

Passenger Service Cut To Save Railway Coal

WASHINGTON, May 3 (AP)—The Office of Defense Transportation today ordered a 50 percent reduction in passenger service by coal burning locomotives, effective May 15, to conserve dwindling coal supplies.

From May 10 to May 15 passenger service will be reduced 25 per cent from the mileage operated on April 1.

Railroads were further directed to cancel reservations where necessary and "to take such other action as may be necessary to carry out the terms and purposes of this order."

ODT last night had clamped a general embargo on freight shipments with certain exceptions and had ordered a minimum 25 per cent cut, effective May 10, in passenger service on coal-burning railroads.

ODT Director J. Monroe Johnson told a reporter today that "any railroad which finds it necessary has my permission to put these reductions into effect before May 10 and to go deeper."

The drastic curtailment of railroad service came as President Truman voiced open alarm over the situation created by the prolonged soft coal strike. Approximately three-quarters of the nation's passenger mileage relies on coal.

The presidential alarm over the strike's effects was echoed in high administration quarters where predictions were made that the "whole industrial economy will be seriously crippled within 20 days" if the mines continue idle.

The strike entered its 33rd day today. Settlement negotiations still gave no hint of any early break.

On the contrary, Charles O'Neill, spokesman for the mine owners, reported that the past four days had been "completely wasted."

Mr. Truman described the picture as a very serious situation when he expressed himself at his news conference yesterday. He said he viewed it with alarm, but he indicated the government is not yet ready to take any new steps in the dispute.

Arabs Hurling Stones Protest Jewish Report

JERUSALEM, May 3 (AP)—A crowd of more than 3,000 stone-throwing Arabs marked the advent of a general Arab strike throughout Palestine today with a demonstration before the Mosque El-Aqsa at the historic Damascus gate.

About 100 British troops with tommyguns and armored cars held the throng at bay.

A hastily erected barbed wire barricade prevented wire from the old city of Jerusalem through the gate. The Arabs hurled stones at the troops during a heavy rainfall.

The demonstration started when Arabs assembled at the mosque and heard an address from Jamal Effendi Hussein, trustee for the Arab higher committee. He sharply protested the recommendations of the British-American inquiry committee, which called for immediate authorization for emigration of 100,000 more Jews into Palestine.

The Arab higher committee called the general strike. (The Exchange Telegraph agency reported from Jerusalem that the Jewish resistance movements, including the Irgun Zvai Laumi and the Stern organization, had issued a joint statement guaranteeing "full peace" if 100,000 Jewish immigrants from Europe were admitted. The statement said, however, it was impossible for the resistance movements to give up their arms.)

Electricity Restricted In Illinois And Indiana During Coal Shortage

CHICAGO, May 3 (AP)—Chicago was in a state of emergency and very much confused today as the full impact of an order curtailing use of electricity struck all phases of business and industry.

War-time darkness returned to the nation's second largest city last night and to hundreds of communities in two-thirds of Illinois as lights blinked out under the emergency dimouts by the Illinois commerce commission in an effort to conserve coal.

Twenty-two northern Indiana counties, including the big steel-producing Calumet area, were under a similar order by the Indiana public service commission.

Thousands of appeals were made to the Illinois commission to relax the drastic electricity rationing as the order became effective yesterday, but the commission said no exceptions will be made in the directive.

The commission reiterated a warning that violation of the order directing industry to use electricity 24 hours a week and commercial users, including stores and theaters, from 2 to 6 p. m., from Monday through Saturday, would result in power being turned off.

There were indications that industrial plants and business establishments faced the loss of millions of dollars. Part-time unemployment for thousands was in prospect, as well as sharp reductions in payrolls.

Amusement centers sought to work out some method of illuminating their establishments. Thousands of office workers faced the prospect of climbing to their places of employment in the Loop's skyscrapers.

Goering Incredulous On Schacht Statement Calling Him Immoral

NUERNBERG, May 3 (AP)—Hjalmar Schacht's evaluation of Hermann Goering as an "immoral criminal type" whose "greed knew no bounds" was read into the record of the international military tribunal today.

Goering listened with an air of incredulity while US Prosecutor Robert H. Jackson read a statement which Schacht had made to US Army interrogators about the former Reichsmarchal.

At the conclusion, Goering shook his head resignedly and tapped his forehead with a forefinger, indicating his conviction that Schacht had lost his mind.

Spectators were convulsed with laughter as Schacht, former Nazi financial wizard, sparred expertly with Jackson and gave him a lecture on certain banking methods "for your enlightenment and instruction."

O'Brien MC's Ground Breaking At Wayland College In Plainview

The Rev. P. D. O'Brien, Big Spring, served today at Wayland college in Plainview as master of ceremonies for a ground breaking event, which featured an address of Gov. Coke Stevenson.

Mrs. O'Brien accompanied the Rev. O'Brien to Plainview Thursday evening. During the morning he was to speak at the chapel exercises at Wayland and at noon to the Kiwanis club in Plainview.

Ground was broken today for a new dormitory to house approximately 100 men. Many lay and Baptist clergy leaders, including some present at the original ground breaking in 1908, were on hand for the ceremonies which marked the beginning of an extensive building program for the college.

Arabs Threaten Bloody Strife If Jews Come

Secretary Hands British A Formal Protest Ultimatum

LONDON, May 3 (AP)—The explosive problem of Palestine mounted swiftly toward a crisis today amid warnings from Arab leaders that the Holy Land might erupt in bloody strife if recommendations of the British-American inquiry committee are adopted.

The powerful Arab higher committee in Jerusalem called a one-day general strike of Arabs for today to protest against the inquiry committee's report and handed the British high commissioner "the next thing to an ultimatum" stating that Arabs would prepare all means "to resume the national struggle" unless the report is rejected.

