FROM THE EDITOR'S WINDOW

The editor certainly enjoyed a feast this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Jobe, Monday at 12 o'clock. The Jobe's had as their special guests Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Sanders, Mrs. F. J. Liddell and baby, Charles Finley and Mrs. R. B. Miller of Fort Worth, and the editor. Mrs. Sanders is the former Miss Cora Kennedy, who is a talented writer. Several of Mrs. Sanders' poems have appeared in The Putnam News. She formerly lived in Putnam and has many friends here. Mmes. Liddell, maintaining the group by her daughter, Mrs. Jobe was assisted in entertaining the group by her daughter, Mrs. Loren Everett. Mrs. Sanders is a close relative to S. W. Jobe. The editor enjoyed the dinner immensely and being with the crowd, but we were especially interested in having the personal acquaintance of Mrs. Sanders.

Mrs. Sanders is a woman who reflects a spirit of optimism in her personality as well as in her writing. She is fond also of reminiscences about times spent in Putnam. She was interested in the welfare of all her former friends and also in the people who have moved to our city since her departure. The Sanders and Jobes made a trip to Zion Hill Monday afternoon to visit the graves of some of Mrs. Sanders' loved ones. Though Mrs. Sanders has lived in Fort Worth a number of years, she has not forgotten the old home town and we appreciate folk who really appreciate our city and what influence it must have had on the past life and which influence can never be lost. People of this type make a success of their undertakings and their company is highly esteemed. We hope Mrs. Sanders visits our city more often in the future.

W. H. Boatwright was in Putnam this week, driving a new Ford coach which was very classy looking. Junior Sharp is riding a brand new bicycle. He is getting plenty of exercise it seems and is also furnishing the equipment for several of his friends to enjoy the pedalling calisthenics.

J. E. Henkle of Cross Plains was in Putnam Sunday looking after the interests of the missionary work of the B. T. U. association of the east zone. Mr. Henkle and some of his workers were going to assist the Atwell Baptist church in organizing a B. T. U. We think it is very commendable to extend our efforts to other places. Many times we enjoy our various church or club work in our home town and fail to extend any further than ourselves, so to speak. It should be the desire of all civic and church workers to share the efforts of their workers and in turn they will be reciprocated with new ideas and new inspiration from the other communities.

F. P. Shackelford and S. W. Jobe attended a horse and mule auction sale at Brownwood this week. They stated the mules and horses certainly sold fast and that everything seemed like clockwork. They said times seemed to be prosperous as the mules were auctioned. All in all they enjoyed the trip and increased their knowledge pertaining to their already fair knowledge of these type of animals.

E. C. Waddell, local postmaster, has dressed the post office up this week painting the woodwork a gray color replacing the former green color. The postoffice looks clean and fresh and gives a person a sensation that times are more prosperous and our citizens are progressive. Several businesses have been repainting lately and each quart of paint makes our city look the more progressive.

Miss Mildred Yeager left Wednesday for Austin, where she will do secretarial work in the Texas legislature during the special session.

ATWELL H. D. NEWS

Pineapple Upsidedown Cake was demonstrated to the Atwell H. D. club by the home demonstration agent Friday in the home of Mrs. S. N. Foster.

The president, Mrs. B. P. Pillans, was in charge of the business meeting. The club planned an all day meeting for the achievement event in October.

Miss Brown demonstrated the method used in making butter cakes. The most important thing in making cakes, she says, is the measurements, mixing and the baking.

Watermelon was served to 23 members and visitors and pictures were made of the group.

Atwell club members have been on the job of canning during the summer. A check-up on 11 members showed that 4,000 containers of food had been canned. Asked if this was a tremendous task they replied that it was not with modern methods of canning and with a little time devoted to the task each day. They reported that it was a pleasant and profitable business. The 4,000 containers are of a wide variety, consisting of 20 different types of vegetables, fruits, pickles, relishes, and meats.

Atwell girls, with Miss Clara Brown acting as chairman of the meeting, organized a 4-H Girls club Friday. The club will have a membership of 20.

