

From The Editor's Window

A heavy earthquake shock, extending from about 250 miles southwest of Mexico City as far north as Salt Lake City, Utah, was recorded during the early part of last week. At Mexico City, where apparently the shocks were the most severe, a large rooming house collapsed killing five or more persons.

The shocks were felt in a distinct series. The first at 3:21, the second and hardest at 3:22 and a third at 4:45 during the early morning hours.

No damage of consequence was reported elsewhere.

Representative Barry of New York has introduced a bill in the United States Congress providing for free distribution of vegetable seeds and plants to the people to encourage the cultivation of gardens. The custom is an old one and the idea of reviving it might be profitable if seeds suitable to the various areas in the country could be assorted and distributed.

Four new cases of meningitis have been reported in Brown county for the past week bringing the total number in the county to 13. One death from the disease has been reported.

The State Health Department has sent out a bulletin emphasizing the importance of early diagnosis, hospitalization and proper treatment since by these measures the mortality rate may be kept as low as possible and control of the disease made easier.

The bulletin points out that no means of immunization is available at this time although important research is still being made to this end and has been for the past several years.

Josephine (reading aloud the conclusion of a long letter): "Then I will come home and marry the sweetest little girl in the world." Juliet: "What a dirty trick! After being engaged to you."

Prof.: "Why were you so late to class this morning?" Freshie: "They started recitation before I got there."

Draftee: "They can't make me fight." Soldier: "No, but they can send you where the fighting is and then let you use your own judgment."

It is said Uncle Sam has purchased the 3,000-room Stevens Hotel in Chicago. The Army had already taken it over for its use as an air force training school.

A check for $6,000,000, the price the owner agreed to take, was deposited with the clerk of the federal court.

The price to build the hotel was said to have been $25,000,000.

According to a recent statement by Commerce Secretary Jones the Reconstruction Finance Corporation has set up a separate agency to give financial aid in development and acquisition of natural rubber from foreign sources.

The new agency will be known as the Rubber Development Corporation and will be separate from the one handling the synthetic rubber program.

It is said that the soybean industry, started as a project, has met with surprising results in the region around Plainview. Nineteen acres planted by one farmer has this past year yielded 25 bushels per acre and sold for $1.60 per bushel. Figure this for yourself and see how the Plainview farmers are prospering. Nor is this all. These same enterprising farmers realized a crop of more than 2,000 tons of sugar beets the past year.

The sugar beet industry in North Texas was started just five years ago and has prospered to the extent that it was hard to move the crop last fall because of limited transportation. This handicap will soon be removed, however, and our North Texas neighbors will bountifully reap the result of their labors.

Putnam's Quota to The Red Cross Has Been Set at $350.00

The Red Cross is putting on another drive for funds this Spring and Mrs. R. L. Clinton visited the News office Wednesday morning and left some advertising and stated that the quota for Putnam had been set at $350. This is pretty high for Putnam, but the Putnam people have always given liberally to the Red Cross and is certain they will do their part this time. Mrs. Clinton is one of the leaders among the Red Cross in Callahan county, and she with aid of the other ladies will put it over just as they have always done.

DUSTING COTTON ADDS BIG INCREASE IN COTTON PRODUCED

Farmers in several places over this district had good results with dusting cotton in 1942. These reports are taken at random by actual results made on the 1942 crop. The demonstrations were ranged from one acre to one hundred acres and each instance the dusting checked against undusted acreage showed the same results, more cotton per acre.

A demonstration in Hamilton county yielded a gain in production of slightly more than 100% over acreage from undusted blocks of cotton in the same community. Part of the acreage in Hamilton county produced 480 pounds of lint cotton per acre. In Taylor county one of three demonstrations, 230 pounds per acre.

Applications of dusting ranged from two to eight, and the cost per acre from $6.14 to $2.25. The average net profit on the basis of increased production was $16.60. One farm in Hamilton county returned a net profit of $29.37 per acre.

LONE STAR GAS TURNS 3,445,444 POUNDS OF SCRAP TO WAR PLANTS

Lone Star Gas Company turned 3,445,444 pounds of metal and other scrap materials to the government industrial war salvage campaign in 1942 and a citation for outstanding participation in the program has been given the company by the War Production Board through H. M. McDougal, chief of the public utility division, industrial salvage branch. The materials were directed to war production plants.

During the first six months of 1942 the company turned in 900,000 pounds of salvage, and in the third quarter the figure was 750,084 pounds, making a nine-month total of 1,650,084 pounds, according to C. F. Wilson, Dallas, supervisor of stores and administrator of salvage and scrap for the gas company. The accumulation for the fourth and final quarter totaled 1,795,360 pounds, bringing the year's total to 3,445,444 pounds.

Mr. Wilson said that the company will participate in the war salvage project for the duration. His responsibility is to see that obsolete or materials otherwise not serviceable are sold to junk dealers, who forward the salvage to war production plants. Material included are scrap iron, steel and other scrap metals, scrap rubber and paper, and discarded ranges, etc.

