Tigers To Open '59 Season

Special Train Will Accompany Team; Leaves At 4:15 Friday

Slaton High School's Fighting Tigers, 1959 variety, will open the current football season Friday night against Canyon's Eagles. Some 400 fans, including the band and pep squad, are expected to ride a special train to the game, to be played at 8 p. m. in Canyon.

Feverish activity on the part of the Slaton Tiger Touchdown Club and the Chamber of Commerce assured the train for local fans during the last two weeks and Santa Fe, overcoming some obstacles such as having no equipment in this area to service the train, has promised to provide 10 Pullmans out of Kansas City for the project.

The train will leave Slaton's Santa Fe Depot at 4:15 p. m. Friday, arriving about two hours and a half later. There will be NO PASSES HONORED, point out local officials promoting the special.

Many stores are expected to close their doors in time to catch the train Friday and Mayor Clark Self has proclaimed the day "Football Day" in Slaton and urges local residents to support the Tigers with their attendance at the game, if possible.

Coach M. W. Kerr, Tiger head mentor, has named 13 "first stringers." Two of these will not start, of course, but will see enough activity to be called first stringers.

Others expected to see plenty of activity include some freshman such as Webber Teferter, Kelly Mack Bowns, Ronnie Edwards, Steve Ball and others. Jack Coffield and Jerry Kitten are also counted on heavily, Kerr said.

Both teams will take the field with inexperience their main drawback. Weights will be about the same, Kerr said. Coach Bill Davis of Canyon has four starters back from last year's fine team. He runs a winged-T with an unbalanced line and a lonesome end.

The Tigers will leave for Canyon at about 2:30 p. m. Friday.

ONE CATCH, COMIN' UP

Plenty of scenes like this will be taking place for the next several weeks as "King Football" takes over on the South Plains. Of primary concern in this area is, of course, how the Slaton Tigers fare tomorrow night against the Canyon Eagles. In this picture, an unidentified Tiger is about to catch a pass in the recent scrimmage here against Petersburg.

First Bale' Award Claimed By Acuff Farmer Monday

oy Thomas, who farms about 1/2 mile north of the canyon, or five miles south of Slaton, has produced the first bale of 1959 in Lubbock County and the Slaton Trade Territory. The bale, weighing 455 lbs., was clocked into the Acuff Co-op Gin at 4:55 p. m. Monday and wins a $150.00 cash award for Thomas. The award will be made the second annual Farmer-Merchant Presentation Dinner, to be held at 7 p. m. Monday, Sept. 14, in the Slaton Gymnasium, corner of 10th and Jean Streets. With Thomas is Charles Hunter of the Acuff gin.

Attendance is expected to far outstrip last year's inaugural event, when about 400 enjoyed barbecue, a short program and visitation. All area farmers are invited to the affair and have received tickets from area ginners. Those tickets, as well as their own tickets, are paid for by Slaton merchants who are honoring the farmers as a means of "meeting and greeting the farmers who bring new dollars into the Slaton Trade Territory each year." The price of the merchant's ticket also includes a donation to the "First Bale" award.

Police Chief Points Out New Driving Statutes Boost Safety

A new Texas Law has gone into effect, Police Chief Eugene Martin pointed out this week, and Texas motorists are cautioned that the new State law provides for suspension of the license of any driver convicted of four moving traffic violations within a 12-month period. Col. Homer Garrison, Jr., director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, said the new law for the first time defines the term "habitual violator."

2. Smooth driving is the mark of a pro. Don't make jackrabbit starts, squealing turns and fast stops.

"The term habitual violator shall mean any person with four or more convictions arising out of different transactions in a consecutive period of 12 months, or seven or more convictions arising out of different transactions within a period of 24 months, such convictions being for moving violations of the traffic laws of the State of Texas or its political subdivisions."

3. Be courteous at the wheel. Give the other fellow a break.

Nearly six million teenagers, many of them students, drive cars. They make up about 1 out of 10 of the nation's 80 million licensed drivers. A teenage driver is involved in one out of 10 fatal accidents. Main fault of teens is a tendency to speed.

4. Don't try to get ahead of the other driver, or to even the score if he's inconsiderate.

Name On The Petition Not This Reader's

C. A. Womack asked The Slatonite this week to report that he was not a signer of the request to get petitions circulated among Precinct Two voters calling for off-premises sale of alcoholic beverages in the precinct.

Mr. Womack said many persons had asked him if it were he and he wanted everyone to know it was not.

This is not intended to infer that the actual signer of the petition, whose name is similar, did anything wrong and is done simply as a favor to a reader.

REV. WAYNE CRAVATT ... doing preaching

Rev. W. Cravatt Is Evangelist For Revival

Rev. Wayne Cravatt will be doing the preaching during Revival Services now in progress at Trinity Evangelical Methodist Church.

The Rev. Mr. Cravatt, a full-blooded Chickasaw Indian, is from Ada, Oklahoma, where he is engaged in Mission Work among the Indians there. He was reared in the vicinity that he now serves. Also he has spent his entire ministry in Evangelistic and Mission Work.

