St. Joseph's Catholic Church Celebrates 50th Anniversary Sunday, March 4

St. Joseph's Parish will celebrate its 50th Anniversary March 4 with the coming of Bishop Morkovsky, Ordinary of the Amarillo diocese, Bishop Morkovsky will say benediction at 4 p.m. A Barbecue will follow in St. Joseph's Hall, at 4:30 p.m. and a dance will begin at 8:30 p.m. in St. Joseph's Hall.

Bishop John Louis Morkovsky was ordained on Dec. 5, 1933 by Cardinal Marchetti-Selvagiane. Afterwards he continued graduate studies in Rome and received the degree of doctor of sacred theology in 1926.

In 1941 Bishop Morkovsky went to Catholic University of America, Washington, D. C., to study education. He received an M. A. degree in education there in June, 1943. Upon his return from the Catholic University, Bishop Morkovsky was named diocesan school superintendent in the Archdiocese of San Antonio, a post held until his appointment as Auxiliary Bishop for the Amarillo Diocese. He watched the total school enrollment rise from 14,000 to 28,000 students during his tenure of office.

Bishop Morkovsky was named as the Ordinary of the Amarillo diocese following Bishop FitzSimon's death. The installation ceremonies took place Oct. 22, 1950, in Sacred Heart Cathedral, with Archbishop Robert E. Lucyry of San Antonio, a former Amarillo Bishop, officiating.

St. Joseph's Catholic Church was established in 1912 with the saying of the first Mass by Rev. Joseph Reisdorff.

PRIESTS

The Rev. Joseph Reisdorff was St. Joseph's first pastor, serving from 1911 to 1917. In October of that year the Rev. J. M. Keller, a native of Germany arrived and served until March 22, 1922 when members of the K. K. K. tarred and feathered him. He was considered very "pro-German" during the war. It is said that Judge Wilson in the U. S. Court in Amarillo told him that the U. S. government found that he had attempted to enlist in the German Navy after he had gotten his "first papers" for naturalization. He was denied his papers but was told that he could apply again. He left the state of Texas and later served in Wisconsin.

Slaton was left without a resident priest for several months until Father French, overseas chaplain during the war, took charge in August 1922. Five years later he was transferred to White Deer, and the Very Rev. Thomas O'Brien came from Amarillo as pastor on July 8, 1927.

On December 15, 1960, an old-time priest of the Diocese, the Rev. Edward Clinton, returned to Slaton where he serves as chaplain at Mercy Hospital. Father O'Brien has served the church for the past thirty-five years.

The first Catholic wedding performed in St. Joseph's Church was that of Miss Ophelia Dreyer and Rudy Maeker on October 21, 1913. The Rev. J. O. Grady officiated. The first funeral of the church was held on April 20, when services were held for Mrs. Elizabeth.

nominal admission fee will be charged and this money will be used by the Parent-Teacher Association for the betterment of Slaton Schools.

Thursday afternoon the Junior High School schedule will be altered so that a full day's classes can be conducted in the afternoon. Parents of students are requested to accompany their child from class to class and to see the school in operation as a student.

Friday of this week is the annual district meeting for teachers which will be held in Lubbock, and school will be dismissed on this day so that Slaton teachers may attend. Teachers are able to discuss teaching methods with other teachers from the surrounding area and to receive information regarding presentation of teaching materials.

Theft Of 25 to 30 Bicycles Is Cleared By Slaton Police

Theft of about 25 to 30 bicycles was cleared this week by Slaton Police, it was announced Monday by Chief Gene Martin.

Martin said that officers checked out a report that three boys had broken into a vacant house.

They then found a number of bicycle parts in the jacket of one of the boys, and when they investigated, found the bicycles in and near the boy's home.

Martin said that about 12 or 14 had been returned to rightful owners, but that several more remained at the police station.

He asked that if any person had knowledge of a theft and had not reported it, that they could retrieve the bicycles by coming by and identifying them. The boys had been selling the wheels for 50c or the entire bicycles for $2 or $3.

Adult Delinquency Vs. Juvenile Delinquency

By Gene Martin, Chief of Police

When we talk about juvenile delinquency aren't we really talking about adult delinquency? I think that a lot of us have lost our basic principals of honesty and common decency in the rat race for survival and place too much importance on competing for the old dollar bill. We actually encourage delinquency and dishonesty in our children thru our own unconcerned and even accepted policies of dishonesty in ourselves.

For example, how many people think it's wrong to brag about cheating a little on their income tax return. Or for example, a man who professes to be a Christian and who is a good citizen may think it's perfectly alright to take money from a pay telephone slot left there, due to a faulty mechanism in the phone and never give a thought to returning this money to the telephone company, who is the rightful owner. Then he may even brag to his family about his good fortune.

