GHOST OF JUNIOR COLLEGE WALKS AGAIN IN HOCKLEY

our desk, and this letter is as follows:

"AND NOW FOR THE SORRY STORY OF OUR SCHOOLS — already jammed and packed, already inadequate, yet headed for worse unless there is more expansion soon. The children are born and growing up. They are facts to be reckoned with. Despite frantic building in recent years, the crop of kids outrun it.

"ELEMENTARY SCHOOLS, 30 PER CENT MORE CHILDREN IN 1956.

"HIGH SCHOOLS, 50 PER CENT MORE CHILDREN IN 1956.

"Teachers, 1,200,000 now. Need 1,800,000 new teachers by 1965, some for school growth, some for replacements, need 200,000 new teachers a year.

"SPENDING for SCHOOLS MAY HAVE TO BE DOUBLED just to catch up. This MONEY MUST MAINLY COME FROM LOCAL TAXES, there is no escape from that. Any Federal aid to education will always be lag-gard, also very limited.

"All kinds of taxes indicated: NOT MUCH MORE PROPERTY TAXES, FOR THESE ARE ALREADY SO HIGH THAT THEY INTERFERE WITH ECONOMIC PROGRESS. So there are moves now on foot to levy a LOCAL INCOME TAX; A SALES TAX; AN EXCISE TAX AND A LICENSE TAX (In school districts so that schools might be supported—this in addition to the property tax you are now paying.)"

Read the above carefully. If public school finances are in such a state, with the time in sight when the tax money will not support the schools, WHAT BUSINESS DO WE HAVE TRYING TO ESTABLISH AND SUPPORT

A JUNIOR COLLEGE?

Get the kids adequate facilities in the public schools, and then commence to think of the colleges — the community school is the foundation of all education.

Mrs. Cotton Cavitt and sons left this week for De Leon where she will spend some time helping in the care of Cotton's father, who is seriously ill. Cotton, who has been off from work for the past few months, is so far recovered that he is now driving a truck for W. Chambers & Son.

Rev. H. W. Gaston, pastor of the Ropes First Methodist Church, was in Canyon last week where he attended a meeting known as the Pastors' Retreat. He reports the meeting one of the best he ever attended. While there he met Rev. Browder and Rev. Patterson, former pastors of the Ropes church.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Lackey, of Morton, were in Ropes this week visiting in the home of their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Snider.

Mrs. H. W. Gaston is in Hereford this week teaching a Church School for children and young people. Mrs. Gaston has been engaged in this work for several years, and holds several national credits. Rev. Cockrell is pastor of the Hereford Church, and owns land near Ropes.

ON THE WING

Of recent weeks, first because of a rush of business, and then because of illness, we have failed to get out very much. However, this past Monday, regardless of the fact that we were feeling low, we made a trip to Levelland.

Among others we saw while there were the Commissioners. They were holding their first session of the year. Two new faces were on the court, Hulon Moreland, who takes the place of Tom Price in Precinct 1, and Dale Reed, who takes the place of Jack Morton in Precinct 2. The two old members are Bryan Hulse and Jim Prueit.

Clustered in the court room, waiting with bated breath for something to happen, were representatives of the three newspapers in the county, Afton Richards of the Anton News; Olen Brewer, of the Levelland Daily Sun-News; and the writer, representing the Plainsman.

The most startling thing to take place was the commissioners giving a watchman at the fair ground orders to vacate — and, think of it, right in the dead of winter. But, it remains a definite fact that they stopped his pay and ordered him off the grounds.

Another thing to come up was the hiring of a librarian for the county library. There seemed to be a number of

The Ropes Junior High basketball teams will play their next games at Level-land on January 21 at 6 pm.

Our Junior High School has excellent basketball teams. The girls, whose coach is Mr. Gordon Gaines, have won nine games out of the ten played. They were upset by two points when they played Sundown last week. Their high scorer is Helen Cain, an eighth grader, who has averaged fifteen points a game. But, all the players have helped her to make this outstanding record.

