Ropes Winner at County Stock Show

Doyle Crawford, Ropes FFA, won first in the heavy Spotted Poland China class. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Northam. Mr. Norman was breeder of the pig.

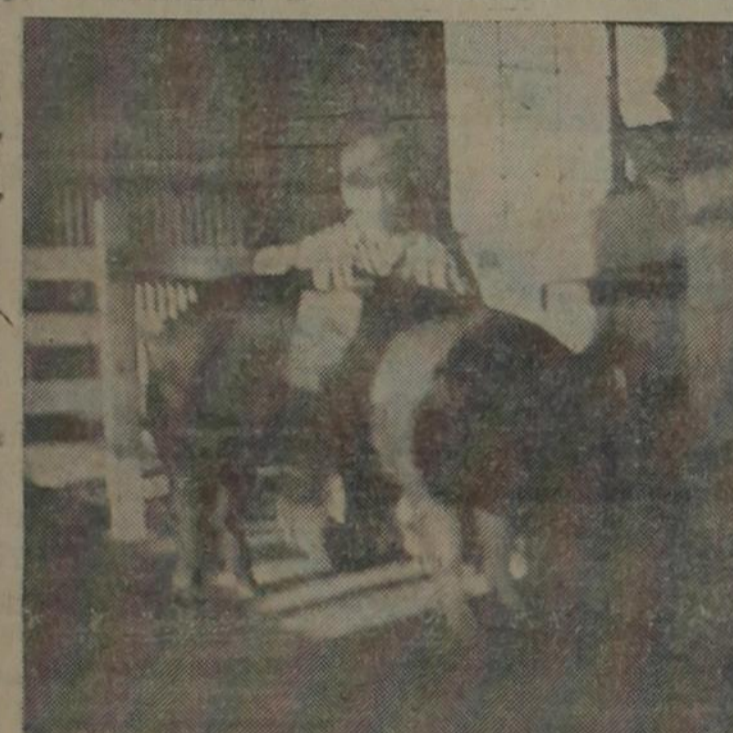

Leon Bain, Ropes FFA Chapter, won Grand Champion with his Berkshire barrow. Leon also won Grand Champion with a Duroc in 1956. This was Leon's 6th show. In addition to his two Grand Champions, he has had three other blue ribbon winners. Breeder of this pig was J. M. Hewlett of Ropesville.

Bill McCormick, Ropes 4-H boy, won first in the light Spotted Poland China class, and went on to win champion of the breed. Bill is 9 years old, and was showing for the first time.

Joy Faye King, Ropes 4-H, won Grand Champion with her calf, Buster. This was Joy's first show. Breeder of the calf was Andrew Hereford Farm of Ft. Worth. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. H. D. King.

John Bain, Ropes 4-H, won first in the heavy Hampshire class and champion of the breed. Breeder of the pig was F. L. Lowrie of Ropesville.

Larry Jackson, Ropes FFA, won first in the light Chester White class, and went on to win champion Chester White. Larry is an experienced showman, but this was his first blue ribbon winner. J. P. Walter, of Lubbock, was breeder of the winning Chester White.

Ropes Wins in All Divisions in County

Winners in the Hockley County 4-H Clubs' Cotton Yield contest were Preston Wilson of Levelland and Jimmie Lowrie of Ropes.

Top honors in the irrigated cotton division went to Wilson with 7,200 pounds of lint produced on five acres, while the dry-land division went to Lowrie with a production of 2,570 pounds.

Each boy received a $44 cash prize.

Fourteen other boys, eight in the irrigated division and six in dry-land also entered the contest, with each receiving a cash award according to their placement.

The purpose of the competition, according to Deryl Coker, assistant county agent and contest sponsor, was to promote greater yields per acre of lint cotton by improving the fertility and texture of soil through better cultivation practices.

The boys owned at least one half interest in the five acres of cotton and kept a complete record of its production. They had to turn in the ginning tickets for each bale and prepare a written summary of their demonstration, said Coker.

Other winners in the irrigated division included Tharon Campbell, of Ropesville.