We American people need to return to a sound sense of values. The fathers and mothers who raise their children as substantial young citizens deserve the respect of all. On the other hand the parent whose negligence has spawned youthful criminals should be made to face the responsibilities for the crimes of their offspring.

In order to meet the increasing challenge of juvenile delinquency...

Commission Rejects Four Building Bids

Says No Fires To Be Answered In Lynn or Garza By Department

Three lease agreements were refused for a warehouse building that the city had previously advertised for, at the regular meeting of the city commission Monday night.

The city had needed a building of not less than 5,000 square feet, and three bids were received. They were from D. S. Biggs, Swanner and Edwards, and Forrest Lumber Co.

Also at the meeting Otis Neill and Mr. Drag appeared before the Commission regarding the writing of insurance on the Volunteer Fire Department. It was pointed out that the firm of Hickman and Neill had been selected to handle all of the City's insurance and all of the City's policies had been rewritten by this firm with the exception of coverage on the volunteer firemen. On motion by Mr. Stokes and second by Mr. Walker, the Commission voted unanimously to authorize the firm of Hickman and Neill to write the coverage on the Volunteer Firemen the same as had been previously carried with the exception that the policy be written for a three year term rather than one year.

On motion by Mr. Stokes and second by Mr. Walker the Commission voted unanimously to accept responsibility for this and to designate the Water and Sewer Department to take care of the matter.

Mayor Lemon reported to the Commission that he had had communication from the County Judge of Lynn County advising that Lynn County had an agreement with the Cities of Tahoka and O'Donnell to take care of all rural Lynn County fires. The Mayor had previously reported that he had had a letter from the County Judge of Garza County stating that Garza County had an agreement with the City of Post to take care of all rural Garza County fires. What Blood Can Do

Most people think of blood in terms of whole blood transfusion, and most blood is used in that manner. But blood given through Red Cross may aid you or your friends or relatives in a variety of other ways too.

At present, whole blood may be used in transfusion for 21 days after donation. After that, it is converted into one of several derivatives or "fractions," which serve a number of vital health needs.

One of the derivatives is serum albumin, which is used for fighting shock. One unit has five times the shock-fighting effect as the same volume of plasma. Serum albumin is helpful in treating cirrhosis of the liver and certain kidney diseases and also is used in treating malnutrition due to surgery or disease where the amount of blood serum protein is low.

Gamma globulin, another fraction, is used to prevent serious after-effects from measles. It gives the same kind of protection against some forms of jaundice or infectious hepatitis and is given to children deficient in this infection-fighting element in the blood.

A special kind of gamma globulin, vaccinia immune globulin, is used to treat rare but virulent complications of reactions to smallpox vaccinations.

Fibrinogen is the substance that helps clot the blood. It is used in cases of hemorrhage during childbirth and other cases of severe bleeding.

Plasma, the liquid part of the blood, has many uses. For example, fresh frozen plasma is used in the treatment of hemophilia. In these cases, a cut or scratch or tooth extraction can cause a person to bleed to death. The administration of fresh frozen plasma, rich in antihemophilic globulin, speeds up clotting time, making the time more nearly normal. With repeated doses, the hemophilic can be prepared for tooth extractions and even major operations.

Red cells are very valuable for the treatment of anemia.

So, in whatever way your blood is used, you can be sure that it is helping the ill and injured. And who knows—some day you may be on the other side, receiving the miracle aid of blood, whole or in fraction.

Caprock Golf Club Holds Open House

Open house was held at the Caprock Golf Club Saturday with a good turnout from Slaton and Lubbock. The new golf course and club house is located 11 1/2 miles west of Slaton on the Taboka-Lubbock highway. It is about the same distance from Lubbock.

This new private member club was first started about a year ago. Actual construction on the course began July 1st. Golfers have been using the course since January 1st of this year. The club boasts some 175 members with 25 or 30 of these living in Slaton. Members and guests are allowed the use of the facilities.

Sitting back about three blocks from the highway will be found a 120-acre tract, 56 acres has already been developed. Nine fairways and greens are in tip-top shape and are being used each day. Officials report that eleven greens will be ready by the end of this summer with seven more to be installed next year.

The landscaping is already in the making for a beauty spot. Over 500 trees have been set out with some 600 more to be planted during the year. A large lake is under construction that will be winding around between fairways, making two water shots. One of the outstanding things about the new course is the exceptionally large greens. The largest is 1300 square feet and the smallest 900 square feet.

