JEST SOME THOUGHTS —

We finally realized after a week that our brother, Donald Morris of Port Neches, did not come to visit us, but to visit our printing office, and we are both putting in some mighty long hours.

Not only have we been burning the candle from both ends lately but also in the middle. We have found our 'free' time to be anywhere from 3 a. m. to 8 or 9 a. m.

We are printing the first issue of a publication he has started that contains, among other things, original articles on "Our Tom Cat".

Many of our old time readers will remember the antics of Our Tom Cat which was created by our father, the late Troy Morris.

Copies of this publication will likely be mailed out to most of our reading public in the near future. If you want a copy and do not receive one in the mail, you can inquire at the Plainsman office.

But one thing, the coffee industry is booming right now, what with all these long hours we are consuming coffee by the gallon. Every time we go to get a cup the pot's empty.

Sure is nice to have another printer in the shop even if it is for a short time. He has even done some of the dirty work. The smell of printing ink, linotype fumes, press trouble, static, an irate linotype, busy, busy, busy and the deadlines soon worms its way into your system, and first thing you know you have printer's ink in your veins.

Boy, now do we miss Brother John Drawhorn already. He and his family have gone on vacation, so this column of his will just have to contain something else until he returns. We know you will also miss his good column.

Seldom is a town as small as Ropes blessed with such an all-round good man. We appreciate him.

One of the bright spots of our week was when Billy Ray Martin told us that his wife Mary Lou, is opening Walt's Cafe Friday.

Another bright spot was when we went home for a few minutes and found our street had been freshly graded, our thanks to Emmett Schoenrock.

The School Trustee and City Council election are coming up in the near future. Plan now to vote.

The inch of rain received should make the farmers very happy. It even thundered and lightened. The fog has been pretty bad, and now the weather promises to turn much colder, with more rain, and possibly some snow. Makes for hazardous driving, good crops and muddy shoes.

We are sure anxious, as is everyone else, to see something started on the dreamed of sewer system. When, if ever,

Louella Means, Larry Borland Exchange Vows

MRS. LARRY BORLAND (nee Louella Means)

Double ring wedding vows were exchanged at 5:00 p.m. February 14 in the First Baptist Church by Miss Jamesie Louella Means and Larry Don Borland. Officiating was the Rev. Wayne O. Perry of Lubbock.

Parents of the bride are Mrs. R. E. Morton of El Paso and James L. Means Jr. of Ropesville. Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Borland of Route 1, Levelland are parents of the groom.

Presented in marriage by father, the bride was attired in a floorlength gown of white peau de soie overlaid with silk organza and appliqued with chantilly lace. Her detachable cathedral train was of tulle appliqued with shantilly lace and embroidered with seed pearls. She carried a white Bible topped with a cascade bouquet of white orchids and roses. For something old she wore her mother's diamond studs; something new was her Bible presented to her by her aunt, Mrs. Melvin Glenn; for something borrowed she wore her maternal grandmother's necklace. Something blue was the traditional blue garter.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Sammy Means of Lubbock, sister-in-law of the bride. Miss Ann Moseley of Turkey Misses Brenda Cole and Sheryl Ann Harris served as bridesmaids. Bridesmatrons were Mrs. Mary Borland of Lubbock, sister-in-law of the groom, and Mrs. Melvin Glenn, aunt of the bride.

we get any definite word on this project, we will pass it on. Right now, we haven't found out a thing.

A local paper, such as ours, is printed for the only reason to bring you local news. This we cannot do without your help. A visit made, or guests in your home — this is what we need. Births, deaths, illness, marriages, or a stumped toe — we can't print it if we don't know. Please call or write in.

The attendants wore floor length empire gowns of red satin featuring low necklines, elbow length sleeves of scalloped lace, and adorned with a large bow in back. Their headpieces were red satin bows with tulle. They carried long stemmed white carnations with hearts and streamers.

Earl Norris of Lamesa served his cousin as best man.

Groomsmen were Sammy Means, brother of the bride and Glen Borland, brother of the groom, both of Lubbock; Royce Borland, brother of the groom, of Levelland, Melvin Glenn, uncle of the groom and Russell Arp. Glen Borland and Sammy Means seated the mothers and grandmothers. Ushers were Terry Bradshaw and Roy Rowland.

