Senator Uses Medicine Man Techniques

WASHINGTON, June 21. (AP)—Silver-haired Senator Thomas (D-Okla.) took a leaf from the book of old medicine showmen who used to tour his home state to emphasize his opposition to a $7,500,000 appropriation for the Southwest Power Administration.

"Only two little words in the law," said the senator, waging a fight which he lost "are used as the basis for asking this appropriation. The words are 'related facilities'."

He explained that the 1944 flood control act authorized the appropriation of funds for the construction of power "transmission lines and related facilities" in connection with hydro-electric power projects. He disputed the right of the SPA to seek funds under this phrase for building stand-by steam generating plants.

Then, to emphasize his point, he took up from his desk a magnifying glass and a pencil on which had been pinned a clipping of the tiny printed words "related facilities" from the 1944 law. Summoning a page boy, he instructed the youngster to take the display around to every senator in the chamber.

From senator to senator the boy moved. Peering through the glass as if it was a microscopic germ they were to view, the dignified legislators scrutinized the two words. Virginia's new Senator Burch (D) even delayed the procedure for several moments while he took his spectacles from his pocket, carefully adjusted them, and then had a peep.

Medicine men usually had their audiences pass from hand to hand any article they wished to have examined.

One Strike Settled In El Paso; Negotiations, Pickets In Others

By the Associated Press

The strike picture in Texas today is varied to say the least. One walkout was announced at El Paso last night. Corsicana reports strikes negotiations in progress there. In at least two other cities—Houston and Waco—picket lines are still out and there have been no reports of negotiations beginning.

Last night members of El Paso local 501, International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter workers (CIO) voted to approve terms of a negotiated contract with Phelps-Dodge Copper company whose plant has been closed since March 4.

Reid Robinson, national president of the union, said the contract would be signed today. However, Robinson said work would not begin in the El Paso plant until eight struck plants in Texas, Arizona, and New York resume together.

Labor-management negotiations began yesterday between Local 77, United Textile workers (CIO) and the Corcoran Cotton mills. The plant has been shutdown since May 23. Yesterday Police Chief Bruce Nutt escorted a workman through picket lines. Union officials declined to make any statement concerning the incident. No violence was reported.

Leaders of the AFL-Associated General Contractors controversy in Houston reported that no negotiations are contemplated. The strike began June 13 when a walkout was called by the Houston building and construction trades council in an effort to force Houston contractors to recognize organization of common labor.

Meanwhile, the city's commercial building program, the fourth largest in the nation, was practically at a standstill. Approximately 7,000 men are idle.

Texas' latest strike, 600 production workers at the General Tire and Rubber company in Waco, showed no signs of an early ending. Members of the United Rubber Workers of America (CIO) went on strike Wednesday night demanding a 18 1/2 cent hourly wage increase.

The management immediately announced "the plant will be closed indefinitely." The walkout came following a breakdown in arbitration efforts Wednesday. There have been no reports of negotiation moves. Picket lines have been set up. No effort has been made to employ non-union workers.

When the assistant manager asked who it was, the man replied "J. P. Harrison." Harrison is local manager for the theaters and had left the office for home 5 minutes earlier.

Miss Mulkey said the robber then lunged into the office and ordered Bailey to give him the money. He added that he wanted Bailey to go with him.

Mrs. Taylor said the man had been loitering around the theater box office almost two hours before the holdup, at one time asking her to cash an $80 check. She said she called a policeman who watched the man until he walked off and disappeared.

WASHINGTON, June 21—(AP)—Mark W. Clark's permanent promotion to major general won senate approval late yesterday despite criticism of his abortive attempts to force a crossing of the Rapido river in Italy in 1944.

Senator Connally (D-Tex) called his opposition from Paris and Senator O'Daniel (D-Tex) registered his disapproval on the floor before the senate's voice vote action.

The Texas senators based their protests on contentions by soldiers of the 36th division—composed mainly of men from their state—that Clark used poor judgment and wasted lives in futile smashes against strong German positions along the Rapido.

Senator Pepper (D-Tex) said Clark, now top ranking US officer in occupied Austria, was doing "an excellent job" there.

LOS ANGELES, June 21—(AP)—Mrs. Ferida Hayat, 36, French playwright, has sued a Beverly Hills, Calif., jeweler for support of two children she alleges she bore him out of wedlock.

Her suit asserted that Maurice Yaeche Albuquerque, 40, admitted being the father of her son and daughter, Fred Jean, 4, and Cecilia Raqualita, 5 months.

The playwright's petition, declaring that Albuquerque has jewelry interests in Paris, asked $300 a month support for the children and $5,000 for medical expenses.

Theatre Employe Taken For Fast Ride By Robber

DENTON, June 21—(AP)—James Rayley, 23, assistant manager of Interstate Theaters in Denton, was kidnaped late last night and taken on a 70-mile-an-hour ride by a robber who held up the theater office and escaped with $691.19.

The bandit released Rayley five miles north of Sanger, Tex., 17 miles northwest of Denton. The theater employe returned to Denton two hours later after hitchhiking with a truck driver.

Rayley said he was in the theater office with two employes, Mrs. R. E. Taylor, cashier, and Gwendolyn Mulkey, checking the day's receipts when someone knocked on the door.

When the assistant manager asked who it was, the man replied "J. P. Harrison." Harrison is local manager for the theaters and had left the office for home 5 minutes earlier.

Miss Mulkey said the robber then lunged into the office and ordered Rayley to give him the money. He added that he wanted Rayley to go with him.

Rainey Forced To Hitchhike To Engagement

By the Associated Press

Despite the cooler weather brought on by timely rains, all the Texas candidates for public office weren't in a good humor last night.

They were having troubles on their stumping tours over the state.

