Similar names edged back into the winning bracket of the football contest this week, Joe H. Baker topping the winners, followed by Mrs. H. H. White and Johnny Henning.

proved a real squeaker, with upsets confusing contestants. The three winners all missed in picking over Hale Center, and in choosing Lamesa over Hereford.

Contestants are urged to pay special attention to the tie-breaker, calling the score as near as they can foresee, as the tie-breaker is being used every week as result of increased entries, several continuing to guess the same number incorrectly.

Contestants should well pay havoc with entries this week, as opinion is split on every game. If the local "seers" have the powers, then SMU, Houston, Tech, Lorenzo and Olton are chances of winning, Monahans, Abernathy, Sundown and Hereford being little better. But who knows?

Remodeling of the old hotel by J. S. Edwards, and V. G. Browning has been a great deal of membership "backpacks" by a number of area residents.

Friday Mrs. A. R. Jones, who ranches east of Slaton, called me and gave me interesting information that she had collected from the time of a small girl.

That Capp Compton, who owned and operated the hotel when cement in wheel barrels that the entire contents of the hotel was by Robertson said that she had seen Mr. Compton come to the Texas Panhandle because he was a very close friend of Mr. J. C. Paul of Slaton at about the same time that Capp Compton built the hotel.

Compton sold the Capp hotel approximately 1915, according to Mrs. Robertson's story, and moved to Long Beach, California. He bought the hotel from the city of Slaton and created a suburb that is now known as Slaton, California.

Many appreciate persons Mrs. Robertson who are kind enough to give us information that we couldn't possibly get other ways.

Area Cotton Yield, Quality High

Evidence a-plenty of City Hall Facelifting

With over 50% of the cotton in the Slaton and adjacent areas open and ready for harvest, farmers this week are keeping their weather eye open, only three or four warm days needed to ready the crop for machine stripping.

Labor supply has been a problem in some localities. It is reported, with trickle of itinerant help coming in, and only 1050 Mexican National workers allocated for Lubbock County.

Sample receipts at the Lubbock Classing Office were up this week with 13,700 samples being classed as compared to 5,950 the previous week. To date, 22,500 samples have been classed by that office.

Quality of cotton being classed is good. Middling comprised 56% of the cotton classed in the Lubbock Classing Office this past week. Strict Low Middling constituted 14% and Middling Light Spotted 18%.

The average staple length was 30.3 thirty seconds of an inch. Staple lengths for the week were distributed as follows: 29/32 9%; 15/16, 56%; 31/32, 30%; an 1 inch, 5%.

Light showers falling Tuesday night were not expected to delay harvest long with sun weather forecast to follow the cool front. Only about .2 inch of rainfall was reported both north and south of Slaton, with some larger amounts north of Lubbock.

Some 70 bales per day have been delivered to the gin from the Posey vicinity, and a similar amount reported at Southland. Ginners state that 95% of the local cotton is grading middling, and yields are generally very good. The early low bales resulted in early-season low grades, but the cotton now being brought in is commanding good price.

Grain harvest in the area virtually complete, according to survey of Lee McElroy, Co. Agricultural Agent. Though grain quality has generally been good, the yields were disappointing. These crops failed to respond adequately to early season watering, many farmers report.

-WEATHER-

A cool front bringing light moisture hovered over the area Tuesday night, dropping local temperatures to 44 degrees, and dampening the crops with some 2 moisture.

Day by day temperature readings for Slaton, high a low, follow:

Thursday	88-60
Friday	90-55
Saturday	88-52
Sunday	89-58
Monday	88-56
Tuesday	66-56
Wednesday	64-47

"Damp" Weekend Fills Slaton Jail

Thirty-one drunk arrests this weekend resulted in a full jail, and a number of prisoners have been utilized since Monday in painting the interior of the offices and reception room.

Twenty-one offenses were logged on the records Monday morning alone.

Other police activity was reported light during the week, three thefts being only investigations of consequence.

Slaton Boys Are Entering Stock At Dallas Show

Eight boys of the Slaton Future Farmers of America chapter are in Dallas this week showing animals at the Fat Stock Show.

Making the trip were Bobby Harlan, Joe Bob Bednarz, Ray Rushing, Alan Reasoner, Walter Porsch, Jerrold Owens, Keith White and Larry Luman.

Bednarz, Rushing and Harlan are each showing one Suffolk lamb. Two Poland China hogs are being shown by White, one each by Owens and Reasoner, and two by Harlan. Porsch is showing a spotted Poland China. Bobby Harlan is showing two Durocs; Larry Luman, Walter Porsch, two, and Alan Reasoner, one.

The show commenced Wednesday morning, continuing through Thursday evening.

Sale of lambs and pigs will start at 9:30 a.m., Saturday.

Just as the three-story Slaton City Hall was designed and built in 1922 to meet needs of a progressive community, work is forging ahead this week in the razing of the upper floors and other remodeling that should convert the landmark into a compact, functionally designed building to meet the demands of modern-day Slaton.

