14 Killed And Many Hurt In Train Wreck

New Jersey Smashup Worst In Years On Penn. Road

DELAIR, N. J., May 24 (AP)—A crack Pennsylvania railroad passenger train, roaring north from Atlantic City to New York with nearly 1,300 passengers homeward bound after a weekend at the shore, wrecked on a curve in this southern New Jersey community last night, killing 14 persons and injuring at least 89 others.

At the break of dawn today, weary workers gave up the search for more bodies and turned to the task of clearing the right of way, blocked since the crash at 10:08 P. M.

And in two hospitals in Camden, three miles south of Delair, police and railroad officials began the grim task of attempting to identify nine horribly mangled bodies, including those of a mother and child to which she gave birth in the wreck. Both were decapitated.

It was the Pennsylvania's worst wreck in years.

W. C. Higginbottom, general manager of the railroad's eastern division, said a preliminary investigation indicated the engineer was exceeding the 15-mile speed limit on a 14-degree curve.

"Early checks show that the equipment and track were in good condition," the official said in a statement, "but definite indications are that the train was moving faster than the authorized speed limit when the derailment occurred."

Investigations were begun by the railroad, local officials and the federal bureau of investigation.

The engine, pulling a 15-car train, left the rails on a sharp curve, plunged down an embankment, dragging four of the cars behind it.

All the cars formerly were pullmans and had been converted to coaches by installation of wooden seats.

Passengers and baggage were hurled brutally to the floor. Screams of women rose above the crash.

Police, railroad crews and civilian defense volunteers struggled to aid the injured and rescue trapped passengers. For five hours workers using acetylene torches cut into the wrecked first car, seeking additional bodies. Then two huge cranes pulled the car away from another, lifted it, and four bodies dropped out. They were crushed so badly that attempts at identification were confined to a search of their possessions.

Two priests climbed into the wrecked coaches to administer to the dead and dying the last rites of the Catholic church.

All available ambulances and emergency equipment was summoned to the scene. An emergency first-aid station was set up in Delair high school.

Tax Deadlock Continues

WASHINGTON, May 24 (AP)—A joint conference committee failed again today to reach any compromise of senate and house differences on pay-as-you-go taxes, but scheduled another meeting tomorrow morning.

Democratic members from both houses arranged to meet later in further attempts to agree on a compromise which they might be able to vote through the conference over the objections of the republican supporters of a modified version of the Ruml skip-a-year legislation passed by the senate.

Next Coffee Ration Will Be Larger

WASHINGTON, May 24 (AP)—Coffee drinkers received good news today from the Office of Price Administration—the next allotment will be the largest since rationing started.

Rubber Workers Expected To Be On Job Tomorrow

DR. JOE J. TAYLOR

Dallas News' 'State Press' Succumbs

DALLAS, May 24 (AP)—Dr. Joe J. Taylor, 73-year-old editor of the Dallas Morning News and one of its more pungent writers, died this morning after a prolonged illness.

Editor Taylor, who attended colleges just long enough to receive an honorary degree of doctor of literature, was regarded in the southwest as a master of the English language. But in the 39 years he was with the News his chief charm was the fresh, wise style he contributed to the editorial page.

Dr. Taylor fell ill last year but continued to work until October, when his physician ordered him to bed, where he remained until his death. Funeral arrangements were incomplete.

"I never have tried to take life too seriously," Dr. Taylor was fond of saying, "and I have always had a regular pay-day." This was in the tone of the humorous, philosophical writing he authored for many years under a column called "State Press," to which he never signed his name.

He was born in Wilson, N. C., July 13, 1869, came to Texas with his family in 1884, settled at Clarksville near the old home of John N. Garner. After work on the Clarksville Times he came to the News, where he rose to supervision of the editorial page. He was married 45 years and had two sons.

Action Flares On Red Front

MOSCOW, May 24 (AP)—Sharp action flared again in the Sevsk area near the important Russian base of Kursk early today, where 44 German planes were shot down Saturday when the region was attacked by a large formation of fighters and bombers.

Two battalions of German infantry were dispersed and partly annihilated by artillery fire, the midday communique of the Soviet Information bureau said. Four more naz planes also were reported downed.

Slight overnight improvements in Russian positions in the Kuban area north of Novorossiisk and at Lisichansk on the Donets river were reported.

Negro Women Are Wounded; Unknown Fires Pistol Shot

An unknown assailant wounded two negro women in the colored section of town Saturday night about 10:30 p. m., according to Sheriff Andrew Merrick, as the women were working in a local cafe.

According to the sheriff, a shot fired from a .32 automatic pistol through a window in the cafe hit Georgia Ross in the right side, glancing off and striking Eddie Mae (Peaches) Jones in the arm.

The woman waitresses were not seriously injured, suffering only superficial wounds.

The women were unable to say who fired the shot but it was believed the assailant was a man. The sheriff's department was investigating the case.

Akron Mayor Confers With Union Heads, Issues Hopeful Statement

AKRON, O., May 24 (AP)—Several fist fights broke out today outside the gates of the Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co.'s plant one as workers reporting for the 2 p. m. shift were met by a shoulder-to-shoulder blockade of pickets participating in a war production stoppage of 38,000 CIO workers at Akron's three major rubber companies.

The unions at the Firestone Tire & Rubber Co. declared meanwhile in a newspaper advertisement that the work stoppage "was quite spontaneous" after a War Labor Board wage decision, and added: "An adequate machinery must be set up for the prompt and just settlement of grievances. Knowledge that this has not been done has caused the stoppage. Confidence that it is being done will start production just as quickly again."

The mayor would not elaborate, except to say he had held discussions with unnamed leaders of the union locals.

Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co. reported 80 and 75 per cent of its first-shift workers reported at 5 a. m. (C. W. T.) while General Tire & Rubber Co. said its full day complement was on the job.

Firestone Tire & Rubber Co. estimated 16,000 of its workers still were out and the B. F. Goodrich Co. reported 14,000 idle.

William I. Vaughn, secretary-treasurer of the CIO United States Workers' local at Goodyear, said about 3,000 returned to their jobs today as some union leaders' prediction that the stoppage would involve an additional 12,000 failed to materialize.

Vaughn expressed belief more first-shift workers would have returned at Goodyear had it been known that a picket line, which he said kept 5,000 from entering the plant last night, had been withdrawn.

A Goodyear spokesman said the company's production was low because of an unbalanced working force.

