THE OBSERVATIONS OF A PILGRIM

—John E. Drawhorn

According to a recent 'Look' Magazine advertisement, you have come a long way Ladies! You now have a cigarette all your very own; you very own brand in either regular or menthol.

This is not just a normal, ordinary cigarette we call a "woman's cigarette". NO SIR Reebob! This cigarette is tailored exactly for women, for your sweet, little dishpan feminine hand. These cigarettes are not the fat, strong bulky things that men smoke. They have the kind of flavor women themselves like—rich, mild.

Just think how long it's been that you've had to go in to the store and buy a "man's smoke." Why whoever heard of a woman parading around over the prairie on a horse, roping calves and brandin' with a "man's smoke" dangling from freshly painted ruby lips. I can't understand how you stood it this long. Why I would have demonstrated or marched on Washington, or at least rioted in the streets. The very idea, a woman having to buy an ole "man's smoke" all these years.

Just listen to how you had to sneak around ladies. One Mrs. Violet Anderson claims to have smoked her first cigarette on May 19, 1910. In the attic of her granddaddy's farmhouse. No one saw her. One Cynthia Irene Bell confessed that she has been choking... opps, smoking on the ole "man's smoke" cigarettes ever since January 4, 1912, when on a cold winter day she lit up. Myrna Phillips, a real country girl, states that she smoked her 'first' on March 4 or 5, 1911 (She said those ole "man's smoke" still made her dizzy and she couldn't be sure exactly when) way out in the country where only a squirrel and a bird could see her. Her father later killed the squirrel, thank goodness; but she blushes still at the sight of every Blue Jay hoping that 'it' has died by now.

But you've come a long way Ladies. Yes indeed. No more bumming off hubby, no more humiliating store confrontations, no more of that "man's smoke" now there's a new slim-filter cigarette that's all your very own. You have at long last been Emancipated.

First came the vote, then the flapper, the booze, rouge, pants, the mini skirt and now your own brand of slow death... I mean cigarette. How lucky can you get? The Weaker Sex is weak no more. (NOW THAT THEY HAVE A CIGARETTE ALL THEIR OWN, MEN: WATCH OUT! NEXT THING YOU KNOW THEY'LL COME OUT WITH THEIR OWN POOL HALL!)

Notice

The Ropes 4-H Club will meet Monday November 11 at 6:30 p.m. at the Community Building.

Brownie Troop News

The Ropes Brownie Troop meets each Tuesday from 2:20 to 3:40 p.m. Babysitting is provided for the troop leaders, younger children by the high school Home Economics class. The troop met for the first time October 15 and completed the first half of the Brownieland Story and learned songs. October 22 they finished the Brownieland Story, sang, and made mats. On October 29 they finished the mats, started Brownie cans and sang.

The meetings are held at the Community Building.

HAS MEETING

The Ropes Home Demonstration Club met November 5 in the home of Mrs. Bob Thomas.

The program on homemade Christmas gifts was brought by Mrs. R. T. Fowler, Mrs. W. B. Robnett, Mrs. F. J. Drachberg, and Mrs. Ella Thompson who are all members of the Smyer Home Demonstration Club.

Others present were Mrs. Ronnie Ayers, Mrs. J. D. Beatty, Mrs. Pat Powers, Mrs. Ron nie Jones, Mrs. Joe Harris and one guest, Mrs. Elroy Boedeker, and the hostess.

The Jurcaks from Plainview will be at the Community Building Tuesday, November 19 at 10:00 a.m. If there is any special item needed, please write Louis Jurcak; 909 W. 12th; Plainview.

Visits In Ropes

Mrs. Bob King of Lubbock visited a few days recently with her nieces, Flora Martin and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Berry.

Bring the whole family and come out to the Homecoming Supper sponsored by the Senior Class. It will be held in the Ropes School Cafeteria on November 8. We will serve a delicious meal of turkey and dressing from 5:00 to 7:00 p.m. The prices are as follows: Regular plates — $1; Preschool — 50c. You may buy your tickets from any Senior or pay at the door. Don't miss it!

Homecoming is not complete without a mum. The Seniors are also selling mums. They are $3.00 each. You may have an R, an X or the number of your favorite football player put on it.

We'll see you all at the Homecoming supper with the special mum on helping to support the Ropes Eagles and the Senior Class.

Men in Service

Da Nang, Vietnam (AHTNC) — Specialist Five James L. Bandy, 24, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Bandy, Route 1, Brownfield, received the Army Commendation Medal October 4 while serving with the U. S. Army Support Command near Da Nang, Vietnam.

Spec. Bandy earned the award for meritorious service as a mail clerk in the command's Headquarters.

His wife, Carolyn, lives on Route 1, Meadow.

Spec. Bandy was promoted October 4 to Army specialist five in Vietnam, where he is serving with the U. S. Army Support Command. He is a mail clerk in the U. S. Army Support Command's Headquarters near Da Nang.

Tan Canh, Vietnam (AHTNC) — Hermon DeLeon, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jose DeLeon of Meadow, was promoted to Army specialist four on October 4 while assigned to the 299th Engineer Battalion near Tan Canh, Vietnam, as a combat construction specialist.

