LEAVES COACHING FIELD AFTER SIX YEARS HERE

Ernie Davis Named Junior High Principal

ERNE DAVIS

Ernie Davis, head football coach at Slaton High School since 1966, relinquished this position Tuesday to take the job of principal of Slaton Junior High School, as the board of education of Slaton Independent School District effected several administrative changes which left vacant the job of head coach and athletic director.

Davis, whose football teams compiled a 30-26-3 win-loss record over the six-year period, had requested the move into the administrative field, according to Supt. J. C. McClesky. His assignment as principal of junior high was part of a musical chairs type operation which saw former junior high school principal James Perkins assigned as principal of West Ward, as T.C. Martin, former West Ward principal, resigned because of health reasons and because he has become eligible to retire. In addition, Joe Sparkman was named administrative assistant.

Don Kendrick, president of the school board, said the board is not seeking applications for the head coaching job at this time, indicating that the board plans to give the situation some study before taking any action.

Davis came to Slaton from Odessa, where he had been assistant coach to Hank Watkins one year. Prior to that he was track coach at Littlefield three years, coached at Cisco two years and was at Port Neches one year.

A former Little All-American running back at McMurry College in 1958-59, Davis graduated with a bachelor of science degree in history at McMurry, where he also ran track. He earned a masters degree in administration at Texas Tech.

In high school at Stamford, Davis was an all-state guard. He noted that he has been associated with football about 23 years since he started playing in the sixth grade.

"It probably is the hardest decision I've had to make in a long time, because I love coaching -- but I feel that I do need to make the change... the hardest thing is leaving the kids," Davis commented. "But this is a challenge I'm looking forward to."

The former coach's wife, Sue Davis, teaches third grade. Married in 1957, the couple have three children, Cindy, 14; Ricky, 11; and Cathy, 8. They are members of First Baptist Church.

All other teacher vacancies in the system were filled Tuesday night as the board agreed to hire 12 applicants. Mrs. Susan Shaha was hired for fifth grade, and in junior high, J. Carroll McDonald was hired as boys' coach and Mrs. Joan Luman for language arts.

In high school, Mrs. Deborah Cade was hired to teach home-making, Robert T. Hilz for ICT, and Mrs. Nancy Fondy for speech and English.

Special education teachers hired were Mrs. Phyllis Howard, Mrs. Wanda White, Miss Cynthia Bach, Mrs. Helen Feather, Mrs. Nancy Felder and Sherrill Overturn.

B. H. Crandall, Earl Foerster and Ted Swanner were named to the tax equalization board which will meet from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. June 27 in the school administrative offices. Supt. McClesky gave the board a gloomy assessment of the outlook for the school's finances, mentioning preliminary budget figures which would leave the school operating approximately $30,000 in the red by the end of next school year, even though projected budget figures were cut in many vital areas from this year's expenditures, including cuts in some programs certain to arouse displeasure among school patrons. He explained that rising costs of operations, plus increases in the amount of the total costs that must be paid by the local district, plus increases in specific items over which the school has no control combined to bring the dismal financial outlook.

It was noted that the first preliminary budget drawn up to meet the requests of various departments of the school would have shown a deficit of about $15,000 in a single year of operation. McClesky gave some suggested figures for next year which would mean paring some programs to compensate for other increases "over which we have no control, such as utilities." Cuts in vocational, athletic and band budgets were among those discussed. It was noted that the increased cost of insurance alone would add about $5,000 to next year's expenses.

Officially the budget will not be considered by the board until August, but the superintendent said he felt the board needed to be advised of the outlook.

McClesky reported that work is about completed on a new door to the cafeteria at junior high. The Classroom Teachers Assn. is assisting on financing this project.

Rainfall Just Right For Crops In Slaton Area

Nearly two inches of rain was recorded in Slaton during the last week, and higher amounts were measured in some areas near the city, bringing smiles to the faces of farmers and those who depend on agriculture economically.

On Saturday, 1.40 inches of rain fell, followed by .30 on Sunday and another .10 on Monday and Tuesday. This brought the total rainfall for the year here to 9.55 inches.

Yards and rights-of-way blossomed out with grass and weeds after the good rains, and young cotton flourished in the rains. Farmers generally agreed that the rains were "just right" and some said they wouldn't need to water for some time now. Dry land acreage was especially benefitted too by the rains.

One man who farms near Gordon said that area received more than 3 inches of rain and the moisture was a boon to dry land cotton in the vicinity.

