in Texas containing more than 500 acres.

Texas farmers owe $200,000,000 and they pay from 10 to 30 per cent annual interest.

The educational problem of Texas is not in the school room, but in the home and field.

The labor problem of Texas today is on the farm and first attention should be given to those who work in the field.

A rural or land credit system is needed in Texas that will enable a farmer to buy a home on long time and at a cheap rate of interest.

COULD SCARCELY WALK ABOUT

And For Three Summers Mrs. Vincent Was Unable to Attend to Any of Her Housework.

Pleasant Hill, N. C.—"I suffered for three summers," writes Mrs. Walter Vincent, of this town, "and the third and last time, was my worst.

I had dreadful nervous headaches and prostration, and was scarcely able to walk about. Could not do any of my housework.

I also had dreadful pains in my back and sides and when one of those weak, sinking spells would come on me, I would have to give up and lie down, until it wore off.

I was certainly in a dreadful state of health, when I finally decided to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I firmly believe I would have died if I hadn't taken it.

After I began taking Cardui, I was greatly helped, and all three bottles relieved me entirely.

I fattened up, and grew so much stronger in three months, I felt like another person altogether."

Cardui is purely vegetable and gentle-acting. Its ingredients have a mild, tonic effect, on the womanly constitution.

Cardui makes for increased strength, improves the appetite, tones up the nervous system, and helps to make pale, sallow cheeks, fresh and rosy.

Cardui has helped more than a million weak women, during the past 50 years. It will surely do for you, what it has done for them. Try Cardui today.

The old White oil derrick that stood on the hill one mile north of J. F. White's residence, tumbled to the ground last Wednesday night during the gale that blowed so hard from the south. HARRIMAN SAFETY MEDAL AWARDED SOUTHERN PACIFIC COMPANY

At a recent meeting of the American Museum of Safety, held at the Hotel Waldorf-Astoria, New York, the Southern Pacific Company was awarded the first of the E. H. Harriman Memorial Medals for record progress in safety, and accident prevention.

The medal, the gift to the American Museum of Safety by Mrs. E. H. Harriman, in memory of the railroad magnate, will be awarded annually by the Museum to the railroad holding the record for progress in safety and accident prevention. It is executed in gold, and on one side is a raised figure of E. H. Harriman with the inscription, "E. H. Harriman Memorial Medal, awarded by the American Museum of Safety to the Southern Pacific Company," and on the other side is a figure of a trainman, with lanterns, walking along a railroad track, with inscription, "For the utmost progress in Safety and Accident Prevention."

The Southern Pacific system operates nearly 12,000 miles of railroad, and during a period of five years just ended has not caused a single fatality to its passengers through collisions, derailments or other train accidents. During that time the Southern Pacific carried over 200,000,000 passengers, more than twice the entire population of the United States, an average distance of forty-five miles. This is equivalent to carrying 9,000,000,000 passengers one mile, or one passenger 9,000,000,000 miles, or 360,000 times the distance around the earth.

This company has expended to date over $12,000,000 for automatic electric block safety signals, air brakes and automatic couplers and other devices for safety and accident prevention. This company has also endeavored to impress upon its employees in every way possible the importance of accident prevention and that "eternal vigilance" must be the watchword of all, from the highest officer to the humblest employee.

There were forty leading railroad systems in the United States competing for the medal.

Light Snow Storm

During different hours last Friday night and Saturday up until noon, snow flakes fell in a thick shower amounting to about an inch of moisture to the ground. The snow was accompanied by a strong wind from the north, although not a intense cold blast. The dampness was great benefit to the wheat and oat crop of the country, but not enough to put sufficient moisture in the ground.