RED CROSS DRIVE

We, the people of Putnam and adjoining communities, have been asked to contribute $350 of the $3700 for Callahan county War Campaign Fund. We can and must do this. We all know the Red Cross has aptly been called "The Greatest Mother in the World." This year 65% of the proceeds of the War Campaign Fund will go to the service men. We won't fail them—all of us have some one who is very dear to us who are giving up every thing and risking all in the service of our country. Our contribution in money is small in comparison with theirs. Let us give generously and gladly.

We are to have workers in town every day next week starting this Saturday, March 6; see them. If you can help in staying down there any of this time, call me or Mrs. Lewis Williams, or Mrs. Fred Cook for assignment.

MRS. R. L. CLINTON, Chairman.

GARDEN FERTILIZER WILL BE AVAILABLE THROUGH LOCAL STORES

Many Victory gardeners have been disturbed lately because they're unable to get fertilizers in small lots. However, the government and fertilizer manufacturers are coming to the gardener's rescue. In the near future some special Victory garden fertilizer will be available for local dealers.

This new fertilizer comes in packages of 5, 10, 25, 50 and 100 pound lots, which should satisfy the needs of all. About one pound of fertilizer is needed for each 25 feet of row you're planting.

The formula for this fertilizer is a little different from the kind sold last year, however, it will produce good result. Specifically, it contains three percent nitrogen, eight percent phosphoric acid, and seven percent potash.

Broadcasting causes lack of full fertilizing value due to wasting. Applying it in the row and chopping it in the row and chopping it in with a hoe until thoroughly mixed with the soil will give best results. Its best to apply the fertilizer two weeks before you plant.

Max Kennedy returned Sunday from Fort Worth where he visited with home folks for a few days. He was accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Ione Kennedy and aunt, Mrs. Willie Kennedy, who spent the day here in the home of their mother, Mrs. Ella Kennedy.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Vernon Smith of Fort Worth spent Sunday in the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. King.

Burkett of Eastland, representative from the 107th district, composed of Callahan and Eastland counties and Representative Dan Dove of Mexia, have introduced a bill in the Texas Legislature proposing to re-district the judicial districts of Texas in the number of courts from 130 to 96. The bill was introduced in the house of representatives last Tuesday.

Judicial re-districting was submitted by Governor Coke Stevenson in his opening message to the legislature as an emergency measure.

CISCO JUNIOR BASKETBALL TEAM WENT TO WACO MARCH 1

The Cisco Junior basketball team participated in the state junior college basketball tournament at Waco March 1, competing with nine other teams. The Cisco team entered the first game of the tournament, according to Carlos J. Turner, college registrar.

Arlin Bint is coach of the local team who says its members show some speed in defeating the Cross Plains team last Wednesday night.

The team is composed of the following: Jimmie Newberry, May, Texas, William, Pioneer, Paul Huntington, Pioneer, Durwood Jacobs, Madison, Ed Coppinger, Carbon, Randall Aiken, Cross Plains, Clinton Thomas, Carbon, Durwin Morris, Cisco, and Ralph Huntington, Pioneer.

MISS CLAUDIA ALLEN GRADUATES FROM HENDRICK HOSPITAL

In looking over the pictures of the graduates of the Hendricks Memorial hospital, Abilene, the picture of Claudia Allen of Putnam appeared on the list. Thus another Putnam girl making good in the business world. Miss Claudia is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Allen of Putnam and is very popular, having served in the capacity as assistant postmaster for three or four years before entering Hendricks Memorial hospital and making one of the best assistant postmasters Putnam ever had. Miss Allen has many friends in Putnam who congratulate her on her graduation from this institution.

THE JUNIOR LEAGUE

JACKIE RUTHERFORD MARRIED TO CHARLES KNIFFIN FEBRUARY 9

Kniffin of Clyde, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Kniffin of Clyde, which took place on February 9. Corporal Kniffin is stationed at Orlando, Florida, and his wife will join him there soon where the couple will make their home for the present.

S. E. Park, wife and baby, Mrs. Neil Logan, all of Knox City, were visiting with Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Clinton and Mrs. R. D. Williams Sunday.

WTCC TO HAVE DELEGATION IN WASHINGTON MONDAY MORNING

Next week for the second time this year, the West Texas Chamber of Commerce will send a delegation to Washington to press for greater use of two of the area's materials, grains and cotton, in the war effort. M. C. Ulmer, WTCC president and G. A. Simmons, vice president, will head the group that will open the conference Monday, March 8, with big officials of the government.

The West Texas Chamber of Commerce is frankly hopeful that Secretary Wickard will either "take the lid off" of cotton as last week he did for the wheat growers who now can plant unlimited acreage without penalties, or that greatly increased acreage quotas will be authorized, carrying a transferral privilege under which acres finally unplanted in sections of the belt may be diverted to other sections that plant later. The chamber's long time campaign for liberalized cotton quotas has won strong support in the National Congress and the Texas Legislature.

