Shirley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Odom, was numbered among the ill this week.

WANT SOME DIRT?

If you need dirt to make fills with there is plenty of it at the site of the new post office building, and you can have it if you will haul it off.

NOTICE

Dishes left at the Virgil Wright home may be picked up at Evans Food Store.

MRS. T. DURHAM IN HOSPITAL

Mrs. Tom Durham, who is in a Lubbock hospital for examination and treatment, is reported to be improved.

MRS. A. RYALS IN HOSPITAL

Mrs. Alvin Ryals has been in a Lubbock hospital for examination and treatment. We understand her condition is improving.

G. R. JOHNSONS VISIT BOB THOMAS'

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Thomas had as guests Sunday Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Johnson, Lubbock.

MRS. CHARLES THOMAS HAS SURGERY

Mrs. Charles D. Thomas underwent surgery in a Lubbock hospital this week. They live on Route 1, Levelland. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Thomas.

VISITING WITH THE JIMISONS

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Jimison have as their guests their daughter, Major and Mrs. Edwin LeBreton and children from Virginia. He is retiring from Service and they will reside in Lubbock.

WORK IS STARTED ON POST OFFICE

The floor of the new post office building has been completed, and now the walls are under construction. It is twice as large as the present quarters, and will have all new boxes and equipment. It will be modern in every respect. It is being erected by E. N. Exum, who has leased it to the Post Office Department for five years.

The present post office has been cramped for space for several years, and this new building will add to the convenience of the customers as well as the efficiency of the employes.

TOM PRICE IS ILL IN HOSPITAL

Latest word from Tom Price who suffered a heart attack some three weeks ago, and who is being treated in a Levelland hospital, states he is much improved and may be able to return home in a few days.

NOTICE

Those who use the community building for any purpose are requested to see that it is cleaned up before they leave.

Mrs. Tommy Littlefield.

WYGALS VISIT IN CHILDRESS

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Wygal were in Childress last week visiting relatives.

OTTO SIMS' REPAIR HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Sims just finished remodeling a portion of their home in north Ropes.

RICHARD RIOJAS VISITING HERE

Richard Riojas, who has been attending a university in Mexico City, is here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Riojas.

RUSSELLS COMPLETE THIRTY YEARS WITH PHILLIPS PETROLEUM CO.

This past week Mr. and Mrs. Edward Russell completed thirty years with the Phillips Petroleum Company, as wholesale and retail dealers in the Ropesville community.

The Russells were presented beautiful pins and plaques by J. A. Gilmer, assistant division manager, who said, "Phillips Petroleum is happy to have been associated with Mr. and Mrs. Russell for the past thirty years."

The Russells took over the Phillips 66 Station here in 1933.

W. C. George, sales manager for Phillips, wrote the following letter to Mr. and Mrs. Russell:

"Even though as of June 1, I am retiring from active service with Phillips I could not pass up the opportunity to tell you that it has been a pleasure to be associated with you and after twenty-eight years of having known you that pleasure is even greater today!

CHURCH OF CHRIST TO OPEN MEETING

The Ropesville Church of Christ will open their summer Gospel Meeting on the 28th of July and will continue through August 4th.

Earl Danley, of Lubbock, will bring the Gospel messages.

Earl Danley, born in Florence, Ala., on August 4, 1928, is an outstanding evangelist. He graduated from the Florence High School in 1947. In 1948 he joined the U. S. Air Force and served until 1952. Leaving the Air Force he was employed by the National Cash Register Co., with which firm he remained until 1954.

Brother Danley has attended Abilene Christian College, Harding College and Texas Tech. During the time he has been in the ministry he has served churches at West Point, Ark., Grassland, Texas, Taos, N. Mex., New Deal, Tex., and is now with the Southside Church of Christ in Lubbock.

He has also been in overseas services, he and his wife having gone to Copenhagen, Denmark in 1957, and preached in meetings and lectureships in Germany, Sweden, Norway and Denmark. They returned to the States in 1961.

Everyone has an invitation to attend this series of meetings.

FOR SALE — Full size roll-away bed, in excellent condition. Inquire at Windy's Drive-In.

C STEPHENSON IS PAINTING HOUSES

Chester Stephenson has been putting in this week repainting his home and a rent house.

Visiting the Stephensons are their grandsons, Mickey and Joe David, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Weldon (Skooky) Stephenson of near Dallas.

REVIVAL OPENS AT CHURCH OF NAZARENE

A summer revival meeting opened at the Ropes Church of the Nazarene on Wednesday night of this week and will continue through August 4th.

Evangelist and Mrs. Jack Hamilton will have charge of the revival services. Rev. Hamilton of Springfield, Mo., has been in the evangelistic field for the past fifteen years and during that time has held over 350 meetings in 33 states. In addition to his regular evangelistic work he has made several state-wide tours in the interest of youth.

Traveling with Rev. Hamilton is his wife, Wilma. Their services will be varied and there will be vocal solos and duets and trombone and piano solos each night. A feature will be the "Old Fashioned Hymn Contest".

Rev. W. O. Johnson, pastor, extends a welcome to all to attend this meeting.

J. N. WILLIS' HAVE VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Willis had as guests this week her brother, H. H. Bevers of Lovington, N. M., and her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Alton Phillips, who were returning from California.

MRS. T. CAVITT PASSES AWAY

Mrs. Time Cavitt, mother of Mrs. E. G. Moore, passed away in DeLeon at 2:30 Monday morning.

