City Employees Granted Pay Increases

Most employees of the City of Slaton were granted salary increases by action of the city commission Monday night. The council acted upon the recommendation of public works administrator, Wayne Baker.

The action was taken in an effort to equalize wages according to position. Hourly employees were raised from $1.10 to $1.25, and salaried employees' wages increases ranged from $10.00 per month to $30.00 per month.

Baker's presentation of the salary increases to the commission revealed that one employee had transferred from one department of the city to another and that the vacancy created would not be filled at this time; therefore, relieving the city budget of this salary, and that, according to Baker another employee plans to resign which will create a surplus of $612.50 in salary budget.

The salary increases approved by the city dads will amount to $590.00 per month.

Taxi Permit
W. H. Walker made written application for a permit to operate a taxi service in Slaton. The commission granted the permit on condition that Walker operate the business according to city ordinance that stipulates regulations of operating a taxi service in Slaton.

Partial Payment Discovered
Mayor Jonas Cain informed the commission that more than $300.00 cash has been located in the vault that was enclosed in envelopes. The envelopes contained money that had been paid to the city in partial payments for taxes and delinquent water bills. On motion made by commissioner, Robert H. Davis, the commission voted to write a letter to the known owners of the partial payments requesting the owner to come to the city hall and clear the remaining balance of indebtedness. Until the owners make appearance, the money will be placed in a special fund in the Citizens State Bank.

The city has discontinued the practice of accepting partial payments on taxes and other bills owed to the City of Slaton.

Police Station Addition
M. H. Edward was awarded the bid to construct an addition to the police station. The addition will consist of an area of 16 'x 14', and the cost will be $1,068.00.

City Farm Rented
After a very lengthy discussion with Leon "Red" Walston, the commission decided to rent the 160 acre farm owned by the City of Slaton to Walston for the year of 1964. The commission also decided that the farm located northeast of Slaton and commonly known as the "sewer farm", will be put up for bid before it is leased after this year.

Repay Note
The commission voted to pay a note held by the Citizens State Bank in the amount of $15,000. Commissioner Henry Bollinger made the motion to draw the money from the city's savings account that is on deposit at Slaton Savings and Loan Association, and repay the money to the savings account in the amount of $1,000 per month. F. Gonzales suddenly became frigid at the firing line and tossed in only 10 points in the final stretch while Littlefield forged ahead with 20.

Two starters, Bruce Pember and Larry Smith, were out of the Tiger lineup. Pember suffered a cold and Smith's grandfather died.

High scorer for Slaton was Leslie Brown with 21. Running a close second was Bobby Brake with 18.

In a preliminary game, Littlefield B-team downed Slaton's Bees, 52 to 29. Larry Luman and Billy Martin shared scoring honors for the losers with 9 a piece.

The world famous Harlem Stars are coming to Lubbock tonight, Thursday, January 16.

The traveling cagers will take on the Lincoln Liberty Lifters, former Texas Tech basketball stars, at 8 p. m. in the feature attraction of a double-header in Lubbock Municipal Coliseum.

A preliminary game between Cotton Center and the Sacramento Seahawks will begin at 6:30 p. m.

An added attraction will be the cage performance of Boid Bue, billed as the "one-arm wonder." The South Plains College Tex-Ann Drill Team will perform at half-time of feature attraction.

R. A. Hanna and guest are invited to be guests of The Slatonite to see "The Haunted Palace" and "A Ticklish Affair" showing Thursday, Friday and Saturday at the Slaton and Caprock Theatres. Present this coupon (plus tax) for two tickets at the Slaton Theatre or Caprock Drive-in box office.

Judge C. Smith

Judge C. Smith, Prminent Slaton Citizen, Dies In Del Rio Monday

Judge C. Smith, 72, prominent Slaton citizen since 1924 died in Memorial Hospital in Del Rio Monday.

Services were held Wednesday in the First Baptist Church at 2:30 p. m. with Dr. Charles Wood, pastor, officiating. Burial was in Englewood Cemetery under the direction of Williams Funeral Home.

Smith came to Slaton in 1924 from Collin County to farm the place 3 miles northwest of Slaton that is now the Cato farm. He farmed this land on rental basis before he purchased other lands that are now farmed by his son, Elton and J. C. Jr., near Slaton on FM 40.

He was married to Eva McCain March 14, 1914 at Nevada, Texas.

Smith was a deacon of the First Baptist Church in Slaton, a director of the Federal Land Bank and was one of the original 7 directors of the Slaton Independent School Board.

He also served on the Englewood Cemetery Board.

Survivors include his wife: two sons, J. C. and Elton, both of Slaton; a daughter, Mrs. George Harlan, Slaton; a sister Hattie Smith, Nevada; a brother Van Smith, Nevada; eight grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

Shallowater, Post Take Slaton Tourney

Shallowater boys and Post girls copped the crowns at the Slaton invitational cage tourney held last weekend at the junior high gymnasium.