Removal of each beam, wrecking of each wall, demolition of balcony and staircase — all these operations have called memories to the minds of the passing parade of old-timers joined by casual onlookers in sidewalk superintending of the job this week.

City commission minutes of November 1, 1921, reveal that H. D. Talley on that date presented the board with a petition signed by 116 residents asking for an election to authorize $15,000 for erection of a city hall on city park property in Slaton. Later minutes reveal that bonds for the construction were dated in April of 1922. Lowest bidder, and ultimate builder, was F. P. Brown, local contractor who submitted a $20,358.00 bid, and that $25,000 had been authorized for total construction expense. Brown, City Secretary J. J. Maxey recalls, was the brother of Bill Brown who later was to become a city commissioner. "Extras" and alternations brought the total building cost near the $25,000 figure.

Two mayors were in office during the preparations that began with the planning stage, culminating with final construction. R. J. Murray was mayor in 1921, succeeded by H. C. Jones in Murray in capacity of alderman April of 1922. Serving with were J. S. Edwards, father of the present president of the Citizens State Bank, H. C. Jones, W. E. Olive and Paul Owens. Olive now is living in San Angelo. Owens was father-in-law of Maxey, present secretary who has served for 18 years on that job.

Commissioners serving with Jones were Olive and J. W. Lokoy.

The year 1922 not only witnessed building of the community hall, but also there was change in form of government for the city administration of business. The mayor-alderman form was replaced by mayor-commission form after a vote that tallied 140 for the change, 127 against. This was recorded in the minutes of April 22, 1922. W. E. Olive was named as first city secretary under the new system on June 22 of that year, being employed at a monthly stipend of $150.

Decapitation of the building actually is only one phase of the step-by-step modernization program launched by the present city commission. Plans are on the drawing board for rearrangement and full utilization of offices and floor space. The final product likely will provide a drive-in window for customer service at the water and tax office, restrooms with outside entrances, and other features designed to give an overall modern and eye-pleasing appearance, representing maximum utilization at a minimum expense.

As the old building met a community need with its availability for shows, rallies, boxing matches

Jaycees Play 'Member Or the Consequences'

Hardly blending with the surroundings in the front yard of Jaycee Don Kendrick's home, it's a reasonably safe bet that the "Chic Sale" pictured adjacent will be removed to other but still unwelcome quarters at an early date.

Designed as an implement in the current Slaton Junior Chamber of Commerce membership drive, the not-so-modern fixture is placed on the lawn in an unstrategic and public location until the property owner, a Jaycee, recruits a new member for the organization. Kendrick, as first of the unsuspecting recipients, found the one-room facility, minus path, on his lawn this morning.

Some 25 members now make up the organization, and if the unique publicity-getting, outlandish stunt works, which most wives have assured it would, 25 new members should be enlisted in short order.

Men of ages 21 through 35 years of age are solicited for membership, with annual dues of $10 taking care of local club projects, state and national dues.

Bill Ware is president of the Jaycees, with Jerald Draper as 1st vice president and Laurence King as 2nd vice president. Bobby Jones is secretary, with Wayne Banks as treasurer.

"Building committee" for the 3' x 3' was Draper, Jones and Ware, none of whom have announced plans to go into the contracting business.

The Jaycees have taken the lead in a number of local projects during the past year, cooperating in still others. Projects have included clean-up of tennis courts, manning of trucks during clean-up week, provision of a heat machine for use at Mercy Hospital, bicycle check, and holding of a public forum for disclosure of city hall bonds.

Slated for attention in future months are at least two turkey shoots prior to Thanksgiving and Christmas, assistance in the polio oral vaccine program, study of feasibility of a teenage car rodeo next spring promoting accuracy and skill in safe driving, and exploration of possibilities of a Junior Rodeo.

An annual Jaycee carnival is anticipated to be initiated next summer, with leased rides being manned by the local members. The annual Toys for Tots program again will be conducted December, all these projects planned to net funds for community enterprises.

The Sells Bros. Circus is appearing the 23rd of this month on the football field parking lot sponsored by the Jaycees, with 10 per cent of the gate proceeds going to the local group. Shows will be held at 4 p.m. and 8 p.m. on that date.

Tobacco Plants Thrive in Experimental Plot

In the country or tobacco plant could be a legitimate business, judging from the healthy tobacco plants shown here.

Paul Brasfield, truck gardener extraordinaire, has been growing tobacco plants for the first time, setting out two rows of slips given him by Wayne Lamb. Planted in early May, the plant growth has been slow, according to Mrs. Brasfield, also a keen observer of the experiment.

Plans for the plants? Brasfield says he will tie and cure them for experimental purposes. Recently he and Benny Brown, another Santa Fe employee, tried mulching some of the leaves, forming them into rough cigarettes, and net result was a "head swimming" concoction, take their word for it! Mrs. Brasfield states that the tobacco companies must surely have a secret formula, for her husband reports the local crop as really rugged smoking!

The two long tobacco plant rows are part of a large truck patch the Brasfields operate on East Lubbock street in Slaton. The plot, a reclaimed abandoned lot, is used by their 13-year-old son, Phil, as a 4-H project. A deep freeze has been filled with products from the patch of vegetables, and many items have been sold locally through market outlets.