Mrs. Cavitt had been in ill health for sometime, but it was several days ago she fell and broke her hip, then took a decided change for the worse. It was believed she suffered a stroke, as she was in a coma prior to her death.

Mr. and Mrs. Moore were at her bedside when the end came. Funeral services were held Tuesday, and those attending from here were Rev. and Mrs. W. O. Johnson, Mrs. Clyde Loveless, Mrs. Mansfield Thomas and the Moores.

VISIT HERE FROM EL PASO

Mr. and Mrs. Berriman Ray and Judy of El Paso were here last week visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Nabours, her sisters, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hall of Ropes, and Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn Bates of Lubbock.

Jeane and Glynis Hall, who had been visiting their grandparents, the Robert Halls, returned to El Paso with them. They are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Hall, who reside there.

MRS. R. HUDSON IS NOW HOME

Mrs. Robert Hudson is now home after recent surgery and doing fine.

They have as visitor her mother, Mrs. Eva Rainwater of Phoenix, Ariz., who will remain with them until the middle of September.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to take this means of thanking the folks of the Ropes community for the words of sympathy, acts of kindness, the food, beautiful flowers and prayers at the time of the death of our beloved husband and father, Virgil Wright. It is our hope that when such a dark hour comes to you that you will find yourselves among friends such as you have proven to be.

The family of Virgil Wright.

MARRIAGE VOWS

Before a background of candelabra and greenery interspersed with yellow and white pom-poms, Miss Rena Kathryn Parham became the bride of Marshall James Taylor. A double ring ceremony was read by Joe R. Barnett at 8 p.m. Friday at the Cactus Drive Church of Christ.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Parham, Route 1, Levelland, and Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Taylor, also of Route 1, Levelland.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride descended the aisle in a gown fashioned of delustered satin with a fitted bodice, long petal point sleeves and bell-shaped skirt of double inverted pleats flowing into a brief chapel train. It featured hand-clipped chantilly lace scallops edging a full length panel and the portrait neckline.

Small floral sprays of chantilly lace were applied down the panel and the entire lace design was re-embroidered with seed pearls and iridescent sequins. She wore a fingertip length mantilla veil of illusion bordered with chantilly lace matching the dress. She carried a white Bible centered with a white orchid showered with stephanotis, English ivy, and satin ribbon streamers.

Miss Jean Anderson of Levelland was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Marilyn Rush of Levelland and Miss Teresa Diane Parham of Levelland, sister of the bride. Miss Toni Lee Parham of Levelland, sister of the bride, was flowergirl and ringbearers were Vernetta and Randy Taylor of Levelland, sister and brother of the groom.

The attendants wore street length dresses of mint green silk organza with bouffant skirts, elbow length sleeves and draped necklines. They wore matching headpieces with short veils and they carried nosegays of pale yellow roses and English ivy atop miniature white Bibles.

While the Southside Church of Christ Chorus of Lubbock, directed by J. I. Parham, grandfather of the bride, sang "My God and I", the candles were lit by Miss Carol Conatser of Levelland and Miss Suzanne Harrison of Lubbock, aunt of the bride. Other wedding selections were "I Pledge My Love", "Whither Thou Goest", and "The Wedding Prayer".

Vernon Taylor, father of the groom, was best man. Ushers and groomsmen were Bobby McNabb and Gerald Smith, both of Ropesville.

Following the ceremony a reception was given by the bride's parents. The bride's table was covered with white satin and net with satin bows and bells fastened at the corners. A tiered wedding cake centered the table flanked by silver candelabra entwined with a rope of English ivy and yellow roses. Pam Searsey of Ropesville and Sherril Lewis of Levelland served and Jeannie Wiles of Levelland registered guests.

For traveling to New Mexico, Mrs. Taylor chose a tangerine cotton knit suit with black patent accessories. She added a white orchid from her bouquet.

The couple will be at home at 203 Elm, Levelland, where the groom is employed as a barber at Heath's Barber Shop. Mrs. Taylor is a 1963 graduate of Levelland High. Taylor is a 1961 graduate of Ropesville High, attended Lubbock Christian College and attended Lubbock Barber College.

MRS. COPELAND RETURNS HOME

Mrs. W. H. Copeland, who visited a son, Floyd and family in Chandler, and daughter, Floyd Evans and family in Irving, says it was hot, and if it had not been for air conditioned homes and cars, she could not have stayed. She said each time she stepped outside the heat was unbearable. She now has as visitor a granddaughter, Mrs. Rita Wooten of Tyler, and over the weekend her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Krebbs of Lubbock, visited her.

ENTERTAINS HER GRANDDAUGHTER

Mrs. Mary Jones had as her visitor last week her granddaughter, Angela, the small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kahlich of Lubbock. The parents were on a trip to San Antonio.

MRS. E. L. HARRIS BREAKS HIP

Information given us states that Mrs. E. L. Harris fell and broke her hip at her home in Tullia. She is the mother of Joe Harris, Ropes. She was taken to Amarillo for surgery. Joe and wife are at her bedside.

A population of less than one thousand proved no handicap to Frost, Texas, when its aggressive citizens set out to secure new industry.

Today, Frost Manufacturing Co. of Texas, makers of women's fashions, is a thriving industry employing 40 people and with an expansion program planned for the near future. It is another reason we say big things are happening in General Telephone towns

These towns are on the move. Community improvements are under way, local resources are being developed, new businesses, new industries are coming in.