The Shallowater team had a perfect 3-0 record, defeated Post, 41 to 36, in the finals Saturday. Post won the girls division with a 55-34 victory over Shallowater.

The Post girls' 2-1 tourney record was equalled by the Shallowater team, but Post was given the crown on a basis of the margin of victory in all its games.

Slaton placed second for the boys and Shallowater was runner up for the girls in the round-robin tournament.

In their final tilt Saturday, Slaton boys downed Post 65 to 55. Leslie Brown was top scorer for Slaton with 26 points.

In other games Saturday: Shallowater boys clipped Tahoka, 53 to 36; Shallowater girls trounced Tahoka, 38 to 20; and Slaton edged Post 54-52 in overtime.

Services Held Here For R. F. Swafford
Robert F. Swafford, 76, a resident of the area 44 years, died at his home here Sunday morning.

Services were held at 10:30 a. m. Tuesday in the First Methodist Church, with the Rev. Rollo Davidson, pastor, officiating assisted by Rev. Elmer Crabtree, Plainview. Burial was in Southland Cemetery under direction of Williams Funeral Home.

A retired railroader, Swafford resided at 320 W. Panhandle St.

Survivors include his wife; a daughter, Mrs. Lawrence Evans, 2328 56th St., Lubbock; and a grandson, Robert Evans, Austin.

Tiger Teams Open District Play Here Friday Night

Slaton's Tiger and Tigerette cagers open district 4AA play here Friday night, hosting Frenship in a pair of games beginning at 6:30 p. m. in the Junior High Gymnasium.

The boys' tilt is rated a toss-up based on a mutual opponent. Frenship defeated Post 11 points in an earlier engagement and Slaton downed the Post squad by 10 points in last week's tourney here.

Slaton dropped a heartbreaker to the Littlefield Wildcats, 66 to 61, there Tuesday night after leading 51 to 46, at the end of the third quarter.

The Wildcats jumped into a first-quarter lead, 18 to 11, only to see the Tigers retaliate and take command, 37 to 35, at the half. Holding the lead through the third stanza, the Tigers suddenly became frigid at the firing line and tossed in only 10 points in the final stretch while Littlefield forged ahead with 20.

Slaton Tigerettes Defeat 'Fallouts'

In a comedy of awkwardness, the "Fallouts" were defeated by the Slaton Tigerettes, 32 to 29, in a benefit cage game Tuesday night at the junior high gym.

A good crowd attended the game and the proceeds will go to help sponsor the annual athletic banquet to be held sometime this month.

Coach Gay Ivey's quintet proved that girls are not the weaker sex on the maples. Playing for the embarrassed "Fallouts" were Deen Jackson, Bill Carnes, Tom Kurz, Greeley Myers, R. G. Copeland, Don Mitchell, John Shedd, Bing Bingham, Fred Weaver, Ed Gilliam and Joe Sparkman.

The teams neglected to keep official score but it was reported that Forward Don Mitchell was high pointer with 14. Principal M. W. Kerr officiated and half-time entertainment was provided by the sixth grade boys round-ballers.

"The coaches appreciate the effort put forth by the faculty, those who participated in the game and those who attended," said Coach Weaver.

Observations and Potpourri

Who's Irritated About What?

In all communications media that comes to our attention, we are constantly reminded of all the irritations, tensions and concerns that we as Americans are encountering every day. We are constantly told that we are concerned (from federal, state, local and various organizations) about the communists or other subversive groups going to take our country away from us. Our answer to all these pro statements about concern is simply . . . It ain't so!

Many reactions, from us as American people to different things that affect our heritage and way of life recently, makes us draw the conclusion that we are fast becoming a nation that doesn't care whether "school keeps or not."

A most recent, near local, incident is the pathetic turnout of voters in Lubbock to vote for or against amendments of the Lubbock city charter. It is hard for us to believe that a city of over 130,000 should be governed by a minority of 900 qualified voters.

Our own city charter remained the same recently at the decision of less than 10 per cent of Slaton qualified voters.

It seems obvious to us that if we don't start right now and become more interested in our affairs, locally and nationally, that we could very well wake up some morning and find ourselves being governed, or ruled, by some small extreme group.

This year it only cost $1.75 to maintain your privilege of voting. And when elections come about, regardless what they are for, it takes very little effort to go to the polls. And if you can't get to the polls by your own conveyance, there are many organizations that will see to it that you can get to the polls. Some of these organizations are the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Lubbock County League Of Women Voters and a host of others.

Please, for the sake of all us, take an interest in our affairs and keep us a free, healthy nation. Pay your Poll tax before January 31. JHK II

Just Beginning At Age 74

When a man reaches 73, folks expect him to slow down, with a few aches in his bones, but Monday morning of this week, the first Monday of the new year, this 73-year-old town didn't appear very decrepit.

