Texas Public School Legislation to be Introduced

Bills to be Sponsored By Schwartz, Hale

School Board Plans 1969-70 Policies

School Election, Student Discipline

Directions to draft a school board policy in regard to disciplinary powers concerning "dangerous" drugs and narcotics and student expulsion policies for violation, were given Superintendent of Schools Neal Dillman by Muleshoe Independent School board at the monthly meeting Monday night.

The board felt that a local policy regarding drug abuse by students was a necessary result of Attorney General Crawford C. Martin's Opinion M-332. In addition it gives legal protection for the board and administration, and authority for action on the part of principals, Dillman stated.

There are no known cases of drug abuse within M'SD, Dillman said.

The Attorney General's Opinion has held that "when a school board has published a discipline policy concerning Dangerous Drugs and Narcotics, a student may be expelled for violation of such policy."

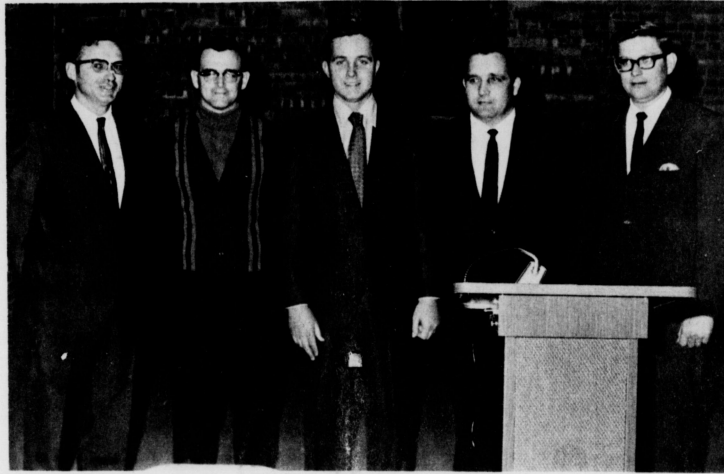

"The school board must conduct its own hearing, and disposition of state court charges will have no effect on the action of the board (except as evidence)."

"The board incurs no liability if its actions are reasonable, but it may not legally suspend or expel a student from school solely on the basis of an indictment for a narcotics offense. The student is entitled to a hearing in which he is given every fair opportunity of showing his innocence of the offense charged and the requirements of due process of law must be fulfilled, before a school board may expel a student."

Action approving a school calendar for 1969-1970 designated a return to the two-week Christmas holidays, December 20 through January 4, and a week Easter vacation, March 28 through April 5, 1970, with Thanksgiving holidays the usual Thanksgiving Thursday and Friday. First day of school will be September 1 with the last day tentatively set for May 29, 1970.

The annual school board election will be held Saturday, April 5. Retiring from the board after three-year terms are Eugene Black, W. E. Meyers and W. M. Pool II; remaining member are Charles G. Lewis, John Gunter, Joe Embrey and Carl Barnert. The last day for can-

Park Board Reports Progress

Great progress is being made in rejuvenating the city park in southeast Muleshoe. Walter Barthlof, chairman of the park board, said "35 percent more parking space will be available due to relocation of the ball field and removal of excess trees." Approximately 125 trees have been removed at this time.

The park board plans to install 2 swing sets, 2 teeter-totter sets, a Bunker Hill Climber and a giant out door Muscle Man complex as well as constructing a new ball park. New picnic tables are in the plans along with leveling and re-seeding of the entire park.

Barthlof said "Upon completion of the proposed projects, southeast Muleshoe will have a first rate neighborhood park." Members of the Muleshoe City Park Board are: Walter

Tire Explodes With Man

While airing a tractor tire Danny Barra, 20, an employee of Jerry's Tire Shop had the misfortune of being blown 6 feet into the air when the tire exploded. Witnesses reported that the tractor tire, which Barra was astride, hit the beam at the top of the building.

Barra was taken to West Plains Hospital and at press time his condition was reported as good. He sustained laceration of the forehead, side of the head, bruised ankle and leg. Jerry Littau reported that this incident is most unusual. Littau said we always expect a truck tire to blow up but never a tractor tire. The tire appeared to have blown from the back of the rim.

Corn Yields High In County Test

Corn is continuing to look more and more like a profitable cash crop on the High Plains of Texas.

This outlook stems from the results of a corn performance test on the Jack Little farm in Bailey County about 15 miles northwest of Muleshoe.

