FROM THE EDITOR'S WINDOW

Mr. Mahaney of Cisco presented the Putnam News a nice bouquet of flowers Tuesday when we were stationed at the Laguna Hotel, and specified that it was in honor of The Putnam News' anniversary, which was last week. We appreciated the gift very much and especially from one who reads the publication each week. Mr. Mahaney has been receiving the Putnam News for several months. We think it is indeed nice to receive flowers on the occasion of any anniversary.

George Biggerstaff accidentally ran into Reverend Richardson last Sunday night in Fort Worth. Reverend Richardson will be remembered as a former resident of Putnam, having made his home here several years ago with his daughter, Mrs. Peyton Wingo. He told Mr. Biggerstaff he was now in his 90th year and that he felt fine and was getting along well. He was enroute to Houston where he expects to remain several months.

He stated that Mrs. Wingo had recently been on a deer hunt and killed a large buck. Mrs. Wingo and children are now living at Kent, Texas.

The following maxim was heard over the radio this week, which seems to us to be very good:
"If you are ever criticized
Never try to explain,
For your enemies won't heed it,
And your friends don't need it."

We were handed a copy of a program this week which was dated May 6, 1911, and was held at Zion Hill school. Earl Harwell was the teacher at that time. The program reads as follows:

Recitation, She Never Was a Baby—L. G. Heslep.
Reading, Grandpa's Courtship—Floy Kennedy.

Flag Drill—Fifteen girls.
Monologue, On Which Side—Fred Heysler.
Recitation, O'Grady's Goat—Ralph Reid.

Dialogue, Uncle Peter's Visit to the School—Five characters.
Reading, Mr. Brown Has His Hair Cut—Cora Conlee.

Recitation, The Little Flower—Jewel Awalk.
Play, Promp's Franks—Two characters.

Recitation, Uncle Newt—Stewart Awalk.
Recitation, Mrs. Middlerib's Letter—Lillian Jobe.

Recitation, Riding the Goat—Eren-ton Johnson.
Play, Courting Under Difficulties—Five characters.

Recitation, The Second Table—Johnnie Flemmings.
Song, The Drunkard's Hell—Eula Stewart.

Recitation, An Awful Blunderbust—Iris Kennedy.
Play, Our Awful Aunt—Ten characters.

Fred Heysler directed the play. The advertising read as follows: Farmers State Bank, Putnam Dry Goods Co., Geo. F. Pierce, Men and Women's Wear; Buchanan's Market, J. W. Clark and Co., F. P. Shackelford, Lumber, Y. A. Orr, Fred Heysler, Atwell, Texas; The Putnam Tribune. All advertisements were from Putnam with the exception of one, and some of the business houses are still in Putnam handling the same products. It speaks well for a good town to retain their business establishments.

W. M. S. MET TUESDAY

The Women's Missionary Society of the First Baptist church met Tuesday afternoon at the church at 3 o'clock and had Mission Study. The meeting was opened with the singing of "Footprints of Jesus," and "Stand Up for Jesus." Mrs. G. P. Gaskin, president, presided. Mrs. S. W. Jobe led the program from the Royal Service book. The topic was "Christian Conquest in China." Talking part on the program were Mesdames E. G. Scott, G. P. Gaskin, John Cook, and Fred Golsen, and Loren Everett who gave a dialogue. Those present were Mesdames Fred Golsen, W. M. Crosby, E. G. Scott, J. Y. Culwell, F. A. Hollis, G. P. Gaskin, S. W. Jobe, John Cook, Loren Everett, J. E. Green, W. M. Tator, S. M. Eubank, Fred Coe.

4-H CLUB WEEK DECEMBER 1st

During the first week of December it is planned to enlist at least 125 boys in 4-H Club work for the coming year. The government is going to give the county agent an assistant to help organize this work and promote it to the limit. Every boy between the ages of 10 and 20 years is eligible to become a member and it is planned to have organization in every section of the county. This is work the county agent loves to do.

