The cold spell of last week is reported to have been the worst in ten years. It is said to have covered nine-tenths of the country's area.

While we have been suffering intense cold here, below the equator the South American countries have been going through one of the worst heat waves in many years.

FOOD HANDLERS GET 51 PER CENT OF ALL SURPLUS FOOD MONEY

In last week's Farmer-Stockman, which has a wide circulation makes the analysis of the food stamp plan by the United States government, with following comment, "A study, as yet unpublished, shows that the following division of money occurs under the food stamp plan of moving surplus foodstuffs into consumption among the low income groups.

First average mark up of retailers handling these surplus foods, 21 per cent. Second average mark up of wholesalers—10 per cent. Third average of other costs including transportation and handling—20 per cent. Fourth left over for actual spending on the food stuffs distributed 49 per cent. This means that the farmer gets about half of the food stamp dollar and the various other groups in on the program get the other half. As a result this program is highly popular among the business groups in the cities and commands a very powerful lobby in congress. Department of agriculture officials take the position that farmers should be enthusiastic over the plan because it can command this business support.

The ruling of the court was given on grounds the trial court admitted hearsay evidence, and that testimony of a witness, Arthur Fite, was not the same testimony as was given before the grand jury.

Compton was tried during 1939 spring term of the 42nd district court at Albany. He was represented by the Abilene law firm.

Bill Quinn of the Van Banner has announced for office in his "Quacks" column—in fact, he has announced for five or six places and will narrow it down to one on his last day to file. His announcement is unique in that he admits he was not born in Texas, that he was not born in a log cabin or even on a farm and that he is not married and therefore does not need an office "to feed a wife and unstein hungry kids." He wants to obtain the services of several stump speakers, perfering men with booming voices who are "agin everything."

A couple of entries in the old joke contest:

There is the one about the mouse that got hold of some "corn" and, after a few drinks, shouted, "Bring on that darned old cat."

And there's the one about the fellow with the "morning after" headache who ran a cat out of the room and then explained, "He came in here stomping around."

During the campaign of two years ago, Pierce Brooks was invited to address a luncheon club at Smithville. On the way to the way to the hall, a friend cautioned him not to make any reference to his candidacy. During the course of the luncheon, the secretary reminded Brooks of the club rule against politics. Then the program chairman, in presenting the visitor, pointed out that political subjects were forbidden but they would be glad to hear a few words of general interest Brooks said:

"I am pleased at the opportunity of visiting your club today and will bear in mind that the secretary and the program chairman have advised me not to mention that I am a candidate for Lieutenant Governor and I certainly will not discuss my platform, which provides for a business administration, nor will I say anything about my slogan, which is 'I hate Taxes'. I want to assure the club officials and all members of the club that, under no circumstances would Pierce Brooks, candidate for Lieutenant Governor, discuss his candidacy on such an occasion. Thank you."

Gas dispatchers in headquarters of Lone Star Gas System, Dallas, at work on one of the coldest days of the year. With heavy snow falling and the greatest demand for gas in 30 years, men were at their posts constantly. They are connected with far flung gas fields and compressor stations giving orders to step up pressures and cut in more wells. One man is receiving weather reports over short wave radio. They are alert for any emergency. Left to right: Tom B. Long, chief dispatcher; Luther Tolbert, assistant pipe line superintendent standing back of M. S. Ball, receiving weather reports; H. D. three tall smokestacks of the power plant at the end of Houston street in Fort Worth stood out like spires of a temple reared to industry—A while back, in driving through West Texas, I was witness to a beautiful sight: The sun was invisible behind a hill but the west was flushed with brilliant scarlet. Suddenly an invisible hand swept a black smudge across the glowing color as though the painter of the huge canvas had changed his mind. As the car reached the crest and I could see beyond the hill and on to the horizon, the answer was revealed: the straight black streak was smoke pouring from a speeding locomotive.

BEER ELECTION AND NAMING OFFICIALS CERTAIN FOR 1940

Petition Is Being Circulated in Callahan County Asking For Vote On Fate Of Brew

After today, only four days remain—not counting Sunday—to pay poll taxes in order to qualify as a 1940 voter. The deadline is midnight Wednesday, January 31.

Despite the fact that a local option beer election, selection of virtually every public official in the nation and other important questions are to be decided by voters at the polls within coming months, it is reported that more than 50 percent of the electorate has yet failed to qualify as voters. will be one of the most important years from a political standpoint since 1932, however hundreds of voters in and around Cross Plains will be disfranchised unless there is a rush of poll tax payments within the next four days, the Review learned in a check-up yesterday.