The Observer editor took his decrepit old Polaroid out and viewed Austin Avenue (the main street) from the post office north, and then from in front of the Observer office—curbs lined with modern looking automobiles, and along 7th, in front of the court house and back of it, and out around the two cafes on the highway and the five filling stations, cars parked all around, pulling in, backing out, coming and going.

With pavement and caliche roads all out in the area, industrial plants dotting the ranch landscape, including refineries, oil wells, pipe line pump stations, the town and the county come of age right heartily.

In some other pages of this issue we take backward glances, getting some bearing on the "place of beginning" in making new surveys for the future.

Those were great days then, but no greater than now, just different. From the files of the Observer at the turn of the century we read great predictions for the future which is now the present.

No man then could dream what it would be—just what unbelievable things would come, neither can any man dream what will be in our tomorrows. But with the faith they had and the tools we have, it could be great indeed.

Coke Editor Asked Is Christmas Worth While

In the hurry and the work and the money it takes, perhaps most of us have at times asked the question, "Is all this Christmas really worth it?"

We hear it said that Christmas has been commercialized, that it does not really celebrate the birth of Christ, that is pagan in its source.

Take the matter of Christmas cards—the time and the trouble they take—if one does it as a sense of weary duty, or because it is expected, or because somebody else did it, then maybe not.

But looking through our cards this year, what do they bring? There is word from some very dear friends of other years. Since last we were in their home, their little boys and girls have grown to manhood and womanhood. Each Christmas, though, they have remembered us.

Youth values lightly these ties—there so many to know and appreciate and friendships are light, often, easy come and easy go.

But abler awhile, they slip away, those friends you used to know, and except for Christmas you would not know how many of them fare, or if they had forgotten those times when your hands clasped theirs in fond ties of friendship.

Yes, if they are written with the hand of love, the Christmas cards are worthwhile—all of them you have the time and the funds to send, especially if there is a note—some words of personal greeting and remembrance.

Then there are the family ties. If anything binds together this country of ours, these ties that hold against dissolution and decay—it is the love that centers about the home. Christmas binds families together, and keeps alive—fans the embers of the old hearths and gives them perennial warmth and meaning.

Then the story of Christ is told again to those who rarely hear it any other time. The other day I was in a shop where people were working, and each was humming an old Christmas carol as he worked, then three broke out singing. We have all too little of that which brings a song to the heart and to the lips of people nowadays in this world that gets too tough, too grim, too stern too often.

Yes, there is commercialism of a sort about it. The merchant must sell, and those who buy gifts must have merchandise and merchants. But there is a certain glow about the buying and selling, in which both the seller and the buyer are caught up together, for the buying and the selling takes on a certain meaning lost during the rest of the year, as the light from the star seems to enter even the market place.

Rank strangers greet each other with smiles and often cheery words.

All over the free world, there is a joyousness about it that is missed, sorely missed where people are not free, and if we measured it from its influence—propaganda value, if you would use such a word, it would be worth its cost to tell the world remembers that He was born—what He was and what He means.

As to the day—what day in the year Christ was actually born, there is no proof, and who needs it, so long that the world remembers that He was born—who He was and what He did and what He meant, and chooses this day to remember it.

Those who let their faith plunge them into gloom that will not have anything of the joy it ought to bring are missing something faith offers to every heart.

A young Jew sat down in my office one day and asked me a direct question, He said:

"I am a Jew, and have attended the worship of my people. But lately I have been attending some Christian services, and have noticed this difference. There is reverence and solemnity about our services, but no joy. In the Christian services, there seems to be a brightness and a joy."

My answer: "The difference, my friend is in Christ. Read your prophets and see if they do not foretell Him as the Messiah of your people. If there is any brighter hope, any more joy and peace and love in the Christian faith, it is because Christ came and lived and died as He did."

Once when in a vision Simon Peter was commanded to eat those things in the Jewish ritual considered unclean, a voice spoke to him and said, "Call not what I have cleansed unclean."

If the idea of a tree, or something connected with Christmas came down from pagan custom, it has been cleansed to honor Christ and He has touched it with that cleansing light which brings into a strengthening of the love and faith that binds men and wife and children old and young in sacred bonds of tenderness, that makes people across the seas from each other understand each other better, and shines a ray of brightness into our darkened world—if He has touched it—CALL IT NOT UNCLEAN!

Of course there are abuses and misdoings—there always are in anything that engages that many human beings.

But we wouldn't burn all the churches when some members do wrong or do away with marriage because some couples are not faithful, or pull down the flag because some officials misbehave.

Let the churches stand, fly the flag high, and be thankful for Christmas.

Robert Lee Observer

Consumers — Editors, Read To

Basic consideration in a bill such as Quality now before Congress, must be: Is it good for its consumers? We have to choose between two

On one side is the great majority of the million independent retail businesses along with able bloc of Congressmen, particularly those with personal experience in retail stores, who believe for consumers.