LOCAL BOY MARRIED BAIRD GIRL SUNDAY

Buel Everett of Putnam and Miss Euna Stanley of Baird were married at Anson Sunday, November 10th, with Reverend Ben Hardy, Methodist minister, officiating. The wedding was kept a secret for a short time. M. H. Cook of Putnam was best man and Miss Vestina Lambert of Baird maid of honor. Mrs. Everett was reared in Baird. She was graduated from the Baird high school with the class of 1935. For the ceremony she was wearing a green tailored dress, green shoes, and hat. Mr. Everett wore dark gray.

THINK ON THESE THINGS

(C. C. Andrews, Baird, Texas)

"Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves; but rather give place unto wrath; for it is written, Vengeance is mine: I will repay, saith the Lord."

Perhaps there is no scripture more generally ignored than the above.

By precept and example in an unguarded moment many parents teach their children to avenge themselves. Some word or act has been said or done to or about us that we become offended, and instead of leaving it to God "to repay" as He has promised, we often seek every opportunity to "avenge ourselves" or "get even" and when it is done, the people say, "he served him right."

Thus we rob God of His prerogative to avenge us as He has promised, "Though He bear long with them."

Paul wrote of a certain man that "did him much evil," then he prayed, "The Lord reward him according to his works."

If we as individuals, communities and nations would refrain from avenging ourselves, and let God, to "whom it belongeth" have it, many of our heart-aches and sorrows would be avoided.

MODERN SHOE SHOP HAS NEW SPRAY

The Modern Shoe Shop of Baird has installed a new spray for the purpose of dyeing shoes. The spray dyes the shoes in the factory-like way. It is the best equipment obtainable for dye work. Shoes dyed in this manner will not rub off and they are odorless.

"CIVILIZATION'S SYMBOL"

The annual Roll Call of the Red Cross is under way. Its banner, the red cross on a white field, has been aptly termed "Civilization's Symbol." First used as a wringing bag in war, it has become the emblem under which the armies of peace are enlisted in the never-ending warfare on disease and disaster in civil life.

It is a banner under which every citizen should enroll. To display the Red Cross emblem in the window is evidence that those who dwell in that house do not live for themselves alone, but are sharing the burden of caring for the afflicted.

The record of the Red Cross comes as near to being a record of unselfish humanitarianism as can be found anywhere. Whether it be the emergency created by a major disaster, such as fire, flood, shipwreck or tornado, or the more prosaic work of safeguarding public health, producing garments for the poor and needy, printing books for the blind, or any of the scores of other helpful services which the Red Cross constantly renders, it must at all times be prepared to meet the calls upon it. Its funds come from the voluntary contributions of all the people. The Annual Roll Call gives every citizen an opportunity to show his patriotism in the broadest and truest sense. In giving to the Red Cross, one gives to the service of all mankind.

His Courage Won

DETROIT... An uncle offered aid to William Dix (above), now 27, when his parents died several years ago. But William preferred to make his own way and started selling papers. This week he was informed his uncle had died and had left him $71,000.

BURNS BROWN INJURED

Burns Brown, former student of the Putnam high school, received severe injuries in a scrimmage football game at Howard Payne College last week. Mr. Brown is in a cast in a hospital at Brownwood. He received back injuries and had several ribs torn loose. He is in the hospital indefinitely. Mr. Brown was a football player in Putnam and Cisco. He attended Schreiner Institute last year. His parents are residents of Cisco.

COUNTY WILL HAVE FREE SHRUBBERY DAY

Callahan county will have an exchange 'shrubbery day' at the county court house December 14, sponsored by the County Centennial Advisory Board. At which time all native shrubs and flowers and plants will be arranged for exchange with the different sections of the county and extra shrubs, etc., will be offered free to the public on the afternoon of the 14th. Everyone is urged to bring the native shrubs of their section at that time. A special beautification plan is being sponsored by the Centennial Board and the cooperation of the people is urged.