The secretary general of the Arab league, Abdul Rahman Azam Pasha, declared in Cairo that he had been informed that the "ultimatum" demanded abandonment of the inquiry committee's recommendations "or all Arabs in Palestine will begin their war immediately."

In response to a question as to whether the members of the league—Egypt, Iraq, Syria, Lebanon, Saudi Arabia, Transjordan and Yemen—would join the Arabs of Palestine in their struggle against the report, which includes a recommendation for immediate immigration of 100,000 homeless European Jews to Palestine, Azam Pasha replied:

"Naturally they will, but we have not reached the state of fighting yet."

In London, meanwhile, British foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin was reported officially to be making "informal inquiries" as to what aid Britain might expect from the United States in administering the troublesome mandate in Palestine. Reports from Washington show little likelihood of any direct help.

Senate Pushes British Loan; Draft Pending

WASHINGTON, May 3 (AP)—The administration, plugging hard at pushing the British loan bill through the senate, gambled today that congress can agree on draft extension in a single week.

An administration aide disclosed that the deadline for voting on the $3,750,000,000 credit arrangement—or laying it aside—has been moved up to next Wednesday.

Tuesday previously had been the latest date discussed. The selective service law expires May 15—one week from Wednesday—unless congress acts.

The riddled extension bill which the house passed, including a five-month draft "holiday," differs widely from the version cleared to the senate by its military committee. Hence one week is a very brief time in which to conduct senate debate, pass the bill, adjust differences with the house and send the compromise measure to the president for approval.

Majority Leader Barkley (Ky) made a futile attempt yesterday to get unanimous agreement to limit further loan bill debate to two hours for each senator, Acting Republican Leader Knowland of California objected, and the talk ran on until nearly 6 p. m.

But Barkley served notice he intends to try again. The proposed loan took a heavy thumping yesterday from half a dozen speakers on both sides of the aisle, and Senator Wheeler (D-Mont) asked time to speak to-day.

Senator Olin Johnston (D-SC) hit at the proposed arrangement as a gift, not a loan. So did Senator Capper (R-Kan.). Johnston declared:

"It is the most munificent gift in history, from the most heavily indebted nation in the world, to a nation which will be, as she always has been, unappreciative, unreliable, and totally without conscience."

Latin-Americans Here Planning Big Cinco De Mayo Celebration

The Latin-American quarter dons its ceremonial robes this weekend to celebrate Cinco De Mayo day, annually one of the gayest of Mexican holidays.

The program gets underway Saturday evening with a dance on a platform near the Kats Morrison school built especially for the event. Frank Martin's orchestra provides the music. By Sunday, the celebration will be in full swing, with baseball games and speeches figuring prominently in the proffered entertainment.

An unnamed official from the Mexican consulate at El Paso will speak to a Sunday evening gathering around the dance pavilion as a climax to the weekend. The Mexican consul in El Paso notified Pedro Cortes Sauer, president of the planning committee, that he would send a speaker here but did not identify him by name.

Cinco De Mayo is observed in commemoration of Mexico's successful battle for independence with French troops in 1868. Hundreds have taken part in the holidays here in the past.

Pauley On Trip To Determine Reparations

WASHINGTON, May 3 (AP)—Edwin W. Pauley hops off this weekend on a highly advertised reparations mission which may determine how successfully the United States and Russia can cooperate in the Far East.

Technically, Pauley will seek to learn what former Japanese assets in Manchuria and Korea can be made available as reparations to the Allied countries which teamed up to win the Pacific war.

Actually, he will try to find out whether the industrial equipment remaining in the two areas is sufficient to contribute to the economic development of China and Korea—a factor the United States believes essential to lasting peace in East Asia.

President Truman and Acting Secretary of State Dean Acheson made this plain yesterday in separate statements which added up to quite an official "build-up" of the Pauley mission.

Little Hope Seen Of Peace Treaty Agreement Soon

PARIS, May 3 (AP)—High-ranking delegates to the four-power foreign ministers conference expressed the opinion today that barring some spectacular and completely unforeseen development, there was little hope that any peace treaties would be agreed upon at this session.

The ministers of the United States, Britain, Russia and France were scheduled to meet with Yugoslav officials at Luxembourg palace at 3 p. m. (8 a. m. CST) today, to discuss revision of the Italian-Yugoslav frontier.

Aldice De Gasperi, Italian premier, is expected to appear before the ministers later in the day.

British, United States and French delegates said privately that it was still too early to predict flatly that the conference would break up in complete failure, but pointed out that after a week of meetings the ministers appeared to have made no progress whatsoever on controversial issues.

These sources also interpreted a request yesterday by James F. Byrnes, US secretary of state, for revision of the Italian and other armistices as an indication that hope was rapidly vanishing for an agreement on peace treaties in the near future. Some sources said that the only chance for the conference to succeed would be for V. M. Molotov, Russian foreign minister, to make a number of unexpected concessions.

April Produces Crazy Weather

April was in a class by itself for a crazy weather pattern for 1946, monthly summary by Vernon W. Schaefer, meteorologist in charge of the US weather bureau at the airport, shows.

Precipitation amounted to only .24 of an inch, or 1.59 inches below normal for the month. At the same time real summer weather early in the month boosted the mean temperature to 69.8, or 5.8 degrees above normal. Highest temperature was 90 on April 1, but it was under the 103 record on April 29, 1903. The minimum of 42 degrees was far above the record of 23 degrees in 1928.

Apparently what the area needs is some sustained southeasterly winds. The five sprinkles of the month followed in the wake of south and southeast winds. For the first four months of the year, precipitation is 2.38 inches below normal. This kept aviators in a good frame of mind, however, for only two days in April were rated as completely cloudy.

2 Guards Dead And 13 Injured In 2-Day Fight

SAN FRANCISCO, May 3 (AP)—Reinforced combat marine forces launched a new assault on embattled Alcatraz Island prison this morning in the second day of convict rioting that caused the death of two guards and injury to 13 others.