Earl Jacobson, a professional golfer and instructor, formerly of the Victoria Country Club, planned and directed the entire layout and construction. The club house is a beautiful building. It now comprises 1500 square feet, but will be enlarged to 6000 square feet later. The building includes a large lounge area, pro shop, and snack bar with all facilities.

The officers are: Bud Farnau, president; Geo. Traylor Jr., sec.-Treas.; and Jack Nowlin of Slaton, vice president.

Tom Reavley To Seek Office Of Attorney General

Austin, Tex.—Former Texas Secretary of State Tom Reavley, making his first statewide campaign address, described himself this week as "a Democrat, . . . an old-fashioned, independent progressive" . . . and a candidate for Attorney General determined "to fill this office—and not just use it for political advantage."

A 40-year-old Austin lawyer, Reavley is making his first race for statewide office. He was appointed Texas Secretary of State in 1955, served in that capacity for 15 months before resuming private practice. He was an Assistant District Attorney in Dallas, County Attorney in Nacogdoches, President of the State Junior Bar, professor of criminal law at the University of Texas, and a leader in the twelve-year struggle to eliminate loan shark abuse in Texas.

His principal appeal to voters is three-fold: (1) he believes he is the most competent lawyer in the race for the top lawyer's job in Texas public life; (2) he believes the Attorney General's Office ought to be staffed by the most ac-

DON'T BE MISLED !!!!

In view of the type of advertising we see our "Big City" competitors spreading all over the papers, offering 50-60, yes, even 70 per cent discounts on home furnishings we can't help wondering if they actually expect people to believe such tripe. Yet they continue to spend big money (I do mean big money) on the type of promotions, Maybe P. T. Barnum was right.

Frankly no legitimate furniture store can sell merchandise at such discounts and stay in business UNLESS they have provided for this markdown at the time they put their markings on in the first place.

Here at Bland's Furniture we do not markup to the sky, then catch the customer anywhere we can coming down. We put a legitimate profit on our investments. We deliver to place designated by our customer, free.

Santa Fe Improvements Shown To Rotarians

A very interesting film was shown to the Slaton Rotarians at their meeting Thursday noon at the club house, Albert Grigsby was in charge.

"The Better Way" was the title of the film that showed the improvements the Santa Fe Railway has made through the years. Emphasis was shown on the complete rebuilding of a stretch of road from Williams to Crookdom in Arizona recently.

This is a very rugged and mountainous section and the old road had many crooks and turns. At the time it was built water was a must and also easy construction was necessary. The new double track section required 16 months to complete and 12 million cubic yards of earth had to be moved. The cost was 20 million dollars.

The film showed various phases of construction of the 44 miles of road. When completed it came up to the standard 1 percent grade and one degree curves that allows freight trains to travel 60 miles per hour and passenger trains 90 miles an hour.

Jimmy Lowery was introduced by O. Z. Ball as the Junior Rotarian for the month.

President Charles Barron appointed two nominating committees for new officers. The committees are Bruce Pember, Howard Swanner, Howard Hoffman, Clark Self, and O. Z. Ball, M. G. Davis, Sherrill Boyd and Doug Williams.

Highway Safety Is Mainly Up To the States

By RAY FARKAS
United Press International

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Everybody talks about traffic safety—even the President. But it is mostly up to the states to do something about it.

President Kennedy, who has his own committee on traffic safety, recently said the matter was one that "affects everybody."

The states are giving the subject increasing attention. For example, figures supplied by the National Highway Users Conference show 25 states enacted legislation in 1961 strengthening standards for motor car equipment.

Seven states—Georgia, Kansas, Montana, Nevada, Oregon, Utah and Washington—tightened licensing laws to require that driver applicants submit their driving records in their last state or residence.

Though no states enacted new vehicle inspection laws, five took it under study.

Oklahoma and New Hampshire set up departments specifically concerned with safety.

Eight states put laws on their books relating to driver education and restricted licenses for drivers under 18. The trend in almost every instance was toward requiring completion of a driver education course before licensing.

Three states made it tougher on drivers who drink by enacting chemical test laws. Five others strengthened their existing laws.

Five states upped the minimum insurance coverage its drivers must carry.

Turn signals, headlights and the lighting of vehicles was the subject of legislation in 14 states.

Reflectors, flares and fuses, brake fluid—name it. Some state legislatures made these requirements tougher.

Even the obvious wasn't overlooked.

Florida made it legislatively clear that drivers must keep their cars on the right hand side of the road when approaching a railroad crossing.

And Maine took action against another problem, though it may not rank as the worst in the annals of traffic safety. It prohibited driving in reverse on a one-way street.

Correct Spray Fixes the Coif

CHICAGO (UPI)—Hold that can of hair spray at least seven inches away from the head, the experts advise.