The test is one of nine in the state being conducted by Texas A&M University's Agricultural Experiment Station. It was established with the cooperation of Little and J. K. Adams, county extension agent, as a part of the overall agricultural demonstrations sponsored by the county Program Building Committee.

Little planted 26 different hybrids provided by commercial seed companies and the Agricultural Experiment Station. Hybrids are entered on a fee basis by commercial seed companies. Two separate tests were conducted, one with a high population of plants (one per six inches of row) and another with a low plant population (one per nine inches of row). Average yield for the high population hybrids was 156.9 bushels of shelled corn per acre while those in the low population test averaged 148.2 bushels.

The best yields under high plant populations were produced by ACCO, 201.9 bushels, and by Pioneer 51-A, 200.4 bushels. Other top yielders included Pioneer 3306, 193.4 bushels; Rebel, 185.7 bushels; Texas 30, 184.6 bushels; E-944, 183.3 bushels, and E-903W, 182.5 bushels.

Top yielders in the low population tests were Pioneer 321, 187.2 bushels, and McNair X202, 177.2 bushels. Other high producers were Pioneer 51-A, 172 bushels; Pioneer 3306, 171.6 bushels; E-903W, 167.5 bushels; Texas 17W, 160.5 bushels; and Texas 30, 157.4 bushels.

Adequate moisture and fertility are the major ingredients for top corn yields, and Little applied plenty of both, explained the agent. The corn received a total of 32 inches of water, all but two inches coming from irrigation. Irrigations included a six-inch preplant and four lodging throughout all the plots, points out Adams. In last year's test on the same farm, lodging resulted in an average yield loss of three and one-half percent.

Yield losses from worm damage, primarily by the southwestern corn borer, corn ear worm and fall army worm, averaged slightly more than two and one-half percent in the high population plots and about one and one-half percent with low plant populations.

The percentage of smut on some of the hybrids ranged as high as 21 percent and this contributed to yield reductions, adds Adams.

SAME OLD CROSSING.....Brazil King, driving south on highway 70 and a west bound train collided at the railway crossing. King was apparently unharmed.

Falls 70 Feet Injuries Minor

A modern day miracle took place January 18 when a nineteen year old man fell seventy feet.....

Phil Love, of Rocky Comfort, Missouri, a member of a construction crew reeling concrete tanks was about halfway to the top of the grain tank when the cable holding his 'saddle' crapped under the drum on the hoist and pulled the cable in two, causing him to fall seventy feet. The fall was broken when the saddle became entangled in the scaffold at the bottom of the tank and he was held suspended there.

Joe Walcher, of the same address as Love, foreman of Barton Elevator Construction Company out of Hutchinson, Kansas, told the Journal Love was brought by car to the West Plains Hospital where he stayed overnight. He suffered a cut under his right eye which required nine stitches and abrasions of the right hand.

Monday morning, Jan. 20, Love was back at work.

Both Senator Schwartz and Representative Hale expect some modification of the proposed legislation after it has been subjected to the democratic processes of examination and debate in the committees and on the floor of their respective houses. Neither of the sponsors—and no member of our Committee—believes that the bills as introduced are a panacea to our education ills. All of us expect and hope for improvements before final passage, but we do believe they offer the framework for a workable plan to give Texas a first class public school system and program at a reasonable cost—one that is fairly shared.

Newspaper comment and letters addressed to the Committee on Public School Education reflect serious concern on the part of some parents and citizens over three aspects of the Committee's program: (1) establishment of school districts large enough to manage a comprehensive educational program with competence and efficiency; (2) equalization of local tax responsibility for support of the Foundation School program; (3) the cost of state participation in the proposed plan. I wish to comment on these subjects of concern. I regret that this calls for a somewhat lengthy dissertation.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights and Sidelights by Vern Sanford

AUSTIN, Tex. --Sponsors of unsuccessful 1968 efforts to legalize liquor by the drink in Texas will take another tack this session. Sen. Joe Christie of El Paso and Rep. Cletius Davis of Houston will propose that a constitutional amendment on the question of open bars be submitted to Texas voters. And since Gov. Preston Smith endorsed the constitutional amendment approach in his campaign platform and the State Democratic Party platform, he is expected to support the Christie-Davis plan. Senator Christie feels that a "sure enough" mixed-drink bill would have better chance of passage by the Legislature than John Connally's "mini-bottle" bill had last summer, if it would take effect only on statewide voter approval. But he and Representative Davis are bound to hear arguments that while a referendum on the subject won over a majority of voters in the 1968 primary election, the majority came from big-city residents, and less counties went for the proposition than against. TAX POLICY RECOMMENDATION--Texas Committee on State and Local Tax Policy headed by House Tax and Revenue Committee Chairman Ben Atwell of Dallas, came out with some suggestions for providing the $343 million or so the state will need in new revenue over the next two years, but said it would not make formal recommendations.