Revival Services at Church of Nazarene

The Ropes Church of the Nazarene will hold revival services beginning November 7 (tonight) through the 17. Services will be held at 7:30 p.m. daily with the Rev. Lawson Brown as evangelist.

The Rev. W. Lawson Brown, from Bethany, Oklahoma, is an ordained minister in the Church of the Nazarene.

Since entering the full-time evangelistic field in 1957, he has conducted 208 revival meetings in 20 states, and has directed music in a number of camp meetings.

Prior to entering the evangelistic field, Mr. Brown pastored churches in Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas and Nebraska. The thirty years spent as a pastor enable him to combine evangelistic fervor with pastoral compassion to produce a message Bible-centered and relevant to the needs of our day.

In addition to successful preaching, Mr. Brown is a soloist of exceptional ability, and often provides special singing for his revivals. His unusual interpretation of the old hymns such as "Amazing Grace" and "Rock of Ages" has made his singing an inspiration to thousands.

Rev. and Mrs. Jerry Appleby of Lubbock Calvary Church of the Nazarene will provide special music Monday, November 11 through Saturday, November 16.

They are planning on being missionaries, and expect to receive their call sometime in January.

The pastor, Dave K. Powers extends a cordial invitation to all. There will be a nursery open for the small children.

Road Bond Issue Fails -- Again; McAlister Wins over Paxton

Richard Nixon 37th President

Eventually, Richard Nixon are now ready to accept the majority vote and bask the 37th President of the United States. For the first time, we gave up and retired without having an idea who would lead the Nation for the next four years.

Finally, close to noon Wednesday we learned Nixon had gained the nine electoral votes he lacked.

Popular vote between Democratic nominee Hubert Humphrey and Republican Richard Nixon was virtually a tie.

Running on the American party ticket, George Wallace carried five of the Southern States including his home state of Alabama.

Preston Smith won by a large majority, as did R. C. (Mac) McAlister.

We won some of our votes; and lost a few, as we feel sure most every one did. But we Plan to serve Blueberry Bran Muffins for any meal. With the nutlike flavor and the wholesome goodness of whole bran cereal, these muffins are the not-too-sweet variety that complement every menu. Plan to make this recipe even if you're a family of only two or three. These muffins freeze nicely, and can be brought out as needed. Split, buttered and broiler-browned, they'll be a treat for a breakfast sleepyhead or a luncheon guest.

Blueberry Bran Muffins

- 1 cup Kellogg's Bran Buds
- 3/4 cup milk
- 1 egg
- 1/4 cup soft shortening
- 1 cup sifted regular all-purpose flour
- 2 1/2 teaspoons baking powder
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 cup sugar
- 1/2 cup frozen blueberries, thawed and drained

Combine Bran Buds and milk; let stand until most of moisture is taken up. Add eggs and shortening; beat well. Sift together flour, baking powder, salt and sugar; mix in blueberries. Add to Bran Buds mixture stirring until combined. Fill greased muffin-pan cups 3/4 full. Bake in moderately hot oven (400° F.) about 25 minutes.

Yield: 10 Blueberry Bran Muffins, 2 1/2 inches in diameter. Note: Fresh blueberries, washed and drained, may be substituted for frozen.

READ THE LABEL!

When you go shopping, do you read the label on the food package you buy? Not while you're waiting in line to be checked out. Not when you're putting it away on the pantry shelf! NOT when you open it for use! No, No! Before you put it in the shopping cart — that's the time to read the label, so you'll know what you're buying.

Now, for example, usually contains meat and potatoes; but some kinds contain potatoes and meat. Same difference? Far from it. The label which says "meat and potatoes" tells you that meat is the main ingredient; the reverse label tells you that you are buying mainly potatoes, which are much cheaper. But if you don't read the label. . . .

Packaging Is Protective

Many housewives say they do not like having everything packaged; they like to see what they are buying. That's the way it used to be when the crackers came in a barrel and the wheel of cheese stood open on the counter. You could see them all right and even sample them. Of course they got a little dusty, and maybe the flies sampled them too.

A well-known food scientist recently told of how he and his brother both suffered from food poisoning in their infancy; his brother died. Next door to them lived a family with one child; the remaining ten had died in an epidemic of cholera. That, of course, was before the era of food packaging, before pasteurization of milk, before sewage treatment and water purification. That was in the good old days.

So now foods are packaged, and the label tells you what you are buying — if you read it before you buy. Official supervision, plus cooperation from the food industry, has given us in this country the best, most abundant, and safest food supply in the world. But the housewife, queen of the kitchen, has her part to play too, and it begins on her shopping tour, with critical reading of labels, to assure her of getting what she wants and pays for.

What Label Must Do

The label must tell you what's in the package. It must be easy to read, and must not be misleading. Maple syrup cannot be so labelled unless it is ALL maple syrup; if cane syrup is present it must be mentioned, and if there is more cane than maple, the cane must be mentioned first. If anything is added besides the normal food, it must be mentioned; for example, salt, spices (these need not be individually named), coloring, preservatives, etc. The package must not be deceptively large for what it contains. It must bear the name and address of the manufacturer or distributor.

Accurate labelling is required by law, and enforced by Federal inspectors where foods are shipped across state lines.