In this way, you spray on a fine atomized mist that keeps the hair soft and lustrous without stiffness and avoids the formation of beads and droplets of spray on the hair.

Researchers for one of the aerosol packaging companies (G. Barr & Co.) also advise brushing the hair, however lightly, into place after each application of spray. This precaution serves to keep the spray from forming a dulling film.

For bleached or tinted hair, they advised using a gentle-type waving lotion—one that will soften as it dries. Also recommended for tinted hair is a special conditioning rinse designed to counteract the tendency of color-treated hair to be porous, dry and brittle.

Finally, there really is a difference between hair sprays for ordinary and hard-to-hold hair, say the experts. The sprays for hard-to-hold hair contain anti-static ingredients which tend to keep fine, "fly-away" hair in place.

Kathy's A 'Model' Patient

Kathy Kadar, eight, of Napa, Calif., is slowly recovering from rheumatoid arthritis. Her prolonged bout with the painful disease seems to have been provoked (but not caused) when as an infant her right knee became wedged in bars of her crib. Kathy was the first patient of the Arthritis Clinical Study Center established by The National Foundation-March of Dimes at the University of California School of Medicine, San Francisco. Kathy tries her hand at modeling in "clay therapy" at Study Center.

LINDA WALKER

June Wedding Plans Revealed

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Walker Jr. announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Linda, to Joe Bob Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Jones. The wedding date has been set for June 1, in First Methodist Church.

Church Members

Members of First Christian Church provided a part of their Week of Compassion offering by giving a penny for each pound of weight.

The Week of Compassion is observed by Disciples of Christ churches all over the world with an offering taken at the close of the week.

The World Outreach Department of Slaton's church sponsored an all-church covered dish supper last Wednesday night when the uses of the offerings were explained by talks and film strips.

Upon entering Fellowship Hall each person stepped on a pair of scales to determine the amount of offering he should give. There was a table set with meager fare representing the fare received by refugees and a cardboard house representing the places they live in Hong Kong, Asia, Korea, the Middle East and North Africa.

Aid to the refugees is one phase of the work carried on through the Week of Compassion offerings.

Strength For The Week

If we seek wisdom from God and accept His invitation to walk with Him all the days of our life, then there are certain preliminary questions that He submits for our consideration. Today you are invited to think about the question: "Why are we here?"

This seems to be a basic question. Unless we can and do give the right answer to this question, we cannot arrange the affairs of our life in the right way. Almost daily the papers carry stories of individuals who have made a mess of their life. Sometimes these stories are sordid. Sometimes the community is shocked. Society feels that something must be done. Everyone is aroused for action.

Each individual has only one life to live. If at the end of his life the person discovers that he has lived his life in the wrong way, then he is not given another chance to start all over again. He cannot be born again as a little baby. One little sentence of two words describes his life: "Too late." To be sure, if he discovers his mistake before it is too late, it is possible to change and for the remainder of his life do better. Oftentimes he becomes so entangled in the web that with all his struggles it becomes worse instead of better. Like with the fly in the spider's web, it is hopeless to extricate himself. His efforts are of no avail. He needs help from the outside. Would it not be much better for the individual to get the right start? He could then avoid the wasted time and sad regrets.

Since God is our Creator, He knows all our needs, and He can help. This our God is not only our Creator, but He is also our Father and our Friend, and our Savior. He can shed light on this question. We would encourage you to seek His help and to trust Him. He is only interested in your welfare. He does not hate you, but He loves you. Believe that! Pray with the psalmist: "Teach me thy way, O Lord, that I may walk in thy truth; unite my heart to fear thy name." Psalm 86, 11 (RSV).

Katherine Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Smith, has been chosen chairman of the Baptist Student Union in a recent campus-wide election at Wayland Baptist College. TEXAS LUTHERAN COLLEGE CONCERT BAND

Lutheran College Band To Appear in Wilson

The Texas Lutheran College concert band, under the direction of M. A. Nyquist, will appear in a concert March 12th at the Wilson High School auditorium under the sponsorship of St. John Lutheran Church. Time of the concert is 8:00 p. m.

The concert in Wilson is one of 15 appearances the band will make on its annual tour through West Texas, Oklahoma and Colorado, lasting 10 days. There will be no admission charge but a free will offering will be taken.

Nyquist, a transplanted Nebraskan, has been the director of the Texas Lutheran band for five years and has earned an enviable reputation for the fine work he has done at the only senior Lutheran college in the great Northwest.

Prior to coming to Texas Lutheran College, Nyquist was the band director at Huron College in South Dakota. Before that, he spent over 20 years as a band director with public schools in Nebraska and Wyoming.