APPOINTMENTS -- Governor Connally -- as much as four years behind on some appointments -- did his best to catch up as the twelfth hour of his term of office came and went. Some of his last-minute appointments were: --Walter Bassano of Paris, Wales Madden Jr. of Amarillo, William Hunter McLean of Fort Worth and O. H. Elliott, Fred Moore and Will Davis, all of Austin, to the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System, and reappointment of Dr. G. V. Brindley Jr. of Temple. --Mrs. Nancy Sayers of Austin to chairmanship of Employment Commission -- fulfilling a 1962 campaign promise by Connally to put a woman on the Commission -- and reappointment of J. Ed Lyles of Austin as labor member of TEC. --Dr. Ralph Cohen of Longview, Dr. Salvador Mora of Laredo and Dr. Sidney Freid of Lubbock to the State Board of Examiners in Optometry. --W. R. Bryan of Sherman to the Interstate Compact Commission for the Red River. --O. T. Moore Jr. of Lockhart to Guadalupe-Blanco River Authority. --W. D. Corder of Burnet, M. C. Dalchau of Llan and Sam K. Seymour Jr. of Columbus to Lower Colorado River Authority. --Dr. Melvin E. Garrett of Waco to the Texas Board of Chiropractic Examiners. --Jack Balagia of Austin to the State Judicial Qualifications Commission. --Jenkins Garrett of Fort Worth and Dan C. Williams of Dallas to the University of Texas System Board of Regents and reappointment of Frank C. Erwin of Austin as chairman of that board. --Mrs. Emily M. Whiteside of Austin, new associate director of Texas Fine Arts Commission. JOB EDUCATION PLANS TOLD--Senate Committee on Vocational Technical Education for expanding vocational and technical education in Texas. Nine key recommendations of the committee, which conducted a series of public hearings include: Updating and expansion of public school programs together with technical and technological education and pre-vocational instruction; placing the administration under a Deputy Commissioner for Occupational Education and Technology under Board of Education; creation of an advisory council of 21 on vocational education; continuation of James Connally Technical Institute near Waco and creation of several other similar institutions; adequate funding for school and junior college job programs; counselor training; a cooperative secondary junior college program; licensing and regulation of private trade schools and continuation of the senate study committee. SPECIAL ELECTION TALK--After the Legislature began recovering from the shock of the death of Rep. Dave C. Howard of Uvalde, speculation started about possible candidates for his 49th District place in the House. Representative Howard died in Austin of a heart attack after the first day of his second session in the Legislature. Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes said, "I knew him as a dedicated public servant, fine gentleman and friend who will be missed in legislative halls." Governor Connally called him "a man of high honor and integrity."

Talk was strong in Austin that Dolph Briscoe of Uvalde, prominent rancher who ran unsuccessfully last year for governor and a former House member, will file as a candidate for Howard's vacant place when Gov. Preston Smith orders a special election. But Briscoe would not make an official comment. People who accept invitations should sometimes send them out.

What price Electricity... and progress? When you stop and think about it, it's a real bargain!

A MESSAGE FROM ROY TOLK, PRESIDENT SOUTHWESTERN PUBLIC SERVICE COMPANY

I'm sure the figures on the right will surprise you as much as they did me. Being in the electric industry, I knew that the manufacturers, as well as the people in our Company were doing a magnificent job in holding down costs in spite of the run-away inflation we've all been experiencing... but no one had previously published the appliance cost comparisons. In our own Company, by careful handling and attention to costs, coupled with advances in technology and prudent investment in plant and equipment, we have not only stayed ahead of your electricity needs but have been able to reduce the average cost per kilowatt hour of the electricity used in your home. In 1948 the average cost of your electricity was 3.89 CENTS per kilowatt hour and today it has dropped to 2.74 CENTS, a reduction of 29.56 PERCENT. Certainly most of us have larger bills today because we use electricity for so many labor saving chores as well as comforts and conveniences. But, without the dedicated efforts of our employees in holding our costs down, your dollar cost would be way, way up. In fact, the current CONSUMER PRICE INDEX, the measure of how much we all spend as a group on the things we buy, indicated that we're paying 1/2 again as much for most things today as we were paying in 1948. Yet, the average kilowatt hour cost of electricity that you buy from us for your family's use is down 29.56%. This coming year to keep you fully supplied with electric power and to keep electric service as efficient and economical as possible, we shall invest nearly 16 million dollars in required new equipment. You may rest assured that your electric service will continue to be modern, dependable and brought to you at the lowest possible price. Reddy Kilowatt, and his fellow workers will see to it.