Shrubs, flowers, etc., will be absolutely free to those who will come and get them.

W. P. A. PROJECTS STARTED

Abilene, Texas—W. P. A. projects are under way in each of the twelve counties comprising District No. 13, according to Works Project Director Y. S. James, of the Abilene office.

A total of nineteen jobs were under way Friday, with starting dates fixed on half a dozen more. Men from relief rolls to the number of 625 are manning the jobs. These jobs have been started with a minimum number of men for efficiency but will ultimately require a total of 1239 men. Combined Federal and Sponsors' funds required to meet payroll and materials bills total $352,594.17. In carrying on these projects an additional 50 or 60 men listed as non-relief have found employment as time-keepers and project superintendents.

In counties having an unusual relief load, additional projects have been started to care for their unemployed. Among the larger projects started during the current week were: Paving job in Sweetwater involving $83,190.00, and requiring 178 men. Beautification of Stamford municipal swimming pool grounds, $4,150.00 and 34 men. Sanitary project in Callahan county, $14,498.00 and 36 men. A road rebuilding project in Precinct No. 1, Eastland County, $31,705.00 and 111 men. In Ranger work has been started on remodeling two brick buildings, property of the Ranger Independent School District, to be used as recreation hall and dormitory for the system's Junior College.

To date a total allotment of Federal funds for projects in the District has been received in the sum of $983,569.82, which with the Sponsors' contributions of $299,935.82, make a total of $1,283,505.64. These amounts will be used in prosecution of projects now in progress and on others for which a schedule of starting dates is being arranged.

Projects now going, and for which early starting dates have been set, will furnish employment, in addition to the necessary skilled and unskilled labor, to 350 dump trucks and drivers, as well as 50 two horse, seventy-five three horse and 60 four horse teams with drivers.

Particular care is being exercised, according to Mr. R. W. McCargo, Supervisor of Labor Management for District No. 13, to approve only projects where they are needed as a relief measure and do not interfere with seasonal crop work.

Grabbed An Ear

SEATTLE... Marian L. Petrie (above), stenographer, heard cries for help while swimming last summer. She rushed to the rescue, remembering "Y" life-saving advice to "grab 'em by the hair." But the distressed lad no hair, so Marian grabbed an ear... and has now received a Carnegie medal and $500.

COUNTY CENTENNIAL BOARD MET SATURDAY

The Callahan County Centennial Advisory Board met at the county court room at Baird Saturday afternoon at 2:30. Various plans for beautification of the county were discussed and it was agreed that the Centennial Board should sponsor "Shrubbery Day" December 14, wherein every section of Callahan should be asked to bring native shrubs and flower seeds and exchange with each other and that a surplus amount be secured which will be free to the public. Miss Mildred Yeager, chairman, presided.

A committee composed of Judge L. L. Blackburn, Mrs. L. L. Blackburn, and Miss Eliza Gilliland was appointed to request the commissioners' court and the city waterworks for their assistance in the beautification of the court house lawn. Next meeting date for the Advisory Board will be November 29. Attending Saturday were Mrs. J. H. Carpenter, Miss Eliza Gilliland, Judge L. L. Blackburn, Mrs. L. L. Blackburn, Mrs. J. Rupert Jackson, Judge B. L. Russell, Vida Moore, Irma Dell Mitchell, Mildred Yeager.

Mildred King read the scripture lesson and Mary Lou Eubank gave a piano solo. Helen Maynard and Zada Williams sang a duet, "Have Thine Own Way." Mrs. Fred Golsen dismissed the group with prayer.