His degrees are from the University of Wyoming. The easy-going Swede is also well known for his composing, having had over 50 published compositions arrangements and transcriptions which include band, choral ensemble and instrumental solos.

Nyquist is a firm believer in presenting concerts which appeal to all types of music listeners.

As a result, a varied program is in store for Wilson citizens. Don't be surprised, then, if the band breaks out with a toe-tapping polka—which Nyquist himself composed—or a stirring march, since the TLC director believes in a concert which pleases the young and the old.

Actually, audiences which have heard the Lutherans play, feel the band has a real gifted touch with music for every-

St. Joseph's Church--

both Miller.
Bishop Lynch of Dallas officiated for the first confirmation on May 16, 1916, when ten were confirmed.

ST. JOSEPH'S PARISH
First Mass was said in Slaton on December 8, 1911 by the Rev. Joseph Reisdorff who came here from Putnam, Texas. At that time there were only two Catholic families in the Slaton territory, the Frank Simnachers and the A. L. Hoffmans. These families went to Amarillo to make their Easter duty, a distance then of about 175 miles. The Santa Fe Railroad donated the land for a Catholic church, the deed being dated Dec. 12, 1911.

Father Reisdorff moved here in 1912 and lived in the Sacristy. Soon Catholic families began to move in, among them the Kittens, Millers, and Hollers, all of German descent and all from the state of Nebraska. The first church was erected in February 1912. It was a small frame structure about 28x16 ft, with two 12x10 rooms in back as living quarters. The cost of approximately $1,500 was paid by Western Land Co.

The second church was built on the land which J. S. Edwards had donated for school purposes. This was in June 1917 and cost $3,500 which was subscribed by the congregation. This 50x30 ft. building was later converted into a school.

The third church, a large barn-like structure, was erected at a cost of $10,000 which was also subscribed by the congregation. Father French had this building destroyed by a tornado in 1931.

Early in the spring of 1922, another building was erected—a frame stucco 120x40 ft. with a seating capacity of 600. This building was paid for with contributions from the congregation, donation of work and insurance money collected from the destruction of the former church. New pews and a new organ were added to this building in 1937.

In 1951 construction was begun on the present structure, the fifth Catholic church to be erected in Slaton. The 155x72 ft. building has a seating capacity of 1,000, 800 in the main body and 100 in the choir and 100 in side chapels. It was erected at a cost of $150,000. The new St. Joseph's Church was dedicated by Bishop L. J. Fitz-Simon on April 30, 1952. Father O'Brien then set out to build a new rectory next to the church. In 1953 this building, a $30,000 structure, was built and dedicated. Neither church nor school carries any indebtedness.

ST. JOSEPH'S SCHOOL

J. S. Edwards, a pioneer Slaton resident, donated the land for the first Catholic school in 1911. The second church to be built by the congregation was built on the school land but was converted into a school in 1921.

While Father French was pastor, a second school building was erected. It was a frame stucco building with four large class rooms, an office and a large hall, it accommodated about 140 children. Gas heaters and plumbing was installed in 1927. This building was destroyed by fire in May 1956. A new school building had been begun in April and was completed in August of that same year, the cost approximating $87,000. The building burned just one week before the close of school.

Father O'Brien said Mass July 16, 1929 in the chapel. In 1949, a large parish hall was completed.

The Sisters of Mercy opened the first parochial school in February, 1920. They left in May, 1925. Refugee Sisters from Mexico opened the school in September, 1926, but remained only one week. The Franciscan Sisters from Oldenburg, Ind., opened school September, 1927, and taught until June, 1933. They considered the distance from Oldenburg, Ind., to Texas too far.

The Sisters of Mercy, Stanton, Tex., again took charge of the school in September, 1933. In 1952 a new $20,000 convent building was completed, and dedicated on July 13, 1952, by Bishop Fitz-Simon. The new convent serves as a center for the Sisters of Mercy in the Diocese of Amarillo. The Mercy Sisters staff schools in Umbarger, Amarillo, Groom, and Slaton, and the Mercy hospital in Slaton.

Sister Mary Cecilia is the superior of the nuns in the diocese and also was the superior of Mercy hospital from 1938 to 1944. The Mercy Sisters' provincial headquarters are located at Webster Groves, Mo. Completion of the convent building makes 20 new patients' rooms available in the hospital. This brings the hospital's room capacity to 54. New furniture has been provided for the added hospital rooms.

The new convent was made possible in part by a generous donation of a tract of land to the Sisters of Mercy by the late Mrs. Wolfe of Stanton, and by the sale of the sisters' original property in Stanton.