Cook Ranch Pool Observes Anniversary

The 17th anniversary of the first Cook gusher came and passed on February 18, 1943, with every one going their way in quiet. The Cook pool area has enriched oil producers, royalty owners, supply stores, landowners, with more than $40,000,000 from the oil, marking one of the richest shallow spots in Mid-Continent, outside the Yates pool in Pecos county.

It is still going strong, with the 7th pool discovery on the 18,000 acres, and all the profitable wells being pumped and re-pressured in attempt to remove the oil from the 1400 foot sand stratum.

Had the flush production from the Cook pool not come in on $2.00 to $2.50 per barrel, the recovery record and profits would have been much less. Other pools on $1.00 oil can not be profitable to the oil producer, as the dry holes eat up his possible profit. The decline in number of operators, in number of wells and the decline in daily production are proof of needed price increase.

LOSS WOODS SELLS RANCH NORTH OF TOWN AT $25 PER ACRE

Loss Woods, sheriff of Eastland county, who purchased the Henson Wagley ranch about eight miles north of Putnam, sold it last week to other parties for $25.00 per acre. Trading in ranches and grazing land has been very active in the Putnam territory for the past several months. The price has ranged from $20 per acre for good grazing land to $25.00; much not selling as high as $25.00.

DON SMITH IS RECOVERING FROM A MAJOR OPERATION

Don Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dock Smith, was taken to Graham hospital, Cisco, several days ago for an emergency appendicitis operation and has been critically ill ever since the operation, but was reported Wednesday to be improving and his chances were good for complete recovery, but will be several days before he will be able to return home.

GILMORES RETURN FROM GRADUATING EXERCISES OF SON IN OKLAHOMA

Mrs. Ethel Dixon, of Edcouch, arrived in Putnam Wednesday afternoon to visit her daughter, Mrs. E. H. Gilmore, for a few days, and she and Mr. and Mrs. Gilmore went from here to Norman, Oklahoma to attend the graduating exercises of "Donald," a son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilmore who is graduating from a naval aviation technical training school. The graduating exercises were Friday. Mrs. Dixon and Mr. and Mrs. Gilmore stayed over visiting with their son until Monday returning to Putnam Monday afternoon.

E. L. Finley Buried In Ross Cemetery Saturday Afternoon

E. L. Finley, a prominent rancher of Callahan county, age 74, died at 3:30 Friday morning at the Hendricks Memorial hospital. Mr. Finley owned a ranch of several sections of grazing land about five miles west of Putnam on Mexia Creek.

Mr. Finley came from Tennessee to Callahan county in the 1880's and became a successful rancher. He was born at Clarksville, Tennessee December 31, 1869, and was married to Ella S. Alvord in Callahan county December 25, 1894. They moved from the ranch to Abilene in 1915, but he still operated his ranch on Mexia Creek.

Mr. Finley was superintendent of the Sunday school at Central Presbyterian church for several years, but had held that position only in an honorary capacity for some time on account of his health.

Mrs. Finley survives as does a son Norman Lee Finley of Palacios, two grandsons, Eugene Lee and Ross Alvord Finley of Lubbock, and a sister, Mrs. Ben Montgomery of Whitewright.

Funeral was held Saturday at Central Presbyterian church at 2 p. m. with the Rev. E. B. Surface, minister as the speaker. Burial was in the Ross cemetery at Baird.

Pallbearers Larry Adomson, R. L. Bland, Roy Thomas, Lex Buchanan, Gordon, Weir, George Hall, H. H. Tucker, and Ben Halleck. All of his friends were honorary pallbearers.

Two New Tests in Albany Area

R. H. Roark No. 1, J. H. Todd, is a new shallow wildcat 3 1/2 miles east of Albany in the southwest 1/4 of section 11, Blind Asylum lands, slated to test the Hope sand. The hole is near Hubbard Creek and is the first for the J. H. Todd area in several years. Roark No. 1, J. L. Todd, failed to make a favorable showing in 664 foot hole north of the Ixex road, near the Todd home.

West of the Cook ranch, Kleiner & Heltzel No. 2-A, Dawson & Conway, is preparing to start drilling on an 1800 foot test in the northeast 1/4 of section No. 165, E. T. Ry., just west of the Cook ranch and near corner of the Nail-Cook and Dawson & Conway ranches.

Roeser & Pendleton, Inc.-Conoco No. 4, failed to make a well in the Cook ranch pool and is dry and plugged at 1812 feet, being east offset to their 90 barrel pumper in the Cook pay and the first new pool in Shackelford for the year. A south offset is drilling now in attempt to locate the lens.

Augusta

Augusta Travers—you know, the one who runs the little hat shop down on Main Street—she's always been dead set against gambling in any form. Never will forget when I was a kid and she found little Hammy, her youngest nephew, playing marbles for keeps out back of the shop. Took it on herself to give him a whaling and point out the evils of gambling. She's a strict woman, Augusta, real strict. Good as gold,
of course. But might set against the lighter things of life.