For the second time in six days, Dr. Homer P. Rainey was forced to hitchhike his way to a speaking appointment.

Yesterday the candidate's ear broke down as he was leaving Madisonville. Up went the former-university president's thumb and he made it into Bryan in time for his scheduled address.

Last Saturday Dr. Rainey was stranded 15 miles from Beaumont and he was forced to hitchhike.

Beauford H. Jester is having trouble with his opponents. He said last night in Huntsville that Dr. Homer P. Rainey and Grover Sellers claim they are leading the governor's race.

Jester disagrees with them. He says Jester is leading.

More Japs Charged With War Crimes

TOKYO, June 21—(AP)—Lt. Col. Shigeji Mori, former commander of Camp O'Donnell and Cabanatuan prison camps in the Philippines, and 25 other war crimes suspects were admitted to Sugamo prison in the week ending June 30.

The announcement of their apprehension said Mori was charged with responsibility for the death of four Americans and atrocities against others.

Others in the group included Maj. Jutaro Fujiwara, former thought police officer in Malaya, and Lt. Makoto Ogasawara, charged with atrocities aboard the prison ship Singapore Maru. Both were arrested for the British.

Lt. Kenji Shimoda, charged with participation in the execution of 14 American fliers in Formosa, and Pvt. Matsutaru Hida, charged with bayoneting an American soldier in the Marianas, also were among the prisoners.

OPA Conferees Far From Decision

WASHINGTON, June 21—(AP)—Ten days before OPA's scheduled death date, senate and house conferees still have to make their first decision on widely different extension bills passed by their respective chambers.

Rep. Spence (D-Ky), chairman of the joint committee, held out a thin hope of final agreement today. But Senator Taft (R-Ohio) said he didn't think there was a chance, because so many important votes remain to be taken.

In two days of morning and afternoon sessions, the committee simply has gone through both bills and engaged in general discussions, the chairman said.

"I think we're getting closer together, and are in the way of agreeing on some things," he told reporters.

Stabilization Director Chester Bowles' blast yesterday against both the house and senate bills was discussed briefly in the conference but did not appear to have influenced any votes, members said.

WIFE CHARGES FOR HER KISSES

LOS ANGELES, June 21—(AP)—Five dollars per kiss was the price Sidney Raskin says he paid his wife, actress Doriene Raskin. Five days in the county jail is the price she'll pay for giving vent to her feelings during their divorce hearing.

Commissioner E. D. Doyle sentenced Mrs. Raskin, 31, for contempt of court after she leaped to her feet in the courtroom yesterday and yelled an explosive and unprintable comment about a mutual friend of the couple. The incident occurred after Raskin, 26, bakery heir, testified the friend told him his wife had said she intended to "take the chump for all he's got and let him go."

Raskin testified earlier: "Every time I made love to her she demanded $5 for each kiss it was just $5 and $5 and $5."

Mrs. Raskin was ordered to begin her five-day sentence at conclusion of the hearing today. She is asking a divorce on grounds of cruelty. He asks that their marriage of Sept. 2, 1945, be annulled.

Quality Of Telephone Service Cut To Provide More People With Phones

Big Spring's telephone system is being temporarily overloaded, as one of the expedients by which the Southwestern Bell Telephone company hopes to provide service for more people with its existing equipment, Russell Howard, manager of the company, announced today.

Pointing out that the company now has 548 persons waiting for service here, Howard said it seemed best to use all available apparatus to handle calls from as many telephones as possible now, rather than wait until more equipment can be installed. Therefore, more telephones are being connected to the switchboards and other equipment in the Big Spring central office than are handled in normal times.

Another expedient being used is the installation of new residence telephones on party lines, Howard said.

These overloads probably will result in a temporary lowering of service standards, according to Howard, but the company hopes telephone users will be patient until more equipment can be obtained and installed to improve service.

During the busy times of day every position at the switchboards will be filled, but because more telephones have been connected to the boards, the operators are not able to answer the increased number of calls as quickly as during normal times, Howard said. Accuracy also probably will suffer, resulting in more wrong numbers and more frequent cutting off, he said, and the operators can be helped if persons making calls will be sure of the numbers.

"The overload will be relieved just as soon as more central office equipment can be obtained and installed," Howard promised. "The company is working as fast as possible to expand its system so that everyone who wants a telephone may have it, and to improve service as quickly as possible."

Urania Island Still Visible

AP Newsfeatures
NEW YORK — Pan American World Airways says one of its pilots, Capt. G. F. Maxwell, had given the United States Navy a report on his observations of Urania, the new volcanic island in the Pacific.

The island, which was discovered some months ago by a British cruiser, had been reported disappearing.

But Maxwell, on a recent charter flight to Shanghai, reported sighting the island and estimated it was 150 feet high and 150 feet in diameter. "He said the water around the cone was discolored, indicating continued volcanic activity beneath the surface."

If You're Sensitive It May Be Because Your Feet's Too Big

AP Newsfeatures
NEW YORK — If you're a moody fellow or don't like the social life it may be partly the result of being underweight or having big hands.

In a research investigation conducted with 258 young men as specimens and reported in the Journal of the American Medical Association, studies were made of the possible relationship between body build and personality.

Men with bodily disproportions including unusual height or weight, shoulders broad for chest circumference, head large for size of chest and oversize hands "were found to have a greater frequency of certain dominant personality traits, indicating lesser stability, lesser integration, greater sensitivity and complexity of personality and lesser capacity for making easy social adjustments," the report said.

Conversely, it was found that men with traits indicating personality soundness or stability had fewer disproportions in physique than the average of the whole group.

The experiment report carried a warning, however, that the theory requires verification and further study.

