Slaton Teachers Badly In Need Of Their Salaries

In order that the people of Slaton School District may know something about the teachers and their problems the writer has agreed to write these few lines.

In conference with several teachers we have found that the teachers have not been paid for the last two months of last year teaching. They have taught two months this year for which they have not received one penny. Merchants are not as able to take warrants as they were last Fall of last year.

Last year at the beginning of school each teacher was able to draw about $20.00 in cash each month, but this year there is nothing. Some of the teachers are getting in hard shape, some have grocery bills that have been running for two and three months, some are behind with their utility bills, and the City and Gas Company will not take warrants.

While others are not able to pay other bills as house rent, Doctor bills, and what not. Another thing that the Slaton teachers have to do is that they have to pay twenty-five cents to get a warrant issued for less than half of their salary, and then can not get one for less than ten dollars. It is hard enough to have to take a warrant besides having to pay for it.

Why can't some of the Clubs or different organizations of the city get out and get some people to pay their taxes early so that this condition might be relieved to a certain extent. Some of the larger companies are in shape to pay and probably would if this matter was put up to them.

It is a shame that Slaton is allowing this to occur when we could help it. There is a mighty good crop being made and is putting some money in the country. WHY NOT PAY?

Library Receives Ten New Books

In exchange for ten of its old books which were sent to the library at Lubbock, the local library received this week ten books that will be new to Slaton readers.

Following are the titles: Spellbinders, by Banning; Man in lonely Land, by Basher; The Records, by Brady; Hillsboro People, by Canfield; Andrew the Glad, by Davies; The King's Jackal, by Davis; The Master of Warlock, by Eggleston; The Cardinal's Snuff-Box, by Harland; Lady Nogg, Peers, by Jepson; The Fourth Norwood, by Pinkerton.

HERE'S YOUR OPPORTUNITY

A very interesting and profitable contest is available in a double page advertisement which appears in this week's issue of the Slatonite.

This contest has been made possible through the joint efforts of the Canova merchandise concerns and 14 Slaton concerns.

Read the double page advertisement; see the prizes on display at the places of business of the 14 concerns, then enter the contest. You will enjoy every minute if the time you spend on this contest.

Every business concern whose advertisements appears in the double page has a message for you. In addition to the contest feature, you will find the reading if the advertisements interesting and profitable.

Business concerns who have co-operated in making the contest possible are:

O. K. Dry Goods Store, Schuhmann Grocery, Teague's Drug, Palace of Eats, Palace Theatre, Palace Beauty Shop, J. H. Brewer, Super Service Station, Evans Dry Cleaners, Hokus Pikus, Slaton Baking Co., and O. Z. Ball.

Mrs. Will Wright and family, of Close City, were in Slaton recently, visiting Mrs. P. H. Whalen.

C. B. Deal and family were in Posey Sunday afternoon.

Carmen Sudduth, who has been a patient in a Lubbock sanitarium for several weeks, is expected home today.

Slatonite Begins Subscription Contest

SCHOOL STUDENTS TO BECOME CONTESTANTS

The Slatonite is beginning a subscription campaign in which students in the Slaton High School will be beneficiaries, also by their efforts the school grounds may be beautified.

Thirty-five cent of each dollar will go toward a fund for beautifying the school grounds, fifteen cents of each dollar to be used as a fund to finance a banquet for the class that receives the largest amount of votes.

The details of the campaign follows.

RULES

Children under 16 are not encouraged to enter.

Contestants may have anyone, anywhere, to help them.

Votes can be obtained only from the free vote coupons clipped from the Slatonite, from those given for weekly averages, tests, and from paid in-advance subscriptions, or payment of arrears of subscriptions to the paper.

A "new" subscription, to entitle a contestant to votes as such, must constitute a bona fide increase in the circulation of the paper as compared with that of the date of the announcement of the contest.

Changes of address, or changes from one member of the family to another, stopping the paper and starting the paper again, etc., will not entitle a contestant to the extra votes allowed on "new" subscriptions.

In case attempts are made to gain extra votes on subscriptions by any of the above methods the right is reserved to cancel all votes issued on such subscriptions.

In case of dispute the decision of the contest manager is final. Votes cannot be transferred.

Subscriptions, to carry votes, must be paid at the time votes are issued.

Subscribers paying at the office may obtain votes on their subscription payments provided these votes are requested at the time that payment is made, not otherwise.

All payments for subscriptions must be turned in by contestants to the contest manager, or mailed to him not later than two days after such payments are made.