County gins cooperating in the contest from the Ropes area were Buster's Gin, Farm Center Gin, Lockettville Gin Co., Arnett Paymaster Gin, Ropesville Paymaster Gin, Weak's Gin, and Ropes Farmer's Co-op Gin.

BUYERS PAY $18,882 FOR 176

SHOW ANIMALS

An auction sale which netted $18,992.59 for the youthful owners of 176 animals closed out the Hockley County Junior Stock Show Saturday afternoon.

The sale figure did not include 30 per cent of the animals originally entered in the show which later were sifted. The owners will be paid later on a guaranteed premium basis.

Top price paid in the sale was $631.40 to Joy Faye King, 7th grade 4-H Clubber of Ropesville, who exhibited the grand champion beef calf. J. J. Hobgood of Anton paid 70 cents per pound for the 902 pound animal.

Leon Bain, of Ropesville, received $1.10 per pound for his grand champion barrow after the Levelland Chamber of Commerce added 25 cents to the original 85 cent bid of Paymaster Gin of Ropes. The hog was a 194 pound Berkshire.

The following are Ropesville winners:

Heavyweight Durocs — 3rd, Gail Gregg.

Oh, Spring Where Art Thou? Winter Snows Turn the S. Plains into Slush Pit

In the light of recent weather conditions snow is hardly news, but in view of the fact that climatic conditions in this section do not usually bring about one snow storm after another, it is big news.

Snow started falling Tuesday night and continued through Wednesday morning. From three to four inches of snow have fallen over the Ropes territory.

The snow was so heavy on Wednesday morning that the schools were forced to close because the buses were unable to operate and many roads were impassable. This winter has been one of continuous snow and rain, and the ground is now soaked — saturated — until the water will no longer soak up, with the result that the roads are seas of mire. A motor vehicle sink up to the axels without half trying.

With nine weeks of snow and rain the ground has become saturated with water and muddy roads are now becoming a problem — dirt roads, built to shed the water, have filled the bar ditches and the surface of the road bed is a soft mire.

In places in the community it has become next to an impossibility to get automobiles out onto the road without sticking them. Tractors in some places, are being used to tow cars to the pavement.

Russell Service Station Entered By Thieves Sat.

This past Saturday night the Ed Russell Service Station was entered by burglars and an undetermined amount of money taken.

Entrance was gained by breaking the lock hasp on the front door. Some three or four dollars were taken from the cash register, and the pop boxes and cigarette machine robbed.

Investigation was made by a Texas Ranger out of Lubbock, assisted by Constable Jack Ogle and Sheriff Wen Clem.

It is stated by Constable Ogle that the thugs stopped their car the other side of the Goodpasture Elevator and walked back up the railroad track to the station, one leaving a plain footprint in a pile of caliche. Also, it is stated that finger prints were found on the different boxes.

At the time this is written, Monday, no arrests have been made.

Ed has had a run of hard luck by burglars. Once before the station was broken into 14 times in 17 months before there was a let-up. So far as we know, no arrests were made on any former break-in.

GIRLS WIN TOP AWARDS IN DRESS REVUE

Nineteen girls from throughout the county won top honors Friday in the annual Hockley County 4-H and FHA Dress Revue staged in the Women's Building.
"The Hit Parade of Fashion" was the theme of the show in which styles from formals to Bermudas were modeled.
The revue was broken into three divisions. One was for junior 4-H clubbers and freshman FHA members and the third was an open division for older FHA members and 4-H'ers.
Each of the entrants constructed the garment which she modeled in the revue. They were judged on both the clothing and their poise while modeling.
Judges for the event were Mrs. Vivian Lewis, home demonstration agent from Seminole; Mrs. Charlene Hicks, assistant home demonstration agent at Seminole; Mrs. Exie Collins and Miss Jo Parnell, home economists of Southwestern Public Service Co., Mrs. Novella Hart and Miss Mary Lou Crump, home service agents for Pioneer Natural Gas and Mrs. McKim, home economics teacher at Shallowater.