The Marines landed 83 men on the island, sending in 23 more today to assist beleaguered guards, and a shipment of grenades and "snaps charges" as well. The charges, war devices, can demolish concrete structures.

Efforts were begun early in the day by Marines to chop a hole through the roof of the cell block where the convicts, armed from the "Rock's" arsenal and led by six ringleaders, were cornered after a night of bitter fighting in the grim island prison in San Francisco Bay.

In the absence of official word, there was a suggestion the charges would be placed on the roof under which desperate convicts were pinned down in narrow quarters by a hail of gunfire from the guards.

A shipment of extremely powerful explosive charges and quantities of war equipment was dispatched from Benicia arsenal by fast police escort for the "Rock."

The shipment included: Fifteen 15-pound shape charges, 288 grenade adapters for rifles, 720 carbine grenade cartridges, 100 projectiles for bazookas, 1,000 fragmentation grenades, and 300 white phosphorus smoke grenades.

The Benicia arsenal also was alerted to be ready to make any additional shipments during the day.

Guard William A. Miller died in a hospital as a new attack was launched to dislodge six of the nation's toughest convicts from their stronghold in a prison cell block.

Guard Harold P. Stites was killed by machine gun bullets at the outset of the rioting yesterday afternoon when convicts seized an arsenal.

About 8:15 a. m. (PST) today shafts of white smoke streamed into the sky, followed by the sound of explosions, as the new attack was begun.

At 8:30 a. m. a guard at the prison reported by telephone to the Associated Press that he didn't have time to talk but "we're sure going after them right now."

The six convicts during the night held ten prison officers as hostages for about seven hours, shooting some, and injuring all but one. The hostages were rescued in a raging gun battle.

In addition to the death of Stites and Miller, thirteen other prison officers were injured.

This morning a guard said 72-year-old Warden James A. Johnston, who had been on the job all night, was personally directing efforts to end the uprising.

"Everybody's pretty busy," the guard said. "And Warden Johnston is right in there. He certainly has got what it takes. There are plenty of explosions occurring right now."

Grain Shortages Boon To Those Too Well-Padded

By VIRGINIA VAN DER VEER
WASHINGTON, May 2 (AP)—This is for well-padded Americans.

Your government suggests that now is the time to lose extra pounds so others may have food. In war-ridden areas of the world, millions are hungry.

Portly Americans, who drop 800 calories a day from their diets, can save vital foods while trimming their own figures as much as a pound a week.

The Agriculture Department's bureau of home economics says these are the do's and don'ts of a diet keyed to the times:

Do: Eat almost no grain food. Every roll, thick slice of bread or ounce of cereal you pass up means 100 calories less.

Substitute fruits and custards for pie, cake, doughnuts or cookies. This will trim off another 100 to 300 calories.

Give up fried foods and salad dressing.

Use milk instead of cream in coffee.

Eat sugar and sweets sparingly. Have plenty of fruits and vegetables instead. Take extra helpings of peas, lima beans and corn when cutting down on cereals.

Help yourself to plenty of protein foods, such as milk, eggs, poultry and lean meat.

Don't reduce: Except under a doctor's guidance, if you are under 20 or a young mother or have organic complications, such as heart disease.

If you are not at least 10 percent above average weight.

The bureau says a pound a week is enough to lose. The 800-calorie daily reduction probably will do it.

TEST OUR WELCOME

YESTERDAY
It was yesterday that millions were engaged in global combat as the result of a gospel of hate which was taught one generation of youth.
TODAY
It is true that Today the youth of many nations are turning to and accepting the only way out of another global war. THE WAY through JESUS CHRIST and his gospel of love.
But it is also true that TODAY many parents are neglecting to take their children to the church where they may learn of Christ and his gospel.
Let us go to church TODAY that we may build a solid foundation for TOMORROW
We will reap what we sow TODAY. Will it be a nation of Christians or pagans? Each of us, man, woman, boy and girl will have to give an accounting of our stewardship of yesterday and today.
Let us be good stewards and take our children to the church of our choice every Sunday.

Sweden Comments Of US Iceland Army

STOCKHOLM, May 3. (P)—The Stockholm Tidningen said editorially today that "American reluctance to abandon military bases in Iceland is regarded with growing surprise and irritation in all Nordic countries."

(Dispatches from Moscow said the TASS news agency quoted the editorial as saying the Swedish people were asking why the United States did not follow the example set by the Russians in evacuating Bornholm Island and leave Iceland.)

Banish "Hidden Hunger" From US Babies' Lives With Balanced Feeding

By CHARLOTTE ADAMS

Our experience in discovering, through the draft, how much "hidden hunger" exists in America, ought to inspire every mother of today's babies to see to it that her children are well-fed and well-nourished. On that base we can build a strong, healthy America, ready to cope with whatever comes.

We know a great deal more about nutrition today than was known a generation or even less time ago. We can put that knowledge to immediate use with our babies and little children.

Milk is of first importance in feeding a baby. But we've learned to include other foods earlier and earlier in the diet. Cereal has, for a long time, been given to quite little babies. Now we can get it pre-cooked, needing only the addition of milk for serving up. We give vegetables and fruit at two or three months—strained, of course, but getting into the diet far more nutriment than babies used to receive. We're lucky today to be able to buy these foods in cans or jars. Warming is all that's needed, and the baby loves them. Also, mother is spared a great deal of work.

Of course you should consult your pediatrician or baby clinic for the best diet to give your own particular baby. You may be surprised by the early dates at which strained foods are introduced, but be cheered by this. As early as possible is the time to develop good food habits, and learning to accept variety early may be the makings of a fine gourmet later in life.

This brings us to the psychological side of the situation, which is, certainly as important as the nutritional, and belongs entirely to the mother. In fact, your baby's nutritional well-being may depend as much upon the way you handle his feeding as upon what the doctor says he should eat.