During the early stages of the contest no contestant will be permitted to vote an excessively large number of votes in order to eliminate competition.

The contest will positively end on December 3rd.

In case of a tie, prizes of equal value will be issued each of the tying contestant.

THE PEP SQUAD CARNIVAL

The Pep Squad Girls of Slaton High School are having a Carnival next Thursday in an empty building in town. The place isn't definite.

We want all the Citizens to come out and have a good time. We will sell sandwiches, coffee, fishing for big expensive prizes, fortune telling, picture galleries and all sorts of side shows.

The funds go to give the football boys a banquet Nov. 12th. We want all the people to go to Brownfield and help our boys win.

TIGERS DEFEAT TAHOKA, 37-0

Slaton's Tigers, opening their conference season here last Friday, afternoon, routed the Tahoka football team 37-0. The Tigers, after playing a season of class A football, returned to the B division this year.

Slaton's second string entered the game near the end of the first quarter, after the first string had given the Tigers a 25 to 0 lead. One touchdown came in the second, the third was scoreless, and the Bengal's final tally came in the fourth.

Johnson, quarter, scored two touchdowns, Anderson scored one, and his substitute at right half, Gear, crossed the finish marker twice, and Mahl, left half, once. Darcy Allison, quarterback, and Jack Stevens, fullback, were most effective players of the Tahoka eleven.

First downs showed the superiority of the Tigers, who counted 14 to two for the visitors. Each time Slaton penetrated their opponent's 20-yard line they had the punch to score.

Mr. Henry Hollis Passed On Sunday

Mr. Henry Hollis, prominent Floyd county farmer, passed away at the family home, Sunday, Oct. 30, after several months of failing health. The funeral service was held from the Slaton Baptist church, Monday afternoon, and interment made at Englewood cemetery.

Mr. Hollis was 54 years of age. He was a native Georgian, coming to Texas when a young man he first stopped at Denison, but for many years had been a citizen of this section.

He was married about seven years ago to Miss Aura Adams, of Slaton, who survives.

Rev. Matt Hrader, of Ralls, and Rev. W. M. Turner, local pastor, had charge of the service at the church, and the Slaton Masonic order was in charge if the service at the cemetery.

Local School Has Progressive Teachers

A thing that is seldom seen in schools is being carried on in both East and West Ward Schools in the form of a special class for teachers, in Penmanship. A drive is being made in the Slaton Schools to improve the writing of all students. At the suggestion of some teachers classes were organized in both schools. These classes both meet twice each week from eight until eight-thirty in the morning. Mrs. E. N. Pickens is the instructor in East Ward and Miss Edith Marrs is instructor in West Ward. Although some of the teachers already have diplomas in writing they are taking it over in order to teach their work more efficiently. This is a very commendable thing in our teachers. Although they have not received any pay for the last four months of teaching they are trying to carry on.

Another thing that is being stressed in the lower grades is the music. This is a subject that is generally neglected in all schools, for the simple reason that most teachers are not musicians. In our Slaton Schools this work is being taken care of.

In East Ward Miss McClenny and Mrs. Tudor are sponsoring a Rhythm Band composed of some forty-five students all with instruments. In West Ward Miss Waller is sponsoring a Band in the first and second grades, with some fifty students.

MRS. BINION HONOREE AT SURPRISE DINNER

A surprise birthday dinner was given last Sunday at the home of Mrs. H. M. Binion, of South Slaton; honoring Mrs. Binion. A fine dinner was prepared by her daughters and served Cafeteria style to the following:

Davis, Whitewright, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Walker, of Slaton; Mr. and Mrs. Orian L. Morrow, Slaton, and Miss Ina Binion, who assumed the responsibility of keeping the affair a secret in the home until the appointed time.

Local Club Women At Federation Meet

Meeting, at Union, Slaton was well represented at the October 29, of the county federation of womens' clubs. The local Civic and Culture club was represented by the president, Mrs. Pickens, and Mesdames, W. Donald; Klammer; Lanham; Nicholson; Pember; Smart; Roberts; Staggs and Johnson.

The Wednesday Study club was represented by the president, Mrs. K. L. Scudder; and Mrs. Peavy. The Blue Bonnet Club was represented by Mrs. Culwell and Mrs. Lovett; and the Junior Civic and Culture Club by Misses Jo Hestand and Elizabeth Lanham.

In the morning club women enjoyed a varied program which included a demonstration on cheese making, club reports, special committee reports and a county sing-song.