Because a person does not pay his poll tax before February first, he is not exempt from future payment. He is obligated to pay it later and must if he owns real estate as a real estate tax can not be paid without the payment of a poll tax by resident owners. $1.75 is the poll tax fee.

COUNTY ATTORNEY EXPLAINS LAWS GOVERNING ELECTIONS IN TEXAS

B. F. E. MITCHELL
County Attorney

In every election year I have a great many inquiries concerning the election laws, and especially in regard to payment of poll taxes, exemptions, residence, etc; and since I expect the same inquiries to be made this year, I thought it best to give my opinion on some of these questions before the time for payment of poll taxes and securing of exemption certificates has passed.

Every person between the ages of 21 and 60 is required to pay a poll tax, unless he be blind, deaf and dumb, or have lost a hand or a foot, or is totally disabled. To entitle one to vote, such tax must be paid before the first day of February to entitle one to vote during 1940. Persons who became 21 years of age during 1939 must secure an exemption certificate from the tax collector to be entitled to vote. Those who become 21 years of age during 1940 may vote in any election in 1940 provided they are 21 years old at the time they offer to vote, and no exemption certificate is required of them. While the law is not very plain on the subject, it is my opinion that if a person has reached the age of 60 years before he offers to vote, he may vote without an exemption certificate; and even if he was subject to pay a poll tax in 1939 and has failed to pay the same, nevertheless, he would be entitled to vote.

In regard to disabilities, the law construes these provisions very strictly and the blindness or deafness must be total. Also, in the case of loss of hand or foot, the loss must be complete; that is, the member must be severed from the body; loss of use is not sufficient, and foot total disability, the person must be unable to do any kind of work. Persons able to oversee projects, keep books, run drink stands, etc., are not considered as totally disabled.

If the voter lives in a city or town which levies and collects a city poll tax, the payment of this city poll tax, in addition to the payment of the State and County poll tax, is a necessary prerequisite to vote in any election in this state, including primaries. The Supreme Court of the State very definitely settled this question during this year.

I have had several inquiries regarding the method of payment of poll taxes. They may be paid in person, or the husband and wife may pay each others poll tax without written authority. If you wish to pay your poll tax in any other way, you are advised that there has been no change in the law and your poll tax may be paid by filling out the authorization slip furnished by the tax collector just as you have done in the past. It is not necessary to swear to the facts stated on the slip or card. This provision for swearing to such statements applies to persons living in a city of ten thousand inhabitants or more.

As to residence, one must have been in the State one year, in the County six months, and be a bona fide resident of his precinct. No time limit is placed on residence in the precinct. One could move into a precinct and vote there the next day, provided he had lived the required length of time in the State and County. Trusting that these few instructions will be of service to the voters, and that you get a great kick-out of the coming elections, I am,

WATCH THIS RACKET

According to information received at this office. This county is having a run-in with religious racketeers in the form of solicitors who claim that they have arranged to replace song books in use by some of the county churches and promise to place advertising in the books for use in the church. One of the churches where these books were to be placed was the Baptist Church at Nevills Chapel which received 15 books of inferior quality that could not be used. There should not be room in this county for such a racket, and local business and professional people, who are in line to suffer from it, and warned against contributing to any such scheme.—Deport Times.

To The Citizens Of Callahan County

GREETINGS:— In making my application to you, for the office of County Tax Assessor and Collector, I do so, mindful of the great responsibilities of the office, and at the same time, of my wish to go on record as being most thankful for the many courtesies and favors shown me in the past.

During the years that I have served you as Commissioner of Precinct No. 1, I have gained a great deal of valuable information that will be of untold benefit to me in the discharge of the duties of the office to which I aspire; we Commissioners have been face to face with the task of maintaining a fair and just rendition of property values, also the vexing problem of taxation—the information that I have gained along these lines should materially assist me in rendering you a service as Assessor and Collector that you could and would appreciate.

I have nothing to hide or conceal, the years that I have served you in an official capacity, likewise the 34 years that I have lived in good old Callahan are an open book or record.

I am married and living with my wife and 5 children, all of whom join me in my sincere wish that you will see your way clear to give me the promotion that I ask for—and between now and the July Primary I shall endeavor to see each of you and personally lay my claim before you, in the meantime, anything that you may do in my behalf will be highly appreciated.