Never hurry a baby's feeding, and never nag at him. Mealtime should be a happy occasion for all concerned. No child was ever improved in his eating habits by being forced, rushed or scolded.

For your own comfort, and the baby's, too, see that he is fed in circumstances which will make no one cry over spilt milk—or scattered spinach! Use a plain turkish wash-cloth as a bib, or make bibs from old turkish towels. Get a piece of oil cloth to put under his high chair, or whatever he sits in to eat. It can be washed off in a twinkling after the meal, and your own belongings are protected.

Offer your baby small portions. It's much easier to give "seconds" than to get yourself and him upset over a plate that isn't "clean." When you give him something new, don't be discouraged if he barely tastes it the first time. Just keep trying, and eventually he will be willing to adventure, particularly if you think that new foods are fun.

The minute your baby shows the slightest inclination to feed himself, give him every chance to try. This is inevitably a messy process. Handling a spoon is a most difficult manual technique. However, it will be messy whether he tries it at six months or three years.

As soon as your doctor says it's all right, be sure to let him have twiceback to chew on—again, frequently a messy process, but he will love it and it will help him to cut his teeth. Arrowroot 'cookies' are an especially good variety for babies, too, being most easily digested.

City Park Land Given To Lamesa By Family

LAMESA, May 3.—A gift of nearly 77 acres of land, immediately south of town on the Stanton highway, has been made to the City of Lamesa by the S. L. Forrest family of Lubbock for development as a park.

It is adjacent to the home which the Forrest family occupied for years when Forrest was in the lumber business here. Forrest specified that the acreage must be dedicated and developed as a park.

City Manager Gordon Hill said initial steps toward development of the property for recreational purposes might be made this summer. Forrest said the gift was an expression of appreciation for friendships developed with Lamesa and Dawson county people.

In Wheat Conservation

To help meet the Government's need for more flour to feed the millions of hungry people over the world, Mead's has cut Bread production by 25 PERCENT. This means absolutely that ONE-FOURTH less Bread is going to Grocers—and to YOU.

To accomplish this decrease in output, Mead's is observing a COMPLETE PLANT SHUT-DOWN for one day each week. There will be NO DELIVERIES on these shutdown days, hence no Bread going to the Grocer's shelves for YOU.

Mead's takes these steps to do its part in meeting a world crisis. It calls upon all the public to join in answering the plea of the Hungry, to be unselfish in the name of Humanity.

THE NEW 1946 Cadillac

More Beautiful and Luxurious
... AND POWERED BY THE GREAT VICTORY ENGINE

THERE IS BIG NEWS about Cadillac this year. For Cadillac has really been improved for 1946. Not just in styling—although the 1946 Cadillac is far more beautiful in every way. Not just in comfort and luxury—although here, too, Cadillac has made great strides... Cadillac's improvement is basic and fundamental! Cadillac built its world-famous engine and transmission for the Armed Services as power units for tanks and other motorized weapons. All during the war, while no passenger cars were being built anywhere, Cadillac's engine assembly line continued to roll. And what is even more important—improvement, too, went steadily ahead. The engine and transmission... which contributed so much to Allied victory... were actually improved more in four years of war than would have been normal in four years of peace! Cadillac not only had the world's battlefields as a testing ground—but the technical staffs of the army and navy were available as consultants... What an engine this is now! And what a transmission the new Hydra-Matic is! You've never experienced anything even remotely like this "power train" for smoothness, quietness, and quickness of acceleration... Improvement, in fact, is found throughout the car. Comfort is greater, handling is easier, roadability is better. Likewise, there is new interior luxury. Wherever you look, in fact, you will be conscious of a new Standard of the World... But the really vital improvement is mechanical. You'll have to take the wheel of this new Cadillac to experience fully what has happened. Do this as soon as you can... And get your name on the list for the earliest possible delivery.

Maybe It Won't Be A "Strike"

General public unconcern over the coal strike is exceeded only by apathy toward a scheduled strike by the Brotherhoods of Engineers and Trainmen on May 18. At least, there is good reason for not being hot and bothered in the latter case.

We have yet to refer to a threatened or projected railroad "strike" but what some member of the fraternity takes us to task for using the term. Invariably, the line of logic runs: "There isn't going to be any strike. Nobody seriously expects one." It seems that the "strike" team is regarded simply as a process of negotiation.

Although negotiations have gone through practically all the steps to date as prescribed by the National Railway Labor Act, there is still reason to believe that differences may be composed before any actual work stoppage occurs. In any event, it is probable that the government would assume control of the carriers and that service might be continued.

The Brotherhoods have rejected the report of a fact finding board. This does not necessarily seal the doom of further negotiations. One has only to think back a few weeks to recall that some industries did that same thing.

It would be too much to expect that the results of the fact finding board would be accepted immediately by both sides of a dispute unless there was an agreement existing in advance. The report, however, does serve as a means of refocusing negotiations although it may not be acceptable to both sides.

Right now both sides are still negotiating, and where there is negotiation, there is hope.

Speed Shrinks The World

Recently an army flier covered the distance of 205 miles between New York and Washington in 29 minutes and 15 seconds in a P-50 Shooting Star. That's better than 400 miles per hour, pretty fast time within its own right and prophetic when one considers that jet propulsion is still in its infancy, and that rocket projectiles are capable of registering 3,500 miles per hour.

What does all this speed mean?

In our own time we can remember when a trip from Big Spring to Lubbock consumed an entire day. Those with a few years can recall that it took days to get to Lamesa from Big Spring. Under those conditions, our section was loosely knit and residents of one town sort of regarded those of another even though it was in the adjoining county seat, as a shade of foreigner. But with the advent of fast automobiles and airplanes distances have shrunk. It takes less time to require to go from one side of town to the other. As a result, we are truly neighbors and our problems have become common problems.