The Union ladies served a bountiful lunch at the noon hour, which was followed by the program proper.

Miss Jo Hestand gave a lecture on her "Trip To Europe;" Miss Doris Peavy and Miss Minnie Will Wootton, each gave a piano solo; Mrs. Raymond Johnson gave two vocal numbers; and the Slaton Civic and Culture club put on a Two-Act play that reflected credit on their ability.

In the election of officers which concluded the days business the following results obtained:

President, Mrs. G. N. Adkinson, Lubbock; four vice-presidents, Mrs. W. E. Bradley, Idalou; Mrs. R. M. Ragsdale, Mrs. D. E. Kent; and Mrs. W. R. Lovett, all of Slaton, in the order, listed. Recording secretary, Mrs. J. S. Johnson, Lubbock; Cor-Sec. Mrs. R. C. Campbell, Lubbock; and Mrs. G. W. Culwell, Slaton, treasurer.

Local Cooperation Gets Quick Results

Close cooperation between Mrs. Lee Green, of the Merchants Credit Association, and sheriff elect, Tom Abel, recently resulted in double-quick apprehension of a man wanted in Tyler, Texas, for passing hot checks.

Mrs. Green received, from Tyler, the notice below, turned it over to chief Tom Abel, and within two days the Slaton official apprehended the party and Tyler officers returned him to Tyler.

THE NOTICE:

Tech May Arrange Post Season Game

LUBBOCK, Nov. 3.—Given a holiday from practice Monday for the first time since the training season opened on Sept. 10, Texas Tech's high flying Matadors were back at work Tuesday in preparation for the ninth game of the season here Friday night against the Trinity University Tigers, one of the leading clubs of the Texas Conference.

This Week's game with Trinity, scheduled as a "breather", may prove more than that. While they are favorites to win, the Matadors expect no set up. Undeafated in the Texas Conference save for a 7-0 loss to Simmons Cowboys in a hard tussle, the Trinity eleven is reported to be priming hard in an endeavor to catch the Matadors off guard.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl George, of San Angelo, spent last week end in Slaton visiting his homefolks, Mayor George and family.

Santa Fe's New General Manager Making Initial Get Acquainted Trip

Notice: Tax Payers Slaton School Dist.

The tax rolls for 1932 have been completed. You can now pay 1932 taxes. A reduction of 25 percent has been effected in 1932 taxes, as compared with 1931. In actual figures, one million dollars from rendition of last year, and two million dollars from 1930, thereby reducing the revenue of Slaton Independent School District $20,000.00.

Delinquent Tax Penalties Lifted Until January

The members of the Slaton School Board, are personally acquainted with the burden of tax paying, and as a result have reduced the tax of the Slaton School District in every way possible. In order to make the great reduction that is offered you this year on your school tax, every expense item had to be reduced to a minimum, the salaries of teachers and other employees of the school had been reduced to a minimum.

If you are interested in the educational welfare of your children and of the children of the community, and if you appreciate our efforts to lighten your tax burden, you will surely exert the supreme effort to pay your school tax. There is one thing certain, taxes must be paid or schools can not continue long.

The school is carrying a very heavy burden because of delinquent tax. The Legislature has removed all penalty and interest on delinquent tax if paid on or before December 31, 1932. Why not pay your delinquent tax now and save that accrued penalty and interest? We humbly beg of you in the name of every interest involved that you give this matter your careful consideration.

F. A. Drewry, Tax Collector Slaton Ind. School Dist.

Mrs. A. W. Patterson Passed Away Here

Mrs. A. W. Patterson, 100 E. Crosby street, passed peacefully away early Thursday morning, Oct. 27, bringing to an end a year of suffering from gall bladder trouble.

Mrs. Patterson was 49 years of age. She leaves a bereaved husband, and five children to mourn her untimely passing. The deceased was a member of the Methodist church, a good woman, kind and affectionate wife and mother.

Mrs. Patterson's death was not unexpected, in fact there has been little hope for her recovery since June, at which time an operation was performed and it is said since that time she has been gradually nearing the end. Late Wednesday evening the children were called in, and death came in the early morning hour, 4:30, Wednesday.

The children surviving are: Mrs. Alma Miller, and Jack, of Lubbock; Mrs. W. H. Watts, Miss Carrie Fern, and Paul, of Slaton.

The funeral service was conducted from the Methodist church, by the pastor, Rev. C. E. Fike, and interment was made in Englewood cemetery.