1841 House Bid High

SALEM, Ore.—Jason Lee, one of the West's most famous pioneers, probably is turning over in his grave these days.

His house, the first built in Salem in 1841 cost him an estimated $750 to construct. Recently, $25,000 had been offered for the ancient landmark and lot, and the offer was rejected. The Salem chamber of commerce wants to buy the house and preserve it.

A Veto Under Different Cloak

One of the biggest problems confronting the world today is the control of atomic energy as a weapon of war. The United States has offered to place its secret in the hands of an international commission under certain conditions, including the abolition of the right of any nation to exercise a crippling veto.

Now Russia has countered with a proposal under which control of the bombs would be taken out of the hands of the United States by an international commission. Crux of the difference is that the US wants first to assure an international commission, under satisfactory conditions, whereas Russia wants to set up the commission which would largely determine the conditions. There is considerable variance here, and it gets back to the point that the US has the secret and the Russians do not.

It is not likely that the US will yield easily on this point, for this nation holds the high cards. Moreover, first reports of the Russian proposal indicate a weakness in control methods. The Russians would supplement the commission's control through a system in which individual nations would prescribe punishments within their own borders for illicit experimentation or production of atomic energy.

The difficulty here is that it is not clear that the commission would be unhampered in investigations to ferret out such practices, and not sufficiently bulwarked to force the individual nation to mete out militant enforcement. Moreover, it amounts to much the same thing as a veto under a different cloak, for what nation, which might commit itself to illicit research and production, would punish itself for its actions?

Perhaps the Baruch proposal has its imperfections, but because it does make the international commission an instrument with force and ability to effect control irrespective of individual nations, it possesses far more merit than the Russian proposal.

Campaign For Our Own Benefit

Police of the City of Big Spring are staging a traffic safety campaign.

Two points are involved—first a survey to determine the mechanical condition of machines, and second to encourage observance of traffic rules.

Public appreciation of the objectives of the campaign will be most helpful. It should be understood that when drivers are stopped, it is not with scolding in mind. Enumeration of mechanical defects or minor infractions of traffic rules is not for purposes of humiliation, but of safety. None of us are as careful as we should be and few of our cars are as safe as they should be. Both can well stand correction.

Federal Salaries Low For Good Men

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Take the case of Harold D. Smith, 49, with eyeglasses, a good head, a wife, four children.

Smith was director of the budget bureau, one of the most important jobs in the government.

Every government department and agency which needed money from congress had to get Smith's okay before it could ask.

He knew the whole government set-up, inside out.

His salary: $10,000. After paying his taxes that amounted to about $8,000. He quit yesterday.

He quit to become vice president of the International Bank of reconstruction and development.

His new salary there: $22,500, all tax-free. It was made tax-free by international agreement when the bank was set up.

That tax-free $22,500 is equivalent to $50,000 if he had to pay taxes on the $50,000.

Smith had spent many years in government service but he was quitting, he said, to make more money. He said he had to think of his family.

President Truman regretted to see him go. And that's where the sore point comes in, a point about which Mr. Truman and other officials have complained:

Because private business salaries pay so much better than government salaries, it's hard to keep first class men working for the government or to get them to work for the government.

President Truman asked congress to raise government salaries all along the line, including a raise for representatives and senators from their present $10,000 to $20,000.

Congress finally passed a bill—the president signed it and it will become effective July 1—raising all government workers' salaries 14 per cent, but only for those making under $10,000.

Salaries of $10,000 or over will remain unchanged. Here's the only chance—a slim one—that congress may, perhaps next year, give those getting $10,000 and over a boost.

The senate just passed a bill to reorganize congress and voted a raise for all senators and representatives from $10,000 to $15,000. The bill now has to be voted upon by the house.

If congressmen give themselves a raise, they'll probably feel self-conscious about it and give other government officials making $10,000 or better an increase.

The following shows the kind of salaries paid by the government.

The president, at $75,000 a year; justices of the United States, $20,500. The eight associate justices get $20,000.

Cabinet members receive $15,000. The directors of reconversion and economic stabilization also get $15,000.

Judges of the circuit courts of appeals get $12,500. District judges get $10,000.

The heads of some government agencies—like OPA, interstate commerce commission, federal works agency, federal security agency—get $12,000.

The undersecretaries, assistant secretaries and heads of bureaus get $10,000 or less.

Cigaret Butt Snipers

FRANKFURT, (AP)—The Horatio Alger type heroes of postwar Germany don't shine shoes to support their widowed mothers. They do it by collecting cigarette butts.

In German slang they are called "kippensammler," or "stub connoisseurs."

In this tobacco-hungry country the youthful entrepreneur can earn more money picking discarded cigarette ends off the street than he can by working in a factory.

To Americans accustomed to buying any quantity of cigarettes, it is difficult to understand the lengths that luxury-starved Germans will go to indulge in a smoke. Men and women who would die rather than ask for food will stop American soldiers on the streets to request a cigarette.

They even invest their own slim stores of marks to buy black market United States dollars in order to be able to offer real cash to hard-pressed doughboys willing to part with their cigarette or pipe tobacco rations.

This insatiable market has made butt-collecting a major German industry.

Most workers are young boys and girls who lean streets and sidewalks long hours for German "tobacco fagins" who buy their daily butt collections and process them into new cigarettes or packets of retread pipe "fine cut."

An industrious young man with good legs and ambition can earn up to ten marks a day—one dollar—a good feat.

Most of the kids aren't tramps. Their work makes a real difference in the family standard of living.

The "kippe" gatherer haunts theaters, postoffices, mess halls—where soldiers stand in line and while away the time by lighting up cigarettes.

Youngsters whose muscles don't enable them to carve out their own butt-beat against competitors hopefully follow every cigarette-puffing soldier they meet until he throws away the stub.