Well, so you could have knocked us all over with a feather when Augusta started her gambling campaign for War Bonds and Stamps, right out in the window of her shop. First she got hold of the photographs of every boy here in town who's joined up, and pasted them on a big board in the window, with little American flags at the corners. Half the town was down there watching her do it. She left the middle empty.
Then she brought out a placard she'd had printed up and put it in the middle, and this is what it said: "These are the Local Boys who have enlisted in America's War—They are betting that you are buying War Bonds and Stamps—Hitler and the Japs are betting you aren't—Place your bets inside."

My wife couldn't wait to get herself down there and inside Augusta's shop to see what in the wide world had happened to her, turning right around about gambling like that.
You know my wife. She kind of likes to talk. She went right up to Augusta and said, "Augusta Travers, seems like something's come over
you. Why, I never thought I'd see you running a gambling campaign
in your own shop."

Mean to tell me it's a gamble
whether this country buys enough bonds to win this war?" Augusta asked.

I forgot to say. Wasn't just a hat
my wife brought home. Was a hat and a $25 bond.

(Story from an actual report in the files of the Treasury Department.)

and War Bonds (and more War Bonds)—to run the War and combat

Leonora

Leonora straightened the objects on her desk with great care. She had put her desk at the end of her room facing the door so that when her mother came in she would have to cross the whole room under Leonora's stern executive eye to get to her. From movies and pictures in the newspapers Leonora had gotten a good idea of how the desk of a busy woman of affairs should look.

With an important scowl, Leonora picked up a sheet of paper. Now she was two people—herself, the busy woman, and her own stenographer.
"Miss Simpkins, take a letter to the Secretary of the Treasury, will you?" she murmured under her breath. "Yes, immediately," she murmured back at herself.

Leonora cleared her throat and looked at the ceiling for inspiration. Miss Simpkins bent
over the sheet of paper hanging on the words about to fall.

"Dear Mr. Morgenthau,"—"Got
that?"—"Yes, madam."

"I am—ahem—thirteen years old and anxious to be of all possible
service to the country at this time,
ahem!"

"I earn a weekly income of from $1.37 to $2.12 by helping with the housework and by shovelling snow.
I am at present in possession of one War Savings Bond and am buying stamps weekly. I want to become a member of the 10 percent Club. I feel it to be—ahem—not only my duty, but my privilege?" "How do you spell privilege?" asked Miss Simpkins. "Don't bother me with these details," said Leonora—my privilege as an American to invest
at least ten percent of my income
in War Bonds.

Yours truly,
"Get that off at once, Miss Simp-
kins," said Leonora. "Yes, Ma'am!
You certainly are an important woman, ma'am," said Miss Simpkins. (Letter from an actual communication in the files of the Treasury

PADDY THE BEAVER AND
SAMMY JAY TALK THINGS
OVER

PADDY THE BEAVER sat looking thoughtfully at the aspen trees
he would have to cut to complete his store of food for the winter. All those near the edge of his pond
had been cut. The others were scattered about some little distance away. "I don't know," said Paddy
out loud, "I don't know."

"What don't you know?" asked Sammy Jay, who, now, that he and Paddy had become friends, was very much interested in what Paddy was doing.

"Why," replied Paddy, "I don't know just how I am going to get those trees. You see now that Old Man Coyote is watching for me it isn't safe for me to go very far from my pond. I suppose I could dig a canal up to some of the nearest trees and then float them down to the pond, but it is hard to work and keep sharp watch for enemies at the same time. I guess I'll have to be content with some of these alders growing close to the water, but the bark of aspens is so much better
that I—I wish I could get them."

"What's a canal?" asked Sammy abruptly.

"A canal? Why, a canal is a kind of ditch in which water can run," replied Paddy.

Sammy nodded. "I've seen Farmer Brown dig one over on the Green Meadows, but it looked like a great deal of work. I didn't suppose that any one else could do it. Do you really mean that you can dig a canal, Paddy?"

"Of course, I mean it," replied
Paddy in a surprised tone of voice.
"I have helped dig lots of canals.
You ought to see some of them back where I came from."

"I'd like to," replied Sammy. "I think it is perfectly wonderful. I don't see how you do it."

"It's easy enough when you know how," replied Paddy. "If I dared to I'd show you."

Sammy had a sudden idea. It almost made him gasp. "I tell you what, you work and I'll keep watch!"

Paddy watched him go with a puzzled and disappointed air.

He cried, "You know my eyes are very sharp."

"Will you?" cried Paddy eagerly.
"That would be perfectly splendid.
You have the sharpest eyes of any one of whom I know and I would feel perfectly safe with you on watch. But I don't want to put you to all that trouble, Mr. Jay."

"Of course I will," replied Sammy, "and it won't be any trouble at all. I'll just love to do it." You see it made Sammy feel very proud to have Paddy say that he had such sharp eyes. "When will you begin?"