Governor of the State of Washington Daniel J. Evans proclaimed Friday June 18, 1972 as "Mrs. John Bruce Dodd Day" in honor of the 90th birthday of the founder of Father's Day.

The first Father's Day was observed by the churches of Spokane, Washington, in 1910, at the instigation of Mrs. Dodd, who was motivated by a desire to pay a special tribute to her father, through a day dedicated to all fathers.

Burglaries Of Autos In Slaton Reported

An outbreak of auto burglaries during the last week broke a period of several days of relative quiet on the crime front in Slaton as four persons reported loss of items from their vehicles. All of the incidents were reported as happening Saturday night.

Walter Arrant, 1155 S. 4th, said someone broke a glass on his 1968 model car and took items valued at a total of $314. Listed as stolen from the car were an eight-track tape player and tapes, a set of Rogers Silverware, blanket, sheets, men's and women's pajamas, two wigs and an overnight case.

Bobbie Hildebrande, 1140 S. 7th, reported loss of clothing items totaling $54, including ski parka and blue jeans.

Billy W. Anzley, 620 Edwards, said a tool box and tools and cassette tapes and recorder were stolen from his pickup. Total loss was estimated at $270.

Hilton Ray Merriman, 930 S. 18th, said tapes valued at $24.40 were stolen from his 1967 car.

Brack West, 940 Johnson, complained that his car parked at a barber shop in 600-block of New Mexico, was damaged by an unknown object wielded by vandals Saturday night. Damage was estimated at $40.

Jack Kuykendall, manager of a service station on S. 9th, said his gasoline pump was damaged to the extent of $200 when a boat and trailer came loose from a pickup driven by Arthur Sage, Rt. 2, Slaton, and struck the pump. The boat also suffered $200 damage.

A break-in at Evans Multi-Service Center resulted in no loss, and an estimated $40 worth of candy and gum were taken in a burglary of a store operated by Paul Steel at 860 Arizona on June 7.

Water In Gopher Hole Worth C-Note

A Slaton man who asserted that a city water tank overflowed and ran over for part of two days before it was noticed and shut off. A dirt cellar belonging to Garcia and located at Murray and 4th Sts. filled with water. Since it also rained heavily during the same time, city officials went to the scene, deliberately overflowed the tank again and watched the course of the water. They discovered that a hole made by a gopher or ground squirrel diverted the water from its overflow course into Garcia's cellar.

The city attorney had advised that the city was not legally responsible unless they had known in advance that the gopher hole was there. But commissioners agreed that Garcia had some justification in his complaint and voted to give him the money and aid.

The city commissioners voted to buy a new small maintenance, trading in a machine described as "plain worn out" by street superintendent Grady Elder. The machine ordered is a Gallon, six-cylinder gasoline-powered model. Purchase price is $12,695 less $2,195 for the old maintainer.

Commissioners discussed at length tentative plans for annexation of some areas in the northern section of the city where some firms are getting some city services but are not paying taxes. Mayor Tomlinson pointed out that some other firms inside the city limits are getting the same limited services but are paying taxes. Representatives of two companies which would be affected by the action was on hand to question the city officials about the proposals.

One visitor, James Hall of Lubbock, said he had completed paperwork on buying a business here at 4 p.m. Tuesday, and at 4:30 had learned that the city was talking of annexing the area which includes his business. Hall explained that he was not registering any sort of protest at this time, but merely wanted to learn about the situation as it might affect his firm, G&H Castings. "We want the city of Slaton to be proud of us, and we want to make a contribution to the city," he said.

Hall mentioned plans for possible expansion of his company, which employs about 35 persons.

Mayor Tomlinson explained

to Hall and to Kenneth Cornelius, representing Red Barn Chemicals that any annexation would require notification and more than one session; also that no taxes would be paid by newly-annexed businesses until at least 1973. Also, he said the equalization board probably would not assess taxes at a full rate on firms which do not receive full services from the city.

Cornelius indicated that the cost of complying with new federal safety rules would be higher for his company inside the city limits than if it remained outside.

The matter of annexation will be placed on the July 11 agenda for the city, Tomlinson told the group, asking that representatives of the companies involved be on hand at that time.

Named to the board of tax equalization for the city were Bart Diaz, B. A. Hanna and L. A. Harral. The equalization board will meet from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. on June 27 at city hall.

Principal In Knifing Case Here No-Billed

Robert Griffin, 80, of Slaton, accused in the May 9 knifing death of Eddy Johnson, 64, also of Slaton, was no-billed by the grand jury in Lubbock Monday. The 72nd District Court grand jury refused to return an indictment against Griffin, who was taken into custody at the scene of Johnson's death. Griffin told officers he slashed Johnson after Johnson had cut him during an argument.