Services are at 7:30 p. m. each evening at the church, located at 700 So. 19th Street. Everyone is invited to attend, according to Rev. Weldon Thomas, pastor.

Second Liquor Petition Requested; Drys Win In CoC's Haystack Ballot

A second application seeking the sale of alcoholic beverages in the Slaton area, and a "Haystack Ballot" which indicated strong opposition to that sale, topped the wet-dry activities news this week.

The application, which sought the issuance of petitions calling for an off-premises consumption election in Justice of the Peace Precinct Two, was filed last Wednesday and the "Haystack Ballot" came last Saturday.

Justice Precinct 2 covers roughly the southeast quarter of Lubbock County.

The application was checked in the clerk's office for validity of signatures as qualified voters and officials said the petition papers would be delivered last week. The petition was filed by Lawrence Melcher, Lubbock attorney for Robert Stolle, a Posey blacksmith. The election it seeks would favor or reject legal sale of all alcoholic beverages for off-premise consumption only within the prescribed limits of the justice precinct (two).

The "off-premises consumption only" description is what is commonly referred to as "package store" sales.

The first application, one for an election to legalize sale of beer in cafes and taverns in Slaton, was filed August 17.

Stolle's application was signed by 21 persons.

Persons circulating the petition will have 30 days from the date the petition is issued to get it signed and return it to the County Commissioners Court. Signatures of at least 25 percent of the qualified voters in the precinct must appear on the petition before the election can be called or at least 466 signatures.

The following is a list of names of persons requesting the petition last Wednesday.

Pete Grandon, Evelyn Grandon, Clarence Kitten, J. B. Kitten, Mrs. Helen Kitten, Troy Thomas, Nestor Kitten, Mrs.

Elizabeth Kitten, B. H. Bollinger, Mrs. Emma Bollinger, W. G. Elkins, Fabian Stahl, L. B. Roberts, E. C. Womack, George Dubose, Jr., O. A. Rogers, Jr., Bob White, Ray W. Dickie, B. L. Dickie, Ralph Hayes, and P. F. Hayes, all of Slaton or Rt. 1 or Rt. 2, Slaton.

In last Saturday's "Haystack Ballot," Slaton-area residents opposed to voting the precinct wet out-voted their fellow residents who felt otherwise almost two to one.

Those voting dry numbered 294 while the wet vote totaled 145.

Here's the way it went by boxes in the unofficial sampling of opinion by the local Chamber of Commerce:

Piggly Wiggly, Wet, 36; Dry, 84.
Haddock Food Store, Wet, 15; Dry, 70.
Slaton Pharmacy, Wet, 13; Dry, 40.
Walton Drug, Wet, 3; Dry, 22.

Dry Forces Meet Tuesday; Name Attorney

The "Dry Forces" of Precinct Two met Tuesday evening at the First Baptist Church with Kenneth Jones, president, presiding. They decided to ask for volunteer donations from any interested party to defray expenses made in the early part of the campaign. If an election is called an offering will be taken in each church wanting to participate to raise funds for furthering the campaign.

Roy Bass of Lubbock was employed as attorney and legal advisor. The organization states that the names on the petition calling for an election will be printed for the public and expressed a desire that those signing the petition have this understanding while the petition is being circulated.

It is their hope that in the light of the past several elections on this issue, people will be so reluctant to sign that the election will not be called.

Football Contest Starts This Week!

A football contest starts in this week's Slatonite which offers cash prizes for top guessers and plenty of fun for all entries, especially among the arm-chair quarterback set.

Cash prizes of $5, $3 and $2 will be given to the top three entries. All persons entering the contest should indicate the score on one game each week, designated the "Tie-Breaker Game." The person who guesses the closest to the actual point spread, wins, in the event of a tie. All entries should be mailed or brought to The Slatonite no later than 5 p. m. each Friday. For those readers who live in other parts of the country, your entry must be postmarked no later than 5 p. m. Friday, and must be in The Slatonite office at 9 a. m. Mondays, the week after the contest, to be eligible for participation in the contest. Mail to "Football Contest Editor, The Slatonite, P. O. Box 775, Slaton, Texas." Here's how it works: Each week, ten games of general interest (and of course always including Slaton, Wilson and Southland) will be included in the contest. You are to place an X or "check" by the name of the team you think will win, entering the score only in the tie-breaker game. Winners of the previous week's contest will be announced on the contest page each week and should be claimed by each winner. However, in the event the cash prize is not claimed within three days, the money will be mailed.

This week, the contest can be found on pages two and three of the back section. Dig in and have lots of fun... you won't even hafta' buy the coffee with your winnings.

Circumstances and market supply and control, no doubt influence the retail outlets of fresh produce both in Slaton and in other communities. It is a fact that fresh tomatoes, corn for the table, carrots, lettuce, watermelons and many other items that could be cultivated in our own community cannot be purchased because there is no wholesale market for them and no incentive to cultivate such crops.

There is no question as to whether they can be produced because most of the farmers grow much better watermelons, tomatoes and green beans than can be found in any grocery store but if you want any of these items from a local store you'll have accepted those raised in California, Louisiana, or even old Mexico.