Mr. Chuck Smith, who is coach of the Junior High boys' team, must be very proud of them. They have played eight games and won all of them. Buford Moore has been leading the scoring for the boys. All the boys seem in fine shape, and it promises to be a good for them.

applicants, and after Hulon Moreland looked the list over, he asked that the appointing be postponed, as he was not acquainted with nary an applicant, and he didn't hanker to hire any one he did not know. They settled this by deciding that they would have the applicants in one by one and let them put their cases before the court.

We might also add that they failed to grant us a pension, even though we explained we'd been in the county for more than twenty-five years. They said we might get free groceries if we would sign the pauper's oath. As we started to sign, they jerked the paper away, and indicated the sooner we starved to death the better they would feel.

We looked on the smiling face of Murry Stewart. He says the sale of poll taxes is up. He further stated that he would be in Ropes on Tuesday and Wednesday of next week for the purpose of collecting taxes and letting the folks have poll taxes.

Seemingly, there are a lot of folks who want to vote either for or against the junior college, as they are getting their names properly registered so that they can go to the polls when the time comes.

County Judge Paul Williams was absent from the court. He was helping Juvenile Officer Bob Robbins hold a session of court on a bunch of juniors. So we thought we'd march down and look into this. We found the place, but the juveniles were of such size that it took us a long time to figure out they fitted into that category.

We didn't find Judge Williams, and were informed they had him locked up in another room.

Right beside the juvenile

COMMISSIONERS IN FIRST REGULAR MEETING—Members of the Hockley County Commissioners' Court, in their first regular meeting of 1957 Monday, discuss approval of routine bills. From left, they are Bryan Hulse and Jim Prueit, both hold over commissioners, and Dale Reid and Hulon Moreland, new commissioners elected in November. court was the office of Harper Brown, J.P. for Precinct 5. Seems Judge Brown has gotten in dutch with the Highway Patrol because he dismissed some of their cases. It is said that when a Highway Patrolman brings in a man they expect him to be convicted and fined with dispatch regardless of what the victim thinks of it.

Judge Brown stated, "If I understand the law, the burden of proof lays on the state and every man is innocent until proven guilty beyond the shadow of a doubt. When they bring a prisoner into my office and seat him opposite me, I try to treat him just as I would like to be treated. If he can convince me he is not guilty, and I certainly hear what he has to say, I dismiss the case, no matter who brings him in."

One of the great faults of law enforcement today is the fact that when a man is arrested, he is presumed to be guilty, when the law says just the opposite. As a justice of the peace we feel that Harper Brown is doing his duty.

The Highway Patrol, it is alleged, has become so unhappy that one Patrolman went to the county judge and asked him if there was any way that Judge Brown could be impeached.

We sauntered out of that office, strolled across the lawn, now brown and dead, to the jail. There we met a couple of deputy sheriffs and the sheriff, Weir Clem. Weir explained that but for the fact that the jail was full, he'd make us a candidate for a few free meals. We don't know that we've ever spent a night in a bigger and better jail than the Levelland jail, but we do know we have been in some that were not so fine, as for instance, one night when there were "cutting" scrapes at a dance, we did spend a night in a jail built of dobie brick, with one window high up. It had a dirt floor and was occupied by rats as large as cats, and the only light we had was a candle.

We might add, before you begin to dream up a story that we are a jailbird, that the lad who did the stabbing was nothing but a kid, and we persuaded the sheriff to let us spend the night with him.

Well, regardless of what you might think, we have never been forced into any jail — there might have been times when we should have been, but we didn't go there.

But anyway, we found the sheriff right busy trying to suppress crime, and one of the amusing incidents we heard about was one of his deputies going out and buying a pint of liquor from a bootlegger, and then the sheriff raiding the place and filing on him for both possession and sale.

We'll bet the bootlegger doesn't like the sheriff; and we'll further bet he doesn't think there was a thing fair about it — just think how you'd feel if it happened to you.
