THE OBSERVATIONS OF A PILGRIM

—John E. Drawhorn

Have you ever seen a Sports Fan? They are funnier than a slap-happy drunk.

Now there is no need to wear your eyes out looking for a special kind of person to be a Sports Fan. They come in all varieties: short, tall, skinny, fat, blonde, brunette redhead, male or female.

But as different as they are in looks, one thing identifies them all: a mad passion for sports of any kind. I've seen them sit or stand through sleet, rain, hail, snow, wind or dust storms just to watch their team do its thing. And while sitting or standing (the latter being the best position from which to holler at the referee), they are completely oblivious to anyone or anything around them.

Just to show you what I mean, at a recent Texas Tech ball game (hats off, please), a very dignified gentleman sat down next to me. He looked like anyone's local bank president, with all the regular pomp and reserve. But once that pigskin (loose term for football) was put into play, he came apart at both ends. He screamed, he hollered, he cursed, he gobbled food and drink, he stomped his feet, he beat me on the back, hugged both his wife and myself, and finally collapsed at the games end a complete nervous wreck. And he was just typical of the 50,000 plus fans that jammed Jones' Stadium to watch the Red Raiders (hats off, please)

Have you ever visited in the home of a Sports Fan on any given Sunday afternoon? If you haven't, forget it! It is a complete waste of time, unless, of course, you like to talk to yourself or holler over the noise of battle that rises up from the latest Dallas Cowboy massacre on T.V. It is quite a sight to watch my local parishioners on Sunday if I preach past the magical hour of 12 noon. They squirm, make faces, and almost twist off the ends of the pews for fear they will not make it home in time for the kick-off.

It is, indeed, an even more interesting spectacle to watch them return on Sunday evening: hair astray, eyes blood-shot and bugged out, tie half on, coke or coffee stains on the shirt, potato chip crumbs in their laps, and cigarette ashes strewn all over the front of their clothing; all the results of attempting to watch the last fading glimmer of football on T.V. as they dress for church.

I look for a portable boob tube to be set up in church any day now. And just think, we have the divisional play-offs, championship games, plus bowls to go through yet. But to top it all off; basketball season has arrived. Will this mad, vicious chain of events never cease? But alas; if you are unfortunate enough to sit down next to a bona-fide Sports Fan during the course of our local basketball season, be careful whom you refer to as a fool, that fool may be me. You see, besides being the local Methodist Minister, I'm also a Sports Fan. WAR EAGLE!!!

Services were held at 2:00 p.m. Wednesday in the First Baptist Church of Abernathy with the Rev. Bill Everett of the Elder Road Baptist Church of Arlington, officiating.

Burial was in the Abernathy Cemetery directed by the Chambers Funeral Home.

Mrs. Vineyard was a civil service employee and had lived in Arlington for the past year and a half.

A Few Hints For Christmas Mailing

Christmas stamps are now on sale at the Post Office for use on your Christmas cards and letters.

Here are a few ideas about how Christmas can be made merrier:

Visit the Post Office while the crowds are small.

Buy all the extra stamps you'll need.

Stock up on enough boxes, tape, stuffing, string and wrapping paper to see that your packages are wrapped solidly and well.

The time of mailing is especially important (the earlier the better).

Always write or print addresses carefully and use zip code in both return and mailing addresses.

Postage on Christmas cards this year is 6c sealed or unsealed. It will help a lot if you will seal your envelopes and put your return on them. This will enable the cards to be returned if they cannot be delivered.

Wrap your packages neatly and well. A loose piece of wrapping may get caught and ripped. Pad your gifts securely so there is no rattling and there is sufficient support for other packages. The sack carrying your glass cup may have two or three bowling balls in parcels riding on top of it.

A card or piece of paper inside the package carrying your name and address and that of the person to whom the parcel is addressed will insure delivery in case the wrapping comes loose.

A list of the contents will help postal "re-wrap" clerks in the event your package is poorly wrapped and bursts.

Please place the address and return address on only ONE side of the parcel. Postal employees who are working at top speed to meet transportation connections for mail do not have time to check other sides. They assume that postage is due if the address side is without stamps.

The important thing is to MAIL EARLY; also mail early in the day to avoid congestion at closing time.

Methodist Church News

tata of assorted music.

And to uplift this holiest of seasons, a Christmas Eve Communion Service will be held on December 24 from 11 p.m. to 12 midnight.

To end the year on a spiritual footnote, the Methodist people invite you to join them in a New Year's Eve Watch Night Service on December 31 from 10:30 to 12 midnight. This will be a time of fun, food and fellowship for all to enjoy as we ring out the old year and ring in the new.

A Few Thanksgiving Items

Mrs. L. D. Patman, D'Linda and Jeanine of Lovington, New Mexico, Mr. and Mrs. Mansfield Thomas and Libby and Mrs. Clyde Loveless spent Thanksgiving with Brenda Thomas in Oklahoma City. Friday morning they enjoyed a continental breakfast in the Nazarene College cafeteria, followed with the program 'In Radiance and Loveliness'. This was Bethany Nazarene College's 40th Homecoming Weekend.

A visit was enjoyed with some of Brenda's friends, Mary from Ponca City; Marylyn from North Dakota; Caria from Kansas; Jackie from California; and Brenda's room mate, Kathy Larson of Montana. Kathy spent a weekend with Brenda here in October and saw her first cotton and cotton gin. Dennis McNabb took them on a tour of Buster's Gin. They had a wonderful time at B. N. C. and are looking forward to returning there for the dedication of the new Nazarene First Church.

The new church will seat almost 4,000 when finished, including 135 in the choir loft. The church has twelve 53 foot faceted glass windows. The twelve windows represent the twelve Apostles of Christ with each window depicting an event in His Life in a rainbow variation of striking colors and detail.

Each of the windows has a predominant symbol at the top of its arch which represents the theme of that window, such as the Resurrection, Last Supper, the Nativity, Christ's Baptism, Christ the Good Shepherd, the feeding of the 5000, the healing Miracles of Christ, and others. The tour of the new church was enjoyed very much even though it isn't finished.

There's nothing more enjoyable than giving or receiving a special gift. So, here is a special gift idea. A Patio Pair... a gas light and gas barbeque grill.

But, you're thinking, "Christmas seems like a strange time to give a gas light and grill!"

Not at all. As soon as the weather begins to warm, you'll start thinking about getting outside again. Won't a gas light and a gas barbeque grill make those backyard get-togethers a lot more fun?

Give the family a Patio Pair for Christmas.

If you buy now, you'll get a handsome dinner bell FREE.