"We'll be lucky if we can maintain 50 per cent production," he declared. "In fact, our production will be down about 20 per cent because the working force is unbalanced."

"While only one may be missing at one point on the assembly line, there may be ten missing somewhere back of him."

Union leaders said the workers were protesting a War Labor Board decision granting Goodyear, Goodrich and Firestone employees a three-cent-an-hour wage increase instead of the eight cents recommended by a special WLB rubber panel.

Members of the general tire local said their men voted to end the walkout because they were not affected by the WLB decision.

At a meeting late yesterday, Goodyear union officials urged their members to go back to work.

Back-to-work movements restored war production today to all of a half-dozen struck plants of the Chrysler corporation.

The Chrysler walkout, which began last Thursday and ultimately left 24,000 workers idle, was ended formally yesterday by a back-to-work vote of two CIO-United Automobile Workers locals at Detroit. Most of the strikers had ignored a regional WLB order to return to work Saturday.

The great aerial warfare and assaults on supplies and communications continued with 313 planes bagged during the week past at a cost of 61 Russian aircraft.

The Germans continued rushing reinforcements to the front in virtually every sector, piling more guns, men and tanks into areas where the summer blows may fall at any time.

Flood Waters Probably Have Reached Crest

More Land Inundated, However, And Families Evacuated

By The Associated Press

Evacuation of hundreds more families continued today in the flooded middle west, but officially optimistic reports indicated the spreading waters of the Mississippi, Missouri and Illinois rivers may have at least reached their destructive crests.

However, about 50,000 acres more were in the path of flood waters which collapsed the Wolf lake levee extending five miles along the Illinois side of the Mississippi south of the town of Wolf Lake and near the confluence of the Big Muddy river.

These waters rushed into the western quarter of Union County, Ill., and were expected to sweep into Alexander county, compelling some 4,500 residents to evacuate.

Fifty amphibian jeeps were on hand to assist residents in an area 20 miles long by five miles wide. Civilian defense officials who first feared the water might rush on to the Ohio river and isolate Cairo, Ill., said later the terrain was such that the flood would run off into the Mississippi above Cairo.

At St. Louis the Mississippi held steady at a stage of 35.94 feet today and the weather bureau said probably that was the crest, highest since 41.55 feet in 1944. The coast guard reported the situation easing on the Missouri and moved additional boats and men to the Mississippi around Wolf Lake.

Another encouraging report came from Peoria, Ill., where the swollen Illinois river had dropped .03 of a foot to a 28.79 stage from its high of 28.82, at which it held from 2 p. m. yesterday (Sunday) to about 3 a. m. today.

The concrete sea wall gave out yesterday at Claryville, Mo., and flood waters engulfed 23,000 acres of Perry county, isolating 900 inhabitants of Claryville, Bellevue, McBride and Menfro villages. A second break occurred later between St. Genevieve and St. Marys.

Already more than 100,000 persons are homeless and more than a million and a third acre flooded in the affected six-state area where the coast guard, army, state militia, Red Cross and representatives of other relief and health agencies were on 24-hour duty.

The Illinois river started rising again at Beardstown yesterday, reaching 28.8 feet at 3 p. m., where it stood for several hours Saturday when a series of levees in Cass county broke. Red Cross officials estimated that 3,700 Beardstown citizens had been evacuated.

Rivers in Oklahoma generally were slowly falling. The Arkansas river at Muskogee was receding at the rate of one fifth inch an hour. Fed and housed the water drove them out, 1,000 residents of Fort Gibson returned to their homes late yesterday.

Two Money Bills Signed By Governor

AUSTIN, May 24 (AP)—Governor Coke R. Stevenson today approved judiciary and eleemosynary appropriation bills for the new biennium which are $1,698,073 lower than these allotments for the current biennium ending Aug. 31.

He has yet to act on departmental and higher education bills which as passed by the legislature reduced these appropriations by $11,977,972.

Thus the potential savings on the four big money bills is $13,586,045 for the next two years but increases in other appropriations probably will lower the net savings in the state spending to about $8,000,000 for 1944-45.

Ship Losses In The Atlantic Up To 659

By The Associated Press

Announcement last week of the sinking of three United States merchant ships and a Greek freighter brought to 659 the Associated Press total of announced Allied and neutral merchant losses in the western Atlantic since Pearl Harbor.

Announced American merchant sinkings in the western Atlantic now stand at 266, according to the Associated Press tabulation.

Bombers Hit Italian Island Three Times

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN NORTH AFRICA, May 24 (AP)—U.S. medium bombers and fighters attacked Pantelleria three times within five hours yesterday and RAF Wellingtons followed up last night with a block-buster raid on the docks and air field of that fortified Italian island, it was announced today.

The missions encountered no enemy air opposition.

Delayed reports, however, boosted to 305 the number of Axis planes destroyed in the Mediterranean theater offensive by the Northwest African air forces alone in five days, against announced losses of 18 aircraft, a ratio of almost 17 for one. In addition, Middle East and Malta squadrons have accounted for at least a dozen other Axis planes in the same period.

Two of the Allied planes were lost yesterday.

A British Beaufighter of the coastal command destroyed two Italian Savoia-Marchetti 79s Saturday night.

It was disclosed also that 10 medium bombers had been destroyed on the ground in a Marauder raid on the Decimomannu air field of Sardinia Friday.

Sardinian targets were blasted again yesterday and a middle east communique disclosed that heavy RAF bombers smashed Saturday night at the ferry terminal of San Giovanni.

The Allied bomb shower on Pantelleria, which lies in the center of the Sicilian channel, followed a well-laid pattern. The fighters and bombers carried out their assignments with a precision that left waste and wreckage in their wake.

Highlights of the island's day: (1) P-40 Warhawks attacked coastal gun emplacements.

(2) B-25 Mitchells dumped their loads of explosives on the docks with an accuracy officially described as excellent. Bombs hit a medium-sized supply ship and four small craft, one of which exploded. Warehouses on the south side of the harbor were set afire.

(3) B-26 Marauders and bomb-carrying Warhawks struck at the air field, destroying buildings, pitting the dispersal area and scoring hits on both sides of the bivouac area.

(4) The RAF's two-engine Wellingtons took up the work in the night, dropping two-ton demolition bombs and some lighter explosives on the air field and installations of the harbor area, starting a large fire.

The lightning raid on Sardinia was carried out by three separate formations which spread havoc with bombs and cannon fire.