Another attraction of the truck patch is the pony lot adjacent, where a unique strain of "miniature" Jenny Wren ponies are being raised. Five of the tiny horses now are in the lots there, and when the spring crop of colts arrive, the Brasfields, with their daughter Mrs. M. R. Swinburne of Austin, plan to go into commercial raising and marketing of the breed. Start of the local remuda was obtained from the Murray farms of Byers, Texas, where the originator of the strain states he spent 20 years in developing the fascinating miniatures.

Davidson Yard, Rock Garden Fruit of Hobby

One of the more beautiful yards in Slaton unmistakably is that of the Cade Davidsons, located at their home, 120 S. 5th Street.

Overall pleasing effect of the premises, front and rear, has come as result of seven year pursuit of hobbies of an entire family. Mr. and Mrs. Davidson and sons John Craig, 15, and Alan, 8, joining in rock hunting trips, arranging the rock treasures in the yard, and finally working together in flower and shrub propagation and care.

The shrub predominate in the landscape vista this month, shrubs showing their best through the autumn season. Tree wisteria, red barberry, beauty

EDITORIALLY SPEAKING

Observations and Potpourri

Across the land newspapers this week are extolling their role in history, the comments prompted by recognition of this particular week as "National Newspaper week".

This week also marks beginning of the 53rd year of publication for The Slatonite.

And across our desk has passed congratulatory messages and plaudits from a variety of unexpected sources — from J. Edgar Hoover to the Internal Revenue Department (!?), and from those we really appreciate — the good words of encouragement from our neighbors here at home.

We will not "toot our own horn" on this occasion, even editorially, but rather continue our job as we see it.

There are goals that we work for; there is an image that we attempt to project; and there is service that we try to render. We might list some of these aims, then drop the subject, for YOU are the final judge, and as time goes on we are confident that together you and ourselves can be of mutual benefit. Following are some policies that we practice, believing they will contribute to this mutual understanding and service.

Only objective and impartial news reporting is condoned in the columns of the Slatonite; the facts as we understand them after judicious and probing study are presented — with no axe to grind.

We recognize our advertising columns as a direct and wanted link between the seller and buyer, that relationship being elevated through a policy of complete and factual information; with only the truth, and whole truth, sanctioned in these messages. We strive each week, as do our local merchant friends whom we have learned to know and appreciate, to merit the full confidence of every reader of the good news carried under the advertising banner.

The advertiser, who lives in Slaton, contributes to our community welfare, and depends on Slaton area trade for his livelihood, is a key figure in Slaton economy and well-being. The Slatonite is for him, completely, and we shall continue working with him in preparing an attractive and factual message that deserves consideration of our readers.

No crusading or "dictation of a wise old editor" is attempted in the editorial columns. We do, nevertheless, have definite opinions on most matters — from politics to religion to bath salts — but we believe our readers are of average intelligence and are capable of making up their own minds! We attempt from time to time to gather facts that might not be available to our readers otherwise, posing the question at hand, but never dictating a decision.

Finally, the Slatonite just wants to be a good newspaper for the benefit of its readers and the Slaton area. Your suggestions in achievement of this goal always are welcome — wanted and needed.

The Politician is No Exception

According to ghost writers in both parties you'd think all was love and kisses between top men. Actually if one turns around he'll get a hatchet in the back of his knarled and knotty head. There's just about as much harmony within party ranks right now as there always has been, and that's darn little. Each aspirant, making his all-out bid for recognition, is clawing at the feet of the fellows in power, hoping to catch him off balance and gain admission to the throne room. —Big Bend Sentinel, Marfa

The greatest achievement of the human spirit is to live up to one's opportunities and make the most of one's resources. —Vauvenargues

"An open invitation to disaster is implicit in the continuing tendency in the United States to concentrate power in the Federal government and to make it more and more remote from the people." —Dean M. Worden, Brookfield (N.Y.) Courier.

A young man who worked with Edison became thoroughly discouraged because they had tried an experiment about a thousand times without success. He intimated that he could not stand working so long without having results. "Results?" exclaimed Edison. "Why, man, I've a lot of results! I know a thousand things that will not work at all!"

In failure, Edison learned what not to do. That was the secret of his matchless success. He used his failures as stepping-stones to reach higher attainments. Failure, if accepted rightly, is an important part of our education. Her teaching, the results will far surpass the expenditure. S. S. Informer

Not a Question of Patriotism . . .

A scheduled maneuver of armored divisions in Central Texas has been called off because the army couldn't lease enough land between Fort Hood and Brownwood to stage the training exercise. At the going rate of $1 per farm or ranch, the army signed up about one-third of the land needed.

Ranchers and farmers in the area who didn't sign up have come in for a lot of undeserved criticism, mostly from merchants in the Fort Hood-Central Texas area who are afraid of losing this army facility and the hundreds of millions of dollars in payrolls.