Johnson was found dead and lying on the ground at the scene of the fight on New Mexico St. Griffin was hospitalized for knife wounds after the incident.

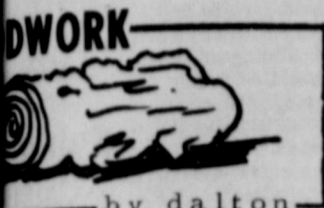

to Hall and to Kenneth Cornelius, representing Red Barn Chemicals that any annexation would require notification and more than one session; also that no taxes would be paid by newly-annexed businesses until at least 1973. Also, he said the equalization board probably would not assess taxes at a full rate on firms which do not receive full services from the city.

Put Two Fruits in Pie

Sometimes two fruits in a pie are better than one. Blueberries add very special goodness to apple pies. The half cup of blueberries in this Apple Blueberry pie adds subtle flavor goodness and gives the pie an appealing rosy-red color. Corn starch delicately thickens the sweet juices.

1 cup sugar
3 tablespoons corn starch
1/2 teaspoon salt
5 medium size tart apples, pared, cut into thin wedges
1/2 cup blueberries

Sprinkle with second 1/3 of corn starch mixture. Add remaining fruit and end by sprinkling last 1/3 of corn starch mixture on permit escape of steam. Cover pie with top crust; seal and flute edge. Bake in a 375° F. (moderate) oven 1 hour or until crust is brown and apples are tender. Makes 1 (9-inch) pie.

Swimming, baseball, circus time. . . it is sure again! It would be nice if that was all we had to forget about working. How about? . . . go to the lake (boat) go camping, (try to pitch a tent) mow the lawn (on the mower) go fishing, (work on the boat again) picnic (WHO has to fix all that food?) go to visit somebody has to do the washing and ironing). . . can't go for fun and relaxation without somebody else having to do a lot of work and preparations before, and afterward. There ought to be a pre-knit with disposable clothes, disposable dirty papers, disposable foods, maid service, etc. . . . If the going is to have so much "fun".

I've been camping myself, so I really might enjoy it. I don't know. Even with hot humid weather, bugs, mosquitoes, makeshift cookstoves, outdoor toilets, loads of gear, no fish, rain, and a couple of dozen other things, some folks seem to find time to enjoy it. Maybe it is just the "getting away from it all" that is so much fun. Guess I will have to try it once.

Boys in Pee Wee League baseball are finishing up this week. The Red Sox meet the Cubs today and the Pirates and Braves play tomorrow. They will be playing at the Little League park. This will be the "under the lights" for most of the youngsters. The parents have picnics or parties for the youngsters.

League teams finish off with their last game set for the major leagues play out June 30. These young men play some exciting games. Nearing the end of the season should be some fierce competition.

FDA seeks changes in cooking ranges

The Food and Drug Administration's Bureau of Product Safety is seeking changes in gas and electric cooking ranges, which are responsible for an estimated 100,000 burn accidents annually, or about a fifth of all injuries from home appliances. The bureau, whose Injury Study Units in Boston recently completed an investigation involving 20 burn victims, has asked representatives of Underwriters' Laboratories, the Association of Home Appliance Manufacturers and the Gas Appliance Manufacturers Association to consider three improvements in ranges to reduce burn accidents:

1. Relocation of control knobs to prevent them from being turned on accidentally.
2. Relocation of signal lights to provide a more effective warning that burners are on.
3. A method of ensuring that a person uses the proper size burner to eliminate the risk of the exposed part of the burner causing clothing (or the potholder) to catch fire.

The agency is seeking voluntary improvements by manufacturers because Congress has passed no laws about safety of ranges.

To prevent an accumulation of wax, use a remover about twice a year. Clean only small areas of the floor at a time. The cleaning solution should not dry on the floor before it is wiped up and the floor rinsed.

Also, it is not necessary to apply wax all the way to the baseboards with each waxing. Since there is little wear along the wall, application of wax to within 12 inches of the wall usually is quite sufficient.