Mrs. Eubank expressed her appreciation of the attitude of the girls. She served refreshments of sandwiches and punch to the group. Those present were Helen Maynard, Sylvia Phillips, Leta Mae Brandon, Mozelle Springer, Marjorie Brandon, Gwendolyn Simmons, Zada Williams, Mildred King, Mary Lou Eubank, Mrs. Fred Golsen, leader, and the hostess Mrs. S. PANTHERS, BUFFALOES PLAY SIX AND SIX TIE

Oliver Davis, Sport Editor
The Putnam Panthers and the Cross Plains Buffaloes played to a 6 to 6 tie on the Panther field last Friday afternoon. This was the Panther's last conference game for the 1935 season. The Panthers during the conference race won two games, winning from Clyde and Rising Star. They lost two games, losing to Albany and Baird and tying one game with Cross Plains. The Panthers wound the season up with an average of 500 per cent. The two teams that are ahead of Putnam are Albany and Baird. Albany finished the season undefeated and untied, which left them with an average of 1,000 per cent. Baird losing one game and that to the Albany Lions. Their at the end of the season was .800 per cent.

There is only one conference clash left in the 1935 season and that is between the Cross Plains Buffaloes and the Rising Star Wildcats. This game will be played this week at Rising Star. At the present time Cross Plains and Rising Star are tied for fourth place, both having an average of .250 per cent. This should be a good game as both teams are close to equal in weight.

The Putnam Panthers will meet the Desdemona Porkers on the local field Friday afternoon. The game is called at 3:00 o'clock. Last year the Panthers won from the Porkers by a score of 7 to 6. The Porkers are so far this year undefeated and untied. The Panthers are working hard to break this record. The Porker team is reported to be small but mighty, fast and hard tacklers. The Panthers hope to make a larger margin in the score this year than last year.

Eugene Brandon, Panther back, has a bad ankle which he hurt in scrimmage last Tuesday afternoon. He may still be able to play in the game this afternoon.

The Panthers were supposed to have met the Pioneer Panthers this week but Putnam conceded the game. We hoped that we might get a chance at them this year, but it doesn't look satisfactory. Maybe we will get them next year.

IMPORTS VS. EXPORTS

A striking contrast between exports and imports has been noticeable in the last two years in which the picture has been completely reversed on food stuffs. A shift from exportable surpluses to heavy imports of food-stuffs was summarized by the United States News.

In 1933 according to the News, exportable surpluses of wheat, corn and rye totaled 200,211,000 bushels, while in the year ended August 31, 1935, imports of these grains were 74,285,000 bushels. Exportable surpluses of lard were 675,661,000 pounds in 1933 and of pork 300,460,000 pounds, while in the year ended last August 31, the United States imported 12,355,000 pounds of lard and 6,354,000 pounds of pork.

The almost overnight shift was attributed by the publication partly to the Agricultural Adjustment Administration restriction program and partly to the serious drought of 1934. We have had droughts before and it did not produce any such results; but we never murdered six million small pigs before in order to create a shortage in the meat supply.

COTTON TAX IN PUTNAM

There has been ginned in Putnam to date about 850 bales of cotton and prospects indicate that the total ginnings may run as high as 1,200 and if the yield should reach that figure, there will be four hundred bales or approximately that much for which the farmers will have to buy certificates, which will equal about $8,000.00 tax to be paid on cotton for the privilege to sell what belongs to the man that produced it; one-third of the crop which will reduce the price of the cotton that much. Taking 1,200 bales sold at an average price of 11 cents would equal $66,000, and out of this amount the tax of $8,000 will have to be deducted which will leave a balance of $58,000 and the tax equals 12 1-2 percent which will leave the farmer with about 9.25 cents net for his cotton as an average price after he pays the tax.

THERE MUST BE A CENTENNIAL SPIRIT

The first dirt turned in Dallas county launching Centennial buildings and memorial monuments is emblematic of all the soil and soul of Texas. Here where the main Centennial celebration is to be held, at the very gateway to Texas, though far removed from sacred battlegrounds and historic spots, hosts of expected visitors will catch first glimpse of ideals for which our fathers fought. Travis, Crockett, Bowie and others slaughtered in the Alamo, those who were massacred with Fannin at Goliad, and the immortals at San Jacinto under Houston loved not only the soil made sacred by this blood, but every did our fathers, an outward evidence of spontaneous unity of mind and heart, of co-operative action, of joyous good will on the part of each section toward the other. . . . We need to catch a renewed vision of the spirit of "the women who bore Texas," as portrayed by Karle Wilson Baker of Nacogdoches.