Although the army promised prompt fair payment for damages incurred, ranchers were skeptical because of a similar maneuver held ten years ago in which they generally came out on the short end of the stick in damage payments.

There are a hundred reasons for not letting two divisions of armored vehicles rampage across ranch and farm land — and none of them have to do with lack of patriotism. How can one estimate the damage a broken fence might do to the bloodlines of a registered herd that was many years in building? Or when a rut on a hillside might turn into a gully?

Why not take the armored divisions to government land somewhere in the western states for their maneuvering? Well, the army said it would take $9 million extra to do this and that it didn't have the money.

The answer to this is simple. If it takes $9 million more for vital training, let all taxpayers across the nation share in this cost. Why place the entire burden on a few farmers and ranchers?

If the wife of a high official of the government of Ghana can afford to buy a $3,400 gold-plated bed (part of it no doubt paid for by her husband's dollars), and if this same official (who before Ghana's independence was a $22-a-month debt collector) can afford several villas outside the capital city of Accra (one of them in the $200,000 range), then the U.S. government can afford to pay our landowners more than $1 each for vital training areas.

However, the lease money is not really the issue. In a national emergency, not one rancher would refuse such use of his land. There is no more patriotic group of people alive than those good folks who inhabit the rural areas of Texas.

—Texas Agriculture Farm Bureau Publication

Can Delay be Sweeter?

Evidently the lawyers of Billy Sol Estes who succeeded in having his trial at Tyler postponed for a month do not have the same philosophy as Josh Billings, who once wrote: "When I was a boy, I'd rather be licked than postponed once."

From Supreme Court to Mississippi . . .

For 30 years now men have been appointed to the Supreme Court not because they are the top men in the legal profession, not because they are experts in their field, not because they have rendered outstanding service on the bench.

They have been political appointees. They have been appointed "because they worked hard in the last presidential election." They served as a precinct chairman or made a big contribution to the party's slush fund.

More important, they have been appointed because it was known — in advance — how they were going to rule on certain questions to be presented to the court. They were appointed because of their peculiar ideas on sociology and politics.

Certainly, Mr. Meredith has every moral and legal right to attend the University of Mississippi or any other school which he can qualify. But knowing the mood and tenor of the people of Mississippi, can he really get an education?

This is something that every community must decide for itself, and some communities are not known for their kindness, and tolerance.

Anyone who has ever made even a casual trip to Mississippi knows the feeling of the people there. It is, of course, not the roots go deep, and Mr. Meredith's never-crowned little brother aren't going to do in what Christianity has failed to do in 2,000 years.

This is the way dictatorship will come to this country. It won't come from the outside. It will be home-grown. It will come in some civil disorder, a situation like that in Mississippi. The president will ask for special powers to deal with the "emergency." Congress will give a little now, and a little later.

People will shake their heads and regret the blood that has been shed. "After all, the president is doing only what he had to do."

The "emergency" will go on and on, and someone will dare to speak against actions of the federal government. He will be guilty of "insurrection," "sedition," and "contempt." He will find a bayonet in his back, "but after all, the president is doing only what he has to do."

Sometime, somewhere the power of the federal government must be curbed. Like the governor of Alabama pointed out, the world still is a colony of Great Britain if George Wallace hadn't been guilty of insurrection and sedition.

Maybe the people of Mississippi thought the time had come.

EXCITING! GO '63 CHEVY II

SPUNKY NEW WAGONS THAT LEAD LONGER, HAPPIER LIVES

What a new kick you'll get out of going places in this one! And what a solvent feeling you'll get as the savings on upkeep mount! There's a full line of models, including three wagons. Basically, we've kept Chevy II's liveliness and roominess and easy loading ways. Kept its crisp looks, too (with a bit of freshening here and there). The changes we've made weren't for change's sake, you see—but for yours. Just for a sample: the brakes are self-adjusting. The new Delcotron generator gives you more electrical reserve power and helps your battery reach a vigorous old age. The Body by Fisher beauty lasts longer, too; air pushes rain and water down through the rocker panels (where most rust begins!) in a clever new flush-and-dry system. The ride is smoother and quieter because of a large number of small improvements we've made. And things are a lot plusher inside. Now you've read this far, haven't you? Isn't that good evidence that Chevy II is made for you? The clincher will come when you take the wheel at your Chevrolet dealer's.

Hutton explained that farm & ranch operators are required to make accurate reports of wages for their hired hands and to report their own earnings to the District Director of Internal Revenue for Social Security purposes. Good farm or ranch records assure prompt and ac-

SURE WAY TO SCORE

As a sports writer, I think I'd devote this month's column to football. There have really been some exciting games this season — high school, college and professional. There is a good month for taking in one of the out-of-town games. And if you're planning a big football week, let your telephone help you "call plays". Never fumble if you call ahead for reservations. You plan to drop in on friends, a call to let them you're coming is a sure way to score. You'll score when you get home if you'll call and thank your hosts for their hospitality.

