JEST SOME THOUGHTS —

This week is Poison Prevention Week, as proclaimed by President Nixon.

It is also Sinus Week and Sand Week. In West Texas anyway.

The way the wind and sand have been blowing, we are in reality, eastern New Mexico, and East Texas is now West Texas.

We can always recognize alien sand — it stings, and our own West Texas sand bites. Things are always bigger and better in Texas.

To say we couldn't see across the street Sunday would be the understatement of the year. We couldn't even find our window to look out.

Then the sand blew again on Monday, and Tuesday was the day that makes it worthwhile to live here. The beautiful sunshine and mild temperature was unbelievable.

Then came Wednesday, and it was another day of excessive wind and sand.

We have had so much of the same weather lately, we have run out of words to describe it, and looks like we are going to have to find some new terminology, or else quit talking about the weather.

We wish we had an inside sprinkler system so we could clear out a little of the static electricity. We get our exercise on Wednesday nights by chasing the papers over the shop after they are thrown out of the press.

We also get several shocks, and have one chair with a metal frame we would throw out in the street if we weren't afraid of being fined for littering.

We've about got so much static electricity in the shop that the lights will burn without flipping the switch, and motors start running without any reason.

Well, anyway, it is bad.

The height of optimism around here this week has been whether there would be a Ropes Plainsman this week. Our mother, Irene Morris, who helps us out every Wednesday is ill. So, we have had to rely only on self this week, and we must say it's much easier and three or four hours quicker with help.

Guess the height of optimism for our part of the country could be that it will rain soon. Guess we'll just have to wait and see.

Don't know much else to do anyway but eat sand and wait.

And the dust settles on everything — The mistress called the new maid into the living room. "Look there!" she commanded reprovingly, pointing at the piano. "I wrote your name in the dust on the piano this morning." "I saw it, mum, and I've been meaning to speak to you about it," replied the maid. "You've got it spelled wrong."

Well, comes the time to dust ourselves off the page this week.

Ropes Entries Place High In Levelland Stock Show

VISITS HERE FROM OREGON

Mrs. Venita Lee Fuller returned to her home in Canby, Oregon the first of the week after visiting several days with her mother, Mrs. Tom Redman and other relatives.

Lent and Easter are the seasons of renewal and revival in the church. The United Methodist Church of Ropes begins a Season-of-Lent Revival Sunday, March 21, with morning worship at 11:00 o'clock and continuing through Wednesday evening of the week. All evening services, including Sunday, will be at 8:00. There will be no week-day morning services. Prayer groups for all ages will meet each evening at 7:30.

The Reverend Howard Hollowell, who holds an honorary Doctor of Divinity Degree from McMurry College, will be the guest preacher at each service. He is a warm-hearted and forceful speaker with an unusual background experience in three Texas Methodist Conferences.

Mr. Hollowell is among the best loved pastors of several Texas Methodist Churches, including First United Methodist of Midland, Oak Cliff United Methodist Church of Dallas, Laurel Heights Methodist Church of San Antonio and First United Methodist Church of Wichita Falls. He preached in revival services in Ropes during the pastorate of the Reverend Lloyd Mayhew.

Dr. Hollowell, just plain and 'Howard' to his friends, was an elected delegate to the World Methodist Conference of 1966 in London, England. He conducted preaching missions at three U.S. Air Force bases in France; and he and his wife, Sally, as guests of the Wichita Falls congregation, traveled in Europe and the Holy Land. Mrs. Hollowell will be with her husband on this mission.

The song services and special music will be directed by Don Bell of the United Methodist Church of Spade. Don makes a living by farming and serves the Lord and neighboring churches with his talents in singing.

Everyone is invited to attend any or all of these revival services.

Get your money's worth electric air conditioning

OVER 30 YEARS OF PROVEN DEPENDABILITY

Just like your refrigerator, electric air conditioning uses the same experience-proven method of cooling. A dependable compressor keeps on cooling no matter how high the outside temperature.

LOW OPERATING COST

Before you buy, be sure you have complete information. Electric air conditioning saves you money when you buy and because it uses only electricity and free air, your operating cost is low... no extra installation costs, either!

HIGH ALTITUDE — NO PROBLEM

Despite our high altitude, electric air conditioning keeps on doing its job because the electric cooling method is completely sealed against the effects of altitude changes.

CHOICE OF BRANDS

There are 58 manufacturers of electric air conditioning and all major brands are available in our area. Brands in your area are listed in the Yellow Pages or identified on your neighborhood dealer's store front.

CHOICE OF SIZES

Electric air conditioning offers the right size for your cooling job. Too large a unit makes your first cost unnecessarily high; too small runs up operating cost. Electric air conditioning can save you money on both counts.

COMPLETE SERVICE

The principle of electric air conditioning is so well understood and the parts so easy to change that any air conditioning man can give you service quickly should you ever need it.

ELECTRICITY — IT DOES SO MUCH GOOD FOR SO MANY PEOPLE!