On the other hand is a comparative handful of retailers associated in a group call The National or Mass Merchandisers, which for some time the National Association of Consumer Organizers people have few roots in the communities they serve.

Allied with them are some theoretical people met a payroll or personal tested an economist who believe they know how business and competition work. They are supported by some editors who quickly.

Because consumers have seen for themselves competition helps them, the opponents have fought by trying to label Quality Stabilization of competition: price fixing. It is no more the setting of prices on house or private brand America's reliable chains. But some economists are unwilling to admit that a house brand will be bought at the same price in every store selling ed from price competition.

Quality Stabilization would not prohibit any of or even the discounters, from obtaining and whatever price they can obtain. What it would do is to force the unethical merchants from using quality brands a "switch" merchandise to entice customers into to sell them high-profit goods of questionable value.

Surely Quality Stabilization is in the interest of because it protects the household budget for interest. Gene Dow—Van E

City Commission Solves Police Personnel Friction

The Post city council apparently restored harmony between the police department Monday night at the end of their began at 7:30 and ended a few minutes after midnight.

Not all the time was taken up by police department, but most of it was.

The council's action came after they conferred with City Policeman Otis G. Shepherd Jr., who discharged effective Jan. 15 by Chief Elton Corley force subject to a three month probationary period.

The council's action came after the conference with police chief and was told by him that if it was to keep Shepherd on the force that he (Corley) would working with him.

SHEPHERD, AFTER being told by the council member of the police department he would be discharged, Corley and not "just for the police department" them that he could "get along with Mr. Corley" one else.

Before reaching its decision and calling both into the council room, the group had talked to both same time in an effort to iron out their differences.

"I've known for some time now that there was in the police department and I am sure most of the councilmen have known it too," Mayor Harold Lee officers.

Police Chief Corley had notified Shepherd on Jan. 15 he would be discharged Jan. 15. Corley said he had Shepherd that before taking it over with Mayor Lee.

LET THE BIBLE ANSWER

In last week's article we saw that the Bible was saved. This being true the Bible must be our guide pertaining to salvation. Our question today is "What To Be Saved?"

One must believe in Christ. Jesus said, "for if ye that I am He, ye shall die in your sins." John 8:24

Repent of sins. Peter said, "Repent ye therefore, and be baptized, that your sins may be blotted out." Acts 3:19

Confess Philip said, "If thou believest with heart, thou mayest. The eunuch said, 'I believe that is the Son of God.'" Acts 8:36, 37

Be Baptized. "And they went down both into the Philip and the eunuch; and he baptized him." Acts 8:13

"And why tarriest thou? Arise, and be baptized away thy sins." Act 22:16

On the day of Pentecost, Peter and the other apostles asked, "Men and brethren what shall we do?" They unto them, "Repent, and be baptized everyone of you of Jesus Christ for the Remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit," then they that gladly received were baptized. Acts 2:37-41

ROUNDIN' THE SQUARE
with BILL BALL

At the end of each year it is traditional for newspapers to publish that year's top news stories, sport stories and special features. Seemingly befitting to this column in the selection of Best Jokes, Daffynitions and Words of Wisdom published in 1963. Here they are, as purloined from The Gulf Breeze, Inspiration, Wall Street Journal, Saturday Review, Good Housekeeping, Capper's Weekly, Phil-news, The Rotarian, The Lion, Progressive Grocer and the International Teamster:

BEST TEXAS JOKE: A Texas rancher shot a man dead and telephoned a lawyer, offering a $5,000 fee to represent him. "Leaving for your town immediately," came the reply, "and bringing three eye-witnesses."

BEST MARRIAGE JOKE: He had been married only six months when he came home late one night, took off his shoes, pulled out his key and wondered what he was letting himself in for.

BEST POLITICIAN JOKE: An honest politician is one who, when he is bought, stays bought.

BEST 20TH CENTURY JOKE: Today's pitiful case in the fellow who wants to live in the country. He's moved out of town three times and each time the city overtook him.

BEST BOSSE-EMPLOYEE JOKE: A certain firm has the following legend printed on its salary receipt forms:

"Your salary is your personal business, and should not be disclosed to anyone."

The new employee, in signing the receipt added: "I won't mention it to anybody, I'm just as much ashamed of it as you are."

BEST INTERNATIONAL JOKE: A communist party organizer wrote this despairing note to his kremen bosses:

"It is becoming increasingly difficult to reach down-trodden American masses."

"In the spring they are forever polishing their shiny new cars."

"In the summer they take vacations."

"In the fall they flock to baseball and football game."

"And in the winter can't get them to leave their warm, cozy homes and TV sets to hear my lectures."

"How can I make these slaves of capitalism see how oppressed they are?"

BEST DAFFYNITION: FAMILY SWIMMING POOL: A small body of water completely surrounded by other peoples children.

BEST WORDS OF WISDOM: When you are getting kicked from the rear it means you're in front.