ONE CAN DO IT

Looking ahead to next month, I'm reminded that the November elections will soon be upon us. How important will your vote be? Well, let's look at history. Andrew Johnson was acquitted of impeachment charges by one vote in the senate. Samuel Tilden defeated Rutherford Hays in the 1876 election, but Hayes won a majority in the electoral college — by one vote. The Selective Service Extension Act was passed by a 203 to 202 vote. This law provided that conscription be kept in service as long as the government deemed necessary. Less than four months after it passed, the Japanese declared war on Japan. Your vote is mighty important — don't let it be wasted.

REFRIGERATED BATS

What is the connection between refrigerated bats and the service here in Slaton? I've jumped to a conclusion that I've gone "batty" — I've made a connection. Telephone Laboratory scientists are using bats to learn about the workings of the human ear. Painful experiments are performed on bats during normal operations. Between experiments, the bats are kept in a state of suspension necessary to these experiments. Studying the bat's anatomy and performing many experiments, our scientists hope to pick up new information for better communications for all of us.

ONE LAST THOUGHT

Let me tell you that what makes them "the good old days" is a rich imagination and a poor memory. Call me next month.

Call by number. It's twice as fast.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights

by Vern Sanford
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

SCHOOL PRAYERS

Public schools in Texas are prohibited from allowing prayers to be said or passages from the Bible to be read (as a result of the U.S. Supreme Court decision in the Engel vs. Vitale case), so long as the State or a political subdivision does not prescribe or approve the prayer religious activity.

So said Attorney General Will Wilson in a legal opinion requested by J. W. Edgar, Texas Commissioner of Education.

CROOKED HOLES

What may be the final session of the House General Investigating Committee's look into the East Texas oil scandal was held in Austin. Mainly, it was to low production and drilling in 14 major companies to declare under oath that their companies do not have any illegally deviated wells.

It also gave the East Texas Salt Water Disposal Company a chance to defend itself.

Investigators got detailed lectures on the fluid mechanics of the big East Texas field. Stressed was how daily injection of some 450,000 barrels of salt water a day — back into the vast water-bearing formation — drives the oil to the surface.

Officials of the company hotly denied that the disposal company, set up in 1942 as a co-operative venture to get rid of salt water which was polluting the Sabine River, is hurting the rights of individual landowners by its operations, as had been charged.

The hearing also gave Chairman William J. Murray Jr., of the Railroad Commission a chance to testify that the Department of Public Safety has found no evidence to link Commission employees to the scandal, other than those former employees Murray asked the state police to investigate last March.

Legislators on the committee seem certain to recommend changes in the law as a means of providing surer punishment for those who violate Commission regulations, or who swear to falsehoods.

Also likely to come out of the investigation is a recommendation for revision of the marginal well law. This law makes a well capable of producing only 19 barrels a day a more valuable well than one flowing 1,000 barrels a day. The 19-barrel well is allowed to produce without shutdown days, while the better well can produce only 20 barrels a day for eight days a month. Many agreed this was unfair.

LIBRARIAN HONORED

Doris Connerly, retiring director of the Legislative Reference Library in the Capitol, was honored by Governor Daniel and others at State Capitol ceremonies. Governor Daniel presented a resolution of the Texas Library and Historical Commission thanking Miss Connerly for 34 years of service to legislators, the public and the press.

DUAL ROLE RULED OUT

Atty. Gen. Will Wilson has held that a person may not be tax collector for an independent school district and a water control and improvement district at the same time.

BIGGEST ROAD PROJECT

Largest highway program ever put together in Texas was authorized by the State Highway Commission.

Covering super-highway work only, the program comes to $287,000,000 worth of construction and right-of-way buying during the coming two years. It will build 1,063 miles of expressway and buy right-of-way for 188 more miles.

When the work is completed about four years from now it will double the completed mileage of interstate highways in Texas under the 90 per cent Federal-10 per cent State program.

ANTI-AMENDMENT

A statewide group opposing the most controversial of the 14 proposed Constitutional Amendments is mapping its fight in Austin, with the help of Governor Daniel.

Under fire is the amendment which would empower the Legislature to require trial de novo in appeals from decisions of administrative agencies and executive departments of the state or political subdivisions.

STATE EMPLOYEES 58,300

Latest figures compiled by State Officials for the Texas Almanac show fifty-eight thousand persons working for the State of Texas.

Per capita, the State of Texas functions with 65 employees for each 10,000 citizens. That is well below the 79 employee average for all states.

Texas is, in fact, among the lowest states. Some have nearly twice as many employees, per capita, as Texas.

STATEWIDE TREND

A statewide trend toward conservatism in state government is predicted by State Senator Charles F. Herring of Austin.

"Trend is evident", says Senator Herring, "by the election of so many new representatives with platforms that promise to take a closer look at government spending."

The veteran Austin legislator believes the public has become agitated and dissatisfied with the tendency toward more spending.

He cites the defeat of several "old-timers" in the Legislature as evidence; plus the nomination of many "new faces."

DEAD HUNTERS

Twenty-two hunters died last season in Texas, mostly in gun accidents that could have been prevented through careful handling of weapons, the State Department of Health says.