A 200-foot coaster was hit by one bomb and three smaller bombs were sunk at Carloforte harbor, at the southwest corner of the island. Other bombs landed in the dock area.

Two islands bounding Carloforte harbor were attacked. After sprinkling their bombs in the harbor area, lightning shot up a factory building on Piana island and barracks, a gun emplacement and radio office of San Pietro island, on which the town of Carloforte is situated.

A number of bombs landed among buildings in the center of the target area when the lightnings raided an important zinc works at Iglesias on Sardinia 15 miles northeast of Carloforte.

Greatest Blow To Date Blasts Ruhr Targets

LONDON, May 24 (AP)—In the greatest air attack in history, the RAF dropped more than 2,000 tons of bombs last night on industrial Dortmund and raided other targets up and down the water-logged Ruhr valley of Germany.

Scores of four and two-ton bombs and tens of thousands of incendiaries kindled vast blazes in Dortmund, the smoke of which licked angrily into the sky three miles above the city of 500,000.

The weight of explosives loosed last night topped the previous record of more than 1,500 tons dumped May 12 on Dulsberg, also in the Ruhr. The importance of Dortmund had increased greatly recently because the saturation battering of Essen had caused the shifting to Dortmund of many war industries.

The British lost 28 bombers. Returning pilots described the hammer blow as highly successful, although accurate observation was obscured by clouds of smoke and flame.

The raid was carried out in excellent weather.

The magnitude of last night's operations became apparent early in the evening when watchers on the channel coast saw the procession of bombers pass non-stop for two hours toward their targets.

It gave life to the words of Winston Churchill before the American congress last week suggesting that Germany and Italy might be bombed out of the war.

By The Associated Press

London quarters said today the total of more than 2,000 tons of bombs dropped on Dortmund by the RAF in the greatest air attack in history last night was almost five times the amount dumped by the Germans in their greatest raid upon London April 16, 1941, which was calculated at just under 450 tons.

It was eight times the 250 tons of explosives dropped by naz airmen upon Coventry Nov. 14, 1940, a raid which killed 300 persons and injured hundreds.

"Opinion is divided as to whether the use of air power could, by itself, bring about the collapse of Germany or Italy. The experiment is well worth trying so long as other methods are not excluded. Well, there is certainly no harm in finding out. But, however that may be, we are all agreed that the damage done to (see RECORD R-112, P. 3, C. 4)

Court Upholds Rent Control

WASHINGTON, May 24 (AP)—The supreme court ordered the dismissal today of litigation challenging the constitutionality of the delegation of rent control powers by congress to the Office of Price Administration.

In a unanimous opinion read by Chief Justice Stone, the tribunal held that a suit filed in the federal district court at South Bend, Ind., was "collusive" because it had been filed by agreement between the interested persons.

At the same time, the tribunal vacated the judgment by the federal district court which had declared unconstitutional the delegation of rent control power in the emergency price act.

Poll Tax Squabble Comes Before Congress Again

WASHINGTON, May 24 (AP)—prevent some of our own allies from withdrawing from the war.

"Could any intelligent American fall for this tripe?" he asked.

Southern members of the house, meanwhile, pinned their hopes on the senate as a second line of defense to block the bill.

Leaders of the southern group conceded there was little chance of defeating a move to force a vote on the floor.

Behind the move is a group of northern representatives led by Rep. Marcantonio (Ann. Lab. NY), who contend that poll taxes amount to disfranchisement of negro voters in the south in violation of the constitution.

Against them are arrayed representatives of seven southern states levying poll taxes: Virginia, South Carolina, Alabama, Georgia, Texas, Mississippi and Arkansas. Their contention is that the constitution expressly reserves to the states the right to fix the qualifications of electors and that congress would be exceeding its authority by attempting to lay down statutory qualifications.

Rio Grande Valley Needs Rain Badly

MALLEN, May 24 (AP)—A water problem that is growing more acute with each passing day faced the Rio Grande valley today and the only possible relief appeared to be heavy rainfall.

The Rio Grande was at the lowest stages at which it has flowed in two years. The San Juan river of Mexico, a principal tributary of the Rio Grande, is dammed up by the giant new earthen structure known as El Azucar dam at Comales, 75 miles southwest of here, and no great amount of water from that stream is expected for the next few months while the dam fills a large gravity irrigation lake.

The Rio Grande is low all the way from Laredo to Brownsville.

Western Road Trip Turns Out Disastrously For The Yankees

Double Loss Costs Them First Place

By JUDSON BAILEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

The New York Yankees have just completed what was to have been a grand tour of the west and they had about as much success as a motorist with four flat tires and an "A" card.

There was strictly no pleasure in their jaunt—and very little business. Of 14 scheduled games, they were able to play only seven, because of weather conditions. Of the seven they did play they lost six. And besides losing their last four in a row, they lost the American league lead.

The heaviest blow fell yesterday at Cleveland as the Indians captured a doubleheader 3-1 and 5-2 and moved into first place by a full game. Manager Joe McCarthy used his two best pitchers, Earnie Bonham and Spud Chandler, who hurled five-hit and six-hit ball, respectively. The Yanks were checked by southpaw pitchers—Al Smith and Chubby Dean—while the Indians bunched their blows for three runs in the third inning of the first game and four in the sixth stanza of the second game.

The upheaval in the American league was the big feature of the season's first inter-sectional strife. After two days off for travel it will be resumed Wednesday with the National league clubs playing in the west and the American league clubs in the east. Although the American league had been plagued by bad weather for more than a week, all clubs in both leagues managed to play yesterday and drew the biggest single day attendance of the season, 211,645.

The largest crowd was at Philadelphia, 37,176, to see the amazing Phillies divide a double header with the Pittsburgh Pirates. The Phils' six-game winning streak was halted as the Pirates bagged the first game 4-1 on five-hit hurling by Rip Sewell, but the Phillies bounced right back to win the nightcap 5-2.

Brooklyn had a sellout crowd of 11,507 as the Dodgers downed the Cincinnati Reds twice, 3-0, on Ed Head's four-hit pitching and 3-1 in a game partly decided by Johnny Vander Meer's wildness. He gave nine walks in seven innings.

The Cards humbled the Giants 5-5 and 4-2 before a crowd of 24,250. The two contests produced five "Polo Grounds" home runs. Walker Cooper hit one of these with two on in the first game and Lon Klein hit a round-tripper with two aboard in the sixth inning of the nightcap. Dick Bartell, Joe Orango and Nick Witke produced the circuit clouts for New York.