"Right away, if you will just take a look around and see that it is perfectly safe for me to come out on land."

Sammy didn't wait to hear more.
He spread his beautiful blue wings and started off over the Green Forest straight for the Green Meadows.
Paddy watched him go with a puzzled
and disappointed air. "That's funny," thought he, "I thought he really meant it, and now off he goes without even saying good-by."

In a little while back came Sammy all out of breath. "It's all right,"
he panted. "You can go to work
just as soon as you please."

Paddy looked more puzzled than ever. "How do you know?" he asked. "I haven't seen you looking around."

"I did better than that," replied Sammy. "If Old Man Coyote had been hiding somewhere in the Green Forest it might have taken me some time to find him. But he isn't. You see I flew straight over to his home in the Green Meadows to see if he is there, and he is. He's taking a sun bath and looking as cross as two sticks. I don't think he'll be back here this morning, but I'll keep a sharp watch while you work."

Paddy made Sammy a low bow.
"You certainly are smart, Mr. Jay," said he.

Gladys—Listen, Mabel. This is what my boy says in his letter.

Mabel—Well, that's a queer sort

Rosebud

Rosebud is eight, and the most beautiful shade of caramel fudge.
To her loving Mammy and Pappy
she is known, on approximately alternate days, as "Angel" and "You devil child". It was on her devil-child days that Rosebud tied the knots in the shirts that Mammy had taken in for washing, and poured the whole of the vanilla bottle into the lamb stew, just, she said later
through bitter tears, to "flavor it up some".

On her angel days Rosebud is equally imaginative even if a more restful occupant of the little shack down on Vinegar Hill. Once when Mammy was out doing day work,
Rosebud got a wave of cleaning
fever and scoured every pot and pan
in the kitchen so that they literally glistened. Another day, left alone,
she tidied up Mammy's and Pappy's room to such a point of apple-pie order that it was a week before Pappy could find an undershirt.

Rosebud is a great reader of the newspapers. Mammy and Pappy don't take one, but there are plenty of perfectly good newspapers blowing round Vinegar Hill. It was out of one of them that Rosebud got her idea for spending the ten cents the Bunny had put under her pillow the night her tooth came out. After breakfast Rosebud disappeared down the Hill and reappeared soom after with a beautiful ten-cent War Stamp pasted firmly into a brand-new book with neat little squares for more stamps. She displayed her investment to Mammy. "I declare you're an angel child," Mammy said. Rose-bud went on sitting on the kitchen floor staring with large brown eyes
at the empty squares in her book.
From time to time she took hold of one or another of her teeth and wiggled it, gently.

Mammy was engrossed in a particularly big washing. Rosebud was as quiet as a mouse and Mammy forgot about her until, coming in from the yard with her arms full of dry sheets, she encountered her child with a large hammer in her hand.
Scenting the devil in her angel child,
Mammy shouted at her, "Rosebud!
Come yere with that hammer! What you planning on doing?"

But what was done was done. In Rosebud's other hand was another tooth. Her mouth was stretched in a broad if slightly bloody smile. "I ain't doing nothing, Mammy," she said. "I'm just filling up my stamp book."

essential to the transport of supplies

overall cost of these hundreds of ships now building runs into millions of dollars.

Many of them are called "Victo-to this victory by your purchase of War Bonds . . . at least ten percent of your income, every payday.

We'll need these ships after the war,

One of the most essential articles of equipment for our soldiers is his canteen. In equatorial countries and in other warm climes they are particularly important to the welfare of our fighting men.

The canteen, now being largely manufactured of plastics, costs about 43 cents. The canvas cover
. . . about 41 cents or 84 cents in
all. Your purchases of War Bonds, or People's Bonds, will buy many of these for our men in the Solomons
or in Africa where they are badly needed. Buy War Bonds every pay-

MORAN AND COMMUNITY

My Column

MRS. C. C. CADY

Washington's birthday was a quiet event in Moran until evening when the whole countryside went to the high school auditorium to see the play, That Person From Paris, which was presented to a record-breaking audience.

The play was directed by Miss Reita Austin and the cast included Mary Nette Snider, Glenn Pool, Mary Weber, Rev. D. L. Egger, Carolyn Choate, Grafton Bumpers, LaDelle Marchbanks, and Joe Basham. Much of the credit for the success of the play was given Miss Austin. The performers also did credit to themselves and their community and all those attending the show appreciated their contribution to the entertainment. Mrs. Elmer Cuno and Mrs. Carl Lummus were kept busy selling tickets as fast as they could hand them out.

"It pays to advertise," says Mrs. Oscar Wise, who worked so diligently for ten days advertising the play, and the Order of the Eastern Star was rewarded by the nice sum of $71.00, the receipts from ticket sales.