Sister Agnes was the first superior in Mercy Hospital. She was succeeded by Sister M. Stanislaus McCrossan, 1925-1938; Sister M. Cecilia, 1938-1944; Sister M. Columbia, 1944-1953; and Sister M. Odealis since 1953. Although the hospital began under seemingly favorable conditions, a heavy initial debt became a heavy burden during the depression of the '30s, and sacrifices were made by the sisters similar to those of their early history in west Texas. During the administration of Sister M. Cecilia, however, the institution finally became free of debt.

Texas Crime Rate Rises

The Texas Department of Public Safety reports that major crime in Texas increased 2.2 per cent in 1961 over 1960, with an estimated total of 203,285 offenses for the year compared to 198,956 in 1960.

Murder and homicide was up 0.7 per cent, rape increased 5.7 per cent, robbery decreased 16.5 per cent, burglary was down 6.7 per cent, aggravated assault increased 0.3 per cent, theft increased eight percent, and auto theft was down 0.8 per cent.

Murder and homicide was up from 1,080, rape was up from 1,196 to 1,264, robbery was down from 3,560 to 2,974, burglary was down from 56,976 to 53,149, aggravated assault was up from 12,128 to 12,166 theft was up from 108,869 to 117,619, and auto theft was down from 15,147 to 15,025.

"The totals for 1961 mean that one major crime was committed in Texas every three minutes, there was a murder every eight hours, a rape every seven hours, a robbery every three hours, an aggravated assault every 43 minutes, a theft every four and one-half minutes, and an auto theft every 35 minutes," Col. Homer Garrison Jr., DPS Director, said.

"They also indicate approximately a 60 per cent increase in major crimes in our State since 1955—an increase which far outstrips the population increase during this period."

House That Jack Builds

SNYDER, Okla. (UPI) — Mr. and Mrs. Jack Joyce are building an unusual home which they call a house with "one room and three baths."

The upstairs level of the Joyce home has so many openings and so many views of the downstairs level that the entire dwelling appears to be one huge, rambling room.

One writer described the house as "a skillfully blended combination of sleek modernity and massive antiquity."

The structure is mostly cedar and glass, set on a solid granite boulder halfway up a small mountain two miles west of Snyder. The downstairs level has granite floors and, when completed, the foundation will fuse with the mountain in such a manner it will be difficult to tell where the boulder stops and the house begins.

Perhaps the most distinctive feature is the roof, a series of gables and overhangs which offer protection from sun and wind. A peak rising from the roof contains an air conditioning unit.

The Joyces began to collect materials for their home when they were married 15 years ago. They collected doors from an old church in Rochester, Minn. and a bank at Frederick, Okla. They got an elaborately carved frieze from an old drugstore in Lawton, Okla. One eye-catching beveled window pane came from a junk yard in Denver.

Granite slabs and chunks of glass a foot thick were used in the walls. Since the glass is translucent, the entire house can be indirectly lighted by bulbs tucked away in niches upstairs.

The Joyces located their house on the mountain because of the magnificent view. Much of the east, south and west walls consists of windows.

Chicken Shortcut
NEW YORK (UPI) — Herbed, spiced pancake mix makes a shortcut for breading for fried chicken. Combine 1 cup of mix with 2 teaspoons of salt, 1/2 teaspoon of white pepper, 1 teaspoon each of paprika, farragon and marjoram, and 1 tablespoon of parsley flakes. Mix well. Makes enough breading for 3 1/2 to 4 pound cut-up frying chicken.

Texas Newsmen Quiz 7 Gov. Candidates

Texas newsmen quizzed seven candidates for governor at a session of Sigma Delta Chi, professional journalism society, and famed early-season campaign sparks.

Gov. Price Daniel took the center position, weathering attacks from nearly all the other candidates, both democratic and republican. All candidates took part except John Connally and Edwin Walker.

A little fire even developed between the three republican candidates. Harry Diehl of Houston said Jack Cox of Breckenridge was "not a Republican—just a conservative candidate."

But two days later, Diehl withdrew from the race, leaving Roy Whittenburg as the only republican primary opponent for Cox.

Don Yarborough and Marshall Formby attacked the Daniel administration as "tired" and "lacking vigor". Daniel came back with a recital of his five-year accomplishments in education, industrialization and other fields.

Will Wilson's approach was that Daniel's entry collapsed the Connally bandwagon by splitting Vice Pres. Lyndon Johnson's organization, and that the only way to get an uncontrolled candidate was to elect Wilson.

Candidates got in more punches in answering tough questions posed by nine newsmen. All of Daniel's opponents made the Governor's unprecedented four-term try a central issue. In the course of questions, Daniel came out for a two-term limit, but with four-year terms for governor instead of the present two.