The day's best pitching was at Boston where the Chicago Cubs beat the Braves twice 2-1 and 1-0 in ten innings. Charley Barrett held the Cubs to three hits, although losing the opener. Hi Bithorn pitched two-hit ball to seal the nightcap.

The Washington Senators' grip on third place in the American league was enhanced by an 11-0 shutout of the Chicago White Sox in a single game. Weather forced postponement of the other half of the double bill.

Detroit beat the Boston Red Sox 4-3 and then dropped the second game 3-2 in ten innings and Philadelphia and St. Louis also split. The Browns took the first on four-hit pitching by Dennis Galehouse but the Athletics squeezed out a 3-2 win in the nightcap with Jesse Flores getting credit for his fifth victory against one defeat.

During the past decade the 12 corn-belt states increased their acreage of hybrid corn from 144,000 to 58 million acres.

Almost Won Trophy—Three cadets carefully selected to represent the Big Spring Bomber School in the first round of the Bombing Olympics almost grabbed the pickle barrel trophy at Childress Sunday. They were close behind the team from Deming, N. M., winner of the event. Cadet Lawrence Lifshus, Brooklyn, (center) squints a pair of eagle eyes at an assignment, while his Big Spring school mates, Cadets Thomas H. Black, Jr., Evansville, Ind., left, and Gustaf E. Johnson, Brockton, Mass., look on. Lifshus was barely noted out by Joseph Merel Arnoff, Deming, N. M. cadet, for all-American bombardier honors.

Local Team Places Second In Bomb Competition

Three cadets from the Big Spring Bomber school barely missed first place honors and one of them came mighty near winning the "all-American bombardier" title Sunday at the first flying training command precision bombing olympic at Childress.

Twenty-four cadets from eight schools participated. Stocky Joseph Merel Arnoff, 20, ors and a pickle barrel trophy in the meet.

Stocky Joseph Merel Arnoff, 20, from Deming, was top bombardier for the day, nosing out Lawrence Lifshus, 23, of the Big Spring school. Some dispatches said that Arnoff won by "inches" as the bomb droppers let loose from 10,000 feet at a pickle barrel placed on a 30-foot target.

The barrel escaped destruction, but practice bombs hitting nearby covered it with dust.

The teams finished in this order: Deming, Big Spring, Childress, San Angelo, Tex.; Victorville, Calif.; Midland, Tex.; Roswell and Albuquerque, N. M.

Big Spring's top bombardier is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Lifshus, 2007 E. 2nd street, Brooklyn, N. Y., and is a graduate of the Abraham Lincoln high school in Brooklyn. He likes swimming and boxing, has a flair for writing and in civilian life was salesman for a fur company.

Other Big Spring team members were: Thomas H. Black, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Black, 17 E. Powell Ave., Evansville, Ind.; graduate of that city's high school and student in Lockyear's business college; a stamp-collector and a music-writer hobbyist and an accountant by profession.

Gustaf Ernest Johnson, son of Gustaf Johnson, Brockton, Mass.; graduate of that high school and a student in an aviation mechanic school; talented in modeling and sports, and a sailor on racing yachts and an airplane mechanic as a civilian.

'Wandering Cue' Talks For Peterson

By KEN DAVIS
AP Features

ST. LOUIS—A slender shaft of hardwood, glossed with the patina of much handling, probably is the most traveled bit of sports equipment in the world.

It's the billiard cue used by Charley Peterson, veteran ace of the trick shot artists. Charley has been at the business of amazing the billiard public for so long a time many contemporaries were doing tricks with nothing more difficult than glass nursing bottles when the St. Louisian first began touring.

Back in 1921 when the cue was just a youngster, Peterson, then touring the country with Willie Hoppe, originated in Boise, Idaho, his most famous trick, the "dollar shot." Placing a silver dollar on edge between two chalk cubes at one end of the table, Peterson cues the coin so it rolls to the table's other end, rebounds from the cushion and rolls back between the two cubes—without touching either cube.

Other shots nearly as amazing made that first trip so successful, Hoppe and Peterson repeated the tour annually for several years.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

NEW YORK, May 24 (AP)—The order cutting gasoline rations for buses 40 per cent in the east may be the finishing wallop for a lot of sports that hoped to get by this summer because they had bus transportation. Golf courses likely will feel it the most. Even the AAU track championships were depending upon buses. The major baseball parks, horse tracks and boxing amphitheatres likely won't be affected.

Another peculiar situation is that athletes—even sandlotters—who play for pay can use their cars to drive to work but the customers have to find some other way to get there.

Tulane, one of the few southern colleges that skipped spring football practice, reports one of the most successful baseball seasons on record. The team was coached by little Monk Simons, who usually is busy with other duties during the baseball season.

TODAY'S GUEST STAR
Tommy Tucker, Cleveland News—Manager Joe Cronin is unhappy about his Red Sox. The team lost so many stars since last season it is now rated one of the weakest in the league. But I have little sympathy for any club in that situation. If the Red Sox hadn't had Williams, DiMaggio and other such stars in the first place, they wouldn't have suffered such a drop in power. . . . The Indians, for instance, they were smarter.

SERVICE DEPT.
Jockey Frank Earley, a New Orleans boy now riding at Suffolk Downs may be the first "veteran" to return to sports competition after seeing action in this war. He survived a torpedoing while on navy duty in the South Atlantic and recently was discharged because of a back injury.

TWO MARINES FROM TEXAS HONORED
WASHINGTON, May 24 (AP)—Sgt. Johnnie W. Blackman of Tyler, Tex., and Corp. Charles E. Snelling of McAllen, both 20, were among two officers and ten enlisted men of the United States marine corps who received letters of commendation for heroic action during the initial assault on Gavutu Island in the Solomons area last August 7.

Blackman's mother lives at 116 West Ione St., Tyler. His citation told her, during the attack, in the face of heavy fire, he "led his squad into caves occupied by the enemy and by courageous and decisive action silenced the hostile fire."

Snelling's wife, Mrs. Hazel Snelling, lives at McAllen. Marine corps headquarters, announcing the award, said that although exposed to heavy Japanese machine gun and sniper fire, Snelling "courageously entered four caves occupied by the enemy and silenced the hostile fire."