This is not a criticism of any local retail outlets but we would like to call attention to the fact that much better field grown vegetables and fruit can be grown and could be sold locally at a lower price if a well organized wholesale sales organization could be built up.

It seems unfair, to both those who could grow such items and to those who are the consumers, that there is no way at present to make an exchange through the regular channels of trade.

At the present time the only kind of tomatoes available in any dependable quantity are those shipped in green from California while many people who have large gardens have better vine-ripened tomatoes rotting because there are no sales outlets and because they do not wish to go to the trouble of gathering the fruit and tangle it to friends as gifts. Many, many others items fit in the same category. 'Taint right, folks, 'Taint right! A. M. J.

Gone And Almost Forgotten

There was a time in the not very distant past when jackrabbits, ground squirrels and prairie dogs were familiar sights. They made their homes on the road sides and quite often in the middle of the dirt roads that were more numerous than paved roads are today. Due to what is considered progress, such animals, that were familiar to every man, woman and child in West Texas, are practically extinct today.

Poison, paved roads with 80 miles per hour speed demons and the constant battle by every means known to man to destroy these original natives of the Plains, has about gone as far as it can. It does no good at this late date to speculate that most of these small animals destroyed more pests to crops than any damage that they did. Many of them ate weed seeds as much as they did seeds that the farmers planted. They made up most of the wild animal life that could be found on the Plains and there is nothing to take their places. Future generations will never know the pleasure of watching the antics of those animals that used to play a few damaging tricks, but gave our section a pattern that will never be known again. A. M. J.

Washington was the most punctual of men. When he said he would meet the Congress at a certain hour, not one minute after that hour arrived he was there and ready. When he invited guests for dinner at his home, he named the time, and when that time came he sat down to his table whether the guests had arrived or not. And he would say: "My cook does not ask, have the guests arrived, but has the hour arrived?"

A passenger on a sightseeing bus in Atlanta, Georgia, was annoyed by the way the driver announced all the historic battleground as sites of great Confederate victories. Fifteen-Year Death

It was the obituary that really set you to thinking. "Local man, age 36, dies after 15 years in hospital, following auto accident in which he was totally disabled."

Fifteen years of staring at the same ceiling. 180 months of complete dependence on others.

780 weeks of hope-erosion, with expenses towering to crowd everything else off the skyline.

5,475 days of waiting for the night.

5,475 nights of waiting for the day.

131,400 hours of four walls, fading flowers, medicinal smells, useless sympathy.

7,844,000 minutes of vegetation with roots withering in hopelessness, spirit shrinking in stagnation.

473,040,000 seconds of death before burial.

And probably because of some "little" fault that YOU might be committing every day of your driving life, such as failure to glance left and right, or forgetting to check your rear-view mirror; squeezing just one more trip out of bald tires; crowding the car ahead; leaning on luck in a blind spot; trying to average 60 on a 50-mile-an-hour road or in 50-mile-an-hour conditions; or just plain, blind assumption that the OTHER driver will do the RIGHT thing!

Death at 36 after 15 years of dying! Within that period of time, a man usually marries, has a family, climbs upward in the world, travels, plays begins to mature, enjoys a million sights, sounds, sensations. Over these same 15 years, THIS man was a castaway on a lonely bed-island. He absorbed tasteless food, slept a desperate sleep, suffered, cursed, cried, felt the bitterness kink his insides into knots at such ordinary sounds as laughter, free footsteps and hearty talk.

For every person who dies in traffic smashups, many others spend agonizing weeks, months, life-times of disability. YOU risk this, as well as a quick ending, when you commit those "little" driving errors.

Do YOU realize this? Do YOU know what errors are YOURS, and what YOU must do to correct them?

Governor Asks All-Out Holiday Safety Effort

Governor Price Daniel has called for an all-out effort to save lives on the Texas streets and highways during the Labor Day weekend in the light of a 6 per cent increase in traffic deaths for the first half of the year.

"I am asking all of Texas—the law enforcement agencies, the civic organizations, the traffic safety councils, but most important of all, the drivers—to help in this most important of all Texas efforts, the saving of human life," the Governor said.

"After looking over the statistical reports from the Department of Public Safety, there is only one conclusion: The slaughter on our streets and highways should be stopped."

The Governor referred to the DPS report for the first six months which showed 1,097 Texas traffic deaths for 1959 as compared with 1,032 for the same period a year ago. Total number of crashes increased from 134,000 to 161,000, injuries increased from 56,000 to 66,000, economic loss jumped from $154,000,000 to $179,000,000 during the same period.

"Percentage-wise," Governor Daniel continued, "traffic deaths were up 6 per cent, fatal crashes were up 9 per cent, number of persons hurt increased 20 per cent, number of crashes jumped 23 per cent, the number of cars wrecked increased by 21 per cent, estimated economic loss jumped by 21 per cent, and the estimated miles traveled rose 5 per cent. As I see it, these figures show that the chances for being injured in Texas traffic are considerably greater than last year, so all drivers obviously need to be aware of this."

He Forgot One Thing

He brushed his teeth twice a day... The doctor examined him twice a year... He wore rubbers whenever it looked like rain... He slept with the windows open... He stuck to a diet with plenty of fresh vegetables... He relinquished his tonsils and traded in several worn-out glands... He golfed, but never more than 18 holes.

