Vibia Perpetua

—Ted Dotts

Last week Perpetua's account in her own hand ended and an ancient eyewitness took up to report her death.

"For the young women the devil made ready a mad heifer... And so after being stripped and enclosed in nets they were brought into the arena. The people were horrified (seeing) a tender young girl (Perpetua) and another woman fresh from childbirth. So they were recalled and dressed in tunics without belts. Perpetua was tossed first, and fell on her loins. Sitting down, she drew back her torn tunic from her side to cover her thighs, more mindful of her modesty than of her suffering. Then she arose, and seeing that Felicitas (the other girl) was bruised, approached and gave a hand to her, and lifted her up."

(In the days of the Roman arena, it was the custom to cut the throats of those persons who had survived their ordeal in the arena. If they had satisfied the crowd with their bravery, Perpetua had been so brave that the crowd demanded that she have her throat cut rather than having to submit to more torture and worse kinds of death.)

"And when the people asked for them to be brought to the place allotted to the throat-cutting, that when the sword pierced their bodies, these might lend their eyes for partners in the murder, they rose unbidden and made their way whither the people willed... The rest without a movement in silence received the sword. Perpetua, however, that she might taste something of the pain, was struck on the bone and she cried out, and then herself guided the wavering hand of the young untried gladiator. Perhaps so great a woman, who was feared by the unclean spirit, could not otherwise be slain except she willed

"O valiant and blessed martyrs! O truly called and chosen to the glory of Jesus Christ our Lord! He who magnifies, honours, and adores that glory should recite to the edification of the Church those examples also, not less precious at least than those of old; that so new instances of virtue may testify that one and the self-same Spirit is working to this day with the Father, God Almighty, and with His Son Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom belong splendor and power immeasurable for ever and ever. Amen."

Thus ends the story of Vibia Perpetua who lived and died in the year 203 AD, because she claimed to be a member of the body, the church, of Jesus called Christ.

DRAFT NOW TAKING MEN UNDER 22 YEARS OLD

Austin, May 25 — The state draft quota for June is 695, compared to 639 in May, Colonel Morris S. Schwartz, state Selective Service director, said Tuesday.

The June call of 695 men is the biggest since January 19-64, when 812 Texans were directed to report for military service.

The June call is Texas share of a national quota for 17,000 men, all for the Army. The state Selective Service director also announced that state draft boards will forward 3,338 males for Army mental - physical examinations in May, 535 of whom will be 18-year-olds.

These tests for 18-year-olds are the result of President Johnson's action in 1964 which ordered the Director of Selective Service and the Secretary of Defense to examine all newly registered men who are out of school and available for service. Males married, at age 18 and those known to be in school at that age will not be examined.

Colonel Schwartz stressed that these youths will not be considered for the armed forces at this time. Normally, draft for service is about age 22. (6 from L B 116 ALL under 22.)

The June quotas already have been figured and sent to the state's 137 local boards.

JEST SOME THOUGHTS--

We enjoyed a little trip around the country north of us this past Sunday. We saw some pretty crops, some feed and cotton up at a good stand and some wheat about ready to be harvested.

We understand they have had a little more of that elusive stuff, called rain, than we have.

In Cotton Center we visited in the Clarence Bourland home (cousins). She is the post mistress of that place.

We got to exchanging stories, and she said she guessed the funniest thing that ever happened to her was when someone came into the post office and inquired if she sold stamps there.

We got quite a bang out of that.

We also looked over the country around Plainview, and our littlest one decided that maybe Plainview was just a little larger than Ropes.

How's that for loyalty?

In Shallowater we visited the better half's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Thomas. Their cotton was very pretty, just peeping through the ground.

We enjoyed coffee and creamy custard here and then returned to good ole Ropes, that is most as big ah Plainview.

Guess all the rain gauges are running over, after that big (?) rain Sunday night.

This past week we enjoyed a telephone conversation with our uncle and aunt in Lone Wolf, Oklahoma, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Morris. (They are also paper people.)

That doesn't sound quite right, what we mean is they are printers.

On along in the conversation, our Uncle told us to measure the roller on the big press with a string, as he has one that will maybe fit it.

Ah usual, we were on our toes and said, "Yes, I will measure it, and then do you want me to mail you the string?"

Well, our uncle is always a little farther up on his toes than we are, so he replied, "Yes, unless you want to push one end of the string into the

Joy Allen Suffers Burns

Joy Allen happened to the misfortune this week of being burned by ammonia. He was unloading a truck filled with anhydrous ammonia at the time of the accident.