New Officers Take Over At Navy School

ATHENS, Ga., May 24 (AP)—Thirty new officers, including former college coaches and representing a cross-section of America's athletic leaders, have assumed their duties of training future navy fliers at the pre-flight school here.

Perhaps the best known of the recently added instructors is Lieut. R. E. (Rex) Enright, former football coach at the University of South Carolina and one-time Notre Dame and Green Bay Packers star.

Also on the pre-flight staff is Lieut. (jg) Norman T. Earl, director of athletics and physical education for the Fort Worth, Tex., public schools.

Wins Promotion To Warrant Officer

Appointment of Leonard C. McDonald of Sterling City as a warrant officer, junior grade, has been announced at the Lubbock Army Air Field. Promoted from staff sergeant's rank, he has been a ground school instructor at the big twin-engine advanced flying school at Lubbock since Feb. 14 of last year.

McDonald was a three-year letterman in football and president of the student council at Abilene Christian college, from which he was graduated in 1940. ## Only Two Nags Run Against Count Fleet

NEW YORK, May 24 (AP)—Even Mrs. John D. Hertz will admit that her Count Fleet isn't a beautiful colt and polite turfmen say the winner of the Kentucky Derby and Preakness lacks conformity.

But the way the budding three-year-old turf champion frightens his rivals is a caution.

At Belmont's 68th running of the Withers mile Saturday the $750 prize for fourth actually went unclaimed as only two colts had the courage to compete with the Count.

He agreed with the majority by winning with a six-length advantage and doing the distance in 1:38 on a slow track. In the mutuels the Count returned the absolute minimum of $2.10 for $2.

W. E. Boeing's Slide Rule won $3,000 and Belair Stud's Tiptoe $1,500 for their courage and effort.

COAL OUTPUT

Norton Must Build Grid Team Without Single Letterman

COLLEGE STATION, May 24 (AP)—One year ago the sports critics called them "the lucky Texas Aggies." Of all schools in the southwest, they said, Texas A. and M. football would be least affected by the war.

"It's the largest military college in the nation and the boys there already are doing the necessary training," the critics observed. "They won't be called up until they finish."

Today Coach Homer Norton faces another season without a single boy in the 7,000-student all-male school who ever played college football before.

He has three lettermen and one squadman right now but it won't be long. Barney Welch, his only veteran back, is not even returning to school next fall. He's in the enlisted reserve and expects to be in the army by September. Henry Foldberg and Walter Steymann, tackles, are in the same position.

It would seem a good spot for a coach with Norton's record—two Southwest conference championships, one tie and three bowl appearances—to exit with: "We should forget football and put everything behind the war effort."

But not so the genial mentor of the Aggies.

"Football is a contribution to the war effort," he says. "It develops manpower for the greater game. Texas A. and M. will have a football team next fall so long as I can put eleven men on the field."

Physical Fitness Call Pilot's Most Important Asset

PHOENIX, Ariz., May 24 (AP)—Because nearly all combat pilots of the U. S. army air forces are former athletes, Major Raymond V. Schwaback, veteran of more than a year's fighting in the Pacific theater of war, believes a good physical condition is a flyer's most important asset.

"Not all first pilots in the combat zones are former athletes," the 30-year-old major from Ash Fork, Ariz., said, "but most of them are. There must be a reason."

Texas Horse Sets New Record In Mexico Race

MEXICO CITY, May 21 (AP)—John L. Sullivan's Air Master won the $4,000 added Handicap Nacional at the Hipodromo De Las Americas today, setting a new track record in running the one and one-sixteenth mile distance in 1 minute, 45 4-5 seconds. Winning by ten lengths, the Texas horse paid 5 to 1.

Wlsbeck, another Sullivan horse, also won a race. Pancho Rodriguez, former Lower California jockey, rode both winners.

Two other Texas horses, A. R. Eppenauer's Jose Espy and T Bar, also won races.

The enemy was pushed back here today!

EVER see a newspaperman's desk at the end of a crowded day—ash-strewn, paste-smearred, littered with the grist of the news mill that never stops?

It's hardly to be compared with the desk of a great general—and yet the enemy was pushed back here today!

Pushed back by another 24 hours of truthful reporting . . .

Pushed back by community leadership in myriad war activities from bond selling to tin can salvage . . .

Pushed back by the little things that help build and sustain a nation's morale—the personal items, the pictures of the boys at the front, the helps on the home page, the laughs on the comics page and the information and inspiration throughout the newspaper.

Yes, the enemy was pushed back here again today.

He will continue to fall back so long as American newspapers have anything to do about it!

L'Stock Auctions Create A Strong Market Here

The Big Spring Livestock Auction company, operated by A. L. Cooper of this city, is creating a market for the livestock of this part of West Texas that is as good, and in many cases better, than the biggest and best markets in the state.

Many recent sales at the auction prove this point. One sale that was made here on April 21 is quoted here as an example of the prices and services that can be had at the auction which is held each Wednesday at its ring just east of the city.

A prominent ranchman recently sold two hundred head of stocker cattle to another ranchman of this district for an agreed price of 140 per pound. Both buyer and seller were well informed on current prices for animals of this character and agreed that this was a fair price. When the cattle were delivered, nineteen head or about ten per cent were refused by the buyer, on the ground that they were culls. These culls and cutbacks were brought by the original owner to the Big Spring Livestock Auction company and sold through its ring on April 21 for an average price of 18.70c per pound, the ranchman thereby receiving practically as much for the culls as he got for the picked cattle. It is therefore reasonable to assume that had he brought all the cattle to the auction in the beginning, he would have received an average price of possibly 15c per pound. This incident conclusively proves that this auction is one of the top markets of the state.

Compress—Major factor in the all-important cotton industry is the compressing, and a major industrial unit in this section of the state is the Big Spring Compress company, a part of whose plant is pictured above. This company, which processes cotton from all the Big Spring area and from as far west as Pecos and Barstow, operates a high density press, and can handle as much as 1,000 bales a day. Storage capacity of the compress is 18,000 bales. The Big Spring Compress company has been one of the city's major industries since 1924. (Kelsey Photo.)

Owners of Frigidaires will find the announcement from Taylor Electric shop that they can now get authorized parts for their machines most welcome news in these days of shortages.

In the past, the company has serviced all types of refrigerators but in the future the shop, as dealer for Frigidaire, will concentrate on servicing this make.