The following officers were elected:

President, Destene Pillans; vice president, Helen Riffe; secretary, Mary Foster; treasurer, Juanel Foster; and reporter, Syble Sessions. Demonstrators will be elected at the next meeting in October.

TEXAS PACIFIC TO TAKE OFF SLEEPER

The Texas Pacific Railroad is contemplating taking off the sleeper that they have been leaving at Abilene each evening for the convenience of the Abilene citizens. This car would be left off of the early morning train going west so that the passengers would not be disturbed by having to get up and get off the train, and the night east bound train would stop and pick up the car and take it on east.

This enabled the Abilene citizens to get berth and not be bothered any more until they get to Dallas. They gave as their reason for taking off this service that it was a losing proposition, and if Abilene wanted the service continued they would have to show more business. This service has been in for more than twenty years.

Thomas Carney of Casper, Wyoming, spent several days in Putnam this week in the interest of the oil industry.

Mrs. J. C. McFadden of Dothan, was in Putnam Thursday. Mrs. McFadden is a sister to J. S. Yeager of Putnam.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Farmer moved into the J. T. Crosby house near the Putnam school building this week. Gladys Lucile Farmer who has been ill, is reported to be better.

OLD AGE ASSISTANCE

Representative Bryan Bradbury of Taylor county in talking of the old age assistance, says:

"Bills are already prepared to be submitted to the present called session of the legislature to make all payments equal to those who are eligible, and making everyone who is past 65 eligible for pensions and that parents who have children have no bearing on the pension."

It appears that Mr. Bradbury is correct since there is so much discrimination in the way the pensions are being paid. In some cases they are denying the old people pensions on account of their having children who are able to support them and in other cases they are ignoring the children's ability to assist their aged parents and allowing them in some cases large benefit checks. There is no doubt but that this is being practiced in a big way all over the state—a condition that is very unfair, and there is no one who is keeping up with the situation who will deny that this is being done. As to who is responsible for this condition, no one seems to know or care.

If the Bradbury bill passes and becomes law it will not only eliminate the unfairness in the present set-up, but will abolish a host of state employees who are going about over the state at big salaries and an expense account trying to investigate people who are making applications for pensions, as there will be no need of them if a person's age is all that is necessary to be eligible. There is a large per cent of the money that is paid in for pensions going to these investigators for doing something that can be done with very little expense by local people who are familiar with the financial condition of every person who is making application for a pension.

THE BLACK APPOINTMENT

There is considerable agitation over the country over the appointment of Hugo Black as associate justice of the Supreme Court on account of his alleged membership in the Ku Klux Klan, but this very likely will blow over and nothing will be done. This should have been investigated before he was appointed and after appointment the Senate should have made an investigation before confirming the appointment, but there was an effort made to delay the confirmation until such time as the senate could go into the matter, but the usual majority ran roughshod over the minority and made the confirmation.

We do not believe that Mr. Black should have been appointed, not much because of his membership in the Ku Klux Klan, but because of his ideas of taking possession of private telegrams and letters in an investigation in the last congress without any authority of law. Placing him on the bench where the legality of such things must go for hearing, and the fact that a prosecuting attorney rarely makes a good judge is about all that can be said about Mr. Black's ability.

There is no possibility that he will be removed as impeachment charges must originate in the house of representatives and voted by a majority before any charges can be filed and after charges are filed and an indictment found it will have to go to the senate and the senate sitting as a court will hear the evidence and it takes two-thirds of that body to vote a conviction, so it can be seen that impeachment would be impossible under the circumstances. We do not doubt that Mr. Black is a member of the Klan, but we feel just about like Ray Tucker when he said, "the Washington woods are full of ex-clansmen—the appointees of southern congressmen since F. D. R.'s triumph in 1932. If Justice Black were asked to resign and the same rule applied to his kinspirits at the capital, the government would be depopulated. There wouldn't be enough men to man the pumps of the ship of state—an extremely practical consideration."