And whether we like it or not, that same thing is happening on a global scale today. Those who look back or hide their heads are simply trying to deny a political fact that exists now just as surely as life itself.

The Nation Today—James Marlow

Career Diplomats—Eyes And Ears

WASHINGTON, May 3. (AP)—Career diplomats may not be mentioned in the debate which the House has underway on providing funds for the State Department for another year.

Yet career diplomats are a strong part of the State Department.

Of the department's 18,000 employees, only 820 are career diplomats. Here's what you have to do to be one:

1. You must pass a very stiff examination given by the department's foreign service.
2. Having passed, you are given the title of foreign service officer and sent overseas to work there for years.
3. That brings up a nice distinction—the difference between a foreign service officer and an officer of the foreign service.

Officers of the foreign service are all called officers of the foreign service.

But only those officers of the foreign service who have passed the examination are called foreign service officers, the career diplomats.

The other officers of the foreign service are called auxiliary officers—like economists or information specialists—or they may be vice consuls.

So this is what happens: A foreign service officer who is appointed vice consul is a career vice consul.

A man who is appointed vice consul, but hasn't passed the examination, is called a non-career consul.

The non-career consul may remain that for 30 years, with a sharp limit on his salary, while the career consul goes up the ladder.

This particular practice—of keeping non-career consuls down even though they have long service—has been roundly criticized in Congress.

But follow the career of the foreign service officer:

Once sent overseas, he may start as vice consul or consul, gradually working up to be a counselor of embassy, the highest job he can get.

The starting salary is $2,900, the top salary is $10,000. It may take 10 to 14 years to reach $6,000.

Like other officials in the foreign service, however, a foreign service officer gets extra pay for rent, higher living costs abroad and perhaps for entertainment.

About 90 percent of the career diplomats have no income besides their salaries and, of the remaining 10 percent, perhaps not more than 5 percent are wealthy.

If the President wishes to make a foreign service officer an ambassador or minister—the President appoints to both kinds of jobs—the officer must resign from foreign service.

About 60 percent of our ambassadors and ministers are career diplomats who first were foreign service officers.

Like other foreign service officials, foreign service officers act as ears and eyes for this country abroad.

At long intervals they are brought back here to hold key jobs in the State Department for no more than four years at a time.

Coburg Repents Of Sin

COBURG, Germany, (AP)—This well-spring of Nazism wants to redeem its good name by organizing an "international academy for agreement among the nations" where students from all over the world can study democracy.

It is a strange thing—this mass repentance by a city for past national-socialist sins. It is believable only in Germany.

Coburg for centuries was the ducal seat of the Saxe-Coburg Hesse rulers, a prolific royal family which produced kings for several European countries. Under Adolf Hitler it was awarded the Coburg medal for being one of the first German cities to embrace Nazism.

Now the colorful Bavarian "Pöckel town," where Martin Luther once preached, wants to take the lead in switching the German nation over to its "third ideology in 30 years—this time democracy. Monarchy and Nazism are no longer respectable here."

The idea of making Coburg an international center for the study of democratic culture was conceived by Oberbürgermeister Meyer and a number of business and professional leaders.

"We want to prove to the world that in Coburg there are many democrats who can be good Germans and still work for international understanding," said Meyer, a slender serious man of middle years, "and we have to establish a formula to further understanding among students from all countries. Our main orientation will lie to the west—to France, England and America—but we want Russian students, too, and a Russian professor if we can get him."

The academy will specialize in the study of government and the history of all democracies but it will offer courses in comparative

Hannegan, Allen Battle For Truman

WASHINGTON—Around every President always rages a battle of courtiers, all trying to get close to the throne. Harry Truman is no exception.

Around Roosevelt, hottest rivalry was between "Harry the Hop" Hopkins and "Tommy the Cork" Corcoran, both at one time close to FDR, both good friends with each other. Then the two fell apart, and gradually Harry eclipsed Tommy out of the White House picture.

Today the same old personal battle to stay close to the throne is going on over Truman. The unpublicized struggle is taking place between two of the President's closest friends—George Allen of Mississippi and Bob Hannegan of Missouri.

Today the same old personal battle to stay close to the throne is going on over Truman. The unpublicized struggle is taking place between two of the President's closest friends—George Allen of Mississippi and Bob Hannegan of Missouri.

Like Hopkins and Corcoran, these two were once good friends. It was Hannegan who put George Allen in the White House to act as his personal representative and keep his finger on political moves. Today, however, the only thing they have in common is their individual affection for Harry Truman.

In fact the breach has become so wide that George Allen played a big part in fomenting the Dixie Democrat revolt against Hannegan. George, who is one of the most likeable men in Washington and keeps the President in stitches with his amusing stories, has hosts of friends among the right-wing Democrats. He speaks their language, and quietly, though gleefully, he stirred up the pot of Southern rebellion until it boiled over against the Democratic national chairman.

Hannegan, in turn, has been sorely disappointed in Allen, and has made no great secret of the fact that, he considers George a bad influence.

In fact when the President proposed appointing Allen to be a director of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, Hannegan went to the White House and personally registered his opposition. Truman, however, interrupted by holding his hands above his head. "I can't talk about George Allen," he said. "He's my friend."

That ended that. But it hasn't ended the tug of war between the two men next to the throne.

Chief Justice Stone on Russia

One thing overlooked in all the obituaries of Chief Justice Harlan E. Stone was that he was a vigorous advocate of recognition for Russia after World War One.

Though he didn't declare himself publicly, Stone strongly advised President Coolidge that the United States should take the lead in resuming diplomatic relations.

As attorney general, he told Coolidge it was none of our business what type of government Russia had, as long as the Russian people themselves accepted it—and that idealistic reasons were not sufficient grounds for one nation withholding recognition of another.