Department is asking hunters looking to the fall and winter seasons to review safe hunting rules and remember them in the field.

OIL AND WATER

Everyone knows that oil and water won't mix. But two such departments may be combined by the next legislature.

There is growing talk in the Capitol of an effort to reorganize the state's oil and gas regulatory agency.

Marvin Rushing of Slaton will be one of 65 Southern Division employees of the Southwestern Public Service Company to be honored at the 14th annual service awards dinner on October 23rd.

The dinner will be held at the Pioneer Hotel in Lubbock.

Rushing will receive an award for 10 years service from A. R. Watson, president of the Southwestern Public Service Company.

The combined service of the 65 honorees totals 630 years, with the top award, for 40 years, going to Home Moss of Denver City.

mission will ask the Legislature for $1,500,000 as an emergency fund to continue the fight against screwworms.

It will request another $1,500,000 to make up the state's one-fourth of the $12,000,000 program with stockmen putting up $3,000,000 and the Federal government $6,000,000.

FOR POLIO ACTION

Texas Medical Association has joined with the State Department of Health in urging community-wide oral polio vaccine programs.

Both groups state that Sabin oral vaccine Type I and II are fully licensed and effective for infants and children.

More than 70 per cent of the paralytic cases in Texas through September 15 occurred among persons who had received no Salk polio vaccination, says the Health Department.

However, polio cases are slackening off. Only two of the five cases reported last week were paralytic.

Research studies by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station show that grazing oats too early and keeping them grazed too short can reduce forage yields by as much as 70 to 80 percent. ## Sign-up Period, Oct. 15 - Dec. 14 Told for Special Wheat Program

Winter wheat farmers may sign up to participate in the special voluntary 1963 wheat program authorized by the Food and Agriculture Act of 1962 between October 15 and December 14, Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman announced.

The legislation raises the support price on 1963-crop wheat to $2.00 to farmers who participate in the special program. The 18-cent-per-bushel support increase will be paid in-kind based on the normal production of the farm's harvested acreage. The voluntary program, Secretary Freeman said, gives wheat farmers an opportunity to continue to make needed adjustments and thus protect the gain made this year under the 1962 program.

Under the voluntary reduction provisions for 1963, farmers will be able to divert from 20 to 50 percent of their wheat acreage with special diversion provisions for small farms. On diverted acres, a payment will be made at 50 percent of the county loan rate (reflecting the $1.82 per bushel national average) on the normal production (1959-60 average yields) of the diverted wheat acreage. The minimum diversion for participation is 20 percent of the wheat allotment or in the case of small farms 20 percent of the allotment or the average 3-year wheat acreage (1959-60-61), whichever is larger.

Of the $2.00 per bushel 1963 average support price to participating farmers, $1.82 per bushel will be available through loans or purchase agreements and 18 cents per bushel in the form of a payment in-kind based on the normal production of the harvested acreage.

Farmers may receive 50 percent of their acreage diversion payment at time of sign up to participate in the program. Remainder of the acreage diversion payment and all of the price-support payment will be made after compliance is checked.

In a change from the 1962 program, the signed acreage will be a binding agreement. Farmers will be required to divert the full acreage for which they sign up to be eligible for payments.

Diverted acreage must be put in a conserving use and kept free from trossion, insects, weeds and rodents and in addition to the average acreage of conserving and idle land on the farm for 1959 and 1960.

For farmers who do not participate in the voluntary reduction program, the legislation makes no change in the mandatory provisions of the 1963 wheat program as voted on by farmers in the August referendum on marketing quotas. Those who remain within their acreage allotments will be eligible for price support at a national average minimum price of $1.82 per bushel. There is provision for exempting wheat farms with 15 acres or less in 1963 from marketing quotas.

More information on the new program is available from Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service committee or county ASCS offices.

V. A. Is Seeking Physician For Claim Decisions

The Veterans Administration Regional Office in Lubbock, Texas is recruiting a physician to fill a position vacancy of Medical Rating Board Member, GS-12, $10,255 per annum. The doctor when employed will make medical decisions on claims filed by veterans for disability compensation.

Interested individuals are requested to contact Bill Howard, Personnel Officer at the VA Regional Office, for more detailed explanation of duties, hours and employee benefits.

Eggs are food and like all food should be clean when offered to the consumer. The cleaning of dirty eggs is a serious marketing problem in Texas and is the subject of a new Extension Service publication. Copies of MP-576, "Cleaning Eggs," are available from the Agricultural Information Office, College Station, Texas, or from your local county agent's office.

In performance trials under Texas storm conditions, promising strains of storm resistant cottons have retained their lint in the burs in a relatively undamaged condition. The Texas Agricultural Experiment Station and the USDA have cooperated in developing the promising strains which are being tested further.

WT Homecoming Promises Large List Activities

Traditional Homecoming activities have been planned for the annual West Texas State College celebration at Canyon this Saturday when thousands of students and ex-students are expected to join for a day on the campus.

Main events which have been held for many years will be club teas, smokers and reunions, a parade through Canyon, a barbecue, a football game, and a Homecoming dance following the game.