Despite inflation, the electric industry has kept costs low... How about these price differences over the past 20 years? A DISPOSER was $119.50 in '48, now it's $78.50 and there have been over 100 external and internal improvements made. A DISHWASHER costing $339.95 in '48 is $299.95 now and it offers more cycles, better styling, more setting space. AN AIR CONDITIONER at $425 in '48 averages $175 today and it looks better, works better, and is cheaper to operate. ELECTRIC DRYERS at $299 in '48 now range from $249 to $299 with electronic dampness controls, many cycles, end-of-cycle signals, permanent press controls -- and some models for as little as $100. A REFRIGERATOR-FREEZER in '48 at a cost of $31 per cubic foot is now $22 per cubic foot and you get no-rost, thinwall insulation, ice-makers, decorator fronts and colors. AN ELECTRIC RANGE which was $343 in '48 is $350 today. And that's with all the modern sophisticated controls and self-cleaning thrown in for good measure. She wore a street length dress of hot pink crepe, fashioned with deep inverted pleats from the Empire waistline, scooped neckline and bell sleeves. Two bows of self-material accented the bodice. Her tiny pill box was of matching crepe and illusion, and she carried one pink carnation tied with long pink streamers.

Miss Jonette Suddath of Muleshoe, Texas was flower girl. Her dress was of hot pink crepe, similar to maid of honor, with a bow of matching crepe in her hair. She carried a basket of pink petals. Larry Meason, of Muleshoe, served his brother as best man. Ushers were Terry Meason and Ronnie Meason, also brothers of the groom.

The church sanctuary was decorated with a large basket of pink and hot pink streamers. A bad vase with pink carnations stood on the registry table, with Miss Janet Wixom, of Amarillo, cousin of the bride, presiding.

Miss Susie Tanner, of Muleshoe, furnished wedding selections and accompanied Mrs. Lyndal Murray as she sang "The Twelfth of Never" and "I Love You Truly."

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Parks chose a beige and brown wool lace dress, with brown accessories and wore pink carnations. Mrs. Meason wore a blue knit dress with matching accessories and pink carnations.

Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held in the parlor of the church, with Misses Vicki Street, Cindy Vernon and Rene Dyer, of Muleshoe, and Sherri Roberts of Floydada, assisting in hospitalities.

The bride's table was laid with white linen and decorated with the bridal bouquet and that of the maid of honor. A three-tiered wedding cake iced in pink, punch, nuts and mints were served.

Out of town guests were Mrs. James L. Wixom, of Amarillo, aunt of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Henderson of Pampa, Mr. and Mrs. J.B. Wilson of Pampa, Jesse Snider of Amarillo, uncle of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Singleterry, Clovis, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Meason of Hub, Mr. and Mrs. Arva Meason of Silverton, and Misses Marcella Ramsey and Laverne Martin, of Clovis.

Attends Governor's Ball

Miss Diane Bryant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Bryant, flew from Lubbock Monday to Austin to attend the gala inaugural for Governor Preston Smith. She was met at the Austin airport by Steve Oliver, son of the Martin Olivers, who escorted her to the victory dinner and the Governor's ball.

When Diane and Steve arrived at the victory dinner they found themselves without seating and were so pleased when Lt. Governor Ben Barnes came to their assistance and gave instructions in the 'right places' so they were taken care of. Diane met Barnes during the summer of 1967 when she was Miss Muleshoe and has since received Christmas cards and other correspondence from him.

Diane called her mother upon returning to Lubbock, where she is a student at Tech and reported the two-day trip was 'wonderful, just wonderful, and well worth the effort.'

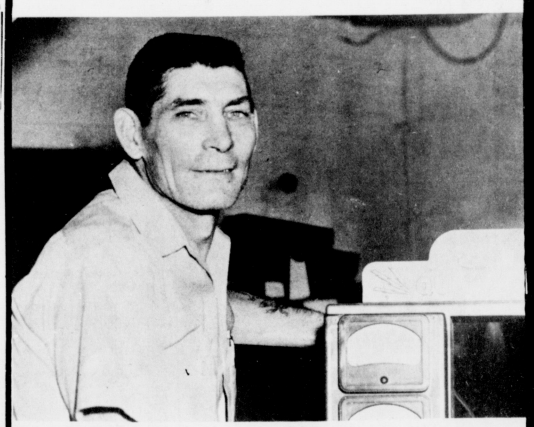

Nursery News
 ANNOUNCED BY A.L. WOODBURN
 GARDEN CENTER NURSERY
 CLOVIS, N.M.