If you can pay $19 per month, you can qualify for a $320 loan

Monday night, January 13, the Slaton Volunteer Fire Department met in its bi-monthly practice session. A discussion was held regarding various buildings in town which might result in trouble should fire break out. A diagram sketch and description was given by Assistant Fire Chief Pete Williams of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Building on West Garza St. Doors, windows and their locations were noted also the nature of contents of the building.

buildings should receive this treatment and should anyone read this column be interested in such an inspection as this, please notify a member of the Fire Department and they will be glad to do the job or have it done.

This particular type of survey of a building or structure gives the department a great deal of information concerning doors, basements, type floors and combustibility of contents in the building.

Please take advantage of this service. It is free to you and might save many dollars in property loss or even lives.

Delivery is expected soon of the newbooster unit donated to the Department and be City by the Chamber of Commerce. Undoubtedly, you read the article in last week's Slatonite regarding this unit.

This is greatly appreciated and many thanks go to the Chamber for this fine contribution.

Fire Chief Don Kendrick's faithful followers lost the attendance race for the past 3 month's period and fed Ass't Fire Chief Pete Williams' team at the Carnation House Monday night. No comment now but a prediction on who will win next time will be upcoming.

Safety Tips Given For Driving On Slick Streets And Highways

Safe driving on icy and snowy streets and highways demands greater care and effort than driving under normal road conditions. The following are some tips on how to drive safely and help avoid accidents on ice and snow laden streets and highways.

1. If your car has a conventional, or "old-fashioned" shift, start in second gear and engage the clutch very gently with little gas. With an automatic transmission, feed gas very gently to start, holding the accelerator steady as soon as the car moves. Increase gas only if it can be done without spinning the wheels.

2. Drive well under dry road speed. Speed limits set for normal driving conditions are not realistic on slick streets and highways.

3. Keep the car pulling steadily. You need moderate power not speed. To falter or hesitate is often, to stall or go into a skid. Rolling friction is substantially greater than sliding friction.

4. Make no sudden changes in speed, gear ratio, or direction. Any of these can cause a serious skid. Make these changes, if necessary, most cautiously.

5. To stop or slow down on icy streets, lightly pump the brake pedal in rapid succession. This action permits the front wheels to steer when they roll and gives greater traction on ice for stopping as the wheels are not locked. The intervals of steering will keep the vehicle from skidding off a crowned road into a ditch.

6. When the car actually is in a skid, steer in the direction in which the rear end is skidding to recover. When the car begins to straighten out, then also straighten out the front wheels.

7. Keep windshield, back windows, outside rear-view mirrors, and all lights clear of dirt, snow, frost, sleet and mud.

8. Keep yourself under control. You can control a car better against the forces of nature, if you cannot control yourself. You need all your capacities to think fast and act accordingly.

and wanted to benefit his two sons.

Mrs. Fitch, his neighbor of many years, had prepared his will on a "simple" will form before his death and their circumstances seemed identical.

After Mr. Abercrombie died, his sons presented their father's will for probate, believing the estate would soon be theirs.

However, the "simple" legal form which by chance was all right for Mr. Finch was not all right for Mr. Abercrombie.

The Probate Court, by law had to rule that the "simple" will did not prevent Mrs. Abercrombie, although well taken care of by her husband, from taking her share in her husband's estate.

The sons got much less of the estate than they expected or their father intended. They found out what the father never discovered, namely, it is hard to know if your legal problems is a "simple" one when you do not know the rules for solving the problem.

The past week was one of the most active in marketing of the new crop cotton, according to reports to the Agricultural Marketing Service. Prices paid farmers were steady to slightly higher, generally being 20 points below loan rates to 90 points above. Wasty cotton remained in good demand at prices up to 250 points above the loan.

On the Lubbock market quotations were changed for Middling Spotted and Strict Low Middling Spotted and are quoted 20 points higher. All other quotations remained unchanged with 1 inch quoted at 32.50 cents per pound. Other quotations for grades with micronaire readings of 3.5 or higher were: Strict Low Middling 15/16 inch 30.05, Middling Light Spotted 15/16 inch 30.10, Strict Low Middling Light Spotted 15/16 inch 29.30, Low Middling Light Spotted 15/16 inch 27.80 and Strict Low Middling Spotted 15/16 inch 27.70.

Cottonseed prices have remained steady for the past three weeks at $48.00 to $53.00 per ton.

CARD OF THANKS

To say thank you would not adequately express my love and appreciation to everyone who was so wonderful to me during my recent stay in Methodist Hospital at Lubbock and Mercy Hospital in Slaton. To doctors James, Long and Kreiger and to the nurses at both hospitals, my deepest thanks. For the flowers, gifts, cards and visits and for words of encouragement and prayers, my deepest gratitude. To my friends and neighbors for all the food brought in to my family, May God Bless You All. Mrs. Glen (Melba) Ward

It's A Law In Texas

"SIMPLE" LEGAL FORMS Some "simple" legal forms are available at stationary stores. But the expression "simple legal problem" is often a contradiction of terms, since that which seems simple may not be.