They swoop — and follow the next smoke trail.

Employees in Allied clubs supplement their wages by harvesting ashtray crops. One old German attorney who humbly asked permission of the Berlin press club for its ashtray leavings had to be refused after the waiters protested this would cut into their own earnings.

BRONZE STAR AWARDED YOKOHAMA, June 21—(AP)—Pfc. William T. Griggs of Zephyr, Tex., was one of four army privates now in the 519th Military Police battalion who were awarded the bronze star today for outstanding heroism during the Philippines campaign.

June Rare In New York

NEW YORK—There was a cute tune a few years ago called "I Like New York in June," but the June day which the singers were enthusing about must have been a rare one. . . . June in New York is an in-between part of the year. . . . Business is dipping in the city and rising in the suburban towns and beach resorts. . . . The hotels have their roofs all scrubbed and ready for the summer trade. . . . Last repairs are being made to air conditioning units in the high clubs. . . . The sidewalks cafes are in full operation, giving midtown Manhattan the continental flavor of European al fresco dining and sipping. . . . The artists are out in Greenwich Village, their beards combed and in some cases even washed. . . . The Brevoort has its sidewalk cafe open and Village residents and sight-seers like its comfortable location and tall cool drinks. . . . That lower Fifth Avenue, however, is a little too tony for the artistic populace. . . .

Washington Square is alive with youngsters, playing on the swings. . . . and N. Y. students holding hands, boys carrying the girls' books. . . . Get up close and you hear a conversation about American-Russian relations instead of sweet talk. . . .

If you keep walking around the Washington Square neighborhood you're bound to bump into Eleanor Roosevelt eventually. . . . Mrs. R. had several of the cast of "Call Me Mister" down there the other night after theater. . . . At which comic Jules Munshin took away any formal edge the proceedings might have had. . . . You can get a sketch of yourself for half a buck around MacDougal Alley. . . .

Central Park South: At the St. Moritz sidewalk cafe you hear half a dozen foreign languages over beers and wines. . . . The new Oak

Canton Journalists Protest Paper Ban

CANTON, June 21. (AP)—A joint conference of the Canton Journalists Union and the Newspaper Guild appealed today to "world opinion" to help in lifting a one-month British ban on the Chinese newspaper National Times in Hong Kong.

Hu Chung-Ping, representing the joint conference, dispatched a message to General Manager Kent Cooper of the Associated Press, President Hugh Baillie of United Press, and General Manager J. Chancellor of Reuters, defending its criticisms of a Hong Kong paper it claimed had operated as a Japanese mouthpiece.

Washington Merry-Go-Round—Drew Pearson

Justices Often Favor Former Clients

Jackson really goes through with his determination to press for an investigation of Supreme Court Justices' previous law connections, it should open up some extremely interesting facts which the public hitherto has never heard about.

If Justice Jackson or someone else had opened this up 15 years before, it would have saved the taxpayers a lot of money. For there are some glaring examples where Supreme Court justices did not disqualify themselves when old law connections appeared before the Supreme Court. Why Jackson picked on Hugo Black—aside from personal pique—is a mystery. Here are some of the other cases he could have cited:

Case No. 1—Justice Owen Roberts was formerly a director of the Bell Telephone Company, also of American Telephone and Telegraph, and handled legal work for those companies. Yet when the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone company, a subsidiary of these two companies which Roberts once represented, came before the Supreme Court, he did not step aside. On the contrary, he wrote the majority opinion.

That opinion over-ruled the Maryland Public Service Commission which wanted to reduce telephone rates. However, the former director and attorney for the parent telephone company, Justice Roberts, ruled otherwise. This ruling cost the telephone users of Maryland millions of dollars.

Famous Railroad Lawyer
Case No. 2—Three years later, Justice Pierce Butler sat in another historic case, where his old client, the Great Northern Railroad, was involved. Not only had Justice Butler been the personal attorney for the Great Northern, but he was the intimate and personal friend of the railroad's founder, James J. Hill. He was so close to Hill that when his name came before the Senate for confirmation, Cummings of Iowa and Nelson of Minnesota exacted a promise that Butler would not sit in railroad cases.

In 1936, however, the Supreme Court had to decide whether the State of North Dakota was right in assessing certain taxes against Justice Butler's old client, the Great Northern.

And Pierce Butler, completely ignoring the pledge given to the now dead senators, not only sat in the case but wrote the majority opinion. Hitherto, it was always assumed that states and municipalities had the power to tax. But acting for a majority of the Supreme Court, Justice Butler abrogated that power of the "nine old men" and scaled the $100,000 off the tax bill of his old client, the Great Northern railroad.

Joining Butler in the majority opinion were Justice Roberts, for 30 years an attorney for the Pennsylvania railroad; Justice Willis Van Devanter, former attorney for the Union Pacific; and Chief Justice Charles E. Hughes, who had represented many rail-

Roberts And Railroads
Case No. 3—Last year, when hard-hitting Governor Arnall of Georgia sued the Pennsylvania railroad and other lines for discriminating against the South on freight rates, observers wondered whether Justice Roberts would disqualify himself. For years, his law firm, MacCracken and Roberts, had represented the Pennsylvania. But Roberts did not step aside. He sat in the case, and voted for his old clients against the state of Georgia.

Case No. 4—When the famous AAA case (Butler vs. US) came before the Supreme Court, involving Roosevelt's entire agricultural program, it was argued by George Wharton Pepper of Philadelphia. Pepper was not only a life-long friend, but had recommended Owen Roberts to Herbert Hoover for appointment to the Supreme Court. However, Roberts not only sat on the bench while his old friend argued, but handed down the court's opinion in favor of Pepper, throwing the AAA farm program into the discard.