The funeral will be held next Wednesday. He is survived by 18 specialists, 4 health institutes, 6 gymnasiums and numerous manufacturers of health foods and antiseptics... He had forgotten about trains at grade crossings.—Santa Fe Magazine.

(Editor's Note: Hay fever and worry are discussed at some length this week by area editors. We thought you'd like to peep in on their sayings.)

Sonny Graham in the State Line Tribune:

About this time every year we write a corny column (even cornier than usual) about how nice it is that September approacheth, the end of hot weather is in sight, the mornings are crisp and the evenings snappy, how great it is to be alive, and son on.

Actually, we think that we still feel the same way. Only now the trouble is that we've had the worst outbreak of hay fever in recent years. This bothersome and common malady is enough to take the real joy out of good living.

It's a mystery to us how those dozens of eruptive sneezes can lie dormant for so many hours and then burst forth in glory when you least expect them to.

To a certain degree, man has always been able to control the evidence of his afflictions. The fellow with a toothache the killing him can grin like a Cheshire cat for a few minutes if he wants to make a pleasant impression on someone and they'll never know he felt more like crying than laughing.

And the sufferer of excess gastric acidity whose Tums haven't taken effect can stave off his groans momentarily and no one will be any the wiser of what's going on in the lower regions, regardless of what the ads say.

But take hay fever. What does the sufferer of this strange allergy do when it comes his time to throw a fit of sneezing? It just can't be controlled. In our case, an attack usually starts a burst of four or five sneezes so rapidly in succession that we can't speak a word, swallow, or hardly catch a breath.

Then we trail off into a sneeze here or there for a minute or two until we've blasted eight or nine times. That's the usual course. Then comes mop-up after the attack. The eyes require dabbing and the nose calls for blowing for about another five to ten minutes. Then all's quiet for an hour or so until the lid comes off again.

This is the typical hay fever fare and we have lots of company who will agree that one of the most noticeable traits of the malady is how it will suddenly grab you before you have time to bat an eye. Bumstead says husbands are a sorry lot, to which we will agree and add that hay fever sufferers ought to be included too.

They tell us that hyponochondriacs off on a trip who suddenly discovered they've left their pill bottles behind are practically beside themselves with fright and are good cases for coronary reverberations.

Let us add that there's no fear like the clammy realization of the hay fever victim that he's away from home and among strangers without his trusty hanky. Discovering that he left this vital piece of equipment on the living room sofa after his last attack is enough in itself to set off another earth-shaking broadside of sneezes. And if you've ever tried to fight an attack barehanded, you know that these are about the toughest odds that have ever been invented.

Incidentally, for the true sufferer, the next worst thing to being without a hanky is to have some sympathetic (but unknowing) friend offer a Kleenex when they discover your plight. Fighting a fit with a Kleenex is like stopping the Santa Fe Chief with a broomstick. Hayfever doesn't even know you're there, boy.

—SOUNDING BOARD—

Al Hinds in the Knox County Herald:

Why worry? There might be a few things for you to worry about. You are either sick or you are well. Now if you are well, you don't have anything to worry about. If you are sick, there are two things you might worry a little about, you are either going to get well, or you are going to die. Now if you are going to get well there is nothing for you to worry about, but if you are going to die, there are two things you may worry about: you are going to heaven or you are going to hell. Now if you are going to heaven there is nothing for you to worry about, and if you go to hell, you will be so busy shaking hands with your friends that you won't have time to worry. So why worry?

Leadership involves a good percentage of bull, but it seems the biggest majority fall for it.

Worried about going crazy? It's a good sign you're not! If you fear that you're going crazy, you can forget it right now. Psychiatrists will tell you that worrying about serious breakdown is one of the indications that you worry one. "As a matter of fact, an article this scribe read person who goes through convinced that he is sane the rest of the world may have more cause to worry about his mental condition the one who is concerned his sanity.

One thing most newspapers don't have to do is worry going crazy, because most in the newspaper game are ready "tetched in the else we would never have newspaper work our voc

Man can criticize what he wants to, but we know things in her favor: He never wastes two dollars of shotgun shells in order a 25c rabbit. Here is the way some see things: When the fellow has a bad temper he's "nerves." When the fellow is set in his ways "obstinate"; when you are just "firmness." When the fellow spends a lot of "spendthrift"; when you are "generous." When the fellow doesn't like your he's "prejudiced"; when don't like his, you are showing him that you "good judge of human nature." When the fellow is lively, he is being "fast"; you do it, it is "high spirit"; the other fellow dresses he is a "dude"; when you is a duty you owe to see When the other fellow says he thinks, he is "selfish"; you do it "frankness"; the other fellow holds on money, he is "close"; when do you are "prudent." It depends on who it is.

Is the Bible in Your Heart?

The Psalmist wanted God's word in his heart. Do you want it in yours? If so, do two things:

- (1) OPEN THE BIBLE TO YOUR HEART. That is to say, read it daily, diligently, devotionally,
(2) OPEN YOUR HEART TO THE BIBLE - and that means, believe it, truly; receive it, sincerely; follow it, humbly. It will transform you.