Specialty numbers given between acts of the play included two songs by the high school trio composed of Misses Marchbanks, Lummus and Williams, music rendered by ten pupils from Miss Smith's grade on musical bells, and a skit from the junior play which is to be presented by the class on March 4, with Miss Clara May Weaver as director.

The Galloping Ghost is the name of the junior play and it will be the next big attraction for home town entertainment. This promises to be another laughable comedy which you will not want to miss. Don't forget the time and place, Thursday night, March 4, at the high school auditorium.

BIRTHDAY PARTY HONORS LAIRD LOCKE

Laird Locke was honored on his birthday with a bridge party last Friday night with three tables of players. After several interesting games prizes were awarded for high score for women and high for men.

Refreshments of sandwiches, vegetable salad, angel food cake and a drink were served.

FAREWELL DINNER

Ernest William Pinnell arrived home Friday from Fort Worth where he has been employed by Western Union, to enter army training this week. He was given a farewell dinner by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Pinnell, Sunday with his two sisters and their families present. Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Evans and baby from Eden, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Brewster and Wanda from Albany.

LUNCHEON CLUB HEARS LECTURE ON CHEMICAL WARFARE WEDNESDAY

Last Wednesday, members and guests of the Moran Luncheon club were treated to a very interesting lecture on Chemical Warfare, by Curley Hayes, Safety Engineer, of Abilene.

Mr. Hayes explained the five different kinds of poison gas used by the warring nations. He stated that these five were the result of over 200,000 different types of the deadly vapor, condensed down. He went at length into the effect on the body of the different kinds of gas, and gave practical first aid measures for treatment of same.

The average American citizen does not realize the danger confronting those of us far from the battle fields, in the matter of danger from a gas attack, not from the battle fields, but from saboteurs within our borders. Mr. Hayes closed his talk with a rousing patriotic call to arms of every man, woman and child, then he led the assembly with a pledge of allegiance to the flag.

Special representatives of different organizations attending this occasion were Capt. Geo. L. McCargo, Texas Defense Guard, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Cottle, Moran Study Club, Mrs. F. R. Raymond and Mrs. C. B. Snyder, The Delphians.

The speaker was introduced by L. L. Walker, acting toastmaster. Mr. Hayes is expected to be here again soon.

AUCTION BARN SOLD

The old Moran auction barn was sold last week to the Cisco Livestock association and the structure is to be torn down and moved to Cisco where the owners are enlarging their building and pens in order to handle more livestock through the auction ring.

Owners of the association are Joe Coats, Paul Booth and J. O. Taylor. This is one of the largest and most substantial business enterprises in this section and many of the stockmen of the Moran community buy and sell livestock at the sales.

Mrs. W. H. Tennis, the former Bobby Jo Brooks of Moran, who has been living at Paris the past year, has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Brooks. While here she called at our office and ordered the Leader sent to her at Gatesville, near Waco, where her husband is employed in defense work.

Little Ollie Jo Rucker fell from the back steps at her home and fractured her right arm. Her many friends hope the injury will soon heal.

ATTEND FUNERAL

Funeral service for Samuel F. Diller, 85, father of Samuel S. Diller of Moran, was held Monday in Abilene. Joining the Diller family from here to attend the service were C. B. Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd C. Pool, Mrs. R. C. Black, Mayor Fred C. Smith and Miss Mildred Smith.

WARWICK-MARTIN MARRIAGE IN CISCO

The marriage of Miss Brenda Warwick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Warwick of Cisco to Mr. Robert L. Martin Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Martin of Moran, took place at 8:30 p. m. Saturday at the Presbyterian church in Cisco.

A musical setting was provided by the church organist, Mrs. S. E. Hittson. Misses Margaret Ann McDonald and Golda Warren lighted the candles while Misses Rose Ann Wood and Gloria Graham played a violin duet, accompanied by Mrs. Hittson and Miss Lillian Spears sang "Because."

Dr. Gary L. Smith, pastor of the church, officiated at the double ring ceremony. An improvised arch-way covered in calla lilies and fern, flanked by greenery and candleabra, filled the nuptial space.

The maid of honor, Miss Dorothy Blocker of Fort Worth, wore a gown of blue satin, designed with a long bodice and double net skirt. She carried a colonial nosegay of blue sweet peas and pink roses. The bridesmaids, Misses Helen Draganis and Byrna Goldberg, were dressed in pink gowns of the same design as the maid of honor. They carried colonial nosegays.

The bridegroom was attended by his father, Robert L. Martin of Moran; ushers were Messrs. Jack Chambliss, Cisco, and Bob Montgomery and Grafton Bumpers of Moran.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a classic style white satin gown designed with fitted bodice, long fitted sleeves and sweetheart neckline. Her full skirt extended into a deep train and the net veil fell from a pearl covered, heart shaped coronet. For "something old" she carried a handkerchief of her great-great grandmother that had been carried for four generations on their wedding day. The bouquet she carried was made of white roses, orchids and lily of the valley.

Immediately after the wedding a reception was held in the Laguna hotel.