However, Coolidge did not take Stone's advice. Charles Evans Hughes, then Secretary of State and later chief justice, ruled otherwise. If Stone's advice had been followed, the long period of Russian isolation would not have ensued, and Soviet suspicions, now so strong against the rest of the world, would not be difficult to break down today.

of business done with France. American films are an example. Although it is over a year since the liberation of France, the only American films imported since the fall of Paris in 1940 are 46 brought in by the OWI while the war was still on.

Every attempt to negotiate a new arrangement has met with rebuffs from the French, who insist that their primary duty is to protect the reviving French movie industry.

In spite of the high-sounding international agreements about free trade, the best the French have offered Hollywood so far is an arrangement guaranteeing 55 percent of all playing time to French films, with the French, the British, the Russians and every one else competing with Hollywood for the remaining 45 per cent.

Even the 40 films imported by OWI have had tough sledding. The French authorities have permitted comparatively little screening in Paris, where, wide audiences could appreciate them in spite of the language difference. Instead, they have been shown mainly in small towns and outlying sections, where the language barrier is difficult.

So far the State Department and Hollywood negotiators have not been able to get what they consider a fair compromise—and there is talk now of refusing to send any pictures to France and simultaneously freezing French pictures out of the USA. Yet the French still clamor for a loan. (Copyright, 1946, by the Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

How To Fix Those Hics

NEW YORK — The question of curing hics came up the other evening—or was it morning?—among eight persons sitting around a table in the Storck-Cub Room, and there were eight different cures suggested.

Dean Jagger suggested holding your breath and counting 50. Milton Berle said hold your breath and count to a million—"then you won't have hiccups—you'll be dead."

Everyone had a different cure. I don't have any, but the one which I saw being administered one night recently is a dandy, although I'm not sure it can be used effectively unless there is a large, wide streak of ham in the victim.

I was sitting at the Copacabana with Burgess Meredith and Franchot Tons when Burgess, or "Buz" as he is known to "nickname droppers," got the hiccups. He tried several of the accepted correctives, such as holding his breath and drinking water through a piece of sugar held in his teeth, but none worked.

Then Franchot hit upon an idea, one of such amazing remedial powers that I'm sure a paper should be read on the subject at the next convention of the American Medical Association.

Franchot started telling Meredith about his excellent war record. He complimented Buz on the swell film, "The Story of G.I. Joe." He mentioned the documentary movies Buz had worked on. "Everything you've done has been a credit both to you and the movie business," Franchot said.

"You've fought a war in the best way you know—with not only the regular military methods but with the job you know best—the movies. You've been the envy of every movie actor, for you've not only made excellent films, but they've been exactly what has been needed to help win the war."

Tons went on to cover even more complimentary territory, leaving no base untouched in his all-out verbal back-patting. Then he stopped, abruptly.

"How are your hiccups?" he asked Buz.

Buz considered.

"I guess they've been gone for a couple of minutes," he said. "I wonder what happened to them."

"What happened to them?" exclaimed the handsome Franchot. "Why you forgot about everything else in the world while I was telling you how wonderful you are—you ham!"

Lamar (Houston) Is Favored To Sew Up Prep Track Title

AUSTIN, May 3 (AP)—Lamar of Houston has only five contestants in this afternoon's Texas school-boy track and field events but they appear capable of combining for about 30 points—which should be enough to bag the state title.

Lamar lived up to all expectations in yesterday's preliminaries whereas Woodrow Wilson of Dallas, the favorite, cracked at the seams. The Wildcats tumbled from title consideration when just three of what had been called an all-star array of athletes managed to get into the finals and only one of three—low hurdler Robert Hall—was considered a potential first-place winner.

The prelims quickly changed the complexion of the big show. Now it appears that Woodrow Wilson doesn't have an outside chance at the championship and that Lamar, Austin High, Austin (Houston), Corpus Christi and Brackenridge (San Antonio) will battle it out down to the final gun.

Austin, Austin (Houston) Brackenridge and Thomas Jefferson (San Antonio) each landed five spots in the finals but Jefferson was not considered a major threat although expected to pick up maybe 21 points. Corpus Christi qualified in only three events but looks like a first-place winner in two of them, one a relay.

Several of the teams will add automatic qualifiers in the mile run today. Preliminaries were not held in this event, thus Woodrow Wilson will have four boys in the finals with Norman Alsbrook trying to overtake brilliant Don Sparks of Fort Worth Tech in the distance race. Sparks is expected to set a new state mark in the mile, an event he did in 4:29.2

Mustang Tennis Team Advances In State Meet

AUSTIN, May 3 (AP)—Semi-finals of the Texas interscholastic tennis tournament today finds El Paso dominating the field much as it did last year.

The border city has two doubles teams and a singles player in the penultimate round. Only in the boys singles is there no El Paso representative and in this division Clinton Nettleton of Pharr-San Juan-Alamo, a veteran of state tournament, is the favorite.

In boys' singles it was Nettleton vs. Jason Morton of Lamar (Houston) and James Saunders of Amarillo vs. Jack Turpin of Highland Park (Dallas).

In boys' doubles Bobby Harris and Alan Hardy of Corpus Christi played Dick Osburn and Bob Butts of Highland Park and Billy Lutz and Rudolph Gonzales of El Paso clashed with Harry Tansil and Joe Mac Montgomery of Sweetwater.

In yesterday's first round the results included: Boys' singles—Turpin defeated Shaff DeGalah, Sweetwater, 6-0, 6-2.

Boys' doubles—Tansil and Montgomery defeated Danny Perkins and Leon Lampert, Brackenridge (San Antonio), 6-2, 6-3.

Girls' doubles—Ameling and Knox, Brackenridge (San Antonio), defeated Louise Aylor and Annabelle Flanagan, Sweetwater, 6-6, 4-6, 8-6.