At church on the Lord's day, and at other times, you will find other people, young and old, who, too, are anxious that the Bible, God's Holy Word, shall be "hid in their hearts" that it may be the guide for their lives. Thus you will find fellowship to inspire you to constant noble Living and service to humanity in the name of the Lord.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN—During the next few weeks young Texans by the thousands will troop back to their classrooms.

Many will be entering a brand new world. There'll be some 250,000 first-graders, some 28,000 college freshmen. In cities and towns across the state, children will take their last swim in the city pools. Parents will reset their alarm clocks and refigure their budgets.

Parents of the incoming college freshmen - most of whom got their own schooling at rock-bottom depression prices - face what most will regard as an appallingly expensive future. Average cost for a Texas college student is $1,100 a year - not including a car, clothes, dates, etc. In the larger cities it may run $1,500 a year.

For four years the average is about $5,000. But hardly any other investment can be expected to return such handsome dividends. Statistically, the college graduate can expect to earn $100,000 more in his lifetime than the non-graduate.

Aside from the students and the parents and teachers who are affected, "back to school" has a wider impact on the economy. Employment will jump as many of the jobless are absorbed into the operations of the dormitories, boarding houses, lunchrooms. Retail stores look to the briskest sales since Easter in the annual re-outfitting that ranges from blue jeans to book satchels, calicos to crayons.

Real estate, customarily, also has a flurry as families try to "get located before school starts." Why go back to school when you can stay out and earn some money? Texas Board of Pardons and Paroles has some sobering answers. Its annual report shows that of 1,186 prison inmates released during the past year, only 119 had completed high school. Only six were college graduates.

Percentage is about the same for those persons still in prison. Overall, the Board feels that people who complete their education and are therefore able to get useful, better-paying jobs are much less likely to run afoul of the law.

All But Three— Gov. Price Daniel signed the huge new state appropriations bill, but he exercised his constitutional prerogative to scratch out some items.

Daniel vetoed appropriations for (1) a $216,000 home for old folks; (2) a $200,000 tourist advertising program by the State Highway Department; and (3) $1,033,500 for interim legislative expenses.

He vetoed the old folks home, said the governor, because "the hospital board does not have responsibility for seniles and... state policy should be to get these unfortunate people into private rest homes near their families rather than making them permanent patients of the state hospital system."

As to tourist advertising, the governor said that the Highway Department already is spending twice this much from other funds, and the appropriation would reduce activities.

Daniel said he saw no need for the interim legislative expense money inasmuch as $330,000 had been appropriated in a separate bill for future legislative expenses.

Legislative leaders replied that perhaps the state isn't supposed to be responsible for housing the age, but the fact is it has some on its hands. They're now housed in the 50-year-old Con-

Suit Over Hay Seen— In the midst of pletentous rain, State Agriculture Commissioner John White has a problem arising from the 1953 drought-relief program.

White says the U. S. Department of Agriculture plans to sue Texas for some $162,760 which the USDA claims it overpaid for shipping hay to Texas farmers and ranchers.

White says the federal government agreed to pay 50 per cent of the cost of shipping the hay. About that time the railroads and truck lines reduced their rates 50 per cent for the drought relief feed shipments. White felt that this would mean that the federal government would then pick up the remaining 50 per cent of the tab. But USDA charges it should have paid only 50 per cent of the reduced rate.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Stone of Albuquerque, N. M., are spending the week in the home of Glenavon Hill and family, who is the brother of Mrs. Stone.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron Johnson and family have returned from a vacation in Colorado Springs, Colo. They reported a nice trip.

"I kept worrying about the job..."

Behind the wheel, your only job is driving!

And like any job, making a success of it takes all the concentration you can give. In driving, a one-track mind pays big dividends. When your troubles get the upper hand, you're heading for an accident! Last year, 37,000 people died in traffic accidents. Many were killed by drivers who let their minds wander from the business at hand. Distraction can lead to destruction—for yourself or others. Stay alert and you'll stay alive!

Where traffic laws are strictly enforced, deaths go DOWN!

Panhandle South Plains Fair Gains Momentum During August

Preparations for the 1959 Panhandle South Plains Fair gathered momentum during August, with the new Fair catalog ready for distribution, superintendents of the various divisions named, and workers at the Fair Grounds involved in painting the interior of the cattle barns and general grounds improvements.

A contract has been signed with MCA which will bring Castle's 3-Ring Circus to the Fair, topping the entertainment bill at the Fair Park Coliseum, Sept. 28 through Oct. 3.

Hubert Castle, considered to be the greatest slack-wire performer in the world, has packed his show with wild animal acts, trapeze artists, clowns and comedy acts, and all the things which America loves to see at a circus.

One of the finest wild animal acts in this country will be seen with George Keller, former college professor, putting his famous collection of jungle killers through their paces.

Keller, who taught art at Columbia and at Pennsylvania State Teachers College, left his college classroom at the age of 43 to begin a new career as a teacher—a teacher of a group of students who came from the jungle, and who, by instinct, were natural enemies and killers. In his new classroom, Keller looked into the bright and snarling faces of black maned African lions, Bengal tigers, African and Indian leopards, pumas, cheetahs, and the treacherous black leopards on Indo-China.