To further the discussion of the idea of rockscape we would like to point out some of the advantages as well as some of the disadvantages so that you, as the home owner, can decide and weigh these to figure which is your most practical way of dressing your premises.

Since most of us like to look into some of the disadvantages. Rock scape is more or less semi permanent and is not recommended in areas where the wind blows silt onto the top or where water will undermine and wash the base away. The problem of silt settling on the top is not one limited to the practice of rock alone - it is also a problem with grass, flower beds, or any other method, the difference is the investment in rock is somewhat larger and the practical side might not pay the difference. The grass is not as expensive to put in and can be re-done with less cost. The point of water undermining the area is not a very large problem in the flat and dry country we chose to live except on rather rare conditions. The rock will withstand the rainfall, plus will run off the roof, plus the runoff from the drive way. It will not withstand the runoff from the street and several other areas.

Some of the advantages are that the rock is more or less permanent or semi permanent. We have had some out for seven years now and it still looks good. After the initial cost and investment, the upkeep is considerably less. Some have figured that the rock paid for itself in two years. That is considering the money spent on water, fertilizer, treatments and etc. The rock will keep the dust from sifting into the house where concrete does not. The rock will absorb some of the heat but still is not as cooling as grass. There is not the fire hazard with rock as there is with some of the grasses. The big advantage, as we see it, is the conservation of our limited amount of water. To prolong the time that we are faced with abandoning the idea of watering the yard is something to consider. In areas where water is more limited, the use is limited to use for drink and not too many baths, Adv.

Mr. and Mrs. Gary Alan Murrah

Fred Bruns Marks Ninetieth Birthday

Sitting in quiet dignity, Fred Bruns contemplated his ninety years of living Wednesday at his home on the Friona Highway. With diminished eyesight and hearing, he still is able to enjoy television and conversation with friends and family members. He sleeps well and enjoys good health, but because it is necessary to use a cane for walking he does not leave his home often.

Born at Carrollton, Missouri January 23, 1879, Bruns followed mining when a young man but spent most of his active life in farming, retiring about twenty years ago. His great love for horses, evidenced also in his sons, has been a source of pleasure through the years. He just sold the last one last week.

Fred Bruns and Miss Edith Bracken were married in December, 1912 at Snyder, Oklahoma and moved to a farm in the Friona community forty years ago, where they still own land. Upon retirement the Bruns moved to a house in town and then twenty years ago moved to their present home.

Mrs. Bruns explained that because neither drive now, they do not go out much, just to church (Church of Christ where they are members) and then home. Their children and grandchildren visit them often, as do their good neighbors who "spoil them" with dishes brought in. Mrs. Bruns underwent bone surgery the past year and is still somewhat limited in her activities.

The Bruns are parents of four children, Mrs. Ruth Briscoe, Les Bruns and Don, all of Muleshoe. Their son Jack died about two years ago. When asked how many grandchildren they have, Mrs. Bruns laughed and said, "I think we have about seventeen." There are seven great grandchildren.

Fred Bruns

Deborah Landers, Gary Murrah Marry

Miss Deborah Lynn Landers and Gary Alan Murrah, both of Muleshoe, exchanged wedding vows Saturday, January 18 at six o'clock in a double ring ceremony performed in the chapel of First United Methodist Church. Rev. J. Waid Griffin, the pastor, was officiating minister.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Landers and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Francis Murrah, all of Route 2, Muleshoe.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an off-white knit sheath fashioned with jewel necklace, the long tight sleeves buttoned at wrist. Her veil of illusion was caught by a large bow which was decorated with seed pearls. She wore a blue garter, gift of her sister, Mrs. Burl Mardis of Muleshoe, and an heirloom necklace. Her bouquet was a single white orchid atop a white Bible which she borrowed from the groom's sister, Mrs. Ben Roming.

The couples' only attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Ben Roming, brother-in-law and sister of the groom. Mrs. Roming wore a pastel blue Shantung dress with matching accessories and a corsage of white carnations tipped in the same blue.

Only family members attended. Following the ceremony, the wedding party attended a wedding supper at the Corral Restaurant.