Comings and goings along the baseball front: Curt Schmidt, the former Big Spring outfielder, has been optioned to Yakima of the Western International league by Sacramento. . . . John Whitehead, who walked only 14 men in 157 innings of toll with Toledo last year, issued a free pass to the first man he faced this year but went on to exhibit perfect control thereafter and win, 3-0. . . . His victims were the Houston Buffs.

Donald Fritz, one of the veteran umpires in the WT-NM league this year, labored in the PONY circuit after departing this section in 1941. . . . Danny Garcia, Jorge Faguel's high priced fly chaser, has looked rather pale at the plate to date. . . . The former Giant was hitting Mexican league pitchers at a .280 clip through games of last week. . . . Paul Dean, the former St. Louis Cardinal hurler, is with Little Rock in the Southern association this year. . . . John McPartland, the big left-hander who used to throw for Tony Rego here and later was with Pampa, has been returned to the Chicago Cubs by the Nashville Vols. . . . He's been troubled by a lame back all season. . . . Delo Garms, the Bangs, Tex. veteran who once paced the National league in hitting, is drawing his paychecks from the San Diego club of the Coast league now. . . . One of his team mates is Spanky Ballinger, the former Midland backstop. . . . Gus Hallbourg, who used to throw a wicked hook for Pampa, has been released by San Diego to Spokane of the Western International loop. . . . Billy Capps, Our Town's 1939 third sacker, has come alive down Beaumont-way. . . . He drove out three hits to lead the Shippers to a 4-0 triumph over Tulsa Wednesday.

ARLINGTON, May 3 (AP)—Funeral for R. N. (Dick) Vestal, 74, former horse trainer for the Three D stock farm, was held here yesterday. He died Wednesday.

only last week and that's two seconds under the record. Other potential record-smashers came through the prelims with ease. Randall Clay, Pampa's all-around athlete expected to crack the discus mark of 155 feet 7 inches, flipped the platter 147 feet 8 inches in leading the field yesterday. Vern McGrew of Lamar, who is looked upon as the guy to beat the ancient high jump record of 6 feet 3/4 inches, leaped to a qualifying spot with 5 feet 8 inches. Lamar's sprint relay team hung up a time of 44.3 and under the new record system this quartet is expected to bring 16 points to the Houston banner. That's what first place counts in a relay event now. If McGrew wins the high jump and places toward the top in the high hurdles—which he is expected to do—and Bob Smith holds first place in the shot put, Lamar should shade 30 points. Smith was fifth in the prelims. Finals start at 2:10 p. m.

WID TOMMY HART
Lubbock's immaculate country club course will be the scene of the Texas PGA golf championships this year and divisions will be conducted for all mashie welders who care to compete.

The carnival will consist of the title run for the lads who accept lucre for their efforts, the qualifying round for the National PGA, the PGA Old-Timer (40 and over), a women's flight, an amateur championship, a senior amateur title (50 and over) and a pro-amateur best-ball will all be jammed into the four-day shindig.

Over $5000 in cash and merchandise prizes will be offered the leaders of the various brackets. Sam Schneider of Houston and Raymond Gafford, Fort Worth, have been established as favorites of the main event. Jimmy Gamewell, the former pro here and now of Hobbs, N. M., H. T. "Shorty" Hornbuckle, Odessa; Warren Cantrell, former Big Springer and now of Abilene; and Gayther Nowell, Midland, are among the leading pros due to attend.

The low 25 PGA members to finish will receive invites to compete in the Dallas Open Sept. 26-29. Manhattan Club and Coedens' Officers will hook up in a Muny softball league battle at the city park the evening of Wednesday, June 26. The game was not on the original schedule but has since been added.

Bob Fenimore, Oklahoma A & M's great footballer, may not have to go into the service after all. The two-time All-America halfback has been deferred until the end of the spring school term, which happens to be May 24. Originally the Woodward, Okla., product was to have donned the khaki on April 29. Fenimore has been deferred since 1943 because of a calcium deposit in a muscle of his leg.

NEW YORK, May 3 (AP)—Paul Chapman, Southwestern A A U tumbling champion, favored to win the national title, has arrived here. He is from the Dallas Athletic Club and is the only Texan entered in the National AAU gymnastic contests tomorrow.

Racing fans of the area will have opportunity to see the races in action Sunday at King Downs, near San Angelo, when a complete program of purse and matched races will be run off. Something like a hundred of the better sprinters in West Texas are expected to take part in the day's show.

Lefties Haunt Cards, Bossox Ruin Detroit

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer.
It looked today as if the National League will southpaw the favored St. Louis Cardinals to death in an attempt to keep the Red Birds from wresting the pennant from the Chicago Cubs.

Inability to maintain their .617 seasonal pace against portsideers cost the Cards the flag last year and it may be the same story this year. In 33 decisions against unorthodox flingers in 1945, St. St. Louis managed to win 17, just one more game than it lost.

In 14 games this season, opposing managers have thrown eight left-handers against Eddie Dyer's sluggers and have been rewarded with four victories. Altogether the Cards have dropped five games, only one to a right-hander.

The latest lefty to haunt the Cards was Dave Koslo, New York Giants hopeful, who handcufted them with four hits yesterday and whipped them, 5-1, to knock St. Louis out of a first place tie with Brooklyn. Slated to face St. Louis today was Brooklyn's little left-hander, Vic Lombardi.

The Dodgers came from behind to shackle the Cubs, 3-2, when Billy Herman, a former Bruin, hit a pinch single in the eighth inning to bat across Pete Reiser and Dixie Walker with the tying and winning runs. Reiser and Walker had opened the fatal round with consecutive singles.

Boston's favorite pin-up boy, Teddy Williams, slammed a 10th inning home run to give the American league leading Red Sox a 5-4 victory over the Detroit Tigers and a clean sweep of the three game series.

The Yankees clung close to the Sox heels by trimming the Cleveland Indians, 8-2, behind the effective nine-bit hurling of Spud Chandler, who became the first big league moundman to register four victories.