In one state, Mr. Abercrombie purchased a "simple" will form for 10c. His estate was simple, only his home and some money in a bank account. He had provided for his wife, Mrs. Abercrombie, over the years by placing money he earned in a separate bank account which she maintained, in which he had no interest. He felt there was no need to provide for her by will

Classing Office Reveals Cottonseed Prices Remain Steady For 3 Weeks

The Lubbock Classing Office of the U. S. Department of Agriculture Cotton Division classed 117,000 samples during the week ending January 10. This is about 10,000 less than the previous week and brings the season's total to 1,512,000 samples. Last year on the same date the total for the season was 1,655,000.

Mrs. Rollo Davidson was in charge of the program, "For We Have Seen His Star." Rev. Davidson was soloist for the program.

The next regular meeting will be Monday January 20, at 9:30 a.m. for the beginning of the study, "Thy Changing City Challenges The Church," led by Mrs. R. T. Farley.

Among Other Matters

By J. L. H. Don't know how the experts judge such things, but we nominate Mrs. Iva Hogue as one of Slaton's best dressed ladies.

Mrs. J. H. Trussell was in the office a few days ago reporting a gift of a bushel of citrus from a friend in Florida. She was topping Mr. K's story of the Slatonite's gift of grapefruit from Mr. and Mrs. Cobb. She couldn't top the flavor of our Texas grown gift!

Mrs. Trussell reports that January 1, was her wedding anniversary. Said she waited until leap year to marry—but just barely.

An excited call from Mrs. W. W. Clark Monday morning — her cousin, Mary Earl Davis was on a TV quiz show at the time. That's one way to have a relative in your home without increasing the grocery bill.

Rev. and Mrs. J. L. Gary of Ruidosa, New Mexico, Mrs. W. A. Lyman and Leslie of Dallas and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Maeker of Richardson were guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Morris, this week. Tuesday, all attended funeral services in Lubbock for Mrs. Fay Cogdill, Mrs. Morris' sister.

Mrs. Esma Cash of Austin and Mrs. O. G. Lewis of Rule were guests in the Morris home last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walt Lyman, Marc and Leslie of Dallas and Mr. and Mrs. Arden Maeker, Marilyn and Pam of Richardson had as Christmas guests Mrs. Yman and Mrs. Maeker parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Morris. Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Morris of Houston joined the family in Richardson for a Christmas celebration.

Mr. and Mrs. Gust Erickson of Waukegan, Illinois, spent the holidays with their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Chaddock, Janis, Bobby and Jimmy. Returning home last week they were accompanied to Amarillo by Mrs. Chaddock and children, visiting there with Mrs. E. O. Chaddock, Sr.

Mrs. Bob Dillon, 1585 West Lynn, honored her daughter with a party, January 10. The occasion being Loretta's 9th birthday. Refreshments were served to the following guests: Nancy Wright, Lynn Jason, Harry Cochran, Jimmy McCain, Debbie Milliken, Janis Taylor, Mary Leslie Cole, Lou Ann Hogue, Kathy Cook, Tyra Biggs, Cindy McWilliams and Patricia Green.

Thanks to Mrs. Earl Morris for bringing us many of the above news items. We appreciate it when our readers take time to help us keep you informed. A. L. Pascel opened the door to the Slatonite and commented "I read the paper last week." This week's nice guy nomination — Mr. Fred Tudor. We agree with Lord Thomas Dewar who said, "The human mind is like a parachute. It functions only when it is opened."

Before he departed, White House sources gave these insights into the Presidents thinking: He does not feel the U. S. can drag its feet until after elections this year before pressing for new peace breakthroughs. He regards civil rights and the $11,000,000 tax cut as legislative "must." Also, he has expressed support for the medicare program of aid to the aged. Reducing the budget to save money for essential human needs, including education, is regarded by the President as of concern to all Americans. He hopes cost cutting will serve as a pattern for future years.

Slum clearance "a home for every American" are seen as goals of his administration. Some newsmen interpreted this as a likely 1964 campaign slogan. Johnson hopes to steadily improve American preparedness. But he is strong for elimination of military obsolescence, particularly old bases and installations retained in the budget for political reasons.

Congressional leaders will run their own legislative show. But the new President won't hesitate to ask old congressional friends for what he thinks is needed. Johnson hopes to draw on the talents of both business and labor to render public service. He is concerned about unemployment and is calling for new solutions.

PRISON POPULATION REDUCED—For the first time in 18 years, the number of prisoners in the Texas Department of Corrections show a decrease. Department Director Dr. George Beto reports that the December 31 count was 12,150, compared with 12,203 the year before. Since 1945, there has been a steady climb in number of prison inmates.

Beto cited these reasons for leveling off: more adequate parole supervision; opening of a new first-offenders unit; a pre-release program of preparing prisoners for freedom; an expanded trusty program; and overall improvement in the prison treatment program.