Hosting the anniversary celebration will be the Denzer's children, including: Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Ehler and five children: Mrs. D. J. Hlavaty and five children of Cooper; Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Retirement doesn't always come easy. The job and the office hours Grandpa gets it if he is talented and grandchildren may stop in and provide plenty for grandpa and grandma to do. Some people don't retire at all; they stop working and devote all their time and attention to the family. Problem is that it is difficult for grandpa to say "no" when pa does not have to give up things he likes to do in order to work for needed family income. It is not always a problem. Some grandmothers like nothing better than to take over the grandchildren completely. This can present another situation -- if mother and grandmother have different ideas about child rearing. Grandpa gets it if he is talented in any way. If he can "fix" things, he gets the call from family members, not the carpenter, the plumber, the TV repair shop. Here again, this is great -- it's togetherness -- so long as the requests are reasonable and grandpa does not have to give up things he likes to do in order to take care of family needs. Retirement should be "living as you like it." Retirement is earned time. Do with it what you wish, what you can afford. Whatever you do, find some time in retirement that is your very own and enjoy it.

Surface Transportation Act Should Benefit All Texans

During the past two years, many events have drawn the nation's attention to a growing transportation crisis. The nation's biggest railroad went into bankruptcy. America's Sound Transportation Review Organization issued a report on the state of America's railroads and what must be done to strengthen them. Finally, the regulated water and motor carriers and the railroads joined in urging immediate passage of a proposal known as the Surface Transportation Act of 1971. This Act provides a new approach to problems and for the establishment of broad new public policies relative to the regulated surface carriers.

An indication of the extent to which these events in the transportation industry have drawn public attention can be seen in a lengthy article in the American Legion Magazine. It deals primarily with "The Terrible Condition of America's Freight Railroads"; but, in something less than book form, it does a magnificent job of telling the entire transportation story in nutshell form. It shows the utter dependence of the nation upon railroads. It shows the catastrophic consequences to taxpayers that would speedily follow railroad nationalization. It reviews the principal points of the Surface Transportation Act of 1971 which it describes as "... a unified plan for surface transportation in the United States that promises to put the entire transportation industry on a firm, profitable footing."

Texas are dependent upon the transportation system, as manufacturing and agricultural centers are located a long distance from the principal markets they serve. It appears essential to our financial health that proposals such as those contained in the Surface Transportation Act be passed soon.

To qualify for the honor list, a student must be enrolled in 12 semester hours of courses, excluding pass-fall courses, and have at least a 3.0 grade point average. Texas Tech uses a 4.0 grading system.

Major League Sets Tie-Breaking Game

Tuesday saw both the Lions Club and Slaton Co-Op score all their runs in the fifth and sixth innings with the Lions Club coming out ahead 7-5. Tim Bourn and Steve Woods each collected two hits with Bourn's three runs batted in being the deciding factor in the game. Billy Daniels hit a two-run double for Slaton Co-op.

Tennis Tourney Slated July 4

A tennis tournament sponsored by Slaton Rotary Club has been planned July 4 as part of the community-wide activities scheduled in the park for the holiday. Also planned are a burger stand by Knights of Columbus and a ping pong tournament. Other activities also are to be held, but details have not yet been announced.

Because the tournament is restricted to one day, only four divisions will be held. Singles will be offered for boys and girls up to age 14, and doubles will be held for men and women from age 14 through 100, according to tournament director Dalton Wood. No division will be held with fewer than four players or teams.

Trophies will be given in each division. Entrants must pay $1.50 each, and tennis balls will be supplied. Those wishing to enter must contact Wood at 6336 or 6201 by noon Thursday, June 29. Only players from Slaton or a 10-mile radius will be eligible.

ITEM: This summer, the "soft environment" is the new concept in house furnishings and accessories that give a mood of comfort, quiet, and easy living. Carpeting, comfortable furniture, quilted fabrics, durable press and no-iron draperies, muted colors - all are part of the soft look.

Wednesday, the Trainmen continued their winning ways by beating VFW 6-3. Irving Washington hit a triple and two singles to lead the Trainmen's nine-hit attack. Jack Whaley's double was one of only three hits for the VFW nine.

Teague Drug kept a tie for first place by beating Slaton Co-op Thursday 7-0 with Barry Copeland and Phil Bruedigam pitching their second straight no-hitter of the week. Bruedigam also hit two doubles to drive in three runs. A big six-run second inning was all the support the two pitchers for Teague Drug needed.

On Friday, June 9, Hackberry Co-op ran over the Lions Club by the score of 14-2. Hackberry was leading by only 5-2 going into the sixth inning when they exploded for nine runs. The Lions Club could muster only three singles all night off pitcher Don Taylor. Hackberry rapped out nine hits and received eight bases on balls to keep pressure on the Lions Club all night.

Randy Cisneros and Wayne Heinrich each collected two hits with Heinrich's triple the longest hit of the night.