Banged around for two straight days by the Philadelphia Athletics, the St. Louis Browns finally came to life with a 16-hit barrage against a trio of Mackman hurlers to defeat their tormentors, 10-3.

Lefty Fritz Ostermueller pitched a steady game against the Philadelphia Phillies while his Pittsburgh Pirate mates took advantage of a big five-run frame to topple the Phils, 8-3. It was the Phils' 10th loss in 13 games.

The scheduled Boston Braves-Cincinnati Reds contest was rained out while Washington and the Chicago White Sox were not scheduled.

Dallas Blanks Padres, Cats Romp On Buffs To Tighten Texas Race

By the Associated Press
The Dallas Rebels, playing errorless ball behind the six-hit pitching of Hank Onno, inched up on San Antonio, currently in first place in Texas league baseball, with a 3-0 shutout last night to even their series with the Missions.

The battle between San Antonio and Dallas for the league lead is so scorching that 8,000 persons, the season's record crowd at the Mission City, witnessed the game. Fort Worth, however, kept in perfect step with the Rebels to remain tied with Dallas by defeating the Houston Buffs, 2-1.

At Shreveport, Oklahoma City broke its 12-game losing streak by romping over Shreveport, 8-3. In the only day game, the Tulsa Oilers beat Beaumont, 7-4. Dallas' Onno scattered six hits over five innings and the Missions never game him trouble. Only one of the Dallas runs was earned—when four hits were bunched off John Whitehead of the Missions in the fifth. Hirschon drove home Wood, safe on an error, in the fourth, and two miscues followed a walk to score one with Gorman Stadler pitching in the ninth.

At Houston, the Buffs took the lead with a single tally in the fourth but the Cats came back with two in the sixth. Then Koch and Chandler settled down to a scoreless duel for the last three innings.

At Beaumont, the home team was training, 7-2, going into the last half of the ninth, but started a rally which netted two runs in that frame and brought Tulsa's Warren to the scene to relieve Jeffcoat and put out the fire.

Today's schedule: Dallas at San Antonio (night). Fort Worth at Houston (night). Oklahoma City at Shreveport (night). Tulsa at Beaumont.

On Hunger Strike

DUBLIN, May 3 (AP)—John McCaughey, described as "adjustment general" of the outlawed Irish republican army, started the 15th day of a hunger strike today in a bid for "freedom or death" from Maryboro prison. He has been confined there since 1941.

Fast Welter Bout on KBST Tonight

Pellone's speed, power and skill have carried him to victories over Lulu Costantino, Billy Graham, Maxie Shapiro and other leading welters and heavy lightweights.

Facing fast-punching Alvarez is no easy assignment. An all-action fighter who believes in throwing the leather, Alvarez has been displaying corking form. He's especially fond of belaboring his opponents with savage blows inside. His ability in doing so has helped bring him victories over such men as Bobby Ruffin, Joey Ferralta and Jimmy Doyle.

Enjoy this 10-round welterweight bout on Gillette's Cavalcade of Sports over American Broadcasting Co. and KBST (1940 on your dial) at 8 p. m.

And remember men . . . LOOK sharp! FEEL sharp! BE sharp! Use Gillette Blue Blades with the sharpest edges ever honed!

Dog Enthusiasts To Meet Sunday

Some 50 canine fanciers from half a dozen West Texas towns will gather at the city park Sunday afternoon for the May meeting of the West Texas Kennel club.

The business session, which will be presided over by M. Tackett, Odessa, will begin at 2:30 o'clock but delegates who will be guests will be asked to call earlier for an informal meal which will be prepared by Mrs. W. P. Cecil, Big Spring, vice-president of the unit and other local members of the organization.

Main topic of discussion at the session will be the June dog show, which will be held in Monahan June 2.

Charles Abele, Big Spring, a breeder who has shown animals in Eastern exhibitions, will be featured on the program.

Derby Officials Anxiously Scan Weather Report

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 3. (AP)—H. W. Fielding's job, one of the extreme outsiders in the race, was the first horse entered today for the 72nd running of the Kentucky Derby tomorrow as the entry box opened in the racing secretary's office at Churchill Downs.

For the first morning this week there was no rain as the derby entry box opened, and, although showers were forecast, down officials kept their fingers crossed in a dwindling hope the track might be dry when the expected 17 horses step on to the track tomorrow evening.

After a slow start, the entry pace started to step up a bit as two veteran trainers, John Partidge and Maxie Hirsch, arrived to enter Alworth and Assault, respectively. Right along with them came Arthur Trent, entering Wee Admiral, owned by Canadian automobile executive Robert McLaughlin.

After previously having announced Wee Admiral would be scratched in the event of mud, Trent said he had changed his mind and the son of War Admiral would go to the post "with any kind of a fair track." The change, he said, was dictated because "so many folks from Toronto came down to see him run."

Assault, Texas-bred and Texas-owned Wood Memorial winner from the King ranch of R. J. Kleberg, Jr., has a good chance, Trainer Hirsch said, "if the track dries out some."

Boren Addresses ABC Luncheon

Explanation of the on-the-job and institutional training offered veterans by the GI bill and public law 18 was given by Ray Boren, local representative of the Veterans Administration at the ABC luncheon Friday.

Boren pointed out that 4,000,000 veterans had held no jobs previous to entering service and that 3,000,000 had had only jobs for boys. These he said, must be given help and training in schools and on the job not only by the government and veteran agencies but by the American people as well.

He explained the subsistence payments made and listed the advantages to an employer to hire a veteran.

Program was in charge of Temp Currie. Ted Phillips presided at the business meeting.

New members introduced included Wayne Spears, Dr. H. M. Jarrett, Victor Bales and John Stripling. Guests included Dawson Echer, Howard Thompson and Dr. Schwartzbach.
