returned home Saturday where they had been visiting their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Embery in Brigham City, Utah. Their son-in-law is pastor of the First Baptist Church in Brigham City. They went to two ski resorts while there. Alto was the highest in elevation with 55 inches of snow, and Brighton was the other resort with 51 inches of snow. The skeing was good, also there were lots of skiers. They found the weather real nice until the morning they left. They rau into a blowing snow storm at Provo, Utah, which lasted about two hours.

Brigham is famous for its mountain grown peaches. The largest Indian school in the world is at Brigham City. 2,250 Indian boys and girls between the ages of 12 and 18. years go there.