Silver anniversary reunion of the Class of 1937 is scheduled, along with a joint reunion of the classes of 1947 through 1951. About 100 members of the 25th anniversary class are expected, and approximately 1000 members of the other five classes will be on hand.

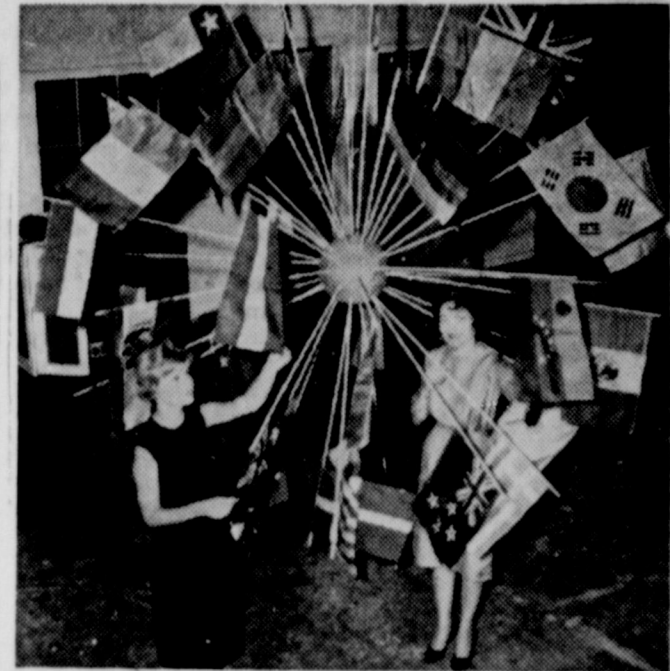

West Texas State students will prepare for Homecoming with a "Western Day" celebration October 19, when the homecoming assembly is scheduled at 11 a.m. The program will be televised over KGNC-TV. Students will dress "western" on Friday.

Events open Saturday with registration from 9 a.m. until noon in the Student Union Building. Club teas and smokers will be held from 9 a.m. until 3 p.m. The parade, featuring floats, riding clubs, and area high school bands, will follow a theme "Song". Entries will be listed with the Student Senate. The parade starts at 3:30 p.m.

A barbecue is scheduled at 4:30 p.m. on the old football field.

Closing out the day's events will be a football game at 7:30 p.m. in Buffalo Bowl between the Buffaloes and the New Mexico State Aggies, and a dance from 10 p.m. until 1 a.m. in the Student Union Building.

The Class of '37 will be honored at a coffee and reception Friday night, and will begin registration at 8:30 a.m. Saturday in the lounge of the Fine

Forty flags from around the globe will decorate each of nine flagbursts which will be suspended over the Texas International Trade Fair at the 1962 State Fair of Texas, October 6 through 21 in Dallas. Designed and executed by Peter Wolf Associates, the flagbursts will set the theme in the World Exhibits Building for the 1962 State Fair's "Exposition of Nations."

Arts building. Presiding at a program will be the class president, Orville Cunningham of Samnorwood.

The class will have luncheon in the Blue Room of the cafe in the afternoon.

All students in school during the years of the reunion classes are welcome to attend the reunion, whether or not they were graduated, according to Milton Morris, executive secretary of the WT Ex-Students Association.

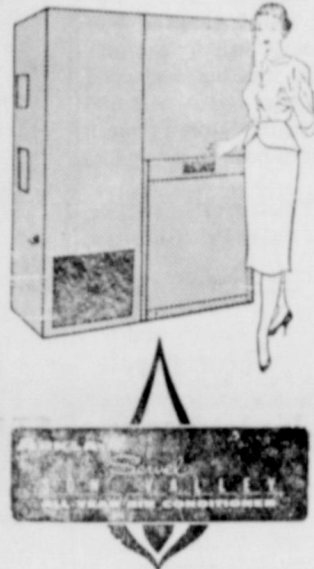

The classes of 1947 through 1951 will be honored at a dance Friday night at the ballroom, the Vic Mon in Amarillo. Members will begin registration Saturday at 8:30 a.m. in the lounge of the Student Union Building with a box luncheon at noon.

A business meeting of the E Students Association is scheduled at 2 p.m. Saturday in the auditorium of the Fine Arts Building. New association officers will be presented.

Old Friends

By J. J. Maxey

Pauline and I were in Fort Worth on October 7, 8, and 9th attending the Texas Municipal League Annual Conference. While there we saw and visited Jim and Dorothy Morgan. Dorothy is the former Dorothy Heaton, class of 1958, Jim is City Manager at Canadian. They both report liking their new home fine.

We ran into Myrtle Teague at Church last Sunday. Myrtle was visiting her mother and family here. She was a member of the class of 1933 and is living at 2715 Salerno Drive, Dallas, Texas.