In addition to the fact that it is rare for a college professor to lay aside academic robes for the flashy uniform of a wild animal trainer, other aspects of George Keller's act have won him great fame and constant bookings. He has achieved a remarkable feat in gathering together more varieties of big cats in his act than have ever performed together in the United States, perhaps in the world.

And with this collection of some of the deadliest animals in the world, George Keller has always astounded audiences by going into the ring and putting his beasts through their routine of tricks without the usual whip, gun or chair. His animals get their signals from his eyes and expression and hands.

George Keller also has several deep scars to prove that his students don't always like his expression. "They hate me," he says, "because I make them work."

Other acts on Castle's 3-Ring Circus include Les Blue and Yvette, comedy jugglers and unicycle riders; the Flying Mallos, Jennifers Seals, and Alfredo and his midgits.

GETS DOCTORATE

Clinton M. McPherson, a former Slaton High School teacher, received a Doctor of Education degree at the summer commencement exercises at Texas Technological College. The title of his dissertation is "The Effect of Sound Motion Pictures as a Measure by Differential Achievement on the Motivation of College Freshman Chemistry Students." Mr. McPherson will continue his teaching duties in the Chemistry Department at Texas Tech for the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Klaus of Southland had their nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Michaelis and their five children of Sealy, visiting them from Friday until Tuesday of last week. They also visited in the Werner Klaus home at Wilson and in the Calvin Klaus home of Slaton.

Mrs. Pearl Pinckert and Mrs. Vivian A. Jones have returned from a week's vacation in Fort Sumner, N. M. and points of interest in New Mexico. They visited with their sister, Mrs. James F. Foley in Ft. Sumner, N. M.

ABOVEGROUND DOUBLE-WALL SHELTER

For Family Protection From Radioactive Fallout

AN OUTDOOR aboveground fallout shelter may be built of concrete blocks. It is recommended for houses without basements or for regions where water or rock is close to the surface, making it impractical to build an underground shelter. Two walls of concrete blocks are constructed at least 20 inches apart. The space between is filled with gravel or earth. The walls are held together with metal ties placed in wet mortar as the walls are built. The roof is a six-inch slab of reinforced concrete, covered with at least 20 inches of gravel or earth. Most people would have to hire a contractor to build this shelter. Plans appear in the OGDIM 22-page booklet, "The Family Fallout Shelter." For free copies write: Box Home Shelter, OGDIM, Battle Creek, Mich.

Cotton Insect Weekly Report

Infestations of cotton insects were reported light in a majority of fields in all counties. Although insecticidal applications were made in some localities only scattered plantings were treated. With few exceptions the infestations were not heavy.

Fleahoppers were reported in light to medium infestations in most counties. Heavy populations were found in fields in Hockley and Lynn counties.

Bollworm activity was light in a majority of fields in most counties reporting. Light to medium infestations were reported in some fields in Crosby, Lubbock, and Lynn counties. Heavy infestations were reported in occasional plantings in Hockley county. Infestations generally consisted of small to large worms, indicating light egg laying over a considerable period. Egg counts increased somewhat on young cotton late in the week.

Cabbage loopers were present in most cotton fields and had caused heavy ragging of leaves in some fields. Heavy infestations were observed in a few fields in Lubbock county. Disease caused heavy mortality of the worms in some fields, but hardly affected infestations in others. Loopers are very difficult to control. Satisfactory reductions of infestations can be secured only when recommended insecticide is applied while worms are small.

Leafworms were reported in an increasing number of fields. Infestations consisted of eggs and newly hatched to large worms. No infestations were reported as being sufficiently heavy to require control.

The information contained in the Cotton Insect Situation release has been compiled from reports received from county agents, voc. agri. teachers, personnel of Texas A&M College System, branches of the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture, commercial cotton inspectors, chemical companies, and others.

Professional Basketball Game Is Slated In Lubbock On October 3rd

Basketball fans in the Slaton area will have an opportunity to see two of the game's greatest stars—Wilt Chamberlain and Bob Pettit—in a man-to-man scoring duel this fall.

Chamberlain and Pettit will be the headliners when the Philadelphia Warriors and St. Louis Hawks invade Lubbock Coliseum for the first professional basketball game ever played in West Texas. The tilt is scheduled for 3:30 p. m. Saturday, October 3—the same date as the night football game between Texas Tech and Tulsa at Jones Stadium. So there'll be a full slate of sports activity in the Hub City on that date.

Chamberlain, the game's highest paid player at $65,000 annually, has just finished an international tour with the Harlem Globe Trotters and will play NBA ball with Philadelphia this season. The seven-foot former Kansas all-American is probably the most publicized cager in collegiate history.

"Wilt the Stilt" is certain to have his hands full in the Lubbock game, however, because he'll be facing the NBA's top scorer in Pettit. Big Bob, who stands six-foot-nine, led St. Louis to the world title in 1958 and to a divisional crown last season. Most experts agree that he is the game's finest offensive performer.