Monday, June 12, was the show-down date between the two first place teams but the weather won this game. It was rescheduled for Wednesday, June 14, as part of a double-header.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

Booby Trap for Trespassers

"NO TRESPASSING" signs, posted on Harper's farm, failed to discourage teenagers in the neighborhood from stealing his apples. Finally he set a booby trap in the form of a spring gun, cocked and ready to fire.

Sure enough, that very night a trespassing youth touched off the gun and received a bullet in the leg.

In due course, the victim filed suit against Harper for damages. At the trial, the latter insisted he had a right to use force to protect his property against intruders who were bent on mischief.

But the court held that the method he had chosen was too drastic, merely for the prevention of petty theft. The judge said deadly weapons could not be used when there was no personal danger to either the property owner or his family.

Generally speaking, a property owner cannot use greater force by means of a booby trap than he could use if he were on the scene in person. Even vicious dogs, left at large, have been frowned upon as a kind of booby trap.

"A savage dog," observed one judge, "is a dangerous instrument."

Nonetheless, milder measures may be justified. Take this case: A suburban home owner, tired of having trespassers tramping across his lawn, stretched a barbed wire fence from a corner of his house to a corner of the lot.

Not long afterward, a man was hurt trying to scale the fence. Suing for damages, he charged that such a fence was "meant to injure people."

But the court decided that the fence, with its barbs in plain sight, was meant simply to make trespassing more difficult - a perfectly legitimate purpose for a property owner.

It is worth mention, however, that this particular fence was not placed alongside a public sidewalk. In some communities, that would be forbidden by local ordinance. Reason: too much chance of injuring an innocent passerby.

A public service feature of the American Bar Association and the State Bar of Texas. Written by Will Bernard.

Dash Event Won By Slaton Youth

Irwin Washington of Slaton won the 300-yard dash in a special statewide track meet for students with learning problems at San Antonio last weekend. Washington ran the 300 in 48.8, nine seconds faster than the second place finisher.

Duane Mitchell and Judy Overturf, sponsors for the group of eight who went to the meet from Slaton, said Washington qualifies for the National Special Olympics, but since the entry list is limited to 69 Texas boys, it was uncertain as to whether he would be invited.

Washington also won second in the 50-yard dash, Edward Bailey of Slaton was second in junior high high-jump and Timothy Beck was third in elementary level standing broad jump. John Wright was fourth in mile run. Also participating were Mitchell Rogers, Rafael Medrano, Tony Gonzales and Leo Tutson.

It was the first year Slaton has entered the event, which drew 1400 entries. Mitchell said he plans to participate next year also.

Fix-It Tip

Treads (the part of the step you put your feet on) on an outdoor stairway are attached to the stringer by cleats fastened to the inside of the stringer or by grooves cut into the stringer.

Loose cleats can be tightened with new screws. Badly damaged or decayed cleats should be replaced. If the wood around grooves has started to splinter or decay, reinforce with cleats.

Treads should be replaced if badly worn. If a tread is worn slightly at the center, get extra wear out of it by turning it over.

Hamburgers,--The Great American Favorite Food

Regardless of its foreign origin -- and the hamburger is supposed to have originated in Hamburg, Germany, in 1891 -- there is no question but what it has become as American as the Fourth of July and apple pie. There are so many variations, perhaps not including those you make yourself, that complete books have been written on the subject.

No matter how you serve your hamburgers, it's important to realize that their finished goodness depends on the beginning, the base from which you build. In other words the bun itself, because no matter what the filling, it misses being a mouth-watering delight if the bun is not all that a good bun should be -- fresh, flavorful and high quality.

Many youngsters, cranky in their eating habits, prefer their hamburger with just a meat patty and perhaps a little mustard or catsup, but for those teenagers and adults who are venturesome, there are myriad ways to "build" a hamburger and with some, the more we put in, the better it gets. They might enjoy only a few additions such as lettuce and tomatoes with mayonnaise or relish or they might go all the way with a slice of cheese, chopped onion or a nice large slice of onion, catsup, lettuce and tomato and dill pickle slices. The result is a concoction so large one wonders how the mouth might get around it, but one that's tasteful and practically a meal in itself.