Complete results of the 4-H division of the show from Ropes include:
10-year-olds - second, Carol Conaster.
11 and 12-year-olds - second, Mary Jackson; third, Frieda Beth Pointer.
In open competition for FHA and 4-H students, results included:
Formals- First, Wenda Lou Lowrie.
Lined Suits - second, Kay Sosebee.
Shorts and Bermudas - First, Priscilla Green.
Slim Jims, Slacks and Pedal Pushers - second, Priscilla Green.

WINTER SNOWS

Jim Martin, who has lived in the Ropes community for thirty-two years, says that this is the first time in his memory that a wet spell has been so prolonged.
However, as Winston Jones said, "I'd rather see this than sand storms." And, this is the time of year when we have the sandies if we are going to have them.
However, two days of sunshine (this is written on Monday) has dried up much of the mud, but we are promised more snow and rain before the week is out.
Seemingly, Winter has a bulldog grip on Spring.
However, if the weather does clear and it becomes possible there is likely to be an early planting of crops. And, this has started off as an ideal year for a bumper crop - plenty moisture to begin with and an underground season that assures healthy, strong plants.
However, as S.D. Buchanan says, "it might do us as it is doing in other parts of the state where it is now planting time, be too wet to get into the fields."

After suffering some seven years of drought it is hard to believe that such a thing can happen, but it has happened here a time or two that we remember. In short, when it rains on the South Plains, it rains and rains and then rains some more.
This present damp spell, up to Monday of this week, including the heavy down-pour of Friday night, placed better than three-fourths of an inch of rain over the South Plains — that is not an official estimate, but a measurement taken from the Plainsman's rain gauge.
Too, now the spring storms have started, our first thunder storm of the year occurring on Friday night. The storm was accompanied by dark, fierce appearing and fast moving clouds, which were cut assunder by lightning and the community was warned of the approach by a bombardment of heavy thunder. Winds, for a few minutes picked up to 50 miles an hour and then the storm moved to the north east. For a few minutes there was a down pour of rain and a sprinkling of hail stones.
Not taking any chances a number of our people, who over the past two years have become storm conscience, sought refuge in storm cellars. However, no tornados developed in this section, but there was one farther south in Monahans, where some damage was reported.

ROPES FALLS TO WHITE DEER, 77-61

Before one of the largest crowds ever assembled in Chapman Fieldhouse, Lubbock, Saturday night, Abernathy in Class AA and White Deer in Class A waltzed to Region 1 girl's basketball championships with easy victories.
Mighty Abernathy, winner of 36 consecutive basketball games, drilled a weak DeLeon sextet, 59-32, for the AA crown and powerful White Deer drubbed defending state champion Ropesville, 77-61, for the Class A crown.
Every possible space in Chapman Fieldhouse, home of the Lubbock Westerners, was filled and many of the estimated crowd of 2,400 sat on the floor.
The tall and talented White Deer Does were simply too much for Coach Pat Patterson's Ropesville Eaglettes in the rebounding department.
White Deer jumped into a quick 2-0 lead when Mary (Pokey) Freeman, star pivot for the Does, hit a jump shot at 7:49. Ropes' Jean Tussy tied it at 2-2 with 7:04 left in the quarter, but Miss Freeman hit another jumper to put White Deer into a 4-2 lead with 6:48 remaining in the period. From that point on, the Panhandle sextet was never headed.
Ropes applied plenty of pressure to the Does, however, staying within five and seven points until early in the third quarter. At the beginning of the second half, Miss Freeman popped in four straight field goals to the Eaglettes' one to give the winners a 51-39 lead.

White Deer continued to mount the margin in the fourth quarter, outscoring Ropes 18-16. White Deer led 23-16, 42-35, and 59-45 at the quarter intervals.
Ropesville was led by Miss Tussy with 32 points. She hit 15 of 28 field goal attempts. Emma Christopher had 15 and sister Lena had 14 points.
White Deer hit 33 of 65 shots for 49.7 per cent shooting accuracy, while Ropes was hitting 26 of 44 from the field for a blazing 59 per cent. But, the Eaglettes didn't get as many shots from the field as did the winners.
Ropes had the easiest time of the day in downing Junction.