We understand the force of the vapor knocked him off a tractor on which he was sitting. His eyes and forehead were burned, with his right eye being more seriously injured.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen moved to Dalhart not quite two weeks ago from Ropes.

WHITLOCKS HAVE FAMILY REUNION

A family reunion was held the past Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Whitlock in Ropes. All their children and grandchildren were present.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Hart and John Charles, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Lamb, Janice and Susan, Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Whitlock, David, Wendell and Ann, all of Lubbock; A1C and Mrs. Morris Goad, Mike, Tammy and Janell, recently returned from Germany; S-Sgt. and Mrs. Bobby J. Whitlock, Debbie, Tom and Cindy of Bergstrom AFB, Austin; and Don Whitlock student at Texas Tech in Lubbock.

Others present were Mr. and Mrs. Rees Popejoy, brother of Mrs. Whitlock; Mr. and Mrs. Bob Strauss; Mrs. M. C. Eaves and Pamela, sister of Mrs. Whitlock; Mr. and Mrs. Max Eaves and Mitzl, all of Lubbock; Mrs. John Bayue, Big Spring, sister of Mrs. Whitlock; and Mr. John R. Popejoy, father of Mrs. Whitlock.

Guess that's all for this week.

Spray new Caparol after cotton is 6 inches high to control weeds.

Control most annual broadleaf weeds and grasses in cotton with new Caparol* herbicide. Simply apply as a directed spray to the base of your cotton when it is six inches or higher.

You'll get good knockdown of weeds and grasses that are less than two inches high... plus some killing action through the roots of later-germinating weeds.

The cost of this treatment, when Caparol is applied in a 10 inch band, can be as little as 85 cents per acre. Compare this with the $2-3 per acre it would cost you for hoe hands.

Later on in the season, you can go in and make a layby application of new Caparol to control weeds until the cotton is high enough to shade them out.

With new Caparol, you'll have no reason to worry about soil residue carryover to harm next year's spring-seeded crops.

Ask your supplier for new Caparol.

TAX MAN SAM SEZ:

Most people do a lot of worrying about taxes just before they file their income tax return. April 15 isn't the only time to worry about income taxes. The amount that you pay on April 15, or whatever day that you file your Form 1040 and pay your individual income tax, is determined by your financial transactions throughout the year. Since income taxes play an important part in all our lives, it's pretty good advice to "look before you leap" on your tax transactions as well as your other affairs.

Nola Knows

By Nola White

Dear Nola — I've been going steady with Kevin (not his real name) for three months, but he dropped me when he found out I was a nice girl and started dating a girl who isn't too particular. I love him, but I think if he loved me he would have respected me for my stand. Don't you? Lucy

Dear Lucy — Surely it didn't take him three months to find out you're a nice girl. Let's hope he dropped you for some other reason. If not, you haven't lost a thing. A boy who doesn't respect his date isn't worth the postage to send him home. Incidentally, the other girl may be more particular than you think. After all, she picked YOUR fellow!

Dear Nola — Are second marriages happier than the first? Doubtful

Dear Doubtful — How happy was the first? Some marriages are so bad anything would be better. I'm going to stick my neck way out. If your first marriage was not happy, a second would probably be happier. You're bound to have learned something!

Dear Nola — Recently we moved here from Brownfield and I'm having a hard time making friends at school. I was very popular at my old school. I'm a boy, 14.

Outsider — I think you should have signed this "Impatient." Start right now to pulling your share of the load in the drama club, or the band, or some other school group. In no time at all, you'll be in, Friend!

Personal to Buckholts Babe — The Army can make him an officer, but Heaven alone can make him a gentleman.

Personal to Bud — There's no way to get around the fact that a rambling rose is still a clinging vine.

Send your letters to Nola Knows, Box 411, Temple, Texas. For a personal reply send a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

1/2 teaspoon double-acting baking powder
1/2 teaspoon baking soda
1 tablespoon cinnamon
1/2 cup butter or margarine
1 cup granulated sugar

1/2 cup firmly packed brown sugar
2 eggs
1 tablespoon milk
1/2 cup finely chopped pecans
1 1/2 cups (about) flaked coconut

Sift flour with baking powder, soda, and cinnamon. Cream butter, gradually add sugars, and cream until light and fluffy. Add eggs and beat well; then add flour mixture. Add milk and blend well. Add pecans and coconut. Drop from teaspoon onto greased baking sheets. Bake at 375° for 10 to 12 minutes, or until lightly browned. Makes about 5 dozen cookies.

Six Flags Over Texas, a 115-acre composite of fun and Texas history, is viewed here in six scenes representing a few of the popular attractions that have been enjoyed by nearly 5,000,000 visitors to date.