Here's a combination you may not have tried:

CHEESEBURGER TOWERS
 2 pounds ground beef
 1/4 cup finely chopped onion
 1 tablespoon prepared mustard
 1 tablespoon worcestershire sauce
 1 1/2 teaspoons prepared horseradish salt and pepper

 6 slices process American cheese
 6 hamburger buns, split and toasted

Combine meat, onion and seasonings; shape into 12 patties a little less than 1/2-inch thick. Cook in lightly greased skillet about 6 minutes, turning once-broil if you prefer. With cookie cutter, cut a 2-inch round from center of each cheese slice. Place half the meat patties on toasted buns; add cheese slice filling the hole in the cheese with catsup, mustard or barbecue or hamburger relish. Top with remaining meat patties and cheese rounds.

Or try a Smoky Cheeseburger: Prepare 6 meat patties and while they cook, combine one 5-ounce jar smoky cheese spread, 1 tablespoon pickle relish and 2 teaspoons prepared mustard; spread on top half of 6 split hamburger buns. Broil 1 to 2 minutes or till cheese bubbles and buns toast. Put buns together with a meat patty in each.

Have you ever considered the versatility of the hamburger bun for other purposes? Split and toasted, it makes a great base for creamed foods or Sloppy Joes to be eaten with knife and fork. Because of the shape, what better for a fried egg and ham sandwich? With weiners, clip at one-inch intervals almost through so they will curl up as they cook and they are just right for a bun, with a center which can be filled with sauerkraut or baked beans with a topping of hot dog relish.

And for individual pizzas, they're perfect. Try this variation:

PIZZA
 1 pound ground beef
 1 1/2 cups cheese
 1 6-ounce jar
 1 teaspoon
 6 hamburger
 1/4 teaspoon onion rings
 arella cheese
 Cook beef until beef and onions
 tomato paste
 Bring to boil

Don't Be Taken In Before You Take Off!

Planning a vacation? Up, up and away—make sure it's you and not your money! Many travelers have fallen victim to phony travel promotions.

The most common scheme is promoted through extensive advertising or direct solicitation of groups, such as teachers or government employees, and especially students. The offer may include round-trip fare, accommodations and additional services at bargain rates.

The fraudulent promoter requires a deposit or even the total price in advance. He accepts only cash and rarely gives you a receipt. Once he has collected from a sufficient number of victims, he'll disappear without a trace, and you're stuck—no vacation and no money!

Be careful when taking charter flights! While many are true savings for group tours, some turn out to be nothing but traps. One travel agent has booked flights resulting in the stranding of 1,100 passengers and loss of nearly $500,000! Check with several travel agencies before making final arrangements.

WHAT'S A HOUSEWIFE TO DO?

BY JULIE FONTAINE

Harm Lurks In Home Chores

We are aware that so many products we use in our normal daily household chores are potentially harmful. Take the new phosphate-free detergents, for instance. Every one is alkaline to a degree. That's why their informative labeling is such a welcome contribution to mothers with small children and their little friends who come visiting. The front panels bear the warning "CAUTION: May Be Harmful To Eyes," or "CAUTION: May Be Harmful If Swallowed." Back or side panels tell us what to do in case of accident.

But we must remember tiny toddlers can't read! These warnings were meant for US! We have been using dangerous substances for years in the form of lye, bleaches, ammonia and other cleaning chemicals. Keeping ALL household cleaning chemicals out of the reach of children is a rule we absolutely must follow for their precious safety and well-being!

Once aware of the hazards, then the routine use of phosphate-free detergents makes even more sense. Used correctly, the wash comes out clean and bright. And, very importantly, our waterways will be just a little less polluted.

88TH BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION—Mrs. A. Wilke was the guest of honor at a party June 10, celebrating her 88th birthday. Six of her children were with her for the party held in Slaton Club House. A big birthday cake was baked for her by one of her granddaughters and it was decorated in white and orange. Orange punch was served and other orange decorations were used on the serving tables. Mrs. Wilke has 8 living children, (1 deceased), 27 grandchildren, 48 great-grandchildren and 1 great-great-grandchild. Approximately 87 relatives and friends attended from Bartlett, Littlefield, Mercedes, Morton, Artesia, New Mexico, Wilson, Southland, Idalou, Crosbyton, Lewisville, Kingsland, Houston, and Slaton.

Local Students at LCC

LCC is a small, private senior college offering BA and BS degrees in 17 majors. Registration for the second summer session begins July 11.

First Newspaper

Probably the first newspaper was Tsing Pao, a court journal published in Peking, China. It is said to have started as early as the 500s and was continued until 1935. At first, it was produced from carved blocks instead of type.

Ellen Rogers

FT. MC CLELLAN, ALA.—Pvt. Ellen L. Rogers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman A. Herzog of Slaton, recently completed eight weeks of basic training at the Women's Army Corps Center, Ft. McClellan, Ala.