Accompanied by Other Company Officials Mr. Lantz Spends Night In Slaton

Mr. H. B. Lantz, New general manager of the western lines of the Santa Fe railroad company, headquarters at Amarillo, is making his initial trip over the line and stopped in Slaton, Wednesday afternoon, and spent the night here.

Accompanying Mr. Lantz, is the assistant general manager, Mr. F. L. Meyers, Amarillo; W. W. Kelley, chief engineer, Amarillo; Mr. A. F. Hiblee, motorman; and the following officials from Slaton: Messrs. C. S. Craven, superintendent; Tom A. Blair, division engineer; and C. E. Brown, division road master.

There are three private cars in the entourage, general manager Lantz's car No. 35; Mr. Meyers' car, No. 15 and superintendent Craven's car No. 408.

The party visited the Crosbyton, Seagraves, Levelland and Bledsoe branches Wednesday, spending the night here, giving Mr. Lantz a fine opportunity to get acquainted with company men in Slaton.

Mr. Lantz added his approbation to the general verdict of the well equipped, beautiful and imposing structure known far and near as the Santa Fe Reading Room, here. He also pointed out that he had found some wonderful crops in this section.

Thursday morning the party left Slaton to cover Lamesa and Sweetwater branches.

Shop Craft Council Had Good Program

Shop Craft Council held their meeting, Oct. 28, at the Reading Room, at 8:00 o'clock, p. m. There were in attendance about twenty-five, with the following invited visitors: A. R. Tillman, safety supervisor, Albuquerque, C. R. Nagle, hospital trustee, Topeka, F. C. Smith, airbrake instructor, Amarillo, R. I. Boyd, chemist, Amarillo. The program included splendid talks by the visitors. Mr. Tillman spoke on "Safety First"; Mr. Nagle's talk was on "Company Hospitals"; and Mr. Smith, the old veteran engineer, made a talk that was enjoyed by all. Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Clark's contribution to the program, songs and Hawaiian guitar music was especially appreciated. Mr. Clark was chairman of the meeting.

It has been pointed out by those present that Shop Craft members absent on this occasion missed a great treat.

Choice Rucker On University Team

The Daily Democrat, Fayetteville, Arkansas, in a recent article on the freshman football team, of the University of Arkansas, takes especial notice of a former Slaton player who made good on the local team and who, apparently, is adding to his record as a freshman in the University there. Says the Daily Democrat.

"Although the University of Arkansas freshman team that meets Monticello A. & M. at Little Rock next Friday night does not boast the number of all-state performers in the lineup of last year, there is a number of players who gained fame on school gridirons last year.

RUCKER HAILS FROM TEXAS
Choice Rucker, who scored a trio of touchdowns against Nonett including one 85-yard sprint from scrimmage, is a native of Slaton, Texas, where he played with the high school team. Rucker is a hard worker and too good a half-back to be left off any combination that Coach Glen Rose may send against Monticello. He is a vicious tackler and a alert player in the freshman's pass defense."

GREAT MEN HOLD A DEEP AFFECTION FOR THE CHURCH

Great men, the greatest our country has known, have universally held a deep and lasting affection for the church. Whether their church was the rudest of the colonial shrines or is the most magnificent of today's great cathedrals, great men have invariably held the church close to their hearts—In the greatest cities and smallest villages, the church stands as a sanctuary of rest and a symbol of inspiration. There great men have worshipped and found new courage, new vision, new strength.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Bennett, and son, John Frank Jr., motored to Abilene Sunday for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Bennett. They returned home early Monday morning, and report a most enjoyable trip. Mr. Bennett says he found smooth traveling along the route except the stretch of road this side of the stretch of road this side of Snyder where the recent hard rains played havoc with both roads and bridges in that section.

Miss Margaret Killian is in Colorado, Texas, visiting her mother, Mrs. J. I. Killian. It is understood that Miss Killian is to teach this term and the visit home is probably an indication of her school opening soon.

Jack Holt Has "He-Man" Role In Polo Picture

Jack Holt in a role that is NOT sympathetic. It's happened. In "This Sporting Age" you shall see the personable hero of "Flight," "War Correspondent," "Dirigible," "Submarine" and other hero yarns, as a human enough fellow but one who takes vengeance in his own hands.

When his beloved daughter, played by Evelyn Knapp, is harmed by Walter Byron (the romantic scapegrace in the story) Holt takes revenge in his own hands. An army officer and star polo player, he meets his man on the polo field and wreaks justice abruptly.

Moreover, he is a flirtatious type of individual, a detached male who lets his eyes wander in the direction of the come-hither vamp essayed by Ruth Weston.