Case No. 5—On January 2, 1946, the late Chief Justice Harlan F. Stone sat in the case of Duquesne Warehouse Co. vs. railroad retirement. The lawyer for the Duquesne Warehouse Co., was none other than Stone's personal attorney, John S. Flannery of the firm of McKenny, Flannery and Craighill. Anyhow Flannery was to Stone need only inspect the late chief justice's will. Flannery drew it up for him.

Stone Vs. Roberts
Case No. 6 is mentioned by Justice Jackson in his scathing blast against Hugo Black. Jackson in his scathing blast against Hugo Black, Jackson states that Chief Justice Stone did not sit in the North American Holding company case or the Engineers Public Service Co. case because those companies were represented by his old law firm, Sullivan and Cromwell. That, however, was not the fact.

The real fact is that the chief justice did sit in these two cases—and under unique circumstances.

At first he disqualified himself from the North American Holding company case, because he had handled North American's legal matters when he was with Sullivan and Cromwell. However, this gave the court a no quorum, because three other justices had been either with the Justice Department or the SEC when the North American case was brought. About this time the Engineers Public Service Co. case also came before the court, involving the same holding company question. It also was represented by Stone's old law firm. So some of his colleagues urged him to reconsider his disqualification and sit.

Justice Roberts, however, did not join these colleagues. On the contrary, he was emphatically opposed, and told Stone that if he withdrew his disqualification in one case and kept it in another, he, Roberts, might feel obliged to write about it.

The chief justice was an easy man to get along with, but in recent years he and Roberts—both Republicans—did not love each other at all. And this remark caused Stone to hit the ceiling.

"I have been a member of this court for twenty-one years," he said, "and no one has ever undertaken to tell me what I should or should not do."

Whereupon, the chief justice withdrew his disqualification and sat in both the above cases. Furthermore, he also sat in a third case also involving his old law firm, wherein Pacific Gas and Electric asked for a decision as to whether it was a part of the North American Holding Company.

However, Stone was so irate at Roberts that he had a list compiled of cases in which Roberts had sat when his former clients or law firms were involved. He kept that list in his personal files during the balance of his career and it is quite possible that a congressional investigating committee could get it there today. Legionnaires Entertain V-8 Club Of Odessa Here Saturday Night

Our Town's American Legion girls' softball team collides with the Sewell V-8 mushballers of Odessa at 8:15 o'clock here Saturday evening in what should be its most rugged test of the 1946 campaign.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With TOMMY HART The finest heavyweight boxer active today is Elmer "Violent" Ray, the Florida negro who has never been able to get his toe into the doorway to the "big time."

Probably the Brown Bomber would agree to fight him were Jacobs to give him his consent. That isn't within the realms of probability for several reasons, most important of which is that Ray is controlled by a syndicate headed by Jack Dempsey and Jacobs has no truck with it.

This corner was familiar with Ray's exploits while he was active on the west coast. When word got around that Elmer could handle his dukes, most of the super-dread-naughts began to fancy they saw greener fields elsewhere. No one wanted any part of him.

A young colored boy from Houston, Tex., by the way of Oakland was cajoled down from the Bay Area to fight Ray a couple of years ago. He was Buddy Millard, 185 pounds or thereabouts. We saw him in the ring against Perk Daniels, the big black who served as a sparring partner to Louis recently. Perk weighed 220 but Millard's speed made him look ridiculous.

Once Ray got Millard in the ring, he played with him as a cat would a mouse. Finally he tired of fooling around and knocked Millard into the gauze in the fourth round. It was as easy as that.

After mauling Millard, everyone looked the other way when Ray came around. He found it impossible to get fights, finally packed up and left the coast for Miami. He's taking on all comers down there.

It's interesting to note that Jose Andres, the former Golden Gloves champion from Dallas, is now fighting main events around Kansas City. He never climbed that high in his native state.

Ordinarily Texas athletes have to leave their native haunts to prove their mettle. That is the case in golf, baseball, football, polo or the ring. And usually, when they do pull stakes, they find the pickings so lucrative, they settle elsewhere.

Bobby Decker's absence from the Berger baseball lineup was short-lived. The former Big Springer returned to action Sunday to help the Gassers to a 22-12 victory over Amarillo, collecting three hits and scoring as many runs in six tries.

Big Spring.

lock to mar their record. That was a 24-all nightmare staged against the V-8 clan on the Odessa diamond two weeks ago.

Crippled for that setto, the Big Springers will be at full strength for Saturday's go. They're being hailed as far and away the best fem ball club in West Texas. The Odessans are prepared to dispute that claim with a powerhouse attack.

The Legion management will employ its usual lineup, using Lefty Todd on the mound, the hard-hitting Ethel Trotter behind the dish, Catherine Redding on first, L. Kinman at second, Mary Fields patrolling the short field, Dean Balcock on third and Charlene Tucker, Doris Yates and M. Reid in the gardens.

Jo Burks is perhaps Odessa's classiest all-around performer. She fields most capably and can swing a mean stick.

The Sewell clan dished out a 4-2 licking to the San Angelo Red Chicks last weekend, the same brigade that the Legionnaires had twice to the cleaners by overwhelming scores.

Sweetwater's blue-ribbon club slipped into the village last week and limped out on the short end of an 8-3 score.

Ed Rumill, an Eastern scribe, says the reason the New York Yankees are not up to law is that there's dissent in the ranks.

He also reveals that Larry MacPhail's greet for a few thousand dollars, which was betrayed when he sent the club to Florida six weeks before the other clubs began their spring training, got them in shape for the playing season too early and they're going stale.

Lou Boudreau, Cleveland skipper, adds to Rumill's expose by maintaining that Charley Keller is the only player on the team who hustles.