The men who made Texas Rode west with dazzling yees On the hot trail of the Future To take her by surprise;

They were dreamers on horseback, Dreamers with strong hands, Trailing the golden Lion Who couches in far lands;

Old men and young men, Little men and tall, Bad men and good men— But strong men, all.

The women who bore Texas Could see beyond the sun; They sat on cabin doorstep When the long day was done.

And they crooned to lusty babies, But their look was far away— For they gazed straight through the sunset To the unborn day.

Stern women, laughing women, Women stout or small, Bronzed women, broken women— Brave women, all.

The men who made Texas Laughed at fate and doom— Dreamers on horseback, Men who needed room;

And the women in young Texas, Hanging homespun clothes to dry, Loved a prairie for a dooryard, For a meeting-house, the sky—

Wide visions and wide spaces, Man and land were large of lung; Texas knew not cheap and easy, Slack and small, when she was young.

But the men who made Texas Left their work half-done— For nothing stands full-finished Beneath the shining sun;

And the women who dreamed Texas Had much work to do, When they lay down for their last sleep In a land still new.

and a yet unbuilded Texas, cloud-paved and glimmering, Burns yet before the eyes of us, Who toil and dream and sing. (Extracts from Gov. James V. Allred's speech at Dallas.)

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

by Charles E. Dunn
HAGGAI AND ZECHARIAH
Lesson for November 24th. Haggai 1 and 2.
Golden Text: Psalm 122:1.

For 16 years no successful effort was made by the exiles who returned from captivity to rebuild the ruined temple in Jerusalem. Glad as these home-sick Jews were to get back to their fatherland, they faced a burdensome struggle for the mere necessities of existence. Not only were they few in number and devoid of wealth, but they had also to contend with drought and a consequent failure of crops.

Such a set-back naturally adversely affected their morale. It seemed as if God had forsaken them in anger. Their faith began to waver. But fortunately, at this critical juncture, the prophet Haggai, who combined genuine enthusiasm with unusual common sense aroused them from their lethargy by the summons to work for the Lord. "It is true," said he, "that God has not yet come to His city. But how can He live with His people if they provide no dwelling for Him? Gird up your loins, assemble the stone and mortar, erect the temple, and all will be well."

Stirred by Haggai's imperative summons, the people at once set to work under the leadership of Zerubbabel, their governor, and Joshua the high priest. How appealing to the imagination is that September day when the foundation was laid! We can see with the mind's eye the ardent face of the prophet as he bids the people to remember well this day, assuring them that the Lord is with them in their noble effort. Although not one of the great prophets, he rendered a splendid service, at a critical time, displaying marked initiative and practical skill. As a result of his direct, plain, but pointed speech the temple, the symbol of Israel's religious unity and purity, soon rose in impressive beauty, even though it could not match the grandeur of Solomon's creation. Credit, too, must be given to the prophet Zechariah who aided Haggai in this re-building of the House of God.

FARM NOTES

(ROSS B. JENKINS, County Agt.)

Corn-Hog Contract Clarification—Recently the secretary of the corn-hog association mailed letters to each individual for their information and gave the number of hogs allowed to kill and also the number allowed for sale. This information was compiled from the true history of the producer's operation and was his average over a period of 2 years.

This did not mean that if a producer had been killing only 2 hogs, for example, that he could not kill more than that number. On the contrary, if he had been killing 2 hogs and was allowed to sell 6 hogs he would have a total production base of 8 hogs. If he desired to kill the entire 8 for his home use the Government does not care so long as his total allowable of hogs to be raised does not amount to more than the total of his killing base and sales allowable.