With reserves taking over in the third quarter, Wenda Lou Lowrie paced the Eaglettes with 20 points, while Jean Tussy had 16, and Emma Christopher 15.
Ropes led, 15-6, after one quarter and 32-14 at half-time. The Eaglettes held a 47-25 three-quarter edge. Pacing Junction was Margaret Hammer with 28 points.

ELEMENTARY SCHOOL NEWS
GRADE 3A

In Geography we are now studying about plant and animal life in the desert, and are learning new facts. Some of the children are making film strips showing the different plants and animals found in the desert.

Freda McNabb has been absent several days because of illness. We hope she can soon come back.

We have one new student, Benjamin Romo, who comes from Alice, Texas.

The Cub Scouts report a good show and a wonderful time at the Boy Scout meeting in Lubbock Saturday, March 8th. The Cub Scouts attending from this room were Lonnie Exum, Gary Rucker and Ronnie Huie.

It seems that the goldfish in our room are living a dangerous life. The aquarium, which has seen many years of service, was cracked several months ago and we purchased a fish bowl. That, too, was cracked recently. Monday Mrs. Snider bought us another fish bowl, but guess what? Yes, as Dennis was carrying it to the car to bring it to school it was knocked against the car and it was cracked, too! We have not given up hopes yet, but in the meantime our goldfish swim merrily around in a gallon jar borrowed from the lunch room.

GRADE 3B - Mrs. J. Cole
We have enjoyed drawing and showing our films of desert life.

Those making 100 in Spelling last week were Charles Bentancourt, Frank Castaneda, Bill McCormick, Ronnie Price, Edward Gutierrez and Jeanie Strickland.

We have decorated our room with kites. We look at them and think of the fun we will have when spring comes.

GRADE 2B - Mrs. Redford
We have had 100% present all this week. We are very happy because we can all get our work done together that way.

We are writing now all the time, and have learned to read it, too.

One of our groups got new readers today.

Several of the boys and girls in our room took in the ball games at Lubbock last weekend.

HEALTH NOTES

A South Texas woman recently called the State Health Department's bedding division about a mattress she had purchased from an itinerant peddler. She had reason to suspect she had been defrauded.

When a bedding inspector checked the mattress, he found it unlabeled and filled with unacceptable material in violation of the State Bedding Law. The peddler was located in Houston, and given the choice of facing court action or refunding the woman's money. He chose to surrender the money.

The next time you buy an item of bedding—a pillow, mattress, or comfort—notice the attached label. It's a window, through which you can see what is in the product and how it has been handled. Once attached, no tag may be removed.

If the product is made of all new materials, the label will tell you so. If it is made entirely or partly from second hand goods, the label will be printed in red ink and will clearly state its second hand status. If it has been used by someone else, traded in, and offered for resale, it will carry a "germicidal treatment" tag certifying that it has been sanitized.

Even when you send a mattress out to be renovated, it will be returned with a label certifying that it has been repaired.

The State Bedding Law was written into the statute book in 1939 for two prime purposes: to prohibit the sale of soiled or contaminated bedding materials, and to safeguard purchasers against fraud or misrepresentation. District inspectors cover every bedding manufacturing plant in the state to see that the law is complied with.

All manufacturers must be licensed before their products can be sold in this state. Some 1200 factories in Texas, and 400 outside the state, are currently licensed.

Well over four million items of bedding are sold in Texas every year. Every one carries a stamp on the label, which in effect says to the buyer: "As far as the law is concerned, you are getting what you paid for." Stamps are sold by the bedding division for one cent apiece, which goes toward supporting the division.

Second hand items of bedding may not be sold in this state until they have undergone germicidal treatment, and sterilization permits must be obtained from the bedding division, after plants have been checked for conformity with the law. Most germicidal plants use the "dry heat" method. Bedding is placed in a large oven and literally baked for one hour at 230 degrees. Ovens must be checked every 90 days by a representative of the bedding division to insure proper operation.