Misses Lois Kennedy, Elsie Kelley, Mrs. Archie Kelley and Mrs. Charles Reynolds of Tulsa, Ok., were in Cisco Friday evening attending the Palace Theatre.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Pruett and children of Ranger visited Mrs. S. M. Eubank Sunday. Mrs. Eubank is recuperating from major surgery about a month ago.

James King and Cathey McCool who are employees of the Texas Company at Monument, N. M., spent from Friday until Tuesday with their parents and friends.

J. N. Williams is sporting a new Ford pickup purchased from Burnice Andrews, agent for the Johnston Motor Company of Baird.

Mrs. Marvin Eubank, who recently underwent a major operation at the Graham Hospital at Cisco, is slowly improving at her home here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Hudson and daughter, Bettie Lou, Viola Teague, Mrs. V. M. Teague, visited in the home of C. J. White at Winters Sunday.

FARM NOTES

ROSS B. JENKINS, County Agt.

Mr. Steve H. Foster of Atwell and Mr. Howell G. Broadfoot of Clyde attended a meeting of the Southwestern Peanut Growers' Association at Dublin along with the Callahan county agent, Ross B. Jenkins, representing Callahan county Wednesday, September 22.

Mr. W. B. Starr of Scranton is president of the association. Tom Robinett of DeLeon is vice-president. At the meeting it was learned that the government is planning to come into the peanut field with a program that will buy the surplus peanuts produced in the United States in order to insure the farmers a fair price. Tentative agreements are that peanuts will be established at about 94 cents per bushel in this area for No. 1 grades and about 88 cents for the No. 2 grade. It has not been definitely given to the public yet but this is the price that is expected to be paid by the secretary of agriculture, Henry A. Wallace. The money to pick up this surplus will be advanced by the R. F. C. and they will be reimbursed from funds accumulated from the tariff from which about 135 million dollars a year is expected.

The meeting was started by Mr. W. I. Glass, District Seven Agent, of the Extension service. Mr. C. R. Howles, Cooperative Marketing Specialist, appeared on the program and Congressman Clyde L. Garrett spoke to the farmers and county agents and told them that one of his disappointments during this past session of Congress was that Congress did not pass a permanent farm program but felt encouraged over the fact that both the senate and house has given the President a signed agreement to take up farm legislation as the first matter for consideration when the new congress meets.

Mr. H. G. Lucas, president of the Texas Agricultural Association, pledged his support to the peanut program and all the resources of his association. Mr. Starr pointed out that by the government buying the surplus which is extended will be about 10 percent of the crop and with an estimated expenditure of two and 6 million dollars that the farmers will receive an increase of 18 to 25 million dollars for their crop.

Tentative plans will be that farmers will deliver their No. 1 and No. 2 peanuts to bonded warehouses where they will be graded and checks will be issued to them that day.

The southwestern area, of which Texas, Oklahoma, and Louisiana are the principal producing states, produces about 650 thousand tons annually. Therefore, it is expected that this area will have a surplus of about 6,500 tons. Last year there was no need for a peanut program because the price of oil used for food was so high that peanuts not needed for candies and other edibles were crushed for the oil to be used in cooking, paint etc. Oil has dropped over 50 percent in value during the last four months and has caused the peanut crop to drop in value also. If the government did not enter the field just now it has been estimated that the price of peanuts would fall to 45 cents or maybe lower, but with a stabilized price it is expected that they will stay up around 90 cents throughout the season.

At a meeting at Cross Plains Monday with the county agent plans were started whereby a bonded warehouse will be started in that city for the storing of peanuts. A like movement will be started in Clyde and it is hoped that sufficient storage may be found to enable the farmers of that vicinity to sell their peanuts direct to a government grader who will be stationed at the warehouses.

Chas. D. Straley at 4-H Wildlife Meet—

Mr. Charles D. Straley, rancher of Oplin and range member of the Callahan County Agricultural Conservation Committee, accompanied the county agent to Kerrville Tuesday afternoon for a 2-day session composed of county agents and 4-H Club leaders from some 30 counties that are now interested in the preservation of wildlife. County Agent Elmo V. Cook and Club Leader Higginbotham of Eastland county also made up the party to the meet.

