Those leaving Tuesday morning for the 4-H Roundup were Wenda Lou Lowrie and Gracie Riojas, contestants, and Tharon Campbell as a delegate. They will return home about 6:30 Thursday afternoon.

This Roundup is being held at A & M College at College Station. Wednesday was the big day as state winners were determined in 21 different judging and team demonstration contests.

VISIT PARENTS IN BLUE RIDGE

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Edwards and son, Huey, returned this week from Blue Ridge where they visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Edwards, and other relatives.

Mrs. Edwards reports they saw plenty of water and in one place had to detour several miles. She also said there had been so much rain the folks had not been able to plant crops, and the fields are still under water.

HATS OFF TO SOUTHWESTERN PUBLIC SERVICE CO.

In years past when even the slightest disturbance in the elements put our lights and power out of commission we have wondered if this could be overcome.

That it could be was forcibly demonstrated Saturday night when one of the most severe electrical storms of the season visited Ropes. For most of the town there was only momentary darkness, with the lights flipping right back on.

A transformer was knocked out in the north part of town, and due to the fact that the information relayed to the Light Co. was not clear, it remained out until Sunday morning.

The telephone system was out, which is not unusual, and the static was so bad over the two-way radio service that in relaying the information to Lubbock it was understood that the entire town was in darkness. So, when a utility man passed through Ropes and saw the street lights burning and lights in several residences, he reported back that the lights were okay.

It was not until Sunday morning that it was learned that lights in the north part of town, including the Clyde Loveless home, were out.

JIM MARTIN SUFFERS A BROKEN ARM

A communication received from Jim Martin, by Mrs. Martin, stated that he had fallen from a ladder and suffered a broken arm.

Jim and his son, James, were in California helping with the fruit harvest, and were preparing to go on to Oregon.

He stated that he was sore from head to toe, having fallen some ten or fifteen feet, but that he was doing okay and would continue on through the harvest.

M.; Mr. and Mrs. Clay Barger of Lubbock; Mr. and Mrs. Shelton Berry and son of Lubbock; Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Berry and children of Ropes; Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Berry of Lovington, N. M.; Mr. and Mrs. J. Mrs Clingan Now Serving as Co. Clerk

At a meeting of the Commissioners Court held June 3, 1957, a motion made by Com. Bryan Hulse and seconded by Com. Hulon Moreland and which unanimously carried, appointed Mrs. Harold Clingan, Sr. County Clerk of Hockley County to fill out the unexpired term of her husband, now deceased.

Mrs. Clingan is now in charge of the office. Another order passed by the Court empowered County Judge Paul Williams to execute the contract between Hockley County and the Santa Fe Railway Co., covering land across the railroad along the relocation of FM 41 in Ropes.

BRILLIANT ELECTRIC STORM

One of the most brilliant and noisy electric storms of the year occurred in early evening on Saturday of last week.

Bolts of lightning, aimed at the earth, bounced off light, power and telephone lines, and had the sound of an intense bombardment. Grounded electric switches gave off a frying sound and fire could be seen running through them into the outside ground.

The only damage we have been able to learn of was a television set belonging to Tommy Peterson, which was badly damaged, and a radio in the writer's home which suddenly went out of commission.

The rain was light, one-tenth of an inch, and did no damage to the newly planted crops.