There's stories going about the American league that Joe Gordon and a couple of other Yankees do not even speak to Bill Dickey, the manager. It all can be traced back to an incident which occurred while some of the boys were in the service together. Dickey is said to have pulled his rank on them at Pearl Harbor and they haven't forgotten. So writes Rumill.

Lufkin Stops Paris In 16-Round Bout

Lufkin and Paris furnished the feature attraction in the East Texas league last night with the twilight game of a doubleheader running 16 innings. Lufkin finally defeated third-place Paris, 5-3.

Paris took the second game 2-0. Tyler, second in the league, defeated Sherman 13-4.

Texarkana took a 2-1 decision from Jacksonville, although outlived 4-6. Texarkana showed three errors and Jacksonville none.

Greenville at Henderson was postponed, rain.

Church Of God Rolls Over First Methodist

Church of God hitters had a field day at the expense of First Methodist pitching in YMCA Girls' softball league competition Thursday afternoon, winning, 24-5.

Other results saw East Fourth Baptist smother Prairie View Baptist, 11-4, and YMCA roll over First Baptist, 15-7.

The games were played on the South Ward diamond.

Reeling Red Sox Must Face Bobby Feller Tonight

By the Associated Press If the thunderstruck Boston Red Sox can still see through the fog that has engulfed them, they can take a good sander tonight at the feller — Bob Feller, that is—who started them on their amazing retreat.

Slide Feller set them back on their heels June 12, the Bostonians have dropped seven of the last eight games including last night's 2-0 setback at the hands of the St. Louis Browns.

Boston lost only one half game of its lead as the runner-up New York Yankees were held to a split in their double header by the Chicago White Sox. A neat eight-hitter by bespectacled Bill Dietrich halted the Yankees 3-1 in the opener as Yankee pitching ace, Spud Chandler, gunnled for his 11th victory, was forced to accept his third defeat.

Floyd Bevens gained the split for the Yanks by besting Lefty Ed Smith 6-1 in the nightcap.

Brooklyn's pace-setting Dodgers and the challenging St. Louis Cardinals readied themselves for their "crucial" three game series for the National league lead which starts tonight by knocking over the Pittsburgh Pirates and Boston Braves respectively, in easy fashion. Brooklyn won 7-3 while the Cards triumphed 9-1.

The third place Detroit Tigers advanced to within nine and a half games off the American league pace by routing the Philadelphia Athletics 9-2 under a barrage of home runs by Hank Greenberg, Eddie Lake, Bob Swift and pitcher Dizzy Trout, who gathered in his seventh triumph.

Hank Edward's ninth inning single drove in George Case with the run that gave the Cleveland Indians a 4-3 victory over the Washington Senators.

Rain washed out the scheduled double header between the Chicago Cubs and the Philadelphia Phillies while the New York Giants and Cincinnati Reds were not scheduled.

DEFEAT—Billy Conn, his hopes of wearing the world's heavy title boxing crown blasted by the power-laden fists of Joe Louis, stares dully from the ring in Yankee stadium, New York, after being revived by his handlers. He was knocked in the eighth round. (AP Wirephoto.)

Cosden, Odessa Take Field At 8:15 o'Clock Tonight

Invaders Bringing Perfect Won-Lost Record To Town

Two of the better mushball clans of West Texas cross bats at the city park at 8:15 this evening when Pete Womack sends his Cosden Oilers into action against the Gulf Oilers from out Odessa way.

The Odessans are unbeaten in eight starts. The Cosdens have taken their lumps twice this season — once here and once in San Angelo — but the Big Springers can play when the blue chips are showing.

With the exception of L. D. Cunningham, who is complaining of misery in his back, the Cosdens are ready to function. Cunningham may start in the left pasture, as he did against Manhattan last week, but he'll get no chance to slip into his favorite role, that of pitching.

That task is most apt to be shouldered by Red Harrison, who has been improving by leaps and bounds.

The Odessa phalanxes will be led into the village by hard-hitting Alton Bostick, who grew up here and played high school football under the local banner at the turn of the last decade.

Bostick is roosting atop the Odessa league hitters with a mark in excess of .500. In addition, he takes care of the Gulf team's catching and most capably.

The invaders have no less than four hitters who are massaging the lemon for averages of .400 or better, all of which means Harrison is going to have his problems if he hopes to ride out the storm.

However, the red-head will have plenty of help to batter down the hatches. Bombardiers like the Morgan brothers, Jake and Leonard, Patrick Stasey, Odell Womack and W. D. Berry give the Cosdens an offensive to be reckoned with.

Manhattan Boys Beaten By Dub's

A run by Billy Wasson after one man had been retired in the seventh game gave Dub's Garage an upset 8-7 victory over Manhattan Club in Munny softball league competition at the city park Thursday night.

Big Spring Motor staved off defeat in the other battle, coming from behind to win over United Body Works, 4-3, in the five-inning setto.

Jim Daylong, Manhattan hurler, saw his chances for victory vanish when he tried to catch Wasson at third after the Garagemen's runner had started an attempted steal from the keystone sack. Daylong's throw went wild and Wasson came home.

The Manhattan boys put their all into a big fourth inning, scoring five times but Lige Brothers' fans pecked away with on-run out breaks and finally overcame the difference in the sixth round.

The Motorists took a two-run lead in the second inning of their contest only to lose it in the third when the Mechanics sent two runs home on a wild throw by the Fordmen's catcher.

Y Summer Schedule Undergoing Revision

The YMCA gym nights, held every Thursday evening at the high school gym for several months, have been suspended for the summer, Jack Y. Smith, Y president, has announced.