Other stars who will appear in Lubbock include Cliff Hagan, Guy Rodgers, Tom Gola, Slater Martin, Clyde Lovellette and Neil Johnston.

Tickets to the game, priced at $3.00, $2.50 and $2.00, are now on sale by mail. All seats will be reserved, and good seats are still available in each price bracket. To order tickets, send a check in the proper amount to: Pro Basketball, Box 5002, Lubbock, Texas.

Our Men In Service

He is currently undergoing the first cycle of basic infantry training at the Infantry Training Center. The eight week training program consists of courses in troop information, general military subjects, tactical training and weapons instruction.

Third Annual Field Day At Halfway Set

The Third Annual Field Day of the High Plains Research Foundation will be held September 24, at Halfway, Texas, 10 miles east of Olton and 15 miles west of Plainview on Highway 70. Dr. Thomas C. Longnecker, director of the Foundation, has announced.

Guided tours will begin at 1:30. Staff members and scientists from the Extension Service, Soil Conservation Service, Texas Experimental Station and Agricultural representatives of commercial companies will be at designated stops to discuss the research being conducted. The tours will cover such experimental research as: cotton fertilization, grain sorghum varieties and fertilization experiments, irrigation efficiency on cotton, recharge well and bench leveling, cotton skip-row and interplanting, soybean fertilization and rate of seeding and row spacing tests, castor bean variety and fertilizer tests.

The usual Bar-B-Que will be held at 6:30. Dr. Longnecker said everyone is cordially invited to attend this third annual Field Day to observe the research being done to help agriculture maintain its role as the foundation for the continued growth of these Great High Plains of Texas.

Mrs. Georgia Foley of Fort Sumner, N. M., returned home Monday after spending a few days with her sisters, Mrs. Pearl Pickert and Vivian A. Jones.

Teague Drug Monthly News

A message from Teague's Drug, "Your Pharmacist"

PLEASE KEEP PLASTIC FILM FROM CHILDREN

Plastic film is an excellent product to protect recently laundered blankets and clothing. It can be a most dangerous hazard to infants and children.

PLASTIC FILM HAS CAUSED DEATHS.

Infants and children playing with this thin, adhesive film can block their nose and mouth so that breathing becomes impossible. Using plastic film as a mattress cover for baby's crib or play-pen invites trouble.

PLASTIC FILM IS A DANGEROUS PLAYTHING

Most children like to pull these film bags over their head while playing their imaginative games. When static charges cause a film bag to cling to the face, asphyxiation results.

PLEASE DESTROY SURPLUS PLASTIC FILM.

When it has served its original purpose, dispose of it. Never permit children to play with pills, medicines and dangerous household articles, including plastic film.

"No need to schedule baths at our home," says Mrs. Dan Staggs, 100 East 15th St., Littlefield, Texas.
"We have ELECTRIC WATER HEATING!"

The Staggs family live in a completely all-electric home — their home, was, in fact, the first Gold Medallion home to be certified under the high standards set by the Medallion Home program. Electricity is doing a clean, dependable job for the Staggs. They like all their electric appliances and with 5 in the family, they appreciate, all the more, the abundance of hot water that they get from flameless electric water heating.

SPECIAL LOW RATES FOR WATER HEATING
Yes, ask your Public Service office about the special water heating rate. It makes electric water heating economical, too.

SLATES OPEN HOUSE

Open house will be observed Sunday at 3 p. m. at the Acuff Church of Christ. A revival will start at the Church September 7.

Acuff Church Of Christ Will Observe Open House This Sunday

The Acuff Church of Christ will observe open house at its new church building Sunday, Sept. 6, at 3 p. m.

A gospel meeting will be conducted Sept. 7 through Sept. 13, with O. H. Tabor, Church of Christ minister from Carlsbad, N. M. as the evangelist. Song leader will be Hubert Arant of Lubbock. Weekday services will be conducted at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. and Sunday services, at 10:40 a. m. and 6:45 p. m.

Brooks Terry, teacher at Lubbock Christian College, is the regular minister of the church. D. W. McLeod, Hershel Thomas and Paul Rogers are elders.

The new church is of modernistic style. It is of pink brick construction. The auditorium will seat approximately 300 persons. The building contains eight class rooms. It was built at a cost of approximately $45,000. Contractor was Killingsworth Construction Co. of Dimmitt.

Acuff Church of Christ began holding meetings in homes in about 1900, then met in the school building for years. The auditorium of the school was purchased and moved to the church site.

The late L. O. Buford and the late J. T. Brown were active in formation of the church. The

There's a fashion story in COLLARS—they make the suit this Fall

KABRO of Houston works fashion miracles... here's one! This two piece suit is tailored of Silkpunch, an easy care rayon and silk with that dull rough look so prized this Fall. Grosgrain insertions trim the jacket, which has a neat fitted peplum to fit smoothly over the slim skirt. Black or brown, with white over-collar. Sizes 10 to 18.

KABRO of Houston has a fresh approach in this charming two piece suit of Arnel and rayon. The tunnel collar rolls softly, with a gay light embroidered tie at the throat. The jacket has a fitted peplum, self covered buttons and a slim skirt. The woven random check has a lustre that makes an interesting texture. Black, brown, moss, red. Sizes 10 to 18.