Candlelighters were Brenda Thomas and Dennis McNabb. Ronda Means of Wolforth and Julee Ward were flower girls. Calvin and Kyle Glenn cousins of the bride, were ring bearers.

Miss Charlsa Shannon accompanied Mrs. Ronnie McNabb on the organ as she sang 'More' and 'Wedding Prayer'.

Miss Lynette Price registered guests at the reception which followed in Fellowship Hall. Planning the reception were Mmes. E. N. Exum, C. K. Teaff, L. S. Rosser, D. M. Tipps and Ronnie Cole. Misses Brenda Allison of Rule and Jeannie Moore of Demning, New Mexico served the three tiered wedding cake and fruit punch from a lace covered table adorned with a white ruffled skirt featuring red ribbons and white bows. Orange blossoms and roses and the bridal bouquet formed the centerpiece.

After a wedding trip to Ruidoso, New Mexico the couple will be at home at 306 9th Street in Levelland.

We urge you to patronize Walt's each time you are in town. They have delicious meals, excellent coffee and snacks along with reasonable prices, prompt, efficient and courteous service.

Nola Knows

By Nola White

Dear Nola - If it's not too late to comment on the Democratic convention, I'd like to know what you think of a bunch of people under the guise of 'peace' creating riots and disorders in the street, cussing people and throwing bottles. Do you think people who would deliberately provoke police and break laws are for peace?

Agitated

Dear Agitated - People who provoke violence in the name of the peace are Hippicrits.

Dear Nola - I belong to an insurance organization and I have worked hard to bring other members into the group and I know through my work they've sold a lot of insurance and made a lot of money. This summer I backed into my pick up with a combine and pretty well banged it up. I didn't worry because I had insurance on it and figured my loss would be well covered. Well, that insurance company when I made my claim would not pay a third of what it cost me to have my pickup fixed. They made me go around and get three different estimates on how much it would cost and took the lowest and they didn't do a good job. Don't you think they gave me a raw deal when I've worked so hard for them in the past?

Old MacDonald

Dear Mac - I'll bet you don't work so hard for them in the future so in the long run they've given themselves a raw deal. Insurance companies are like farmers - they reap what they sow.

Dear Nola - There are a bunch of hoods in my school who always go around hitting kids and trying to get them into fights. We're in junior high. I won't fight because I think fighting is a sign of immaturity, but I'm awfully tired of getting hit. Is there anything I can do? This happens in P.E. mostly.

Punching Bag

Dear Punch - Don't you have supervisors in P.E.? This sounds like a breakdown in school administration. Report it, take boxing lessons, or buy a box of aspirin.

Dear Nola - Do you realize how many shots a kid has to have before he gets in school and how many medical and psychological examinations he has to have once he gets there? I think educators should stick to educating and leave supervision of health to doctors. Don't you?

The Opposition

Dear Op - It is the kind of forced supervision you describe that has made the U.S. the healthiest nation in the world. It was discovered in WWII that a fantastic number of young men were having to be rejected because they were not physically fit, and stringent efforts were begun through the schools to correct this problem. After all, the thing this nation needs most is healthy young men to send to war.

AUSTIN, (Special) - Senator H. J. (Doc) Blanchard of Lubbock announced recently that he had received final approval from Governor Preston Smith for a Community Action grant of $55,578 for La-mesa and Dawson Counties.

The Junior Class would like to thank everyone who has helped us with our work program thus far. We appreciate your help immensely.

If you should, by chance, have any complaints about our work, we suggest that you call Mr. Braden or Mrs. Caldwell at 562-4211, high school office and state the nature of your complaint. We will then try to straighten out any bad work that we may have done.

After careful consideration we have decided upon a new policy for our work program. If you have any work you would like to have done, we ask that you call the high school office, 562-4211, and ask for Mrs. Caldwell. If you will then tell her what kind of work and how many people you need for the work, she will assign the students to it as fast as possible.

The second part of this new policy we ask you read very carefully. When the work you needed is completed, we ask that you make out one check to the Junior Class thereon stating the combined totals of the workers money-wise. Then, on the bottom of the check, place the names of the students who worked and how much each one of them earned. Send this check to Mrs. Braden's office (high school) where it can be placed along with all of its information, in the records of our class.

We would appreciate your cooperation immensely in this matter, for it is designed to avoid as much confusion as is possible.

Reporter, Dwain Davis