The bride is a junior student at Muleshoe high school and will enroll at Loveland high school at mid-term. The groom is a 1968 graduate of Muleshoe high school and is attending South Plains College as an agriculture major.

They will be at home in Loveland.

The ladies will entertain their husbands with a 42 party January 30 at 7:00 p. m. in the community room, Muleshoe State Room. Each lady is to bring a pie to be served as refreshments.

'Result Demonstrations' Are Good Teaching Tools

HOW DOES YOUR CLOSET LOOK? Not like this one, we hope, and the owner did not like it either, so she did something about it.

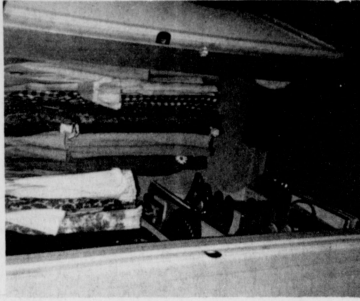

Result Demonstrations have been described as progressive, practical examples of farming or homemaking by a farmer or a member of his family which lead to greater profit, comfort, culture, influence and power' by O.B. Martin, an early worker in Extension service.

A comparatively new teaching tool of agricultural and home demonstration agents, result demonstrations are considered the most effective means of presenting methods, ideas and incentive for action by Robin Taylor, Bailey County Home Demonstration agent.

The five areas covered by result demonstrations are family stability, community resource development, family health, family housing and consumer competence.

Because of the enthusiastic report given before a group of home demonstration club members by one woman who has successfully worked cooperatively with Mrs. Taylor, ten other women were inspired to start result demonstrations and are now embarked on their projects.

THIS IS 'AFTER'.....The neatly arranged items on the shelves and the garments hung by groups are the result of thought, work and caring.

To be a result demonstrator a person must determine the thing she wants to achieve, or set her goal and then work with the agent, who helps her plan how they will arrive at the goal.

The Southeast room is painted a pale orchid. Her closet was 'a mess', as her mother said—so she decided to begin there. Shoes, games, etc. were thrown into the floor of the closet, clothes were hung haphazardly, giving a cluttered appearance. Drawer storage was in the same state, with everything jumbled together. Clippings and mementos on the walls added to the chaos.

Debbie's first step was to rearrange items thrown on the floor into the shelves already built. Clothes were grouped, making them easier to find. With the help of her father, scrap lumber was made into drawer dividers and she is now able to find items quickly and easily. Clutter was removed from the walls.

The only new items added to Debbie's room were curtains and these were made without cost except for the thread. Debbie's aunt, who works in a sheet factory, gave her some 'mill ends' and she made the curtains and decorated them with a zig-zag stitch in pale orchid thread.

Next year Debbie plans to improve an improvised desk she now uses and perhaps make a place for her record player. Her success thus far has made her eager to tackle the next unit.

Among the adult result demonstrators, Mrs. Albert Davis of the Progress Club, has been recognized for progress made in her three year result demonstration.

A wind-swept yard with deep sandy soil, near a major highway and surrounded on the windward side by blowing fields, were the built-in hazards to a beautiful lawn around the Davis home.

Mrs. Davis enrolled as a result demonstrator in 1967 and is still working on the project despite illness in the family and the discouragement of dying shrubs and trees. The first year she planted 12 shrubs, flowering perennials, 100 trees as a windbreak on the West side of the house and a combination of rye and Bermuda grasses in the back yard. A sheet iron fence around two sides of the yard has helped protect the grass from blowing sand and Trash and junk was removed from the service area, grass in the backyard was doubled in size, and a circle drive in front planned and built.

The plantings made the past two years have now grown large enough to be seen from the highway. Mrs. Davis is pleased with the results thus far and plans more improvement during the year 1969.

Mrs. Joe Smallwood, a result demonstrator in clothing made such progress and has enjoyed such a sense of achievement that her enthusiasm has caught fire with others hearing her story. She enrolled as a result demonstrator because she felt she needed to improve her personal appearance in every way possible and be better dressed on the money spent on her clothing budget.

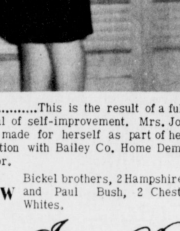

As a beginning step, Mrs. Smallwood rearranged a sewing center so everything she needs is at home when she sews, which has encouraged her to sew. She made a place to store her ironing board in the center, and cleared off a table, already there, beside the sewing machine.