It was pointed out at this meeting that all of Texas can hope to have a reasonably good supply of quail in a very short time if the birds are given adequate food and shelter. Dr. Taylor, recently employed by the Texas Agricultural Department at A. & M. College, pointed out that when America was first discovered there was an adequate supply of wildlife which included plenty of snakes and hawks, which some men figure today are the cause of our diminishing wildlife, along with millions of head of buffalo, deer, antelope, prairie chickens, quail and an unlimited supply of fishes. It we expect to rehabilitate our forests and ranges with wildlife, we must imitate the original conditions.

In line with the wildlife conservation comes range conservation. If pastures are left to grow a sufficient coverage of grasses and weeds to enable wildlife to survive so will these ranges hold the water in check and thus prevent erosion and at the same time soak moisture into the subsoil.

4-H boys will be encouraged to handle the pastures and farms of their parents in the preservation, control, and development of birds. Such covers will be planned and attention will be given to growing food for the birds. Quail are especially given to Johnson grass seed, Colorado grass, and most every kind of weed seed so these birds to be encouraged must have an abundance of these plants which we oftentimes call weeds. Fence rows, then, should be left with 10 or 15 feet of natural vegetation growth. It might be supplemented with wheat, any of the vetches, and millet to grow wild. In order that quail may receive protection from their natural enemies they must have sufficient cover.

Plant Peach Seed Now—

Those who wish to grow their own peach seedlings that will be ready to bud next June should plant the seed now. Plant them in rows about two inches deep and about three inches apart in the drill. Rows should be, at east, six feet apart.

Step On the Worms—

October is a good worm killing month. Orchard owners should check their trees, looking for wax with sawdust mixed with it at the ground line. If such is found there are borers present which should be treated with one ounce of paradichlorobenzene in a circle 2 inches from the body. Before applying the paradichlorobenzene scrape off all the gum from the trees and loose bark. Cover with about 1 inch of soil and let this stay for 6 weeks. This will kill the small

Gas Co. offers Prizes in Photo Contest

A novel contest for amateur photographers which reverses the usual order of such competitions is announced by Lone Star Gas System in an advertisement appearing in this issue. Instead of asking the contestant to buy something or write an essay about a product, the gas company announces that it wants to buy from its customers one hundred good photographs of gas heating equipment.

"There is nothing to buy, no letters to write, in this contest," the company explains in announcing the contest which opens October 11 and will close December 18.

"Your gas company and national manufacturers of heating appliances wish to obtain photos or snapshots illustrating various types of gas heating equipment used in the homes of this section. We need one hundred good photos or snapshots of home interiors that can be used to illustrate gas heating appliances. We want to buy these 100 photos from our gas customers and will pay $10 each for the ten best submitted each week during the ten week contest. At the end of the ten week period grand prize of $100, $75, $50 and $25 will be awarded for the four best entries submitted during the contest."

In explaining the reason for the contest, company officials said:

"One of the most difficult things to obtain is an interior view showing gas heating equipment in natural home surroundings. We have a definite need for such pictures, for experience has shown us that it is difficult for customers who wish to buy gas heating equipment to visualize how the appliance they are considering will look in their home. It will heat comfortably, but will it harmonize with other furniture, they wonder? The photos we hope to obtain through this contest will be great assistance in helping them decide just which type of heating appliance will look best in their own home."

The contest is open to anyone living in a home supplied gas by any of the Lone Star Gas System companies with the exception of professional photographers or others who may take pictures for commercial purposes, and Lone Star Gas System employees and their immediate families. Companies participating in the contest include Lone Star Gas Co., The Dallas Gas Co., County Gas Co., Texas Cities Gas Co. and Community Natural Gas Co. Entries may be submitted at the nearest gas company office or mailed directly to Lone Star Gas System Advertising Department, 395 South Harwood, Dallas. Folders giving complete information on the contest and showing sample pictures similar to those desired may be obtained from the gas company.