Ever Gratefully Yours, B. O. BRAME

A jury returned a verdict of guilty against Stublefield and gave him a prison sentence of five years suspended.

WITH OUR WILDLIFE

More Deer Killed

Despite the unseasonably hot weather which prevailed during most of the hunting season, more deer were killed in Texas during the 1939 hunting period than in 1938, early reports to the Game, Fish and Oyster Commission indicate. However, the kill did not reach the estimate of 45,000 made by the Game Department prior to the opening of the season, but probably be approximately 40,000.

Fish Parasites Not Harmful

The Game Department's chief aquatic biologist sent word out that no parasites which live in fishes found in Texas waters are harmful to human beings, if the fish is well cooked. Even the dreaded tapeworm is killed by cooking, but the biologist is stressing the fact that all fish should be well cooked. These parasites are usually found in the fish during the late fall and winter months.

Quail Season Closed Jan. 16

Tuesday, January 16 marked the date on which quail season closes. In this section of Texas, there has been a fairly abundant supply of this fine game bird, but fewer sportsmen took part in quail shooting this year than in previous years. I guess that so many hunters ventured into the deer country this year that the average sportsman could not afford many quail hunting trips. This same condition seemed to prevail over most of my territory. This means that there will be left in the woods an excellent supply of seed stock to start next year's hatching season with. That should give central Texas one of the best quail seasons next year than we have seen in a long time.

Tuesday marked the last day of the hunting season, but this does not mean that the season on quail enemy number one, the wild house cat is closed.

THE CASE OF STEWART VS. DEMERE SET FOR SATURDAY, FEB. 3

The case of Lester Stewart vs. Raymond Demere in justice court which is creating considerable interest, has been set for February 3, at the regular term of court. The case was set for Tuesday; but on account of the illness of the defendant's attorney, it was necessary that the case be continued, and it was continued to the regular term of court, Saturday February 3. The case will be called at 1 o'clock.

J. H. Herring has been confined to his room this week, but he is reported to be improving and able to be up part of the time. Also Mrs. Tex Herring has been quite ill this week from a case of flu; but she is recovering and will be able to be out within the next few days.

PUTNAM, — TEXAS THREE DAY SERVICE

TO THE CITIZENS OF CALLAHAN COUNTY

In announcing that I will not be a candidate for public office this year I wish to express my sincere appreciation to the citizens of Callahan County for their many kindnesses afforded me in the past, having granted my every request. It has indeed been a pleasure to serve you as your Tax Assessor-Collector for the past three years, and I trust that my services have met with your approval. I have endeavored to give you my best, and shall continue to do so throughout the remainder of this term.

Serving you the past three years has given me the opportunity of making many friends and acquaintances throughout Callahan County, which has been truly a pleasure.

I also wish to express my appreciation to the citizens for their splendid cooperation at all times in assisting me in carrying out the duties of the Assessor-Collector's office.

I also appreciate the many solicitations I have had to seek the office again.

Again thanking you, I remain, Ever Gratefully Yours, (1tp) OLAF HOLLINGSHEAD.

NEW DEVELOPMENTS IN THE PUTNAM OIL FIELD EVERY DAY

The 2000 foot well being drilled by John Watts on the Mollie Murray about three miles northwest of Cottonwood, is down between six and seven hundred feet and setting casing on the first formation, and the log is looking good for a producer.

The Trumper Oil Company on the Slaughter about seven miles north of Putnam, on section 7, drilled in a well this week, that is producing more than 100 barrels, flush production. This is well Number 2, for this company. The number two is better than the No. 1.

Gus Hutton of Cisco who brought in the first well on the Slaughter, is reported to have sold a one half interest in his lease; but consideration has not been given out.

Little & Bennett on the Clinton in the Seranton field brought in another good well Wednesday, an offset to the producer on the Ledbetter, which is making 127 barrels. Mr. Little stated the Clinton was better than the Ledbetter, he said. He had just struck the sand, and it was producing more than the number one on the Ledbetter, and he did not think he would drill any deeper as the well produce more than he could run any way. Little and Bennett have just spudded in another one on the Clinton about one mile north of the producer.

L. A. Warren number three on the Clinton is down about seven-hundred feet and shut down. L. A. Warren on the A.F. Sprawls is drilling at about 350 to 400 feet.