Her next step was to take inventory of her clothes and decided the things she wanted to keep that she could wear and disposed of all others. By spring she discovered this left her only two costumes for best wear. She added five dresses and always shops for good buys. A very important result of the inventory was that it helped her to resist impulsive buying because she did not want this on her record. She is pleased with the results of her work and plans to do more next year.

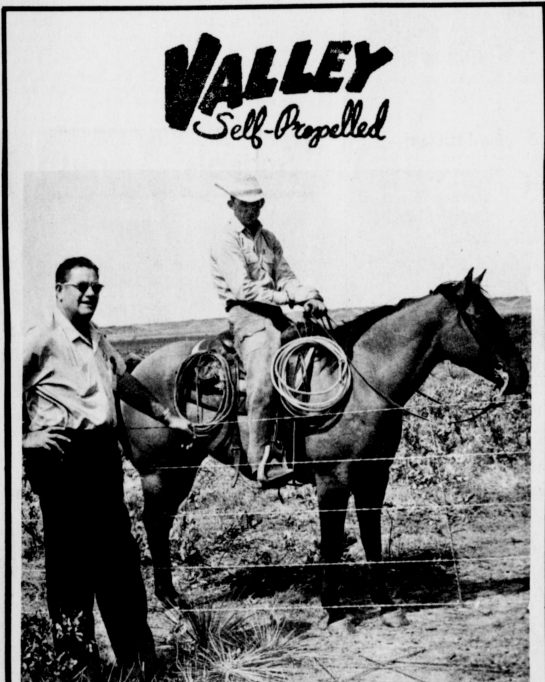

Mrs. Smallwood told her story so well to other home demonstration members that ten women have enrolled as result demonstrators. Telling the story and sharing with others is one of the goals of a Result Demonstrator.

Approximately 120 people are in home demonstration work in Bailey County, with about 170 boys and girls in 4-H work. There are two home demonstration clubs and the agent meets four times a year with them. The three 4-H clubs meet twice monthly and the agent meets four times a year with them, working individually with them at other times. The agent meets monthly with 4-H clubs and trains leaders who work with 4-H members individually.

RESULT DEMONSTRATOR.....This is the result of a full year of work toward a goal of self-improvement. Mrs. Joe Smallwood models a suit made for herself as part of her planned course in co-operation with Bailey Co. Home Demonstration Agent, Robin Taylor.

Calvin Jordan and Bill Robinson, foreman, look over the installation on the Birdwell Ranch at Coyote Lake, southwest of Muleshoe.

Next, we discussed Junior Degrees. The date was set for February 3, to be the day for all memory work to be due.

After discussing our business, we retired to the auditorium where the Rose Chapter presented a very interesting panel discussion on "Morals and Manners".

Evidently At a circus a thoughtful-looking gentleman stood for a long time, studying a camel. At length, he stopped, picked up a straw and placed it on the camel's back. Nothing happened. "Wrong straw," the man shrugged, then walked away.

We were pleased with the crowd that was at the Homecoming Basketball game with Tulia last Tuesday night. This is the largest crowd we have had at one of our basketball games in the past three years. The boys really appreciated this support from their fans. When we don't win very many games, the boys have a tendency to become discouraged. The large crowd helped lift the morale of the boys and gave them the feeling that people were interested in what they were doing.

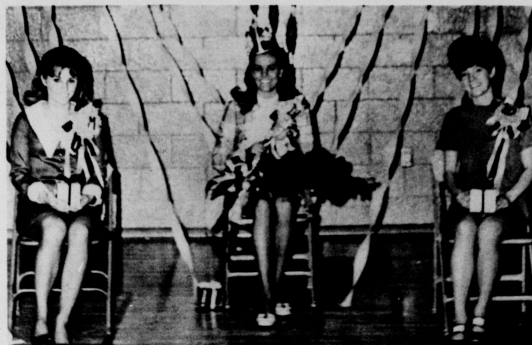

Since I have been at Muleshoe this group of boys have probably worked harder at trying to have a good basketball team than any team I've had in the past. I'm real proud of these boys in that they work hard, have a good attitude, and want to be the best basketball players they possible can be. We hope you will continue your support of your basketball team.

Mullettes Fall To Tulia Team

Muleshoe High's Mullettes fell to the Tulia team this past Tuesday night 56-43. Offensively the Mullettes hit only 33% of their shots to Tulia's 49%. The third quarter proved to be disastrous on the guard end.

Arlene Brown led the defense with eighteen rebounds, Janice Head scored 20 points, Ann Douglass 17 points, Gayetta Gable 6 points.