RETURN FROM TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. Billy L. Reed, Debbie and Curtis, recently returned home from a vacation trip through parts of Texas, Arkansas, Tennessee, Missouri and Oklahoma.

In Texas they visited Fort Worth Zoo and had lunch in Dallas.

In Hope, Arkansas, they looked up some friends.

When the Reeds got to Tennessee, they visited Mr. and Mrs. Wendell L. Reed, son of Billy Reed, where he is stationed at the Naval Base in Millington, Tenn.

The Reed family enjoyed plenty of fishing. They attended the Dog Races and the Riverside Speedway Stock Car Drag Races in West Memphis. They also visited and toured "Elvis Presley," and his mansion, located on "Elvis Presley Blvd." in Memphis, Tenn. They saw the "Memphis Delta Queen," a large boat located on the Mississippi River.

They took the ferry across the Mississippi River to the State of Missouri. In St. Louis they visited Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hardcastle and family, sister of Mrs. Reed.

Other spots they visited were "Six Flags Over Mid-America," and Chrysler Motor Inc., where there are twenty-thousand men employed around the clock.

Happy Homemaking

When raveling any hand-knit garment, wind the crinkly yarn on a wire coat hanger with the curved ends pushed in. Then sud the wood (still on the hanger) and hang by the hook to dry. Rewind and reknit. Wool so washed has no tangles and is like new.

If you like to knit socks, knit the toe with a different color yarn. When a hole appears, it is quite simple to ravel these stitches and reknit a new toe instead of darning.

LIVING- AS YOU LIKE IT

...and get more from the GOOD YEARS

By Francis Noguet

How is it possible, a friend asked, to effectively plan for the retirement years when the only certainty is that the cost of living will be higher from year to year? The best answer we can give is that planning for retirement is not a cut-and-dried proposition. There must be flexibility. There must be allowances for unforeseen circumstances.

The cost of living does continue upward. This consideration should be made in budget planning. Some compensation can be made in view of the fact that certain expenses related to job-holding will reduce spending.

How reliable is the Consumer Price Index issued monthly by the U.S. Department of Labor? It is a guide. A study of the index over the past few years, and a reasonable evaluation of current trends, will be helpful.

The Consumer Price Index, however, does not present a perfect picture of the cost of living. The government bases the index on the prices paid for some 400 basic items. These items have changed since 1951, and are frequently upgraded. For example, when the index began, TV sets were not listed. What this means, simply, is that the Consumer Price Index measures the cost of maintaining a standard of living, rather than the actual cost of living.

Base your retirement plans upon the standard of living you can best afford. If you need a new TV, will it have to be color? When you buy food, can you afford the best cuts in meat? Can you pay extra for packaging, for preparation (such as cut chicken parts) costs incurred by the supplier?

Set your own standards, make a good plan, with a few allowances for the unexpected. That's the best way.

Guides Given For Hail Damaged Cotton

LUBBOCK. Hail hits a portion of the South Plains cotton crop each year, and some producers must face the decision whether to replant or just hold on to the injured stand of earlier cotton.

This year, the problem is especially serious because of the shortage of good quality planting seed after a poor crop in 1971.

"Several factors such as growth stage, type and extent of injury and seasonal conditions must be considered in making decision to replant," says Dr. Bob Metzger, Extension area cotton specialist for Texas A&M University.

He says that producers often wonder how much stands can be reduced and still give normal yields. Several years of research have shown that only two seedlings per foot in 40-inch rows will still give optimum yields.

"In fact, no yield difference was obtained with plant populations ranging from 25,000-65,000 plants per acre, or two to five seedlings per foot of row," he reports.

Metzger explains that a hail storm can reduce the plant population to only two seedlings per row foot, and there is still no reason to replant unless the remaining crop is poorly distributed or there are long skips.

The specialist has some suggestions for evaluating hail damage. Most important, producers should not make a snap decision immediately after a storm.

"It will always appear much worse than the actual damage at this time," Metzger says, "a cotton seedling has a number of buds that provide a remarkable capacity to recover in a short time."

He also says the entire field should be examined to determine if the injury is widespread. Whether a field should be replanted depends on the area receiving the most severe injury.

The plants should be examined to determine the number of leaves or traces of leaves still attached to the stalk.

"A plant having only traces of leaves will still recover better than one with no leaves," Metzger says. But he emphasizes that a stand with no leaves can still make a crop.