"This Sporting Age," co-directed by A. F. Erickson and Andrew Bannison, has the swank background of an exclusive country club, as well as the interesting and colorful setting of an army post. Others in the cast are Hardie Albright, J. Farrell MacDonald, Reno and Laddie. It opens Tuesday and Wednesday at the Palace Theatre.

MOTHERS STUDY GROUP HAD INTERESTING MEETING

The Mothers Study club met at the clubhouse, in its last regular meeting with fifteen mothers and nine children present despite the rain which would have deterred a less determined group.

Mrs. McReynolds discussed "Effects of invitation and suggestion upon children."

Mrs. Irby Smith's subject was "The plasticity of the nervous system," handled under two heads, A help, and a hindrance. Mrs. Fred Schmidt substituted for Mrs. A. R. Ellis, who could not be present, and discussed the subject, "What is will?" Mrs. J. M. Nicholson's subject was, "What is character?"

This was followed with a round table discussion on "practical problems of every day life."

Representation from all schools were present at this meeting, and two from the pre-school age.

The story hour for children was a feature of the afternoon with Misses Olla Mae and Herbert Gaiter in charge. The children heard two Halloween stories and were taught a memory gem, "The Friendly Cow."

Mrs. J. H. Brewer furnished refreshments for the children.

ANNUAL HALLOWE'EN PARTY OUTSTANDING SOCIAL EVENT

One of the most enjoyable social events of the season was the annual Halloween entertainment given at the club house, Monday evening, by the Fidelis Matrons and the Alathean classes of the Baptist Sunday School complementary to their husbands.

Entrance to the event was made by following a meandering string which led them first through the club grounds and on through the club rooms, the journey being attended by many weird and spooky experiences; finally terminating in the "chamber of horrors," where each guest was requested to find a portion of dead man's body and present it at the door of the main reception room as a token of their right to partake of the remaining festivities. Here, games and contests provided entertainment throughout the evening, and delicious refreshments were served at a late hour to the following:

Messrs. and Mesdames, O. T. Weaver; George Green; C. V. Young; Ray Ely; O. Cannon; C. C. Young; J. C. Jenkins; M. L. Abernathy; John Shelton; E. R. Burns; G. W. Bownds; W. A. Marr; Don Hatchett; C. Gattis; R. L. Smith, Jr.; Charles Smith; Rev. and Mrs. Turner, and Mesdames Jesse C. Burton; Mary Morelan; O. M. Ramsey; W. A. Johnson; Oran Morrow; C. L. Tanner; Irvin Bownds; Bert McDonald; W. T. Davis; Fannie Castleberry.

GORDON SCHOOL OPENS LATE THIS SEASON

Due to parents needing their children's help in gathering the year's cotton crop, the Gordon School will not open until December 1st, along with several others in this part of the state.

The principal of the Gordon school is Mr. O. Ellis, and Miss Fay Brown, of Tahoka, is the assistant.

Citizens of that fine community are boosters not only for their teachers and school-but for their community. You can't keep a community like that down.

Inexcusable Pranks

Every Halloween celebration brings in its wake a chain of inexcusable depredations by thoughtless, or shall we say, reckless youth. In Slaton a bunch of boys, not satisfied in disturbing an elderly lady at 520 East Crosby street, at midnight, took an axe, or hatchet, and ruined a new screen door on the front porch. If they had been content with cutting the screen, that could have been repaired, but they cut the door panel, ruined the wood work, necessitating purchase of a new one.

CHILDREN'S DRAMATIC CLUB, GIVES OPERETTA

HUSBANDS HONORED BY BLUE BONNET CLUB

A party for the members of the Blue Bonnet Club and their husbands was enjoyed at the Club House, Friday evening, Nov. 21, at 7:30 p. m.

Perhaps the combination of Tacky Costumes, Halloween decorations, kid games, and the fact that it was a benefit party caused those present to better enjoy themselves. It took initiative and nerve on the part of the guests for them to come in some of the out of date wearing apparel that was on parade. Every person present entered into the play spirit. Therefore two hours were spent in real honest to goodness fun, wherein each person forgot that he was grown or that he had been enduring the critical times known as the depression period.

Even politics were laid aside for the evening.

The entertainment committee provided suggestions for unusual activity, which caused them all to be ready for the delicious refreshments. At the conclusion of the party, all declared it was the most fun they had enjoyed yet, when the Blue Bonnets entertained.