For traveling the bride chose a baby blue wool suit with black accessories. The couple will live in Fort Worth, where Mr. Martin is employed with Consolidated.

Those who attended from Moran were: Messrs. and Mmes. Oscar Wise, W. C. Williams, J. M. Townsend, Paul Harper, Gariand Shelton, Glen Cottle, W. W. Martin, Robert L. Martin, A. A. Palmer.

Mmes. Emma Cottle, B. A. Elliott, R. C. Black, Floyd C. Pool, V. L. Rucker, F. R. Raymond, Karl Hopkins, Emma Jean Oyler, Carroll Louder, Yates Clayton, W. M. Freeman, W. R. Jackson, J. C. Dyer.

Misses Maurice King, Hester Smith, Laura Jackson, Pauline Judd, Mary Nette Snider, Mary Weber, Carolyn Choate. Messrs. Bob Montgomery, Grafton Bumpers, Jerrell Allen.

BIRTHDAY CLUB

The Deep Creek Birthday club met February 18 with Mrs. Lyle. Nine members answered roll call and two visitors were also present. During the business session new officers were elected to serve the next six months. One new member was enrolled and others are welcomed to come and join the club. Eight squares were reported on another quilt. During the social hour several games of bingo were enjoyed.

Refreshments served consisted of sandwiches, olives, potato chips, cookies and coffee. The next club meeting will be on March 4 with Mrs. Edd Hudman.

ON TEXAS HONOR ROLL

Austin.—In courses ranging from shorthand to income tax accounting, University of Texas students of business administration evidently did good work last semester, for 72 are listed on the first term honor roll of the business school, Dean J. A. Fitzgerald has announced.

Leading the list was Robert William Schaffer, of Los Fresnos, with a record of an "A" average in 18 semester hours work.

Nell M. Cottle and Betty June Elliott of Moran were included in the list of 72 students on the honor roll.

MOVES TO MORAN

Mrs. A. A. Smith has had her household goods moved to Moran, and she has joined her husband here where they will make their home. Mr. Smith has established one of the most complete drug stores in West Texas, in Moran and expects to devote his full time to the business, now that his home is to be here.

ATTENDS FUNERAL FOR MOTHER AT ANSON

Mrs. R. L. Dunham has returned from Anson where she went last week to attend the funeral of her mother, Mrs. R. W. Weaver, a resident of that area since 1900. Burial was in the Bethel cemetery near Anson.

Mrs. Weaver, 75, was a native of Arkansas but came with her family to Texas nearly 43 years ago and the couple had recently celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary. Besides Mrs. Dunham, five other daughters, three sons, and a number of other relatives, and her husband survive.

Mrs. Dunham was accompanied home by her father, R. W. Weaver, and a brother, Robert, who will be here until next Sunday. The many Moran friends of the family extend sympathy.

BAPTIST WMS MEETS

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Moran Baptist church met Monday afternoon in the home of Mrs. J. M. Townsend. Mrs. W. O. Latom brought the devotional lesson for the hour. Reports on work for the past month were given by her several standing chairmen. The Week of Prayer for home Missions, which begins March 1, was announced and each member urged to attend.

Mrs. Glen Cottle, Mission study chairman, taught a chapter on Indians in the South, from the text book, They Need Not Go Away. A program on the Margaret Fund was rendered by Mrs. Ida Leftwich and Mrs. W. R. Jackson, after which a love offering was given for this particular cause.

Following the program members enjoyed a social hour when lovely refreshments were served. Those present were Mmes. W. C. Allen, Clyde Pettit, H. D. Connally, W. R. Jackson, W. O. Latom, Ida Leftwich, T. S. Kirkpatrick, A. A. Palmer, Ed Rackley, Albert Cline, Orville Purves, Barbara Townsend, J. C. Brooks, Gariand Shelton, John Alexander, R. L. Martin, Glen Cottle, Paul Harper, Yates Clayton, J. Terry, Carroll Louder, F. W. Jennings, George L. McCargo, and the hostess.

M-m-m-m-m-m! how good that barbecue is going to taste! And how? What barbecue? Why that barbecue the 2nd Platoon of T.D.G. under Lieutenant Boothe is going to devour at the expense of Lieutenant Smith's 1st Platoon. Why? Oh, that's easy. You see, there is a contest going on, right now, based on attendance, and a few other things, and at the end of the eight weeks period, the platoon with the best attendance gets to eat that good old "outdoors roast," at the expense of that other gang, who will just have to look on, and "pass the barbecue," then wash the dishes. What's that, you say, how do we know we will win?—Oh that's easy—Why last Tuesday night, we had only 5 absent, and they had 8 who didn't answer roll call. See?

Former Albany Rancher Buried In Abilene

Funeral service for Samuel F. Diller, pioneer rancher of Shackelford county, was held Monday afternoon at Abilene from St. Paul Methodist church. His death occurred Sunday at the family home in Abilene where they had lived since leaving Albany in 1925.