Parts for both commercial and household boxes will be available, according to the owner and manager, Elton Taylor. Taylor also advised that Frigidaire owners should have their boxes checked twice a year to reduce wearing out of scarce parts. The shop is ready at any time to make a check of the boxes.

Now in its new location at 212 East Third street, next to the Settles hotel, Taylor Electric company is well equipped with competent service men.

Employees include Leo Sheppard, Mickie Beale, Lucian Underwood, Ray Martin and Jim Scroggins as well as Taylor. These men with two more service men who will be added soon can handle repair of any type of electrical appliance and motor work. With the addition of these men, the shop is in a better position than ever to give first class service to customers.

Taking care of what you already have is the watchword of every household in war time and keeping vital Frigidaires in good repair is only common sense. A check of equipment at stated intervals adds up to better service for the owner of the box and easier replacement of parts.

Oscar Glickman, who operates the local store, went into the record and phonograph business 20 years ago, and has seen his business flourish from depression to prosperity due to the popularity of the nickelodeon and record players in recent years. At the present time, Glickman services around 30 nickelodeons in Big Spring, supplying them with the latest releases in musical recordings.

Next week, the Record Shop will sponsor a scrap record collection drive in the local schools in an effort to secure old records, cracked and out of date, which will be turned in for new ones. Because of shelling which now is used in war work, the supply has been cut down for commercial use. In order to keep records in circulation, customers are asked to bring old ones in exchange for new.

The Record Shop is sponsoring a scrap record collection have already started a collection of their favorites in record albums. Glickman explained that a large number of service men receive albums as gifts from the folks back home, since record players in the day rooms at the local field are at their disposal.

United States Rubber company announces that its nation-wide U. S. Transportation Maintenance Program, successfully in operation for the past year, will be greatly expanded and supplemented to help get the country over the "last hump" of tire shortages.

prime of life, busy women with many obligations toward children and homes, while others have regular jobs in offices. This type contributes scant leisure time to work at the surgical dressing room on Monday evenings.

In June of 1942, the war department requested the Red Cross to make large numbers of surgical dressings because commercial manufacturers could produce only a small percentage of the vast number needed. The American Red Cross accepted this challenge and obligation knowing their workers would welcome such opportunity.

This vital and necessary work is one of the most important services rendered by the Red Cross. It is also one that should attract more volunteers than any other because of the strong humanitarian appeal. It is given to few women in wartime to administer directly to the sick or wounded soldiers, but the privilege of making dressings for them is given to all.

Your Red Cross needs YOU at this time to do the work which must be done!

There are only three requirements which must be regarded while working at the room. Wear a cotton wash dress, wear a head dress, and do not wear nail polish while folding bandages and dressings.

GET YOUR MAN

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Features Writer

Girls—do you want to know how to meet men and marry? It's really very simple. You have to have a one-track-mind—about marriage.

That's the advice of Juliet Farnham, author of "How to Meet Men and Marry," published by Simon Publications, New York.

It makes no difference whether you're tall, small, fat or thin; if you know your type, there's a man for you, says she. He may be just around the corner, sitting on your front porch or half way across the world from you. But, once you understand him, you've practically got him hooked.

If you are the intelligent type—then the stay-at-home male, the pipe smoker and the aloof intellectual are your "best bets."

Even the casual Romeo, the just-romantic type and the man-about-town can be middle-aisled "if you've got the right technique—and use it."

"Only a minority of men who aren't Canadian guides" prefer the athletic girl, says she. Her field usually has to be an athletic male who would rather chase a golf ball than a skirt. But at least it will give her a chance to exercise her wiles—if she has any.

If it's your surroundings that are all wrong, that's easy. If in the East, go West young gal—to Detroit, Milwaukee, Duluth or Denver.

Ruddy mid-westerners are usually attracted to the Eastern girl. While the Southern lass will go over big in the "Nawth."

Miss Farnham is of the opinion that women spend too much time worrying about men—"Why did he do that?" or "What made him say that?"

"Think nothing of it," says she, "if he acts as though silence is platinum and doesn't write much, if he goes vague and doesn't date you when he leaves or if he acts

Why butter won't melt in Africa

As EVERYBODY KNOWS, butter will melt unless you keep it cool. And the African desert isn't cool.

Nevertheless, the Americans who are fighting there carry butter—and it doesn't melt.

It doesn't melt because it's fortified with a fat which has a high melting point. The result is a butter which can be packed in a can, like beans or beef, won't melt, and will keep indefinitely.

You might think our soldiers could get along without butter. They could. But—they don't have to! Butter is good for them—and Uncle Sam is seeing to it that American soldiers are the best-fed, best-equipped, best-cared-for soldiers in the world!

Of course, it takes money to do that. So much money that, to help pay the bill, every one of us must loan every dollar we can to Uncle Sam through War Bonds.

War Bonds are a swell investment. They pay you back $4 for every $3. Save part of every paycheck with U. S. War Bonds!

Capital Comment Texans Speak Up On Labor Legislation

By GEORGE STIMPSON
Herald Washington Correspondent

I am loath to admit it, but I would be less than candid if I did not tell my readers that sometimes when I am writing under pressure I crew the small end of my neck tie.

One of the hardest things about being a Washington correspondent these days is keeping secrets. I had known for several days before it was announced that Prime Minister Winston Churchill was in the city again, but I couldn't breathe a word about it to anybody, not even the Press Club cat.

Only two things are absolutely certain — death and the Ruml plan.

Some of the debate in the greatest deliberative body in the world is simply terrific. Sen. Tom Connally was complaining that the Senate leadership taunted him on the ground his anti-strike bill didn't have any teeth in it. "Then, Mr. President, just so soon as we put a couple of little milk teeth in it, they want to call in the dentist and have him pull out the two teeth we have in it, by sending it back to the judiciary committee as a nursing home." Majority Leader Alben Barkley: "The mere operation of taking out a couple of milk teeth does not necessarily justify putting in two sets of false teeth." "Well, the senator from Kentucky is more familiar with false teeth than is the senator from Texas," rejoins Senator Tom. "I am willing to undergo an inspection on the premises if the senator desires it," says Dear Alben. "No," replies Tom, "I don't care to undergo an inspection of the senator from Kentucky."