In the afternoon Mrs. Payne was persuaded to go to Lubbock, her companion contriving to get her back to the family home at the psychological moment, dusk, when she found the house aglow with candle light emanating from the dining room where candles marked the birthday cake, and also revealed a beautifully appointed table with turkey and all the trimmings.

ed as delegates to the County Federation meeting.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess to the members present and to the following out-of-town guests, Mrs. Green, Miss Hattie Thompson of Levelland and Mrs. White of Okla.

TO SAVE THE SMALL TOWN

Paved Highways are thought by many to be a menace to the small town, particularly if the small town be located within a few miles of larger centers of population.

Our observation is that, if small towns want paved highways to hurt them, they do. By this frank statement we mean, if small town merchants spend most of their time whining about the larger centers taking trade away from them, instead of doing like the city merchants and going out aggressively after trade in their trading area through all forms of advertising, paved highways offer very attractive means whereby buyers may travel to the big stores and accept their invitations to do business with them.

Many small towns are successfully combating this so-called menace, by more means than merely their merchants seeking the trade nearest them. We see numerous dairy products and other plants springing up throughout the southwest, designed at bringing the best markets to the producers in their own community.

This idea should be carried further. A community like Lorenzo, for instance, can turn the paved highway menace into an asset by various means. It is logical that producers of this particular area be provided with a market for that which they produce as near to them as it can possibly be placed.

We witness our producers hurrying to Lubbock with products lighter than cotton, wheat and feed stuff. And we see these latter products hurried into freight cars or auto trucks, to be carried to Lubbock or Houston, with the result that the producer—and the community—loses a great portion of the price paid for such products by the ultimate consumer.

Perhaps it may seem like a hazy dream, but common logic leads us to believe it practical for such communities as Lorenzo to provide a better market for farmers and live stock producers here, at their first and nearest center.

It seems to us that self-preservation of the small town, and greater support of its producers, can be obtained by a program of market-development which might eventually lead into only storage houses for perishable products, but warehouses for cotton and feed crops.

Such a program might eventually include municipal ownership of electric light plants as the central unit around such storage facilities. To this might be added a municipal ice plant, a municipal cold storage plant, a municipal cotton warehouse. Such projects should be operated on a non-profit basis, but the amount of the final price paid for all products would include enough difference between the lowest figures received to pay the plants for maintenance and cost, build up a reserve, and return greater figures to the producer. Besides, the added totals would be kept in the community, producers would be attracted to the town and local merchants would receive greater patronage.

No community can survive if its producers find it necessary to carry their products elsewhere for a better price. The job facing every small town, then, in our present changing order, is to take hold of market facilities and control them in the community.

Such programs demand organization. We would like to see in Lorenzo an organization comprised if both business men and farmers. Their interests are identical and their combined thought necessary to further such interests. —Lorenzo Tribune

Chamber of Commerce News

By A. J. PAYNE, Secretary

Not much to write about this week, as every thing and every body seem to be on the forward move, attending to their own business and not trying to take care of the other fellows, which is always the case when we are all busy and, with the cotton and feed coming to town, the merchants are busy getting in new supplies of goods and selling them.

Next Saturday Nov. 12th, we hope will be a pretty sunshiny day, as we want to start that trade's day, so bring your stuff and leave it over on the east side of the square, and a building will be ready to house anything that has to be in under cover, come bring your stuff prepared to sell, trade or auction it off, if auctioned the hour will be 3 in the afternoon.

The charity situation in Slaton is not doing anything at present in the way of helping anyone, but;—Right now is the time for all the people of Slaton, The different organizations of the City should get busy and collect all clothing and food stuffs that will be needed a little later on when the cotton pulling is over, and the

EAST WARD HAPPENINGS

Excitement ran high in East Ward as Hallowe'en approached.

During the last period of school Monday afternoon, the various rooms were entertained with Hallowe'en parties. Program and games added to the merriment of the parties. A large number of patrons were present for our parties, which was greatly appreciated.

The pupils of East Ward met Thursday morning in their regular sing-song service. Mrs. Tudor led in the singing. Much interest and enthusiasm is had at that period, and we wish to welcome any visitors at that time, which is every other week.

Many of our students are having to miss school on account of picking cotton. We hope the weather continues to remain pretty so that the cotton can be gathered and the pupils return to school. We regret that these have to miss but hope it will not be long until they can come back to school.

The P. T. A. is offering a story book each month to the room which has the most visitors. Miss Florence's room received the bood this month. Let us all work hard during the coming month to see who can report the largest member of visitors.