Jack Huff Visit School

When Jack Huff plays the amazing electronic Conn Organ, you'll think there's a whole orchestra inside. . . in fact, he can make it do everything, but talk!

Jack Huff will be at the Muleshoe School Monday, January 27. In this program, he traces the history and development of the organ through 2,000 years. Audiences have been fascinated by the surprising variety of orchestral and organ tones which emerge from the Conn Organ through Mr. Huff's fingers.

Many interesting questions will be answered about the way an organ works, and how it produces beautiful musical sounds through this educational and entertaining program. Mr. Huff was the recipient of a competitive scholarship to Roosevelt University School of Music, and holds Bachelor and Master Degrees in music composition. He has a varied background of television and concert work both here and abroad, and is currently a member of the Tucson Symphony Orchestra. His facile performances are well worth hearing.

Douglass, Botkin Crowned at Halftime

The second Annual Basketball Homecoming was held Tuesday Night, January 21. To start the eventful night the Muleshoe B team boys downed Tulia to . . . Following this game the varsity girls and boys met Tulia on the court. Even though Tulia defeated the two varsity teams the games were very evenly matched and very exciting. There was a great turn out and the Muleshoe side was packed. The Freshmen cheerleaders lead yells during the B boys and Varsity girls game and the Varsity cheerleader lead yells during the Varsity boys game.

Varsity boys game Ann Douglass and Ricky Botkin were crowned 1969 Basketball king and queen. Ann is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Douglass and a Junior. Ricky is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Botkin, a senior. The attendants were Karen St. Clair escorted by John Woodard and Debra Hayes escorted by Dennis Beene. As the candidates were introduced the Mighty M band played several selections. The traditional crowns and roses were presented to the new king and queen by the Varsity cheerleaders. We believe this was a very successful 1969 Basketball Homecoming.

Junior Class Began Plans For Concession, Banquet

The Junior Class met January 22nd to discuss plans for the concession stand at the Bailey County Livestock Show. The Livestock Show will be held on February 14th and 15th. It was decided that the mothers would meet at 4:00 o'clock on Tuesday, January 28 with Mrs. Eric Smith, class sponsor. They will decide what foods will be offered at the concession stand.

The Junior-Senior Banquet to be held May 24th at 8:00 p.m. These suggestions were considered, but a definite theme was not chosen. Chairman of committees for the banquet that were appointed are: Betty Harbin, head committee; Rick Bomer, food; Janet Ellis, decorations; Kathy Seymore, program; Cecil Cunningham, seating; and David Henderson, invitations.

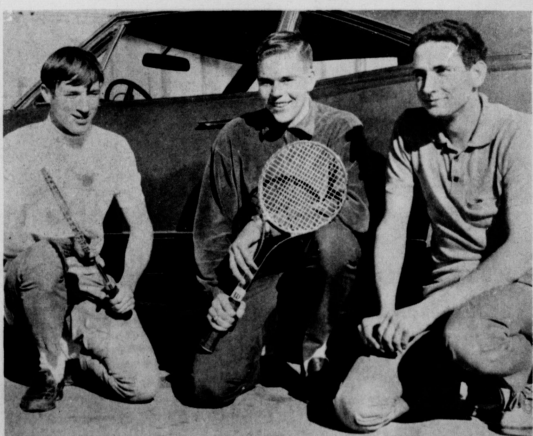

Planning was also begun for

Tennis Team Begins Season

Muleshoe High School's Tennis team officially begins its season January 30, when it meets Littlefield here. Muleshoe will field a boys team consisting of singles and doubles, due to a lack of interest on the part of the girls a girls team will not compete.

Last year was the first time a Tennis team from Muleshoe has competed in many years. Considering the amount of experience and training they had had the team did an excellent job. This year the boys are hoping for a better season. Coach Kerry Moore has lined up more games for the team this year and it looks like a busy year.

Tennis is a sport which must be practiced year round. It involves as much skill and work as does any other sport. The team has been practicing hard and hopes to represent Muleshoe High School in a way that would make their school proud to have such a team.

TENNIS ANYONE?.....This seems to be the thoughts in the heads of David Gupton, Danny Shipman and Ricky Hudson. The Muleshoe Tennis Team will begin their season January 30.

WE WON THIS ONE..... Is what Betty Harbin and Linda Kerr seem to be saying as they admire the trophies won at the Friona Speech Tournament held recently. Muleshoe compiled the most points of any visiting teams entered in the tournament.