Where was Sen. W. Lee O'Daniel during the debate on the anti-strike bill? He was there and voted against sending the Connally bill back to committee and then for the measure. "Since coming to the senate," he explained, "I have introduced several bills which I believe would tend to reduce the cause of much of the trouble which has been brought on by labor — leader racketeers. I believe we should now consider the whole labor situation and enact legislation which would bring about better conditions and stop the strikes which are retarding the war effort. However, the bill under consideration, which is sponsored by my worthy colleague, the senator from Texas, deals with an entirely different subject. It deals with labor conditions in those plants which have been or may be taken over by the government after a lockout or a strike." O'Daniel explained that Connally preferred to keep his bill in that category and would rather not have amendments offered that would retard its passage. "I recognize the wisdom of my colleague in desiring to keep his bill free from highly controversial amendments," declared O'Daniel. "Out of respect for him I have refrained from offering my amendments." "I thank my colleague for his generous attitude," replied Connally. "I am glad he has taken the course which he has taken in not insisting on the amendments to the bill."

O'Daniel then offered his series of amendments for consideration as amendments to other bills that may later come to the floor. These amendments, in his own words, "should abolish force and violence in labor disputes; they abolish the closed shop, abolish the 40-hour week by abolishing premium pay for all hours over 40 per week; unsumable employers so that they may at least have the opportunity of speaking and talking to their employees; abolish coercion of employees by anybody, and abolish forcing employers by law to hire thugs and violators of the law, or deal with that class of people as representatives of labor unions." He said he would continue to put forth every effort to get his bills out of committee so they can be considered on the senate floor at the earliest possible date. "I think it is high time that labor leader racketeers be curbed and prevented from interfering with and retarding the war effort."

This morning Altvain Clark, Congressman Worthy's secretary, introduced me to W. E. Boyles, former Panhandle oil man, now director of rent control at Pampa. . . . WFB Director Don Nelson sends out pointers on how to conserve paper: I get four copies of his statement . . . Washington is a great church city and every Saturday and Sunday the leading dailies devote many pages to church news and announcements. . . . Congressman Dick Kiberg has shifted from boots to shoes; says he has finally found a pair of shoes that don't hurt his feet. . . . Just met Congressman Ed Gossett, of Wichita Falls, going up to National Press Club to see preview of Australian war movies. . . . "A home front soldier," says Congressman Wright Patman, "is a bond buyer." . . . Global gossip is now Washington's favorite indoor sport.

American Products Turn Up In Enemy's Hands

By JACK STINNETT
WASHINGTON — There really wasn't any mystery about the fact that the Yanks, barging into Mateur, found among captured booty 300 pounds of California prunes.

When you recall that only a few weeks ago, our Army was itself retreating in Tunisia, it's not surprising that the Nazis turned up with a few American supplies.

But when this war is over, or maybe sooner, there will be a good story about how the Japs have fought on our supplies. A young officer recently back from the Pacific told of a commando raid on one of the smaller islands preceding the battle for Guadalcanal. The Marines made short work of taking over, and the Japs had very little opportunity to destroy their stores.

Imagine the landing party's consternation to find case after case of soups, vegetables and meats bearing nationally advertised United States product labels. Later they came upon the huge caches of oil and gasoline, all U.S.A. products. They found trucks, typewriters, machine guns, rifles and ammunition, all manufactured in this country, and although the radio station equipment was smashed to bits, they were convinced that it too was made here.

Of course, this doesn't mean that American shippers have been supplying the Japs since Pearl Harbor. That stuff probably came from Shanghai, Hongkong, Singapore, Manila, Burma, etc. But it does prove that the Japs are making use of everything they have been able to lay hands on.

The move to make our boys in the military forces the best taken-care-of of any in the world keeps right on.

Rep. Jerry Voorhis, of California, has dropped three bills in the hopper to give the boys additional benefits when they come back. The most important of these to most of the youngsters who have had their education interrupted is a measure which would provide grants of $500 a year for up to three years to aid ex-service men in finishing their schooling. If post-war living costs get back to normal, that would make it possible for any young man to complete his college training, if he

RKO Launches A Real Program Of Horror Films

By ROBBIN COONS
HOLLYWOOD — The one-man horror cycle over at RKO now is out of the fairy-tale stage. It is getting into the deeper waters of horror in a realistic human situation.

The horror man is Val Lewton. Val is the producer assigned by production chief Charlie Koerner to turn out a series of staple film chills as part of the studio's new program. Charlie threw a title at him, no more, and the terror was on.

The horror man is Val Lewton. Val is the producer assigned by production chief Charlie Koerner to turn out a series of staple film chills as part of the studio's new program. Charlie threw a title at him, no more, and the terror was on.

Val is a genial gent, not particularly interested in the morbid side of life, but he tackled the title with his writers and out of the tussle came "The Cat People," a thriller-diller. Since then there have been "I Walked With a Zombie" and "The Leopard Man," and soon there'll be "The Curse of the Cat People," strictly to capitalize on the first hit.

"All fairy tales," says Lewton. "This one, now, is different. It's just a story of people. There's horror in it, but the horror springs, not from some fantastic premise, but from human evil or the abandonment of good."

This one, now, is "The Seventh Victim." As in its predecessors, there are no mysterious clutched hands, no disappearing panels, no concealed vaults or other trappings of conventional shriek-and-shiver stuff. DeWitt Bodeen and Charles O'Neal whipped up the story from scratch, without a title to guide them.

"It's easy that way," says Bodeen, "gives us more leeway." The Lewton horror formula, if there is one, depends on suggestion rather than statement for its chilling effect. It lets the audience see in the artfully placed shadows what it wishes or fears to see — and audiences can envision any number of delectable horrors if urged into the mood.

There are also touches like the character Evelyn Brent plays—a ballet dancer frustrated by loss of an arm.

Some of the touches in today's scene aren't meant for audience consumption. They're whimsies of a horror man. The setting is an Italian restaurant. On one wall is a mural depicting Dante and Beatrice. It suggests a famous painting, but it is taken from the trademark of a well-known Italian olive oil—the painting being copyrighted, the latter not. Beneath the figure of Dante is the table where sits Erford Gage, who plays a poet in the film.

"Somebody might notice it, but probably not," says Lewton, "that we have our poet sitting at the feet of Dante, and the Beatrice of the mural — she's modeled after our heroine, Kim Hunter."

Washington Daybook— American Products Turn Up In Enemy's Hands

By JACK STINNETT
WASHINGTON — There really wasn't any mystery about the fact that the Yanks, barging into Mateur, found among captured booty 300 pounds of California prunes.