If the stem is intact, free of large breaks and the seedling has sound buds, recovery is still possible although it will be slower than plants having at least some leaves.

If the producer decides not to replant, a sandfighter should be run as soon as possible to prevent sand injury to vital buds or stubs left in the field. Metzger says that any regrowth hinges on either the sound terminal bud (the growing point) or axillary bud located at the point of leaf attachment.

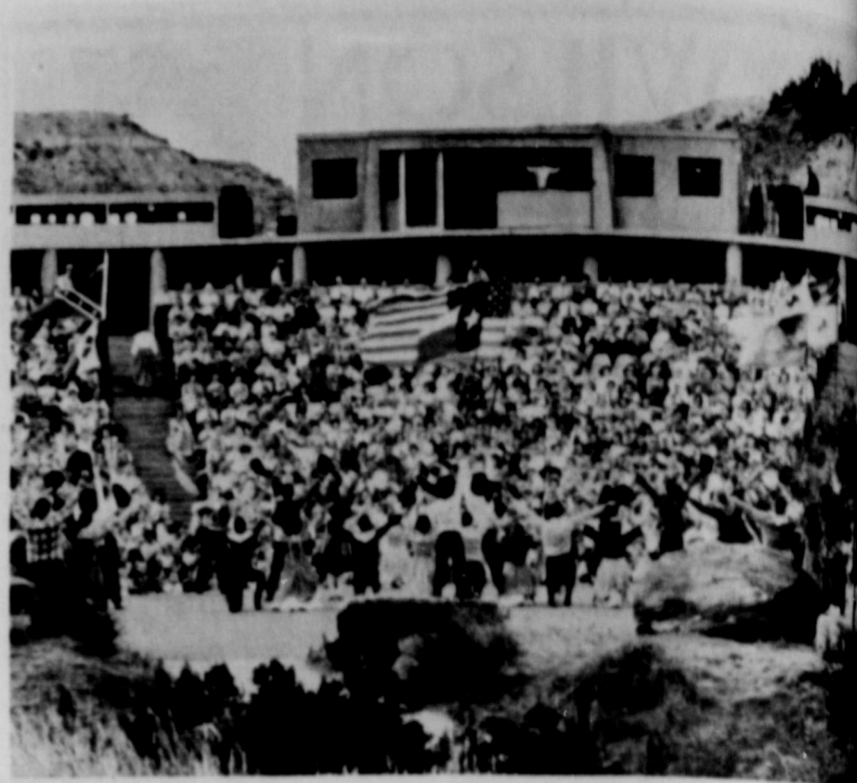

If the terminal bud is destroyed, then the axillary buds become active and begin growth. After sandfighting, the producer should cultivate immediately.

The specialist emphasizes that hail injury in May or June will cause less yield losses than damage in July and August. "If the damage is suffered early, a crop can recover to the point that the injured plants are difficult to distinguish from undamaged plants," he adds. Also young cotton that survives early hail damage is often more mature at first frost than a crop that has been replanted.

"When a crop is totally destroyed, the producer has no choice but to replant, especially if the damage is early in the season," Metzger says. But in most hail storms, the crop is usually only partially injured.

FOR PETE'S SAKE!

8 p.m. - June 19
First Baptist Church

here's a progress report from Santa Fe that it's much, much more like the end of a beginning.

MORE POWER
We're adding 52 new giant diesels and rebuilding 50 older units to provide a locomotive fleet producing over 3,850,000 horsepower.

BETTER SERVICE
Run through trains with connecting railroads link -- east, west, and southwest and save hours moving through Santa Fe's electronic classification yard in Kansas City.

MORE CARS
1910 additional cars are coming in 1972, including 100 giant refrigerated hopper cars for in-bulk movement of potatoes, oranges and other perishables.

BETTER PIGGY-BACK
We're expanding Piggy-Back and container service all along the Santa Fe to handle increasing domestic and international shipments.

MORE TERMINALS
Santa Fe's new million dollar rail and truck terminal has now been completed at Houston, Texas to meet expanding truck, Piggy-Back and container traffic.

BETTER IDEAS
An expanding microwave network linked to our data system for car tracing and locomotive utilization, and plans for the development of a unique coaxial train for moving containers are just a few of the new ideas at work on the Santa Fe.

MORE and BETTER are key words at Santa Fe. What we're doing, is why we say so too: over $100 million this year in railway capital expenditures. One billion last 10 years. Two billion since World War II.

The railroad industry and the Nation need sensible transport regulatory administered with an even hand. We can take it from there -- into a new era of the end of the beginning!