KNOW YOUR SLATON BUSINESS MEN AND FIRMS

In order to encourage the people of this area to become better acquainted with leading South Plains business firms and the men who are and those who have been instrumental in their establishment and growth the Slatonite carries historical sketches at regular intervals. The information will be told in a way to make it as interesting as possible and it is hoped that each sketch will be read by everyone who is interested in the growth of this area.

 Do business with these firms when possible and you will do your share toward the further development of the South Plains and they in turn will be of benefit to you by being able to give you better service and quite often more economical prices.

JUST TALK
 BY A. M. J.

Several tough problems have been dumped in my lap this week and anyone who wants to help solve any or all of them will be given nation-wide credit for doing so.
 At least credit for doing so will be published in the Slatonite, which is practically the same thing.
 First comes a sad complaint from Mrs. Lloyd Henry who has a back room full of pressurized cans that formerly held beeing soap, bug killer, ect. Instructions on the cans are: Do not puncture, do not burn in incinerator and do not throw in garbage.

Last week while sipping coffee with C. L. Garrigues, Ray Hickman and Billy Ball I made the prediction that it would not be many years before men's ties and suits would be as out of style as men's garters and men's long handle union suits for practically all men will be wearing sport clothes.

Billy did not agree with me and bowed my head in shame for making such a remark. Billy says there are more ties being sold these days than ever before although he admitted that the women are buying a good many of them and men wearing them under protest. The discussion drifted to what well dressed men will be wearing in the future and Billy says the hottest stuff now is skin tight pants and cutaway coats. If the style catches on all the well dressed men will be wearing such suits within two or three years. You can put me down right now as being the worst dressed man in Texas in 1961, a title I may already hold for 1959.

"Who do you think are the best dressed men in Slaton, that is if there are any," I asked Billy.

Here they are: Don Crow, Joe Walker, Jr., Harry Stokes and Howard Swanner. "There are others too," said Billy. Thinking the matter over I am still not sold on narrow brim hats with ice cream cone shaped crowns and I sure don't want to wear pants that fit me like the skin on a hot dog. I'll just go on being old droopy pants.

—JUST TALK—

A little girl described her appendectomy this way: "They told me it wouldn't hurt and then they stuck a needle in my arm and I disappeared."—Joyce Benson.

Around and About Slaton

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Brown, former residents of Slaton who now make their home in Hiwasse, Arkansas, visited friends here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Cook left last week on a tour of California and interesting points on the Pacific Coast.

Bryan Williams, Jr., and his father, Bryan Williams, Sr., both of Post announced the formal opening of their model home in a residential addition they are promoting in Post. Sounds like a real nifty home and a boost for Post where things are booming according to reports. Mrs. Bryan Williams is the former Minnie Will Wootton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Wootton of Slaton.

It was reported in this column last week that Miss Cora Seely had gone to Dallas. She didn't do it but is in Dallas this week. We're not very reliable but we do our best. The mistakes are caused by the kind of typewriter we use.

One of the most progressive farmers in the Slaton area is Norbert Kitten. He markets Jumbo peanuts, black eye peas and several other varieties of fresh vegetables that he produces on the Bill Kitten place west of Slaton. Mr. and Mrs. Norbert Kitten have eight children, three pet crows, a German sheppard dog and a frozen locker full of food.

Miss Rusty Kitten, a former employee of the Slatonite underwent surgery at the Baylor Hospital in Dallas last week. She is now employed in Lubbock and expects to report again for duty soon.

James Vardy, who has been a big wheel at the Slatonite while attending High School in Slaton, will attend Texas Tech and plans on attending law school later.

Richard Edwards, who graduated from the Slaton High School last May, will attend Texas Tech this season. He is not sure what subject he will specialize in. A. M. J.

BLAND'S FURNITURE

For top-quality furniture, this week's business review page merchant is unsurpassed in the Slaton area.
 It's Bland's Furniture, formerly known as Home Furniture.
 Bland Tomlinson and Victor Hodman established the firm at 112 Texas Avenue. The size of the building at that time was 28 feet by 140 feet and at first the only items handled were home furnishings.
 Over the first year, the company increased its business by 100 per cent. They increased from one part-time employee to three full-time employees. The present building was increased from 3,000 square feet to 9,000 square feet.
 On January 1, 1959, Bland Tomlinson purchased his partner's interest in the business and changed the name from Home Furniture to Bland's Furniture.
 The firm handles all types of home furnishings, appliances, accessories, rugs, etc.

BLAND & MERCHANDISE

Bland Tomlinson, the sole owner, was married to Bertha Bingham on Oct. 19, 1938, in Post. They first came to Slaton on January 1, 1948, and made their residence at 450 W. Garza. They now reside at 805 S. 21st.
 Mr. Tomlinson was born in Post on May 30, 1910, and Mrs. Tomlinson was born in Walden, Ark.
 The Tomlinsons have two children, Gregory, 19, and Irene, 18.
 For friendly service, good deals and fair prices, stop in at Bland's Furniture. You'll like them and their hospitality. You'll like their merchandise, too!