The gym night events were providing conflict with the Y's summer softball program, and warmer weather is more adaptable for the outdoor sports, Smith said.

The Y now has 20 mushball teams participating in its program, playing 20 games each week on the Munny park, Airport Baptist, Salvation Army and South Ward diamonds.

Bill Barker Loses In Senior Tourney

AMARILLO, June 21—(P)—E. B. (Red) Gober of Austin will tee off with Bill Speed of Pampa today in the quarterfinals of the 12th annual Tri-State Senior Golf meet here.

Gober, twice champion of the event, scored his second win of the tournament yesterday with a 8-6 triumph over R. D. Oswalt of Vernon.

Eliminated in yesterday's play was Bill Barker, Midland.

Redcaps, Stanolind Club To Shoot In Tonight's Contest At Forsan

If Doc Wilkinson's hustling Redcaps come through with a triumph in their exhibition go at Forsan tonight, they stand ready to claim the unofficial championship of the first half Munny softball league race.

The Redcaps are currently in third place in the league's standings. They have only an outside chance to break the tape in front of the field. But their adversary is Stanolind of Coshoma, a contingent currently setting the pace in the circuit.

There'll be no holds barred this evening, despite the fact that the Coshomans must play two contests next week with formidable opponents—and must win them both to get clear claim to the championship.

Roy Weeks will probably toe the knob of the Oilers. He's been tough as a boot to date and may be throwing bananas at the Stationmen tonight.

Wilkinson is most apt to counter with his ace, Morris Crittenden. He'll have Roy Greider in reserve in event Morris falters.

Game time is 9 o'clock or thereabouts. A huge turnout is anticipated since the Forsan Pipeliners are booked to tangle with Billy Parker's Manhattan Club of Big Spring in a preliminary setto.

Both contingents will be swinging from the heels in that one, too. Neither troupe is going anywhere in particular in the Munny chase but they play for keeps.

The two teams are slated to take the field at 7:30 o'clock for a seven-inning contest. They'll play the full seven, regardless of the time that elapses.

The best kind of roof to have over your head

THEY say it's a wise man who looks to his roof while the sun is still shining . . . for you never can tell what sort of weather tomorrow may bring.

And those of us who are interested in keeping our own "financial houses" in order might take a hint from this.

U. S. Savings Bonds, for instance, make mighty good shingles against a future rainy day. You pay only $18.75 apiece for them now.

The easiest, surest way to get them is through your Payroll Savings Plan. Then you'll get them regularly, automatically—just the way you bought your War Bonds.

Wouldn't it be a good idea to sign up for a roof-full of those rainy-day shingles next payday?

Three young people and an adult counselor will arrive Saturday to begin the Youth Caravan week at the First Methodist church on Sunday morning for the Methodist Youth Fellowship.

The Caravan will include Irene Stewart, Counselor, Janet Barron, Laura Lee Behrens and Earl Johnston.

Miss Stewart is from Stamford, holds a BS degree from McMurry college and is now principal of Segerton high school. She has served as youth director of the Stamford district for several years and has done work as a Caravan counselor for two summers.

Miss Barron comes from Harrisville, Miss., and will be a senior at Mississippi State College for Women next fall, where she is working toward a BS degree with a major in English. She has served on the council of her college Wesley foundation, and has done work in recreation and with intermediates in her local church. She will teach a class in recreation and will lead workshop activities of the recreational group.

Miss Behrens is a member of the Grace Methodist church at Copperas Cove, and has served as secretary and worship leader of the MYF and as church pianist. At present she is a senior at Texas State College for Women. She will teach a class in world friendship and community service and will lead workshop activities in that phase.

Johnston, a student at Lindsey Wilson junior college at Columbia, Ky., is majoring in ministerial work and is from Louisville, Ky. During the Caravan week he will teach an intermediate class in "Ways We Worship," and will work with the counselor in leading intermediate program planning periods. He will also lead intermediate workshop activities.

Next Sunday Miss Behrens and Miss Barron will teach classes in the Young People's department, and Johnston will lead the devotional in the intermediate department. The first class will be conducted at 7 p. m. Sunday for intermediates, senior-young people and adult workers.

All young people in the church were urged to be at Sunday morning sessions to hear plans for the week.

Bludgeon Slayer Convicted By Jury

NEW YORK, June 21. (AP) — Gordon De Hart, 34-year-old Staten Island chauffeur and truck-driver, was convicted by a Richmond county court jury today of first degree manslaughter in connection with the bludgeoning slaying of his spinster cousin, May De Hart, 81.

De Hart, who had been indicted for first degree murder Feb. 20, faces a possible sentence of from one to 20 years imprisonment. He had pleaded innocent to the charge as provided by law. Presiding Judge Thomas J. Walsh set June 28 for sentencing.

The battered bodies of the aged woman and her twin, Viola, were found Feb. 16, on the kitchen floor of their quaint home in Mariner's Harbor, Staten Island.

A day later De Hart was charged with homicide and Richmond County District Attorney Farrell M. Kane said De Hart signed a statement declaring he struck the women over the head with a wooden wedge after he had quarreled with May over money.

A second indictment against De Hart involving the slaying of Viola is being held in abeyance.

them were North Concho, inadequate supply; Pecos river, inadequate and excessive mineralization; Ft. Stockton ample supply, undue mineralization; Delaware river above Red Bluff, inadequate supply, highly mineralized; wells, inadequate and uncertain quality.

In the case of Ft. Stockton, it was pointed out water could not be diverted to a different watershed should anyone in the supplying watershed raise objections.

Ulmer said he was impressed with the developments to date. However, he said much more detailed study and work must follow before a project of this scope could be undertaken with reasonable assurance.

In this connection, it was pointed out that development of the project might require several years for completion should it be undertaken.