Mr. Diller, 85, with his brother, David Diller of Albany, came to Shackelford county from Illinois in 1884 and pioneered in the cattle industry here. Other survivors are his wife, the former Dale Cole whom he married in Albany; two sons, Samuel S. of Moran, and Frank of Abilene; and a daughter, Mrs. John P. Byram of Abilene; and several grandchildren.

A large number of Albany friends went to Abilene Monday to attend the funeral service.

GETS WAR TELEGRAM

A certain degree of relief and peace of mind came Tuesday to Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Brooks when a message from the war department at Washington, D. C., brought news that their son, PFC. Bruno E. Brooks, was a prisoner of war of the Japanese government in the Philippine Islands.

The message was directed to the mother, Mrs. Hortense Brooks, and was the first word received about their son since he was listed as missing ten months ago. Their last message from him was when he sailed from San Francisco for foreign duty. He has been in the service two years.

John Cook made a trip to Sweetwater Friday afternoon to meet his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Major Glynn Cook, who had been visiting with her husband in California. Mrs. Cook returned to her home in Van Horn, Iowa after visiting here with Mr. and Mrs. John Cook.

John Shrader of the Scranton community was in Putnam Saturday afternoon looking after business. Mr. Shrader is one of the teachers in the Scranton high school and has been for a number of years.

Miss Dorothy Jobe left Saturday for San Angelo to complete a course in Western Union. This course leads to a managership in Union. Miss Jobe was accompanied by Miss Geneva Anderson who will take training for place as operator.

Mrs. D. A. Abernathy of the Atwell community was in Putnam Sunday afternoon and reported her husband, Dowel Abernathy, was still at Sheppard Field in training.

RED CROSS WAR FUND
MARCH - 1943

Symbolic of the role the Red Cross is again playing, the 1943 Red Cross War Fund poster depicts the organization as a mother ministering to the needs of the men of the United States armed forces and the victims of war throughout the world. The poster is an appeal to all men and women for contributions to the War Fund. Lawrence Wilbur, noted illustrator, designed the poster. Helen Mueller is the model.

Red Cross Needs $125,000,000 To Finance Wartime Program

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Faced with the greatest wartime program in history, the American Red Cross will launch its 1943 War Fund appeal for $125,000,000 on March 1. Chairman Norman H. Davis has announced.

Pointing out that the bulk of the fund will be used to expand Red Cross services to the men of the armed forces and their families, Chairman Davis urged every American man and woman to contribute to the fund.

With the approval of President Roosevelt, who also is President of the American Red Cross, the month of March is being observed as Red Cross Month. Walter S. Gifford, president of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company, is chairman of the Red Cross 1943 War Fund.

"Red Cross services to our armed forces and to the needs of distressed civilians on the battle and home fronts can be supplied only by great expenditures and sacrifices," Chairman Davis said. "We are exerting our utmost efforts to accomplish these tasks with the least possible drain upon the resources of the people in funds, time and energy. We must never falter in our determination to meet these definite obligations. The Red Cross is confident that all our people will be generous in their support of the 1943 War Fund."

More than 65 percent of the fund received by the national organization will be devoted to meeting Red Cross responsibilities to the armed forces. These include the Red Cross overseas club program, recreation and hospital program, the stationing of field directors at all foreign and domestic military camps and bases, the huge surgical dressing production program, and the blood plasma project which recently was expanded to a total of 4,000,000 pints at the request of the Army and Navy.

Chairman Davis pointed out that the 1943 program will be vastly greater than the accomplishments of last year, in which the Red Cross aided millions of war victims through its foreign war relief program; gave aid to thousands of prisoners of war; collected 1,500,000 pints of blood for the armed forces; produced 520,000,000 surgical dressings, and aided more than 1,500,000 servicemen and their families.

The $125,000,000 quota, he said, will finance the local, national and international work of the Red Cross for the entire year, barring unforeseen emergencies.

Schools Open Drive To Buy 10,000 Jeeps

THE little jeep which is serving so nobly from Guadalcanal to Africa has become the symbol of the gigantic efforts of millions of American school children in their War Savings program.

Thousands of public, private and parochial schools soon will be displaying a certificate of honor from Secretary of the Treasury Henry Morgenthau, Jr., signifying that they have paid for at least one jeep by buying $900 in War Stamps and Bonds.

Countless others will be flying the Schools At War banner awarded to schools with 90 percent pupil participation in War Savings.

Ten thousand jeeps and a hundred bombers! This is the new goal of America's schools as 30,000,000 children continue their Schools At War program under the auspices of the Treasury Department and the U. S. Office of Education.

Results so far in the program reported by Dr. Homer W. Anderson, Associate Field Director in charge

Battle Flags of the Schools

of the education section of the War Savings Staff, are:

More than 7,000,000 elementary and high school students from 30,000 schools have prepared special Schools At War scrapbooks for state and local exhibits.

War Stamp and War Bond purchases may reach a grand total of $300,000,000 for the school year.