Prison chief said the reduction not only will save money on prison care, but also in welfare funds spent on families of inmates, not to mention restoring prisoners to productive lives as citizens and taxpayers.

PRISON SYSTEM INCOME — Farm products and livestock produced more than $6,500,000 of the prison system's 1962 income according to the auditor's report just released. Other sources were: manufactured products, $3,704,616; oil and gas leases, $39,237; miscellaneous, $3,267,167.

Report placed total income from farms and farm industries at $10,144,773, with expenses of $14,304,734 for a deficit of $4,159,961.

Manufacturing operations include license plates, shoes, textiles, clothing and other products.

SCHOOL INCOME THREAT — Texas school income will be drastically reduced unless the Federal Power Commission sets an adequate price for gas in the Texas Gulf Coast area and the Hugoton-Anadarko area of the Texas Panhandle, Attorney General Carr contends. Carr has filed a petition to intervene in price hearings ordered by FPC to determine reasonable rates for sale of natural gas in the areas.

Earlier he filed briefs requesting FPC to set the price of all gas in the Permian Basin area at 21 cents MCF. The FPC staff sought a nine cents MCF rate for casinghead gas and 13.7 cents MCF for gas well gas.

Attorney General noted in his brief that Texas levies a 7 cent occupation tax based on market value of gas at the well head to help support state government.

He also pointed out that the University of Texas system owns more than 4,700,000 acres of land in the Permian Basin area. Bonus money royalty income from this acreage goes to the permanent school fund for Texas education. More than 18,000,000 acres of state land are involved in the Gulf Coast hearing.

IMPORT PROGRAM "INEFFECTIVE"—Basic structural deficiencies in the mandatory oil import program have rendered it "both ineffective and politically inappropriate," according to a Texas representative to the Sixth World Petroleum Congress.

Sen. Charles Herring of Austin so concluded in his report to Gov. John Connally. The time has arrived, Herring stated, "for a comprehensive review of the program, leading toward the evolving of a whole new approach."

The senator found "evidence of a serious monopoly trend with in the petroleum industry" and no basis for assuming that corrective forces "will emerge from within the industry itself."

Herring said Texas is suffering "grave economic damage" from its attempts to balance supply with effective demand and to "serve as a balance wheel to world oversupply."

HAY FREIGHT HIKE SOUGHT — Although the hay shortage has shoved prices up to double the normal, hard-pressed Texas ranchers and dairymen may have another cost increase in sight.

Railroad Commission already has been asked by the Livestock Carriers Association of Texas to increase truck freight rates on hay and cottonseed hulls.

A hearing on the application has been set by the Commission's rate division for January 20. In some cases this would mean a rate increase of more than 100 per cent.

HIGHER EDUCATION — Governor Connally is expected to decide soon whether to designate an existing state agency to administer an estimated $11,600,000 worth of Federal grants for college construction facilities in fiscal 1964 or create a new State commission on higher education. Although the Texas Commission on Higher Education is responsible for the administration of State senior colleges and universities, junior colleges — which would get some $2,700,000 of the grant money — come under the jurisdiction of the State Board of Education. There is no agency for private colleges.

The construction-aid program is designed for both public and private colleges. Connally's decision must meet with the approval of the U. S. Commissioner on Education and be confirmed by Attorney General Carr.

A viewpoint on public education, recently advanced by a subcommittee of the Governor's Committee on Education Beyond the High School, was expressed by the Education Policies Commission of the National Education Association and American Association of School Administrators. Commission recommended that American youths receive two more years of free education after high school.

System proposed is much like that in operation in California. There any high school graduate may pursue his tuition-free education in a public junior or two-year college.

RAIN-MAKING — John Carr, hydrologist for the Texas Water Commission, has been making local talk on what other states have done about legislation on rain-making.

A major in the Air Force Weather Service, Carr has been gathering information on rain-making and hurricane-breaking as it applies to the Texas climate.

STATE SCHOOL MEETING SET — Board of State Hospitals and Special Schools' Site Selections Committee will meet January 13 to discuss site proposals for locating a newly-authorized West Texas State School for the mentally-retarded.

The school, to be located somewhere "West of the 100th Meridian" has been offered a "home" by many West Texas communities, including El Paso, Lubbock, Plainview and others. All the cities are involved in ardent community campaigns for the industrial stimulation brought about by such an institution. ARBOR DAY SET — Governor Connally has proclaimed January 17 as Arbor Day in Texas. In a special observance, to Texas Forestry Association will plant several pecan seedlings on the Capitol grounds.

The pecan is the State Tree of Texas.

DINNER DECISION — Texas Democratic party will share the national Democratic Committee $270,000 contributed for tickets to the November 22 Kennedy-Johnson "welcome dinner" which never came off. Donors will get a record album of Kennedy's last speeches and souvenir programs which has been prepared for the event.