Foreign Ministers Agree On Colonies, Take Up Trieste

PARIS, June 21—(AP)—The big four foreign ministers, after successfully hurdling a major obstacle by virtually reaching a compromise on Italian colonies, turned today to the controversial Trieste problem—key to the Italian peace treaty.

In an upsurge of harmony, resulting from yesterday's fruitful sessions, the ministers buckled down to the heaviest agenda of their current conference.

Along with Trieste, they must decide the entire Italian-Yugoslav frontier question and the matter of the Dodecanese Islands. All four of the ministers agree in principle that the islands should go to Greece, but Russian Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov has indicated in the past that his country is not yet ready to discuss final terms.

Other problems of the Italian treaty to be considered are the Austrian-Italian frontier and disposal of Italian naval units.

The question of Trieste, however, promises to be the most controversial. Russia has insisted that the important Adriatic port be ceded to Yugoslavia, and Britain, France and the United States have maintained that it must remain Italian. All four of the conferees concede that Trieste is ethnically Italian.

The compromise yesterday gave rise to a new atmosphere of optimism.

Under the compromise, Italy would renounce sovereignty of her colonies, which would be under four-power control pending either agreement by the big four or reference to the United Nations.

O'Toole Filing Damage Suit Against Jacobs

WASHINGTON, June 21. (AP)—Dep. O'Toole (D-NY) told the House today he is filing a $100,000 damage suit against fight promoter Mike Jacobs of New York.

O'Toole declared he is taking this action because "this racketeer Jacobs is accusing me of trying to shake him down for some fight tickets."

The congressman said he referred to reports that Jacobs asserted O'Toole is complaining about the quality of the Louis — Connors fight which was held in New York on Wednesday night because he was turned down in a last minute appeal for tickets. O'Toole has denied he made such a request.

In his speech O'Toole reiterated his demand for an investigation by the New York boxing commission of the fight and Jacobs' promotion efforts.

"This was the greatest fraud ever perpetrated on the American people," O'Toole declared. "It is driving boxing not into the gutter, but into the sewer."

He added that "I intend to have more to say about the matter."

Approximately 100 House members heard the remarks and nearly all of them applauded when the New Yorker concluded.

Questioned about published reports that the Justice Department is looking into both boxing and baseball situations for anti-trust reasons, the department's official spokesman told reporters:

"There is no investigation being made by this department of either the boxing industry or the baseball industry."

"The department absolutely is making no such investigation and no investigation has been planned. There is no reason for an investigation."

"We have had no complaints and we are not interested in any controversy between promoter Mike Jacobs and Rep. O'Toole."

Romulo Praises US Policies In Philippines

WASHINGTON, June 21—(AP)—Brig. Gen. Carlos P. Romulo, resident commissioner here for the Philippines, today hailed the approaching independence of his home islands as a symbol of hope to freedom-seeking millions in the orient.

Romulo expressed himself in a far-well address prepared for congress before departing for Manila to attend the July 4 ceremonies ushering in Philippine independence.

He had high praise for the policy the United States has pursued in the Philippines since 1898. It marked the beginning of the end for imperialism, he said, and encouraged the dream of ultimate freedom among colonial peoples.

"We are the messengers of democratic opportunity," Romulo declared for the Filipino people, "and we have transmitted the word of that freedom around the world."

Addressing himself to the "restless millions of the Orient," he proclaimed:

"We represent the new spirit of our age—the only spirit that can help you can help the world."

"It is the spirit of democratic cooperation, the spirit of civil liberties, education and health and opportunity for all, of progress without bloodshed, of equality before the law, we stand before the world—on July 4, 1946—as the living proof that this spirit is realistic, practical, workable."

Negro Women In Brick Brawl

Considering that bricks are such a critical commodity in these times, Rosie Lee Miller and Carrie Burnett, negroes, were engaged in an extravagant brawl Thursday.

Carrie limped around to the sheriff's office later to swear out a complaint for disturbance against Rosie Lee, claiming she had been struck on the knee by a brick unloosed by an accurate-throwing Miss Miller.

The accuser admitted the missile traffic wasn't all one-way. She had, she said, retaliated with a few choice solids that fell about her feet. However, Carrie added, her aim was erratic and she never had time to zero her sights before Rosie Lee found the range.

The argument started, police said, over a gang of kids playing in the streets—whose, they never found out.

Bob Hope Buys Piece Of Indians

LITTLE ROCK, June 21. (AP)—The Arkansas Democrat today quoted comedian Bob Hope as saying a deal for purchase of the Cleveland Indians already had "gone through" and that he had bought a "big chunk" of the baseball club.

Hope, associated with Bill Veck, former Milwaukee Brewer president, in negotiations for purchase of the club, made the disclosure in an interview with the Little Rock newspaper just before departing for Omaha, Neb.

Informed that the latest word from Cleveland was that completion of negotiations was pending a vote among current stockholders of the club, Hope roared:

"Whaddya ya mean, is the deal definite; they've got my money. Of course, it's definite. I sent the check yesterday."

The radio and screen funny man said he would be too busy to take an active part in operation of the Cleveland team and that he would be a "silent partner."

Cochran Speaks At ABC Lunch

The Rev. J. E. Cochran, of Shawnee, Okla., here to conduct revival services at the Wesley Methodist church, spoke briefly to members of the American Business Club at luncheon Friday on the adaptation of the Athenian code to life today.

He pointed out that the nation today has become one of lawless people, infringing on the rights of others, because the people have not adopted such a code.

He also extended an invitation to members to come to the services to be held nightly throughout the next week.

Following a discussion of the park program of both the club and the Salvation Army, the group voted to donate $100 to aid the Salvation Army playground, and urged greater cooperation between the two projects.