Some producers have understood that the Government is trying to limit them to so many hogs to kill. This is not the fact but the history of his contract showed his yearly average number of hogs to be killed was the amount entered on his contract. Any farmer may kill more than his average but this number will be subtracted from the number allowed to be sold.

If there is any question in the minds of any who read this column about your allowable please address the secretary, Mrs. R. C. Corn, and she will explain it in detail or better still, drop in and see her.

SOPHOMORES SPEAK
Oliver Davis

The Sophomores are pretty busy this week. We are writing letters in English, having classes in history, working problems in algebra and learning songs in Spanish. This keeps us pretty busy, but we hope we will learn something.

We are having an easier time in algebra now as we have finished the stated problems. We had a hard time completing these but we lived over it.

In Spanish we are still trying to learn some Spanish songs, and are progressing rapidly. We are still having reading lessons and we are still learning to read.

We are now having classes in history after so long of a time. We have been working on our notebooks and have not quite finished them yet.

We are writing letters in English. Maybe we will be able to write our girls a real letter when we finish. We are writing letters now to some Sophomores in another state. We hope we get replies. I think most of the boys are writing to the girls and the girls writing to the boys.

Our news is short this week as there is not much excitement going on, but we will be able to give you some real news some day.

SENIOR CLASS NEWS
Louise Peek

Louise Peek was born August 4, 1919, in the big city of Putnam.

Louise entered school in the 2nd grade at Abilene, Texas. She attended school there for one year, then she moved to Putnam and went to school her third and fourth year. Louise attended Clyde high school during her fifth year and then moved back to Putnam and has been going to school ever since. We are very glad to have her in our midst.

Louise has won many honors for dear old P. H. S. She has won 1st place in declamation during her 4th, 6th and 8th years in school. She has been in many plays, during her 9th year in school she played a leading part in the play, "The Smiling Cow."

Louise and Frances Armstrong won 2nd place in county in the tennis tournament last year. Louise is coming out for debate this year and we think she will be very successful.

Louise has something very peculiar about her, that no other girl seems to have and this is, to attract boys' attention, especially a certain boy in the Junior class.

I will say again that we are very proud to have a girl in our midst like Louise Peek.

The Seniors are sponsoring a play at the Theatre Building Friday night, Nov. 22. Admission 10 and 15 cents. Everyone invited to come.

Mother, I can't Study - My head hurts!

As a usual thing, he is "such a regular guy." He comes home from school full of pep and energy. Of course you want him that way always. But are you protecting his health and safety during the few short months of winter when he must spend his evenings indoors?

That uncomfortable "stuffy" feeling... dullness... lowered vitality... headache—these are some of nature's ways of complaining against improper heating and insufficient ventilation. These are the warning signals that America's Public Health Enemy Number One, the common cold germ, has found another fertile field in which to attack. For your health's sake and that of your loved ones do not wait for these definite signs of warning that the air-indoors has become stale. Keep the air you breathe constantly purified with fresh oxygen through adequate ventilation in every room in the house.

Without oxygen man cannot live. Without oxygen, fuel cannot burn. Therefore, if your family "huddles" in one or two rooms around an open flame heater during cold weather with the doors and windows tightly closed, you are violating all the rules of nature, good health and good heating. Sooner or later the occupants of the room and the burning fuel reduce the oxygen content to the point where the room air becomes stale. Without adequate ventilation and circulation the air indoors may become as foul and unhealthy as that of the tenement slums of large cities, even though your home may be the most beautiful in the neighborhood.

A simple and easy method of providing a constant circulation of fresh air is found by opening a window in each room a few inches from the top and bottom. Connecting doors left open between adjoining rooms when the entire house is adequately heated provide a natural circulation of pure warm air from one room to another. Incidentally, fresh, pure air is easier and more economical to heat than "stale" air.

Guard the health of your loved ones with adequate heat and proper ventilation of pure air in every room in the house.