As we were leaving the office last Friday evening we saw J. C. and Jerry Burton walking around the City Hall and taking pictures like mad. J. C. was a member of the class of 1941 and is working in Snyder for the P & SF Railway Company. J. C. and Jerry both do free lance reporting and photography for West Texas newspapers. J. C. recalled that he had witnessed many fun nights in the City Hall Auditorium during the late thirties and listened to many concerts given by our high school band from the old band stand.

Estel and Margie Williams, class of 1934, were visitors in Slaton this past week end. Estel is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Williams of 935 South 18th Street and Margie is the daughter of Mrs. Joe Neilon of 205 South 5th Street. Estel is farming and also buys cotton in his spare time. Margie has worked for Radio Station KTFY for a number of years. The Williams live on Route 1, Brownfield, Texas.

Mrs. Gifford Welch, mother of Louie Welch, class of 1936, was a visitor in Slaton this past week end. Mrs. Welch owns and operates a ladies ready to wear store in Friona.

W. L. and Dora Housour were home over the week end. W. L. was a member of the class of 1945. Dora told Dorothy Jones that they had recently attended a Tech football game with Dr. and Mrs. Bill Crawford of Clovis and Dr. and Mrs. Jack Nesbitt of Snyder. Mrs. Crawford (Ruth Austin) was a member of the class of 1945. Jack Nesbitt and his wife the former Nina Ray Hickman were also members of the class of 1945. The Housours are living at 3713 22nd Place, Lubbock, Texas.

Cat Fishing went up at Possum Kingdom lake last week when the pastor, Educational Director and fourteen other members of the First Baptist Church descended on the lake en masse. Those in the party were Dr. Charles Wood, Garth Hunt, Wayne Liles, Carter Caldwell, Elton Smith, J. C. Smith, George Harlan, Harley Martin, Howard White, Bert Lamb, Bill Alspaugh, T. E. McClanahan, Ed Mosely, Bland Tomlinson, Floyd Guelker and Jack Cole. They said that they caught enough fish to eat and having eaten with most of that crew I know that they had good luck. Several questions were solved on this trip - It was found that Carter Caldwell is the domino champion of the Baptist Church and that George Harlan is best suited for camp boss on a trip like that.

Those paying dues since last week were Elizabeth Ricker Holt, Gilder and Dorothy Levey, Tommy Davis, Johnny Price Massey, Tommy Kirby Butler and J. C. Burton.

bush, holly and wegelia frame the house and yard. Blue spruce, Spanish oak and mimosa trees are attractively placed to break the lawn. More noticeable of the flowers are daisies, yellow, rust, red and white mums, amaryllis, and a multitude of poppy varieties.

A small herb garden has its corner, also with parsley and chives contributing to the family table.

Quered by Slatonite staff-members, Mrs. Davidson, a most gracious hostess, explained that the yard had not been designed for any purpose other than the pure enjoyment of building and caring for it, a pleasure shared by the entire family.

The family frequently goes to the enrock, to the canyons, and to the gravel pits in search of new additions to the rock garden. "Even petrified wood is plentiful in this area, strange as it may seem", Mrs. Davidson notes, "as is flint and a variety of uniquely shaped stones".

Friends have acquired the habit of contributing to the rock collection, with rock gifts having even been transported from as far as the Pacific Northwest.

As if the yard work were insufficient to keep the mother and housewife busy, Mrs. Davidson is an accomplished re-finisher of furniture, especially enjoying the preparation of wood finishes.

HERE AND THERE

Things are really perk up around the old railroad this week — business is taking a turn for the better as is usual about this time of year. We're hiring a couple of new switchmen — and we have put on a Tulla Switcher as well as a Lockney Turn. A Steel Gang has been added to the Slaton Division for the time being — About sixty Indian extra gang laborers from Arizona in charge of Steel Gang Foreman F. R. Ramirez are getting ready to lay 131 pound welded rail between Ferguson and Monroe. These are 1440 feet long strings of rail and are quite a little operation to get laid. (I saw them do it in a movie at the Safety Meeting. See what you miss when you don't make the Safety Meetings!). Mr. T. L. Beach from the GC will be the Timekeeper with the Steel Gang.

VACATIONS

Senior Clerk and Mrs. Bill Brown and family are vacationing this week and making a trip to Denver, Colorado. Mrs. J. W. Bagby, wife of Chief Clerk, is visiting her daughter, Jan and family. Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Sorrels, in La Junta, Colorado. Everyone else seems to be staying at home working or enjoying these lovely Fall days going to football games or watching the World Series.

VISITORS

Mrs. J. A. Reynolds has been visiting in the home of Retired Librarian and Mrs. Claude Young. Some of the old timers will remember "Johnny" Reynolds formerly worked here in the Division Office Building as a clerk. At present he is Trainmaster for the Southern Pacific Railway at Douglas, Arizona. Incidentally Claude and family have deserted us Slatonites and moved back to their lovely little home on Buffalo Lakes.

WE SALUTE

Mrs. Tommy Davis

... For accepting the responsibility as girl scout leader of Troop 94.

Mrs. Davis has a very crowded schedule but she is a person who always finds time to be of service whenever she is called on.

It's people like Mrs. Davis that make Slaton such a splendid place to live and work.