When you recall that only a few weeks ago, our Army was itself retreating in Tunisia, it's not surprising that the Nazis turned up with a few American supplies.

But when this war is over, or maybe sooner, there will be a good story about how the Japs have fought on our supplies. A young officer recently back from the Pacific told of a commando raid on one of the smaller islands preceding the battle for Guadalcanal. The Marines made short work of taking over, and the Japs had very little opportunity to destroy their stores.

Imagine the landing party's consternation to find case after case of soups, vegetables and meats bearing nationally advertised United States product labels. Later they came upon the huge caches of oil and gasoline, all U.S.A. products. They found trucks, typewriters, machine guns, rifles and ammunition, all manufactured in this country, and although the radio station equipment was smashed to bits, they were convinced that it too was made here.

Of course, this doesn't mean that American shippers have been supplying the Japs since Pearl Harbor. That stuff probably came from Shanghai, Hongkong, Singapore, Manila, Burma, etc. But it does prove that the Japs are making use of everything they have been able to lay hands on.

The move to make our boys in the military forces the best taken-care-of of any in the world keeps right on.

Rep. Jerry Voorhis, of California, has dropped three bills in the hopper to give the boys additional benefits when they come back. The most important of these to most of the youngsters who have had their education interrupted is a measure which would provide grants of $500 a year for up to three years to aid ex-service men in finishing their schooling. If post-war living costs get back to normal, that would make it possible for any young man to complete his college training, if he

Chapter 13
The course that Penny and Cleve were following took them along the Peace river in the general direction of Fort St. John. They went along the stream, but never very close to it now. Deep cut banks, rocks and driftwood piled the shore. It was impossible to walk there and make any progress. So they had climbed the long, steep slope of the river valley to its top where the ground was more level.

The day following Cleve's injury Penny estimated that they had travelled only four miles. Cleve had to pause every little while to rest. The land they were traversing was cluttered thick with brush. Branches kept snapping back, no matter how careful they were, to strike Cleve's wounded arm. When they made camp, Cleve said, "I guess I didn't do so well, tot. But tomorrow I'll be feeling better."

His face was still flushed. His eyes had a strange glassy look. Penny was alarmed.

"If you'd just listen to me, Cleve, we'd stop and rest for a day or two."

He forced a laugh. "Not on my account."

"If you should play out, what would happen to us then?"

Cleve waved the possibility aside. "The way I figure," he said, "we can't be more than five or ten miles from Long Portage. If there's any traffic on the river at all, we should meet up with somebody there. Perhaps wangle another canoe."

"Possibly," answered Penny. "From Long Portage it's just twenty miles to the mouth of Moose Creek."

"And from there, twenty-five miles to is Frene's shack," said Penny.

They were taking an inventory of the miles. A mile didn't sound like much when one was talking about it, Penny reflected. But to travel over one in this wilderness with all the barriers of rocks, brush and hills, was entirely different. It was a continuous struggle, with new hazards every minute. There were small streams to ford, steep slopes to climb, swamps or muskegs unexpectedly barring the way.

"Altogether only about another fifty miles," she said gloomily.

She threw down her pack and averted her head so Cleve couldn't see the discouragement welling in her eyes.

"Yes," said Cleve, "only fifty miles. We're halfway there."

"Halfway there," repeated Penny dully.

"What I'm banking on is Long Portage and another canoe," said Cleve. "This constant walking is too hard on you, Penny."

"Too hard on her! Here she's been stumbling along all day through a fog of pain, fever, hunger and fatigue, yet his concern was for her. What a dear he was, Penny thought. Involuntarily, she wondered what Powell Ward would have done under such circumstances, how he would have reacted to such heartbreaking difficulties.

"I'm not worrying about me," Penny

Airpower Calls For New Warfare Rules, Davies Asserts

SAN ANTONIO, May 24 (AP)—A quarter-century of aerial progress has been telescoped into the three years of the present world war, and air power "is an entirely new sphere of action in which the old-fashioned rules of traditional warfare do not and cannot apply," Brig. Gen. Isaiah Davies of San Angelo said today.

The commander of the 34th Flying Wing, in an address prepared for delivery to observation pilots being graduated from the Air Forces advanced flying school at Brooks Field, told the group:

"It is part of your job to convince those with whom you work that air power is not just another auxiliary implement of war, but a great and powerful weapon in its own right."

"Though the United States is today leading the world in air power, upwards of 98 per cent of our people do not understand the basic principles."

Women who married at the age of 18 or younger in the first days of Canada were given money rewards.

THE WAR TODAY: Moscow Move Blow At Nazi-Jap Pact

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
Moscow's announcement of the communist international's comintern, is one of the most momentous developments of the war—if it proves to mean what it seems to indicate now.

The comintern, which was founded in 1919, long ago defined itself as the "general staff of world revolution." That succinctly sums up its original mission—the spreading of communism to other countries by creating revolts against their governments.

Implication in the announcement is that Russia has formally disavowed any intention of trying to spread communism by this method. Henceforth communist parties in foreign countries aren't to look to the birthplace of bolshevism for instructions.

Time will be a sure guide to whether the Red comintern intends to confine its political activities to the home country. One of the most sensational aspects of this move is that it seems calculated to leave Fuehrer Hitler stranded.

The bond (in theory) between the Axis powers and Japan is their anti-comintern pact. The anti-comintern pact was signed by Germany and Japan in 1936, and Italy subscribed to it in 1937. This alliance declared that the communist international aimed at breaking up all existing states. The Nazi chief has been depending heavily on this propaganda, not only to keep his followers in line, but to try to create a split between Russia and the rest of the United Nations. Berlin and Rome appeared to be flabbergasted when the news broke from Moscow at the week-end.

The comintern was created as a communist party institution with the idea of taking advantage of the widespread disorganization produced by the first world war to establish communism around the globe by causing a general revolt against established governments. One of the chief exponents of this scheme was the late Leon Trotsky.

Observers hold that most of the suspicion and distrust of Moscow by foreign countries has been due to this fear of communism being thrust upon them. Now we have this new Red announcement which ostensibly is calculated to remove the distrust and pave the way for unity of view among the Allies. Both as regards the war effort and post-war reconstruction.

If things turn out that way it may prevent another world upheaval after we have finished with Hitler et al. One is reminded of Vice President Wallace's recent sensational statement: "Unless the western democracies and Russia come to a satisfactory understanding before the war ends, I very much fear that World War No. 3 will be inevitable."