FRIENDLESS INSECT—A big-hatted crowd of ranchers gathered at an Austin hotel to get more facts on the stockman's dream -- the elimination of the screwworm.

There was no one there to defend the insect.

Ranchers learned from Floridians how that state was swept free of this costly scourge by a dramatic program. Florida ranchers covered the state with sterile male screwworm flies thus wasting the female flies' single mating period. First airplane distribution of flies in South Texas started the day of the Austin meeting.

Texas stockmen are raising $3,000,000 by voluntary contributions to match an equal amount of Federal money put up by the U. S. Department of Agriculture. The screwworms cost Southwestern ranchers an estimated $40,000,000 a year in losses.

LIVESTOCK RAISERS GET HELPERS—A committee of five legislators held its first meeting after hearing plans of the Southwest Animal Health Research Foundation.

Speaker James A. Turman appointed Representatives Ray Bartram of New Braunfels, Steve Burgess of Nacogdoches, Stanley Boyesen of Yoakum, Glenn Kothmann of San Antonio and Gus Mutscher of Brenham to assist the SWAHRF in planning its attack on the screwworm fly.

HORSE OF ANOTHER COLOR—Stamford oilman Keith Wheatley seemed to get off the track in his campaign for Railroad Commissioner when he told Austin pressmen that Texas should be able to cast a vote on the return of horse racing to the state.

Wheatley said he is neither for nor against racing, but believes "tax profits from horse racing could do much to aid the old people and the children of Texas."

Gubernatorial candidates are interested in regulating another kind of race. They think limitations should be set on the number of times a governor can run for reelection.

Marshall Formby based his objections to the present lack of limits on the fact that most state projects are operated by commissions whose members are appointed by the governor on a rotating basis. Formby figures that by the end of a second term, a two-time governor has made every state commission appointment and it's time for him to take a rest.

John Connally seconded the charge of commission domination, and said that by the end of a third term, every one of the more than 800 commissions have been appointed by a three-time governor. He promised that he would ask the Legislature to limit a governor's tenure to two terms if he's elected.

Newlywed Trucker: "Darling, it's beans on Monday, beans on Tuesday, beans on Wednesday, beans today . . . how can you keep telling me you're feeding me a balanced diet?" Beauteous Bride: "Golly, Sweetie, you know every bit of ole bean weighs the same!"

Read Luke 12:13-21

A man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth. (Luke 12:15.)

A parable has been described as an earthly story with a heavenly meaning. Jesus used many parables to illustrate His teachings.

For instance, He told the parable of the rich man who had bountiful harvests and decided to build larger barns to hold them. Thus he planned to have "goods laid up for many years" so that he could take his "ease, eat, drink, and be merry."

But God said to him, "Thou fool, this night thy soul shall be required of thee." Jesus concluded the parable, saying, "So is he that layeth up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God."

What an example of our world today! People spend so much effort and worry accumulating and increasing material wealth. They give so little time and attention to laying up spiritual treasure, which cannot be taken away, even by death. These are the treasures of love, mercy, kindness, justice—fruits of being faithful followers of Christ, of His way of life.

PRAYER: Our Father, forgive us for striving for earthly pleasures and possessions. Turn our minds and hearts to seek spiritual treasures which pass not away. Trusting Thee to supply our needs, in Christ's name we offer our prayer. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

Old Friends

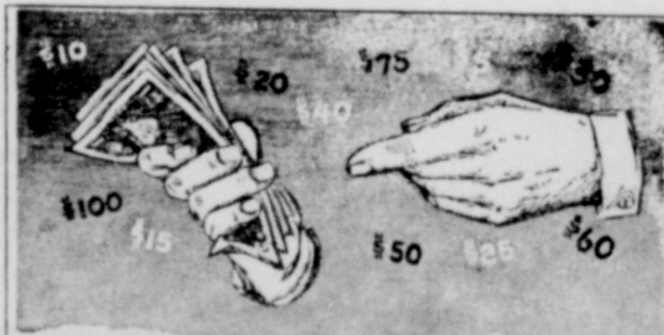

We had a report on Denny Kincer, Class of 1955, and his wife (the former Barbara Wilke) Class of 1957. Denny is a Sergeant in the Air Force and stationed at Carswell Air Force Base. Denny and Barbara are living at 305 Tinker Drive, Fort Worth 14, Texas.

Some of our younger friends are in the news this week. Charles and Karen Norwood have moved to Georgetown to begin a brand new career. Charles, Class of 1952, has spent some two years in the Army, worked for the Santa Fe Railway and completed a college education, majoring in Government, since graduation from high school. His wife (Karen Deaver), Class of 1957, has played a large part in helping Charles prepare for a career in government. Karen was employed by the Southwestern Public Service Company here in Slaton. Charles has accepted a position as assistant to the city manager at Georgetown and hopes to make a career of city government. Young people are certainly to be commended for having what it takes to work for an education in order to realize their ambitions. We wish the best for Charles and Karen in their new home. They will be at home at 1319 East 13th Street, Georgetown, Texas.