SHORT SNORTS — Application for a charter for Texas State Bank at Abilene has been filed with the Banking Department. Irregular behavior of the business barometers in November support the belief business may be levelling off and approaching the end of the current upswing which began in February, 1961. UT Bureau of Business Research concludes. . . Texas Water Commission will hold a hearing on January 28 on proposals to rebuild Tyler State Park Dam. It broke last summer, draining the 1,090-acre foot reservoir. . . Howard Dodgen, former executive secretary of old Game and Fish Commission, will join the National Wildlife Management Institute in Texas to do research and development work.

WAKE UP YOUNGER!

with Helen Alpert

SHARE AND BEAR IT

Dear Helen, I am heading through my healthy 70's and at this rate might reach 100. My dear husband left me quite comfortable. Now my son and daughter urge me to give up my lovely 3 bedroom 3 bath home and take an apartment. They say they worry about my being alone. I'm not willing to give up the comforts and space I have. What I'm asking is, why isn't there some way for people like us to share our home with another woman? Would you be interested in starting some action for this idea?

Aunt Betty
There's always been great interest in this idea, but it's mixed with alarm, for fear of fostering personality clashes. In several cities a private home has become the club dwelling for retired professional women who each have their own room and kitchen privileges. In one southern city a try was made to start "Grandmothers on Loan" to live in, help younger mothers. Social agencies quickly pointed out the hazards of such an arrangement in producing domestic clashes between the women. Many older women with large houses rent rooms, usually because they need money.

What you propose, if I read you clear, is a partnership of friendship to share a home. This is so personal that no official agency would want to touch it, I believe. One woman like you advertised in her local newspaper and up came a delightful use-mate. A miracle. On the other hand, miracles are everywhere these days! So why wouldn't you get one, too?

Why all this talk about problems? In the old days, nobody had problems. I have none. I get along great. I rolled up a big career in failures, but it doesn't bother me. I'm near 80, satisfied with what I had, what I lost, what I got left. So why so much talk about problems of the aged? Bob.

HOW DIFFERENT ARE YOU?

Dear Helen, Our town has a free medical lecture. One speaker said that older people are no different from others, except that they're older. Another speaker sharply contradicted him. He said older people face problems and situation absolutely unknown to the younger, and unknown on this scale even 20 years ago. I took notes. He mentioned decreased money and energy, decreased friends, need for a decent role in life, retirement and how to handle it, proper housing, nutrition, changed relationships with your family and community. Of the two, which speaker was right? Both are very important men here. In fact, speaker No. 1 is our leading citizen.

Greatly Puzzled.
Put your money on No. 2 speaker. Both you and he wrapped the whole field of Gerontology. Why do you suppose the large new science of aging, called Gerontology, got started? Speaker No. 1 should know is sprang up because of intense need to understand the unique plight faced by most of today's millions of seniors. Look at these fast facts. Billions of dollars are building retirement communities, a brand-new concept in better lives for the elderly. Unions have built big new committees, leadership and information for retiring workers. Industry gives retirement counseling. Physicians are specializing in Geriatrics, the medical care of the aged. Medical schools are opening internship in Geria-ties . . . Schools and universities — Duke University, University of Kentucky and others! — have a Center for the Study of Aging. . . Almost every state in our country has a Committee on Aging, to aid seniors. . .

National organizations have formed for the benefit of elders, and with elders. . . Why do you think there was a White House Conference on Aging? In great demand are books and pamphlets on the subject. I have some of the best, free of charge to readers. Write to me at National Senior Center, Lehigh Acres, Fla. for them. Bring them to No. 1 speaker!

GET YOUR HEALTH DIARY

Dear Helen, My wife and I left ice and snow this winter and are following the sun like rich people, which we're not. We're not in the best of health, but this doesn't stop us. However, in case we need medical attention, what can we do? Any advice? We saw your Column in the newspaper here.

Florida.
At an important conference on health and aging last week, the Professor of Medicine at the medical school described a Health Diary. It's the size of a passport. In this Health Diary you and your wife (to each his own) keeps a record of your illnesses, medications, doctors, clinic visits, x-rays, etc. It's a superb way to show at a glance your past and present medical history. This Health Diary is available free of charge from several sources, including a life insurance institute.

The Master's Touch

God must love beauty, to use it so lavishly. The Master Artist dapples the soft green leaves with golden sunshine, turns the brook to flowing crystal, and puts a song into Spring itself.

There is beauty in us, too . . . because He put it there. In His sight, none of us are ugly, none of us are forsaken, none of us are "lost."

But sometimes, in the busy process of day-to-day living, we turn blind eyes upon the world's loveliness, and take for granted the gifts which should brighten the hours and years. We need a faith that gives us vision to find again the inner beauty He gave us in the beginning . . . a gift which He never takes away. Let us go, then, to His Church. Let us "enter into His gates with thanksgiving . . . for the Lord is good; His mercy is everlasting; and His Truth endureth forever."