In talking with Judge and Mrs. L. R. Gregory we find that their two children are separated by almost the breadth of the nation. J. H., Class of 1938, is employed by the Santa Fe Railway Company in San Bernardino, California and lives at 25134-19th Street in the same city. Mrs. C. B. Lanier (Blanche Gregory), Class of 1940, lives at 131 Woodview Circle, Vienna, Virginia. Blanche and her husband both work for the government in Washington, D. C.

Troubles Plague Candidates

After the labor unions gave Houstonian Don Yarborough their coveted COPE "Commendation," some sections of the Political Association of Spanish-Speaking Organizations started worrying about joining the state body in a PASSO pronouncement for Gov. Price Daniel.

First splinter off the block was Hidalgo County Chapter -- third largest PASSO unit -- which voted 44-16 to make no endorsement in the governor's race.

Yarborough made no comment as he rounded the Gulf Coast area to line up more support. He's been conspicuously absent from his Austin headquarters, while all other statewide candidates touch base here frequently to counteract the almost constant presence of gubernatorial candidate Will Wilson and the incumbent who dwells in the mansion.

Daniel almost had trouble getting his campaign off the ground when a Department of Public Safety plane nipped its wing while lifting the governor off Austin ground for a Houston appearance. The party changed to a private plane, and proceeded to inspect the Caridad San Jacinto Monument with representatives from the State Board of Control, Building Commission and State Archives.

Former Secretary of the Navy John Connally also suffered setbacks in his search for support. Bad weather prevented him from landing for San Marcos and San Antonio speaking engagements. When the clouds cleared he carried his campaign to Laredo.

Sen. Jarrard Secrest, democratic candidate for lieutenant governor, followed Connally into Laredo to speak to PASSO supporters where champion traveler Tom Reavley joined him to get help for his attorney general's race.

Secrest announced the opening of his Austin office this week with a blaring banner on the avenue leading to the Capitol.

Will Wilson started crowding Daniel's position as patron of Texas teachers. Wilson stated that Texans need to take a "long, hard look at the curricula of our schools -- and then pay a little more attention to the advice of professional educators instead of well-meaning but ill-informed amateurs." He also suggested higher pay.

Another lieutenant governor contender, Sen. Crawford C. Martin, also started keeping shop in the capital city.

A Friday coffee party served as "house" warming for Waggoner Carr, former speaker of the House, who's an attorney general hopeful.

Carr's office is just a block and a half from the Capitol grounds, Les Proctor, another attorney general candidate, has his headquarters in a long silver trailer, across the street from the Capitol.

GOP HOPES TO BLANKET STATE -- After State Democratic Executive Committee of-

officials slung verbal arrows at the Republicans for not holding primary elections in every county and precinct, the GOPs embarked on a campaign to finance a primary in every county. Paul Desrochers at Republican State Headquarters said, "We're working like mad to get a primary in every county." Two obstacles stand in the way: Getting funds in about 235 counties where the party has county chairmen, and getting chairmen for the other 19 counties.

Some Republican candidates have a regional flavor -- like the 12 senatorial candidates who hope to represent 67 counties; or the 76 House of Representatives hopefuls for 77 counties; and congressional candidates in all but seven districts. Republican party still wants general ballot representation for the winners among its two gubernatorial candidates, two candidates for lieutenant governor, and those seeking posts as congressman-at-large, commissioner of agriculture, general land office and on the railroad commission.

A step toward solicitations was made by GOP state chairman Tad R. Smith who appointed Dudley C. Sharp of Houston former US Secretary of the Air Force, chairman of the Republicans' finance committee. WATER STUDY REQUESTED-- The Texas Water Commission asked Texas Research League to make a study of the commission's operations and the system of dividing the responsibility for Texas' water development among several state agencies.

The problem of water development and conservation in Texas is so great and controversial that the already-burdened League researchers estimate it will be 1963 before they can begin such a time consuming, comprehensive study.

Judge Otha F. Dent of the Water Commission expressed deep concern about meeting water requirements for 1980. Not only is it necessary to develop plans for constructing dams and reservoirs to fill the expected need, but the business of condemning land and building these projects involves as much as a decade.

One stage of the long-range development plan includes a $65,700,000 reservoir on the lower Navasota River. But supporters have run into the problem of excessive chloride content caused by oil field salt water waste disposal -- a problem repeated in many Texas streams.
